[7] É claro que os padrões de Deus não haviam mudado. Prova disso é que o novo pacto manteve o espírito da Lei mosaica. (Mat. 22:36-40) No que se refere à circuncisão, por exemplo, Paulo escreveu mais tarde: "Judeu é aquele que o é no íntimo, e a sua circuncisão é a do coração, por espírito, e não por um código escrito." (Rom. 2:29; Deut. 10:16) Os "certos homens" da Judeia não tinham compreendido essas verdades e afirmavam que Deus não havia cancelado a lei da circuncisão. Será que eles dariam ouvidos à razão?

"Dissensão e disputa" (Atos 15:2)

[8] Lucas continuou: "Quando havia ocorrido não pouca dissensão e disputa com eles da parte de Paulo e Barnabé, [os anciãos] providenciaram que Paulo

---

7. Que verdades "certos homens" não haviam compreendido?

8. Por que a questão da circuncisão foi levada ao corpo governante em Jerusalém?

e Barnabé, e alguns outros deles, subissem até os apóstolos e anciãos em Jerusalém, com respeito a esta disputa."* (Atos 15:2) Aquela "dissensão e disputa" refletia fortes sentimentos e convicções de ambos os lados, e a congregação em Antioquia não conseguiu resolver a controvérsia. A fim de preservar a paz e a união, a congregação sabiamente providenciou que a questão fosse levada aos "apóstolos e anciãos em Jerusalém", que formavam o corpo governante. O que podemos aprender dos anciãos em Antioquia?

9 Uma lição valiosa que aprendemos é que precisamos confiar na organização de Deus. Considere o seguinte: os irmãos em Antioquia sabiam que o corpo governante era composto inteiramente de cristãos de formação judaica. Mesmo assim, eles confiavam que aqueles irmãos resolveriam a questão da circuncisão em harmonia com as Escrituras. Por quê? A congregação confiava que Jeová orientaria os assuntos por meio do espírito santo e do Cabeça da congregação cristã,

* Tito, um cristão grego que mais tarde se tornou amigo de confiança e mensageiro de Paulo, parece ter sido um dos irmãos enviados. (Gál. 2:1; Tito 1:4) Esse homem era um excelente exemplo de um gentio incircunciso ungido pelo espírito santo. — Gál. 2:3.

9, 10. De que maneira os irmãos em Antioquia, bem como Paulo e Barnabé, deixaram um excelente exemplo para nós?

Jesus Cristo. (Mat. 28:18, 20; Efé. 1:22, 23) Atualmente, quando surgirem questões sérias, imitemos o excelente exemplo dos cristãos em Antioquia por confiarmos na organização de Deus e no seu Corpo Governante de cristãos ungidos.

[10] Também somos lembrados do valor da humildade e da paciência. Paulo e Barnabé tinham sido designados diretamente pelo espírito santo para ir às nações, mas não lançaram mão dessa autoridade para resolver o assunto da circuncisão ali em Antioquia. (Atos 13:2, 3) Além disso, Paulo escreveu mais tarde: "[Eu] subi [a Jerusalém] em resultado duma revelação", indicando que tinha recebido orientação de Deus sobre o assunto. (Gál. 2:2) Os anciãos hoje se esforçam para ter a mesma atitude humilde e paciente quando surgem assuntos que podem causar divisão. Em vez de insistirem em suas próprias opiniões, eles buscam a Jeová por consultar as Escrituras e as instruções e orientações fornecidas pelo escravo fiel. — Fil. 2:2, 3.

[11] Em alguns casos, talvez tenhamos de esperar que Jeová esclareça determinado assunto. Lembre-se de que os irmãos na época de Paulo tiveram de esperar até por volta de 49 EC — uns 13 anos depois de Cornélio ter sido ungido em 36 EC — antes de Jeová dar uma solução definitiva para a questão da circuncisão dos gentios. Por que tanto tempo? Talvez Deus quisesse dar tempo suficiente para que judeus sinceros se ajustassem a essa mudança tão grande de conceito. Afinal, o pacto da circuncisão feito com Abraão, amado antepassado deles, durou 1.900 anos, e o fim desse pacto com certeza não era um assunto de pouca importância. — João 16:12.

11, 12. Por que é importante esperar em Jeová?

12 É um grande privilégio ser instruído e moldado por nosso paciente e bondoso Pai celestial! Os resultados são sempre bons e para nosso benefício. (Isa. 48:17, 18; 64:8) Assim, que nós nunca insistamos presunçosamente em nossas próprias ideias nem reajamos de modo negativo a mudanças organizacionais ou a ajustes no entendimento de certos textos bíblicos. (Ecl. 7:8) Caso você perceba em si mesmo nem que seja uma pequena tendência de reagir assim, por que não medita com oração nos princípios oportunos encontrados no capítulo 15 do livro de Atos?*

* Veja o quadro “As Testemunhas de Jeová baseiam suas crenças na Bíblia”, na página 201.

‘AS TESTEMUNHAS DE JEOVÁ BASEIAM SUAS CRENÇAS NA BÍBLIA’

Conforme amplamente demonstrado no caso da congregação cristã do primeiro século, a história da adoração verdadeira é um registro de contínuo esclarecimento espiritual. (Pro. 4:18; Dan. 12:4, 9, 10; Atos 15:7-9) Hoje também o povo de Jeová ajusta suas crenças à verdade revelada da Bíblia; eles não tentam fazer com que as Escrituras se ajustem a seus pontos de vista. Observadores imparciais reconhecem esse fato. Em seu livro Truth in Translation (Verdade e Tradução), Jason David BeDuhn, professor-associado de estudos religiosos da Universidade do Norte do Arizona nos Estados Unidos, escreveu que as Testemunhas de Jeová encaram a Bíblia “com uma certa candura, . . . baseando seu sistema de crenças e práticas na própria Bíblia sem tentar determinar o que ela deveria dizer”.

[13] Talvez precisemos ter paciência ao estudar a Bíblia com pessoas que acham difícil abandonar crenças falsas ou costumes antibíblicos que prezam há muito tempo. Nesses casos, pode ser necessário dar tempo para que o espírito de Deus atue no coração do estudante. (1 Cor. 3:6, 7) Também será bom fazer disso

13. Como podemos refletir a paciência de Jeová em nosso ministério?

assunto de oração. De uma maneira ou de outra e no momento certo, Deus nos ajudará a saber qual o melhor caminho a seguir. — 1 João 5:14.

Relataram "em pormenores" notícias animadoras (Atos 15:3-5)

[14] A narrativa de Lucas continua: "Depois de serem acompanhados parte do caminho pela congregação, estes homens continuaram viagem, tanto através da Fenícia como através de Samaria, relatando em pormenores a conversão de pessoas das nações, e eles estavam causando grande alegria a todos os irmãos." (Atos 15:3) O fato de a congregação ter acompanhado Paulo, Barnabé e os outros viajantes parte do caminho foi um ato de amor cristão que honrou esses irmãos, mostrando que a congregação lhes desejava as bênçãos de Deus. Mais uma vez os irmãos em Antioquia estabeleceram um excelente exemplo para nós. Você honra seus irmãos espirituais, "especialmente os [anciãos] que trabalham arduamente no falar e no ensinar"? — 1 Tim. 5:17.

[15] No caminho, os viajantes mostraram ser uma bênção para seus irmãos espirituais na Fenícia e em

---

14, 15. Como a congregação em Antioquia honrou Paulo, Barnabé e os irmãos que viajaram com eles, e como esses homens mostraram ser uma bênção para seus irmãos espirituais?

Samaria por contar "em pormenores" o que estava acontecendo no campo gentio. Entre os ouvintes possivelmente havia cristãos judeus que tinham fugido para aquelas regiões depois do martírio de Estêvão. Da mesma forma hoje, relatórios de como Jeová está abençoando a obra de fazer discípulos são uma fonte de encorajamento para nossos irmãos, especialmente para aqueles que sofrem provações. Você tira pleno proveito desses relatórios por assistir às reuniões cristãs, às assembleias e aos congressos, bem como por ler casos da vida real e biografias em nossas publicações?

16 Depois de viajar uns 550 quilômetros para o sul, aquele grupo de Antioquia finalmente chegou a seu destino. Lucas escreveu: "Chegando a Jerusalém, foram recebidos benevolamente pela congregação e pelos apóstolos e anciãos, e eles narraram as muitas coisas que Deus tinha feito por meio deles." (Atos 15:4) "Alguns dos da seita dos fariseus, que haviam crido", porém, "levantaram-se dos seus assentos e disseram: 'É necessário circuncidá-los e adverti-los que observem a lei de Moisés.'" (Atos 15:5) Obviamente, a questão da circuncisão

---

16. O que mostra que a circuncisão havia se tornado um assunto muito sério?

de cristãos não judeus havia se tornado um assunto muito sério e precisava ser resolvida.

"Os apóstolos e os anciãos" reuniram-se (Atos 15:6-12)

[17] "Há sabedoria com os que se consultam mutuamente", diz Provérbios 13:10. Em harmonia com esse princípio sensato, "os apóstolos e os anciãos ajuntaram-se para considerar [a questão da circuncisão]". (Atos 15:6) "Os apóstolos e os anciãos" representavam a inteira congregação cristã, assim como o Corpo Governante faz em nossos dias. Por que "os anciãos" estavam servindo junto com os apóstolos? Lembre-se de que o apóstolo Tiago havia sido executado e que, pelo menos por um tempo, o apóstolo Pedro ficou preso. E se algo parecido acontecesse com outros apóstolos? A presença de outros homens ungidos qualificados garantiria que a congregação continuasse a ter supervisão adequada.

[18] Lucas continuou: "Ora, tendo havido muita disputa, levantou-se Pedro e [disse]: 'Irmãos, bem sabeis que desde os primeiros dias Deus fez entre vós a escolha de que por intermédio da minha boca as pessoas das nações ouvissem a palavra das boas novas e cressem; e

---

17. Quem fazia parte do corpo governante em Jerusalém, e qual pode ter sido o motivo de "os anciãos" terem sido incluídos?
18, 19. Que palavras poderosas Pedro disse, e a que conclusão seus ouvintes devem ter chegado?

Deus, que conhece o coração, deu testemunho por dar-lhes o espírito santo, assim como dera também a nós. E ele não fez nenhuma distinção entre nós e eles, mas purificou os corações deles pela fé.' " (Atos 15:7-9) De acordo com uma obra de referência, a palavra grega traduzida "disputa" no versículo 7 também denota "busca", "questionamento". Pelo visto, os irmãos foram sinceros, expressando abertamente suas diferenças de opinião.

[19] As palavras poderosas de Pedro lembraram a todos que ele mesmo esteve presente quando os primeiros gentios incircuncisos, Cornélio e sua família, foram ungidos pelo espírito santo em 36 EC. Sendo assim, se Jeová havia deixado de fazer distinção entre judeu e não judeu, quem seriam os humanos para fazer o contrário? Além disso, é a fé em Cristo, não a obediência à Lei mosaica, que purifica o coração dos que creem. — Gál. 2:16.

[20] À base do incontestável testemunho da palavra de Deus e do espírito santo, Pedro concluiu: "Ora, portanto, por que estais pondo Deus à prova por impor no pescoço dos discípulos um jugo que nem os nossos antepassados nem nós somos capazes de levar? Ao contrário, confiamos em ser salvos por intermédio da benignidade imerecida do Senhor Jesus, do mesmo modo como também essas pessoas." (Atos 15:10, 11) Os que promoviam a circuncisão estavam na verdade "pondo Deus à prova", ou 'testando sua paciência', conforme diz outra tradução. Eles estavam tentando impor aos gentios um código de leis que os próprios judeus não conseguiam cumprir plenamente e que, portanto, os condenava à morte. (Gál. 3:10) Em vez de promoverem a circuncisão, os judeus que estavam ouvindo a Pedro deveriam se sentir gratos a Deus pela bondade imerecida Dele expressa por meio de Jesus.

20. Como os que promoviam a circuncisão estavam "pondo Deus à prova"?

21 Pelo visto, as palavras de Pedro tiveram um forte impacto nas pessoas, pois "a multidão inteira ficou calada". A seguir, Barnabé e Paulo relataram "os muitos sinais e portentos que Deus fizera por intermédio deles entre as nações". (Atos 15:12) Finalmente os apóstolos e os anciãos tinham condições de avaliar todas as evidências e tomar uma decisão que refletisse de modo claro a vontade de Deus na questão da circuncisão.

22 Da mesma forma hoje, quando os membros do

---

21. Qual foi a participação de Barnabé e Paulo naquela reunião?
22-24. (a) Como o Corpo Governante hoje segue o exemplo do corpo governante do primeiro século? (b) Como todos os anciãos podem demonstrar respeito pela autoridade teocrática?

Corpo Governante se reúnem, eles buscam orientação na Palavra de Deus e oram sinceramente pedindo espírito santo. (Sal. 119:105; Mat. 7:7-11) Para esse fim, cada membro do Corpo Governante recebe com antecedência uma pauta dos assuntos que serão considerados na reunião a fim de que possa meditar com oração sobre eles. (Pro. 15:28) Nessas reuniões, esses irmãos ungidos se expressam livremente e de modo respeitoso. A Bíblia é usada com frequência nessas ocasiões.

23 Os anciãos congregacionais devem seguir esse exemplo. E, se depois de uma reunião de anciãos um assunto sério continuar sem solução, o corpo de anciãos pode consultar a sede local ou seus representantes designados, como os superintendentes viajantes. A sede local, por sua vez, pode escrever ao Corpo Governante se necessário.

24 De fato, Jeová abençoa aqueles que respeitam os procedimentos teocráticos e que demonstram humildade, lealdade e paciência. Como veremos no próximo capítulo, entre as recompensas que Deus dá por fazermos isso estão paz genuína, prosperidade espiritual e união cristã.

CAPÍTULO 14

"Chegamos a um acordo unânime"

Como o corpo governante chegou a uma decisão e como isso serviu para unir as congregações

Baseado em Atos 15:13-35

O SUSPENSE paira no ar. Os apóstolos e os anciãos reunidos em uma sala em Jerusalém olham uns para os outros, sentindo que chegaram a um momento decisivo. A questão da circuncisão levantou perguntas importantes. Os cristãos estão sob a Lei mosaica? Deve haver alguma distinção entre cristãos judeus e gentios?

2 Os homens da liderança avaliaram muitas evidências. Eles têm em mente a Palavra profética de Deus e relatos convincentes de testemunhas oculares que revelaram a bênção de Jeová. Eles expressaram plenamente suas opiniões. As provas referentes ao assunto em questão são irrefutáveis. O espírito de Jeová está indicando claramente o caminho a seguir. Será que esses homens vão seguir essas orientações?

1, 2. (a) Com que perguntas importantes se deparou o corpo governante da congregação cristã do primeiro século? (b) Que ajuda esses irmãos receberam para chegarem à conclusão correta?

[3] Exigirá verdadeira fé e coragem aceitar a orientação do espírito nesse caso. Eles correm o risco de aumentar ainda mais o ódio dos líderes religiosos judaicos. Além disso, enfrentam resistência de homens da congregação que estão determinados a levar o povo de Deus a depender novamente da Lei mosaica. O que o corpo governante vai fazer? Vejamos a resposta a essa pergunta e como esses homens estabeleceram um modelo que é seguido pelo Corpo Governante das Testemunhas de Jeová hoje. É um modelo que nós também devemos seguir ao tomar decisões e ao enfrentar desafios em nossa vida como cristãos.

"As palavras dos Profetas" ajudam na decisão (Atos 15:13-21)

[4] O discípulo Tiago, meio-irmão de Jesus, pronunciou-se.* Pelo visto, ele atuou como presidente da reunião nessa ocasião. Suas palavras parecem ter expressado o

---

* Veja o quadro "Tiago — 'o irmão do Senhor'", na página 210.

---

3. Como podemos nos beneficiar por examinar o relato de Atos capítulo 15?

4, 5. Que esclarecimento Tiago apresentou baseado na Palavra profética de Deus?

TIAGO — “O IRMÃO DO SENHOR”

Tiago, um dos filhos de José e Maria, é alistado primeiro entre os meios-irmãos mais novos de Jesus. (Mat. 13:54, 55) Assim, ele deve ter sido o segundo filho de Maria. Tiago cresceu com Jesus e estava a par de seu ministério. Se não presenciou as “obras poderosas” de Jesus, pelo menos sabia delas. Durante o ministério de Jesus, porém, Tiago e seus irmãos “de fato, não estavam exercendo fé [em Jesus]”, o irmão mais velho deles. (João 7:5) Tiago talvez até tenha pensado como os outros parentes de Jesus que disseram: “Ele perdeu o juízo.” — Mar. 3:21.

Tudo isso mudou com a morte e ressurreição de Jesus. Embora as Escrituras Gregas mencionem quatro personagens chamados Tiago, ao que tudo indica foi ao seu meio-irmão Tiago que Jesus apareceu pessoalmente em certa ocasião durante os 40 dias depois de Sua ressurreição. (1 Cor. 15:7) Isso pode ter levado Tiago à conclusão certa quanto à verdadeira identidade de seu irmão mais velho. Seja como for, menos de dez dias depois de Jesus ter ido para o céu, Tiago, sua mãe e seus irmãos estavam reunidos com os apóstolos num quarto de andar superior para orar. — Atos 1:13, 14.

Com o tempo, Tiago tornou-se um membro muito respeitado da congregação em Jerusalém, pelo visto sendo considerado como apóstolo, ou “enviado”, daquela congregação. (Gál. 1:18, 19) O papel destacado que Tiago desempenhava fica evidente no que o apóstolo Pedro disse aos discípulos depois de este ter sido libertado milagrosamente da prisão: “Relatai estas coisas a Tiago e aos irmãos.” (Atos 12:12, 17) Quando a questão da circuncisão foi levada ‘aos apóstolos e anciãos’ em Jerusalém, parece que foi Tiago quem presidiu a reunião. (Atos 15:6-21) E o apóstolo Paulo disse que Tiago, Cefas (Pedro) e o apóstolo João “pareciam ser colunas” da congregação de Jerusalém. (Gál. 2:9) Mesmo anos depois, quando Paulo voltou a Jerusalém após sua terceira viagem missionária, ele fez um relatório a ‘Tiago, e todos os anciãos estavam presentes’. — Atos 21:17-19.

Pelo visto, foi esse mesmo Tiago, a quem Paulo chamou de “o irmão do Senhor”, que escreveu a carta, ou livro bíblico, de Tiago. (Gál. 1:19) Nessa carta, ele humildemente se identifica não como apóstolo nem como irmão de Jesus, mas como “escravo de Deus e do Senhor Jesus Cristo”. (Tia. 1:1) Nela vemos que Tiago, assim como Jesus, era um bom observador da natureza humana e da criação. Para ilustrar verdades espirituais, Tiago fez referência a aspectos bem conhecidos da natureza, como mares agitados, céus estrelados, sol abrasador, flores delicadas, incêndios florestais e animais domesticados. (Tia. 1:6, 11, 17; 3:5, 7) Suas observações divinamente inspiradas quanto às atitudes e às ações das pessoas dão excelentes conselhos sobre como manter relacionamentos saudáveis. — Tia. 1:19, 20; 3:2, 8-18.

As palavras de Paulo registradas em 1 Coríntios 9:5 sugerem que Tiago era casado. A Bíblia não diz quando nem em que circunstâncias Tiago morreu. No entanto, o historiador judeu Josefo escreveu que pouco depois da morte do governador romano Pórcio Festo, por volta de 62 EC, e antes de seu sucessor, Albino, assumir o cargo, Anano (Ananias), o sumo sacerdote, "convocou os juízes do Sinédrio e levou perante eles um homem chamado Tiago, irmão de Jesus que era chamado o Cristo, e alguns outros". De acordo com Josefo, Anano "os acusou de terem transgredido a lei e os entregou para serem apedrejados".

que todos do corpo governante estavam pensando. Tiago disse aos homens reunidos: "Simeão tem relatado cabalmente como Deus, pela primeira vez, voltou a sua atenção para as nações, a fim de tirar delas um povo para o seu nome. E com isso concordam as palavras dos Profetas." — Atos 15:14, 15.

5 O discurso feito por Simeão, ou Simão Pedro, e as evidências apresentadas por Barnabé e Paulo provavelmente fizeram com que Tiago se lembrasse de textos apropriados que esclareciam o assunto em questão. (João 14:26) Por isso, ele disse: “Com isso concordam as palavras dos Profetas.” Tiago citou então as palavras de Amós 9:11, 12. Esse livro estava na parte das Escrituras Hebraicas em geral conhecida como “os Profetas”. (Mat. 22:40; Atos 15:16-18) Você notará que as palavras citadas por Tiago são um pouco diferentes daquelas que encontramos no livro de Amós hoje. Pelo visto, Tiago fez uma citação da Septuaginta, uma tradução das Escrituras Hebraicas para o grego.

6 Por meio do profeta Amós, Jeová predisse que viria o tempo em que Ele ergueria “a barraca de Davi”, ou seja, a linhagem real que levaria ao Reino messiânico. (Eze. 21:26, 27) Será que Jeová novamente lidaria de modo exclusivo com os judeus carnais como nação? Não. A profecia acrescenta que “pessoas de todas as nações” seriam ajuntadas como ‘pessoas chamadas pelo nome de Deus’. Lembre-se do que Pedro tinha acabado de testemunhar: “[Deus] não fez nenhuma distinção entre nós [cristãos judeus] e eles [cristãos gentios], mas purificou os corações deles pela fé.” (Atos 15:9) Em outras palavras, era da vontade de Deus que tanto judeus como gentios fossem ajuntados como herdeiros do Reino. (Rom. 8:17; Efé. 2:17-19) Em nenhum lugar essas profecias inspiradas sugeriam que os cristãos gentios tivessem primeiro de ser circuncidados na carne ou tornar-se prosélitos.

---

6. Como as Escrituras ajudaram a esclarecer o assunto em questão?

[7] Movido pela evidência bíblica e pelo poderoso testemunho que havia ouvido, Tiago apresentou o seguinte ponto de vista: "Por isso, a minha decisão é não afligir a esses das nações, que se voltam para Deus, mas escrever-lhes que se abstenham das coisas poluídas por ídolos, e da fornicação, e do estrangulado, e do sangue. Pois, desde os tempos antigos, Moisés tem tido em cidade após cidade os que o pregam, porque ele está sendo lido em voz alta nas sinagogas, cada sábado." — Atos 15:19-21.

[8] Quando Tiago disse "por isso, a minha decisão é", será que ele estava impondo sua autoridade a seus irmãos, talvez como presidente da reunião, e arbitrariamente decidindo o que tinha de ser feito? De forma alguma! A expressão grega traduzida "a minha decisão é" também pode significar "eu avalio" ou "a minha opinião é". Longe de dominar todo o corpo, Tiago estava sugerindo o que fazer baseado nas evidências que havia ouvido e no que as Escrituras diziam sobre o assunto.

7, 8. (a) Que ponto de vista Tiago apresentou? (b) Como devemos entender as palavras de Tiago?

[9] Será que a sugestão de Tiago era boa? Certamente que sim, pois mais tarde os apóstolos e os anciãos a adotaram. E quais seriam os benefícios? Por um lado, a recomendação 'não afligiria' os cristãos gentios, ou 'não lhes causaria problemas', impondo a eles os requisitos da Lei mosaica. (Atos 15:19; Bíblia Fácil de Ler). Por outro lado, essa decisão mostraria respeito pela consciência dos cristãos judeus, que ao longo dos anos haviam ouvido "Moisés . . . sendo lido em voz alta nas sinagogas, cada sábado".* (Atos 15:21) A ação recomendada sem dúvida fortaleceria o relacionamento entre cristãos judeus e gentios. Acima de tudo, agradaria a Jeová, pois estaria de acordo com o avanço de seu propósito. Que excelente maneira de resolver um problema que ameaçava a união e o bem-estar de toda a congregação do

* Tiago sabiamente se referiu aos escritos de Moisés, que incluíam não apenas o código da Lei, mas também coisas que antecederam à Lei, incluindo os tratos de Deus com seus servos e indicações de Sua vontade. Por exemplo, o conceito de Deus sobre o sangue, o adultério e a idolatria pode ser visto claramente em Gênesis. (Gên. 9:3, 4; 20:2-9; 35:2, 4) Dessa forma, Jeová revelou princípios que todos os humanos são obrigados a obedecer, quer judeu, quer gentio.

9. Quais seriam os benefícios de seguir a recomendação de Tiago?

povo de Deus! E que belo exemplo isso é para a congregação cristã hoje!

[10] Conforme mencionado no capítulo anterior, assim como o corpo governante do primeiro século, o Corpo Governante das Testemunhas de Jeová hoje busca a orientação de Jeová, o Soberano Universal, e de Jesus Cristo, o Cabeça da congregação, em todos os assuntos.* (1 Cor. 11:3) Como isso é feito? O irmão Albert D. Schroeder, que serviu no Corpo Governante desde 1974 até o fim de sua carreira terrestre, em março de 2006, explicou: "O Corpo Governante se reúne toda quarta-feira, abrindo a reunião com uma oração em que se pede a direção do espírito de Jeová. Faz-se real esforço para ver que todo assunto tratado e toda decisão tomada estejam em harmonia com a Palavra de Deus, a Bíblia." De modo similar, o irmão Milton G. Henschel, que serviu por muito tempo como membro do Corpo Governante e terminou sua carreira terrestre em março de 2003, apresentou uma pergunta fundamental aos formandos da 101.ª turma da Escola Bíblica de Gileade

* Veja o quadro "A estrutura do Corpo Governante hoje", na página 217.

10. Como o Corpo Governante hoje segue o padrão estabelecido pelo corpo governante do primeiro século?

A ESTRUTURA DO CORPO GOVERNANTE HOJE

Assim como os cristãos do primeiro século, as Testemunhas de Jeová hoje são dirigidas por um Corpo Governante de homens dedicados, ungidos por espírito santo. Os membros do Corpo Governante reúnem-se semanalmente como grupo. Além disso, eles estão organizados em seis comissões, cada uma com suas responsabilidades.

- A Comissão dos Coordenadores é formada pelos coordenadores das outras comissões e por um secretário que também é membro do Corpo Governante. Ela ajuda todas as comissões a operar de modo suave e eficiente. Essa comissão supervisiona assuntos jurídicos e o uso da mídia quando isso é necessário para esclarecer nossas crenças. Toma providências quando catástrofes, perseguições e outras emergências afetam as Testemunhas de Jeová em qualquer parte do mundo.
- A Comissão Editora supervisiona a impressão e a expedição de publicações bíblicas. Também supervisiona as gráficas e as propriedades administradas pelas associações jurídicas usadas pelas Testemunhas de Jeová e a construção de filiais e congêneres, bem como de Salões do Reino e Salões de Assembleias em países com recursos limitados. Essa comissão também administra os donativos recebidos para a obra mundial do Reino.

- A Comissão de Ensino supervisiona a instrução dada em reuniões congregacionais, assembleias e congressos. Também é responsável pela produção de programas de áudio e vídeo. Prepara a matéria usada na Escola de Gileade, na Escola do Serviço de Pioneiro e em outras escolas, e providencia programas espirituais para os voluntários que servem nas filiais e congêneres.
- A Comissão do Pessoal cuida do bem-estar físico e espiritual dos voluntários que servem nas filiais e congêneres das Testemunhas de Jeová em toda a Terra. Essa comissão também supervisiona a designação de novos voluntários para servir nesses locais.
- A Comissão de Redação supervisiona a produção de alimento espiritual escrito, distribuído às congregações e ao público em geral. Também responde a perguntas bíblicas, supervisiona o trabalho de tradução feito em todo o mundo e aprova textos como roteiros de dramas e esboços de discursos.
- A Comissão de Serviço supervisiona a obra de pregação, a preparação do Nosso Ministério do Reino e assuntos que dizem respeito a anciãos de congregação, superintendentes viajantes e evangelizadores de tempo integral. Também convida alunos para a Escola de Gileade, que treina missionários, e para a Escola de Treinamento Ministerial, cujo objetivo é instruir anciãos e servos ministeriais solteiros, dando aos alunos de ambas as escolas designações após a formatura.

> O Corpo Governante segue a orientação do espírito santo de Deus. Seus membros não se consideram os líderes do povo de Jeová. Em vez disso, como todos os cristãos ungidos na Terra, eles 'seguem o Cordeiro, Jesus Cristo, para onde quer que ele vá'. — Rev. 14:4.

da Torre de Vigia. Ele perguntou: "Existe na Terra uma outra organização cujos dirigentes consultem a Palavra de Deus, a Bíblia, antes de tomar decisões importantes?" A resposta é óbvia.

Enviaram "homens escolhidos" (Atos 15:22-29)

[11] O corpo governante em Jerusalém havia chegado a uma decisão unânime sobre a questão da circuncisão. Mas, para que todos os irmãos nas congregações aceitassem a decisão, ela teria de ser transmitida de forma clara, positiva e encorajadora. Qual seria a melhor maneira de fazer isso? O relato explica: "Pareceu bem aos apóstolos e aos anciãos, junto com toda a congregação, enviar a Antioquia homens escolhidos dentre eles, junto com Paulo e Barnabé, a saber, Judas, que era chamado Barsabás, e Silas, homens de liderança entre os irmãos." Além disso, uma carta foi preparada e envia-

---

11. Como a decisão do corpo governante foi transmitida às congregações?

da com esses homens para que fosse lida em todas as congregações em Antioquia, na Síria e na Cilícia. — Atos 15:22-26.

[12] Como "homens de liderança entre os irmãos", Judas e Silas estavam plenamente qualificados para representar o corpo governante. O grupo de quatro homens deixaria claro que a mensagem que levavam não era uma simples resposta à pergunta inicial; era uma diretriz do corpo governante. A presença de Judas e Silas, os "homens escolhidos", ajudaria a fortalecer o vínculo de amor entre os cristãos judeus em Jerusalém e os cristãos gentios nas congregações. Que provisão sábia e amorosa! Sem dúvida isso promoveu a paz e a harmonia entre o povo de Deus.

[13] A carta forneceu orientações claras aos cristãos gentios não apenas sobre a questão da circuncisão, mas também sobre o que eles precisavam fazer para receber o favor e a bênção de Jeová. A parte principal da carta dizia: "Pareceu bem ao espírito santo e a nós mesmos não vos acrescentar nenhum fardo adicional, exceto as seguintes coisas necessárias: de persistirdes em abster-

12, 13. Quais foram os benefícios de enviar às congregações (a) Judas e Silas? (b) uma carta do corpo governante?

vos de coisas sacrificadas a ídolos, e de sangue, e de coisas estranguladas, e de fornicação. Se vos guardardes cuidadosamente destas coisas, prosperareis. Boa saúde para vós!" — Atos 15:28, 29.

[14] As Testemunhas de Jeová hoje, mesmo somando cerca de 7 milhões de pessoas em bem mais de 100 mil congregações em todo o mundo, são bem unidas nas suas crenças e ações. Como essa união é possível, especialmente em vista da confusão e da discórdia que prevalecem no mundo hoje? Essa união se deve principalmente à orientação clara e direta que Jesus Cristo, o Cabeça da congregação, fornece por meio do escravo fiel e discreto. (Mat. 24:45-47) A união também é resultado do fato de a fraternidade mundial cooperar de coração com essa orientação.

"Alegraram-se com o encorajamento" (Atos 15:30-35)

[15] O relato em Atos prossegue em dizer-nos que quando os irmãos enviados de Jerusalém chegaram a Antioquia, eles "ajuntaram a multidão, e entregaram-lhes

---

14. Como é possível que o povo de Jeová seja unido neste mundo dividido?

15, 16. Qual foi o resultado da questão da circuncisão, e o que contribuiu para esse resultado?

a carta". Como os irmãos ali reagiram à orientação do corpo governante? 'Depois de lerem a carta, alegraram-se com o encorajamento.' (Atos 15:30, 31) Além disso, Judas e Silas "encorajaram os irmãos com muitas dissertações e os fortaleceram". Nesse sentido, os dois homens eram "profetas", assim como Barnabé, Paulo e outros também eram chamados profetas — um termo que se refere àqueles que declaram ou tornam conhecida a vontade de Deus. — Atos 13:1; 15:32; Êxo. 7:1, 2.

[16] Fica evidente que Jeová abençoou tudo o que transcorreu e conduziu a questão para que fosse resolvida da melhor forma possível. Qual foi a chave para que tudo acabasse bem? Sem dúvida foram as instruções claras e oportunas do corpo governante, baseadas na Palavra de Deus e na orientação do espírito santo. Além disso, foi o modo amoroso como o corpo governante transmitiu suas decisões às congregações.

[17] Seguindo esse padrão, o Corpo Governante das Testemunhas de Jeová hoje fornece orientações oportunas à fraternidade mundial. As decisões tomadas são transmitidas às congregações de forma clara e direta. Uma ma-

---

17. Como foi estabelecido o padrão de alguns aspectos das visitas dos superintendentes viajantes em nossos dias?

neira de fazer isso é por meio das visitas dos superintendentes viajantes. Esses irmãos abnegados viajam de uma congregação à outra, dando orientações claras e amoroso encorajamento. Como Paulo e Barnabé, eles dedicam muito tempo ao ministério, "ensinando e declarando, também com muitos outros, as boas novas da palavra de Jeová". (Atos 15:35) Como Judas e Silas, eles 'encorajam os irmãos com muitas dissertações e os fortalecem'.

[18] E que dizer das congregações? O que permitirá que as congregações em toda a Terra continuem a ter paz e harmonia no atual mundo dividido? Lembre-se de que foi o próprio discípulo Tiago que escreveu mais tarde: "A sabedoria de cima é primeiramente casta, depois pacífica, razoável, pronta para obedecer . . . Além disso, o fruto da justiça tem a sua semente semeada sob condições pacíficas para os que fazem paz." (Tia. 3:17, 18) Não sabemos se Tiago tinha a reunião em Jerusalém em mente quando escreveu essas palavras. Mas a análise que fizemos dos eventos registrados em Atos, capítulo 15, deixa claro que apenas quando há união e cooperação pode haver a bênção de Jeová.

18. O que o povo de Deus precisa fazer para continuar a ter Suas bênçãos?

[19] Era bem evidente que agora havia paz e união na congregação em Antioquia. Em vez de discutirem com Judas e Silas, os irmãos em Antioquia alegraram-se com a visita deles, pois foi apenas depois de Judas e Silas "passarem ali algum tempo [que] os irmãos os deixaram ir em paz para os que os tinham enviado", ou seja, de volta a Jerusalém.* (Atos 15:33) Podemos estar certos de que os irmãos em Jerusalém também se alegraram quando ouviram o que esses dois homens tinham a dizer sobre sua viagem. Graças à bondade imerecida de Jeová, eles foram bem-sucedidos em cumprir sua missão.

[20] Paulo e Barnabé, que permaneceram em Antioquia, podiam agora concentrar seus esforços em tomar a frente na obra de pregação, assim como os superintendentes viajantes hoje fazem quando visitam as congregações. (Atos 13:2, 3) Que bênção para o povo de Jeová! Mas que privilégios e bênçãos adicionais Jeová deu a esses dois evangelizadores zelosos? Veremos isso no próximo capítulo.

---

* No versículo 34, algumas traduções da Bíblia inserem palavras, dizendo que Silas decidiu permanecer em Antioquia. (Almeida, revista e corrigida) Mas tudo indica que essas palavras não apareciam no texto original; elas foram acrescentadas mais tarde.

19, 20. (a) Como ficou evidente que havia paz e união na congregação em Antioquia? (b) O que Paulo e Barnabé podiam fazer agora?

SEÇÃO 6 • ATOS 15:36–18:22

“VOLTEMOS E VISITEMOS OS IRMÃOS”

ATOS 15:36

Que papel importante os superintendentes viajantes desempenham na congregação cristã? Como somos abençoados quando aceitamos de coração as designações que recebemos? Como podemos raciocinar de modo eficaz à base das Escrituras, e por que precisamos adaptar-nos às pessoas a quem pregamos? Descobriremos a resposta a essas e a outras perguntas ao acompanharmos o apóstolo Paulo na sua segunda viagem missionária.

“Fortalecendo as congregações”

Ministros viajantes ajudam as congregações a serem firmadas na fé

Baseado em Atos 15:36–16:5

À MEDIDA que os viajantes seguem caminho através de estradas acidentadas entre uma cidade e outra, o apóstolo Paulo está pensativo ao olhar para o jovem ao seu lado. O nome do rapaz é Timóteo. Cheio de energia, Timóteo talvez tenha uns 20 anos. Cada passo nessa nova viagem o leva para mais longe de casa. Conforme o dia vai chegando ao fim, a região de Listra e Icônio fica cada vez mais para trás. O que os aguarda? Paulo tem uma boa noção, pois essa é a sua segunda viagem missionária. Ele sabe que haverá muitos perigos e dificuldades. Mas como esse jovem ao seu lado vai se sair?

[2] Paulo confia em Timóteo, talvez mais do que este

1-3. (a) Quem era o novo companheiro de viagem de Paulo, e como ele era? (b) O que aprenderemos neste capítulo?

humilde jovem confie em si mesmo. Acontecimentos recentes deixaram Paulo mais convencido do que nunca de que ele precisa do companheiro certo de viagem. Paulo sabe que o trabalho à frente — visitar as congregações e fortalecê-las — exigirá que os ministros viajantes sejam unidos e bem determinados. Por que Paulo talvez se sinta assim? Um dos fatores pode ser um desacordo que levou Paulo e Barnabé a se separarem.

[3] Neste capítulo, aprenderemos muito sobre a melhor maneira de resolver desacordos. Também vamos aprender por que Paulo escolheu Timóteo como companheiro de viagem e entender melhor o papel vital dos que servem como superintendentes viajantes hoje.

"Voltemos e visitemos os irmãos" (Atos 15:36)

[4] No capítulo anterior, vimos como um grupo de quatro irmãos — Paulo, Barnabé, Judas e Silas — encorajou a congregação em Antioquia com a decisão do corpo governante a respeito da circuncisão. O que Paulo fez a seguir? Ele apresentou a Barnabé um novo plano de viagem, dizendo: "Acima de tudo, voltemos e

4. Quais eram os objetivos da segunda viagem missionária de Paulo?

visitemos os irmãos em cada uma das cidades em que publicamos a palavra de Jeová, para ver como estão." (Atos 15:36) Paulo não estava sugerindo uma mera visita social a esses cristãos recém-convertidos. O livro de Atos revela os verdadeiros objetivos da segunda viagem missionária de Paulo. Primeiro, ele continuaria a transmitir as decisões tomadas pelo corpo governante. (Atos 16:4) Segundo, como superintendente viajante, Paulo estava decidido a encorajar as congregações em sentido espiritual, ajudando-as a serem firmadas na fé. (Rom. 1:11, 12) Como a organização das Testemunhas de Jeová hoje segue esse modelo estabelecido pelos apóstolos?

[5] Hoje, Cristo usa o Corpo Governante das Testemunhas de Jeová para orientar sua congregação. Por meio de cartas, publicações, reuniões e outros meios de comunicação, esses fiéis homens ungidos dão orientação e encorajamento às congregações no mundo inteiro. O Corpo Governante também procura manter contato mais direto com as congregações por meio dos superintendentes viajantes. O próprio Corpo Governan-

5. Como o Corpo Governante hoje dá orientação e encorajamento às congregações?

te designa milhares de anciãos qualificados em todo o mundo para servirem como ministros viajantes.

6 Os superintendentes viajantes atuais concentram-se em dar atenção individual e encorajamento espiritual a todos os irmãos nas congregações que visitam. Como? Por seguirem o modelo estabelecido por cristãos do primeiro século como Paulo. Ele deu o seguinte incentivo a outro superintendente como ele: "Prega a palavra, ocupa-te nisso urgentemente, em época favorável, em época dificultosa, repreende, adverte, exorta, com toda a longanimidade e arte de ensino. . . . Faze a obra dum evangelizador." — 2 Tim. 4:2, 5.

7 Em harmonia com essas palavras, o superintendente viajante — e sua esposa, se for casado — participa com os publicadores locais em diversos aspectos do ministério. Esses irmãos e irmãs viajantes são zelosos na pregação e habilidosos instrutores, características que têm um efeito positivo sobre o rebanho. (Rom. 12:11; 2 Tim. 2:15) Os que participam nessa modalidade de serviço se destacam por seu amor abnegado. De bom grado, dão de si mesmos, enfrentando condições climáticas desfavoráveis e até mesmo viajando por regiões perigosas. (Fil. 2:3, 4) Os superintendentes viajantes também encorajam, ensinam e aconselham as congregações por meio de discursos baseados na Bíblia. Todos os irmãos na congregação são beneficiados por observar a conduta desses ministros viajantes e imitar sua fé. — Heb. 13:7.

6, 7. Quais são algumas responsabilidades dos superintendentes viajantes?

"Um forte acesso de ira" (Atos 15:37-41)

[8] Barnabé gostou da sugestão de Paulo de 'visitar os irmãos'. Os dois haviam feito um bom trabalho como companheiros de viagem e já conheciam as regiões e os povos que visitariam. (Atos 13:2–14:28) Portanto, parecia uma boa ideia servir juntos nessa designação. Mas surgiu um problema. Atos 15:37 relata: "Barnabé, da sua parte, estava resolvido a levar consigo também João, que se chamava Marcos." Barnabé não estava apenas dando uma sugestão. Ele "estava resolvido" a levar seu primo Marcos nessa viagem missionária.

[9] Paulo não concordou. Por quê? O relato diz: "Paulo não achava correto que levassem [Marcos], visto

---

8. Como Barnabé reagiu ao convite de Paulo?

9. Por que Paulo discordou de Barnabé?

que se tinha afastado deles desde Panfília e não tinha ido com eles à obra." (Atos 15:38) Marcos havia acompanhado Paulo e Barnabé na primeira viagem missionária, mas não ficou com eles até o fim. (Atos 12:25; 13:13) No começo da viagem, ainda na Panfília, Marcos deixou a designação e foi para casa, em Jerusalém. A Bíblia não diz por que ele foi embora, mas, pelo visto, o apóstolo Paulo encarou a atitude de Marcos como irresponsável. Paulo talvez tivesse dúvidas quanto a se Marcos era um homem de confiança.

10 Mesmo assim, Barnabé insistia em levar Marcos. Mas Paulo era tão insistente quanto ele em não querer fazer isso. "Em vista disso, houve um forte acesso de ira, de modo que se separaram um do outro", diz Atos 15:39. Barnabé navegou para Chipre, a ilha onde havia nascido, levando Marcos junto com ele. Paulo deu continuidade a seus planos. Lemos: "Paulo selecionou Silas e partiu, depois de ter sido confiado pelos irmãos à benignidade imerecida de Jeová." (Atos 15:40) Juntos, eles viajaram "pela Síria e pela Cilícia, fortalecendo as congregações". — Atos 15:41.

---

10. A que levou o desacordo entre Paulo e Barnabé, e com que resultado?

[11] Esse relato talvez nos lembre de nossa natureza imperfeita. Paulo e Barnabé haviam sido designados como representantes especiais do corpo governante, e é provável que o próprio Paulo se tenha tornado membro desse grupo. Mas, no caso envolvendo Marcos, as imperfeições humanas de Paulo e Barnabé falaram mais alto. Será que eles permitiram que essa situação abalasse permanentemente o relacionamento entre eles? Embora fossem imperfeitos, Paulo e Barnabé eram humildes, tendo a mente de Cristo. Com o tempo, eles sem dúvida perdoaram um ao outro, demonstrando um espírito cristão de amor fraternal. (Efé. 4:1-3) Mais tarde, Paulo e Marcos trabalharam juntos em outras designações teocráticas.* — Col. 4:10.

[12] Esse acesso de ira foi um incidente isolado; não era da natureza de Paulo e Barnabé agir assim. Barnabé era conhecido por ser um homem bondoso e

* Veja o quadro "Marcos recebe muitos privilégios", na página 233.

11. Que qualidades são essenciais para evitarmos que um desacordo abale permanentemente a relação entre nós e alguém que nos ofendeu?

12. Que qualidades os atuais superintendentes cristãos devem ter em imitação a Paulo e Barnabé?

MARCOS RECEBE MUITOS PRIVILÉGIOS

O Evangelho de Marcos relata que aqueles que prenderam Jesus também tentaram prender "certo jovem" que "escapou nu". (Mar. 14:51, 52) Visto que Marcos, também conhecido como João Marcos, foi o único que registrou essa história, o jovem que ele mencionou pode ter sido ele próprio. Se esse for o caso, Marcos teve pelo menos algum contato com Jesus.

Uns 11 anos mais tarde, durante a perseguição movida por Herodes Agripa contra os cristãos, "muitos" membros da congregação de Jerusalém se reuniram para orar na casa de Maria, mãe de Marcos. Foi para essa casa que o apóstolo Pedro se dirigiu ao ser milagrosamente libertado da prisão. (Atos 12:12) Assim, Marcos talvez tenha sido criado numa casa que mais tarde foi usada para realizar reuniões cristãs. Sem dúvida, Marcos conhecia bem os primeiros discípulos de Jesus, que por sua vez exerceram uma boa influência sobre ele.

Marcos serviu lado a lado com vários superintendentes das congregações cristãs do primeiro século. Até onde sabemos, seu primeiro privilégio de serviço foi trabalhar com o seu primo Barnabé e o apóstolo Paulo na designação deles em Antioquia da Síria. (Atos 12:25) Quando Barnabé e Paulo iniciaram sua primeira viagem missionária, Marcos viajou com eles, primeiro para Chipre e depois para a Ásia Menor. Dali, Marcos voltou para Jerusalém por motivos não mencionados. (Atos 13:4, 13) Depois de um desacordo entre Barnabé e Paulo a respeito de Marcos, conforme descrito em Atos capítulo 15, Marcos e Barnabé continuaram seu serviço missionário em Chipre. — Atos 15:36-39.

Com certeza, qualquer lembrança daquele desacordo já havia sido esquecida por volta de 60 EC ou 61 EC, ano em que Marcos estava novamente trabalhando com Paulo, dessa vez em Roma. Paulo, que estava preso naquela cidade, escreveu à congregação em Colossos: "Aristarco, meu companheiro de cativeiro, manda-vos os seus cumprimentos, e assim também Marcos, primo de Barnabé, (a respeito de quem recebestes mandado para o acolher, se for ter convosco)." (Col. 4:10) Assim, Paulo estava pensando em enviar João Marcos de Roma a Colossos como seu representante.

Em algum momento entre 62 EC e 64 EC, Marcos serviu com o apóstolo Pedro em Babilônia. Conforme menciona o Capítulo 10 deste livro, eles desenvolveram um relacionamento achegado, pois Pedro referiu-se a esse homem mais jovem como "Marcos, meu filho". — 1 Ped. 5:13.

Então, por volta de 65 EC, quando o apóstolo Paulo foi preso pela segunda vez em Roma, ele escreveu a seu companheiro de serviço Timóteo, que estava em Éfeso: "Toma a Marcos e traze-o contigo, porque ele me é útil para ministrar." (2 Tim. 4:11) Sem dúvida, Marcos aceitou prontamente o convite e fez a viagem de Éfeso a Roma. Não é de admirar que Barnabé, Paulo e Pedro gostassem tanto de Marcos!

O maior de todos os privilégios de Marcos foi ser inspirado por Jeová para escrever um Evangelho. Segundo a tradição, Marcos obteve muitas informações do apóstolo Pedro. Os fatos parecem apoiar essa ideia, pois o relato de Marcos contém detalhes que apenas uma testemunha ocular, como Pedro, saberia. Mas parece que Marcos escreveu seu Evangelho em Roma, não em Babilônia quando estava com Pedro. Marcos usou muitas expressões em latim e traduziu termos hebraicos que de outra forma seriam difíceis para os não judeus entenderem. Assim, parece que ele escreveu primariamente para os gentios.

generoso, tanto que, em vez de chamá-lo de José, seu nome próprio, os apóstolos deram-lhe o nome Barnabé, que significa "Filho de Consolo". Paulo também era conhecido por ser amoroso e gentil. (1 Tes. 2:7, 8) Em imitação a Paulo e Barnabé, todos os superintendentes cristãos hoje, incluindo os ministros viajantes, sempre devem esforçar-se para demonstrar humildade

e para tratar com amor outros anciãos e todo o rebanho. — 1 Ped. 5:2, 3.

“Davam dele bom relato” (Atos 16:1-3)

13 Em sua segunda viagem missionária, Paulo passou pela província romana da Galácia, onde algumas congregações já haviam sido formadas. Por fim, ele “chegou . . . a Derbe e também a Listra”. O relato continua: “Havia ali um certo discípulo de nome Timóteo, filho duma mulher judia crente, mas de pai grego.” — Atos 16:1.*

14 Pelo visto, Paulo havia conhecido a família de Timóteo durante sua primeira viagem àquela região, por volta de 47 EC. Passados dois ou três anos desde aquela ocasião, na sua segunda visita, Paulo percebeu que o jovem Timóteo tinha bom potencial, pois os irmãos “davam dele bom relato”. Não era apenas em Listra, sua cidade natal, que os irmãos tinham um bom conceito de Timóteo. O relato explica que também em Icônio, a uns 30 quilômetros, os irmãos diziam boas

* Veja o quadro “Timóteo empenha-se ‘na promoção das boas novas’”, na página 237.

13, 14. (a) Quem era Timóteo, e como Paulo talvez o tenha conhecido? (b) O que levou Paulo a ver que Timóteo tinha bom potencial? (c) Que designação Timóteo recebeu?

TIMÓTEO EMPENHA-SE “NA PROMOÇÃO DAS BOAS NOVAS”

Timóteo era um assistente muito estimado pelo apóstolo Paulo. Depois de terem trabalhado juntos por uns 11 anos, Paulo podia escrever a respeito de Timóteo: “Não tenho a nenhum outro de disposição igual à dele, que cuidará genuinamente das coisas referentes a vós. Vós . . . conheceis a prova que ele deu de si mesmo, que ele trabalhou como escravo comigo na promoção das boas novas, como um filho junto ao pai.” (Fil. 2:20, 22) Timóteo sempre estava disposto a dar de si mesmo a fim de promover a obra de pregação, tornando-se assim alguém muito amado pelo apóstolo Paulo e deixando um excelente exemplo para nós.

Filho de pai grego e de mãe judia, Timóteo parece ter sido criado na cidade de Listra. Sua mãe, Eunice, e sua avó Loide ensinaram-lhe as Escrituras desde a infância. (Atos 16:1, 3; 2 Tim. 1:5; 3:14, 15) Tanto elas como Timóteo provavelmente aceitaram o cristianismo durante a primeira visita de Paulo a Listra.

Quando Paulo voltou a Listra alguns anos mais tarde, Timóteo talvez tivesse uns 20 anos. Já nessa época, “os irmãos em Listra e Icônio davam dele bom relato”. (Atos 16:2) O espírito de Deus havia inspirado “predições” a respeito desse jovem e, em harmonia com elas, Paulo e os anciãos locais convidaram Timóteo para um privilégio especial de serviço: ser missionário junto com Paulo. (1 Tim. 1:18; 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6) Timóteo teve de deixar sua família e, a fim de evitar uma possível causa para tropeço entre os judeus a quem Timóteo visitaria, ele teve de se submeter à circuncisão. — Atos 16:3.

Timóteo viajou muito. Ele pregou com Paulo e Silas em Filipos, com Silas na Bereia, e depois sozinho em Tessalônica. Quando se encontrou novamente com Paulo em Corinto, Timóteo tinha boas notícias sobre o amor e a fé dos tessalonicenses, apesar das tribulações que eles sofriam. (Atos 16:6–17:14; 1 Tes. 3:2-6) Ao receber notícias perturbadoras sobre os irmãos em Corinto, Paulo, que estava em Éfeso, pensou em enviar Timóteo de volta a Corinto. (1 Cor. 4:17) De Éfeso, Paulo mais tarde enviou Timóteo e Erasto à Macedônia. Mas, quando Paulo escreveu aos romanos, Timóteo estava mais uma vez com ele em Corinto. (Atos 19:22; Rom. 16:21) Essas são apenas algumas das viagens que Timóteo fez pela "promoção das boas novas".

Timóteo talvez hesitasse um pouco em exercer autoridade, o que é indicado pelo encorajamento que Paulo lhe deu: "Nenhum homem jamais menospreze a tua mocidade." (1 Tim. 4:12) Mas Paulo confiava em Timóteo a ponto de lhe dar as seguintes instruções ao enviá-lo a uma congregação problemática: 'Manda a certos que não ensinem doutrina diferente.'

(1 Tim. 1:3) Paulo também deu a Timóteo autoridade para designar superintendentes e servos ministeriais nas congregações. — 1 Tim. 5:22.

As excelentes qualidades de Timóteo fizeram dele alguém muito amado por Paulo. As Escrituras revelam que esse homem mais jovem era um amigo achegado, fiel e afetuoso, como um filho. Paulo podia escrever que se lembrava das lágrimas de Timóteo, ansiava vê-lo e orava por ele. Como um pai preocupado, Paulo também deu a Timóteo conselhos sobre seus "frequentes casos de doença", pelo visto problemas de estômago. — 1 Tim. 5:23; 2 Tim. 1:3, 4.

Quando Paulo foi preso pela primeira vez em Roma, Timóteo ficou ao seu lado. Pelo menos em uma ocasião, Timóteo também ficou preso. (Filêm. 1; Heb. 13:23) Pode-se notar a profunda amizade que havia entre esses dois homens no pedido que Paulo fez quando percebeu que estava para morrer. Ele escreveu a Timóteo: "Faze o máximo para vir ter comigo em breve." (2 Tim. 4:6-9) As Escrituras não mencionam se Timóteo chegou a tempo de ver seu querido instrutor.

coisas a respeito dele. (Atos 16:2) Guiados pelo espírito santo, os anciãos deram a Timóteo uma séria responsabilidade: servir como ministro viajante, ajudando Paulo e Silas. — Atos 16:3.

[15] Como Timóteo conseguiu fazer um nome tão bom para si apesar de ser bem jovem? Será que foi por causa de sua inteligência, sua aparência ou suas habilidades naturais? Em geral, são essas coisas que impressionam as pessoas. Até mesmo o profeta Samuel se deixou influenciar demais pelas aparências em certa ocasião. Mas Jeová lembrou-lhe: "Não como o homem vê é o modo de Deus ver, pois o mero homem vê o que aparece aos olhos, mas quanto a Jeová, ele vê o que o coração é." (1 Sam. 16:7) Não foram as características físicas ou intelectuais de Timóteo que fizeram com que ele tivesse um bom nome entre seus irmãos, mas sim o que ele era no coração.

[16] Anos mais tarde, o apóstolo Paulo mencionou algumas qualidades espirituais de Timóteo. Paulo descreveu a boa disposição de Timóteo, seu amor abnegado e seu zelo ao cuidar de designações teocráticas. (Fil. 2:20-22) Timóteo também era conhecido por ter fé "sem qualquer hipocrisia". — 2 Tim. 1:5.

[17] Hoje, muitos jovens imitam a Timóteo por culti-

15, 16. Como Timóteo conseguiu fazer um nome tão bom para si mesmo?
17. Como os jovens podem imitar a Timóteo?

var qualidades que agradam a Deus. Assim, fazem um bom nome perante Jeová e seu povo apesar de sua pouca idade. (Pro. 22:1; 1 Tim. 4:15) Eles demonstram fé sem hipocrisia, recusando-se a levar uma vida dupla. (Sal. 26:4) Em resultado disso, podem ser bem úteis na congregação, assim como Timóteo. Quando eles se qualificam como publicadores das boas novas e, com o tempo, dedicam-se a Jeová e são batizados, todos os seus amigos e parentes que amam a Jeová se sentem muito encorajados!

“Firmadas na fé” (Atos 16:4, 5)

[18] Paulo e Timóteo trabalharam juntos por anos. Como ministros viajantes, eles cumpriram muitas designações representando o corpo governante. A Bíblia diz: “Enquanto viajavam através das cidades, entregavam aos que estavam ali, para a sua observância, os decretos decididos pelos apóstolos e anciãos, que estavam em Jerusalém.” (Atos 16:4) Pelo visto, as congregações realmente seguiam as orientações dos apóstolos e anciãos de Jerusalém. Por serem obedientes, ‘as congregações continuavam a ser firmadas

18. (a) Que privilégios Paulo e Timóteo tiveram como ministros viajantes? (b) Como as congregações foram abençoadas?

na fé e a aumentar em número, dia a dia'. — Atos 16:5.

[19] De modo similar, hoje as Testemunhas de Jeová são abençoadas por serem submissas e obedientes às orientações que recebem dos que "tomam a dianteira" entre elas. (Heb. 13:17) Visto que a cena do mundo está sempre mudando, é vital que os cristãos se mantenham em dia com o alimento espiritual fornecido pelo "escravo fiel e discreto". (Mat. 24:45; 1 Cor. 7:29-31) Fazermos isso pode evitar a ruína espiritual e nos ajudar a permanecer sem mancha do mundo. — Tia. 1:27.

[20] É verdade que os superintendentes cristãos atuais, incluindo os membros do Corpo Governante, são imperfeitos, assim como eram Paulo, Barnabé, Marcos e outros anciãos ungidos do primeiro século. (Rom. 5:12; Tia. 3:2) Mas, visto que os irmãos do Corpo Governante seguem de perto a Palavra de Deus e se apegam ao padrão estabelecido pelos apóstolos, eles são dignos de confiança. (2 Tim. 1:13, 14) Em resultado disso, as congregações são fortalecidas e firmadas na fé.

19, 20. Por que os cristãos devem ser obedientes aos que "tomam a dianteira"?

“Passa à Macedônia”

Os missionários são abençoados por aceitar uma designação e enfrentar a perseguição com alegria

Baseado em Atos 16:6-40

UM GRUPO de mulheres deixa a cidade de Filipos na Macedônia. Não demora muito e elas chegam a um rio estreito chamado Gangites. Como de costume, elas se sentam à margem do rio para orar ao Deus de Israel. Jeová as observa. — 2 Crô. 16:9; Sal. 65:2.

² Enquanto isso, mais de 800 quilômetros a leste de Filipos, um grupo de homens parte da cidade de Listra, no sul da Galácia. Dias depois, eles chegam a uma estrada romana pavimentada que vai em direção ao oeste, rumo à região mais povoada do distrito da Ásia. Os homens — Paulo, Silas e Timóteo — estão ansiosos para viajar por essa estrada a fim de visitar Éfeso e outras cidades onde milhares de pessoas precisam ouvir as boas novas sobre Cristo. Mas, antes mesmo de começarem essa viagem, o espírito santo os impede de prosseguir de uma forma não mencionada. Eles são proibidos de pregar na

1-3. (a) Como Paulo e seus companheiros viram a orientação do espírito santo? (b) Que eventos vamos examinar?

Ásia. Por quê? Jesus, por meio do espírito de Deus, quer fazer com que o grupo de Paulo atravesse toda a Ásia Menor, cruze o mar Egeu e vá em direção às margens do pequeno rio Gangites.

[3] O modo como Jesus guiou Paulo e seus companheiros durante essa viagem incomum até a Macedônia nos ensina lições valiosas hoje. Assim, vejamos alguns dos eventos que ocorreram durante a segunda viagem missionária de Paulo, que começou por volta de 49 EC.

‘Tiramos a conclusão de que Deus nos convocara’ (Atos 16:6-15)

[4] Impedidos de pregar na Ásia, Paulo e seus companheiros foram em direção ao norte para pregar nas cidades da Bitínia. A fim de chegarem lá, eles talvez tenham caminhado vários dias por estradas não pavimentadas entre as regiões pouco povoadas da Frígia e da Galácia. Mas, ao se aproximarem da Bitínia, Jesus usou mais uma vez o espírito santo para impedi-los. (Atos 16:6, 7) A essa altura, os homens já deviam estar confusos. Sabiam o que pregar e como pregar, mas não sabiam onde pregar. Haviam batido, por assim dizer, na porta que dava para a Ásia, mas em vão. Haviam batido na porta que dava para a Bitínia, mas novamente em vão. Mesmo assim, Paulo estava decidido a continuar batendo até encontrar alguma porta que se abrisse. Os homens tomaram, então, uma decisão que não parecia fazer sentido: foram para o oeste e andaram 550 quilômetros, passando por várias cidades até chegarem ao porto de Trôade, de onde poderiam navegar para a Macedônia. (Atos 16:8) Foi em Trôade que Paulo bateu em uma terceira porta, mas dessa vez ela se abriu amplamente.

---

4, 5. (a) O que aconteceu com o grupo de Paulo perto da Bitínia? (b) Que decisão os discípulos tomaram, e qual foi o resultado?

[5] Lucas, escritor do Evangelho que leva seu nome, juntou-se ao grupo de Paulo em Trôade. Ele relata o que aconteceu: "Durante a noite, apareceu a Paulo uma visão: certo homem macedônio estava em pé, suplicando-lhe e dizendo: 'Passa à Macedônia e ajuda-nos.' Ora, assim que ele viu a visão, procuramos passar à Macedônia, tirando a conclusão de que Deus nos convocara para declarar-lhes as boas novas."* (Atos 16:9, 10) Finalmente Paulo soube onde pregar. Ele deve ter ficado muito feliz por não ter desistido na metade do caminho. Sem demora, os quatro homens navegaram para a Macedônia.

[6] Que lição podemos aprender desse relato? Observe o seguinte: foi somente depois de Paulo ter partido para a

---

* Veja o quadro "Lucas — escritor do livro de Atos", na página 246.

6, 7. (a) O que podemos aprender do que aconteceu durante a viagem de Paulo? (b) A exemplo do que aconteceu com Paulo, que certeza podemos ter?

LUCAS — ESCRITOR DO LIVRO DE ATOS

Até o capítulo 16, versículo 9, o livro de Atos é narrado apenas em terceira pessoa, ou seja, o escritor limita-se a descrever as palavras e ações de outras pessoas, não se incluindo na narrativa. Em Atos 16:10, 11, porém, esse estilo de escrita muda. No versículo 11, por exemplo, o escritor diz: "De Trôade [nós] fizemo-nos ao mar e fomos diretamente à Samotrácia." É nesse ponto da narrativa que o escritor, Lucas, passa a participar dos acontecimentos. Mas, visto que o nome Lucas não aparece em nenhum lugar em Atos dos Apóstolos, como sabemos que ele foi realmente o escritor?

Podemos saber a resposta por considerar a introdução do livro de Atos e a do Evangelho de Lucas. As duas introduções são dirigidas a um certo "Teófilo". (Luc. 1:1, 3; Atos 1:1) O livro de Atos começa com as seguintes palavras: "O primeiro relato, ó Teófilo, eu compus a respeito de todas as coisas que Jesus principiou tanto a fazer como a ensinar." Visto que muitas autoridades dos tempos antigos concordam que "o primeiro relato", o Evangelho, foi escrito por Lucas, ele também deve ter sido o escritor do livro de Atos.

Não sabemos muito sobre Lucas. Seu nome só aparece três vezes na Bíblia. O apóstolo Paulo chama Lucas de "o médico amado" e de um de seus "colaboradores". (Col. 4:14; Filêm. 24) As partes do livro de Atos em que Lucas se inclui na narrativa indicam que ele primeiro acompanhou o apóstolo Paulo de Trôade até Filipos, por volta de 50 EC, mas que quando Paulo deixou Filipos, Lucas não estava mais com ele. Os dois encontraram-se novamente em Filipos por volta de 56 EC e viajaram com mais sete irmãos desde Filipos até Jerusalém, onde Paulo foi preso. Dois anos mais tarde, Lucas acompanhou Paulo, que ainda estava preso, desde Cesareia até Roma. (Atos 16:10-17, 40; 20:5–21:17; 24:27; 27:1–28:16) Quando Paulo, que havia sido preso pela segunda vez em Roma, percebeu que sua execução estava próxima, "apenas Lucas" estava com ele. (2 Tim. 4:6, 11) Fica claro que Lucas viajava longas distâncias e estava disposto a enfrentar dificuldades por causa das boas novas.

Lucas não afirmou ter presenciado o que escreveu sobre Jesus. Em vez disso, ele disse ter procurado "compilar uma declaração dos fatos" baseada em relatos de "testemunhas oculares". Além do mais, ele 'pesquisou todas as coisas com exatidão, desde o início', para 'escrevê-las em ordem lógica'. (Luc. 1:1-3) O resultado dos esforços de Lucas mostram que ele era um pesquisador cuidadoso. A fim de reunir informações, ele talvez tenha entrevistado Elisabete, Maria (mãe de Jesus) e outras pessoas. Muito do que ele escreveu não é encontrado nos outros Evangelhos. — Luc. 1:5-80.

Paulo disse que Lucas era médico, e podemos ver em seus escritos o interesse que um médico tem naqueles que sofrem. Para citar apenas alguns exemplos: Lucas disse que, quando Jesus curou um homem endemoninhado, o demônio saiu do homem "sem lhe fazer dano"; que a sogra do apóstolo Pedro estava com "febre alta"; e que uma mulher que Jesus ajudou tinha "um espírito de fraqueza, já por dezoito anos, e ela estava encurvada e não podia absolutamente endireitar-se". — Luc. 4:35, 38; 13:11.

É evidente que Lucas sempre colocou a "obra do Senhor" em primeiro lugar na vida. (1 Cor. 15:58) Seu objetivo não era buscar destaque ou uma carreira secular, mas ajudar outros a conhecer e a servir a Jeová.

Ásia que o espírito santo indicou a vontade de Deus; foi somente depois de Paulo ter se aproximado da Bitínia que Jesus interveio; e foi somente depois de Paulo ter chegado a Trôade que Jesus o orientou a ir à Macedônia. Jesus, como Cabeça da congregação, pode nos orientar de modo similar hoje. (Col. 1:18) Por exemplo, talvez estejamos pensando já por algum tempo em servir como pioneiros ou em nos mudar para uma região onde há maior necessidade de publicadores do Reino. Mas pode ser somente depois de darmos passos específicos para alcançar nosso alvo que Jesus, por meio do espírito de Deus, nos guiará. Por quê? Pense no seguinte exemplo: um motorista pode virar seu carro para a direita ou para a esquerda somente se o carro estiver em movimento. Da mesma forma, no que diz respeito a expandir nosso ministério, Jesus nos orienta, mas apenas se estivermos em "movimento", ou seja, se estivermos realmente nos esforçando a fazer isso.

[7] Mas e se nossos esforços não produzem logo resultado? Devemos desistir, achando que o espírito de Deus não nos está orientando? Não. Lembre-se de que Paulo também enfrentou contratempos. Mesmo assim, ele continuou procurando até achar uma porta que se abrisse. Podemos ter certeza de que nossa perseverança em procurar "uma porta larga para atividade" também será recompensada. — 1 Cor. 16:9.

[8] Depois de chegarem ao distrito da Macedônia, o grupo de Paulo viajou para Filipos, uma cidade cujos habitantes tinham orgulho de ser cidadãos romanos. Para os soldados romanos reformados que moravam ali, a colônia de Filipos era como uma pequena Itália — uma Roma em miniatura bem no meio da Macedônia. Fora do portão da cidade, ao lado de um rio estreito, os missionários encontraram um local que acharam ser

---

8. (a) Descreva a cidade de Filipos. (b) Qual foi o resultado alegre da pregação de Paulo no "lugar de oração"?

“um lugar de oração”.* No sábado, eles foram àquele local e encontraram várias mulheres reunidas ali para adorar a Deus. Os discípulos sentaram-se e falaram com elas. Uma mulher chamada Lídia “estava escutando, e Jeová abriu-lhe amplamente o coração”. Lídia ficou tão comovida com o que aprendeu dos missionários que ela e os de sua casa foram batizados. Então ela insistiu para que Paulo e seus companheiros ficassem na sua casa.# — Atos 16:13-15.

[9] Imagine a alegria que o batismo de Lídia causou. Paulo deve ter ficado muito feliz por ter aceitado o convite para ‘passar à Macedônia’ e por Jeová ter usado a ele e seus companheiros para responder às orações daquelas mulheres que temiam a Deus. Hoje, muitos irmãos — jovens e idosos, solteiros e casados — também se mudam para regiões onde a necessidade de publicadores do Reino é maior. É verdade que eles enfrentam dificuldades, mas isso não é nada comparado à satisfação que sentem quando encontram pessoas como Lídia, que aceitam as verdades da Bíblia. Será que você pode fazer ajustes que

* Os judeus talvez fossem proibidos de ter uma sinagoga em Filipos por causa da característica militar da cidade. Ou pode ser que ali não houvesse dez homens judeus, o mínimo necessário para estabelecer uma sinagoga.

# Veja o quadro “Lídia — vendedora de púrpura”, na página 252.

9. Como muitos hoje imitam o exemplo de Paulo, e que bênçãos recebem?

lhe permitiriam 'passar' a um território onde a necessidade é maior? Você receberá muitas bênçãos se fizer isso. Por exemplo, veja o caso de Aaron, um irmão de 20 e poucos anos que se mudou para um país da América Central. Suas palavras refletem os sentimentos de muitos outros irmãos: "Servir em outro país tem me ajudado a crescer espiritualmente e a me achegar mais a Jeová. E o serviço de campo é muito bom — dirijo oito estudos bíblicos!"

"A multidão levantou-se . . . contra eles" (Atos 16:16-24)

[10] Satanás com certeza ficou furioso pelas boas novas terem se estabelecido numa parte do mundo onde ele e seus demônios dominavam sem interferência. Não é de admirar que os demônios estivessem envolvidos na reviravolta que estava para acontecer com Paulo e seus companheiros. Enquanto estes visitavam o lugar de oração, uma serva possuída por um demônio, e que ganhava muito dinheiro para seus donos fazendo predições, começou a seguir o grupo de Paulo. Ela gritava: "Estes homens são escravos do Deus Altíssimo, que vos estão publicando o caminho da salvação." Pode ser que o demônio tenha feito a serva gritar essas palavras para dar a entender

---

10. Como os demônios estavam envolvidos na reviravolta que aconteceu com Paulo e seus companheiros?

LÍDIA — VENDEDORA DE PÚRPURA

Lídia morava em Filipos, uma cidade importante na Macedônia. Ela era natural de Tiatira, uma cidade na região chamada Lídia, no oeste da Ásia Menor. O trabalho de Lídia como vendedora de púrpura a levou a cruzar o mar Egeu e ir morar em Filipos. Pelo visto, ela comercializava artigos variados de púrpura — tapetes, tapeçarias, tecidos e mesmo corantes. Uma inscrição encontrada em Filipos comprova que havia uma associação de vendedores de púrpura nessa cidade.

Lídia é descrita como "adoradora de Deus", o que pode indicar que ela era prosélita. (Atos 16:14) Ela talvez se tenha tornado adoradora de Jeová em Tiatira. Ali, diferentemente de Filipos, havia um local onde os judeus se reuniam. Alguns acham que Lídia era um apelido que significa "mulher de Lídia" e que esse nome lhe foi dado em Filipos. Mas existem provas documentais que mostram que a palavra Lídia também era usada como nome próprio.

Desde os dias de Homero, no nono ou oitavo século AEC, os lídios e os habitantes da região eram famosos por sua habilidade em usar púrpura para tingir tecidos. Realmente, as águas de Tiatira eram conhecidas por produzir "as tonalidades mais brilhantes e duráveis".

Os artigos de púrpura eram considerados de luxo; apenas os ricos tinham condições de adquiri-los. Embora o corante púrpura pudesse ser extraído de dife-rentes fontes, o melhor e mais caro, usado no tratamento de linho fino, vinha de moluscos do Mediterrâneo. Os tecidos dessa cor eram muito caros, pois só era possível extrair uma quantidade extremamente pequena de corante de cada molusco, sendo necessários uns 8 mil moluscos para obter apenas um grama desse precioso líquido.

É bem provável que Lídia fosse uma comerciante rica e bem-sucedida, pois trabalhar com púrpura exigia investir muito dinheiro. Além disso, Lídia tinha uma casa grande o suficiente para hospedar quatro pessoas — Paulo, Silas, Timóteo e Lucas. A referência que a Bíblia faz à sua "família" pode significar que ela morava com parentes. Mas a palavra grega traduzida "família" pode indicar que ela tinha escravos e servos. (Atos 16:15) E o fato de Paulo e Silas terem se encontrado com alguns irmãos na casa dessa mulher hospitaleira antes de deixarem a cidade sugere que essa casa se tornou um local de reuniões para os primeiros cristãos em Filipos. — Atos 16:40.

Quando Paulo escreveu à congregação em Filipos uns dez anos mais tarde, ele não mencionou Lídia. Assim, tudo que sabemos sobre ela se encontra em Atos capítulo 16.

que as predições feitas por ela e os ensinos de Paulo vinham da mesma fonte. Dessa forma, as pessoas ali prestariam atenção à serva em vez de aos verdadeiros seguidores de Cristo. Mas Paulo silenciou a serva por expulsar o demônio. — Atos 16:16-18.

[11] Quando os donos da serva viram que haviam perdido seu meio fácil de ganhar dinheiro, ficaram furiosos. Eles arrastaram Paulo e Silas até a feira, onde os magistrados — autoridades que representavam Roma — realizavam audiências. Os donos aproveitaram-se do preconceito e do patriotismo dos juízes, como que dizendo: 'Esses judeus estão causando muita confusão por ensinarem costumes que nós romanos não podemos aceitar.' Suas palavras logo surtiram efeito. "A multidão [na feira] levantou-se toda contra [Paulo e Silas]", e os magistrados deram ordens para que eles fossem "espancados com varas". Depois disso, Paulo e Silas foram levados à força para a prisão. O carcereiro jogou os homens feridos na prisão interior e prendeu-lhes os pés no tronco. (Atos 16:19-24) Quando o carcereiro fechou a porta, a escuridão naquela masmorra devia ter sido tão grande que Paulo e Silas mal conseguiam enxergar um ao outro. No entanto, Jeová os estava vendo. — Sal. 139:12.

[12] Anos antes, Jesus havia alertado seus seguidores que

---

11. O que aconteceu com Paulo e Silas depois que Paulo expulsou da serva o demônio?

12. (a) Como os discípulos de Cristo encararam a perseguição, e por quê? (b) Que tipos de oposição ainda são usados por Satanás e seus agentes?

eles seriam perseguidos. (João 15:20) Por isso, quando o grupo de Paulo passou à Macedônia, eles sabiam que podiam enfrentar oposição. Assim, quando a perseguição veio, em vez de acharem que tinham perdido o favor de Jeová, eles a encararam como demonstração da ira de Satanás. Hoje, os agentes de Satanás ainda usam os mesmos métodos usados em Filipos. Na escola e no local de trabalho, opositores falam mentiras a nosso respeito, provocando oposição. Em alguns países, opositores religiosos levantam acusações contra nós em tribunais, como que dizendo: 'Essas Testemunhas de Jeová causam muita confusão por ensinarem costumes que nós "tradicionalistas" não podemos aceitar.' Em alguns lugares, nossos irmãos são espancados e jogados na prisão. No entanto, Jeová os está vendo. — 1 Ped. 3:12.

"Batizados sem demora" (Atos 16:25-34)

[13] Paulo e Silas devem ter precisado de algum tempo para se recuperarem dos eventos turbulentos daquele dia. Por volta da meia-noite, porém, eles já se haviam recuperado do espancamento o suficiente para 'orar e louvar a Deus com cântico'. De repente, um terremoto abalou a prisão. O carcereiro acordou e, vendo que as portas

13. O que levou o carcereiro a perguntar: "O que tenho de fazer para ser salvo?"

estavam abertas, ficou com medo de que os prisioneiros tivessem fugido. Sabendo que seria punido por deixá-los fugir, ele "puxou a sua espada e estava prestes a acabar consigo". Mas Paulo clamou: "Não te faças dano, pois estamos todos aqui!" O aflito carcereiro perguntou: "Senhores, o que tenho de fazer para ser salvo?" Paulo e Silas não podiam salvá-lo; apenas Jesus podia. Então eles responderam: "Crê no Senhor Jesus e serás salvo." — Atos 16:25-31.

[14] Será que a pergunta do carcereiro era sincera? Paulo não duvidou da sinceridade do homem. O carcereiro era gentio; não tinha conhecimento das Escrituras. Antes de poder se tornar cristão, ele precisava aprender e aceitar verdades bíblicas básicas. De modo que Paulo e Silas tiraram tempo para falar "a palavra de Jeová a ele". Os homens ficaram tão envolvidos em ensinar as Escrituras que talvez se tenham esquecido da dor dos golpes que haviam recebido. Mas o carcereiro viu as feridas profundas nas costas deles e as limpou. Então ele e os de sua casa "foram batizados sem demora". Que bênção Paulo e Silas receberam por enfrentar a perseguição com alegria! — Atos 16:32-34.

14. (a) Que ajuda Paulo e Silas deram ao carcereiro? (b) Que bênção Paulo e Silas receberam por enfrentar a perseguição com alegria?

[15] Assim como Paulo e Silas, muitas Testemunhas de Jeová hoje pregam as boas novas enquanto estão presas por causa de sua fé, com ótimos resultados. Por exemplo, em certo país onde nossas atividades eram proibidas, houve uma época em que 40% de todas as Testemunhas de Jeová haviam aprendido a verdade enquanto estavam na prisão! (Isa. 54:17) Observe, também, que o carcereiro só pediu ajuda depois que o terremoto abalou a prisão. Da mesma forma hoje, algumas pessoas que nunca deram atenção à mensagem do Reino talvez a aceitem quando sua vida pessoal é abalada por alguma tragédia. Não deixarmos de fielmente visitar e revisitar os moradores em nosso território garantirá que estejamos ali para ajudar quando uma situação dessas surgir.

“Agora nos lançam fora secretamente?” (Atos 16:35-40)

[16] Na manhã após o espancamento, os magistrados ordenaram que Paulo e Silas fossem libertados. Mas Paulo disse: “Chibatearam-nos publicamente sem condenação, a homens que são romanos, e lançaram-nos na prisão; e agora nos lançam fora secretamente? Não, deveras, mas que venham eles mesmos e nos levem para fora.” Ao

---

15. (a) Como muitas Testemunhas de Jeová hoje imitam o exemplo de Paulo e Silas? (b) Por que devemos continuar a revisitar os moradores em nosso território?

16. Como a situação mudou de figura no dia após o espancamento de Paulo e Silas?

saberem que os dois homens eram cidadãos romanos, os magistrados “ficaram temerosos”, pois tinham violado os direitos daqueles discípulos.* Agora a situação havia mudado de figura. Os discípulos tinham sido espancados publicamente; então os magistrados tinham de pedir desculpas publicamente. Eles imploraram a Paulo e Silas que deixassem Filipos. Os dois concordaram, mas primeiro tiraram tempo para encorajar o crescente grupo de novos discípulos. Só partiram depois disso.

[17] Caso seus direitos como cidadãos romanos tivessem sido respeitados antes, pode ser que Paulo e Silas não tivessem sido espancados. (Atos 22:25, 26) Mas, se isso acontecesse, os discípulos em Filipos poderiam ficar com a impressão de que aqueles homens tinham usado esses direitos para evitar sofrer em nome de Cristo. Como isso afetaria a fé dos discípulos que não tinham cidadania romana? Afinal, para eles a lei não serviria de proteção contra espancamentos. Por isso, ao suportarem a punição, Paulo e Silas deram exemplo aos novos discípulos, mostrando que os seguidores de Cristo podem manter-se firmes diante de perseguição. Além disso, por exigirem o

* A lei romana estabelecia que um cidadão sempre tinha o direito de ser julgado perante um tribunal e nunca deveria ser punido em público sem antes ter sido condenado.

17. Que importante lição os novos discípulos aprenderiam por observar a perseverança de Paulo e Silas?

reconhecimento de sua cidadania, Paulo e Silas obrigaram os magistrados a admitir publicamente que tinham violado a lei. Isso, por sua vez, talvez fizesse os magistrados pensar duas vezes antes de maltratar os companheiros de adoração de Paulo e poderia fornecer certa medida de proteção legal contra ataques similares no futuro.

[18] Hoje, os superintendentes também orientam a congregação cristã por meio de seu exemplo. O que quer que esperem que seus companheiros de adoração façam, os pastores cristãos estão dispostos a fazer. Da mesma forma, assim como Paulo, nós avaliamos bem quando e como usar nossos direitos legais para obter proteção. Se necessário, nós recorremos a tribunais locais, nacionais e até mesmo internacionais a fim de obter proteção legal para realizar livremente nossa adoração. Nosso objetivo não é promover alguma reforma social, mas "defender e estabelecer legalmente as boas novas", conforme Paulo escreveu à congregação em Filipos uns dez anos depois de ter ficado preso ali. (Fil. 1:7) Ainda assim, independentemente do resultado desses processos legais, nós, como Paulo e seus companheiros, estamos decididos a continuar 'declarando as boas novas' onde quer que o espírito de Deus nos oriente a fazer isso. — Atos 16:10.

18. (a) Como os superintendentes cristãos hoje imitam o exemplo de Paulo? (b) Como nós 'defendemos e estabelecemos legalmente as boas novas' em nossos dias?

CAPÍTULO 17

Paulo "raciocinou com eles à base das Escrituras"

A base para um bom ensino e o excelente exemplo dos bereanos

Baseado em Atos 17:1-15

A ESTRADA muito movimentada, construída por excelentes engenheiros romanos, atravessa montanhas escarpadas. Vez por outra, os sons misturam-se nessa estrada — o zurro de jumentos, o barulho das rodas das carroças ao passarem sobre grossas pedras de pavimentação, e vozes de viajantes de todo tipo, incluindo provavelmente soldados, comerciantes e artesãos. Três amigos — Paulo, Silas e Timóteo — estão nessa estrada fazendo uma viagem de aproximadamente 130 quilômetros desde Filipos até Tessalônica. A viagem não é nada fácil, especialmente para Paulo e Silas. Eles ainda estão se recuperando dos ferimentos causados pelo espancamento que sofreram em Filipos. — Atos 16:22, 23.

[2] O que esses três homens fazem para não pensar no

1, 2. Quem estava fazendo a viagem desde Filipos até Tessalônica, e que coisas talvez lhes estivessem passando pela mente?

longo caminho que têm pela frente? Conversar com certeza ajuda. Eles ainda têm bem viva na mente a emoção que sentiram quando o carcereiro lá em Filipos e sua família se tornaram discípulos. Aquele acontecimento deixou esses viajantes ainda mais decididos a continuar proclamando a palavra de Deus. Mas, conforme se aproximam da cidade costeira de Tessalônica, eles talvez se perguntem como os judeus nessa cidade vão recebê-los. Será que eles vão ser atacados, ou até mesmo espancados, como aconteceu em Filipos?

[3] Mais tarde, Paulo escreveu aos cristãos em Tessalônica sobre como se sentiu naquela ocasião: "Depois de primeiro termos sofrido e termos sido tratados com insolência em Filipos (conforme sabeis), ficamos denodados, por meio de nosso Deus, para falar-vos as boas novas de Deus com bastante luta." (1 Tes. 2:2) Com essas palavras, Paulo parece indicar que tinha receio de entrar na cidade de Tessalônica, especialmente depois do que aconteceu em Filipos. Você já se sentiu como Paulo? Às vezes acha muito difícil proclamar as boas novas? Paulo confiava em Jeová para fortalecê-lo — ajudá-lo a reunir a coragem que precisava. Estudar o

3. Como o exemplo de Paulo em reunir coragem para pregar pode nos ajudar?

exemplo de Paulo pode ajudar você a fazer o mesmo. — 1 Cor. 4:16.

Paulo "raciocinou . . . à base das Escrituras" (Atos 17:1-3)

[4] O relato nos diz que, enquanto esteve em Tessalônica, Paulo pregou na sinagoga por três sábados. Será que isso quer dizer que sua visita àquela cidade durou apenas três semanas? Não necessariamente. Nós não sabemos quando Paulo foi à sinagoga pela primeira vez depois de chegar à cidade. Além disso, as cartas de Paulo indicam que, enquanto em Tessalônica, ele e seus companheiros trabalharam para se sustentar. (1 Tes. 2:9; 2 Tes. 3:7, 8) Também, durante o tempo em que ficou ali, por duas vezes Paulo recebeu suprimentos de seus irmãos em Filipos. (Fil. 4:16) De modo que ele provavelmente ficou em Tessalônica mais do que apenas três semanas.

[5] Tendo criado coragem para pregar, Paulo falou aos que estavam reunidos na sinagoga. Como de costume, Paulo "raciocinou com eles à base das Escrituras, explicando e provando com referências que era necessário

4. Por que é provável que Paulo tenha ficado mais do que apenas três semanas em Tessalônica?

5. Como Paulo procurava raciocinar com as pessoas?

que o Cristo sofresse e fosse levantado dentre os mortos, e dizendo: 'Este é o Cristo, este Jesus, que eu vos publico.'" (Atos 17:2, 3) Observe que Paulo não tentava apelar para a emoção; ele apelava para a razão. Ele sabia que os que frequentavam a sinagoga conheciam e respeitavam as Escrituras. Mas eles não as entendiam plenamente. Assim, Paulo usava as Escrituras para argumentar, explicar e provar que Jesus de Nazaré era o prometido Messias, ou Cristo.

[6] Paulo seguiu o modelo estabelecido por Jesus, que usava as Escrituras como base de seu ensino. Durante seu ministério, por exemplo, Jesus mostrou a seus seguidores que, segundo as Escrituras, o Filho do homem teria de sofrer, morrer e ser ressuscitado. (Mat. 16:21) Depois de sua ressurreição, Jesus apareceu a seus discípulos. Sem dúvida, esse fato em si seria o suficiente para mostrar que ele tinha falado a verdade. Mas Jesus fez mais do que isso. Sobre o que ele disse a certos discípulos, lemos: "Principiando por Moisés e por todos os Profetas, interpretou-lhes em todas as Escrituras as coisas referentes a si mesmo." Com que resultado? Os discípulos disseram: "Não se nos abrasavam os corações

6. Como Jesus raciocinava à base das Escrituras, e com que resultado?

[isto é, não nos sentíamos muito animados] quando nos falava na estrada, ao nos abrir plenamente as Escrituras?" — Luc. 24:32.

[7] A mensagem da Palavra de Deus tem poder. (Heb. 4:12) Por isso, os cristãos hoje baseiam seus ensinos nessa Palavra, assim como Paulo, os outros apóstolos e o próprio Jesus fizeram. Nós também raciocinamos com as pessoas, explicamos o significado das Escrituras e provamos aquilo que ensinamos por abrir a Bíblia e mostrar aos moradores o que ela diz. Afinal, a mensagem que levamos não é nossa. Por usarmos sempre a Bíblia, ajudamos as pessoas a ver que proclamamos não as nossas próprias ideias, mas os ensinos de Deus. Nós também somos ajudados a sempre nos lembrar de que a mensagem que pregamos se baseia firmemente na Palavra de Deus. É totalmente confiável. Saber isso não lhe dá confiança para pregar com coragem, assim como Paulo?

'Alguns se tornaram crentes' (Atos 17:4-9)

[8] Paulo já havia visto pessoalmente como eram verda-

7. Por que é importante basear nas Escrituras aquilo que ensinamos?
8-10. (a) De que formas as pessoas em Tessalônica reagiram às boas novas? (b) Por que alguns judeus estavam com ciúmes de Paulo? (c) Como os opositores judeus reagiram?

deiras as palavras de Jesus: “O escravo não é maior do que o seu amo. Se me perseguiram a mim, perseguirão também a vós; se observaram a minha palavra, observarão também a vossa.” (João 15:20) Foi exatamente isso que Paulo viu acontecer em Tessalônica — alguns estavam ansiosos para ‘observar a palavra’, ao passo que outros se opunham a ela. Quanto àqueles que reagiram bem, Lucas escreveu: “Alguns deles [dos judeus] tornaram-se crentes [cristãos] e associaram-se com Paulo e Silas, e assim fizeram também uma grande multidão dos gregos que adoravam a Deus e não poucas das mulheres de destaque.” (Atos 17:4) Sem dúvida esses novos discípulos ficaram felizes por terem recebido ajuda para entender mais claramente as Escrituras.

9 Apesar de alguns terem gostado das palavras de Paulo, outros ficaram com raiva dele. Alguns judeus em Tessalônica ficaram com ciúmes de Paulo por ele ter sido bem-sucedido em convencer “uma grande multidão dos gregos” a aceitar a mensagem. Com a intenção de fazerem prosélitos, aqueles judeus haviam ensinado as Escrituras Hebraicas aos gentios gregos e, por isso, achavam que estes lhes pertenciam. Mas agora era como se Paulo lhes estivesse roubando aqueles gregos — bem ali na sinagoga! Os judeus ficaram furiosos.

[10] Lucas nos informa o que aconteceu a seguir: "Os judeus, ficando com ciúme, acolheram na sua companhia certos homens iníquos dos vadios da feira e formaram uma turba, e passaram a lançar a cidade num alvoroço. E eles assaltaram a casa de Jasão e buscavam [trazer Paulo e Silas] para fora à ralé. Quando não os acharam, arrastaram Jasão e certos irmãos perante os governantes da cidade, clamando: 'Estes homens que têm subvertido a terra habitada estão também presentes aqui, e Jasão recebeu-os com hospitalidade. E todos estes homens agem em oposição aos decretos de César, dizendo que há outro rei, Jesus.'" (Atos 17:5-7) Como a ação dessa turba afetaria Paulo e seus companheiros?

[11] Turbas são terríveis. São como as águas violentas e descontroladas de um rio durante uma enchente — arrastam tudo que estiver no caminho. Essa foi a arma que os judeus usaram na tentativa de se livrar de Paulo e Silas. Então, depois de os judeus terem lançado a cidade num "alvoroço", eles tentaram convencer as autoridades de que os discípulos haviam cometido crimes graves. Primeiro acusaram Paulo e os outros proclama-

---

11. Que acusações foram feitas contra Paulo e seus companheiros de pregação, e que decreto os acusadores talvez tivessem em mente? (Veja a nota.)

dores do Reino de terem “subvertido a terra habitada”, embora Paulo e seus companheiros não tivessem causado o alvoroço em Tessalônica. Já a segunda acusação foi bem mais grave. Os judeus disseram que os missionários proclamavam a existência de outro rei, Jesus, violando assim os decretos do imperador.*

[12] Lembre-se de que os líderes religiosos haviam feito uma acusação similar contra Jesus. Eles disseram a Pilatos: “Achamos este homem subvertendo a nossa nação . . . e dizendo que ele mesmo é Cristo, um rei.” (Luc. 23:2) Pilatos, possivelmente temendo que o imperador pudesse concluir que ele tolerava alta traição, condenou Jesus à morte. Da mesma forma, as acusações contra os cristãos em Tessalônica poderiam ter tido sérias consequências. Uma obra de referência menciona: “Não é exagero dizer que os cristãos estavam em grande perigo por causa dessa acusação, pois ‘a mera insinuação de traição contra os imperadores quase sempre era fatal

---

* De acordo com um erudito, houve naquele tempo um decreto de César proibindo qualquer predição “da vinda de um novo rei ou reino, especialmente um que fosse suplantar ou julgar o imperador”. Os inimigos de Paulo podem muito bem ter deturpado a mensagem do apóstolo, afirmando que era uma violação desse decreto. Veja o quadro “Os imperadores romanos e o livro de Atos”, na página 268.

---

12. O que mostra que as acusações contra os cristãos em Tessalônica poderiam ter tido sérias consequências?

OS IMPERADORES ROMANOS E O LIVRO DE ATOS

Todos os eventos registrados no livro de Atos — na realidade, todos os registrados nas Escrituras Gregas Cristãs — aconteceram dentro dos limites do Império Romano. Assim, a autoridade secular suprema era sempre o imperador romano. Ele era aquele a quem os judeus em Tessalônica estavam se referindo ao falar dos "decretos de César". (Atos 17:7) Quatro imperadores governaram durante o período abrangido pelo livro de Atos: Tibério, Caio, Cláudio I e Nero.

- Tibério (14-37 EC) foi imperador durante todo o ministério de Jesus e os primeiros anos da congregação cristã. Ele foi o César a quem os judeus se referiam no julgamento de Jesus quando gritaram para Pilatos: "Se livrares este homem, não és amigo de César. . . . Não temos rei senão César." — João 19:12, 15.
- Caio, também conhecido como Calígula (37-41 EC), não é mencionado nas Escrituras Gregas Cristãs.
- Cláudio I (41-54 EC) é mencionado duas vezes no livro de Atos. Conforme predito pelo profeta cristão Ágabo, "uma grande fome", que ocorreu por volta de 46 EC, veio "sobre toda a terra habitada . . . no tempo de Cláudio". Além disso, em 49 EC ou no começo de 50 EC, Cláudio 'ordenou que todos os judeus se afastassem de Roma', um decreto que fez com que Áquila e Priscila se mudassem para Corinto, onde conheceram o apóstolo Paulo. — Atos 11:28; 18:1, 2.

- Nero (54-68 EC) foi o César a quem Paulo apelou. (Atos 25:11) Diz-se que esse imperador mais tarde culpou os cristãos pelo incêndio que destruiu boa parte de Roma por volta de 64 EC. Pouco depois disso, em cerca de 65 EC, o apóstolo Paulo foi preso pela segunda vez em Roma e executado.

para o acusado'." Será que esse odioso ataque alcançaria seu objetivo?

[13] A turba falhou em parar a obra de pregação em Tessalônica. Por quê? Um dos motivos foi que Paulo e Silas não puderam ser encontrados. Além disso, parece que os governantes da cidade não ficaram convencidos de que as acusações eram válidas. Depois de exigirem uma "fiança", eles libertaram Jasão e os outros irmãos. (Atos 17:8, 9) Seguindo o conselho de Jesus para os cristãos serem "cautelosos como as serpentes, contudo, inocentes como as pombas", Paulo prudentemente fugiu do perigo para que pudesse continuar sua pregação em outro lugar. (Mat. 10:16) Fica claro que o fato de Paulo criar coragem não o levou a ser imprudente. Como os cristãos hoje podem imitar seu exemplo?

13, 14. (a) Por que a turba falhou em parar a obra de pregação em Tessalônica? (b) De que forma Paulo seguiu o conselho de Cristo sobre ser cauteloso, e como podemos imitar o seu exemplo?

[14] Atualmente, os clérigos da cristandade muitas vezes instigam turbas contra as Testemunhas de Jeová. Acusando-as de sedição e traição, eles manipulam os governantes para que se oponham a elas. Assim como aqueles perseguidores do primeiro século, os opositores atuais são motivados pelo ciúme. Seja como for, os cristãos verdadeiros procuram não se envolver sem necessidade em problemas. Sempre que possível, evitamos confrontos com pessoas iradas e desarrazoadas, procurando continuar nossa obra em paz, talvez voltando mais tarde quando as coisas tiverem acalmado.

Eles eram "de mentalidade mais nobre" (Atos 17:10-15)

[15] Pelo bem da segurança, Paulo e Silas foram enviados a Bereia, a aproximadamente 65 quilômetros de Tessalônica. Quando eles chegaram lá, Paulo foi à sinagoga e falou com as pessoas reunidas ali. Como era bom encontrar uma assistência receptiva! Lucas escreveu que os judeus de Bereia eram "de mentalidade mais nobre do que os de Tessalônica, pois recebiam a palavra com o maior anelo mental, examinando cuidadosamente as Escrituras, cada dia, quanto a se estas coisas eram assim". (Atos 17:10, 11) Será que essas palavras desme-

15. Como os bereanos reagiram às boas novas?

reciam as pessoas em Tessalônica que aceitaram a verdade? De forma alguma. Mais tarde, Paulo escreveu-lhes: “Agradecemos a Deus incessantemente, porque, quando recebestes a palavra de Deus, que ouvistes de nós, vós a aceitastes, não como a palavra de homens, mas, pelo que verazmente é, como a palavra de Deus, que também está operando em vós, crentes.” (1 Tes. 2:13) Mas o que fazia com que esses judeus em Bereia fossem de mentalidade tão nobre?

16 Os bereanos ouviram algo totalmente novo, mas não ficaram desconfiados nem foram críticos. Ao mesmo tempo, não se mostraram ingênuos. Primeiro, eles ouviram com atenção o que Paulo tinha a dizer. Daí, verificaram nas Escrituras o que Paulo lhes havia explicado. Eles estudaram diligentemente a Palavra de Deus não apenas aos sábados, mas todos os dias. E fizeram isso com muito “anelo mental”, dedicando-se a entender as Escrituras à luz daquele novo ensino. Por fim, eles mostraram que eram humildes o suficiente para fazer mudanças, pois “muitos deles tornaram-se crentes”. (Atos 17:12) Não é de admirar que Lucas os descreva como pessoas de ‘mentalidade nobre’.

16. Por que os bereanos foram apropriadamente descritos como pessoas de ‘mentalidade nobre’?

[17] Mal sabiam os bereanos que o registro de sua reação às boas novas seria preservado na Palavra de Deus como um excelente exemplo de 'mentalidade nobre' e espiritual. Eles fizeram exatamente o que Paulo esperava e o que Jeová Deus queria que fizessem. Nós também incentivamos as pessoas a agir assim: examinar a Bíblia com atenção para que adquiram uma fé baseada firmemente na Palavra de Deus. Mas, depois de nos tornarmos cristãos, será que não há mais necessidade de ter mentalidade nobre? Ao contrário, torna-se ainda mais importante ter o forte desejo de aprender de Jeová e aplicar prontamente seus ensinos. Desse modo, permitimos que Jeová nos molde e nos treine de acordo com a sua vontade. (Isa. 64:8) Assim, continuaremos agradando ao nosso Pai celestial, sendo produtivos no seu serviço.

[18] Paulo não ficou muito tempo em Bereia. Lemos: "Quando os judeus de Tessalônica souberam que a palavra de Deus estava sendo publicada por Paulo tam-

17. Por que o exemplo dos bereanos é tão elogiável, e como podemos continuar a imitar esse exemplo mesmo depois de servir a Jeová por muito tempo?

18, 19. (a) Por que Paulo deixou Bereia, mas como demonstrou perseverança digna de ser imitada? (b) A quem Paulo pregaria a seguir, e onde?

bém em Bereia, foram também para lá incitar e agitar as massas. Então, os irmãos mandaram Paulo imediatamente embora, para ir até o mar; mas tanto Silas como Timóteo permaneceram ali. No entanto, os que acompanhavam Paulo levaram-no até Atenas, e, depois de receberem mandado para que Silas e Timóteo viessem ter com ele o mais depressa possível, partiram." (Atos 17:13-15) Aqueles inimigos das boas novas eram muito persistentes. Como se não bastasse terem expulsado Paulo de Tessalônica, eles viajaram até Bereia e tentaram causar ali o mesmo tipo de problema, mas tudo em vão. Paulo sabia que seu território era extenso, de modo que simplesmente foi pregar em outro lugar. Que nós também estejamos decididos a frustrar os esforços daqueles que querem parar a obra de pregação!

19 Por ter dado testemunho cabal aos judeus em Tessalônica e em Bereia, Paulo certamente aprendeu muito sobre a importância de dar testemunho com coragem e de raciocinar à base das Escrituras. Nós também aprendemos. Mas agora Paulo pregaria a uma assistência diferente: os gentios de Atenas. Como ele se sairia nessa cidade? Veremos isso no próximo capítulo.

CAPÍTULO 18

Incentivo para 'buscar a Deus e realmente o achar'

Paulo estabelece uma base de comum acordo com seus ouvintes e se adapta a eles

Baseado em Atos 17:16-34

PAULO está muito incomodado. Ele está em Atenas, Grécia, o centro de erudição onde Sócrates, Platão e Aristóteles ensinaram. Atenas é uma cidade muito religiosa. Em toda a parte — nos templos, nas praças públicas e nas ruas — Paulo vê inúmeros ídolos, pois os atenienses adoram um panteão de deuses. Paulo sabe o que Jeová, o Deus verdadeiro, pensa a respeito da idolatria. (Êxo. 20:4, 5) O fiel apóstolo tem o mesmo ponto de vista de Jeová — ele tem aversão a ídolos.

[2] O que Paulo vê ao entrar na ágora, ou praça principal, o deixa muito escandalizado. Enfileiradas ao longo do canto noroeste da praça, perto da entrada principal, há um grande número de estátuas fálicas do deus Hermes. A praça está cheia de santuários. Como esse zelo-

1-3. (a) Por que o apóstolo Paulo ficou muito incomodado ao chegar a Atenas? (b) O que podemos aprender por estudar o exemplo de Paulo?

so apóstolo vai pregar nessa cidade tomada pela idolatria? Será que ele conseguirá reprimir sua aversão a ídolos e encontrar uma base de comum acordo com seus ouvintes? Vai conseguir ajudar alguém a buscar o Deus verdadeiro e realmente o achar?

[3] O discurso de Paulo aos homens cultos de Atenas, conforme registrado em Atos 17:22-31, é um modelo de eloquência, tato e discernimento. Por estudarmos o exemplo de Paulo, podemos aprender muito sobre como estabelecer uma base de comum acordo com nossos ouvintes e, assim, ajudá-los a raciocinar.

Paulo ensina "na feira" (Atos 17:16-21)

[4] Paulo visitou Atenas em cerca de 50 EC, durante sua segunda viagem missionária.* Enquanto esperava Silas e Timóteo chegarem de Bereia, Paulo "começou a raciocinar na sinagoga com os judeus", como era seu costume. Ele também encontrou um território onde pudesse falar com os não judeus de Atenas — "na feira", ou ágora. (Atos 17:17) Localizada a noroeste da Acrópole, a ágora de Atenas tinha aproximadamente 250 metros de

* Veja o quadro "Atenas — capital cultural do mundo antigo", na página 276.

4, 5. Onde Paulo pregou em Atenas, e por que não seria nada fácil convencer as pessoas ali?

ATENAS — CAPITAL CULTURAL DO MUNDO ANTIGO

Antes mesmo de a história de Atenas começar a ser registrada no sétimo século AEC, a Acrópole de Atenas já era uma cidadela bem fortificada. Atenas tornou-se a principal cidade do distrito da Ática e dominava uma área de mais ou menos 2.500 quilômetros quadrados cercada por montanhas e pelo mar. O nome da cidade parece estar relacionado com o nome Atena, a deusa padroeira da cidade.

No sexto século AEC, Sólon, um legislador ateniense, reformou os sistemas social, político, jurídico e econômico da cidade. Ele melhorou a qualidade de vida dos pobres e estabeleceu a base para um governo democrático. Mas tratava-se de uma democracia apenas para as pessoas livres, e grande parte da população da cidade era composta de escravos.

Após as vitórias gregas sobre os persas no quinto século AEC, Atenas tornou-se a capital de um pequeno império cujo comércio marítimo ia desde a Itália e a Sicília a oeste até Chipre e a Síria a leste. No auge de seu esplendor, Atenas era o centro cultural do mundo antigo, destacando-se nas artes plásticas, no teatro, na filosofia, na retórica e nas ciências. Muitos prédios públicos e templos adornavam a cidade. Sua paisagem era dominada pela Acrópole, um monte imponente onde se localizava o Partenon, templo onde ficava uma estátua de 12 metros de altura, feita de ouro e de marfim, da deusa Atena.

Atenas foi conquistada várias vezes: primeiro pelos espartanos, depois pelos macedônios e por fim pelos romanos, que saquearam as riquezas da cidade. Mesmo assim, na época do apóstolo Paulo, Atenas ainda tinha prestígio por causa de seu passado glorioso. Na verdade, a cidade nunca foi incorporada a nenhuma província romana. Ela tinha autonomia jurídica sobre seus cidadãos e isenção de impostos romanos. Apesar de suas maiores glórias terem ficado no passado, Atenas continuou sendo uma cidade universitária para onde os ricos enviavam seus filhos para estudar.

comprimento por 200 metros de largura. A ágora era muito mais do que uma feira; era a praça principal da cidade. Uma obra de referência diz que esse lugar era "o centro econômico, político e cultural da cidade". Os atenienses gostavam muito de se reunir ali para participar em debates filosóficos.

[5] Não seria nada fácil convencer as pessoas na ágora. Entre elas estavam os epicureus e os estoicos, membros de escolas rivais de filosofia.* Os epicureus acreditavam que a vida surgiu por acaso. Seu conceito a respeito da

* Veja o quadro "Os epicureus e os estoicos", na página 278.

OS EPICUREUS E OS ESTOICOS

Os epicureus e os estoicos eram seguidores de duas escolas distintas de filosofia. Nenhum dos dois grupos acreditava numa ressurreição.

Apesar de crerem na existência de deuses, os epicureus achavam que esses não estavam interessados nos humanos. Por isso, acreditavam que os deuses não recompensariam nem puniriam os homens e, portanto, orações e sacrifícios eram inúteis. Os epicureus acreditavam que o bem supremo na vida era o prazer. A falta de princípio moral caracterizava seu modo de pensar e suas ações. Mas eles incentivavam a moderação porque servia de proteção das más consequências dos excessos. Buscavam o conhecimento apenas para se livrarem de medos e superstições religiosas.

Os estoicos, por outro lado, acreditavam que todas as coisas faziam parte de uma deidade impessoal e que a alma humana emanava de tal fonte. Alguns estoicos criam que a alma um dia seria destruída junto com o Universo. Outros acreditavam que a alma seria por fim reabsorvida por essa deidade. De acordo com filósofos estoicos, para obter felicidade era necessário seguir as leis da natureza.

vida resumia-se no seguinte: "Não há por que temer a Deus; não há dor na morte; o bem é alcançável; o mal é suportável". Os estoicos davam ênfase à razão e à lógica e não acreditavam que Deus fosse uma Pessoa. Nem os epicureus nem os estoicos acreditavam na ressurreição conforme era ensinada pelos discípulos de Cristo. Evidentemente, os conceitos filosóficos desses dois grupos eram incompatíveis com as elevadas verdades do verdadeiro cristianismo, sobre o qual Paulo pregava.

6 Como os filósofos gregos reagiram ao ensino de Paulo? Alguns usaram uma palavra que significa "paroleiro" ou "apanhador de sementes" para se referir a ele. (Atos 17:18, nota) Sobre essa palavra grega, certo erudito disse: "A palavra originalmente se referia a um pequeno pássaro que ficava apanhando sementes. Mais tarde, passou a ser aplicada a pessoas que apanhavam sobras de alimentos e outras coisas sem valor na feira. Depois disso, passou a se referir, em sentido figurado, a pessoas que colhiam informações a esmo apenas para repeti-las, sem realmente entendê-las." Em outras palavras, aqueles homens cultos estavam dizendo que Paulo era um plagiador ignorante. Mas, conforme veremos, Paulo não se deixou intimidar por esses rótulos depreciativos.

7 Hoje não é diferente. Como Testemunhas de Jeová,

6, 7. Como alguns filósofos gregos reagiram ao ensino de Paulo, e que reação similar nós às vezes encontramos hoje?

nós temos sido frequentemente rotulados de modo depreciativo por causa de nossas crenças baseadas na Bíblia. Por exemplo, alguns educadores ensinam que a evolução é um fato e insistem que quem é inteligente aceita esse ensino. Em outras palavras, eles rotulam de ignorantes os que se recusam a acreditar nessa teoria. Esses homens instruídos querem fazer as pessoas acreditar que nós somos 'apanhadores de sementes' pelo fato de apresentarmos o que a Bíblia diz e mostrarmos evidências de projeto na natureza. Mas nós não nos deixamos intimidar por essa atitude. Em vez disso, falamos com convicção quando defendemos nossa crença de que a vida na Terra é resultado do trabalho de um Projetista inteligente, Jeová Deus. — Rev. 4:11.

[8] Outros que ouviram Paulo na feira tiveram uma reação diferente. Diziam: "Ele parece ser publicador de deidades estrangeiras." (Atos 17:18) Será que Paulo estava mesmo apresentando novos deuses aos atenienses? Esse era um assunto sério, pois lembrava uma das acusações pelas quais Sócrates havia sido julgado e condenado à morte séculos antes. Não é de admirar que Paulo tenha sido levado até o Areópago a fim de explicar os ensinos que para os atenienses pareciam estranhos.* Como Paulo defenderia sua mensagem perante pessoas que não tinham nenhum conhecimento das Escrituras?

8. (a) Como alguns reagiram à pregação de Paulo? (b) Quando a Bíblia diz que Paulo foi levado ao Areópago, o que isso talvez signifique? (Veja a nota na página 281.)

"Homens de Atenas, eu observei" (Atos 17:22, 23)

[9] Lembre-se de que Paulo estava muito incomodado com toda a idolatria que havia visto. Mas, em vez de fazer um ataque descontrolado contra a adoração de ídolos, ele manteve a calma. Com bastante tato, Paulo procurou convencer seus ouvintes por estabelecer uma base de comum acordo. Ele começou dizendo: "Homens de Atenas, eu observei que em todas as coisas pareceis mais dados ao temor das deidades do que os outros." (Atos 17:22) De certa forma, Paulo estava dizendo: 'Vejo que vocês são muito religiosos.' Desse modo, Paulo sabiamente os elogiou por terem inclinação espiritual. Ele reconhecia que alguns que são cegados por

* Localizado a noroeste da Acrópole, o Areópago era uma colina que servia como local onde o conselho principal de Atenas costumava reunir-se. O termo "Areópago" pode se referir tanto ao conselho como à própria colina. Assim, há diferenças de opinião entre os estudiosos quanto a se Paulo foi levado para essa colina ou para perto dali, ou se ele foi levado para uma reunião do conselho em outro lugar, talvez na ágora.

9-11. (a) Como Paulo procurou estabelecer uma base de comum acordo com sua assistência? (b) Como podemos imitar o exemplo de Paulo em nosso ministério?

crenças falsas talvez tenham um bom coração. Afinal, Paulo sabia que ele mesmo já havia sido 'ignorante e tinha agido com falta de fé'. — 1 Tim. 1:13.

[10] Construindo sobre a base que tinha lançado, Paulo mencionou algo que ele havia observado; uma prova concreta da religiosidade dos atenienses — um altar dedicado "A um Deus Desconhecido". De acordo com certa fonte, "os gregos e outros povos costumavam dedicar altares a 'deuses desconhecidos' por medo de ofender algum deus que talvez não tivessem incluído em sua adoração". Por meio desse altar, os atenienses reconheciam a existência de um Deus desconhecido a eles. Paulo usou o fato de haver esse altar ali como ponto de partida para falar das boas novas. Ele explicou: "Aquilo a que sem o saber dais devoção piedosa, isso é o que eu vos publico." (Atos 17:23) O argumento de Paulo era sutil, mas poderoso. Ele não estava pregando um deus novo ou 'estrangeiro', como alguns o haviam acusado. Ele estava ensinando sobre o Deus que eles não conheciam — o Deus verdadeiro.

[11] Como podemos imitar o exemplo de Paulo em nosso ministério? Se formos atentos, talvez observemos objetos religiosos que uma pessoa está usando ou tem à mostra em sua casa ou no seu jardim, indicando que ela é religiosa. Talvez possamos dizer: 'Vejo que você é uma pessoa religiosa. Gosto de falar com pessoas que dão valor a assuntos espirituais.' Por usarmos de tato e levarmos em conta os sentimentos religiosos da pessoa, podemos lançar uma base de comum acordo sobre a qual construir. Lembre-se de que não é nosso objetivo prejulgar outros com base em suas crenças. Entre nossos irmãos há muitos que no passado acreditavam sinceramente nos ensinos da religião falsa.

Deus 'não está longe de cada um de nós' (Atos 17:24-28)

[12] Paulo havia lançado uma base de comum acordo, mas será que conseguiria continuar a construir sobre ela ao dar testemunho? Sabendo que seus ouvintes eram instruídos na filosofia grega e não conheciam as Escrituras, ele adaptou de diversas maneiras seu modo de pregar. Primeiro, ele apresentou ensinos bíblicos sem citar diretamente as Escrituras. Segundo, ele se incluiu nas suas declarações por às vezes usar as palavras "nos" e "nós", mostrando assim que não era diferente de seus ouvintes. Terceiro, fez citações da literatura grega para mostrar que algumas coisas que estava ensinando se harmonizavam com escritos que eles aceitavam. Examinemos agora o poderoso discurso de Paulo. Que verdades importantes ele transmitiu a respeito do Deus que era desconhecido pelos atenienses?

12. Como Paulo adaptou o seu modo de pregar aos seus ouvintes?

[13] Deus criou o Universo. Paulo disse: "O Deus que fez o mundo e todas as coisas nele, sendo, como Este é, Senhor do céu e da terra, não mora em templos feitos por mãos."* (Atos 17:24) O Universo não surgiu por acaso. O Deus verdadeiro é o Criador de todas as coisas. (Sal. 146:6) Diferentemente de Atena ou das outras deidades cuja glória dependia de templos, santuários e altares, nenhum templo feito por mãos humanas pode conter o Soberano Senhor do céu e da Terra. (1 Reis 8:27) A mensagem de Paulo era clara: o Deus verdadeiro é maior do que quaisquer ídolos ou templos feitos pelo homem. — Isa. 40:18-26.

[14] Deus não depende de humanos. Os idólatras costumavam vestir suas imagens com roupas ostentosas, enchê-

* A palavra grega traduzida "mundo" é kó·smos, que os gregos usavam para se referir ao Universo. É possível que nessa ocasião Paulo, que estava tentando manter uma base de comum acordo com seus ouvintes gregos, tenha usado o termo nesse sentido.

13. O que Paulo explicou a respeito da origem do Universo, e que mensagem suas palavras transmitiram?

14. Como Paulo mostrou que Deus não depende dos humanos?

las de presentes caros ou dar-lhes comida e bebida — como se os ídolos precisassem dessas coisas. Mas alguns dos filósofos gregos que assistiam ao discurso de Paulo talvez acreditassem que um deus não precisaria de nada dos humanos. Nesse caso, eles sem dúvida concordaram com as palavras de Paulo de que Deus não é "assistido por mãos humanas, como se necessitasse de alguma coisa". Realmente, não há nada material que os humanos possam dar ao Criador. Na realidade, é Deus quem dá aos humanos o que eles precisam — "vida, e fôlego, e todas as coisas", incluindo o sol, a chuva e o solo produtivo. (Atos 17:25; Gên. 2:7) Assim, Deus, Aquele que dá todas as coisas, não depende dos humanos, os que se beneficiam de Suas dádivas.

[15] Deus criou o homem. Os atenienses consideravam-se superiores a quem não era grego. Mas o nacionalismo e o orgulho racial vão contra a verdade bíblica. (Deut. 10:17) Paulo abordou esse assunto delicado usando de tato e habilidade. Referindo-se ao relato de Gênesis sobre Adão, o pai de toda a raça humana, ele disse: "[Deus] fez de um só homem toda nação dos homens."

---

15. Como Paulo abordou a questão de os atenienses se considerarem superiores a quem não era grego, e o que podemos aprender desse exemplo?

(Gên. 1:26-28; Atos 17:26) Suas palavras com certeza fizeram com que seus ouvintes parassem para pensar, e dificilmente eles deixaram de entender o ponto: visto que todos os humanos têm um ancestral em comum, nenhuma raça ou nacionalidade é superior a outra. Aprendemos uma importante lição desse exemplo. Embora queiramos ter tato e ser razoáveis ao dar testemunho, não amenizamos a força da verdade bíblica apenas para torná-la mais aceitável a outros.

16 Deus intencionou que os humanos fossem achegados a ele. Mesmo que os filósofos presentes ao discurso de Paulo tenham tentado por muito tempo, eles jamais conseguiram explicar satisfatoriamente o objetivo da existência humana. Mas Paulo revelou aos atenienses o propósito do Criador para os humanos, dizendo que Deus criou os homens "para buscarem a Deus, se tateassem por ele e realmente o achassem, embora, de fato, não esteja longe de cada um de nós". (Atos 17:27) O Deus que era desconhecido pelos atenienses não é de forma alguma impossível de conhecer. Ao contrário, ele não está longe daqueles que realmente querem achá-lo e aprender sobre ele. (Sal. 145:18) Observe que Paulo usou a palavra "nós", incluindo a si mesmo entre aqueles que precisavam 'buscar' a Deus e 'tatear' por ele.

16. Qual o propósito do Criador para os humanos?

[17] Os humanos devem sentir-se atraídos a Deus. Paulo disse que, por causa de Deus, nós "temos vida, e nos movemos, e existimos". Alguns eruditos dizem que Paulo estava se referindo às palavras de Epimênides, um poeta da ilha de Creta que viveu no sexto século AEC e que era "um personagem importante na tradição religiosa de Atenas". Paulo deu uma outra razão pela qual os humanos deveriam sentir-se atraídos a Deus: "Certos dos poetas entre vós [disseram]: 'Pois nós também somos progênie dele.'" (Atos 17:28) Os humanos devem sentir que têm um vínculo com Deus, pois ele criou o homem de quem todos os humanos são descendentes. Para tornar a mensagem mais atraente à assistência, Paulo sabiamente citou trechos de escritos gregos que seus ouvintes sem dúvida respeitavam.* Em harmonia com o exemplo de Paulo, podemos vez por outra fazer citações da História, de enciclopédias ou de outras obras de

* Paulo citou um trecho de Os Fenômenos, poema sobre astronomia escrito pelo poeta estoico Arato. Outros escritos gregos, incluindo o Hino a Zeus, do poeta estoico Cleanto, usam fraseologia similar.

17, 18. Por que os humanos devem sentir-se atraídos a Deus, e o que podemos aprender da forma como Paulo tornou a mensagem mais atraente à sua assistência?

referência bem conhecidas. Por exemplo, uma citação apropriada de uma fonte respeitada talvez ajude alguém que não é Testemunha de Jeová a se convencer da origem pagã de certas práticas ou costumes da religião falsa.

[18] Até esse ponto de seu discurso, Paulo transmitiu importantes verdades sobre Deus, adaptando com habilidade suas palavras à sua assistência. O que o apóstolo queria que seus ouvintes atenienses fizessem com essas informações vitais? Sem demora, ele passou a falar sobre isso ao dar continuidade ao seu discurso.

É da vontade de Deus que “todos, em toda a parte, se arrependam” (Atos 17:29-31)

[19] Paulo estava pronto para incentivar seus ouvintes a agir. Referindo-se novamente aos escritos gregos, ele disse: “Visto, pois, que somos progênie de Deus, não devemos imaginar que o Ser Divino seja semelhante a ouro, ou prata, ou pedra, semelhante a algo esculpido pela arte e inventividade do homem.” (Atos 17:29) De fato, se os humanos foram criados por Deus, então como Deus poderia assumir a forma de ídolos, que são criados por homens? O argumento sutil de Paulo ex-

---

19, 20. (a) Como Paulo usou de tato ao expor a tolice de adorar ídolos feitos pelos homens? (b) O que os ouvintes de Paulo precisavam fazer?

pôs a tolice de adorar ídolos feitos pelo homem. (Sal. 115:4-8; Isa. 44:9-20) Ao dizer "[nós] não devemos . . . ", Paulo de certa forma tornou sua repreensão menos dolorosa.

[20] O apóstolo deixou claro que eles precisavam agir: "Deus não tem tomado em conta os tempos de tal ignorância [do fato de que Deus desaprova os que adoram ídolos], no entanto, agora ele está dizendo à humanidade que todos, em toda a parte, se arrependam." (Atos 17:30) Alguns dos ouvintes talvez tenham ficado chocados ao ouvir que deveriam arrepender-se. Mas o poderoso discurso de Paulo deixou claro que eles deviam a vida a Deus e que, por isso, tinham de prestar contas a Ele. Os atenienses precisavam buscar a Deus, aprender a verdade sobre ele e harmonizar toda a sua vida com essa verdade. Para os atenienses isso significava reconhecer que a idolatria é um pecado e deixar de praticá-la.

[21] Paulo terminou seu discurso com palavras que davam muito em que pensar: "[Deus] fixou um dia em que se propôs julgar em justiça a terra habitada, por meio dum homem a quem designou, e ele tem fornecido garantia a todos os homens, visto que o ressuscitou dentre os mortos.” (Atos 17:31) Um futuro Dia de Julgamento — que motivo sério para buscar o Deus verdadeiro e achá-lo! Paulo não mencionou o nome do Juiz designado. Em vez disso, Paulo disse algo surpreendente sobre esse Juiz: ele tinha vivido como homem, morrido e sido ressuscitado por Deus!

---

21, 22. Com que palavras Paulo terminou o seu discurso, e o que elas significam para nós?

22 Essa conclusão motivadora é cheia de significado para nós. Sabemos que o Juiz designado por Deus é o ressuscitado Jesus Cristo. (João 5:22) Também sabemos que o Dia do Julgamento durará mil anos e que se aproxima rapidamente. (Rev. 20:4, 6) Não temos medo do Dia do Julgamento, pois entendemos que ele trará indescritíveis bênçãos aos que forem julgados fiéis. A realização de nossa esperança de ter um futuro glorioso é garantida pelo maior dos milagres: a ressurreição de Jesus Cristo.

“Alguns . . . se tornaram crentes” (Atos 17:32-34)

23 O discurso de Paulo provocou diferentes reações. “Alguns começaram a mofar” quando ouviram falar de uma ressurreição. Outros foram educados, mas não tomaram uma posição. Disseram: “Nós te ouviremos so-

23. Que diferentes reações o discurso de Paulo provocou?

bre isso ainda outra vez." (Atos 17:32) Mas houve os que reagiram favoravelmente: "Alguns homens juntaram-se a ele e se tornaram crentes, entre os quais havia também Dionísio, juiz do tribunal do Areópago, e uma mulher de nome Dâmaris, e outros além deles." (Atos 17:34) Encontramos reações similares em nosso ministério. Algumas pessoas talvez zombem de nós, ao passo que outras são educadas, mas indiferentes. No entanto, ficamos muito felizes quando alguns aceitam a mensagem do Reino e se tornam cristãos.

24 Refletir no discurso de Paulo nos ensina muitas coisas: como fazer apresentações lógicas e convincentes; como nos adaptar à assistência; a necessidade de ser pacientes e de usar de tato com aqueles que estão cegados pela religião falsa; e a importância de nunca amenizar a verdade bíblica apenas para agradar os ouvintes. Por imitar o exemplo do apóstolo Paulo, nós podemos nos tornar instrutores mais eficientes no ministério de campo. E os superintendentes, por sua vez, podem se tornar instrutores mais bem qualificados na congregação. Assim estaremos bem equipados para ajudar outros a 'buscar a Deus e realmente o achar'. — Atos 17:27.

---

24. O que podemos aprender do discurso que Paulo fez no Areópago?

CAPÍTULO 19

"Persiste em falar e em não ficar calado"

Paulo trabalha para se sustentar, mas dá prioridade ao ministério

Baseado em Atos 18:1-22

O ANO de 50 EC está para terminar. O apóstolo Paulo está em Corinto, um rico centro comercial onde há uma grande população de gregos, romanos e judeus.* Paulo não está ali para comprar ou vender mercadorias nem para procurar trabalho. Ele está em Corinto por um motivo muito mais nobre: dar testemunho sobre o Reino de Deus. Ao mesmo tempo, Paulo precisa de um lugar para ficar e está decidido a não ser uma carga em sentido financeiro para outros. Ele não quer dar a ninguém a impressão de que está vivendo à custa da palavra de Deus. O que ele vai fazer?

[2] Paulo sabe um ofício — fabricação de tendas. Por ser um trabalho braçal, esse ofício não é fácil, mas Pau-

* Veja o quadro "Corinto — senhora de dois mares", na página 294.

1-3. Por que o apóstolo Paulo foi a Corinto, e que desafios ele enfrentou ali?

lo está disposto a trabalhar nisso para se sustentar. Será que ele vai encontrar trabalho nessa cidade movimentada? Encontrará um lugar adequado para ficar? Apesar desses desafios, Paulo não perde de vista seu principal trabalho, o ministério.

3 Paulo acabou ficando em Corinto por um bom tempo, e seu ministério ali deu muito fruto. O que podemos aprender das atividades de Paulo em Corinto que nos ajudará a dar testemunho cabal sobre o Reino de Deus em nosso território?

"Eram fabricantes de tendas por profissão" (Atos 18:1-4)

4 Pouco depois de chegar a Corinto, Paulo conheceu um casal hospitaleiro — um judeu chamado Áquila, e sua esposa, Priscila, ou Prisca. O casal mudou-se para Corinto por causa de um decreto do Imperador Cláudio ordenando que "todos os judeus se afastassem de Roma". (Atos 18:1, 2) Áquila e Priscila não só receberam Paulo em sua casa como o convidaram a trabalhar com eles. Lemos: "Em razão de serem da mesma profissão, [Paulo] ficou no lar deles, e trabalhavam, pois eram

4, 5. (a) Onde Paulo ficou enquanto esteve em Corinto, e que trabalho fez para se sustentar? (b) Como Paulo talvez tenha aprendido a fabricar tendas?

CORINTO — SENHORA DE DOIS MARES

A Corinto antiga ficava num istmo, ou estreita faixa de terra, que ligava a Grécia continental ao norte com a península do Peloponeso ao sul. Esse istmo tinha uns 6 quilômetros de largura em seu ponto mais estreito, de modo que Corinto tinha dois portos: no golfo de Corinto ficava o porto de Lecaion, que atendia às rotas marítimas que seguiam para a Itália, a Sicília e a Espanha, a oeste; no golfo Sarônico ficava o porto de Cencreia, que atendia às rotas marítimas do mar Egeu, da Ásia Menor, da Síria e do Egito.

Visto que os fortes ventos no mar ao extremo sul do Peloponeso tornavam perigosas as viagens marítimas, em geral os comandantes dos navios de carga preferiam ancorar em um dos dois portos de Corinto, transportar a carga por terra e colocá-la num navio no porto do outro lado do istmo. Barcos leves podiam até mesmo ser puxados de um lado do istmo para o outro numa plataforma que passava por cima de uma estrada pavimentada que ia de mar a mar. Assim, a localização da cidade permitia que ela dominasse o comércio marítimo de leste a oeste e também o comércio terrestre de norte a sul. O ativo comércio levava a Corinto não apenas riquezas, mas também a promiscuidade comum a muitos portos.

Nos dias do apóstolo Paulo, Corinto era a capital da província romana da Acaia e um importante centro administrativo. A diversidade religiosa da cidade é comprovada pela presença de um templo usado para a adoração do imperador, santuários e templos dedicados a várias divindades gregas e egípcias, além de uma sinagoga judaica. — Atos 18:4.

As competições atléticas realizadas perto de Corinto a cada dois anos perdiam em importância apenas para os Jogos Olímpicos. Paulo estava em Corinto quando as competições de 51 EC foram realizadas. Assim, comenta certo dicionário bíblico, "dificilmente é mera coincidência o fato de que a primeira vez em que [Paulo] fez alusão ao atletismo tenha sido numa carta aos coríntios". — 1 Cor. 9:24-27.

fabricantes de tendas por profissão." (Atos 18:3) Paulo ficou na casa desse bondoso casal durante seu ministério em Corinto. No período em que morou com eles, Paulo talvez tenha escrito algumas das cartas que mais tarde se tornaram parte do cânon da Bíblia.*

[5] Como é que Paulo, um homem instruído "aos pés de Gamaliel", também sabia fabricar tendas? (Atos 22:3) Pelo visto, os judeus do primeiro século não achavam que ensinar um ofício a seus filhos fosse algo que estivesse abaixo de sua dignidade, mesmo que esses jovens ainda fossem receber educação adicional. Paulo era de

* Veja o quadro "Cartas inspiradas que forneceram encorajamento", na página 296.

CARTAS INSPIRADAS QUE FORNECERAM ENCORAJAMENTO

Durante os 18 meses que ficou em Corinto, por volta de 50-52 EC, o apóstolo Paulo escreveu pelo menos duas cartas que se tornaram parte das Escrituras Gregas Cristãs — Primeira e Segunda aos Tessalonicenses. Ele escreveu sua Carta aos Gálatas nesse mesmo período ou pouco depois.

Primeira aos Tessalonicenses é o primeiro dos escritos inspirados de Paulo. O apóstolo visitou Tessalônica por volta de 50 EC, durante sua segunda viagem missionária. A congregação formada ali logo teve de enfrentar oposição, o que obrigou Paulo e Silas a deixar a cidade. (Atos 17:1-10, 13) Preocupado com o bem-estar da recém-formada congregação, Paulo tentou voltar para lá duas vezes, mas "Satanás se interpôs no [seu] caminho". Por isso, Paulo enviou Timóteo para consolar e fortalecer os irmãos. Provavelmente no final de 50 EC, Timóteo voltou a Corinto, levando a Paulo um bom relatório a respeito da congregação em Tessalônica. Depois disso, Paulo escreveu essa carta. — 1 Tes. 2:17–3:7.

Segunda aos Tessalonicenses provavelmente foi escrita pouco depois da primeira carta, talvez em 51 EC. Que foi escrita em Corinto é sugerido pelo fato de que, em ambas as cartas, Timóteo e Silvano (chamado Silas no livro de Atos) enviaram cumprimentos junto com Paulo e não há registro de que esses três homens tenham servido juntos novamente depois que Paulo esteve nessa cidade. (Atos 18:5, 18; 1 Tes. 1:1; 2 Tes. 1:1) Por que Paulo escreveu essa segunda carta? Pelo visto ele havia recebido outras notícias a respeito da congregação, talvez por meio da mesma pessoa que havia entregado a primeira carta. Essas notícias motivaram Paulo a não apenas elogiar os irmãos por seu amor e perseverança, mas também a corrigir o conceito equivocado de alguns que achavam que a presença do Senhor era iminente. — 2 Tes. 1:3-12; 2:1, 2.

Na Carta aos Gálatas, Paulo dá a entender que já havia visitado os irmãos na Galácia pelo menos duas vezes. Em 47-48 EC, Paulo e Barnabé visitaram Antioquia da Pisídia, Icônio, Listra e Derbe, cidades que ficavam na província romana da Galácia. Em 49 EC, Paulo visitou novamente essa região junto com Silas. (Atos 13:1–14:23; 16:1-6) Paulo escreveu a carta porque os judaizantes, que chegaram ali logo depois de ele ter deixado a região, estavam ensinando que a circuncisão e a observância da Lei de Moisés eram necessárias para os cristãos. Sem dúvida, Paulo escreveu aos gálatas assim que ouviu falar desses ensinos falsos. É possível que ele tenha escrito essa carta enquanto esteve em Corinto, mas pode ser também que a tenha escrito de Éfeso, durante uma breve escala na sua viagem de volta a Antioquia da Síria, ou da própria Antioquia quando chegou lá. — Atos 18:18-23.

Tarso, na Cilícia, região famosa por um tecido chamado cilicium, usado para fabricar tendas. Sendo assim, é provável que Paulo tenha aprendido esse ofício ainda jovem. O que estava envolvido na fabricação de tendas? Esse trabalho podia envolver tecer o pano de tenda ou cortar e costurar o tecido grosso e rústico a fim de fabricar as tendas. Seja como for, era um trabalho árduo.

[6] Paulo não considerava a fabricação de tendas sua vocação, ou carreira. Ele trabalhava nisso apenas para se sustentar enquanto realizava seu ministério, declarando as boas novas "sem custo". (2 Cor. 11:7) E como Áquila e Priscila encaravam a profissão que tinham? Por serem cristãos, eles sem dúvida tinham o mesmo ponto de vista de Paulo. De fato, quando Paulo deixou Corinto em 52 EC, Áquila e Priscila deixaram casa e trabalho e foram com ele para Éfeso, onde sua casa passou a ser usada como local de reunião da congregação ali. (1 Cor. 16:19) Mais tarde, eles voltaram para Roma e depois foram novamente para Éfeso. Esse zeloso casal colocava os interesses do Reino em primeiro lugar e, de coração, dava de si para servir a outros, ganhando as-sim a gratidão de “todas as congregações das nações”. — Rom. 16:3-5; 2 Tim. 4:19.

6, 7. (a) Como Paulo encarava a fabricação de tendas, e o que indica que Áquila e Priscila tinham um ponto de vista parecido? (b) Como os cristãos hoje seguem o exemplo de Paulo, Áquila e Priscila?

[7] Os cristãos hoje seguem o exemplo de Paulo, Áquila e Priscila. Ministros zelosos trabalham arduamente ‘para não impor qualquer fardo dispendioso’ a outros. (1 Tes. 2:9) É elogiável que muitos proclamadores do Reino de tempo integral trabalhem meio período ou realizem trabalhos temporários para se sustentar no que realmente é sua vocação, o ministério cristão. Como Áquila e Priscila, muitos servos de Jeová bondosos oferecem hospedagem aos superintendentes viajantes. Os que ‘seguem o proceder da hospitalidade’ dessa forma sabem como é animador e encorajador fazer isso. — Rom. 12:13.

“Muitos dos coríntios . . . começaram a crer” (Atos 18:5-8)

[8] Que Paulo encarava seu trabalho secular apenas como um meio para alcançar seu objetivo principal ficou evidente quando Silas e Timóteo chegaram da Macedônia com presentes generosos. (2 Cor. 11:9) Imediatamente, Paulo “começou a ocupar-se intensamente com a palavra [“dedicou-se exclusivamente à pregação”,

---

8, 9. Como Paulo reagiu quando os judeus se opuseram ao seu intenso testemunho, e onde ele foi pregar a partir de então?

Almeida, Edição Contemporânea]". (Atos 18:5) Mas esse intenso testemunho aos judeus gerou considerável oposição. Para deixar claro que não tinha culpa pelo fato de os judeus terem recusado a mensagem salvadora de vidas sobre o Cristo, Paulo sacudiu suas roupas e disse a esses opositores: "O vosso sangue caia sobre as vossas cabeças. Eu estou limpo. Doravante irei às pessoas das nações." — Atos 18:6; Eze. 3:18, 19.

9 Onde Paulo pregaria então? Um homem chamado Tício Justo, pelo visto um prosélito que morava ao lado da sinagoga, abriu as portas de seu lar para Paulo. Assim, Paulo saiu da sinagoga e entrou na casa desse homem. (Atos 18:7) Paulo continuou morando com Áquila e Priscila enquanto estava em Corinto, mas a casa de Tício Justo tornou-se o centro de suas atividades de pregação.

10 Será que a afirmação de Paulo de que ele iria a pessoas das nações significa que ele parou completamente de pregar a todos os judeus e prosélitos, mesmo os receptivos? Dificilmente esse era o caso. Por exemplo, "Crispo, o presidente da sinagoga, tornou-se crente no

---

10. O que mostra que Paulo não estava decidido a pregar apenas às pessoas das nações?

Senhor, e assim também todos os de sua família". Pelo visto, muitos dos que frequentavam a sinagoga se juntaram a Crispo, pois a Bíblia diz: "Muitos dos coríntios, que tinham ouvido, começaram a crer e a ser batizados." (Atos 18:8) Assim, a casa de Tício Justo tornou-se o local onde a recém-formada congregação cristã de Corinto se reunia. Se esse relato tiver sido escrito em ordem cronológica, como é o estilo de Lucas, então a conversão daqueles judeus ou prosélitos aconteceu depois de Paulo ter sacudido suas roupas. Nesse caso, isso revelaria muito sobre a razoabilidade do apóstolo.

[11] Em muitos países hoje, as igrejas da cristandade estão bem estabelecidas e exercem forte influência sobre seus membros. Em alguns países e ilhas, os missionários da cristandade converteram um grande número de pessoas. Muitos que afirmam ser cristãos estão presos a tradições, assim como os judeus em Corinto no primeiro século. Mas, iguais a Paulo, nós, Testemunhas de Jeová, zelosamente pregamos a essas pessoas, aproveitando qualquer conhecimento das Escrituras que elas talvez tenham ao transmitir-lhes as verdades bíblicas. Mesmo quando elas se opõem a nós ou quando seus

11. Como as Testemunhas de Jeová hoje imitam a Paulo ao pregar às pessoas que afirmam ser cristãs?

líderes religiosos nos perseguem, não perdemos a esperança. Entre aqueles que "têm zelo de Deus, mas não segundo o conhecimento exato", pode haver muitos mansos que precisam ser encontrados. — Rom. 10:2.

'Tenho muitas pessoas nesta cidade' (Atos 18:9-17)

12 Caso Paulo se tenha perguntado se deveria continuar ou não seu ministério em Corinto, ele logo obteve a resposta na noite em que o Senhor Jesus apareceu a ele em uma visão e disse: 'Não temas, mas persiste em falar e em não ficar calado, porque eu estou contigo e nenhum homem te assaltará para fazer-te dano; porque tenho muitas pessoas nesta cidade.' (Atos 18:9, 10) Que visão encorajadora! O próprio Senhor garantiu a Paulo que o protegeria de qualquer dano e que havia muitos merecedores na cidade. Qual foi a reação de Paulo àquela visão? Lemos: "Demorou ali um ano e seis meses, ensinando entre eles a palavra de Deus." — Atos 18:11.

13 Depois de passar cerca de um ano em Corinto, Paulo obteve uma prova adicional do apoio do Senhor. "Os judeus levantaram-se de comum acordo contra Paulo e levaram-no perante a cadeira de juiz", chamada bé·ma.

---

12. Que garantia Paulo recebeu em uma visão?

13. Do que Paulo talvez se tenha lembrado ao se aproximar da cadeira de juiz, mas por que podia esperar um resultado diferente?

(Atos 18:12) Considerada por alguns como uma plataforma elevada, feita de mármore azul e branco e repleta de figuras entalhadas, a bé·ma talvez ficasse perto do centro da praça principal de Corinto. A área em frente à bé·ma talvez fosse grande o suficiente para reunir um número considerável de pessoas. Descobertas arqueológicas sugerem que a cadeira de juiz ficava a apenas alguns passos da sinagoga e, portanto, perto da casa de Tício Justo. Ao se aproximar da bé·ma, Paulo talvez se tenha lembrado do apedrejamento de Estêvão, que às vezes é chamado de primeiro mártir cristão. Paulo, na época conhecido como Saulo, havia aprovado "o assassínio dele". (Atos 8:1) Será que algo parecido aconteceria agora com Paulo? Não, pois Jesus havia prometido: "Ninguém lhe . . . fará mal." — Atos 18:10; Bíblia Fácil de Ler.

[14] O que aconteceu quando Paulo chegou à cadeira de juiz? O magistrado que a ocupava era Gálio, procônsul da Acaia e irmão mais velho do filósofo romano Sêneca. Os judeus lançaram a seguinte acusação contra Paulo: "Esta pessoa, contrário à lei, conduz os homens a outra persuasão na adoração de Deus." (Atos 18:13) Os judeus deram a entender que Paulo estava convertendo pessoas ilegalmente. Mas Gálio viu que Paulo não havia cometido nenhuma "injustiça" e que não era culpado de nenhum "ato iníquo de vilania". (Atos 18:14) Gálio não tinha a menor intenção de se envolver nas controvérsias dos judeus. Tanto é que, antes mesmo que Paulo pudesse dizer qualquer coisa em sua defesa, Gálio deu o caso por encerrado. Os acusadores ficaram com raiva e a descarregaram em Sóstenes, que talvez tivesse substituído Crispo como presidente da sinagoga. Eles agarraram Sóstenes "e espancaram-no na frente da cadeira de juiz". — Atos 18:17.

14, 15. (a) Que acusação os judeus lançaram contra Paulo, e por que Gálio deu o caso por encerrado? (b) O que aconteceu com Sóstenes, e qual pode ter sido o resultado disso?

15 Por que Gálio não impediu que a multidão espancasse Sóstenes? Gálio talvez achasse que Sóstenes fosse o líder da turba que se virou contra Paulo e que, portanto, estava tendo o que merecia. Qualquer que tenha sido o caso, é possível que esse incidente tenha tido um resultado positivo. Em sua primeira carta à congregação de Corinto, escrita vários anos mais tarde, Paulo referiu-se a certo Sóstenes como irmão. (1 Cor. 1:1, 2) Será que esse era o mesmo Sóstenes que havia sido espancado em Corinto? Em caso afirmativo, aquela experiência dolorosa talvez tenha ajudado Sóstenes a aceitar o cristianismo.

[16] Lembre-se de que foi depois de os judeus terem rejeitado a pregação de Paulo que o Senhor Jesus lhe garantiu: "Não temas, mas persiste em falar e em não ficar calado, porque eu estou contigo." (Atos 18:9, 10) Fazemos bem em ter essas palavras em mente, especialmente quando nossa mensagem não é aceita. Nunca se esqueça de que Jeová vê o coração e atrai os sinceros. (1 Sam. 16:7; João 6:44) Isso é um grande incentivo para nos mantermos ocupados no ministério. Todos os anos, centenas de milhares de pessoas são batizadas — centenas a cada dia. Aos que obedecem ao mandamento de 'fazer discípulos de pessoas de todas as nações', Jesus garante: "Estou convosco todos os dias, até à terminação do sistema de coisas." — Mat. 28:19, 20.

"Se Jeová quiser" (Atos 18:18-22)

[17] Não se pode afirmar se a atitude de Gálio em relação aos acusadores de Paulo resultou num período de paz para a recém-formada congregação cristã de Corinto. Mas Paulo ficou ali "mais alguns dias" antes de se

---

16. Que influência devem ter sobre nosso ministério as seguintes palavras do Senhor: "Persiste em falar e em não ficar calado, porque eu estou contigo"?
17, 18. Em que Paulo talvez tenha refletido ao viajar para Éfeso?

despedir dos irmãos. Em meados do primeiro semestre de 52 EC, ele fez planos de ir à Síria de navio, partindo do porto de Cencreia, que ficava uns 11 quilômetros a leste de Corinto. Antes de sair de Cencreia, porém, Paulo 'cortou rente o cabelo, pois tinha um voto'.* (Atos 18:18) Depois disso, ele levou Áquila e Priscila com ele e atravessou o mar Egeu rumo a Éfeso, na Ásia Menor.

18 Enquanto o navio partia de Cencreia, Paulo provavelmente refletia no período que passou em Corinto. Ele tinha muitas boas lembranças e motivos para ter um grande senso de realização. Seu ministério de 18 meses ali deu muitos frutos. A primeira congregação em Corinto havia sido formada, e a casa de Tício Justo era seu local de reunião. Entre os que se haviam tornado cristãos estavam Tício Justo, Crispo e sua família, e muitos outros. Paulo amava esses novos irmãos, pois os havia ajudado a se tornarem cristãos. Mais tarde, Paulo escreveria a eles, descrevendo-os como uma carta de recomendação inscrita em seu coração. Nós também nos sentimos achegados àqueles a quem tivemos o privilégio de ajudar a aceitar a adoração verdadeira. Como é recompensador ver essas "cartas [vivas] de recomendação"! — 2 Cor. 3:1-3.

* Veja o quadro "O voto de Paulo", na página 307.

O VOTO DE PAULO

Atos 18:18 diz que, enquanto esteve em Cencreia, Paulo 'cortou rente o cabelo, pois tinha um voto'. Que tipo de voto era?

Em geral, um voto é uma promessa solene feita voluntariamente a Deus em que a pessoa se compromete a realizar certo ato, fazer uma oferta ou viver sob determinada condição. Alguns acham que Paulo cortou o cabelo a fim de cumprir um voto de nazireu. Mas deve-se notar que, de acordo com as Escrituras, ao completar o período de serviço especial a Jeová, um nazireu tinha de rapar a cabeça "à entrada da tenda de reunião". Isso parece indicar que esse requisito só podia ser cumprido em Jerusalém e, portanto, não em Cencreia. — Núm. 6:5, 18.

O relato de Atos não diz quando Paulo fez esse voto. Ele pode até mesmo o ter feito antes de se tornar cristão. O relato também não diz se Paulo fez algum pedido específico a Jeová. Uma obra de referência sugere que o fato de Paulo ter rapado o cabelo pode ter sido "uma expressão de agradecimento a Deus por Sua proteção, a qual permitiu que [Paulo] completasse seu ministério em Corinto".

[19] Ao chegar a Éfeso, Paulo foi direto ao trabalho; ele "entrou na sinagoga e raciocinou com os judeus". (Atos 18:19) Dessa vez, Paulo ficou pouco tempo em Éfeso. Embora lhe tivessem pedido para ficar mais tempo, Paulo "não consentiu nisso". Ao se despedir, ele disse aos efésios: "Voltarei novamente a vós, se Jeová quiser." (Atos 18:20, 21) Paulo certamente reconhecia que havia muito trabalho de pregação a ser feito em Éfeso. O apóstolo pretendia voltar, mas decidiu deixar esse assunto nas mãos de Jeová. Não é esse um bom exemplo para termos em mente? Ao buscarmos alcançar alvos espirituais, precisamos tomar a iniciativa. Mas sempre devemos confiar na orientação de Jeová e procurar agir de acordo com sua vontade. — Tia. 4:15.

[20] Depois de deixar Áquila e Priscila em Éfeso, Paulo foi de navio até Cesareia. Pelo visto, ele "subiu" a Jerusalém e cumprimentou a congregação ali. (Atos 18:22; nota) Então Paulo foi para Antioquia da Síria, local que servia como uma espécie de base para as suas atividades missionárias. Sua segunda viagem missionária havia sido concluída com sucesso. O que o aguardava na sua próxima e última viagem missionária?

19, 20. O que Paulo fez ao chegar a Éfeso, e o que aprendemos dele a respeito de buscar alvos espirituais?

SEÇÃO 7 • ATOS 18:23–21:17

PAULO ENSINA "PUBLICAMENTE E DE CASA EM CASA"

ATOS 20:20

Por que precisamos mostrar humildade e ser flexíveis ao ensinar outros? Qual o principal método de pregação das boas novas? Como podemos mostrar que fazer a vontade de Deus é mais importante do que buscar os nossos próprios interesses? O relato emocionante da terceira e última viagem missionária de Paulo pode nos ajudar a responder a essas perguntas vitais.

CAPÍTULO 20

“A palavra . . . crescia e prevalecia” apesar de oposição

Apolo e Paulo contribuem para o contínuo avanço das boas novas

Baseado em Atos 18:23–19:41

NAS ruas de Éfeso só se ouve gritaria e o forte barulho de multidões correndo. Uma turba se formou, causando um grande tumulto! Dois companheiros de viagem do apóstolo Paulo são agarrados e arrastados pela multidão. A larga rua do comércio, enfeitada por colunas, fica vazia à medida que as pessoas se juntam à furiosa e crescente multidão que invade o enorme anfiteatro da cidade, com capacidade para 25 mil pessoas. A maioria dos presentes nem sabe o que causou esse alvoroço, mas suspeita que seu templo e sua amada deusa Ártemis estão sendo ameaçados. Assim, começam a gritar sem parar: “Grande é a Ártemis dos efésios!” — Atos 19:34.

[2] Novamente vemos Satanás tentando usar uma turba violenta para impedir a divulgação das boas novas do Reino de Deus. É claro que a ameaça de violência não é a única tática de Satanás. Neste capítulo, analisaremos várias táticas que ele usou para tentar acabar com a obra e com a união dos cristãos do primeiro século. Mais importante do que isso, veremos que seus métodos falharam, pois 'a palavra de Jeová cresceu e prevaleceu de modo poderoso'. (Atos 19:20) Por que aqueles cristãos foram bem-sucedidos? Pelas mesmas razões que nós somos hoje. É claro que o mérito é de Jeová; não nosso. Mas, assim como os cristãos do primeiro século, nós precisamos fazer nossa parte. Com a ajuda do espírito de Jeová, podemos desenvolver qualidades que nos ajudarão a ser bem-sucedidos no ministério. Vamos analisar primeiro o exemplo de Apolo.

1, 2. (a) Que perigo Paulo e seus companheiros enfrentaram em Éfeso? (b) O que vamos analisar neste capítulo?

"Ele era bem versado nas Escrituras" (Atos 18:24-28)

[3] Apolo chegou na cidade de Éfeso enquanto Paulo estava indo para lá durante sua terceira viagem missionária. Apolo era judeu e natural da famosa cidade de Alexandria, no Egito. Ele tinha várias qualidades notáveis. Expressava-se muito bem. Além de ser eloquente, "ele era bem versado nas Escrituras". Também era "fervoroso no espírito". Cheio de zelo, Apolo falava destemidamente diante dos judeus na sinagoga. — Atos 18:24, 25.

3, 4. O que Áquila e Priscila perceberam com respeito ao conhecimento de Apolo, e como lidaram com isso?

[4] Áquila e Priscila ouviram um discurso de Apolo. Com certeza eles ficaram muito animados ao ouvi-lo ensinar "com precisão as coisas a respeito de Jesus". O que ele disse sobre Jesus era correto. Mas não demorou muito para esse casal cristão perceber que o conhecimento de Apolo era incompleto, pois ele estava "familiarizado apenas com o batismo de João". Esse humilde casal, cuja profissão era fabricar tendas, não ficou inibido diante da eloquência e grande instrução de Apolo. Em vez disso, eles "acolheram-no na sua companhia e expuseram-lhe mais corretamente o caminho de Deus". (Atos 18:25, 26) Como esse homem eloquente e bem instruído reagiu? Pelo visto, ele demonstrou uma das qualidades mais importantes que um cristão pode desenvolver — a humildade.

[5] Por aceitar a ajuda de Áquila e Priscila, Apolo tornou-se mais útil como servo de Jeová. Ele viajou para a Acaia, onde "ajudou grandemente" os irmãos. Sua pregação também foi eficiente contra os judeus daquela região que insistiam que Jesus não era o prometido Messias. Lucas relata: "[Apolo] provava cabalmente, com intensidade e em público, que os judeus estavam errados, demonstrando pelas Escrituras que Jesus era o Cristo." (Atos 18:27, 28) Apolo tornou-se uma grande bênção! De fato, ele era outra razão pela qual "a palavra de Jeová" continuava a prevalecer. O que podemos aprender do exemplo de Apolo?

5, 6. O que fez de Apolo uma pessoa mais útil para Jeová, e o que podemos aprender de seu exemplo?

6 Cultivar humildade é essencial para os cristãos. Cada um de nós é abençoado com vários dons — quer sejam habilidades naturais, experiência de vida, quer conhecimento adquirido. Mas a humildade deve prevalecer sobre os dons que temos. Caso contrário, nossos pontos fortes podem se tornar nossas fraquezas. Poderíamos nos tornar solo fértil para a erva daninha do orgulho. (1 Cor. 4:7; Tia. 4:6) Se formos realmente humildes, nós nos esforçaremos para considerar os outros como superiores a nós. (Fil. 2:3) Não ficaremos ofendidos quando formos corrigidos nem criaremos resistência ao sermos ensinados por outros. Não nos apegaremos obstinadamente a nossas próprias ideias quando descobrirmos que essas não estão de acordo com as orientações mais atualizadas do espírito santo. Enquanto demonstrarmos humildade, seremos úteis a Jeová e a seu Filho. — Luc. 1:51, 52.

7 A humildade também é capaz de eliminar qualquer espírito de rivalidade. Consegue imaginar o quanto Satanás queria causar divisões entre os primeiros cristãos? Ele

---

7. Como Paulo e Apolo deram um excelente exemplo de humildade?

teria ficado muito feliz se tivesse conseguido fazer com que dois irmãos tão ativos na verdade como Apolo e Paulo se tornassem rivais que, motivados por ciúmes, competissem por influência entre as congregações. Isso poderia facilmente ter acontecido. Afinal, em Corinto, alguns cristãos começaram a dizer: "Eu pertenço a Paulo", enquanto outros diziam: "Mas eu a Apolo." Será que Paulo e Apolo incentivavam essas atitudes que poderiam causar divisão dentro da congregação? Não! Ao contrário, Paulo reconhecia a contribuição de Apolo para a obra de pregação, tanto que lhe dava privilégios de serviço. Apolo, por sua vez, seguia as orientações de Paulo. (1 Cor. 1:10-12; 3:6, 9; Tito 3:12, 13) Esse é um excelente exemplo de como agir com humildade ao trabalharmos junto com nossos irmãos.

"Usando de persuasão a respeito do reino" (Atos 18:23; 19:1-10)

8 Paulo havia prometido retornar a Éfeso, e ele cumpriu sua palavra.* (Atos 18:20, 21) Mas observe qual foi o caminho que Paulo fez para retornar a Éfeso. Ele estava em Antioquia da Síria. O caminho mais fácil seria fazer uma pequena viagem até Selêucia, embarcar num navio e ir di-

* Veja o quadro "Éfeso — capital da Ásia", na página 316.

8. Que caminho Paulo fez para retornar a Éfeso, e por quê?

reto para Éfeso. Mas, em vez disso, ele viajou "pelas regiões interiores". Segundo certa estimativa, a viagem de Paulo, conforme registrada em Atos 18:23 e 19:1, foi de cerca de 1.600 quilômetros! Por que Paulo escolheu o trajeto mais difícil? Porque ele queria 'fortalecer todos os discípulos'. (Atos 18:23) Sua terceira viagem missionária, assim como as duas anteriores, exigiria muito dele, mas Paulo tinha certeza de que todo o esforço valeria a pena. Hoje, os ministros viajantes e suas esposas demonstram disposição similar. Não somos gratos por seu amor abnegado?

[9] Ao chegar a Éfeso, Paulo encontrou um grupo de cerca de 12 discípulos de João Batista. Eles haviam sido batizados no batismo de João quando esse batismo não era mais válido. Além disso, eles pareciam saber pouco ou nada sobre o espírito santo. Paulo explicou-lhes o entendimento mais atualizado, e, como Apolo, eles se mostraram humildes e ansiosos para aprender. Depois de serem batizados no nome de Jesus, eles receberam espírito santo e alguns dons milagrosos. Isso deixa claro que estar em dia com os avanços da organização teocrática de Jeová resulta em bênçãos. — Atos 19:1-7.

---

9. Por que um grupo de discípulos precisava ser batizado novamente, e que lição aprendemos deles?

ÉFESO — CAPITAL DA ÁSIA

Éfeso era a maior cidade no oeste da Ásia Menor. Nos dias do apóstolo Paulo, sua população provavelmente ultrapassava os 250 mil habitantes. Como capital da província romana da Ásia, Éfeso orgulhosamente ostentava o título de "Primeira e Mais Importante Metrópole da Ásia".

Por causa do comércio e da religião, Éfeso era uma cidade muito rica. Seu porto, localizado perto da foz de um rio navegável, ficava no cruzamento de rotas comerciais. Éfeso não era lar apenas do famoso templo de Ártemis, mas também de santuários e templos de inúmeras outras deidades greco-romanas, egípcias e anatolianas.

O templo de Ártemis, aclamado como uma das sete maravilhas do mundo antigo, media por volta de 105 metros por 50 metros. Ele tinha umas cem colunas de mármore, cada uma com cerca de 1,8 metro de diâmetro na base e aproximadamente 17 metros de altura. O templo era considerado santo e sagrado em toda a região do Mediterrâneo antigo, e grandes somas de dinheiro eram confiadas à proteção de Ártemis, de modo que o templo também se tornou o mais importante centro bancário da Ásia.

Outras construções importantes em Éfeso eram um estádio para competições atléticas, e possivelmente até para lutas de gladiadores, um teatro, praças públicas e comerciais, e colunatas que abrigavam lojas.

O geógrafo grego Estrabão relata que o porto de Éfeso tinha problemas com assoreamento. Por causa disso, com o tempo a cidade deixou de funcionar como porto e foi abandonada. Visto que nenhuma cidade moderna fica no mesmo local, quem hoje visita as ruínas de Éfeso pode, por assim dizer, voltar ao mundo antigo.

[10] Logo aconteceu outro exemplo de progresso. Por três meses, Paulo pregou com coragem na sinagoga. Apesar de ele ter 'usado de persuasão a respeito do reino de Deus', alguns ficaram obstinados e se tornaram verdadeiros opositores. Em vez de perder tempo com aqueles que estavam "falando injuriosamente sobre O Caminho", Paulo tomou providências para falar no auditório de uma escola. (Atos 19:8, 9) Os que desejavam fazer progresso espiritual precisavam sair da sinagoga e ir até o auditório. Assim como Paulo, nós talvez decidamos encerrar uma conversa quando percebemos que o morador não quer ouvir ou só quer discutir. Ainda há muitas pessoas semelhantes a ovelhas que precisam ouvir nossa mensagem animadora.

10. Por que Paulo saiu da sinagoga e foi para um auditório, e que exemplo isso estabeleceu para nosso ministério?

[11] Paulo talvez falasse naquele auditório todos os dias, desde cerca das 11 horas até por volta das 16 horas. (Atos 19:9, nota) Esse talvez fosse o período mais calmo do dia, mas ao mesmo tempo o mais quente, quando muitos paravam de trabalhar para comer e descansar. Se Paulo tiver seguido essa programação por dois anos completos, ele passou bem mais de 3 mil horas ensinando a palavra de Deus.* Essa é uma outra razão pela qual a palavra de Jeová continuava a crescer e a prevalecer. Paulo era diligente e flexível. Ele adaptou a programação de seu ministério às necessidades das pessoas naquela localidade. Qual foi o resultado? "Todos os que habitavam no distrito da Ásia, tanto judeus como gregos, ouviram a palavra do Senhor." (Atos 19:10) Sem dúvida, ele deu um testemunho cabal!

[12] Hoje, as Testemunhas de Jeová também são diligentes e flexíveis. Nós nos esforçamos para falar com as pessoas quando e onde elas podem ser encontradas. Damos testemunho nas ruas, no comércio e em estacionamentos. Podemos entrar em contato com as pessoas por telefone ou por carta. E, no serviço de casa em casa, fazemos es-

* Paulo também escreveu 1 Coríntios enquanto estava em Éfeso.

11, 12. (a) Como Paulo deixou um exemplo em ser diligente e flexível? (b) Como as Testemunhas de Jeová têm se esforçado a ser diligentes e flexíveis em seu ministério?

forços para encontrar os moradores no horário em que é mais provável que estejam em casa.

"A palavra . . . crescia e prevalecia" apesar dos espíritos iníquos (Atos 19:11-22)

[13] Lucas nos informa que um notável período se seguiu. Jeová habilitou Paulo a realizar "obras extraordinárias de poder". Só de levar às pessoas os panos e aventais que Paulo usava, elas eram curadas; e os espíritos iníquos, expulsos.* (Atos 19:11, 12) Essas impressionantes vitórias sobre as forças de Satanás chamavam muita atenção, o que nem sempre era algo bom.

[14] Certos "judeus itinerantes, que praticavam a expulsão dos demônios", tentaram imitar os milagres de Paulo. Alguns desses judeus tentaram expulsar demônios por invocar o nome de Jesus e de Paulo. Lucas cita o exemplo dos sete filhos de Ceva — membros de uma família sacerdotal — que procuraram fazer isso. O demônio disse a eles: "Eu sei de Jesus e estou familiarizado com Paulo; mas quem sois vós?" Então, o homem com o demônio

* Pode ser que os panos fossem lenços que Paulo usava na testa para evitar que o suor escorresse pelos olhos. O fato de Paulo usar aventais nessa época sugere que ele trabalhava no ofício de fabricar tendas no seu tempo livre, talvez de manhã cedo. — Atos 20:34, 35.

13, 14. (a) O que Jeová habilitou Paulo a realizar? (b) Que erro cometeram os filhos de Ceva, e como muitos da cristandade hoje fazem o mesmo?

atacou aqueles impostores, pulando em cima deles como uma fera e fazendo com que saíssem correndo, feridos e nus. (Atos 19:13-16) Isso foi uma vitória para "a palavra de Jeová", pois o contraste entre o poder dado a Paulo e a incapacidade daqueles falsos religiosos não poderia ter sido mais claro. Milhões hoje cometem o erro de achar que apenas clamar o nome de Jesus ou dizer que é "cristão" é suficiente. Mas Jesus indicou que só os que realmente fazem a vontade de seu pai têm verdadeira esperança para o futuro. — Mat. 7:21-23.

[15] A humilhação dos filhos de Ceva fez com que muitos passassem a temer a Deus, levando várias pessoas a se tornar cristãs e a abandonar práticas espíritas. A cultura dos efésios sofria forte influência das artes mágicas. Feitiçarias e amuletos eram comuns, bem como encantamentos, muitas vezes na forma escrita. Muitos efésios se sentiram motivados a juntar seus livros de artes mágicas e queimá-los em público, embora pelo visto valessem o equivalente a dezenas de milhares de dólares.* Lucas relata: "A palavra de Jeová crescia e prevalecia assim de modo po-

* Lucas diz que o valor era de 50 mil moedas de prata. Caso Lucas estivesse se referindo ao denário, um trabalhador comum levaria 50 mil dias, ou seja, por volta de 137 anos, trabalhando sete dias por semana, para ganhar essa quantia.

15. No que se refere ao espiritismo e a objetos ligados a essa prática, como podemos imitar os efésios?

deroso.” (Atos 19:17-20) Essa foi uma grande vitória da verdade sobre a falsidade e o demonismo. Aquelas pessoas nos deixaram um excelente exemplo. Nós também vivemos num mundo mergulhado no espiritismo. Se percebermos que temos algum objeto ligado ao espiritismo, devemos fazer assim como os efésios — livrar-nos dele imediatamente. Mantenhamo-nos longe dessas práticas repugnantes, custe o que custar.

“Surgiu uma perturbação nada pequena” (Atos 19:23-41)

[16] Vamos agora analisar a tática de Satanás descrita no início deste capítulo. Lucas escreveu que “surgiu uma perturbação nada pequena a respeito do Caminho”. Ele não estava exagerando.* (Atos 19:23) Um prateiro chamado Demétrio deu início ao problema. Ele conseguiu a atenção de outros prateiros por primeiro lembrar-lhes que a renda deles dependia da venda de ídolos. Ele

* Alguns dizem que Paulo se referiu a esse incidente quando disse aos coríntios: “Estávamos muito incertos até mesmo quanto às nossas vidas.” (2 Cor. 1:8) Mas pode ser que ele tivesse em mente uma ocasião mais perigosa. Quando Paulo escreveu que ‘lutou com feras em Éfeso’, ele talvez estivesse se referindo a alguma ocasião em que teve de enfrentar animais ferozes em uma arena ou talvez à oposição feroz por parte de humanos. (1 Cor. 15:32) Tanto a interpretação literal como a figurada são possíveis.

16, 17. (a) Descreva como Demétrio deu início à confusão em Éfeso. (b) Como os efésios demonstraram seu fanatismo?

prosseguiu dizendo que a mensagem que Paulo pregava era ruim para os negócios, pois os cristãos não adoravam ídolos. Daí ele apelou para o orgulho que seus ouvintes tinham de sua cidade e de sua nação, alertando-os que sua deusa Ártemis e o templo mundialmente conhecido que os efésios haviam dedicado a ela estavam correndo perigo de serem 'reduzidos a nada'. — Atos 19:24-27.

[17] O discurso de Demétrio teve o resultado esperado. Os prateiros começaram a repetir vez após vez: "Grande é a Ártemis dos efésios!" e a cidade foi tomada pela confusão, dando início à turba fanática descrita no começo deste capítulo.* Por ter um espírito abnegado, Paulo quis entrar no anfiteatro a fim de falar com a multidão, mas os discípulos insistiram que ele ficasse longe do perigo. Um certo Alexandre ficou em pé diante da multidão e tentou falar. Como era judeu, talvez estivesse ansioso para explicar a diferença entre os judeus e aqueles cristãos. Essas explicações não significariam nada para aquela multidão. Quando perceberam que ele era judeu, começaram a gritar: "Grande é a Ártemis dos efésios!" abafando as palavras de Alexandre. Isso continuou por cerca de duas horas. Desde aquela época, o fanatismo re-ligioso não mudou. Até hoje faz as pessoas agirem de modo completamente irracional. — Atos 19:28-34.

* Associações de profissionais, chamadas guildas, podiam ser muito influentes. Cerca de um século mais tarde, por exemplo, a guilda dos padeiros provocou uma confusão similar em Éfeso.

[18] Finalmente, o escrivão da cidade acalmou a multidão. Essa autoridade competente e sensata assegurou à turba que aqueles cristãos não representavam nenhum perigo ao templo e à sua deusa; que Paulo e seus companheiros não haviam cometido nenhum crime contra o templo de Ártemis; e que havia procedimentos legais para apresentar tais questões. Talvez o argumento mais convincente tenha sido lembrar-lhes de que eles corriam o risco de cair no desfavor de Roma por causa daquele ajuntamento ilegal e desordenado. Então, ele dissolveu a multidão. Com a mesma rapidez com que havia ficado irada, a multidão acalmou-se por causa dessas palavras sensatas e razoáveis. — Atos 19:35-41.

[19] Essa não foi a primeira vez que um homem de bom senso que ocupava uma posição de autoridade agiu em favor dos seguidores de Jesus, nem seria a última. De fato, o apóstolo João previu numa visão que durante estes últimos dias os elementos estáveis deste mundo, retratados pela terra, iriam 'tragar' uma grande enxurrada de perseguição satânica contra os seguidores de Jesus. (Rev. 12:15, 16) Isso realmente tem acontecido. Em muitos casos, juízes imparciais decidem a favor dos direitos das Testemunhas de Jeová de se reunir para adoração e de divulgar as boas novas a outros. É claro que a nossa conduta pode contribuir muito para tais vitórias. A conduta de Paulo pelo visto fez com que algumas autoridades em Éfeso tivessem certa simpatia e respeito por ele, de modo que queriam vê-lo em segurança. (Atos 19:31) Que a nossa conduta respeitosa e honesta também possa causar uma boa impressão naqueles com quem temos contato. Nunca sabemos quais podem ser os efeitos a longo prazo.

18, 19. (a) Como o escrivão da cidade acalmou a turba em Éfeso? (b) Como o povo de Jeová às vezes é protegido pelas autoridades, e como nossa conduta pode contribuir para essa proteção?

20 Não é emocionante ver como "a palavra de Jeová crescia e prevalecia" no primeiro século? Também é emocionante ver como Jeová está por trás de vitórias similares em nossos dias. Gostaria de ter o privilégio de dar uma contribuição, mesmo que pequena, a essas vitórias? Então aprenda dos exemplos que consideramos. Seja humilde, mantenha-se em dia com a organização de Jeová, continue a trabalhar arduamente, rejeite o espiritismo, e faça o máximo para dar um bom testemunho por meio de sua conduta honesta e respeitosa.

---

20. (a) Como você se sente a respeito do fato de a palavra de Jeová ter prevalecido no primeiro século e continuar a prevalecer hoje? (b) Qual a sua determinação no que se refere às vitórias de Jeová em nossos dias?

CAPÍTULO 21

“Estou limpo do sangue de todos os homens”

O zelo de Paulo no ministério e seus conselhos para os anciãos

Baseado em Atos 20:1-38

PAULO está numa sala lotada no terceiro andar de uma casa em Trôade. Ele fala por um bom tempo aos irmãos, pois essa é a última noite que estará com eles. Já é meia-noite. A sala está abafada e talvez com fumaça, pois há várias lamparinas acesas ali. Um jovem chamado Êutico está sentado em uma das janelas. Enquanto Paulo está falando, Êutico cai no sono e despenca da janela!

² Por ser médico, Lucas provavelmente é um dos primeiros a correr para fora e examinar o jovem. Lucas não tem dúvidas: Êutico está “morto”. (Atos 20:9) Então acontece um milagre. Paulo lança-se sobre o jovem e diz à multidão: “Parai de levantar um clamor, pois a sua alma está nele.” Paulo trouxe Êutico de volta à vida. — Atos 20:10.

1-3. (a) Descreva as circunstâncias em torno da morte de Êutico. (b) O que Paulo fez, e o que esse acontecimento mostra a respeito dele?

[3] Esse acontecimento mostra o poder do espírito santo de Deus. Paulo não podia ser responsabilizado pela morte de Êutico. Mesmo assim, ele não queria que a morte daquele jovem estragasse essa importante ocasião ou fizesse alguém tropeçar espiritualmente. Por ressuscitar Êutico, Paulo consolou a congregação e deixou os irmãos ali fortalecidos para continuarem seu ministério. É evidente que Paulo se preocupava muito com a vida de outros. Somos lembrados de suas palavras: "Estou limpo do sangue de todos os homens." (Atos 20:26) Vejamos como o exemplo de Paulo pode nos ajudar nesse respeito.

Ele "saiu a fim de viajar para a Macedônia" (Atos 20:1, 2)

[4] Conforme vimos no capítulo anterior, Paulo tinha enfrentado uma prova difícil. Seu ministério em Éfeso havia causado uma grande confusão. De fato, os prateiros, cujo sustento dependia da adoração de Ártemis, tinham feito um tumulto! "Tendo diminuído o alvoroço", Atos 20:1 relata, "Paulo mandou chamar os discípulos, e, tendo-os encorajado e despedindo-se deles, saiu a fim de viajar para a Macedônia".

---

4. Que prova difícil Paulo tinha enfrentado?

[5] A caminho da Macedônia, Paulo parou no porto de Trôade e ficou algum tempo nessa cidade. Paulo esperava que Tito, que havia sido enviado a Corinto, se encontrasse com ele em Trôade. (2 Cor. 2:12, 13) Mas, quando ficou óbvio que Tito não viria, Paulo seguiu viagem até a Macedônia e talvez tenha ficado lá por mais ou menos um ano, 'encorajando com muitas palavras os que havia ali'.* (Atos 20:2) Por fim, Tito encontrou-se com Paulo na Macedônia, levando boas notícias a respeito da reação dos coríntios à primeira carta de Paulo. (2 Cor. 7:5-7) Isso motivou Paulo a escrever outra carta a eles, conhecida hoje como 2 Coríntios.

[6] É interessante notar que Lucas usa as palavras "encorajado" e "encorajar" para descrever as visitas que Paulo fez aos irmãos em Éfeso e na Macedônia. Essas palavras descrevem muito bem a atitude de Paulo em relação a seus irmãos. Diferentemente dos fariseus, que tratavam outros com desprezo, Paulo encarava as ovelhas de Deus como seus colaboradores. (João 7:47-49;

---

* Veja o quadro "As cartas que Paulo escreveu na Macedônia", na página 328.

5, 6. (a) Quanto tempo Paulo talvez tenha ficado na Macedônia, e o que ele fez pelos irmãos ali? (b) Que atitude Paulo mantinha em relação aos irmãos?

AS CARTAS QUE PAULO ESCREVEU NA MACEDÔNIA

Em 2 Coríntios, Paulo disse que, quando chegou à Macedônia, ele estava preocupado com seus irmãos em Corinto. Mas Tito trouxe-lhe boas notícias de Corinto, e isso deixou Paulo mais tranquilo. Foi então que Paulo, por volta de 55 EC, escreveu 2 Coríntios. Nessa carta, ele indica que ainda estava na Macedônia. (2 Cor. 7:5-7; 9:2-4) Uma das coisas que tinha em mente durante esse período era terminar a coleta de dinheiro para os santos na Judeia. (2 Cor. 8:18-21) Ele também estava preocupado com a presença de "falsos apóstolos, trabalhadores fraudulentos" em Corinto. — 2 Cor. 11:5, 13, 14.

É possível que a carta de Paulo a Tito tenha sido escrita na Macedônia. Em algum momento entre os anos 61 EC e 64 EC, depois de ter sido libertado de seu primeiro aprisionamento em Roma, Paulo visitou a ilha de Creta. Ele deixou Tito ali para corrigir alguns problemas e fazer designações. (Tito 1:5) Paulo pediu que Tito o encontrasse em Nicópolis. Havia mais de uma cidade com esse nome na região do Mediterrâneo naquela época, mas parece mais provável que Paulo estivesse se referindo à Nicópolis que ficava no noroeste da Grécia. O apóstolo provavelmente estava servindo naquela região quando escreveu a Tito. — Tito 3:12.

Paulo também escreveu 1 Timóteo entre seus dois aprisionamentos em Roma, entre 61 EC e 64 EC. Na introdução dessa carta, vemos que Paulo pediu a Timóteo para permanecer em Éfeso ao passo que ele próprio iria à Macedônia. (1 Tim. 1:3) Parece que foi de lá que Paulo escreveu essa carta a Timóteo. Nela, Paulo falou a Timóteo como um pai, dando-lhe conselhos, encorajamento e orientações sobre determinados procedimentos a serem seguidos nas congregações.

1 Cor. 3:9) Ele mantinha essa atitude mesmo quando precisava dar fortes conselhos. — 2 Cor. 2:4.

[7] Hoje, os anciãos congregacionais e os superintendentes viajantes esforçam-se para imitar o exemplo de Paulo. Mesmo ao dar repreensão, seu objetivo é fortalecer os que precisam de ajuda. Com empatia, os superintendentes procuram encorajar os irmãos em vez de condená-los. Um superintendente viajante experiente expressou isso da seguinte forma: “A maioria de nossos irmãos quer fazer o que é direito, mas eles muitas vezes lutam com frustrações, temores e o sentimento de que são incapazes de lidar com seus problemas.” Os

7. Como os superintendentes cristãos hoje podem imitar o exemplo de Paulo?

superintendentes podem ser uma fonte de encorajamento para esses irmãos. — Heb. 12:12, 13.

“Formavam uma conspiração contra ele” (Atos 20:3, 4)

[8] Da Macedônia, Paulo foi a Corinto.* Depois de passar três meses ali, ele estava ansioso para ir a Cencreia, de onde planejava pegar um barco para a Síria. De lá, ele teria condições de ir a Jerusalém e entregar as contribuições aos irmãos que estavam passando necessidade.# (Atos 24:17; Rom. 15:25, 26) Mas uma inesperada reviravolta nos acontecimentos mudou os planos de Paulo. Atos 20:3 relata: “Os judeus formavam uma conspiração contra ele.”

[9] Não é de surpreender que os judeus nutrissem muito ódio por Paulo, pois eles o consideravam um apóstata. Anteriormente, o ministério dele havia resultado na conversão de Crispo — uma pessoa de destaque na sinagoga de Corinto. (Atos 18:7, 8; 1 Cor. 1:14) Em ou-

* É provável que Paulo tenha escrito a carta aos Romanos durante essa visita a Corinto.

Veja o quadro “Paulo entrega contribuições para ajudar os irmãos necessitados”, na página 332.

8, 9. (a) O que interrompeu os planos de Paulo de pegar um barco para a Síria? (b) Por que os judeus talvez tenham nutrido muito ódio por Paulo?

tra ocasião, os judeus em Corinto haviam levantado acusações contra Paulo diante de Gálio, procônsul da Acaia. Mas Gálio encerrou o caso, declarando que não havia base para as acusações — decisão que deixou os inimigos de Paulo furiosos. (Atos 18:12-17) Pode ser que os judeus em Corinto soubessem, ou pelo menos presumissem, que Paulo logo pegaria um barco ali perto, em Cencreia, e assim armaram uma emboscada para ele. O que Paulo faria?

[10] Pensando na sua própria segurança — e a fim de proteger o dinheiro que lhe havia sido confiado — Paulo decidiu ficar longe de Cencreia e voltar pelo caminho de onde veio, passando pela Macedônia. Naturalmente, a viagem por terra também tinha seus perigos. Naquela época, assaltantes costumavam ficar de tocaia nas estradas. Até mesmo as hospedarias podiam ser locais perigosos. Apesar disso, Paulo preferiu correr os riscos de uma viagem por terra a enfrentar o que o aguardava em Cencreia. Felizmente, ele não estava viajando sozinho. Nessa etapa de sua viagem missionária, os companheiros de Paulo incluíam Aristarco, Gaio, Segundo, Sópater, Timóteo, Tíquico e Trófimo. — Atos 20:3, 4.

---

10. Será que Paulo evitou ir a Cencreia por falta de coragem? Explique.

PAULO ENTREGA CONTRIBUIÇÕES PARA AJUDAR OS IRMÃOS NECESSITADOS

Nos anos que se seguiram ao Pentecostes de 33 EC, os cristãos em Jerusalém sofreram muitas dificuldades — fome, perseguição e o saque de seus bens. Em consequência disso, alguns estavam passando necessidade. (Atos 11:27–12:1; Heb. 10:32-34) Assim, por volta de 49 EC, quando os anciãos em Jerusalém orientaram Paulo a concentrar sua pregação entre os gentios, eles o incentivaram a se 'lembrar dos pobres'. E foi exatamente isso que Paulo fez, supervisionando a coleta de recursos nas congregações. — Gál. 2:10.

Em 55 EC, Paulo disse aos coríntios: "Assim como dei ordens às congregações da Galácia, fazei do mesmo modo também vós. Todo primeiro dia da semana, cada um de vós, na sua própria casa, ponha algo de lado, em reserva, conforme tiver prosperado, para que, quando eu chegar, não se façam então as coletas. Mas, quando eu for aí, aos homens que vós aprovardes por cartas, a estes eu enviarei para levarem a vossa bondosa dádiva a Jerusalém." (1 Cor. 16:1-3) Pouco depois, quando Paulo escreveu aos coríntios sua segunda carta inspirada, ele os incentivou a deixarem suas contribuições preparadas e mencionou que os macedônios também estavam contribuindo. — 2 Cor. 8:1–9:15.

Assim, foi no ano de 56 EC que representantes de várias congregações se encontraram com Paulo para entregar o valor total da coleta. O fato de nove homens viajarem juntos não apenas deu certa medida de segurança, mas também protegeu Paulo de qualquer possível acusação de ter usado mal os recursos doados. (2 Cor. 8:20) Entregar essas contribuições era o principal objetivo da viagem de Paulo a Jerusalém. (Rom. 15:25, 26) Mais tarde, Paulo fez a seguinte observação ao Governador Félix: "Depois de certo número de anos, cheguei para trazer dádivas de misericórdia à minha nação, e ofertas." — Atos 24:17.

[11] Assim como Paulo, os cristãos hoje tomam precauções para se proteger quando estão no ministério. Em algumas regiões, em vez de ficarem sozinhos, eles andam em grupos, ou pelo menos em pares. E como agem quando são perseguidos? Os cristãos sabem que a perseguição é inevitável. (João 15:20; 2 Tim. 3:12) Mas nem por isso se expõem deliberadamente ao perigo. Veja o exemplo de Jesus. Em certa ocasião, quando opositores em Jerusalém começaram a pegar pedras para atirar nele, "Jesus se escondeu e saiu do templo". (João 8:59)

11. Como os cristãos hoje tomam precauções razoáveis para se proteger, e que exemplo Jesus deixou nesse sentido?

Mais tarde, quando os judeus estavam planejando matá-lo, "Jesus não andava mais publicamente entre os judeus, mas partiu dali para o país perto do ermo". (João 11:54) Jesus tomou precauções razoáveis para se proteger quando fazer isso não entrava em conflito com a vontade de Deus para ele. Hoje os cristãos fazem o mesmo. — Mat. 10:16.

Eles foram "consolados além de medida" (Atos 20:5-12)

[12] Paulo e seus companheiros viajaram juntos pela Macedônia e então, pelo que parece, tomaram caminhos diferentes e mais tarde se encontraram novamente em Trôade.* O relato diz: "Em cinco dias fomos ter com eles em Trôade."# (Atos 20:6) Foi nessa cidade que o jovem Êutico foi ressuscitado, como descrito no início deste capítulo. Imagine como os irmãos se sentiram ao ver seu amigo Êutico vivo novamente. Conforme diz o

* Visto que Atos 20:5, 6 é narrado em primeira pessoa, parece que Lucas se juntou novamente a Paulo em Filipos depois de ter sido deixado ali por Paulo algum tempo antes. — Atos 16:10-17, 40.

# A viagem desde Filipos até Trôade levou cinco dias. Pode ser que os ventos não estivessem favoráveis, pois anteriormente essa mesma viagem havia sido feita em apenas dois dias. — Atos 16:11.

12, 13. (a) Que efeito a ressurreição de Êutico teve na congregação? (b) Que esperança bíblica consola os que perdem pessoas queridas na morte?

relato, eles foram “consolados além de medida”. — Atos 20:12.

[13] É claro que milagres desse tipo não acontecem hoje. Mesmo assim, os que perderam pessoas queridas na morte são “consolados além de medida” pela esperança bíblica da ressurreição. (João 5:28, 29) Pense no seguinte: por ser imperfeito, Êutico acabou morrendo novamente. (Rom. 6:23) Mas os que forem ressuscitados no novo mundo de Deus terão a perspectiva de viver para sempre! Além disso, os que são ressuscitados para reinar com Jesus no céu são revestidos de imortalidade. (1 Cor. 15:51-53) Os cristãos hoje — quer dos ungidos, quer das “outras ovelhas” — têm bons motivos para se sentirem “consolados além de medida”. — João 10:16.

“Publicamente e de casa em casa” (Atos 20:13-24)

[14] Paulo e seu grupo viajaram de Trôade a Assos e depois a Mitilene, Quios, Samos e Mileto. O objetivo de Paulo era chegar a Jerusalém a tempo da Festividade de Pentecostes; sua pressa para chegar a Jerusalém explica por que ele escolheu uma embarcação que não pararia em Éfeso nessa viagem de volta. Mas, visto que

14. O que Paulo disse aos anciãos de Éfeso quando os encontrou em Mileto?

Paulo queria conversar com os anciãos de Éfeso, o apóstolo pediu que eles o encontrassem em Mileto. (Atos 20:13-17) Quando eles chegaram, Paulo disse-lhes: "Bem sabeis como, desde o primeiro dia em que pisei no distrito da Ásia, eu estive convosco todo o tempo, trabalhando como escravo para o Senhor, com a maior humildade mental, e com lágrimas e provações, que me sobrevieram pelas conspirações dos judeus; ao passo que não me refreei de vos falar coisa alguma que fosse proveitosa, nem de vos ensinar publicamente e de casa em casa. Mas, eu dei cabalmente testemunho, tanto a judeus como a gregos, do arrependimento para com Deus e da fé em nosso Senhor Jesus." — Atos 20:18-21.

[15] Há muitas formas de alcançar as pessoas com as boas novas hoje. Como Paulo, nós nos esforçamos a ir onde quer que haja pessoas, seja em pontos de ônibus, em ruas movimentadas, seja no comércio. Mas ir de casa em casa continua a ser o principal método de pregação das Testemunhas de Jeová. Por quê? Por um lado, a pregação de casa em casa dá a todos a oportunidade de ouvir a mensagem do Reino regularmente, demonstrando assim a imparcialidade de Deus. Permite também que os sinceros recebam ajuda individualizada de acordo com suas necessidades. Além disso, o ministério de casa em casa fortalece a fé e a perseverança dos que se empenham nessa atividade. Realmente, uma marca registrada dos cristãos verdadeiros hoje é seu zelo em pregar “publicamente e de casa em casa”.

15. Quais são algumas vantagens da pregação de casa em casa?

16 Paulo explicou aos anciãos de Éfeso que ele não sabia os perigos que o aguardavam ao voltar a Jerusalém. “Não obstante, não levo a minha alma em conta como estimada por mim”, disse-lhes, “desde que eu possa terminar a minha carreira e o ministério que recebi do Senhor Jesus, para dar testemunho cabal das boas novas da benignidade imerecida de Deus”. (Atos 20:24) Destemidamente, Paulo recusou-se a deixar que qualquer circunstância — fosse saúde fraca ou amarga oposição — o impedisse de cumprir sua designação.

17 Hoje também os cristãos enfrentam vários tipos de circunstâncias negativas. Alguns enfrentam proscrição e perseguição. Outros corajosamente lutam contra debilitantes doenças físicas ou emocionais. Os jovens lidam com a pressão de colegas na escola. Não importam as circunstâncias em que estejam, as Testemunhas de

---

16, 17. Como Paulo mostrou que era destemido, e como os cristãos hoje imitam seu exemplo?

Jeová mostram determinação, assim como Paulo. Estão decididas a "dar testemunho cabal das boas novas".

"Prestai atenção a vós mesmos e a todo o rebanho" (Atos 20:25-38)

[18] A seguir, Paulo deu forte conselho aos anciãos de Éfeso, usando seu próprio modo de vida como exemplo. Primeiro, ele os informou que essa provavelmente seria a última vez que o veriam. Então ele disse: "Estou limpo do sangue de todos os homens, pois não me refreei de falar a todos vós todo o conselho de Deus." Como os anciãos de Éfeso poderiam imitar a Paulo e dessa forma não terem culpa de sangue? Ele lhes disse: "Prestai atenção a vós mesmos e a todo o rebanho, entre o qual o espírito santo vos designou superintendentes para pastorear a congregação de Deus, que ele comprou com o sangue do seu próprio Filho." (Atos 20:26-28) Paulo avisou que "lobos opressivos" se infiltrariam no rebanho e 'falariam coisas deturpadas, para atrair a si os discípulos'. O que os anciãos deveriam fazer? "Mantende-vos despertos", avisou Paulo, "e lembrai-vos de que por três anos, noite e dia, não cessei de admoestar a cada um de vós, com lágrimas". — Atos 20:29-31.

---

18. Como Paulo se manteve livre de culpa de sangue, e como os anciãos de Éfeso poderiam fazer o mesmo?

[19] Esses "lobos opressivos" apareceram no final do primeiro século. Por volta de 98 EC, o apóstolo João escreveu: "[Há] muitos anticristos; . . . Saíram do nosso meio, mas não eram dos nossos; pois, se tivessem sido dos nossos, teriam permanecido conosco." (1 João 2:18, 19) No terceiro século, a apostasia já havia levado ao surgimento da classe clerical da cristandade, e no quarto século o Imperador Constantino deu reconhecimento oficial a essa forma corrupta de "cristianismo". Por terem adotado rituais pagãos, dando-lhes uma aparência "cristã", os líderes religiosos de fato 'falaram coisas deturpadas'. Ainda se podem ver os efeitos de tal apostasia nos ensinos e costumes da cristandade.

[20] O modo de vida do apóstolo Paulo estava em nítido contraste com o daqueles que mais tarde se aproveitariam do rebanho. Ele trabalhava para se sustentar a fim de não ser um fardo para a congregação. Seus esforços a favor dos irmãos não tinham por objetivo obter riquezas. Paulo incentivou os anciãos efésios a demonstrarem um espírito abnegado. "Tendes de auxiliar os que são fracos", disse-lhes Paulo, "e tendes de ter em mente

---

19. Que apostasia se desenvolveu no final do primeiro século, e a que isso levou nos séculos seguintes?

20, 21. Como Paulo demonstrou um espírito abnegado, e como os anciãos cristãos podem fazer o mesmo hoje?

as palavras do Senhor Jesus, quando ele mesmo disse: ‘Há mais felicidade em dar do que há em receber.’” — Atos 20:35.

[21] Assim como Paulo, os anciãos cristãos hoje são abnegados. Em contraste com os clérigos da cristandade, que tiram proveito de seu rebanho, aqueles a quem se confia a responsabilidade de “pastorear a congregação de Deus” cumprem com suas responsabilidades de modo altruísta. O orgulho e a ambição não têm lugar na congregação cristã, pois os que ‘buscam a sua própria glória’ falharão a longo prazo. (Pro. 25:27) A presunção só leva à desonra. — Pro. 11:2.

[22] Paulo era muito amado pelos irmãos por causa do genuíno amor que ele próprio demonstrava a eles. De fato, quando chegou a hora de Paulo ir embora, “irrompeu muito choro entre eles todos, e lançaram-se ao pescoço de Paulo e o beijaram ternamente”. (Atos 20:37, 38) Os cristãos prezam e amam muito aqueles que, assim como Paulo, dão de si mesmos a favor do rebanho. Depois de analisar o excelente exemplo de Paulo, não concorda que ele não exagerou nem foi presunçoso ao dizer: “Estou limpo do sangue de todos os homens”? — Atos 20:26.

---

22. O que tornou Paulo uma pessoa muito amada pelos anciãos de Éfeso?

CAPÍTULO 22

“Realize-se a vontade de Jeová”

Decidido a fazer a vontade de Deus, Paulo vai a Jerusalém

Baseado em Atos 21:1-17

TODOS em Mileto estão emocionados com a partida de Paulo e Lucas. Para esses dois missionários, não é fácil ter de se despedir dos anciãos efésios, a quem tanto amam. Os dois estão no convés do navio. Em sua bagagem há suprimentos para a viagem. Eles também estão levando as contribuições que recolheram para os cristãos que estão passando necessidade na Judeia e não veem a hora de poder entregar o dinheiro a esses irmãos.

[2] Uma suave brisa enche as velas, e o navio afasta-se do barulhento cais. Os dois homens, e os outros sete que viajam com eles, olham para os semblantes tristes dos irmãos na costa. (Atos 20:4, 14, 15) Os viajantes dão adeus até não conseguirem mais ver seus amigos na praia.

[3] Por cerca de três anos, Paulo trabalhou lado a lado com os anciãos de Éfeso. Mas agora, orientado pelo

1-4. Por que Paulo estava indo a Jerusalém, e o que o aguardava ali?

espírito santo, ele está a caminho de Jerusalém. Até certo ponto, ele sabe o que o aguarda. Anteriormente, ele havia dito aos anciãos: "Amarrado no espírito, viajo para Jerusalém, embora sem saber o que me acontecerá nela, exceto que o espírito santo, de cidade em cidade, me dá repetidamente testemunho, dizendo que me aguardam laços e tribulações." (Atos 20:22, 23) Apesar do perigo, Paulo sente-se "amarrado no espírito", ou seja, ele se sente na obrigação de seguir a orientação do espírito e ir a Jerusalém, e também está disposto a fazer isso. Ele não quer morrer, mas fazer a vontade de Deus é o mais importante para ele.

4 É assim que você se sente? Quando nos dedicamos a Jeová, solenemente prometemos que fazer a vontade dele seria a coisa mais importante em nossa vida. Analisar o exemplo do fiel apóstolo Paulo será proveitoso para nós.

Passaram pela "ilha de Chipre" (Atos 21:1-3)

5 O navio em que estavam Paulo e seus companheiros 'tomou um rumo direto', ou seja, navegou a favor do vento, sem fazer zigue-zague, até chegar a Cós mais tarde naquele mesmo dia. (Atos 21:1) Parece que o navio ficou ancorado ali durante a noite antes de zarpar para Rodes e Pátara. Em Pátara, na costa sul da Ásia Menor, os irmãos

---

5. Que percurso Paulo e seus companheiros fizeram até Tiro?

embarcaram em um grande navio de carga, que os levou direto a Tiro, na Fenícia. No caminho, eles passaram pela "ilha de Chipre . . . pela esquerda [a bombordo]" do navio. (Atos 21:3) Por que Lucas, o escritor do livro de Atos, mencionou esse detalhe?

[6] Talvez Paulo tenha apontado para a ilha e mencionado algumas das coisas que passou ali. Na sua primeira viagem missionária, por volta de nove anos antes, Paulo, Barnabé e João Marcos encontraram o feiticeiro Elimas, que se opôs à pregação deles. (Atos 13:4-12) Ver aquela ilha e refletir no que havia ocorrido ali pode ter encorajado Paulo e o fortalecido para o que estava para acontecer. Nós também podemos nos beneficiar por refletir em como Deus nos tem abençoado e ajudado a enfrentar provações. Esse tipo de reflexão pode nos ajudar a nos sentir como Davi, que escreveu: "Muitas são as calamidades do justo, mas Jeová o livra de todas elas." — Sal. 34:19.

"Achamos os discípulos" (Atos 21:4-9)

[7] Paulo reconhecia o valor da associação cristã e tinha muita vontade de estar com os irmãos. Lucas escreve o

---

6. (a) Por que ver a ilha de Chipre talvez tenha encorajado Paulo? (b) Ao refletir em como Jeová tem abençoado e ajudado você, a que conclusão você chega?

7. O que os viajantes fizeram ao chegar a Tiro?

que ele próprio e os outros viajantes fizeram ao chegar a Tiro: "Procurando, achamos os discípulos." (Atos 21:4) Sabendo que havia cristãos em Tiro, os viajantes os procuraram e provavelmente ficaram com eles. Uma das maiores bênçãos de conhecer a verdade é que, não importa aonde formos, encontraremos irmãos que pensam como nós e que nos receberão bem. Os que amam a Deus e praticam a adoração verdadeira têm amigos em todo o mundo.

[8] Ao descrever os sete dias que os viajantes ficaram em Tiro, Lucas registra algo que pode parecer estranho a princípio: "Por intermédio do espírito, [os irmãos em Tiro] disseram repetidas vezes a Paulo que não pusesse pé em Jerusalém." (Atos 21:4) Será que Jeová não queria mais que Paulo fosse a Jerusalém? Esse não era o caso. O espírito havia indicado que Paulo seria maltratado em Jerusalém, não que ele deveria evitar ir a essa cidade. Parece que, por meio do espírito santo, os irmãos em Tiro concluíram corretamente que Paulo enfrentaria dificuldades em Jerusalém. Assim, por estarem preocupados com o bem-estar de Paulo, eles o incentivaram a não ir àquela cidade. Eles queriam proteger Paulo do perigo que o aguardava, e isso era compreensível. Mesmo assim, decidido a fazer a vontade de Jeová, Paulo continuou sua viagem até Jerusalém. — Atos 21:12.

---

8. Como devemos entender Atos 21:4?

[9] Ao ouvir a preocupação dos irmãos, Paulo talvez se tenha lembrado de que Jesus enfrentou objeção similar depois de ter dito aos discípulos que ele iria a Jerusalém, sofreria muitas coisas e seria morto. Levado pelas emoções, Pedro disse a Jesus: "Sê benigno contigo mesmo, Senhor; não terás absolutamente tal destino." Jesus respondeu: "Para trás de mim, Satanás! Tu és para mim pedra de tropeço, porque não tens os pensamentos de Deus, mas os de homens." (Mat. 16:21-23) Jesus estava decidido a aceitar o proceder abnegado que Deus lhe havia designado. Paulo tinha a mesma determinação. Os irmãos em Tiro, assim como o apóstolo Pedro, sem dúvida tinham boas intenções, mas não discerniam a vontade de Deus.

[10] A ideia de poupar-se ou de adotar a lei do menor esforço atrai a muitos hoje. As pessoas de modo geral procuram uma religião que as deixe à vontade e que não exija muito de seus membros. Em contraste com isso, Jesus destacou a necessidade de ter uma atitude mental totalmente diferente. Ele disse a seus discípulos: "Se alguém quer vir após mim negue-se a si mesmo e apanhe a sua estaca de tortura, e siga-me continuamente." (Mat. 16:24) Seguir a Jesus é o proceder sábio e correto, mas não é o mais fácil.

9, 10. (a) De qual situação Paulo talvez se tenha lembrado ao ouvir a preocupação dos irmãos em Tiro? (b) Que ideia é comum no mundo hoje, e como isso se contrasta com as palavras de Jesus?

[11] Logo chegou a hora de Paulo, Lucas e os outros que estavam com eles prosseguirem viagem. A descrição de sua partida é comovente. Mostra a afeição que os irmãos em Tiro tinham por Paulo e o grande apoio que davam ao ministério dele. Os homens, as mulheres e as crianças acompanharam Paulo e os outros viajantes até a praia. Como grupo, eles se ajoelharam e oraram, e então se despediram. Depois disso, Paulo, Lucas e seus companheiros pegaram um barco e continuaram até Ptolemaida, onde encontraram os irmãos e ficaram com eles por um dia. — Atos 21:5-7.

[12] A seguir, Lucas relata, Paulo e os que viajavam com ele partiram para Cesareia. Chegando lá, eles 'entraram na casa de Filipe, o evangelizador'.* (Atos 21:8) Eles devem ter se alegrado muito de ver Filipe. Uns 20 anos antes em Jerusalém, ele tinha sido designado pelos após-

---

* Veja o quadro "Cesareia — capital da província romana da Judeia", na página 348.

---

11. Como os discípulos em Tiro mostraram que amavam e apoiavam Paulo?

12, 13. (a) Que registro de serviço fiel Filipe tinha? (b) Como Filipe é um bom exemplo para os chefes de família cristãos hoje?

tolos para ajudar na distribuição de alimentos na então recém-formada congregação cristã. Filipe tinha um longo registro de pregação zelosa. Lembre-se de que, quando a perseguição espalhou os discípulos, Filipe foi para Samaria e começou a pregar. Mais tarde, ele pregou ao eunuco etíope e o batizou. (Atos 6:2-6; 8:4-13, 26-38) Que excelente registro de serviço fiel!

13 Filipe não tinha perdido seu zelo pelo ministério. Morando agora em Cesareia, ele ainda estava ocupado na pregação, conforme Lucas indica ao chamá-lo de "o evangelizador". Também ficamos sabendo que ele agora tinha quatro filhas que profetizavam, o que sugere que elas seguiram os passos do pai.* (Atos 21:9) Isso mostra que Filipe deve ter se esforçado muito para edificar a espiritualidade de sua família. Os chefes de família fazem bem em imitar o exemplo de Filipe, tomando a dianteira no ministério e ajudando os filhos a desenvolver amor pelo serviço de pregação.

14 Num lugar após outro, Paulo procurava os irmãos e passava tempo com eles. Com certeza os irmãos locais estavam ansiosos para mostrar hospitalidade a esse

---

* Veja o quadro "As mulheres podiam ser ministras cristãs?" na página 350.

---

14. Sem dúvida, qual foi o resultado das visitas de Paulo a seus irmãos cristãos, e que oportunidades similares existem hoje?

CESAREIA — CAPITAL DA PROVÍNCIA ROMANA DA JUDEIA

Durante o período abrangido pelo livro de Atos, Cesareia era a capital da província romana da Judeia e o local onde ficava a base de seu contingente militar e o governador. Herodes, o Grande, construiu a cidade e deu-lhe o nome em homenagem a César Augusto. Cesareia tinha todas as características das cidades pagãs e helenísticas dos seus dias — um templo dedicado à “divindade” de César, um teatro, um hipódromo e um anfiteatro. A população era predominantemente gentia.

Cesareia era uma cidade portuária fortificada. A ambição de Herodes era que o novo complexo portuário ali, chamado Sebastos (grego para Augusto), equipado com um grande quebra-mar na costa que, de outra forma, não teria condições de atracar navios, rivalizasse com Alexandria como o centro comercial do Mediterrâneo oriental. Embora nunca tenha superado Alexandria, Cesareia de fato alcançou prestígio internacional por causa de sua posição estratégica em importantes rotas comerciais.

O evangelizador Filipe pregou as boas novas em Cesareia e parece que ele constituiu família ali. (Atos 8:40; 21:8, 9) Era a cidade onde o centurião romano Cornélio servia e foi o local de sua conversão. — Atos 10:1.

O apóstolo Paulo visitou Cesareia várias vezes. Pouco depois da conversão de Paulo, quando seus inimigos planejaram matá-lo, os discípulos prontamente retiraram seu novo irmão de Jerusalém e o levaram o mais rápido possível até Cesareia, numa viagem de 90 quilômetros, a fim de o enviarem de navio para Tarso. Paulo passou pelo porto de Cesareia quando estava indo a Jerusalém no final de sua segunda e de sua terceira viagem missionária. (Atos 9:28-30; 18:21, 22; 21:7, 8) Ele ficou dois anos preso no palácio de Herodes em Cesareia. Ali, em diferentes ocasiões, Paulo conversou com Félix, Festo e Agripa, e dali ele por fim partiu de navio para Roma. — Atos 23:33-35; 24:27–25:4; 27:1.

missionário viajante e seus companheiros. Essas visitas sem dúvida resultavam em "um intercâmbio de encorajamento". (Rom. 1:11, 12) Hoje também há oportunidades similares. Há muitos benefícios em abrir as portas de nosso lar, mesmo que seja humilde, para um superintendente viajante e sua esposa. — Rom. 12:13.

"Estou pronto . . . para morrer" (Atos 21:10-14)

[15] Durante o tempo em que Paulo ficou com Filipe, chegou outro visitante respeitado — Ágabo. Os que

---

15, 16. Que mensagem Ágabo trouxe, e que efeito ela teve nos que a ouviram?

AS MULHERES PODIAM SER MINISTRAS CRISTÃS?

Qual era o papel das mulheres na congregação cristã do primeiro século? Será que elas podiam ser ministras?

Jesus instruiu seus seguidores a pregar as boas novas do Reino e fazer discípulos. (Mat. 28:19, 20; Atos 1:8) Essa comissão de ser ministro das boas novas se aplica a todos os cristãos, aos homens e às mulheres; aos jovens e às jovens. Isso pode ser visto na profecia encontrada em Joel 2:28, 29. O apóstolo Pedro mostrou que essa profecia teve um cumprimento no Pentecostes de 33 EC: "'Nos últimos dias', diz Deus, 'derramarei do meu espírito sobre toda sorte de carne, e vossos filhos e vossas filhas profetizarão . . . e até mesmo sobre os meus escravos e sobre as minhas escravas derramarei naqueles dias do meu espírito, e eles profetizarão'." (Atos 2:17, 18) Conforme vimos neste capítulo, o evangelizador Filipe tinha quatro filhas que profetizavam. — Atos 21:8, 9.

Mas, no que diz respeito a ensinar na congregação, a Palavra de Deus restringiu isso a homens cristãos designados como superintendentes e servos ministeriais. (1 Tim. 3:1-13; Tito 1:5-9) Na verdade, Paulo disse: "Não permito que a mulher ensine ou exerça autoridade sobre o homem, mas que esteja em silêncio." — 1 Tim. 2:12.

estavam na casa de Filipe sabiam que Ágabo era profeta; ele havia predito uma grande fome durante o reinado de Cláudio. (Atos 11:27, 28) Talvez eles se estivessem perguntando: 'Por que Ágabo veio? Que mensagem ele traz?' Todos olhavam atentamente para Ágabo enquanto ele pegava o cinto que Paulo usava — uma faixa de tecido que poderia guardar dinheiro e outros itens. Ágabo amarrou seus próprios pés e mãos com esse cinto. Então começou a falar. Sua mensagem era muito séria: "Assim diz o espírito santo: 'Ao homem a quem pertence este cinto, os judeus amarrarão desta maneira em Jerusalém e o entregarão às mãos de pessoas das nações.' " — Atos 21:11.

16 A profecia confirmou que Paulo iria a Jerusalém. Também indicou que seus tratos com os judeus ali resultariam em ele ser entregue "às mãos de pessoas das nações". A profecia teve um profundo impacto nos que estavam presentes. Lucas escreve: "Ora, quando ouvimos isso, tanto nós como os daquele lugar começamos a suplicar-lhe que não subisse a Jerusalém. Paulo respondeu então: 'Que estais fazendo, chorando e enfraquecendo o meu coração? Ficai certos de que estou pronto não só para ser amarrado, mas também para morrer em Jerusalém pelo nome do Senhor Jesus.' " — Atos 21:12, 13.

[17] Imagine a cena. Os irmãos, incluindo Lucas, tentam convencer Paulo a não prosseguir viagem. Alguns choram. Comovido pela preocupação amorosa que os irmãos mostram por ele, Paulo carinhosamente diz que eles estão lhe "enfraquecendo o . . . coração", ou, como algumas traduções vertem o grego, eles estão "partindo [seu] coração". Apesar disso, ele permanece firme em sua decisão, e, assim como quando encontrou com os irmãos em Tiro, ele não permitirá que súplicas ou lágrimas o façam vacilar. Em vez disso, Paulo lhes explica por que ele deve prosseguir. Que coragem e determinação ele mostrou! Assim como Jesus havia feito, Paulo estava decidido a ir a Jerusalém. (Heb. 12:2) Paulo não estava procurando ser um mártir, mas, se isso acontecesse, ele consideraria uma honra morrer como seguidor de Cristo Jesus.

[18] Como os irmãos reagiram? Resumindo, eles reagiram respeitosamente. Lemos: "Quando ele não se deixou dissuadir, assentimos com as palavras: 'Realize-se a vontade de Jeová.'" (Atos 21:14) Os que tentaram convencer Paulo a não ir a Jerusalém não ficaram insistindo para que as coisas ocorressem conforme eles queriam. Escutaram Paulo e cederam, reconhecendo e aceitando a vontade de Jeová, apesar de isso ser difícil para eles. Paulo tinha iniciado uma jornada que por fim o levaria à morte. Seria mais fácil para ele se aqueles que o amavam não tentassem fazê-lo desistir.

17, 18. Como Paulo permaneceu firme em sua decisão, e como os irmãos reagiram?

[19] Aprendemos uma importante lição do que aconteceu com Paulo: nunca queremos tentar convencer outros a não se empenhar por um proceder abnegado no serviço a Deus. Podemos aplicar essa lição a muitas situações, não apenas às que envolvem vida ou morte. Por exemplo, ao passo que muitos pais cristãos acham difícil ver seus filhos saírem de casa para servir a Jeová em designações distantes, eles estão decididos a não desencorajá-los. Phyllis, que mora na Inglaterra, lembra-se de como se sentiu quando sua filha única iniciou o serviço missionário na África. "Foi uma época em que fiquei muito emotiva", disse Phyllis. "Para mim foi difícil saber que ela ficaria tão longe. Eu fiquei triste e orgulhosa ao mesmo tempo. Orei muito sobre isso. Mas a decisão era dela, e eu nunca tentei fazê-la desistir. Afinal, eu sempre a havia ensinado a colocar os interesses do Reino em primeiro lugar. Minha filha serve em designações no estrangeiro há 30 anos, e eu agradeço a Jeová todos os dias pela fidelidade dela." Como é bom quando apoiamos irmãos abnegados!

19. Que lição valiosa aprendemos do que aconteceu com Paulo?

“Os irmãos nos receberam de bom grado” (Atos 21:15-17)

[20] Foram feitos preparativos, e Paulo prosseguiu viagem. Alguns irmãos de Cesareia o acompanharam, dando assim uma prova de seu apoio de todo o coração. É interessante notar que em todos os pontos da viagem até Jerusalém, Paulo e os que o acompanhavam procuraram o companheirismo dos irmãos cristãos. Lá em Tiro, eles encontraram os discípulos e permaneceram com eles por sete dias. Em Ptolemaida, cumprimentaram seus irmãos e passaram um dia com eles. E, em Cesareia, eles ficaram por alguns dias na casa de Filipe. A seguir, conforme mencionado acima, alguns irmãos de Cesareia acompanharam Paulo e os outros viajantes até Jerusalém, onde todos foram acolhidos por Mnáson, um antigo discípulo. Lucas relata: “Ao chegarmos a Jerusalém, os irmãos nos receberam de bom grado.” — Atos 21:17.

[21] Fica claro que Paulo queria estar com os que tinham a mesma fé que ele. O apóstolo era encorajado por seus irmãos, assim como nós também somos hoje. Sem dúvida, esse encorajamento fortaleceu Paulo para enfrentar os opositores irados que tentariam matá-lo.

20, 21. O que mostra que Paulo desejava estar com seus irmãos, e por que ele queria estar com os que tinham a mesma fé que ele?

SEÇÃO 8 • ATOS 21:18–28:31

PAULO PREGA O REINO DE DEUS "SEM IMPEDIMENTO"

ATOS 28:31

Nesta seção, acompanharemos o apóstolo Paulo enquanto ele enfrenta turbas enfurecidas, suporta encarceramentos e comparece diante do tribunal de uma autoridade romana após outra. Em todas essas circunstâncias, o apóstolo continua a dar testemunho sobre o Reino de Deus. Ao analisar a emocionante conclusão do livro de Atos, pergunte-se: 'Como posso imitar esse corajoso e zeloso evangelizador?'

CAPÍTULO 23

‘Ouçam a minha defesa’

Paulo defende a verdade diante de turbas enfurecidas e do Sinédrio

Baseado em Atos 21:18–23:10

JERUSALÉM! Mais uma vez Paulo está andando por suas ruas estreitas e movimentadas. Nenhuma outra cidade na Terra está tão intimamente ligada à história dos tratos de Jeová com o Seu povo. De modo geral, seus habitantes têm muito orgulho desse passado glorioso. Paulo sabe que grande parte dos cristãos nessa cidade está confiando demais no passado, deixando de acompanhar o desenrolar do propósito de Jeová. Desse modo, Paulo vê que os irmãos ali são carentes não só em sentido material, o motivo pelo qual ele saiu de Éfeso e retornou a Jerusalém, mas também em sentido espiritual. (Atos 19:21) Apesar de saber dos perigos que o aguardavam, ele não mudou seus planos de visitar a cidade.

[2] O que Paulo enfrentará em Jerusalém? Um dos desafios virá dos próprios seguidores de Cristo, alguns

1, 2. O que levou o apóstolo Paulo a voltar a Jerusalém, e que desafios ele enfrentaria ali?

dos quais estão perturbados com os rumores sobre Paulo. Desafios ainda maiores virão dos inimigos de Cristo. Eles vão lançar acusações falsas contra Paulo, espancá-lo e ameaçar matá-lo. Ao mesmo tempo, esses acontecimentos conturbados darão a Paulo a oportunidade de fazer uma defesa. Sua humildade, coragem e fé ao lidar com esses desafios fornecem um excelente exemplo aos cristãos hoje. Vejamos como.

"Começaram a glorificar a Deus" (Atos 21:18-20a)

3 No dia seguinte à sua chegada a Jerusalém, Paulo e seus companheiros foram ver os anciãos que exerciam a liderança na congregação. Nenhum dos apóstolos ainda vivos é mencionado no relato; talvez naquela época todos eles já tivessem partido para servir em outras partes do mundo. No entanto, Tiago, irmão de Jesus, ainda estava lá. (Gál. 2:9) Tiago provavelmente presidiu a reunião quando "todos os anciãos estavam presentes" com Paulo. — Atos 21:18.

4 Paulo cumprimentou os anciãos "e começou a dar em pormenores um relato das coisas que Deus fizera entre as nações por intermédio do ministério dele".

3-5. (a) A que reunião Paulo esteve presente em Jerusalém, e o que foi falado ali? (b) Que lições podemos aprender da reunião de Paulo com os anciãos em Jerusalém?

(Atos 21:19) Como aquele relato deve ter sido encorajador! Hoje nós também ficamos animados ao ouvir a respeito do progresso da obra em outros países. — Pro. 25:25.

[5] Em algum momento de seu discurso, Paulo deve ter se referido às contribuições que havia trazido da Europa. A preocupação que os irmãos de lugares distantes mostraram deve ter animado o coração dos que ouviam o relatório de Paulo, tanto que, em resultado disso, "[os anciãos] começaram a glorificar a Deus". (Atos 21:20a) Da mesma forma, muitos que hoje enfrentam catástrofes ou doenças graves ficam profundamente comovidos quando seus irmãos oferecem ajuda e palavras de encorajamento na hora certa.

Muitos ainda eram "zelosos da Lei" (Atos 21:20b, 21)

[6] Os anciãos então revelaram a Paulo que havia um problema na Judeia diretamente relacionado com ele. Disseram: "Observas, irmão, quantos milhares de crentes há entre os judeus; e todos eles são zelosos da Lei. Mas eles ouviram rumores a respeito de ti, de que tens ensinado a todos os judeus entre as nações uma apostasia contra Moisés, dizendo-lhes que não circun-cidem os seus filhos nem andem nos costumes solenes."* — Atos 21:20b, 21.

6. De que problema Paulo ficou sabendo?

[7] Por que, bem mais de 20 anos depois de a Lei mosaica ter sido abolida, tantos cristãos ainda insistiam que era necessário guardá-la? (Col. 2:14) Em 49 EC, os apóstolos e os anciãos reunidos em Jerusalém tinham enviado uma carta às congregações explicando que não era necessário que os cristãos gentios se submetessem à circuncisão e obedecessem à Lei mosaica. (Atos 15:23-29) Mas a carta não havia mencionado os cristãos judeus, muitos dos quais não entendiam que a Lei mosaica não era mais válida.

[8] Será que esse modo de pensar equivocado significava que aqueles discípulos judeus não se qualificavam como cristãos? De modo algum. Não era o caso de eles no passado terem sido adoradores de deuses pagãos e agora continuarem a seguir os costumes religiosos de sua fé anterior. A Lei que era tão importante para aqueles judeus tementes a Deus tinha sido dada por Jeová. Não havia nada nela que fosse demoníaco ou errado em si mesmo. Mas a Lei tinha a ver com o pacto anterior, ao passo que os cristãos estavam agora sob o novo pacto. No que dizia respeito à adoração pura, as observâncias do pacto da Lei estavam obsoletas. Os cristãos hebreus que eram zelosos da Lei não entendiam esse ponto nem confiavam plenamente que a congregação cristã era agora o caminho para se obter a justiça perante Deus. Eles precisavam harmonizar seu modo de pensar com a revelação progressiva da verdade.* — Jer. 31:31-34; Luc. 22:20.

* Para cuidar das necessidades espirituais de tantos cristãos judeus, deve ter havido muitas congregações que se reuniam em casas particulares.

7, 8. (a) Que modo de pensar equivocado alguns cristãos na Judeia tinham? (b) Por que o modo de pensar equivocado de alguns cristãos judeus não significava que eles eram apóstatas?

"Não há nada nos rumores" (Atos 21:22-26)

[9] Que dizer dos rumores de que Paulo estava ensinando os judeus entre as nações a 'não circuncidar os filhos nem andar nos costumes solenes'? Paulo era um apóstolo para os gentios e, para eles, Paulo reafirmava a decisão de que os gentios não precisavam obedecer à Lei. Ele também expunha o erro de qualquer um

* Poucos anos depois, o apóstolo Paulo escreveu sua carta aos hebreus, na qual demonstrou a superioridade do novo pacto. Nessa carta, ele mostrou claramente que o novo pacto invalidou o pacto anterior. Além de prover argumentos convincentes que os cristãos judeus poderiam usar ao responder aos judeus que os criticavam, a poderosa linha de raciocínio de Paulo sem dúvida fortaleceu a fé dos cristãos que davam ênfase indevida à Lei mosaica. — Heb. 8:7-13.

9. O que Paulo ensinava a respeito da Lei mosaica?

que tentasse persuadir os cristãos gentios a realizar a circuncisão como sinal de obediência à Lei mosaica. (Gál. 5:1-7) Nas cidades que visitava, Paulo também pregava as boas novas aos judeus. Ele com certeza explicava aos judeus receptivos que a morte de Jesus havia tornado a Lei obsoleta e que a pessoa podia obter uma posição justa por meio da fé, não por obras da Lei. — Rom. 2:28, 29; 3:21-26.

10 Ao mesmo tempo, Paulo mostrava consideração por aqueles que se sentiam bem observando alguns costumes judaicos, como não trabalhar no sábado ou evitar certos alimentos. (Rom. 14:1-6) E ele não estabelecia regras sobre a circuncisão. Na verdade, Paulo circuncidou Timóteo para que os judeus não ficassem desconfiados de Timóteo, cujo pai era grego. (Atos 16:3) A circuncisão era um assunto de decisão pessoal. Paulo disse aos gálatas: “Nem a circuncisão nem a incircuncisão é de qualquer valor, mas a fé que opera por intermédio do amor é.” (Gál. 5:6) No entanto, ser circuncidado para estar de acordo com a Lei ou apresentar essa prática como algo necessário para ter a aprovação de Jeová revelaria falta de fé.

---

10. Que atitude equilibrada Paulo tinha sobre assuntos relacionados à Lei e à circuncisão?

[11] Assim, os rumores, embora infundados, perturbavam os cristãos judeus. Por esse motivo, os anciãos deram a seguinte orientação a Paulo: "Há conosco quatro homens que têm um voto sobre si. Toma contigo estes homens e purifica-te cerimonialmente junto com eles, e toma conta das despesas deles, para que se lhes rape a cabeça. E todos saberão assim que não há nada nos rumores que se contavam acerca de ti, mas que estás andando ordeiramente, guardando também tu mesmo a Lei."* — Atos 21:23, 24.

[12] Paulo poderia ter alegado que o verdadeiro problema não eram os rumores a respeito dele, e sim o zelo dos cristãos judeus pela Lei mosaica. Mas ele es-

* Eruditos sugerem que aqueles homens haviam feito um voto de nazireu. (Núm. 6:1-21) É verdade que a Lei mosaica, sob a qual esse voto teria sido feito, não era mais válida. Mesmo assim, Paulo talvez tenha concluído que não seria errado os homens cumprirem um voto feito a Jeová. Portanto, não seria errado Paulo pagar as despesas deles e acompanhá-los. Não sabemos exatamente que tipo de voto estava envolvido. De qualquer forma, é improvável que Paulo tivesse apoiado a oferta de um sacrifício de animais (como feito pelos nazireus), acreditando que isso purificaria os homens de seus pecados. O sacrifício perfeito de Cristo havia tirado desses sacrifícios qualquer valor expiatório. O que quer que Paulo tenha feito, podemos estar certos de que ele não concordaria com nada que violasse sua consciência.

11. Que orientação os anciãos deram a Paulo, e o que estaria envolvido em segui-la? (Veja também a nota.)
12. Como a reação de Paulo à orientação dos anciãos em Jerusalém demonstrou uma atitude flexível e cooperadora?

tava disposto a ceder, desde que não tivesse de violar princípios divinos. Algum tempo antes, ele tinha escrito: “Para os debaixo de lei tornei-me como debaixo de lei, embora eu mesmo não estivesse debaixo de lei, para ganhar os debaixo de lei.” (1 Cor. 9:20) Em harmonia com isso, Paulo cooperou com os anciãos de Jerusalém e se tornou ‘como que debaixo de lei’. Ao fazer isso, ele estabeleceu um excelente exemplo para nós hoje no que diz respeito a cooperar com os anciãos e a não insistir em fazer as coisas do nosso jeito. — Heb. 13:17.

‘Ele não é apto para viver!’ (Atos 21:27–22:30)

[13] As coisas não foram bem no templo. Perto do fim do período do cumprimento dos votos, judeus da Ásia viram Paulo e falsamente o acusaram de levar gentios ao templo, provocando um tumulto. Se o comandante militar romano não tivesse intervindo, Paulo teria sido espancado até a morte. Ainda assim, o comandante romano prendeu o apóstolo. A partir daquele dia, levaria mais de quatro anos para Paulo ganhar a liberdade novamente. E ele ainda não estava fora de perigo. Quando o comandante perguntou aos judeus por que estavam atacando Paulo, eles gritaram diferentes acusações. No meio daquele tumulto, o comandante não conseguiu entender nada. Por fim, o apóstolo teve de ser literalmente carregado para um lugar mais seguro. Quando Paulo e os soldados romanos estavam para entrar no quartel, Paulo disse ao comandante: "Rogo-te . . . que me permitas falar ao povo." (Atos 21:39) O comandante concordou, e Paulo corajosamente passou a defender sua fé.

13. (a) Por que certos judeus causaram um tumulto no templo? (b) Como a vida de Paulo foi salva?

14 'Ouçam a minha defesa', começou Paulo. (Atos 22:1) Paulo dirigiu-se à multidão em hebraico, o que fez com que eles se acalmassem. Ele explicou com franqueza por que se tinha tornado seguidor de Cristo. Ao fazer isso, Paulo habilmente mencionou pontos que os judeus poderiam verificar se desejassem. Paulo havia estudado aos pés do famoso Gamaliel e tinha perseguido os seguidores de Cristo, conforme alguns dos presentes provavelmente sabiam. Mas, quando estava a caminho de Damasco, ele teve uma visão do ressuscitado Jesus, que falou com ele. Os companheiros de viagem de Paulo viram uma luz brilhante e escutaram uma voz, mas não "ouviram com entendi-mento” as palavras. (Atos 9:7; 22:9, nota) Depois disso, Paulo, que estava cego por causa da visão que havia tido, teve de ser conduzido por seus companheiros até Damasco. Lá Ananias, um homem conhecido pelos judeus daquela região, milagrosamente curou Paulo.

14, 15. (a) O que Paulo explicou aos judeus? (b) O que o comandante romano fez para descobrir o motivo do ódio dos judeus?

15 Paulo prosseguiu dizendo que, depois de seu retorno a Jerusalém, Jesus apareceu a ele no templo. Nesse momento, os judeus ficaram muito agitados e clamaram: “Tira tal homem da terra, pois não é apto para viver!” (Atos 22:22) Para salvar Paulo, o comandante fez com que ele fosse levado ao quartel. Decidido a descobrir o motivo do ódio dos judeus contra Paulo, o comandante ordenou que Paulo fosse preparado para ser interrogado sob açoitamento. Paulo, porém, aproveitando-se de uma proteção legal que tinha à sua disposição, revelou que era cidadão romano. De modo similar hoje, os adoradores de Jeová têm usado as proteções legais disponíveis para defender a fé. (Veja o quadro “A lei romana e os cidadãos romanos”, na página 366, e o quadro “Batalhas jurídicas nos tempos atuais”, na página 368.) Ao saber da cidadania romana de Paulo, o comandante viu que teria de encontrar outra maneira de obter mais informações. No dia

A LEI ROMANA E OS CIDADÃOS ROMANOS

As autoridades romanas geralmente não interferiam nos assuntos das províncias. De modo geral, a lei judaica governava os assuntos judaicos. Os romanos só se envolveram no caso de Paulo porque a turba que se formou devido à presença dele no templo era uma ameaça à ordem pública.

As autoridades romanas tinham considerável poder sobre os súditos das províncias que não tinham cidadania romana. No entanto, a situação era diferente em relação aos cidadãos romanos.* A cidadania concedia à pessoa certos privilégios que eram reconhecidos e respeitados em todo o império. Era ilegal, por exemplo, prender ou espancar um cidadão romano que não tivesse sido condenado, visto que esse tipo de tratamento era considerado próprio apenas para os escravos. Os cidadãos romanos também tinham o direito de apelar das decisões do governador da província para o imperador, em Roma.

A cidadania romana podia ser obtida de diversas maneiras. Uma delas era por herança. Vez por outra, os imperadores concediam cidadania a certos indivíduos ou à população livre de toda uma cidade ou distrito por causa de serviços prestados. Escra-vos que comprassem sua liberdade de um cidadão romano, ou que fossem libertados por um romano, ganhavam a cidadania. O mesmo acontecia com veteranos das forças armadas auxiliares que fossem dispensados do exército. Pelo visto, em determinadas circunstâncias, também era possível comprar a cidadania, pois o comandante militar Cláudio Lísias disse a Paulo: "Eu comprei estes direitos de cidadão por grande soma de dinheiro." Paulo respondeu: "Eu até nasci com eles." (Atos 22:28) Assim, um dos antepassados masculinos de Paulo deve ter de algum modo adquirido a cidadania romana, embora não se saiba como isso aconteceu.

* No primeiro século EC, poucos cidadãos romanos viviam na Judeia. Foi somente no terceiro século que todos os súditos das províncias receberam cidadania romana.

seguinte, ele apresentou Paulo perante o Sinédrio, o supremo tribunal dos judeus, que se reuniu especialmente para isso.

"Eu sou fariseu" (Atos 23:1-10)

[16] Começando sua defesa perante o Sinédrio, Paulo disse: "Homens, irmãos, eu me comportei perante Deus com uma consciência perfeitamente limpa, até o dia de hoje." (Atos 23:1) Ele não conseguiu falar mais do que isso. O relato diz: "Em vista disso, o sumo

16, 17. (a) Descreva o que aconteceu quando Paulo falou ao Sinédrio. (b) Ao ser golpeado, como Paulo deu um exemplo de humildade?

BATALHAS JURÍDICAS NOS TEMPOS ATUAIS

Assim como o apóstolo Paulo, as Testemunhas de Jeová hoje usam todo recurso legal disponível para defender seu direito de pregar as boas novas. Elas têm sido zelosas em "defender e estabelecer legalmente as boas novas". — Fil. 1:7.

Nas décadas de 20 e 30, centenas delas foram presas por distribuir publicações bíblicas. Por exemplo, em 1926, havia 897 casos pendentes em tribunais alemães. As disputas jurídicas eram tantas que foi necessário estabelecer um departamento jurídico na sede da Alemanha. Nos anos 30, apenas nos Estados Unidos, havia centenas de detenções todo ano por causa da pregação de casa em casa. Em 1936, esse número subiu para 1.149. Com o objetivo de fornecer amparo legal, um departamento jurídico também foi estabelecido nos Estados Unidos. De 1933 a 1939, as Testemunhas de Jeová na Romênia enfrentaram 530 processos judiciais. Mas muitas apelações à Suprema Corte da Romênia tiveram decisões favoráveis. Situações parecidas ocorreram em muitos outros países.

Dificuldades jurídicas surgem quando cristãos, por questão de consciência, não concordam em participar de atividades que violariam sua neutralidade. (Isa. 2:2-4; João 17:14) Opositores os têm acusado falsamente de sedição, o que às vezes resulta em total proscrição de suas atividades. Mas, com o passar dos anos, muitos governos têm reconhecido que as Testemunhas de Jeová não representam nenhuma ameaça a eles.*

* Para uma consideração das vitórias jurídicas das Testemunhas de Jeová em vários países, veja o capítulo 30 do livro Testemunhas de Jeová — Proclamadores do Reino de Deus.

sacerdote Ananias mandou que os que estavam em pé junto dele lhe batessem na boca." (Atos 23:2) Que insulto! E que demonstração de preconceito, tachar Paulo de mentiroso antes de quaisquer provas terem sido apresentadas! Não é de admirar que Paulo tenha respondido: "Deus te baterá, parede caiada. Assentas-te tu ao mesmo tempo para me julgar segundo a Lei, e, transgredindo a Lei, mandas que me batam?" — Atos 23:3.

17 Alguns dos presentes ficaram chocados — não com aquele que bateu em Paulo, mas com a reação do apóstolo. Eles exigiram uma explicação: "Injurias tu o sumo sacerdote de Deus?" Em resposta, Paulo deu-lhes uma lição de humildade e respeito pela Lei. Ele disse: "Irmãos, eu não sabia que era o sumo sacerdote. Pois está escrito: 'Não deves falar injuriosamente dum governante do teu povo.'"* (Atos 23:4, 5; Êxo. 22:28) Paulo adotou então uma estratégia diferente. Tendo notado que o Sinédrio era composto de fariseus e saduceus, ele disse: "Homens, irmãos, eu sou fariseu, filho de fariseus. É por causa da esperança da ressurreição dos mortos que estou sendo julgado." — Atos 23:6.

18 Por que Paulo disse que era fariseu? Porque ele era "filho de fariseus" — de uma família que pertencia àquela seita. Assim, muitos ainda o considerariam fariseu.# Mas como Paulo podia associar sua crença na ressurreição com a dos fariseus? Relata-se que os fariseus acreditavam que uma alma consciente sobrevivia à morte e que a alma dos justos viveria novamente num corpo humano. Paulo não concordava com essas crenças. Ele cria na ressurreição conforme ensinada por Jesus. (João 5:25-29) Ainda assim, Paulo concordava com

---

* Alguns sugerem que Paulo não reconheceu o sumo sacerdote porque tinha visão fraca. Ou pode ser que, por ter ficado tanto tempo fora de Jerusalém, ele não tenha conseguido reconhecer o sumo sacerdote em exercício. Outra possibilidade é que, por causa da multidão, Paulo simplesmente não pôde ver quem deu a ordem para que batessem nele.

Em 49 EC, quando os apóstolos e os anciãos estavam analisando se os gentios tinham de obedecer à Lei mosaica, alguns dos cristãos presentes foram identificados como "dos da seita dos fariseus, que haviam crido". (Atos 15:5) Pelo visto, aqueles cristãos ainda eram, em certo sentido, identificados com sua formação farisaica.

---

18. Por que Paulo disse que era fariseu, e como podemos usar uma linha de raciocínio similar em determinadas circunstâncias?

os fariseus na questão de que havia esperança de vida após a morte, o que era contrário ao que os saduceus ensinavam, pois eles não acreditavam em uma vida futura. Nós podemos usar uma linha de raciocínio similar ao conversar com católicos e protestantes. Podemos dizer que, assim como eles, nós acreditamos em Deus. É verdade que eles talvez acreditem na Trindade ao passo que nós cremos no Deus da Bíblia. Ainda assim, tanto eles como nós acreditamos que Deus existe.

19 A declaração de Paulo dividiu o Sinédrio. O relato diz: "Irrompeu . . . uma grande gritaria, e alguns dos escribas do partido dos fariseus se levantaram e começaram a contender ferozmente, dizendo: 'Não achamos nada de errado neste homem; mas, se um espírito ou um anjo falou com ele —.'" (Atos 23:9) A simples ideia de que um anjo talvez tivesse falado com Paulo era repugnante para os saduceus, que não acreditavam em anjos. (Veja o quadro "Os saduceus e os fariseus", na página 372.) O tumulto ficou tão grande que o comandante militar romano mais uma vez salvou o apóstolo. (Atos 23:10) Mesmo assim, Paulo não estava fora de perigo. O que aconteceria com o apóstolo agora? Aprenderemos mais no capítulo seguinte.

---

19. Por que a reunião do Sinédrio acabou em tumulto?

OS SADUCEUS E OS FARISEUS

O Sinédrio, conselho administrativo nacional e supremo tribunal dos judeus, era controlado por duas seitas rivais — os saduceus e os fariseus. De acordo com Flávio Josefo, historiador do primeiro século, a principal diferença entre esses dois grupos era que os fariseus procuravam impor às pessoas um grande número de observâncias tradicionais, ao passo que os saduceus consideravam obrigatório apenas o que estava escrito na Lei de Moisés. As duas escolas de pensamento estavam unidas em sua oposição a Jesus.

Parece que os saduceus, que basicamente eram conservadores, tinham fortes ligações com o sacerdócio. Tudo indica que Anás e Caifás, que haviam sido sumos sacerdotes, pertenciam a essa seita poderosa. (Atos 5:17) Josefo diz, porém, que os ensinos dessa seita "só persuadiam os ricos".

Por outro lado, os fariseus exerciam grande influência sobre as massas. Mas seus conceitos, que incluíam a insistência na excessiva pureza cerimonial, tornavam a observância da Lei um fardo para as pessoas. Diferentemente dos saduceus, os fariseus atribuíam muita importância ao destino e acreditavam que a alma sobrevivia à morte, após a qual a alma receberia o que merecia — uma recompensa por suas virtudes ou uma punição por seus pecados.

CAPÍTULO 24

"Tem coragem!"

Os judeus tramam matar Paulo, e ele se defende perante Félix

Baseado em Atos 23:11–24:27

PAULO acaba de ser arrancado das garras de uma turba furiosa em Jerusalém e está novamente preso. A perseguição que o zeloso apóstolo está enfrentando nessa cidade não o surpreende. Foi-lhe dito que esperasse sofrer "laços e tribulações" ali. (Atos 20:22, 23) E, embora não saiba exatamente o que o aguarda, Paulo sabe que continuará a sofrer pelo nome de Jesus. — Atos 9:16.

² Até mesmo profetas cristãos avisaram Paulo que ele seria preso e entregue "às mãos de pessoas das nações". (Atos 21:4, 10, 11) Não faz muito tempo que uma multidão de judeus tentou matá-lo, e pouco depois parecia que ele 'seria dilacerado' pelos membros do Sinédrio enquanto eles discutiam por causa dele. Agora o apóstolo é prisioneiro sob a guarda de soldados romanos e está aguardando mais julgamentos e acusações. (Atos 21:31;

1, 2. Por que a perseguição que Paulo enfrentou em Jerusalém não o surpreendeu?

23:10) Realmente, o apóstolo Paulo precisa de encorajamento.

[3] Neste tempo do fim, sabemos que "todos os que desejarem viver com devoção piedosa em associação com Cristo Jesus também serão perseguidos". (2 Tim. 3:12) De tempos em tempos, nós também precisamos de encorajamento para continuar nossa obra de pregação. Somos muito gratos pelas oportunas e animadoras palavras que recebemos por meio das publicações e das reuniões providenciadas pelo "escravo fiel e discreto". (Mat. 24:45) Jeová nos garante que nenhum inimigo das boas novas será bem-sucedido. Eles não vão destruir os servos de Deus como grupo nem impedir sua obra de pregação. (Isa. 54:17; Jer. 1:19) Mas que dizer do apóstolo Paulo? Será que ele recebeu encorajamento para continuar dando testemunho cabal sobre o Reino de Deus apesar de oposição? Em caso afirmativo, qual foi o encorajamento, e como ele reagiu?

Uma "conspiração juramentada" falha (Atos 23:11-34)

[4] O apóstolo Paulo recebeu o tão necessário encoraja-

---

3. De onde nós recebemos encorajamento para continuar nossa obra de pregação?

4, 5. Que encorajamento Paulo recebeu, e por que esse encorajamento chegou na hora certa?

mento na noite após ter sido resgatado do tumulto no Sinédrio. O relato inspirado nos diz: "O Senhor estava em pé ao lado dele e disse: 'Tem coragem! Pois assim como tens dado testemunho cabal em Jerusalém concernente às coisas a respeito de mim, terás de dar também testemunho em Roma.'" (Atos 23:11) Com essas palavras encorajadoras de Jesus, Paulo obteve garantia de livramento. Ele soube que sobreviveria para chegar a Roma e que teria o privilégio de dar testemunho sobre Jesus ali.

5 O encorajamento que Paulo recebeu chegou na hora certa. No dia seguinte, mais de 40 judeus "formaram uma conspiração e obrigaram-se com uma maldição, dizendo que nem comeriam nem beberiam até matarem Paulo". Aqueles judeus estavam tão determinados a se livrar do apóstolo que juraram matá-lo, acreditando que sofreriam uma maldição, ou uma desgraça, se não fizessem isso. (Atos 23:12-15) O plano deles, aprovado pelos anciãos e principais sacerdotes, era chamar Paulo ao Sinédrio para mais um interrogatório, como que para esclarecer certos assuntos sobre ele. Mas, no caminho que levava ao Sinédrio, os conspiradores estariam de tocaia para atacar Paulo e matá-lo.

[6] O sobrinho de Paulo, porém, ficou sabendo da trama e contou a ele. Paulo, por sua vez, fez com que o jovem relatasse isso ao comandante militar romano Cláudio Lísias. (Atos 23:16-22) Com certeza Jeová ama os jovens que, assim como esse sobrinho de Paulo cujo nome não é mencionado, corajosamente colocam o bem-estar do povo de Deus à frente de seu próprio e fielmente fazem tudo que podem para promover os interesses do Reino.

[7] Ao saber da trama contra Paulo, Cláudio Lísias, que comandava mil homens, imediatamente ordenou que uma guarda militar de 470 soldados, lanceiros e cavaleiros fosse formada para deixar Jerusalém naquela noite e levar Paulo em segurança a Cesareia. Uma vez lá, ele seria entregue ao Governador Félix.* Cesareia era a capital administrativa da Judeia e o lugar onde ficava o principal quartel das forças militares romanas dessa província. Um número considerável de judeus morava nessa cidade, mas a maior parte da população era gen-

* Veja o quadro “Félix — procurador da Judeia”, na página 377.

6. Como a trama de matar Paulo foi descoberta, e o que os jovens de hoje podem aprender desse relato?

7, 8. Que providências Cláudio Lísias tomou para garantir a segurança de Paulo?

FÉLIX — PROCURADOR DA JUDEIA

Por volta de 52 EC, o imperador romano Cláudio designou Antônio Félix, um de seus protegidos, como procurador, ou governador, da Judeia. Félix era um escravo liberto que, assim como seu irmão Palas, havia sido escravo da família do imperador. A designação de um ex-escravo para o cargo de procurador com poderes militares era algo sem precedentes.

Por causa da influência que seu irmão tinha sobre o imperador, Félix "acreditava que podia cometer todo tipo de barbaridade sem ser punido", diz o historiador romano Tácito. Como procurador, Félix "praticava toda espécie de crueldade e lascívia, exercendo o poder de rei com todos os instintos dum escravo". Durante seu mandato como procurador, Félix casou-se com Drusila, filha de Herodes Agripa I, depois de a ter seduzido a abandonar o marido. Félix tratou o apóstolo Paulo de forma corrupta e ilegal, achando que poderia receber suborno dele.

A administração de Félix era tão corrupta e opressiva que em 58 EC o Imperador Nero o destituiu do cargo e mandou que voltasse para Roma. Um grupo de judeus viajou para lá a fim de acusá-lo de corrupção, mas relata-se que Palas livrou seu irmão da punição.

tia. A ordem pública ali se contrastava com a de Jerusalém, onde muitos demonstravam forte preconceito religioso e se envolviam em turbas.

[8] Cumprindo a lei romana, Lísias enviou uma carta a Félix explicando o caso. Lísias mencionou que, ao saber que Paulo era cidadão romano, ele o resgatou para que este não fosse "eliminado" pelos judeus. Lísias disse que não encontrou em Paulo nenhuma falta que "merecesse a morte ou laços", mas, por causa de uma trama contra Paulo, ele o estava entregando a Félix para que o governador pudesse ouvir os acusadores e decidir o caso. — Atos 23:25-30.

[9] Será que Lísias foi verídico no que escreveu? Não totalmente. Parece que ele estava tentando causar uma boa impressão. Não foi por ter descoberto que Paulo era cidadão romano que Lísias o resgatou. Além disso, Lísias não mencionou que tinha mandado 'amarrar Paulo com duas cadeias' nem que mais tarde tinha ordenado que ele fosse "examinado sob açoites". (Atos 21:30-34; 22:24-29) Com essas ações, Lísias tinha violado os direitos de Paulo como cidadão romano. Hoje, Satanás usa o fanatismo religioso dos opositores para atiçar as chamas da perseguição, e pode ser que tenhamos nossa liberdade civil violada. Mas, como Paulo, os servos de Deus podem muitas vezes se valer dos direitos que têm como cidadãos de determinado país e procurar a proteção da lei.

---

9. (a) De que maneira os direitos de Paulo como cidadão romano foram violados? (b) Por que talvez seja preciso nos valer dos nossos direitos como cidadãos de determinado país?

“Falo prontamente em minha defesa” (Atos 23:35–24:21)

[10] Em Cesareia, Paulo foi “mantido sob guarda, no palácio pretoriano de Herodes”, para esperar até que os acusadores chegassem de Jerusalém. (Atos 23:35) Cinco dias depois, eles chegaram — o Sumo Sacerdote Ananias, um orador público chamado Tértulo e um grupo de anciãos. Tértulo primeiro elogiou Félix pelo que ele estava fazendo em prol dos judeus, pelo visto para deixá-lo lisonjeado e obter seu favor.* Então, indo para o ponto em questão, Tértulo referiu-se a Paulo da seguinte maneira: “Este homem é uma peste e atiça sedições entre todos os judeus, por toda a terra habitada, e . . . é ponta de lança da seita dos nazarenos, um que tentou também profanar o templo e de quem nos apoderamos.” Os judeus que estavam com ele “juntaram-se ao ataque, asseverando que todas estas coisas eram assim”. (Atos 24:5, 6, 9) Atiçar sedição, liderar uma seita perigosa e

* Tértulo agradeceu a Félix pela “grande paz” que ele trouxe à nação. No entanto, a verdade era que durante o governo de Félix houve menos paz na Judeia do que em qualquer outra administração até a revolta contra Roma. Também estava longe de ser verdade dizer que os judeus tinham “grande gratidão” pelas reformas que Félix tinha feito. Na realidade, Félix era desprezado pela maioria dos judeus por ter tornado a vida deles opressiva e por usar de brutalidade para acabar com as revoltas do povo. — Atos 24:2, 3.

10. Que acusações sérias foram levantadas contra Paulo?

profanar o templo — essas eram acusações sérias e poderiam resultar em pena de morte.

[11] Paulo então teve permissão para falar. "Falo prontamente em minha defesa", começou ele. Paulo foi taxativo ao negar todas as acusações. O apóstolo não tinha profanado o templo nem tinha tentado atiçar sedição. Ele destacou que, na verdade, havia ficado fora de Jerusalém por "certo número de anos" e que tinha chegado com "dádivas de misericórdia" — contribuições para os cristãos cuja pobreza talvez fosse resultado da fome e da perseguição. Paulo insistiu que estava "cerimonialmente limpo" antes de entrar no templo e que se esforçava para ter a consciência limpa de "não ter cometido ofensa contra Deus e homens". — Atos 24:10-13, 16-18.

[12] Paulo admitiu, porém, ter prestado serviço sagrado ao Deus de seus antepassados 'segundo o caminho que eles chamavam de "seita"'. Mas ele insistiu que acreditava em "todas as coisas expostas na Lei e escritas nos Profetas" e que, assim como seus acusadores, ele tinha a esperança de "uma ressurreição tanto de justos como de injustos". Paulo então desafiou seus acusadores: "Que os homens aqui digam de si mesmos o que acharam de errado, quando eu estava perante o Sinédrio, exceto com respeito a esta única pronunciação que clamei enquanto estava diante deles: 'É por causa da ressurreição dos mortos que hoje estou sendo julgado diante de vós!' " — Atos 24:14, 15, 20, 21.

11, 12. Como Paulo refutou as acusações contra ele?

[13] Paulo estabeleceu um bom exemplo para nós imitarmos caso sejamos alguma vez levados perante autoridades por causa de nossa adoração e sejamos acusados falsamente de ser agitadores, sediciosos ou membros de uma "seita perigosa". Diferentemente de Tértulo, Paulo não tentou bajular o governador com palavras lisonjeiras. Paulo permaneceu calmo e foi respeitoso. Usando de tato, ele deu um testemunho claro e verdadeiro. Ele mencionou que os "judeus do distrito da Ásia" que o haviam acusado de profanar o templo não estavam presentes e que, legalmente, ele tinha o direito de confrontá-los e ouvir suas acusações. — Atos 24:18, 19.

[14] O mais notável é que Paulo não se refreou de dar testemunho sobre suas crenças. Com coragem, o apóstolo reiterou sua crença na ressurreição, a mesma questão que havia criado um tumulto quando ele estava diante do Sinédrio. (Atos 23:6-10) Por que Paulo enfatizou a esperança da ressurreição ao fazer sua defesa? Porque era a questão da ressurreição — e, mais especificamente, a crença em Jesus e na Sua ressurreição — que estava no centro da controvérsia. De fato, Paulo estava nessa situação por ter dado testemunho sobre Jesus e sobre Sua ressurreição — algo que aqueles opositores se recusavam a aceitar. — Atos 26:6-8, 22, 23.

---

13-15. Por que podemos considerar Paulo um bom exemplo de alguém que deu um corajoso testemunho diante de autoridades?

15 Como Paulo, nós podemos dar um testemunho corajoso e derivar forças do que Jesus disse a seus discípulos: "Vós sereis pessoas odiadas por todos, por causa do meu nome. Mas aquele que tiver perseverado até o fim é o que será salvo." Será que devemos nos preocupar com o que dizer? Não, pois Jesus deu a seguinte garantia: "Quando vos levarem para vos entregar, não estejais ansiosos de antemão sobre o que haveis de falar; mas, o que vos for dado naquela hora, isso falai, porque não sois vós quem fala, mas o espírito santo." — Mar. 13:9-13.

"Félix ficou amedrontado" (Atos 24:22-27)

16 Essa não foi a primeira vez que o Governador Félix tinha ouvido sobre a fé cristã. O relato diz: "Sabendo Félix com bastante exatidão os assuntos referentes a este Caminho [primeiro termo usado para se referir ao cristianismo], começou a livrar-se dos homens com evasivas e disse: ‘Quando Lísias, o comandante militar, descer, decidirei estes assuntos que vos envolvem.’ E ele ordenou ao oficial do exército que o homem fosse guardado e que houvesse algum abrandamento da detenção, e que não proibisse a nenhum do seu povo que o servisse.” — Atos 24:22, 23.

---

16, 17. (a) Como Félix agiu no julgamento de Paulo? (b) Por que talvez Félix tenha ficado com medo, mas por qual motivo continuou a ver Paulo?

[17] Alguns dias mais tarde, Félix, com sua esposa Drusila, uma judia, mandou chamar Paulo e “escutou sobre a crença em Cristo Jesus”. (Atos 24:24) No entanto, quando Paulo falou sobre “a justiça, o autodomínio e o julgamento por vir, Félix ficou amedrontado”, possivelmente porque essas coisas incomodavam sua consciência devido ao proceder iníquo que tinha. Então ele dispensou Paulo, dizendo: “Por ora vai-te embora, mas, quando eu tiver um tempo oportuno, mandarei buscar-te novamente.” Félix viu Paulo muitas vezes depois disso não porque queria aprender a verdade, mas porque esperava que Paulo o subornasse. — Atos 24:25, 26.

[18] Por que Paulo falou com Félix e sua esposa sobre “a justiça e o autodomínio, e o julgamento por vir”? Lembre-se de que eles queriam saber o que estava envolvido na “crença em Cristo Jesus”. Paulo, que conhecia o histórico de imoralidade, crueldade e injustiça que eles tinham, estava deixando bem claro o que se esperava de todos que quisessem se tornar seguidores de Jesus. O que Paulo disse mostrou o nítido contraste entre os padrões justos de Deus e o modo de vida que Félix e sua esposa levavam. Isso deveria tê-los ajudado a ver que todos os humanos têm de prestar contas a Deus pelo que pensam, dizem e fazem, e que mais importante do que o julgamento que Paulo receberia era o julgamento que eles teriam diante de Deus. Não é de admirar que Félix tenha 'ficado amedrontado'!

18. Por que Paulo falou com Félix e sua esposa sobre “a justiça e o autodomínio, e o julgamento por vir”?

19 No nosso ministério, talvez encontremos pessoas como Félix. A princípio, elas podem parecer interessadas na verdade, mas na realidade não querem mudar seu proceder egoísta. Devemos ser cautelosos ao ajudar tais pessoas. Mas, assim como Paulo, podemos usar de tato ao mostrar-lhes os padrões justos de Deus. Talvez a verdade toque o coração delas. No entanto, se ficar evidente que elas não têm nenhum interesse em abandonar o modo de vida pecaminoso, nós não insistiremos em convencê-las a mudar. Em vez disso, usaremos nosso tempo para procurar pessoas que realmente estão buscando a verdade.

---

19, 20. (a) No nosso ministério, como devemos lidar com pessoas que parecem interessadas na verdade, mas que na realidade não querem mudar seu proceder egoísta? (b) Como sabemos que Félix não estava genuinamente interessado no bem-estar de Paulo?

[20] No caso de Félix, vemos a verdadeira condição de seu coração nestas palavras: “Decorridos dois anos, Félix foi sucedido por Pórcio Festo; e, visto que Félix desejava ganhar o favor dos judeus, deixou Paulo preso.” (Atos 24:27) Félix com certeza não estava genuinamente interessado no bem-estar de Paulo. Félix sabia que os seguidores do “Caminho” não eram sediciosos nem revolucionários. (Atos 19:23) Ele também sabia que Paulo não tinha violado nenhuma lei romana. Mesmo assim, Félix manteve o apóstolo preso para poder “ganhar o favor dos judeus”.

[21] Conforme mostra o último versículo do capítulo 24 de Atos, Paulo ainda estava preso quando Pórcio Festo sucedeu Félix como governador. Com isso, Paulo foi entregue a essa outra autoridade, e deu-se início a uma série de audiências. De fato, esse corajoso apóstolo foi ‘arrastado perante reis e governadores’. (Luc. 21:12) Como veremos, ele mais tarde deu testemunho ao governante mais poderoso de seus dias. Durante tudo isso, Paulo nunca vacilou na sua fé. Sem dúvida ele continuou a derivar forças das palavras de Jesus: “Tem coragem!”

---

21. O que aconteceu com Paulo depois que Pórcio Festo se tornou governador, e o que sem dúvida continuou a fortalecer Paulo?

CAPÍTULO 25

"Apelo para César!"

Paulo estabelece um exemplo de como defender as boas novas

Baseado em Atos 25:1–26:32

PAULO continua sob forte vigilância em Cesareia. Dois anos antes, quando havia retornado à Judeia, os judeus tentaram matá-lo pelo menos três vezes em questão de poucos dias. (Atos 21:27-36; 23:10, 12-15, 27) Até agora seus inimigos não foram bem-sucedidos, mas ainda não desistiram. Ao perceber que pode cair nas mãos deles, Paulo diz ao governador romano Festo: "Apelo para César!" — Atos 25:11.

² Será que Jeová apoiou a decisão de Paulo de apelar para o imperador de Roma? A resposta é importante para nós que damos testemunho cabal sobre o Reino de Deus neste tempo do fim. Precisamos saber se Paulo estabeleceu um exemplo para nós no que se refere a "defender e estabelecer legalmente as boas novas". — Fil. 1:7.

1, 2. (a) Em que situação Paulo se encontrava? (b) Que pergunta surge quanto à decisão de Paulo de apelar para César?

“Perante a cadeira de juiz” (Atos 25:1-12)

[3] Três dias depois de tomar posse como governador da Judeia, Festo foi a Jerusalém.* Lá ele ouviu os principais sacerdotes e os homens de destaque dos judeus acusarem Paulo de ter cometido crimes graves. Eles sabiam que o novo governador estava sendo pressionado a manter a paz com eles e com todos os judeus. Assim, pediram um favor a Festo: trazer Paulo a Jerusalém e julgá-lo ali. Mas havia um plano maligno por trás desse pedido. Os inimigos de Paulo estavam planejando matá-lo na estrada que ia de Cesareia a Jerusalém. Festo recusou o pedido, dizendo: “Desçam comigo [a Cesareia] os que estão em poder entre vós e o acusem, se há algo de condenável nesse homem.” (Atos 25:5) Desse modo, Paulo escapou mais uma vez da morte.

[4] Durante todas as provações de Paulo, Jeová o sustentou por meio do Senhor Jesus Cristo. Lembre-se de que, em uma visão, Jesus disse a seu apóstolo: “Tem coragem!” (Atos 23:11) Hoje, os servos de Deus também enfrentam obstáculos e ameaças. Jeová não nos

* Veja o quadro “O procurador romano Pórcio Festo”, na página 388.

3, 4. (a) O que estava por trás do pedido dos judeus de levar Paulo a Jerusalém, e como ele escapou da morte? (b) Como Jeová sustenta seus servos hoje, assim como fez com Paulo?

O PROCURADOR ROMANO PÓRCIO FESTO

Os únicos relatos de testemunhas oculares que temos a respeito de Pórcio Festo estão registrados no livro de Atos e nos escritos de Flávio Josefo. Festo sucedeu Félix como procurador da Judeia por volta de 58 EC e pelo visto morreu no cargo depois de ter governado apenas dois ou três anos.

Em geral, Festo parece ter sido um procurador competente e prudente, em contraste com seu antecessor, Félix, e seu sucessor, Albino. No início do mandato de Festo, havia muitos bandidos na Judeia. De acordo com Josefo, "Festo . . . resolveu punir os que causavam problemas no país. Assim ele capturou a maioria dos assaltantes e executou um grande número deles". Durante o governo de Festo, os judeus construíram um muro para impedir o Rei Agripa de ver o que acontecia na área do templo. De início, Festo ordenou que os judeus derrubassem o muro. Mas, a pedido deles, Festo mais tarde permitiu que apresentassem o assunto ao imperador romano Nero.

Festo parece ter sido firme contra os criminosos e rebeldes. Mas, a fim de manter boas relações com os judeus, ele estava disposto a deixar a justiça de lado, pelo menos nos seus tratos com o apóstolo Paulo.

protege de todas as dificuldades, mas nos dá a sabedoria e a força necessárias para perseverar. Sempre podemos contar com "o poder além do normal" que nosso amoroso Deus nos dá. — 2 Cor. 4:7.

[5] Alguns dias mais tarde, Festo "assentou-se na cadeira de juiz" em Cesareia.* Diante dele estavam Paulo e os acusadores. Em resposta às acusações infundadas de seus inimigos, Paulo rebateu: "Nem contra a Lei dos judeus, nem contra o templo, nem contra César cometi qualquer pecado." O apóstolo era inocente e merecia ser libertado. Qual seria a decisão de Festo? Querendo obter o favor dos judeus, ele perguntou a Paulo: "Desejas subir a Jerusalém e ser julgado ali diante de mim a respeito dessas coisas?" (Atos 25:6-9) Que proposta absurda! Se Paulo fosse enviado de volta a Jerusalém, ele seria julgado por seus acusadores, e sua morte seria certa. Nesse respeito, Festo estava colocando seus interesses políticos acima da verdadeira justiça. Um governador anterior, Pôncio Pilatos, havia agido de forma parecida num caso envolvendo um prisioneiro muito mais importante. (João 19:12-16) Atualmente, alguns juízes talvez também cedam à pressão política. Assim, não devemos ficar surpresos quando tribunais se decidem contrário às provas em casos envolvendo o povo de Deus.

* A "cadeira de juiz" era uma cadeira colocada sobre uma plataforma. Ficava nessa posição elevada para indicar que as decisões do juiz tinham peso e caráter decisivo. Pilatos sentou-se em uma cadeira de juiz quando examinou as acusações contra Jesus.

5. Como Festo lidou com Paulo?

[6] O desejo de Festo de agradar os judeus poderia ter colocado a vida de Paulo em perigo. Por isso, Paulo valeu-se de um direito que tinha como cidadão romano. Ele disse a Festo: "Estou perante a cadeira de juiz de César, onde devo ser julgado. Não tenho feito nenhuma injustiça aos judeus, como tu mesmo estás descobrindo muito bem. . . . Apelo para César!" Uma vez feito, um apelo como esse geralmente não podia ser revogado. Festo enfatizou isso ao dizer: "Para César apelaste, para César irás." (Atos 25:10-12) Por apelar a uma autoridade jurídica superior, Paulo estabeleceu um precedente para os cristãos verdadeiros hoje. Quando opositores tentam causar "desgraça por meio de decreto", as Testemunhas de Jeová se valem de recursos jurídicos para defender as boas novas.* — Sal. 94:20.

---

* Veja o quadro "Apelações a favor da adoração verdadeira nos tempos atuais", na página 392.

6, 7. Por que Paulo apelou para César, e que precedente ele estabeleceu para os cristãos verdadeiros hoje?

[7] Assim, depois de dois anos na prisão, acusado de crimes que não cometeu, foi concedida a Paulo a oportunidade de apresentar seu caso em Roma. Mas, antes de Paulo partir, outro governante quis vê-lo.

"Não me tornei desobediente" (Atos 25:13–26:23)

[8] Alguns dias depois de Paulo ter apelado para César na presença de Festo, o Rei Agripa e sua irmã Berenice fizeram "uma visita de cortesia" ao novo governador.* Nos dias do Império Romano, as autoridades tinham o costume de fazer tais visitas a novos governadores. Ao parabenizar Festo por sua nomeação, Agripa estava sem dúvida tentando fortalecer laços políticos e pessoais que poderiam ser-lhe úteis no futuro. — Atos 25:13.

[9] Festo falou a respeito de Paulo ao rei, e Agripa ficou curioso para ouvir o apóstolo. No dia seguinte, os dois governantes sentaram-se na cadeira de juiz. Mas todo aquele poder e ostentação não eram de modo algum mais impressionantes do que as palavras que o prisioneiro diante deles estava para dizer. — Atos 25:22-27.

* Veja o quadro "Rei Herodes Agripa II", na página 394.

8, 9. Por que o Rei Agripa visitou Cesareia?

APELAÇÕES A FAVOR DA ADORAÇÃO VERDADEIRA NOS TEMPOS ATUAIS

As Testemunhas de Jeová às vezes apelam a supremos tribunais com o objetivo de remover obstáculos à pregação das boas novas do Reino de Deus. Vejamos dois exemplos.

Em 28 de março de 1938, a Suprema Corte dos Estados Unidos revogou a decisão de um tribunal estadual, inocentando assim um grupo de Testemunhas de Jeová que haviam sido presas por distribuir publicações bíblicas na cidade de Griffin, Geórgia, EUA. Essa foi a primeira de muitas apelações feitas a esse supremo tribunal no que se refere ao direito das Testemunhas de Jeová de pregar as boas novas.*

Outro caso aconteceu na Grécia, envolvendo uma Testemunha de Jeová chamada Minos Kokkinakis. Num período de 48 anos, ele foi preso mais de 60 vezes, acusado de "proselitismo". Em 18 ocasiões ele foi levado a julgamento. Ele passou anos na prisão e no exílio em ilhas remotas do mar Egeu. Após sua última condenação, em 1986, o irmão Kokkinakis perdeu as apelações que fez aos tribunais superiores da Grécia. Então recorreu à Corte Europeia dos Direitos Humanos (CEDH). Em 25 de março de 1993, essa

* Para um exemplo mais recente, veja o relato a respeito da decisão da Suprema Corte dos Estados Unidos sobre liberdade de expressão publicado na revista Despertai! de 8 janeiro de 2003, páginas 3-11.

Corte declarou que a Grécia havia violado a liberdade de religião do irmão Kokkinakis.

As Testemunhas de Jeová têm apelado à CEDH em dezenas de casos, sendo vitoriosas na maioria deles. Nenhuma outra organização, religiosa ou não, tem sido tão bem-sucedida em defender os direitos humanos básicos diante da CEDH.

Será que outros se beneficiam das vitórias jurídicas das Testemunhas de Jeová? O erudito Charles C. Haynes escreveu: "Todos nós temos uma dívida de gratidão às Testemunhas de Jeová. Não importa quantas vezes sejam insultadas, expulsas de uma cidade, ou mesmo sofram agressões físicas, elas continuam a lutar por sua (e, por conseguinte, pela nossa) liberdade de religião. E, quando elas ganham, todos nós ganhamos."

10 Paulo respeitosamente agradeceu ao Rei Agripa a oportunidade de se defender perante ele, reconhecendo que o rei era perito em todos os costumes bem como nas controvérsias entre os judeus. Paulo passou a descrever sua vida no passado: "Vivi como fariseu, segundo a seita mais estrita da nossa forma de adoração." (Atos 26:5) Como fariseu, Paulo esperava

10, 11. Como Paulo mostrou respeito por Agripa, e que detalhes a respeito de seu próprio passado o apóstolo revelou ao rei?

REI HERODES AGRIPA II

O Agripa mencionado em Atos capítulo 25 era o Rei Herodes Agripa II, bisneto de Herodes, o Grande, e filho do Herodes que havia perseguido a congregação de Jerusalém 14 anos antes. (Atos 12:1) Agripa foi o último príncipe da dinastia dos Herodes.

Quando seu pai morreu, em 44 EC, Agripa, então com 17 anos, estava em Roma sendo educado na corte do imperador romano Cláudio. Os conselheiros do imperador consideravam Agripa muito jovem para herdar o domínio de seu pai; por isso, um governador romano foi nomeado. Mesmo assim, de acordo com Flávio Josefo, enquanto Agripa ainda estava em Roma, ele intervinha a favor dos judeus e representava os interesses deles.

Por volta de 50 EC, Cláudio designou Agripa rei de Cálcis e, em 53 EC, rei da Itureia, de Traconítis e de Abilene. Agripa também recebeu a supervisão do templo de Jerusalém e autoridade para designar os sumos sacerdotes judeus. Nero, sucessor de Cláudio, estendeu o domínio de Agripa, que passou a incluir partes da Galileia e da Pereia. Na época em que conheceu Paulo, Agripa estava em Cesareia com sua irmã Berenice, que havia abandonado o marido, rei da Cilícia. — Atos 25:13.

Em 66 EC, quando os esforços de Agripa para acalmar a rebelião dos judeus contra Roma falharam, ele

mesmo se tornou alvo dos rebeldes e foi obrigado a juntar-se aos romanos. Depois que os judeus foram derrotados, o novo imperador, Vespasiano, deu a Agripa outros territórios como recompensa.

pela vinda do Messias. Agora, como cristão, Paulo corajosamente identificava Jesus Cristo como o tão aguardado Messias. Uma crença que ele e seus acusadores tinham em comum, a de que Deus cumpriria a promessa que havia feito aos antepassados deles, era o motivo de Paulo estar sendo julgado naquele dia. Essa questão deixou Agripa ainda mais interessado no que Paulo tinha a dizer.*

11 Relembrando a época em que tratava os cristãos com crueldade, Paulo disse: "Eu, da minha parte, realmente pensei no meu íntimo que devia cometer muitos atos de oposição contra o nome de Jesus, o nazareno. . . . Visto que eu estava extremamente enfurecido contra eles [os seguidores de Cristo], fui ao ponto de persegui-los até mesmo nas cidades de fora." (Atos 26:9-11) Paulo não estava exagerando. Muitas pessoas sabiam do modo violento como ele havia perseguido os cristãos. (Gál. 1:13, 23) Agripa talvez se perguntasse: 'O que poderia ter levado um homem assim a mudar?'

* Por ser cristão, Paulo aceitava Jesus como o Messias. Os judeus, que rejeitavam Jesus, encaravam Paulo como apóstata. — Atos 21:21, 27, 28.

12 Essa pergunta foi respondida pelas seguintes palavras de Paulo: "Viajava eu para Damasco, com autoridade e comissão da parte dos principais sacerdotes, quando vi ao meio-dia, na estrada, ó rei, uma luz, além do brilho do sol, reluzir do céu em volta de mim e em volta dos que viajavam comigo. E caindo todos nós ao chão, ouvi uma voz dizer-me no idioma hebraico: 'Saulo, Saulo, por que me persegues? Duro te é persistir em dar pontapés contra as aguilhadas.' Mas eu disse: 'Quem és, Senhor?' E o Senhor disse: 'Eu sou Jesus, a quem tu persegues.'"* — Atos 26:12-15.

13 Antes desse acontecimento sobrenatural, Paulo estava como que 'dando pontapés contra as aguilhadas'. Assim como um animal de carga se machucaria desnecessariamente por ficar chutando a ponta afiada de uma aguilhada, Paulo havia se ferido em sentido espiritual por agir contra a vontade de Deus. Por apare-

* No que se refere às palavras de Paulo de que ele estava viajando "ao meio-dia", certo erudito bíblico diz: "A menos que estivesse com muita pressa, um viajante costumava descansar durante o calor do meio-dia. Assim vemos como Paulo estava empenhando toda a sua força em cumprir essa missão de perseguição."

12, 13. (a) Como Paulo descreveu sua conversão? (b) Em que sentido Paulo estava 'dando pontapés contra as aguilhadas'?

cer a Paulo na estrada para Damasco, o ressuscitado Jesus fez com que esse homem sincero, porém obviamente mal orientado, mudasse seu modo de pensar. — João 16:1, 2.

14 Paulo realmente fez mudanças drásticas em sua vida. Dirigindo-se a Agripa, ele disse: "Não me tornei desobediente à visão celestial, mas, tanto aos em Damasco, primeiro, como aos em Jerusalém, e por todo o país da Judeia, e às nações, fui levar a mensagem de que se arrependessem e se voltassem para Deus por fazerem obras próprias de arrependimento." (Atos 26:19, 20) Já por muitos anos Paulo estava cumprindo a comissão que Jesus Cristo lhe tinha dado naquela visão ao meio-dia. Com que resultados? Os que aceitavam as boas novas que Paulo pregava se arrependiam de sua conduta imoral e desonesta e passavam a servir a Deus. Essas pessoas se tornavam bons cidadãos, demonstrando respeito pela lei e pela ordem pública.

15 Mas esses benefícios não significavam nada para os opositores judeus de Paulo. Ele disse: "Por esta razão se apoderaram de mim os judeus no templo e tentaram matar-me. No entanto, visto que obtive a ajuda que vem de Deus, continuo até o dia de hoje a dar testemunho tanto a pequenos como a grandes." — Atos 26:21, 22.

14, 15. O que Paulo disse com respeito às mudanças que havia feito em sua vida?

16 Como cristãos verdadeiros, devemos estar "sempre prontos para fazer uma defesa" de nossa fé. (1 Ped. 3:15) Ao falarmos com juízes e governantes sobre as nossas crenças, pode ser de ajuda imitar o modo como Paulo falou com Agripa e Festo. Se respeitosamente falarmos como as verdades bíblicas têm melhorado a vida das pessoas — não só a nossa, mas também a dos que aceitam a nossa mensagem — talvez consigamos tocar o coração dessas altas autoridades.

'Tu me persuadirias a tornar-me cristão' (Atos 26:24-32)

17 À medida que escutavam o testemunho convincente de Paulo, os dois governantes não conseguiam continuar indiferentes. Veja o que aconteceu: "Ora, [quando Paulo falou] estas coisas em sua defesa, Festo disse em voz alta: 'Estás ficando louco, Paulo! A grande erudição está-te levando à loucura!'" (Atos 26:24) A forte reação de Festo talvez tenha revelado uma atitude vis-

16. Como podemos imitar a Paulo ao falar com juízes e governantes sobre as nossas crenças?
17. Como Festo reagiu à defesa de Paulo, e que atitude similar é vista hoje?

ta também hoje. Muitas pessoas encaram como fanáticos os que ensinam o que a Bíblia realmente diz. Os intelectuais do mundo muitas vezes acham difícil aceitar o ensino bíblico da ressurreição.

[18] Mas Paulo tinha uma resposta para o governador: "Não estou ficando louco, Excelência, Festo, mas estou proferindo declarações de verdade e de bom juízo. Na realidade, o rei a quem estou falando com franqueza bem sabe estas coisas. . . . Crês tu nos Profetas, Rei Agripa? Sei que crês." Agripa respondeu: "Em pouco tempo me persuadirias a tornar-me cristão." (Atos 26:25-28) Essas palavras, quer tenham sido sinceras, quer não, mostram que o testemunho de Paulo afetou profundamente o rei.

[19] Então Agripa e Festo se levantaram, indicando assim que a audiência estava encerrada. "Ao se retirarem, começaram a falar entre si, dizendo: 'Este homem não pratica nada que mereça a morte ou laços.' Além disso, Agripa disse a Festo: 'Este homem podia ter sido livrado, se não tivesse apelado para César.'" (Atos 26:31, 32) Eles sabiam que aquele homem que estivera

---

18. Como Paulo respondeu a Festo, e de que maneira Agripa reagiu a essa resposta?

19. A que conclusão Festo e Agripa chegaram a respeito de Paulo?

diante deles era inocente. A partir de então, eles talvez passassem a ter um conceito mais positivo sobre os cristãos.

[20] Nenhum dos dois governantes poderosos mencionados nesse relato parece ter aceitado as boas novas do Reino de Deus. Será que foi proveitoso o apóstolo Paulo comparecer diante desses homens? A resposta é sim. O fato de Paulo ter sido 'arrastado perante reis e governadores' na Judeia resultou num testemunho a autoridades romanas que de outra forma não teria sido possível. (Luc. 21:12, 13) Além disso, o que ele passou e a fé que demonstrou durante as provações fortaleceu seus irmãos espirituais. — Fil. 1:12-14.

[21] O mesmo acontece hoje. Por perseverarmos na obra do Reino, apesar de provações e oposição, podemos ter muitos resultados positivos. Talvez consigamos dar testemunho a autoridades que não conseguiríamos alcançar de outra forma. E a nossa perseverança fiel pode ser uma fonte de encorajamento para nossos irmãos cristãos, motivando-os a demonstrar ainda mais coragem na obra de dar testemunho cabal sobre o Reino de Deus.

---

20. Em que resultou o testemunho que Paulo deu a autoridades?
21. Que resultados positivos podemos ter por perseverarmos na obra do Reino?

CAPÍTULO 26

“Nem uma única alma se perderá”

Ao enfrentar naufrágio, Paulo demonstra grande fé e amor pelas pessoas

Baseado em Atos 27:1–28:10

“PARA César irás.” Paulo não para de pensar nessas palavras do governador Festo, pois elas terão um grande impacto sobre o seu futuro. Paulo está preso há dois anos, de modo que a longa viagem a Roma ao menos significará uma mudança de ares. (Atos 25:12) Mas as vívidas lembranças que Paulo tem de suas viagens marítimas incluem muito mais do que brisas refrescantes e belos pores do sol. Assim, a ideia de ter de fazer essa viagem para comparecer perante César deve fazer Paulo refletir seriamente a respeito do que o aguarda.

[2] Paulo já enfrentou “perigos no mar” muitas vezes, tendo sobrevivido a três naufrágios e até mesmo passado uma noite e um dia em mar aberto. (2 Cor. 11:25, 26) Além disso, essa viagem será bem diferente das viagens missionárias que ele fazia quando era um homem livre.

1, 2. Que tipo de viagem Paulo estava para fazer, e com o que ele talvez estivesse preocupado?

Paulo viajará como prisioneiro e por uma enorme distância — mais de 3 mil quilômetros de Cesareia a Roma. Será que ele conseguirá sair são e salvo dessa viagem? Mesmo que consiga, será que vai ser condenado à morte ao chegar a Roma? Lembre-se de que ele será julgado pela autoridade mais poderosa do mundo de Satanás daquela época.

[3] Depois de tudo que você leu a respeito de Paulo, acha que ele perdeu a esperança ou entrou em desespero por causa do que lhe poderia acontecer? É claro que não! Embora Paulo soubesse que enfrentaria dificuldades, ele não sabia que forma essas assumiriam. Então por que ele deveria permitir que sua alegria no ministério fosse sufocada por ansiedades causadas por coisas que estavam além de seu controle? (Mat. 6:27, 34) Paulo sabia que a vontade de Jeová era que ele aproveitasse toda oportunidade para pregar as boas novas do Reino de Deus às pessoas, mesmo às autoridades seculares. (Atos 9:15) Paulo estava decidido a viver à altura de sua comissão, independentemente do que acontecesse. Não é essa também a nossa determinação? Portanto, acompanhemos Paulo nessa viagem histórica e analisemos como podemos nos beneficiar de seu exemplo.

---

3. O que Paulo estava decidido a fazer, e o que vamos analisar neste capítulo?

“Os ventos eram contrários” (Atos 27:1-7a)

[4] Paulo e alguns outros prisioneiros foram colocados sob a guarda de um oficial romano chamado Júlio, que decidiu embarcar em um navio mercante que havia chegado a Cesareia. Esse navio tinha vindo de Adramítio, um porto na costa oeste da Ásia Menor, do lado oposto à cidade de Mitilene na ilha de Lesbos. De Cesareia, esse navio viajaria em direção ao norte e depois ao oeste, fazendo paradas a fim de descarregar e carregar mercadorias. Essas embarcações não eram projetadas para proporcionar conforto aos passageiros, muito menos aos prisioneiros. (Veja o quadro “Viagens marítimas e rotas comerciais”.) Felizmente, Paulo não seria o único cristão no meio daquele grupo de criminosos. Pelo menos dois irmãos cristãos estavam com ele — Aristarco e Lucas. Naturalmente, foi Lucas quem escreveu o relato. Não sabemos se esses dois leais amigos de Paulo pagaram suas passagens ou se embarcaram como servos dele. — Atos 27:1, 2.

[5] Depois de passar um dia no mar e de ter viajado cerca de 110 quilômetros em direção ao norte, o navio atracou em Sídon, na costa da Síria. Pelo visto,

---

4. Em que tipo de embarcação Paulo começou sua viagem, e quem estava com ele?

5. De que companheirismo Paulo pôde desfrutar em Sídon, e o que podemos aprender disso?

VIAGENS MARÍTIMAS E ROTAS COMERCIAIS

No mundo antigo, os navios eram usados principalmente para o transporte de cargas e não eram projetados especificamente para levar passageiros. Quem quisesse fazer uma viagem tinha de procurar um navio mercante que estivesse indo na direção desejada, negociar o preço da passagem e então esperar até o navio zarpar.

Milhares de embarcações cruzavam o Mediterrâneo para transportar gêneros alimentícios e outras mercadorias. Muitos que viajavam nesses navios tinham de dormir no convés, talvez em abrigos em forma de tenda que eles próprios montavam à noite e desmontavam de manhã. Eles também tinham de levar consigo tudo que precisassem para a viagem, incluindo comida e cobertores.

A duração das viagens dependia totalmente dos ventos. Por causa do tempo ruim no inverno, a temporada de navegação geralmente era considerada encerrada de meados de novembro a meados de março.

Júlio não tratou Paulo como um prisioneiro comum, possivelmente porque Paulo era um cidadão romano cuja culpa não havia sido provada. (Atos 22:27, 28; 26:31, 32) Júlio permitiu que Paulo desembarcasse em terra firme para ver os irmãos. Os cristãos ali devem ter ficado muito alegres em poder cuidar do apóstolo depois de sua longa prisão! Consegue pensar em ocasiões em que você também poderia demonstrar amorosa hospitalidade e, desse modo, ser encorajado? — Atos 27:3.

[6] Depois de partir de Sídon, o navio continuou subindo pela costa e passou pela Cilícia, perto de Tarso, cidade natal de Paulo. Lucas não diz se o navio fez outras paradas, embora inclua o detalhe sombrio de que "os ventos eram contrários". (Atos 27:4, 5) Ainda assim, podemos imaginar Paulo aproveitando toda oportunidade para pregar as boas novas. Paulo sem dúvida deu testemunho a prisioneiros e a outras pessoas que estavam a bordo, incluindo a tripulação e os soldados, bem como a pessoas nos portos em que o navio atracou. Será que nós, da mesma forma, aproveitamos as oportunidades que temos para pregar?

[7] Por fim, o navio chegou a Mirra, um porto na costa sul da Ásia Menor. Ali Paulo e outros tiveram de trocar de embarcação para chegar a seu destino, Roma. (Atos 27:6) Naquela época, o Egito era um grande fornecedor de grãos para Roma, e navios egípcios que transportavam esse tipo de carga atracavam em Mirra. Júlio encontrou um desses navios e fez com que os soldados e prisioneiros embarcassem nele. Essa embarcação devia ser bem maior do que a primeira. Ela estava transportando uma carga valiosa de trigo, bem como 276 pessoas — a tripulação, os soldados, os prisioneiros e provavelmente outros que estavam indo para Roma. É claro que com essa troca de navios o número de pessoas a quem Paulo podia pregar aumentou, e ele sem dúvida aproveitou essa situação.

6-8. Como foi a viagem de Paulo desde Sídon até Cnido, e que oportunidades Paulo provavelmente aproveitou para pregar?

[8] A próxima parada seria Cnido, no sudoeste da Ásia Menor. Com ventos favoráveis, um navio poderia percorrer essa distância em cerca de um dia. Mas Lucas relata que eles 'navegaram vagarosamente por muitos dias e chegaram com dificuldade a Cnido'. (Atos 27:7a) As condições de navegação haviam piorado. (Veja o quadro "Os ventos contrários do Mediterrâneo", na página 408.) Imagine como as pessoas a bordo deveriam estar se sentindo à medida que o navio lutava contra os fortes ventos e as águas agitadas.

"Violentamente sacudidos pela tempestade" (Atos 27:7b-26)

[9] De Cnido, o capitão do navio planejava seguir viagem em direção ao oeste, mas Lucas, uma testemunha ocular, relata: "O vento não nos deixava prosseguir." (Atos 27:7b) Ao se afastar do continente, o navio se desviou da corrente costeira, e um forte vento contrário

---

9, 10. Que dificuldades surgiram nas proximidades de Creta?

vindo do norte o empurrou na direção sul, talvez muito rápido. Assim como a ilha de Chipre havia anteriormente protegido o navio costeiro contra os ventos desfavoráveis, dessa vez a ilha de Creta fez o mesmo. Depois que o navio passou pelo promontório de Salmone, no extremo leste de Creta, as coisas melhoraram um pouco. Por quê? O navio havia chegado a sotavento da ilha (lado contrário àquele de onde sopra o vento), ou sua parte sul, e por isso estava protegido de ventos fortes. Imagine o alívio que as pessoas a bordo devem ter sentido — pelo menos por um tempo! Mas, enquanto o navio continuasse no mar, a tripulação tinha motivos para se preocupar, pois o inverno estava chegando.

10 Lucas relata com exatidão: "Costeando [Creta] com dificuldade, chegamos a certo lugar chamado Bons Portos." Mesmo protegidos pela terra firme, não era fácil controlar o navio. Mas finalmente eles encontraram um ancoradouro em uma pequena baía, provavelmente na região logo antes de a costa seguir em direção ao norte. Quanto tempo ficaram ali? Lucas diz que foi um "tempo considerável", mas o calendário não estava a favor deles. Em setembro/outubro, navegar era mais perigoso. — Atos 27:8, 9.

11 Alguns passageiros podem ter pedido a opinião de

---

11. Que sugestão Paulo deu aos que estavam no navio com ele, mas que decisão foi tomada?

OS VENTOS CONTRÁRIOS DO MEDITERRÂNEO

Os ventos e as estações determinavam em grande parte quando os navios mercantes navegavam o Mediterrâneo, ou Grande Mar, bem como sua rota. No extremo leste do mar, durante o verão do hemisfério norte, de junho a setembro, os ventos geralmente sopram de oeste a leste. Isso fazia com que navegar a vela em direção ao leste fosse mais fácil, conforme Paulo pôde perceber ao voltar de sua terceira viagem missionária. O navio em que ele e seus companheiros estavam partiu de Mileto, passou por Rodes e atracou em Pátara. Dali, a viagem a Tiro, na costa da Fenícia, foi rápida e praticamente em linha reta. Lucas escreveu que, quando passaram por Chipre, essa ilha estava à esquerda deles, o que significa que passaram pelo lado sul de Chipre. — Atos 21:1-3.

E que dizer de navegar na direção oposta, indo para o oeste? Os navios podiam ir nessa direção seguindo uma rota similar, caso os ventos permitissem. Mas às vezes isso era praticamente impossível. “No inverno”, diz a The International Standard Bible Encyclopedia (Enciclopédia Bíblica Padrão Internacional), “as condições atmosféricas são muito menos estáveis, e ciclones poderosos se movem em direção ao leste, atravessando o Mediterrâneo e trazendo com eles ventos fortes, às vezes extremamente fortes, e em geral chu-va torrencial e até neve". Sob tais condições, os perigos eram grandes.

Em quase todas as estações, as embarcações perto da costa podiam navegar para o norte seguindo a costa da Palestina e continuar para o oeste navegando ao longo da Panfília, onde brisas vindas do continente e correntes marítimas em direção ao oeste podiam ajudar os navios. Esse foi o caso da embarcação na qual o prisioneiro Paulo fez o primeiro trecho de sua viagem a Roma. Mesmo assim, os ventos poderiam soprar ao 'contrário'. (Atos 27:4) É possível que o navio de grãos que se destaca no relato de Lucas tenha saído do Egito indo em direção ao norte e então tenha contornado Chipre, passando pelas águas entre essa ilha e a Ásia Menor, estando assim protegido do vento. De Mirra, o capitão pretendia continuar em direção ao oeste, contornando a extremidade da Grécia e subindo pela costa oeste da Itália. (Atos 27:5, 6) Mas os ventos e a época do ano reservavam algo diferente para aquela viagem.

Paulo por causa da experiência que ele tinha em navegar pelo Mediterrâneo. Ele recomendou que o navio não seguisse viagem. Caso contrário, haveria 'dano e grande perda', talvez até mesmo a perda de vidas. Mas o piloto e o dono do navio queriam prosseguir viagem, possivelmente achando que era urgente encontrar um lugar mais seguro. Eles convenceram Júlio, e a maioria achava que era preciso tentar chegar a Fênix, um porto que estava um pouco mais adiante na costa. Esse porto talvez fosse um lugar maior e melhor para passar o inverno. Assim, quando uma suave, porém enganosa, brisa vinda do sul soprou, o navio partiu. — Atos 27:10-13.

[12] Então surgiu outro problema: um "vento tempestuoso" vindo do nordeste. Por um tempo, eles encontraram proteção atrás de uma "ilha pequena chamada Cauda", a uns 65 quilômetros de Bons Portos. Mas o navio ainda corria o perigo de ser levado para o sul até se chocar contra os bancos de areia perto da África. Desesperados para evitar isso, os marinheiros içaram o bote que o navio estava rebocando. Isso exigiu um grande esforço, pois é provável que o bote estivesse cheio de água. Então eles lutaram para reforçar o casco do navio, amarrando-o com cordas ou correntes para que as pranchas de madeira não se desprendessem. Daí eles arriaram os aparelhos — a vela grande ou talvez o cordame — e fizeram de tudo para manter o navio contra o vento e passar pela tempestade. Imagine como essa situação deve ter sido amedrontadora! Mesmo todos esses esforços não foram suficientes, pois o navio continuou sendo 'violentamente sacudido pela tempestade'.

---

12. Que perigos o navio enfrentou depois de deixar Creta, e como a tripulação tentou evitar um desastre?

No terceiro dia, eles lançaram ao mar a armação do navio, provavelmente para recuperar a flutuabilidade. — Atos 27:14-19.

[13] O pavor deve ter tomado conta do navio. Mas Paulo e seus companheiros estavam confiantes, pois o Senhor havia anteriormente garantido a Paulo que ele daria testemunho em Roma. (Atos 19:21; 23:11) Um anjo confirmaria essa promessa mais tarde. Mas, durante duas semanas, noite e dia, a tempestade não parou. Por causa da contínua chuva e das densas nuvens que cobriam o sol e as estrelas, o piloto não tinha como saber a localização do navio ou a direção em que estava indo. Até uma refeição teria sido algo fora de cogitação. Como alguém poderia pensar em comer em vista do frio, da chuva, dos enjoos e do medo?

[14] Paulo ficou de pé no meio deles. Ele mencionou o aviso que dera antes, não como que dizendo: 'Eu avisei', mas para mostrar que aqueles acontecimentos provavam que valia a pena dar atenção às suas palavras. Daí, ele disse: "Recomendo-vos que tenhais bom ânimo, pois nem uma única alma se perderá, mas apenas o barco."

---

13. Qual deve ter sido a situação a bordo do navio de Paulo durante a tempestade?

14, 15. (a) Ao falar com as pessoas que estavam no navio com ele, por que Paulo mencionou o aviso que lhes tinha dado antes? (b) O que podemos aprender da mensagem de esperança que Paulo transmitiu àquelas pessoas?

(Atos 27:21, 22) Essas palavras devem ter animado muito as pessoas ali! Paulo também deve ter ficado muito feliz por Jeová ter lhe dado essa mensagem de esperança para partilhar com as pessoas. É vital nos lembrarmos de que Jeová se importa com a vida de cada ser humano. Todas as pessoas são importantes para ele. O apóstolo Pedro escreveu: "Jeová . . . não deseja que alguém seja destruído, mas deseja que todos alcancem o arrependimento." (2 Ped. 3:9) Como é urgente, então, que nos esforcemos a partilhar a mensagem de esperança da parte de Jeová com o máximo número de pessoas possível! Vidas preciosas estão em jogo.

15 Paulo sem dúvida tinha dado testemunho a muitas pessoas no navio sobre a "esperança da promessa que Deus fizera". (Atos 26:6; Col. 1:5) Agora, com a grande possibilidade de um naufrágio, Paulo podia oferecer-lhes um forte motivo para terem esperança de um livramento mais imediato. Ele disse: "Esta noite se pôs ao meu lado um anjo . . . , dizendo: 'Não temas, Paulo. Tens de comparecer perante César, e, eis que Deus te doou todos os que navegam contigo.'" Paulo os exortou: "Portanto, homens, tende bom ânimo; pois eu acredito em Deus, que será exatamente assim como me foi dito. No entanto, temos de ser lançados numa certa ilha." — Atos 27:23-26.

“Todos atingiram terra a salvo” (Atos 27:27-44)

[16] Depois de duas semanas aterrorizantes, durante as quais o navio foi empurrado pelo vento uns 870 quilômetros, os marinheiros começaram a suspeitar que o navio estava se aproximando de terra firme, talvez por terem ouvido o som de ondas quebrando na costa. Da popa, eles lançaram âncoras ao mar para impedir que o navio ficasse à deriva e manter a proa em direção a terra firme caso tivessem condições de encalhar o navio na praia. Nesse momento, eles tentaram fugir do navio, mas foram impedidos pelos soldados quando Paulo disse: “A menos que estes homens permaneçam no barco, não podeis ser salvos.” Com o navio agora um pouco mais estável, Paulo aconselhou a todos que se alimentassem, garantindo-lhes mais uma vez que sobreviveriam. Então, Paulo “deu graças a Deus perante todos eles”. (Atos 27:31, 35) Ao fazer essa oração de agradecimento, Paulo estabeleceu um exemplo para Lucas, Aristarco e os cristãos de hoje. Será que suas orações públicas são fonte de encorajamento e consolo para outros?

[17] Depois da oração de Paulo, “todos ficaram . . . animados e começaram também a tomar alimento”. (Atos 27:36) Daí deixaram o navio ainda mais leve por lançar

16, 17. (a) Em que ocasião Paulo orou, e qual foi o resultado de ele ter feito isso? (b) Como se cumpriu a predição que Paulo tinha feito?

ao mar a carga, permitindo que o casco do navio não ficasse tão fundo dentro da água ao se aproximar da praia. Quando amanheceu, a tripulação cortou as âncoras, soltou os remos do leme que ficavam na popa e içou o traquete, pequena vela na frente da embarcação, para que fosse mais fácil manobrar o navio enquanto os marinheiros tentassem fazê-lo encalhar perto da praia. Ao fazerem isso, a frente do navio ficou presa, talvez num banco de areia ou na lama, e a popa começou a despedaçar-se por causa da força violenta das ondas. Alguns soldados queriam matar os prisioneiros para que não escapassem, mas Júlio os impediu. Ele incentivou todos a nadar ou boiar em direção à praia. O que Paulo havia predito se cumpriu — todas as 276 pessoas a bordo sobreviveram. De fato, "todos atingiram terra a salvo". Mas onde eles estavam? — Atos 27:44.

"Extraordinário humanitarismo" (Atos 28:1-10)

[18] Os sobreviventes estavam na ilha de Malta, ao sul da Sicília. (Veja o quadro "Onde ficava Malta?".) As pessoas da ilha que falavam outro idioma lhes demonstraram "extraordinário humanitarismo". (Atos 28:2) Eles fizeram uma fogueira para aqueles estrangeiros que haviam chegado ali encharcados e tremendo de frio. O fogo

---

18-20. Como as pessoas de Malta mostraram "extraordinário humanitarismo", e que milagre Deus realizou por meio de Paulo?

ONDE FICAVA MALTA?

Diversas ilhas já foram apontadas como a ilha de "Malta" onde Paulo naufragou. Uma teoria identificou certa ilha perto de Corfu, próximo da costa oeste da Grécia. Outra ideia se baseia na palavra usada no livro de Atos para "Malta". A palavra grega é Me-lí·te. Assim, alguns disseram que era a ilha Melite ilírica, agora conhecida como Mljet, localizada perto da costa da Croácia, no mar Adriático.

É verdade que Atos 27:27 menciona o "mar de Ádria", mas, nos dias de Paulo, "Ádria" abrangia uma área maior que a do atual mar Adriático. Incluía o mar Jônico e as águas ao leste da Sicília e ao oeste de Creta, incluindo assim o mar perto da atual ilha de Malta.

O navio em que Paulo viajava foi obrigado a ir em direção ao sul, de Cnido até o sul de Creta. Em vista da direção predominante dos ventos naquela tempestade, é pouco provável que o navio tenha então dado meia-volta e navegado em direção ao norte até Mljet ou a uma ilha perto de Corfu. Assim, é mais provável que a localização de Malta fosse bem mais ao oeste. Isso faz da ilha de Malta, ao sul da Sicília, o local provável do naufrágio.

os ajudou a se aquecer apesar do frio e da chuva. Também deu margem para que ocorresse um milagre.

[19] A fim de contribuir para o bem de todos, Paulo recolheu alguns gravetos e os colocou no fogo. Ao fazer isso, uma víbora venenosa apareceu e o mordeu, prendendo-se na sua mão. Os malteses pensaram que aquilo era algum tipo de punição divina.*

[20] As pessoas locais que viram Paulo ser mordido pela víbora pensaram que ele 'incharia com uma inflamação'. Segundo uma obra de referência, a palavra no idioma original encontrada aqui é "um termo médico". Não é de admirar que uma expressão como essa tenha logo vindo à mente de "Lucas, o médico amado". (Atos 28:6; Col. 4:14) De qualquer forma, Paulo, sacudindo a mão, lançou fora a serpente venenosa e não sofreu dano algum.

[21] Um rico proprietário de terras chamado Públio morava na região. Ele talvez fosse a principal autoridade romana em Malta. Lucas o descreveu como o "homem de destaque da ilha", usando exatamente o mesmo título que foi encontrado em duas inscrições maltesas. Ele hospitaleiramente recebeu Paulo e seus companheiros por

* O fato de as pessoas saberem de tais cobras indica que havia víboras na ilha naquele tempo. Atualmente, não existem víboras em Malta. Isso pode ser resultado de mudanças no seu habitat ao longo dos séculos. Ou pode ser que o aumento no número de habitantes na ilha tenha levado à erradicação das víboras.

21. (a) Que exemplos de declarações exatas encontramos nessa parte do relato de Lucas? (b) Que milagres Paulo realizou, e que efeito isso teve nas pessoas de Malta?

três dias em seu lar. No entanto, o pai de Públio estava doente. Mais uma vez, Lucas descreveu um quadro clínico com precisão. Ele escreveu que o homem "estava de cama, afligido por febre e disenteria", usando os termos médicos exatos para descrever a doença. Paulo orou e colocou suas mãos sobre o homem, e ele foi curado. Profundamente impressionadas por esse milagre, as pessoas da região trouxeram outros doentes para serem curados, bem como suprimentos para atender às necessidades de Paulo e seus companheiros. — Atos 28:7-10.

[22] A exatidão com que essa parte da viagem de Paulo é descrita é digna de nota. Um professor universitário disse: "O relato de Lucas . . . se destaca como um dos mais vívidos exemplos de narrativa descritiva em toda a Bíblia. Seus detalhes sobre as viagens marítimas no primeiro século são tão precisos e seu retrato da situação no Mediterrâneo oriental é tão correto [que o relato deve ter se baseado em anotações feitas num diário]." Lucas pode muito bem ter feito essas anotações enquanto viajava com o apóstolo. Nesse caso, a próxima parte da viagem também lhe deu muito sobre o que escrever. O que aconteceria com Paulo quando ele e seus companheiros finalmente chegassem a Roma? Vejamos.

---

22. (a) Como certo professor universitário elogiou o relato de Lucas sobre a viagem a Roma? (b) O que consideraremos no próximo capítulo?

‘Dando testemunho cabal’

Preso em Roma, Paulo continua a pregar

Baseado em Atos 28:11-31

ESTAMOS em cerca de 59 EC. Uma embarcação cuja figura de proa são os “Filhos de Zeus”, provavelmente um grande navio para transportar grãos, navega desde a ilha mediterrânea de Malta até a Itália. A bordo estão o apóstolo Paulo — um prisioneiro sob escolta — e seus companheiros cristãos Lucas e Aristarco. (Atos 27:2) Diferentemente da tripulação, esses evangelizadores não buscam a proteção dos filhos do deus grego Zeus — os gêmeos Castor e Pólux. (Atos 28:11, nota) Em vez disso, Paulo e seus companheiros servem a Jeová, o Deus que revelou que Paulo daria testemunho sobre a verdade em Roma e compareceria perante César. — Atos 23:11; 27:24.

[2] Três dias depois de atracar em Siracusa, uma bela cidade da Sicília quase tão importante quanto Atenas

---

1. Que confiança Paulo e seus companheiros têm, e por quê?

2, 3. Que trajeto o navio de Paulo fez, e quem apoiou Paulo durante todo o percurso da viagem?

e Roma, o navio parte para Régio, no extremo sul da península Itálica. Então, com a ajuda de um vento vindo do sul, a embarcação faz a viagem de 320 quilômetros até o porto italiano de Putéoli (perto de onde hoje fica Nápoles) mais rápido do que o normal, chegando ao porto no segundo dia. — Atos 28:12, 13.

[3] Paulo agora está na parte final de sua viagem a Roma, onde comparecerá perante o Imperador Nero. Durante todo o percurso da viagem, "o Deus de todo o consolo" tem estado com Paulo. (2 Cor. 1:3) Conforme veremos, esse apoio não diminui, nem Paulo perde o zelo como missionário.

"Paulo agradeceu a Deus e tomou coragem" (Atos 28:14, 15)

[4] Em Putéoli, Paulo e seus companheiros 'acharam alguns irmãos, e estes suplicaram que ficassem com eles sete dias'. (Atos 28:14) Que maravilhoso exemplo de hospitalidade cristã! Podemos ter certeza de que a hospitalidade daqueles irmãos foi mais do que recompensada pelo encorajamento espiritual que receberam de Paulo e seus companheiros. Mas por que se

---

4, 5. (a) Como Paulo e seus companheiros foram recebidos em Putéoli, e qual pode ter sido o motivo de terem concedido tanta liberdade a Paulo? (b) Mesmo na prisão, como os cristãos podem se beneficiar de sua boa conduta?

concedeu tanta liberdade a um prisioneiro sob guarda? Possivelmente porque o apóstolo tinha conquistado a total confiança dos guardas romanos.

[5] Da mesma forma hoje, servos de Jeová que estão presos muitas vezes recebem certas liberdades e privilégios por causa de sua conduta cristã. Na Romênia, por exemplo, um homem que cumpria pena de 75 anos por roubo começou a estudar a Palavra de Deus e fez uma notável mudança de personalidade. Por causa disso, as autoridades carcerárias deram-lhe a tarefa de fazer compras para a prisão, o que envolvia ir à cidade sem escolta. Naturalmente, o mais importante é que nossa boa conduta glorifica a Jeová. — 1 Ped. 2:12.

[6] De Putéoli, Paulo e seus companheiros provavelmente caminharam cerca de 50 quilômetros até a cidade de Cápua, onde pegaram a Via Ápia, estrada que levava a Roma. Dessa famosa estrada pavimentada com grandes e achatados blocos de lava era possível ver paisagens magníficas do interior da Itália e, em certos trechos, do mar Mediterrâneo. A estrada também passava pelos pântanos pontinos, que ficavam a cerca de 60 quilômetros de Roma e onde se localizava a Feira de Ápio. Quando os irmãos em Roma "ouviram a notícia a nosso respeito", escreveu Lucas, alguns foram até a Feira de Ápio, ao passo que outros ficaram esperando nas Três Tavernas, uma parada de descanso a cerca de 50 quilômetros de Roma. Que amor extraordinário! — Atos 28:15.

6, 7. Como os irmãos romanos mostraram extraordinário amor?

[7] A Feira de Ápio não era um lugar confortável para os viajantes exaustos depois de uma viagem difícil. O poeta romano Horácio descreveu essa feira como "lotada de barqueiros e de donos de hospedaria grosseiros". Ele escreveu que "a água era extremamente repugnante". Ele até se recusou a comer ali! Apesar de todos os desconfortos, porém, os irmãos que vieram de Roma esperaram alegremente por Paulo e pelos que estavam com ele para acompanhá-los nessa parte final da viagem.

[8] 'Avistando' seus irmãos, diz o relato, "Paulo agradeceu a Deus e tomou coragem". (Atos 28:15) De fato, só de ver esses queridos irmãos, alguns dos quais o apóstolo talvez conhecesse pessoalmente, ele se sentiu fortalecido e animado. Por que Paulo agradeceu a Deus? Ele sabia que o amor abnegado é um aspecto do

---

8. Por que Paulo agradeceu a Deus ao 'avistar' seus irmãos?

fruto do espírito. (Gál. 5:22) Hoje também o espírito santo move os cristãos a fazer sacrifícios a favor uns dos outros e a consolar os que precisam. — 1 Tes. 5:11, 14.

[9] Por exemplo, o espírito santo move irmãos espirituais a mostrar hospitalidade a superintendentes viajantes, missionários e outros servos de tempo integral, muitos dos quais fizeram grandes sacrifícios para expandir seu serviço a Jeová. Pergunte-se: 'Será que eu posso fazer mais para apoiar a visita do superintendente de circuito, talvez mostrando hospitalidade a ele e a sua esposa, caso ele seja casado? Posso fazer planos para trabalhar com eles no ministério?' Em troca, você talvez receba ricas bênçãos. Por exemplo, imagine a alegria que os irmãos romanos sentiram ao ouvir Paulo e seus companheiros relatar algumas das muitas experiências encorajadoras que vivenciaram! — Atos 15:3, 4.

"Em toda a parte se fala contra ela" (Atos 28:16-22)

[10] Quando o grupo de viajantes finalmente entrou

---

9. Como podemos mostrar a mesma atitude demonstrada pelos irmãos que se encontraram com Paulo?

10. Quais eram as circunstâncias de Paulo em Roma, e o que o apóstolo fez pouco depois de sua chegada?

em Roma, “permitiu-se a Paulo que ficasse sozinho com um soldado para guardá-lo”. (Atos 28:16) Os mantidos em prisão domiciliar geralmente ficavam presos a um guarda por uma corrente para não fugirem. Apesar de estar preso ao guarda, Paulo era um proclamador do Reino, e uma corrente com certeza não o faria ficar calado. Por isso, depois de descansar da viagem por apenas três dias, ele convocou os homens de destaque dos judeus em Roma a fim de se apresentar a eles e dar-lhes testemunho.

11 “Homens, irmãos”, disse Paulo, “embora eu não tivesse feito nada contrário ao povo ou aos costumes de nossos antepassados, fui entregue como prisioneiro, de Jerusalém, às mãos dos romanos. E estes, depois de feito um exame, desejavam livrar-me, visto que não havia em mim nenhuma causa para a morte. Mas, quando os judeus persistiam em falar contra isso, fiquei compelido a apelar para César, mas não como se tivesse algo para acusar a minha nação”. — Atos 28:17-19.

12 Por se dirigir àqueles judeus como “irmãos”, Paulo tentou estabelecer uma base de comum acordo com eles e eliminar qualquer preconceito que talvez

---

11, 12. Ao falar com os judeus locais, como Paulo tentou eliminar qualquer preconceito que eles talvez tivessem?

tivessem. (1 Cor. 9:20) Ele também deixou claro que não estava ali para acusar os judeus, mas para apelar a César. No entanto, a comunidade judaica local não estava sabendo da apelação de Paulo. (Atos 28:21) Por que houve essa clara falha de comunicação da parte dos judeus na Judeia? Uma obra de referência diz: "O navio de Paulo deve ter sido um dos primeiros que chegaram à Itália depois do inverno, e não teria sido possível que representantes das autoridades judaicas em Jerusalém, ou mesmo uma carta sobre o caso, tivessem chegado antes disso."

13 Paulo então apresentou a mensagem do Reino por meio de uma declaração que com certeza despertaria a curiosidade de seus convidados judeus. Ele disse: "Realmente, por esta razão supliquei para vos ver e falar, pois tenho estas cadeias em volta de mim por causa da esperança de Israel." (Atos 28:20) É claro que essa esperança estava fortemente relacionada com o Messias e seu Reino, conforme proclamava a congregação cristã. "Achamos correto ouvir de ti quais os teus pensamentos", responderam os anciãos judeus,

---

13, 14. Como Paulo apresentou a mensagem do Reino, e como podemos imitar seu exemplo?

"porque, deveras, quanto a esta seita, é sabido por nós que em toda a parte se fala contra ela". — Atos 28:22.

[14] Quando temos a oportunidade de pregar as boas novas, podemos imitar a Paulo por fazer declarações que deem o que pensar ou perguntas que despertem o interesse de nossos ouvintes. Podem-se encontrar excelentes sugestões em publicações como Raciocínios à Base das Escrituras e Beneficie-se da Escola do Ministério Teocrático. Você está fazendo bom uso dessas publicações?

'Dar testemunho cabal' — um modelo para nós (Atos 28:23-29)

[15] No dia escolhido, os judeus locais "vieram em maior número" até o local onde Paulo estava preso. Então Paulo passou a "dar cabalmente testemunho a respeito do reino de Deus" e a "usar de persuasão para com eles concernente a Jesus, tanto pela lei de Moisés como pelos Profetas, de manhã até à noite". (Atos 28:23) Quatro pontos se destacam no testemunho de Paulo. Primeiro, ele se concentrou no Reino de Deus. Segundo, ele tentou convencer seus ouvintes a aceitar a mensagem "por usar de persuasão". Terceiro,

15. Que quatro pontos se destacam no testemunho de Paulo?

ele raciocinou à base das Escrituras. Quarto, ele foi abnegado, dando testemunho “de manhã até à noite”. Que excelente exemplo para nós! Qual foi o resultado desse testemunho? “Alguns começaram a acreditar”, ao passo que outros não. Surgiram divergências entre as pessoas e elas “começaram a retirar-se”, diz Lucas. — Atos 28:24, 25a.

16 Essa reação não surpreendeu Paulo, pois estava de acordo com a profecia bíblica e ele já havia observado esse tipo de reação antes. (Atos 13:42-47; 18:5, 6; 19:8, 9) Por isso, Paulo disse a seus convidados não receptivos, que estavam de saída: “O espírito santo falou aptamente por intermédio de Isaías, o profeta, a vossos antepassados, dizendo: ‘Vai a este povo e dize: “Ouvindo ouvireis, mas de modo algum entendereis; e, olhando olhareis, mas de modo algum vereis. Pois o coração deste povo tem ficado embotado.”’” (Atos 28:25b-27) O termo no idioma original vertido “embotado” indica um coração “engrossado”, ou “engordado”, impedindo assim que a mensagem do Reino penetre nele. (Atos 28:27, nota) Que situação lamentável!

16-18. Por que Paulo não se surpreendeu com a reação negativa dos judeus romanos, e como devemos nos sentir quando nossa mensagem é rejeitada?

[17] Em conclusão, Paulo disse que, diferentemente de seus ouvintes judeus, ‘as nações certamente escutariam’. (Atos 28:28; Sal. 67:2; Isa. 11:10) De fato, o apóstolo sabia do que estava falando, pois tinha pessoalmente visto muitos gentios reagirem bem à mensagem do Reino. — Atos 13:48; 14:27.

[18] Assim como Paulo, não devemos levar para o lado pessoal quando as pessoas rejeitam as boas novas. Afinal, sabemos que a maioria não encontrará a estrada da vida. (Mat. 7:13, 14) Por outro lado, quando pessoas sinceras tomam realmente posição a favor da adoração verdadeira, devemos nos alegrar e recebê-las de braços abertos. — Luc. 15:7.

“Pregando-lhes o reino de Deus” (Atos 28:30, 31)

[19] Lucas conclui sua narrativa num tom positivo e cordial, dizendo: “[Paulo] permaneceu . . . por dois anos inteiros na sua própria casa alugada e recebia benevolamente a todos os que vinham vê-lo, pregando-lhes o reino de Deus e ensinando com a maior franqueza no falar as coisas concernentes ao Senhor Jesus Cristo, sem impedimento.” (Atos 28:30, 31) Que excelente exemplo de hospitalidade, fé e zelo!

---

19. Como Paulo aproveitou bem o tempo em que esteve preso?

[20] Um dos que Paulo recebeu bondosamente foi um homem chamado Onésimo, um escravo fugitivo de Colossos. Paulo ajudou Onésimo a se tornar cristão, e Onésimo, por sua vez, tornou-se um "fiel e amado irmão" para Paulo. De fato, Paulo o descreveu como "meu filho, para quem me tornei pai". (Col. 4:9; Filêm. 10-12) Onésimo deve ter animado muito a Paulo!*

[21] Outros também se beneficiaram do excelente exemplo de Paulo. Para os filipenses, ele escreveu: "Os meus assuntos têm resultado mais para o progresso das boas novas do que de outro modo, de maneira que as minhas cadeias se têm tornado conhecimento público, em associação com Cristo, entre toda a Guarda Pretoriana e todos os demais; e a maioria dos irmãos no Senhor, sentindo confiança em razão das minhas cadeias, estão mostrando tanto mais coragem para falar destemidamente a palavra de Deus." — Fil. 1:12-14.

[22] Paulo aproveitou seu encarceramento em Roma

* Paulo queria que Onésimo ficasse ali com ele, mas isso violaria a lei romana e infringiria os direitos do dono de Onésimo, o cristão Filêmon. Por isso, Onésimo retornou para Filêmon, levando consigo uma carta de Paulo que incentivava Filêmon a receber bem seu escravo, como um irmão espiritual. — Filêm. 13-19.

20, 21. Mencione como o ministério de Paulo em Roma beneficiou outros.
22. Como Paulo aproveitou seu encarceramento em Roma?

para escrever cartas importantes que hoje fazem parte das Escrituras Gregas Cristãs.* É interessante notar que, em sua carta aos efésios, Paulo usou uma armadura romana para ilustrar a armadura espiritual cristã. (Efé. 6:11-17) Ele talvez tenha tido essa ideia enquanto olhava para o soldado que o vigiava. (Atos 28:16) Qual é a lição para nós? Se formos observadores, podemos encontrar boas ilustrações no ambiente à nossa volta.

[23] Na época de sua libertação, que não é mencionada no livro de Atos, Paulo já estava preso havia uns quatro anos — dois em Cesareia e dois em Roma.# (Atos 23:35; 24:27) Mas ele manteve uma atitude positiva, fazendo tudo que podia no serviço a Deus. Da mesma forma, muitos servos de Jeová hoje, apesar de estarem presos injustamente por causa de sua fé, mantêm sua alegria e continuam a pregar. Veja o exemplo de Adolfo, que foi preso na Espanha por causa de sua neutralidade cristã. "Estamos impressionados com você", disse certo oficial. "Temos feito de tudo para

---

* Veja o quadro "As cinco cartas escritas por Paulo durante sua primeira prisão em Roma", na página 430.

Veja o quadro "A vida de Paulo depois de 61 EC", na página 432.

23, 24. Iguais a Paulo, como muitos cristãos da atualidade mostram uma atitude positiva apesar de terem sido presos injustamente?

AS CINCO CARTAS ESCRITAS POR PAULO DURANTE SUA PRIMEIRA PRISÃO EM ROMA

Cinco cartas do apóstolo Paulo foram escritas por volta de 60-61 EC, durante sua primeira prisão em Roma. Na carta a Filêmon, um irmão na fé, Paulo explica que o escravo fugitivo de Filêmon, Onésimo, tinha se tornado cristão. Paulo era o pai espiritual de Onésimo e estava enviando esse escravo "anteriormente inútil" de volta ao seu dono como um irmão cristão. — Filêm. 10-12, 16.

Em Colossenses, Paulo indica que Onésimo era 'do meio' deles. (Col. 4:9) Onésimo e seu irmão cristão Tíquico tiveram o privilégio de entregar tanto as cartas mencionadas acima como a Carta aos Efésios, também escrita por Paulo. — Efé. 6:21.

Ao escrever Filipenses, Paulo menciona suas "cadeias" e mais uma vez fala sobre a situação do portador da carta — dessa vez, Epafrodito. Os filipenses tinham enviado Epafrodito para ajudar Paulo. Mas Epafrodito ficou doente e quase morreu. Ele também havia ficado deprimido porque os filipenses 'ouviram que ele tinha adoecido'. Por isso, Paulo disse a eles que prezassem a "homens desta sorte". — Fil. 1:7; 2:25-30.

A Carta aos Hebreus foi dirigida aos cristãos hebreus na Judeia. Embora essa carta não identifique especificamente o escritor, as evidências apontam para Paulo. O estilo de argumentação é típico dele. Paulo envia cumprimentos da Itália e menciona Timóteo, que estava com ele em Roma. — Fil. 1:1; Col. 1:1; Filêm. 1; Heb. 13:23, 24.

atormentar a sua vida, mas, quanto mais duros somos, mais você sorri e fala palavras bondosas."

[24] Com o tempo, passaram a ter tanta confiança em Adolfo que a porta de sua cela ficava aberta. Soldados iam até a cela dele para fazer perguntas sobre a Bíblia. Um deles até entrava na cela de Adolfo para ler a Bíblia, enquanto Adolfo ficava de guarda. Dessa forma, era o prisioneiro quem "vigiava" o guarda! Que os excelentes exemplos de fiéis Testemunhas de Jeová como essa nos motivem a ter "tanto mais coragem para falar destemidamente a palavra de Deus", mesmo sob circunstâncias difíceis.

[25] Um apóstolo de Cristo em prisão domiciliar 'pregando o reino de Deus' a todos que o visitavam — essa é sem dúvida uma animadora conclusão da empolgante narrativa do livro de Atos! No primeiro capítulo, 25, 26. Em pouco menos de 30 anos, o apóstolo Paulo viu o cumprimento de que maravilhosa profecia, e como isso se compara aos nossos dias?

A VIDA DE PAULO DEPOIS DE 61 EC

Provavelmente por volta de 61 EC, Paulo compareceu perante o Imperador Nero, que pelo visto o declarou inocente. Não sabemos muito sobre as atividades do apóstolo depois disso. Se ele tiver ido à Espanha, conforme havia planejado, deve ter feito isso durante esse período. (Rom. 15:28) Paulo alcançou "o extremo limite do O[este]", escreveu Clemente de Roma por volta de 95 EC.

Das três cartas que Paulo escreveu depois de ter sido libertado — 1 e 2 Timóteo e Tito — ficamos sabendo que Paulo visitou Creta, Macedônia, Nicópolis e Trôade. (1 Tim. 1:3; 2 Tim. 4:13; Tito 1:5; 3:12) Pode ter sido em Nicópolis, na Grécia, que ele foi preso novamente. Seja como for, por volta de 65 EC, ele estava preso de novo em Roma. Dessa vez, porém, Nero não mostraria compaixão. De fato, segundo o historiador romano Tácito, quando um incêndio devastou Roma em 64 EC, Nero culpou falsamente os cristãos e iniciou uma campanha de perseguição brutal.

Na sua segunda carta a Timóteo, Paulo, esperando morrer em breve, pediu que Timóteo e Marcos fossem a Roma o mais rápido possível para vê-lo. É digna de nota a coragem demonstrada por Lucas e Onesíforo, que arriscaram a vida para consolar Paulo. (2 Tim. 1:16, 17; 4:6-9, 11) Realmente, quem professasse publicamente o cristianismo arriscava ser preso e morto por tortura. Paulo provavelmente sofreu martírio logo depois de escrever sua última carta a Timóteo por volta de 65 EC. Relata-se que o próprio Nero teve uma morte violenta uns três anos depois do martírio de Paulo.

lemos a comissão que Jesus deu a seus seguidores quando disse: “Ao chegar sobre vós o espírito santo, recebereis poder e sereis testemunhas de mim tanto em Jerusalém como em toda a Judeia e Samaria, e até à parte mais distante da terra.” (Atos 1:8) Menos de 30 anos depois, a mensagem do Reino estava sendo ‘pregada em toda a criação debaixo do céu’.* (Col. 1:23) Que testemunho do poder do espírito de Deus! — Zac. 4:6.

26 Hoje, o mesmo espírito tem dado poder aos remanescentes dos irmãos de Cristo, junto com seus companheiros das “outras ovelhas”, para continuarem a ‘dar testemunho cabal a respeito do reino de Deus’ em mais de 230 países. (João 10:16; Atos 28:23) Você está participando plenamente nessa obra?

* Veja o quadro “Boas novas ‘pregadas em toda a criação’”, na página 434.

BOAS NOVAS
"PREGADAS EM TODA A CRIAÇÃO"

Por volta de 61 EC, enquanto o apóstolo Paulo estava preso em Roma, ele escreveu que as "boas novas" tinham sido "pregadas em toda a criação debaixo do céu". (Col. 1:23) Como devemos entender essa declaração?

Parece que Paulo estava descrevendo em termos gerais até onde as "boas novas" tinham sido levadas. Por exemplo, Alexandre, o Grande, havia invadido a Ásia e chegado até a fronteira da Índia no quarto século AEC. Júlio César tinha invadido a Bretanha em 55 AEC, e Cláudio tinha subjugado a parte sul daquela ilha, anexando-a ao Império Romano em 43 EC. O Extremo Oriente também era conhecido, pois produzia seda de excelente qualidade.

Será que as boas novas haviam sido pregadas na Bretanha, na China e no Extremo Oriente? Isso parece improvável. De fato, quando Paulo escreveu aos colossenses, ele ainda não tinha alcançado seu próprio alvo, estabelecido por volta de 56 EC, de pregar no então "território virgem" da Espanha. (Rom. 15:20, 23, 24) Apesar disso, por volta de 61 EC, a mensagem do Reino era amplamente conhecida. No mínimo, a mensagem alcançou a terra natal dos judeus e prosélitos que foram batizados no Pentecostes de 33 EC, bem como as terras visitadas pelos apóstolos de Jesus. — Atos 2:1, 8-11, 41, 42.

CAPÍTULO 28

"Até à parte mais distante da terra"

As Testemunhas de Jeová continuam a obra que teve início com os seguidores de Jesus Cristo no primeiro século de nossa Era Comum

ELES davam testemunho de modo zeloso. Sentiam-se impelidos no coração a aceitar a ajuda e a orientação do espírito santo. A perseguição não os silenciava. E eram ricamente abençoados por Jeová. Tudo isso foi verdade no caso dos primeiros cristãos e também é verdade no caso das Testemunhas de Jeová hoje.

[2] Com certeza os relatos encontrados no livro de Atos encorajaram você e fortaleceram a sua fé. Esse livro cheio de ação é especial, pois é o único relato divinamente inspirado sobre o início do cristianismo.

[3] O livro de Atos menciona 95 pessoas, 32 terras, 54 cidades e 9 ilhas. É um relato emocionante

---

1. Que paralelos existem entre os primeiros cristãos e as Testemunhas de Jeová hoje?

2, 3. O que é especialmente digno de nota sobre o livro de Atos?

sobre pessoas — pessoas comuns, religiosos arrogantes, políticos orgulhosos, perseguidores ferozes. Mas, acima de tudo, é um relato sobre nossos irmãos do primeiro século que, além de lidar com os desafios da vida, pregavam as boas novas com zelo.

[4] Quase 2 mil anos nos separam das atividades dos zelosos apóstolos Pedro e Paulo, do médico amado Lucas, do generoso Barnabé, do corajoso Estêvão, da bondosa Dorcas, da hospitaleira Lídia e de tantas outras testemunhas fiéis. Apesar disso, nós nos sentimos achegados a eles. Por quê? Porque temos a mesma comissão de fazer discípulos. (Mat. 28:19, 20) Como somos abençoados de ter uma participação nela!

[5] Reflita na comissão que Jesus deu a seus seguidores. "Ao chegar sobre vós o espírito santo, recebereis poder", disse ele, "e sereis testemunhas de mim tanto em Jerusalém como em toda a Judeia e Samaria, e até à parte mais distante da terra". (Atos 1:8) Primeiro, o espírito santo deu poder aos

---

4. Por que nos sentimos achegados a pessoas como o apóstolo Paulo, Dorcas e outras testemunhas fiéis do passado?
5. Em que lugares os primeiros seguidores de Jesus passaram a cumprir sua comissão de pregar?

discípulos para serem testemunhas “em Jerusalém”. (Atos 1:1–8:3) A seguir, sob a orientação do espírito, eles deram testemunho “em toda a Judeia e Samaria”. (Atos 8:4–13:3) Então eles começaram a levar as boas novas “até à parte mais distante da terra”. — Atos 13:4–28:31.

6 Nossos irmãos do primeiro século não tinham todos os livros das Escrituras Sagradas para usar na sua obra de dar testemunho. O Evangelho de Mateus não estava disponível até pelo menos 41 EC. Apenas algumas cartas de Paulo foram escritas antes de o livro de Atos ter sido completado em cerca de 61 EC. Assim, os primeiros cristãos não tinham um exemplar pessoal da Bíblia. Também não tinham uma variedade de publicações para deixar com os interessados. É verdade que os cristãos judeus ouviam a leitura das Escrituras Hebraicas na sinagoga antes de se tornarem discípulos de Jesus. (2 Cor. 3:14-16) Mas até eles precisavam ser estudantes aplicados, visto que provavelmente tinham de citar os textos de memória.

6, 7. Ao realizar nosso ministério, que vantagens temos que os nossos irmãos do primeiro século não tinham?

[7] Hoje, a maioria de nós tem um exemplar pessoal da Bíblia e uma grande quantidade de publicações bíblicas. Estamos fazendo discípulos por declarar as boas novas em mais de 230 terras e em muitos idiomas.

Poder por meio do espírito santo

[8] Quando Jesus comissionou seus seguidores a serem testemunhas, ele lhes disse: "Ao chegar sobre vós o espírito santo, recebereis poder." Sob a orientação do espírito santo, ou força ativa, de Deus os seguidores de Jesus serviriam por fim como testemunhas em toda a Terra. Por meio do espírito santo, Pedro e Paulo realizaram curas, expulsaram demônios e até ressuscitaram pessoas! No entanto, o poder transmitido pelo espírito santo cumpriu um objetivo mais importante: habilitou os apóstolos e os outros discípulos a transmitir conhecimento exato que significa vida eterna. — João 17:3.

[9] No dia do Pentecostes de 33 EC, os discípu-

8, 9. (a) O que o espírito santo habilitou os discípulos de Jesus a fazer? (b) O que o escravo fiel está produzindo com a ajuda do espírito santo de Deus?

los de Jesus falaram “em línguas diferentes, assim como o espírito lhes concedia fazer pronunciação”. Dessa forma, eles deram testemunho sobre “as coisas magníficas de Deus”. (Atos 2:1-4, 11) Nós não falamos milagrosamente em línguas hoje. Com a ajuda do espírito santo, porém, o escravo fiel está produzindo publicações bíblicas em muitos idiomas, incluindo as revistas A Sentinela e Despertai!, as quais têm uma tiragem que chega a milhões de exemplares todos os meses. Tudo isso nos habilita a declarar “as coisas magníficas de Deus” a pessoas de todas as nações, tribos e línguas. — Rev. 7:9.

10 Desde 1989 o escravo fiel tem se preocupado especialmente em tornar a Tradução do Novo Mundo das Escrituras Sagradas disponível em muitos idiomas. Essa Bíblia já foi traduzida para dezenas de línguas — milhões de exemplares já foram impressos e muitos outros estão a caminho. Apenas Deus e seu espírito poderiam fazer com que esses esforços fossem bem-sucedidos.

10. Desde 1989, o que está sendo feito no que diz respeito à tradução da Bíblia?

[11] As publicações das Testemunhas de Jeová são traduzidas para mais de 470 idiomas. O serviço de tradução está sendo feito por centenas de cristãos voluntários em mais de 130 países. Isso não nos deveria surpreender, pois nenhuma outra organização na Terra é guiada pelo espírito santo para 'dar testemunho cabal' em todo o mundo sobre Jeová Deus, seu Rei messiânico e o estabelecido Reino celestial! — Atos 28:23.

[12] Quando Paulo deu testemunho a judeus e gentios em Antioquia da Pisídia, "os corretamente dispostos para com a vida eterna tornaram-se crentes". (Atos 13:48) Lucas conclui o livro de Atos dizendo que Paulo estava 'pregando o reino de Deus com a maior franqueza no falar, sem impedimento'. (Atos 28:31) Onde o apóstolo estava pregando? Em Roma, a capital de uma potência mundial. Quer por meio de discursos, quer por outros meios, os primeiros seguidores de Jesus fizeram todo o seu trabalho de

---

11. O que está sendo feito com respeito à tradução das publicações das Testemunhas de Jeová?

12. O que habilitou Paulo e outros cristãos a realizar a obra de dar testemunho?

pregação com a ajuda e a orientação do espírito santo.

Perseverança apesar de perseguição

[13] Quando os primeiros seguidores de Jesus sofreram perseguição, eles pediram a Jeová que lhes desse coragem. Qual foi o resultado? Eles ficaram cheios de espírito santo e foram fortalecidos para falar a palavra de Deus com coragem. (Atos 4:18-31) Nós também oramos pedindo sabedoria e força para continuar a dar testemunho apesar de perseguição. (Tia. 1:2-8) Continuamos a pregar porque somos abençoados por Deus e ajudados pelo espírito santo. Nada impede a obra de dar testemunho, nem intensa oposição, nem brutal perseguição. Quando somos perseguidos, certamente precisamos orar pedindo espírito santo, sabedoria e coragem para declarar as boas novas. — Luc. 11:13.

[14] Estêvão deu um corajoso testemunho antes de morrer às mãos de seus inimigos. (Atos 6:5; 7:54-60) Na "grande perseguição" que surgiu naquele tempo,

---

13. Por que devemos orar quando enfrentamos perseguição?
14, 15. (a) Qual foi o resultado da "tribulação que surgiu por causa de Estêvão"? (b) Em nossos dias, como muitas pessoas na Sibéria aprenderam a verdade?

todos os discípulos, exceto os apóstolos, foram espalhados por toda a Judeia e Samaria. Mas aquilo não parou a obra de dar testemunho. Filipe foi para Samaria 'pregar o Cristo' e fez isso com excelentes resultados. (Atos 8:1-8, 14, 15, 25) Além disso, somos informados: "Os que tinham sido espalhados pela tribulação que surgiu por causa de Estêvão foram até a Fenícia, e Chipre, e Antioquia, não falando a palavra a ninguém, senão a judeus. No entanto, dentre eles havia alguns homens de Chipre e de Cirene, que vieram a Antioquia e começaram a falar ao povo que falava grego, declarando as boas novas do Senhor Jesus." (Atos 11:19, 20) Naquela época, a perseguição difundiu a mensagem do Reino.

15 Em nossos dias, algo similar aconteceu na ex-União Soviética. Especialmente nos anos 50, centenas de Testemunhas de Jeová foram exiladas para a Sibéria e espalhadas em vários assentamentos. Por isso, as boas novas eram divulgadas em cada vez mais lugares naquele vasto país. Teria sido impossível para tantas Testemunhas de Jeová conseguir o dinheiro necessário para viajar até 10 mil quilôme-tros a fim de proclamar as boas novas. Mas o próprio governo os enviou através do país. "Com o tempo", disse um irmão, "as próprias autoridades possibilitaram que milhares de pessoas sinceras na Sibéria aprendessem a verdade".

Ricamente abençoados por Jeová

[16] Os primeiros cristãos sem dúvida tinham as bênçãos de Jeová. Paulo e outros plantavam e regavam, "mas Deus o fazia crescer". (1 Cor. 3:5, 6) Relatórios no livro de Atos dão provas desse crescimento por causa das bênçãos de Jeová sobre a obra de dar testemunho. Por exemplo, "a palavra de Deus crescia e o número dos discípulos multiplicava-se grandemente em Jerusalém". (Atos 6:7) Com o aumento da obra de pregação, "a congregação através de toda a Judeia, e Galileia, e Samaria, entrou . . . num período de paz, sendo edificada; e, como andava no temor [reverente] de Jeová e no consolo do espírito santo, multiplicava-se". — Atos 9:31.

[17] Em Antioquia da Síria, tanto judeus como

16, 17. O livro de Atos nos dá que provas das bênçãos de Jeová sobre a obra de dar testemunho?

pessoas que falavam grego ouviram a verdade por meio de testemunhas corajosas. “Além disso”, diz o relato, “a mão de Jeová estava com eles, e um grande número, tornando-se crentes, voltaram-se para o Senhor”. (Atos 11:21) Sobre o progresso adicional que houve naquela cidade, lemos: “A palavra de Jeová crescia e se espalhava.” (Atos 12:24) E, quando a obra de pregação entre os gentios, feita por Paulo e por outros, estava a todo vapor, “a palavra de Jeová crescia e prevalecia . . . de modo poderoso”. — Atos 19:20.

[18] “A mão de Jeová” sem dúvida está conosco hoje também. Esse é o motivo pelo qual tantas pessoas estão aceitando a verdade e simbolizando sua dedicação a Deus por meio do batismo. Além disso, é apenas com a ajuda e a bênção de Deus que conseguimos enfrentar dura oposição — às vezes, intensa perseguição — e ser bem-sucedidos em cumprir nosso ministério, assim como aconteceu com Paulo e outros cristãos do primeiro século. (Atos 14:19-21) Jeová Deus sempre nos dá a ajuda que precisamos.

18, 19. (a) Como sabemos que “a mão de Jeová” está conosco? (b) Dê um exemplo que mostre que Jeová não abandona seu povo.

Seus “braços que duram indefinidamente” sem falta nos ajudam em todas as nossas provações. (Deut. 33:27) Tenhamos sempre em mente que, por causa de seu grande nome, Jeová nunca abandona seu povo. — 1 Sam. 12:22; Sal. 94:14.

[19] Para ilustrar, vejamos o exemplo da família do irmão Harald Abt. Visto que ele persistia em dar testemunho, os nazistas o enviaram para o campo de concentração de Sachsenhausen durante a Segunda Guerra Mundial. Em maio de 1942, a Gestapo foi à casa de sua esposa, Elsa, e levou a filhinha deles. Elsa foi presa e acabou passando por vários campos de concentração. “Meus anos nos campos . . . alemães ensinaram-me uma lição importante”, disse a irmã Elsa. “Esta é: quão grandemente o espírito de Jeová pode fortalecer-nos quando sob provações extremas! Antes de ser presa, eu havia lido uma carta de uma irmã que dizia que, sob severa provação, o espírito de Jeová produz em nós tranquilidade. Pensei que ela estivesse exagerando um pouco. Mas, quando eu mesma passei por provações, descobri que aquilo que ela dissera era verdade. É realmente assim que acontece. É difícil imaginar isso se a pessoa nunca passou por essa experiência. Mas realmente aconteceu comigo."

Continue a dar testemunho cabal!

[20] O livro de Atos termina com Paulo zelosamente 'pregando o reino de Deus'. (Atos 28:31) Visto que estava em prisão domiciliar, ele não tinha liberdade para pregar de casa em casa em Roma. Mesmo assim, ele continuou a dar testemunho a todos que iam até ele. Hoje, alguns de nossos queridos irmãos não podem sair de casa por causa de sua saúde; talvez estejam acamados ou vivam em casas de repouso por causa de sua idade avançada ou enfermidade. Ainda assim, seu amor a Deus e seu desejo de dar testemunho são tão fortes como nunca. Oramos por eles e podemos apropriadamente pedir a nosso Pai celestial que lhes permita entrar em contato com pessoas que desejam aprender sobre ele e seus maravilhosos propósitos.

[21] A maioria de nós pode participar no ministério de casa em casa e em outras modalidades da obra de fazer discípulos. Então que cada um de nós faça

---

20. O que Paulo fez enquanto esteve em prisão domiciliar, e como isso pode servir de encorajamento para alguns de nossos irmãos?
21. Por que devemos dar testemunho com senso de urgência?

todo o possível para cumprir seu papel como proclamador do Reino, participando em dar testemunho "até à parte mais distante da terra". Essa obra deve ser feita com senso de urgência, pois "o sinal" da presença de Cristo está bem claro. (Mat. 24:3-14) Não há tempo a perder. Agora mesmo temos "bastante para fazer na obra do Senhor". — 1 Cor. 15:58.

[22] Enquanto aguardamos "chegar o grande e atemorizante dia de Jeová", estejamos decididos a dar um testemunho corajoso e fiel. (Joel 2:31) Ainda encontraremos muitas pessoas como os bereanos que "recebiam a palavra com o maior anelo mental". (Atos 17:10, 11) Demos então testemunho até que ouçamos, por assim dizer, as palavras: "Muito bem, escravo bom e fiel!" (Mat. 25:23) Se zelosamente cumprirmos a nossa parte na obra de fazer discípulos hoje e continuarmos fiéis a Jeová, com certeza nos alegraremos por toda a eternidade de ter tido o privilégio de participar em 'dar testemunho cabal' sobre o Reino de Deus!

22. O que devemos estar decididos a fazer enquanto aguardamos o dia de Jeová?

SEÇÃO 7

PROMESSAS DO REINO

Fazendo novas todas as coisas

VOCÊ tira uma deliciosa maçã de um galho. Sente o cheiro dela antes de colocá-la em sua cesta, que já está ficando cheia. Faz horas que você está trabalhando, mas não está cansado e quer continuar mais um pouco. Sua mãe está colhendo maçãs com alegria numa árvore perto dali enquanto conversa com parentes e amigos que estão ajudando na colheita. Ela está tão jovem — do jeito que ela era muitos anos atrás, quando você ainda era criança. É difícil acreditar que você a viu envelhecer no mundo que deixou de existir há muito tempo. Você a viu definhar por causa da doença, segurou sua mão quando ela deu o último suspiro e derramou lágrimas sobre seu túmulo. Mas agora aqui está ela, bem como muitos outros, viva e saudável de novo!

Dias assim virão; sabemos disso. Temos essa certeza porque as promessas de Deus sempre se cumprem. Nesta seção, analisaremos como algumas promessas do Reino serão cumpridas em breve, levando à guerra do Armagedom. Também veremos algumas das emocionantes promessas do Reino que se cumprirão depois disso. Como ficaremos felizes em presenciar o tempo em que o Reino de Deus governará sobre a Terra inteira, fazendo novas todas as coisas!

21 O Reino de Deus elimina seus inimigos

FOCO DO CAPÍTULO

Os acontecimentos que levam à guerra do Armagedom

NOSSA consideração sobre o que o Reino de Deus realizou no meio dos seus inimigos tem fortalecido nossa fé. (Sal. 110:2) Nosso Rei convocou um exército de pregadores voluntários. Ele purificou e refinou seus seguidores em sentido espiritual e moral. E, apesar de todos os esforços dos inimigos do Reino para nos dividir, estamos mundialmente unidos hoje. Essas e outras realizações do Reino que consideramos são prova convincente de que, desde 1914, nosso Rei está governando no meio dos inimigos do Reino.

² O Reino fará coisas ainda mais impressionantes no futuro próximo. Ele 'virá' para 'esmiuçar e pôr termo' aos seus inimigos. (Mat. 6:10; Dan. 2:44) Mas, antes disso, haverá outros acontecimentos marcantes. Quais são eles? Várias profecias bíblicas respondem a essa

1, 2. (a) O que prova que nosso Rei está governando desde 1914? (b) O que veremos neste capítulo?

pergunta. Analisemos algumas delas para ver que acontecimentos ainda nos aguardam.

O que antecederá a "repentina destruição"?

[3] Proclamação de paz. Quando escreveu aos tessalonicenses, o apóstolo Paulo descreveu o primeiro acontecimento que estamos aguardando. (Leia 1 Tessalonicenses 5:2, 3.) Nessa carta, Paulo menciona "o dia de Jeová", que começará com o ataque contra "Babilônia, a Grande". (Rev. 17:5) Mas, antes que o dia de Jeová comece, as nações dirão: "Paz e segurança!" Essa expressão pode se referir a um pronunciamento ou a uma série de declarações notáveis. Será que os líderes religiosos estarão envolvidos? Visto que fazem parte do mundo, é possível que eles se juntem às nações em dizer: "Há paz!" (Jer. 6:14; 23:16, 17; Rev. 17:1, 2) Essa proclamação de paz e segurança indicará que o dia de Jeová está prestes a começar. Os inimigos do Reino de Deus "de modo algum escaparão".

[4] Como somos beneficiados por entender o significado dessa profecia? Paulo diz: "Não estais em escuri-

---

3. Qual é o primeiro acontecimento que estamos aguardando?

4. Como somos beneficiados por entender o significado da profecia de Paulo sobre a proclamação de paz e segurança?

dão, de modo que aquele dia vos sobrevenha assim como a ladrões." (1 Tes. 5:3, 4) Ao contrário das pessoas em geral, nós discernimos aonde os acontecimentos levarão. Como exatamente essa profecia sobre paz e segurança será cumprida? Devemos esperar para ver o que acontecerá. Assim, "fiquemos despertos e mantenhamos os nossos sentidos". — 1 Tes. 5:6; Sof. 3:8.

Começa a grande tribulação

5 Ataque contra a religião. Lembre-se de que Paulo escreveu: "Quando estiverem dizendo: 'Paz e segurança!' então lhes há de sobrevir instantaneamente a repentina destruição." Assim como o clarão de um relâmpago é logo seguido pelo estrondo de um trovão, a proclamação de "Paz e segurança!" será instantaneamente seguida pela "repentina destruição". O que será destruído? Primeiro, "Babilônia, a Grande", o império mundial da religião falsa, também conhecida como "a meretriz". (Rev. 17:5, 6, 15) Essa destruição da cristandade e de todas as outras organizações religiosas falsas constitui a primeira fase da "grande tribulação". (Mat. 24:21; 2 Tes. 2:8) Para muitos, isso será uma surpresa. Por quê? Porque, até então, a meretriz ainda se

5. Qual será a primeira fase da "grande tribulação"?

considerará uma “rainha” que ‘nunca verá pranto’. Mas ela descobrirá de uma hora para outra que sua confiança não tem base. Ela será eliminada sem demora, como que “num só dia”. — Rev. 18:7, 8.

[6] Quem ou o que atacará “Babilônia, a Grande”? Uma “fera” com “dez chifres”. O livro de Revelação indica que essa fera se refere à Organização das Nações Unidas (ONU). Os dez chifres representam todos os poderes políticos que apoiam essa “fera cor de escarlate”. (Rev. 17:3, 5, 11, 12) Qual será o grau de destruição desse ataque? As nações da ONU saquearão a riqueza da meretriz, a devorarão e “a queimarão completamente”. — Leia Revelação 17:16.[1]

[7] Dias abreviados. Nosso Rei revelou o que acontecerá nesse ponto da grande tribulação. Jesus declarou: “Por causa dos escolhidos, aqueles dias serão abreviados.” (Leia Mateus 24:21, 22.) As palavras de Jesus se

*[1] Parece razoável concluir que a destruição de “Babilônia, a Grande”, se refira principalmente à destruição das instituições religiosas, não a uma matança generalizada de todas as pessoas religiosas. Assim, a maioria dos ex-adeptos de Babilônia sobreviverá a essa destruição e provavelmente tentará se distanciar, pelo menos publicamente, da religião, conforme indicado em Zacarias 13:4-6.

6. Quem ou o que atacará “Babilônia, a Grande”?
7. Como as palavras de Jesus em Mateus 24:21, 22 se cumpriram no primeiro século EC, e que cumprimento terão no futuro?

cumpriram em pequena escala em 66 EC, quando Jeová "abreviou" o ataque do exército romano contra Jerusalém. (Mar. 13:20) Essa ação permitiu que os cristãos em Jerusalém e na Judeia fossem salvos. O que acontecerá então em escala mundial durante a futura grande tribulação? Jeová, por meio de nosso Rei, 'abreviará' o ataque da ONU contra a religião para que a religião verdadeira não seja destruída com a falsa. Assim, ao passo que todas as organizações religiosas falsas serão eliminadas, a única religião verdadeira sobreviverá. (Sal. 96:5) Vejamos agora que acontecimentos ocorrerão após essa fase da grande tribulação.

Acontecimentos que levarão ao Armagedom

[8] A profecia de Jesus sobre os últimos dias indica que haverá vários acontecimentos significativos durante o período que antecede o Armagedom. Os primeiros dois acontecimentos que analisaremos são mencionados nos Evangelhos de Mateus, Marcos e Lucas. — Leia Mateus 24:29-31; Mar. 13:23-27; Luc. 21:25-28.

[9] Fenômenos celestes. Jesus prediz: "O sol ficará escurecido, e a lua não dará a sua luz, e as estrelas cairão

---

8, 9. A que fenômenos Jesus talvez estivesse se referindo, e qual será a reação das pessoas às coisas que verão?

O QUE NOS RESERVA O FUTURO PRÓXIMO

Antes que o Reino venha para eliminar seus inimigos, haverá vários acontecimentos significativos. A Palavra de Deus revela o que nos aguarda (Veja o parágrafo 2.)

Antes da grande tribulação	Começa a grande tribulação	Acontecimentos que levarão ao Armagedom
Proclamação de paz e segurança (1 Tes. 5:2, 3) (Veja os parágrafos 3 e 4.)	Ataque contra a religião (Rev. 17:16) (Veja os parágrafos 5 e 6.)	Fenômenos celestes (Mat. 24:29) (Veja o parágrafo 9.)
Selagem final do restante dos cristãos ungidos (Rev. 7:1-3) (Veja o parágrafo 15.)	O ataque é abreviado (Mat. 24:21, 22) (Veja o parágrafo 7.)	Julgamento das ovelhas e dos cabritos (Mat. 25:31-33) (Veja o parágrafo 10.)
		Ataque de Gogue de Magogue (Eze. 38:2, 11, 15) (Veja os parágrafos 12-14.)

Jeová envia seu Rei para defender todos os leais (Eze. 38:18)
(Veja os parágrafos 13, 16-18.)

Desfecho da grande tribulação

ARMAGEDON

(Mat. 25:46; Rev. 16:16)
(Veja os parágrafos 16 e 17.)

Ajuntamento ao céu do restante ungido (Mat. 24:31)
(Veja o parágrafo 15.)

do céu.” Sem dúvida, ninguém recorrerá aos líderes religiosos em busca de “luz” — eles não serão mais identificados como fonte de iluminação. Será que Jesus também estava se referindo a manifestações sobrenaturais no céu? Talvez sim. (Isa. 13:9-11; Joel 2:1, 30, 31) Qual será a reação das pessoas às coisas que verão? Elas sentirão “angústia”, porque ‘não saberão o que fazer’. (Luc. 21:25; Sof. 1:17) De fato, os inimigos do Reino de Deus — desde os ‘reis aos escravos’ — ficarão ‘desalentados de temor e na expectativa das coisas que virão’ e por isso buscarão proteção. No entanto, eles não encontrarão nenhum esconderijo seguro o bastante para escapar da ira de nosso Rei. — Luc. 21:26; 23:30; Rev. 6:15-17.

10 Pronunciamento do julgamento. Todos os inimigos do Reino de Deus serão então obrigados a presenciar um acontecimento que aumentará sua agonia. Jesus diz: “Verão o Filho do homem vir nas nuvens, com grande poder e glória.” (Mar. 13:26) Essa demonstração sobrenatural de poder indicará que Jesus chegou para pronunciar julgamento. Em outra parte dessa profecia

---

10. Que julgamento será pronunciado por Jesus, e como os apoiadores e os opositores do Reino de Deus reagirão?

sobre os últimos dias, Jesus dá mais detalhes sobre o julgamento que será pronunciado a essa altura. Encontramos essa informação na parábola sobre as ovelhas e os cabritos. (Leia Mateus 25:31-33, 46.) Os apoiadores leais do Reino de Deus serão julgados como "ovelhas" e 'levantarão a cabeça', dando-se conta de que seu "livramento está-se aproximando". (Luc. 21:28) Mas os opositores do Reino serão julgados como "cabritos" e 'se baterão em lamento', dando-se conta de que "o decepamento eterno" os aguarda. — Mat. 24:30; Rev. 1:7.

[11] Depois que Jesus pronunciar seu julgamento referente a "todas as nações", alguns acontecimentos significativos ainda ocorrerão antes que a guerra do Armagedom comece. (Mat. 25:32) Consideraremos dois desses acontecimentos: o ataque de Gogue e o ajuntamento dos ungidos. À medida que analisarmos esses acontecimentos, tenhamos em mente que a Palavra de Deus não revela o ponto exato em que eles ocorrerão. De fato, parece provável que parte de um coincida com parte do outro.

11. O que devemos ter em mente à medida que considerarmos acontecimentos futuros?

[12] Um ataque maciço. Gogue de Magogue atacará o restante ungido e seus companheiros das outras ovelhas. (Leia Ezequiel 38:2, 11.) Esse ataque contra o governo estabelecido do Reino será a última batalha de Satanás na guerra que ele tem travado contra o restante ungido desde que foi expulso do céu. (Rev. 12:7-9, 17) Principalmente desde que os ungidos começaram a ser reunidos na restaurada congregação cristã, Satanás tem tentado destruir sua prosperidade espiritual — mas em vão. (Mat. 13:30) No entanto, quando todas as organizações religiosas falsas tiverem sido eliminadas e o povo de Deus estiver aparentemente desprotegido, 'sem muralha, sem nem mesmo tranca nem portas', Satanás verá nisso uma oportunidade de ouro. Ele induzirá seus apoiadores perversos a entrar em ação para um ataque maciço contra os apoiadores do Reino.

[13] Ezequiel descreve o que acontecerá. Referindo-se a Gogue, a profecia diz: "Hás de vir do teu lugar, das partes mais remotas do norte, tu e muitos povos contigo, todos eles montados em cavalos, uma grande

---

12. Que ataque maciço Satanás lançará contra o Reino?

13. Como Jeová intervirá a favor de seu povo?

congregação, sim, uma numerosa força militar. E forçosamente subirás contra o meu povo . . . como nuvens cobrindo a terra.” (Eze. 38:15, 16) Qual será a reação de Jeová a essa invasão, que parecerá impossível de impedir? “Meu furor me subirá”, declara Jeová. “Vou chamar contra ele uma espada.” (Eze. 38:18, 21; leia Zacarias 2:8.) Jeová intervirá a favor de seus servos na Terra. Essa intervenção é a guerra do Armagedom.

14 Antes de avançarmos no tempo para considerar como Jeová defenderá seu povo durante a guerra do Armagedom, paremos um pouco para analisar outro acontecimento significativo. Ele ocorrerá em algum ponto entre o começo do ataque maciço de Satanás e o início da intervenção de Jeová no Armagedom. Conforme observado no parágrafo 11, esse segundo acontecimento é o ajuntamento dos últimos membros do restante ungido.

15 Ajuntamento dos ungidos. Tanto Mateus como Marcos registraram a declaração de Jesus sobre os “escolhidos” — cristãos ungidos por espírito — como parte de uma série de acontecimentos que ocorrerão antes do irrompimento do Armagedom. (Veja o parágrafo 7.) Falando a respeito de si mesmo como Rei, Jesus profetiza: "Então enviará os anjos e ajuntará os seus escolhidos desde os quatro ventos, desde a extremidade da terra até a extremidade do céu." (Mar. 13:27; Mat. 24:31) A que ajuntamento Jesus está se referindo aqui? Ele não está falando sobre a selagem final do restante de cristãos ungidos, que ocorrerá pouco antes de a grande tribulação começar. (Rev. 7:1-3) Em vez disso, Jesus está se referindo a um acontecimento que ocorrerá durante a futura grande tribulação. Assim, aparentemente em algum ponto após o início do ataque maciço de Satanás contra o povo de Deus, os ungidos que ainda estiverem na Terra serão ajuntados ao céu.

14, 15. Que outro acontecimento ocorrerá em algum ponto após o início do ataque maciço de Satanás?

[16] Que relação esse ajuntamento do restante ungido tem com o acontecimento que ocorrerá a seguir, o Armagedom? Levando em conta o ponto em que ocorrerá o ajuntamento, sabemos que todos os ungidos estarão no céu antes do início da guerra divina do

16. Que participação os ungidos ressuscitados terão na guerra do Armagedom?

Armagedom. No céu, os 144 mil corregentes de Cristo receberão autoridade para participar com Jesus em usar uma "vara de ferro" para destruir todos os inimigos do Reino de Deus. (Rev. 2:26, 27) Daí, ao lado de anjos poderosos, os ungidos ressuscitados seguirão a Cristo, o Rei-Guerreiro, à medida que ele sair para enfrentar a "numerosa força militar" de inimigos que estarão prestes a atacar seu alvo — o povo de Jeová. (Eze. 38:15) Quando esse confronto violento ocorrer, será sinal de que estourou a guerra do Armagedom! — Rev. 16:16.

O grande desfecho da grande tribulação

[17] Execução de julgamento. A guerra do Armagedom será o desfecho da grande tribulação. Nesse ponto, Jesus assumirá um papel adicional. Além de ser o Juiz de "todas as nações", ele se tornará o Executor de nações — ou seja, de todas as pessoas que ele já tiver julgado como "cabritos". (Mat. 25:32, 33) Com "uma longa espada afiada", nosso Rei 'golpeará as nações'. Todos os semelhantes a cabritos — de "reis" a "escravos" — "partirão para o decepamento eterno". — Rev. 19:15, 18; Mat. 25:46.

---

17. O que acontecerá com os "cabritos" no Armagedom?

[18] Como as coisas terão mudado para aqueles que Jesus julgar como “ovelhas”! Em vez de ser quase esmagada pelo numeroso exército satânico de “cabritos”, “uma grande multidão” de “ovelhas” aparentemente indefesas sobreviverá ao ataque inimigo e ‘sairá da grande tribulação’. (Rev. 7:9, 14) Daí, depois que Jesus derrotar e eliminar todos os inimigos humanos do Reino de Deus, ele lançará Satanás e seus demônios no abismo. Ali, eles serão mantidos por mil anos numa condição de inatividade semelhante à morte. — Leia Revelação 6:2; 20:1-3.

Como nos preparar

[19] Como podemos nos preparar para os acontecimentos extraordinários que virão? A Sentinela disse o seguinte alguns anos atrás: “A sobrevivência dependerá da obediência.” Por quê? A resposta está num alerta que Jeová deu aos judeus cativos na antiga Babilônia. Jeová predisse que Babilônia seria conquistada, mas o que o povo de Deus devia fazer para se preparar para esse acontecimento? Jeová disse: “Vai, povo meu, entra nos teus quartos interiores e fecha as tuas

18. (a) Como as coisas mudarão para as “ovelhas”? (b) Como Jesus completará sua vitória?
19, 20. Como podemos pôr em prática a lição contida nas palavras de Isaías 26:20 e 30:21?

portas atrás de ti. Esconde-te por um instante, até que passe a verberação." (Isa. 26:20) Note os verbos usados nesse versículo: "vai", "entra", "fecha" e "esconde" — todos estão no modo imperativo; são ordens. Os judeus que acataram essas ordens ficaram em suas casas, longe dos soldados que vinham conquistando a cidade pelas ruas. Assim, sua sobrevivência dependeu da obediência às instruções de Jeová.*[2]

[20] Que lição isso nos ensina? Assim como no caso daqueles antigos servos de Deus, nossa sobrevivência aos acontecimentos futuros dependerá de nossa obediência às instruções de Jeová. (Isa. 30:21) Recebemos essas instruções por meio da congregação. Portanto, queremos desenvolver uma obediência de coração às orientações que recebemos. (1 João 5:3) Se fizermos isso agora, estaremos mais inclinados a ser obedientes no futuro e assim receber a proteção de nosso Pai, Jeová, e de nosso Rei, Jesus. (Sof. 2:3) Essa proteção divina permitirá que vejamos pessoalmente como o Reino de Deus eliminará por completo seus inimigos. Com certeza, esse será um acontecimento inesquecível!

---

*[2] Para mais informações, veja Profecia de Isaías — Uma Luz para Toda a Humanidade I, páginas 282-283.

O Reino é mesmo real para você?

- Que realizações do Reino consideradas neste livro mais fortaleceram sua fé?
- Quais são alguns dos acontecimentos que nos aguardam?
- Como nosso Rei nos protegerá antes e durante o Armagedom?
- Como podemos nos preparar para os acontecimentos futuros?

22 O Reino realiza a vontade de Deus na Terra

FOCO DO CAPÍTULO

O Reino cumpre todas as promessas de Deus referentes à humanidade e à Terra

UM IRMÃO fiel chega à reunião cansado após um dia estressante. Ele teve de lidar com a grosseria de um patrão exigente, o estresse resultante dos desafios para cuidar de sua família e a ansiedade por causa de uma doença que está afligindo sua esposa. Quando começa a melodia do cântico inicial, ele suspira aliviado, feliz por estar no Salão do Reino com seus irmãos. O cântico fala da esperança de vida no Paraíso, e a letra o convida a se imaginar lá, vendo a si mesmo naquelas condições. Ele sempre gostou muito desse cântico. À medida que ele e sua família cantam, a esperança tranquiliza seu coração atribulado.

[2] Isso já aconteceu com você? A maioria de nós diria que sim. Mas temos de admitir que a vida neste

1, 2. (a) Por que às vezes pode ser difícil encararmos o Paraíso como real? (b) O que pode nos ajudar a fortalecer a fé nas promessas de Deus?

velho sistema pode tornar muito difícil encararmos o futuro Paraíso como uma realidade. Vivemos em "tempos críticos, difíceis de manejar", e o mundo de hoje está bem longe de ser um paraíso. (2 Tim. 3:1) O que pode nos ajudar a encarar nossa esperança como real? Como sabemos com certeza que em breve o Reino de Deus governará toda a humanidade? Vejamos algumas das profecias de Jeová que seu povo viu se cumprir no passado distante. Daí, analisaremos como essas profecias e outras similares estão tendo um cumprimento emocionante bem agora em nossos dias. Por fim, com nossa fé fortalecida, nos concentraremos no significado que essas profecias têm para o nosso futuro.

Como Jeová cumpriu suas promessas no passado distante

[3] Imagine como era a vida dos judeus exilados em Babilônia no sexto século AEC. Muitos foram criados no exílio, assim como seus pais, e a vida era difícil. Os babilônios zombavam deles por sua fé em Jeová. (Sal. 137:1-3) Ao longo das décadas, os judeus leais continuaram se apegando a esta esperança animadora: Jeová prometeu levar seu povo de volta à sua terra natal. Jeová disse que as condições lá seriam maravilho-

3. Que promessa consolou os judeus exilados em Babilônia?

sas. Ele até comparou a restaurada terra de Judá ao jardim do Éden — um paraíso! (Leia Isaías 51:3.) Fica claro que essas promessas haviam sido feitas para tranquilizar o povo de Deus, eliminando dúvidas que talvez estivessem afligindo seu coração. Como assim? Considere algumas profecias.

[4] Segurança. Aqueles exilados voltariam, não para um paraíso literal, mas para uma terra distante que havia ficado desolada por 70 anos, uma terra que poucos deles tinham visto. Naquela época, os leões eram comuns nas terras bíblicas, bem como lobos, leopardos e outros predadores. Um chefe de família talvez se perguntasse: 'Como vou proteger minha esposa e meus filhos? Que dizer das ovelhas e do gado — como os protegerei?' Seria mais do que natural ter essas preocupações. Então, pense na promessa de Deus registrada em Isaías 11:6-9 e no grande consolo que ela deve ter proporcionado. (Leia.) Com essas belas palavras poéticas, Jeová garantiu aos exilados que eles e seus animais seriam protegidos. O leão comeria palha no sentido de que não devoraria o gado dos judeus. Os leais não teriam motivo para temer tais predadores. Jeová prometeu que seu povo estaria a salvo na restaurada terra de Judá, até mesmo no ermo e nas florestas. — Eze. 34:25.

4. Como Jeová garantiu aos judeus que lhes daria segurança em sua terra natal?

[5] Fartura. Talvez surgissem outras preocupações. 'Será que conseguirei alimentar minha família na terra restaurada? Onde vamos morar? Haverá trabalho disponível, e será melhor do que o serviço maçante no exílio sob o domínio de nossos opressores?' Por meio de profecias inspiradas, Jeová amorosamente tranquilizou os judeus também com respeito a essas questões. Jeová prometeu que seu povo obediente receberia constantes chuvas; em resultado disso, o solo produziria pão "rico e farto". (Isa. 30:23, Nova Versão Internacional) Quanto a moradia e trabalho gratificante, Jeová fez a seguinte promessa ao seu povo: "Hão de construir casas e as ocuparão; e hão de plantar vinhedos e comer os seus frutos. Não construirão e outro terá morada; não plantarão e outro comerá." (Isa. 65:21, 22) De fato, de muitas maneiras, a vida seria maravilhosa em comparação com seu exílio na pagã Babilônia. Mas que dizer de seus problemas mais graves — os que resultaram em seu exílio?

---

5. Que profecias ajudaram os judeus a ter certeza de que Jeová os abençoaria com fartura ao voltarem do exílio?

[6] Saúde espiritual. Muito antes do exílio, o povo de Deus havia ficado doente em sentido espiritual. Por meio do profeta Isaías, Jeová disse ao seu povo: "A cabeça inteira está numa condição doentia e o coração inteiro está débil." (Isa. 1:5) Eles estavam espiritualmente cegos e surdos, pois haviam tapado os ouvidos para os conselhos de Jeová e fechado os olhos para as orientações dele. (Isa. 6:10; Jer. 5:21; Eze. 12:2) Se aqueles judeus voltassem a ser afligidos pelos mesmos problemas, que segurança eles poderiam ter? Não é verdade que perderiam novamente o favor de Jeová? Como foi consolador ouvir a promessa de Jeová: "Naquele dia os surdos hão de ouvir as palavras do livro, e dentre as trevas e dentre a escuridão até mesmo os olhos dos cegos verão." (Isa. 29:18) De fato, Jeová traria cura espiritual ao seu povo disciplinado e arrependido. Desde que eles demonstrassem uma atitude receptiva e obediente, Jeová lhes daria orientações que significariam vida para eles.

[7] Será que Jeová cumpriu suas promessas? Os fatos falam por si sós. Os judeus que voltaram à sua terra

---

6. Muito antes do exílio, o povo de Deus tinha sido afligido por que tipo de doenças, e o que Jeová lhes prometeu dar?
7. Como as promessas de Deus ao seu povo exilado se cumpriram, e por que isso deve fortalecer nossa fé?

natal foram abençoados com segurança, fartura e saúde espiritual. Por exemplo, Jeová os protegeu de nações vizinhas que eram mais fortes e mais numerosas que eles. Os predadores não acabaram com as criações de animais dos judeus. É verdade que aqueles judeus viram apenas um cumprimento limitado das promessas de condições paradisíacas registradas por homens como Isaías, Jeremias e Ezequiel — mas o cumprimento que o povo de Deus viu foi impressionante e exatamente o que eles precisavam naquela ocasião. À medida que refletirmos no que Jeová fez por seu povo lá naquela época, nossa fé ficará mais forte. Se o cumprimento inicial dessas profecias foi impressionante, que dizer do cumprimento maior? Analise o que Jeová tem feito por seus servos hoje.

Como Jeová começou a cumprir suas promessas em nossos dias

[8] Hoje, o povo de Jeová não é uma nação literal, nem ocupa um único território físico. Em vez disso, os cristãos ungidos compõem uma nação espiritual, "o Israel de Deus". (Gál. 6:16) Seus companheiros das "outras ovelhas" se juntam a eles numa "terra" espiri-

8. O povo de Deus hoje vive em que tipo de "terra"?

tual na qual adoram a Jeová Deus de modo unido. Essa adoração é o seu modo de vida. (João 10:16; Isa. 66:8) E que tipo de "terra" Jeová nos deu? Um paraíso espiritual. Nele, as promessas de Deus sobre condições semelhantes ao jardim do Éden têm sido cumpridas de uma forma maravilhosa. Veja alguns exemplos.

[9] Segurança. Na profecia de Isaías 11:6-9, encontramos uma bela descrição de paz e harmonia — entre animais selvagens de um lado e humanos e seus animais domésticos do outro. Será que essa condição tem um cumprimento espiritual hoje? Sim! O versículo 9 explica por que essas criaturas não causarão nenhum dano: "Porque a terra há de encher-se do conhecimento de Jeová assim como as águas cobrem o próprio mar." Será que o "conhecimento de Jeová" muda o comportamento de animais? Não, as pessoas é que são transformadas quando passam a conhecer o Deus Altíssimo e aprendem a seguir os seus caminhos pacíficos. É por isso que, em nosso paraíso espiritual hoje, podemos observar um cumprimento animador dessa profecia. Sob o governo do Reino, os seguidores de

---

9, 10. (a) Como a profecia de Isaías 11:6-9 está se cumprindo hoje? (b) Que evidência de paz vemos entre o povo de Deus?

Cristo estão aprendendo a abandonar suas qualidades ferozes e animalescas e a viver em paz e harmonia com seus irmãos espirituais.

[10] Por exemplo, neste livro, consideramos a questão da neutralidade cristã. Analisamos a base bíblica para nossa posição neutra e a perseguição que o povo de Deus tem enfrentado por causa dela. Não é incrível que haja neste mundo violento uma grande "nação" de pessoas que se recusam, mesmo sob a ameaça de morte, a participar em qualquer tipo de violência? Isso sem dúvida é uma prova impressionante de que os súditos do Rei messiânico usufruem hoje uma paz similar à descrita por Isaías. Jesus declarou que seus seguidores seriam conhecidos pelo amor que teriam entre si. (João 13:34, 35) Dentro da congregação, Cristo pacientemente tem usado seu "escravo fiel e discreto" para ensinar todos os cristãos verdadeiros a ser pacíficos, amorosos e gentis. — Mat. 24:45-47.

[11] Fartura. O mundo hoje passa fome em sentido espiritual. A Bíblia alertou: "'Eis que vêm dias', é a pronunciação do Soberano Senhor Jeová, 'e eu vou enviar uma fome à terra, uma fome, não de pão, e uma sede, não de água, mas de se ouvirem as palavras de Jeová.'" (Amós 8:11) Será que os cidadãos do Reino de Deus também passam fome? Jeová predisse o seguinte contraste entre seu povo e seus inimigos: "Os meus próprios servos comerão, mas vós passareis fome. Eis que os meus próprios servos beberão, mas vós passareis sede. Eis que os meus próprios servos se alegrarão, mas vós passareis vergonha." (Isa. 65:13) Você tem visto o cumprimento dessas palavras?

---

11, 12. Que tipo de fome aflige o mundo de hoje, mas como Jeová tem fornecido uma fartura de alimento para o seu povo?

[12] As provisões espirituais fluem até nós como um rio que está ficando cada vez mais largo e mais fundo. Nossas publicações bíblicas, bem como gravações de áudio e vídeo, nossas reuniões e congressos e as matérias publicadas em nosso site, formam um fluxo constante de alimento espiritual neste mundo espiritualmente faminto. (Eze. 47:1-12; Joel 3:18) Não é animador ver em sua vida diária o cumprimento das promessas divinas de fartura? Você se alimenta regularmente da mesa de Jeová?

[13] Saúde espiritual. Hoje, o mundo sofre de uma cegueira e surdez espiritual. (2 Cor. 4:4) Mas Cristo está curando doenças no mundo todo. Você já viu alguém

---

13. Você já viu se cumprir a promessa de Jeová sobre alguém cego passar a enxergar e alguém surdo passar a ouvir? Explique.

cego passar a enxergar e alguém surdo passar a ouvir? Se já viu pessoas obter o conhecimento exato da verdade da Palavra de Deus e abandonar as mentiras religiosas que antes as impediam de enxergar e ouvir a verdade, então viu o cumprimento desta promessa: "Naquele dia os surdos hão de ouvir as palavras do livro, e dentre as trevas e dentre a escuridão até mesmo os olhos dos cegos verão." (Isa. 29:18) Todo ano, centenas de milhares de pessoas no mundo inteiro têm sido curadas em sentido espiritual. Cada pessoa que sai de Babilônia, a Grande, e se junta a nós em adorar a Deus em nosso paraíso espiritual é prova viva de que as promessas de Jeová se cumprem.

[14] Cada capítulo deste livro contém provas convincentes de que Cristo conduziu seus seguidores a um verdadeiro paraíso espiritual nesta época do fim. Que continuemos a meditar nas muitas bênçãos que recebemos hoje neste paraíso. Ao fazermos isso, nossa fé nas promessas de Jeová para o futuro continuará a ser fortalecida.

"Venha o teu reino"

[15] O propósito de Jeová desde o início foi transfor-

---

14. Nossa fé será fortalecida se meditarmos em que provas?
15. Por que podemos ter certeza de que a Terra se tornará um paraíso?

mar a Terra num paraíso global. Ele colocou Adão e Eva num jardim paradisíaco e lhes deu a ordem de encher a Terra com seus descendentes e cuidar de todos os animais. (Gên. 1:28) No entanto, Adão e Eva seguiram Satanás numa rebelião e condenaram toda a sua descendência à imperfeição, ao pecado e à morte. Mas o propósito de Deus nunca mudou. Depois de proferidas, suas palavras sempre se cumprem totalmente. (Leia Isaías 55:10, 11.) Assim, podemos ter certeza de que os descendentes de Adão e Eva encherão esta Terra e a terão em sujeição, cuidando bem das criações de Jeová num paraíso global. Naquela época, as profecias originalmente dadas aos exilados judeus a respeito da vida sob condições paradisíacas terão seu cumprimento final. Considere os exemplos a seguir.

[16] Segurança. Finalmente, a bela descrição feita em Isaías 11:6-9 terá um cumprimento completo até mesmo em sentido literal. Homens, mulheres e crianças estarão seguros, não importa aonde forem na Terra. Nenhuma criatura, quer humana, quer animal, representará ameaça. Imagine no futuro ter todo este planeta como seu lar, onde poderá nadar nos rios, lagos

16. Como a Bíblia descreve a segurança que haverá no Paraíso?

e mares; atravessar cadeias de montanhas e passear nos campos em total segurança. E, quando a noite cair, você não terá medo. As palavras de Ezequiel 34:25 se cumprirão, e o povo de Deus poderá até mesmo 'morar no ermo em segurança e dormir nas florestas'.

[17] Fartura. Imagine uma época em que não haverá coisas como pobreza, desnutrição, fome ou programas de assistência social. A fartura espiritual que o povo de Deus usufrui hoje é uma garantia de que o Rei messiânico alimentará seus súditos em todos os sentidos. Quando Jesus esteve na Terra, ele demonstrou em pequena escala que pode cumprir tais promessas, pois alimentou milhares de pessoas famintas com apenas alguns pães e peixes. (Mat. 14:17, 18; 15:34-36; Mar. 8:19, 20) Quando o Reino de Deus estiver governando sobre a Terra inteira, profecias como esta terão um cumprimento literal: "Ele também lhe mandará chuva para a semente que você semear, e a terra dará alimento rico e farto. Naquele dia o seu gado pastará em grandes prados." — Isa. 30:23, NVI.

---

17. Por que podemos ter certeza de que Jeová nos abençoará com fartura quando o Reino estiver governando sobre a Terra inteira?

[18] Hoje, muitas pessoas mal podem imaginar ter uma casa confortável e um trabalho gratificante. Neste sistema corrupto, muitos acham que trabalham longas horas num serviço duro e recebem pouco em troca para si mesmos e suas famílias, enquanto os ricos e gananciosos recebem todos os benefícios. Imagine como será a situação quando esta profecia se tornar realidade em toda a Terra: "Hão de construir casas e as ocuparão; e hão de plantar vinhedos e comer os seus frutos. Não construirão e outro terá morada; não plantarão e outro comerá. Porque os dias do meu povo serão como os dias da árvore; e meus escolhidos usufruirão plenamente o trabalho das suas próprias mãos." — Isa. 65:20-22.

[19] O que significa a promessa de que nossos dias serão "como os dias da árvore"? Quando você fica ao lado de uma árvore gigantesca e olha para o alto, não fica maravilhado de pensar nos anos em que aquela forma de vida está ali — talvez desde muito antes de seus bisavós terem nascido? Talvez pense que, se você continuar em sua condição imperfeita, essa árvore provavelmente viverá mais do que você, perpetuando sua longa e pacífica existência até mesmo depois de você ter se tornado nada mais do que uma simples lembrança. Como Jeová é bondoso por nos garantir que, no futuro Paraíso, nossos dias serão longos e pacíficos! (Sal. 37:11, 29) Virá o dia em que até mesmo as árvores mais velhas parecerão tão passageiras como a grama, indo e vindo à medida que continuarmos vivendo para sempre!

18, 19. (a) O que a profecia registrada em Isaías 65:20-22 significa para você? (b) Em que sentido nossos dias serão "como os dias da árvore"?

[20] Saúde perfeita. Hoje, ninguém escapa da sombra tenebrosa das doenças e da morte. Em certo sentido, todos nós estamos doentes — infectados com uma doença terminal chamada pecado. A única cura é o sacrifício de resgate de Cristo. (Rom. 3:23; 6:23) Durante o Reinado Milenar, Jesus e seus corregentes aplicarão plenamente os benefícios desse sacrifício, eliminando aos poucos dos humanos fiéis todos os vestígios do pecado. Esta profecia de Isaías se cumprirá no sentido mais pleno: "Nenhum residente dirá: 'Estou doente.' O povo que mora na terra serão os a quem se perdoa seu erro." (Isa. 33:24) Imagine a época em que não haverá ninguém cego, surdo ou aleijado. (Leia Isaías 35:5, 6.) Jesus curará toda e qualquer doença — seja ela física, mental ou emocional. Os súditos leais do Reino terão saúde perfeita!

20. Como os súditos leais do Reino virão a ter saúde perfeita?

[21] Mas que dizer da consequência comum das doenças, do resultado inevitável do pecado — a morte? Esse é o nosso "último inimigo", um adversário que mais cedo ou mais tarde acaba derrotando todos os humanos imperfeitos. (1 Cor. 15:26) Mas será que a morte é um adversário tão intimidador assim para Jeová? Veja o que Isaías predisse: "Ele realmente tragará a morte para sempre, e o Soberano Senhor Jeová certamente enxugará as lágrimas de todas as faces." (Isa. 25:8) Você consegue imaginar como será essa época? Um mundo sem funerais, cemitérios nem lágrimas de tristeza! Muito pelo contrário — haverá lágrimas de alegria à medida que Jeová cumprir sua emocionante promessa de trazer os mortos de volta à vida! (Leia Isaías 26:19.) Finalmente, as incontáveis feridas causadas pela morte serão curadas.

[22] No fim do Milênio, o Reino já terá realizado a vontade de Deus na Terra, e Cristo entregará o

---

21. O que acontecerá com a morte, e por que você acha essa promessa consoladora?
22. No fim do Milênio, o que acontecerá quando o Reino messiânico tiver realizado a vontade de Deus na Terra?

governo a seu Pai. (1 Cor. 15:25-28) A humanidade, finalmente aperfeiçoada, estará pronta para enfrentar um teste final quando Satanás for libertado de seu abismo de inatividade. Depois disso, Cristo por fim esmagará aquela serpente desprezível e todos os seus apoiadores. (Gên. 3:15; Rev. 20:3, 7-10) Mas todos os que lealmente amarem a Jeová terão um futuro promissor diante de si. Dificilmente existiria uma descrição melhor do que a contida numa frase inspirada. Trata-se da promessa de que os fiéis receberão "a liberdade gloriosa dos filhos de Deus". — Rom. 8:21.

[23] Essas promessas não são baseadas em meros sonhos. O cumprimento das promessas de Jeová é garantido! Por quê? Pense nas palavras de Jesus que consideramos no primeiro capítulo deste livro. Ele ensinou seus seguidores a orar a Jeová: "Venha o teu reino. Realize-se a tua vontade, como no céu, assim também na terra." (Mat. 6:9, 10) O Reino de Deus não é produto da imaginação de ninguém. É uma realidade! Está governando no céu agora. Hoje, faz cem anos que ele tem cumprido as promessas de Jeová de maneiras claramente vistas entre o seu povo. Por isso, podemos ter certeza de que todas as promessas de Jeová se cumprirão quando o Reino de Deus vier para exercer pleno poder sobre a Terra!

23, 24. (a) Por que o cumprimento das promessas de Deus é garantido? (b) O que você está determinado a fazer?

[24] Sabemos que o Reino de Deus virá. Sabemos também que cada palavra das promessas de Jeová se cumprirá. Por quê? Porque O REINO DE DEUS JÁ GOVERNA! A pergunta que cada um de nós deve fazer é: 'Será que o Reino governa a mim?' Que façamos tudo ao nosso alcance para vivermos como súditos leais desse Reino agora, para que possamos ser beneficiados por seu governo perfeito e justo para sempre!

O Reino é mesmo real para você?

- Como Jeová cumpriu suas promessas referentes aos judeus que voltaram do exílio?
- Como Jeová tem permitido que vivamos num paraíso espiritual hoje?
- Que aspectos da vida no Paraíso mais atraem você?
- O que convence você de que o Reino de Deus é real e já governa?

SEÇÃO QUATRO

4

“VOU DEFENDER ZELOSAMENTE O MEU SANTO NOME”

A ADORAÇÃO PURA SOBREVIVE AO ATAQUE DE GOGUE

EZEQUIEL 39:25

PONTO PRINCIPAL: Jeová protege seu povo durante a grande tribulação

Jeová ama as pessoas, mas também nos considera responsáveis pelas nossas ações. O que será que ele acha dos que dizem adorar a ele, mas suas ações provam o contrário? Como ele vai decidir quem sobreviverá à grande tribulação? E por que Jeová, um Deus de amor, vai destruir milhões de pessoas más?

15 “POREI FIM À SUA PROSTITUIÇÃO”

PONTO PRINCIPAL: | EZEQUIEL 16:41

O que aprendemos das prostitutas descritas em Ezequiel e Apocalipse

É TRISTE ver uma pessoa que caiu na prostituição. Nós talvez pensemos no que a levou a ter uma vida tão suja. Será que ela se tornou prostituta ainda bem jovem por ter sofrido violência ou abuso em casa? Ou será que ela ficou tão pobre a ponto de ter que vender o corpo? Será que estava fugindo de um marido violento? Infelizmente histórias assim são comuns neste mundo mau. Não é à toa que Jesus Cristo tenha sido bondoso com algumas prostitutas. Ele destacou que os que se arrependem e mudam seu modo de vida podem esperar ter uma vida melhor. — Mat. 21:28-32; Luc. 7:36-50.

[2] Mas vamos pensar num tipo diferente de prostituta. Imagine uma mulher que decide ser prostituta de propósito. Ela vê isso, não como algo que a rebaixa,

1, 2. Que tipo de prostituta talvez nos deixe especialmente revoltados?

mas como algo que dá poder. E ela deseja muito ter esse poder, bem como o dinheiro que esse tipo de trabalho oferece. Mas e se essa mulher tivesse um marido bom e leal e, mesmo assim, decidisse traí-lo sendo prostituta? Seria difícil não ficar revoltado com ela e com a vida que ela decidiu ter. Essa forte reação que temos é a chave para entender por que Jeová repetidas vezes usa a descrição de uma prostituta para mostrar como se sente com relação à religião falsa.

[3] No livro de Ezequiel encontramos dois relatos em que prostitutas representam a grande infidelidade do povo de Deus em Israel e em Judá. (Ezequiel, capítulos 16 e 23) Mas, antes de analisarmos esses dois relatos, vamos ver sobre outra prostituta. Sua prostituição começou muito antes dos dias de Ezequiel, antes mesmo de Israel existir, e essa prostituição continua até hoje. Lemos sobre essa prostituta no último livro da Bíblia, Apocalipse.

“A mãe das prostitutas”

[4] Na visão que o apóstolo João registrou no livro de Apocalipse, ele viu uma prostituta. Ela é chamada de

3. O que vamos estudar neste capítulo?

4, 5. O que é “Babilônia, a Grande”, e como sabemos disso?

a “grande prostituta” e de “Babilônia, a Grande, a mãe das prostitutas”. (Apo. 17:1, 5) Por centenas de anos, estudiosos e líderes religiosos têm tentado saber quem é essa prostituta. Mas isso continua sendo um mistério para eles. Uns dizem que é Babilônia, outros Roma e ainda outros a Igreja Católica. Mas há décadas que as Testemunhas de Jeová entendem quem é essa “grande prostituta”: Ela representa as religiões falsas como um todo. Como sabemos disso?

5 Essa prostituta é condenada por cometer imoralidade com “os reis da terra”, ou os poderes políticos. Isso mostra que ela não representa os poderes políticos. Além disso, Apocalipse diz que “os comerciantes da terra”, ou o sistema comercial, choram por causa da queda de Babilônia, a Grande. Então Babilônia, a Grande, não representa o sistema comercial. Quem é essa prostituta então? Bem, ela é culpada de enganar as pessoas e de praticar o ocultismo e a idolatria. Com certeza tudo isso se aplica às religiões falsas deste mundo! Observe também que na visão essa prostituta está sentada sobre os poderes políticos deste mundo. Isso significa que ela tem certa influência sobre eles. Além disso, ela persegue os servos fiéis de Jeová. (Apo.

17:2, 3; 18:11, 23, 24) Não é exatamente isso o que a religião falsa tem feito até hoje?

[6] Mas por que Babilônia, a Grande, é chamada não só de a "grande prostituta", mas também de "a mãe das prostitutas"? A religião falsa acabou se dividindo em inúmeras religiões e seitas. Quando Jeová confundiu os idiomas em Babel, ou Babilônia, todo tipo de ensino religioso falso começou a se espalhar, dando início a um número sem fim de religiões. A antiga cidade de Babilônia foi o berço da religião falsa, e é por isso que "Babilônia, a Grande", recebeu esse nome. (Gên. 11:1-9) Sendo assim, podemos dizer que todas as religiões falsas são "filhas" dessa grande prostituta. Satanás muitas vezes usa essas religiões para fazer as pessoas se envolverem com ensinos e costumes errados que desonram a Deus, como ocultismo e idolatria. Não é à toa que o povo de Deus tenha recebido um forte aviso a respeito dessa organização falsa que está no mundo todo: "Saiam dela, meu povo, se não quiserem ser cúmplices dos pecados dela." — Leia Apocalipse 18:4, 5.

---

6. Por que se pode dizer que Babilônia, a Grande, é "a mãe das prostitutas"?

[7] Você obedeceu a esse aviso? Lembre-se que foi Jeová quem criou os humanos com uma "necessidade espiritual". (Mat. 5:3) E só a adoração pura de Jeová pode satisfazer plenamente essa necessidade. Os servos de Jeová com certeza querem ficar o mais longe possível da prostituição espiritual, ou adoração falsa. Mas Satanás quer algo diferente. Ele quer enganar o povo de Deus e fazer com que caiam nesse tipo de prostituição. E ele muitas vezes conseguiu fazer isso. Nos dias de Ezequiel, o povo de Deus já tinha se envolvido com prostituição espiritual várias vezes. Estudar o que aconteceu com eles nos ensina muito sobre os padrões de Jeová, sua justiça e sua misericórdia.

"Você . . . se tornou prostituta"

[8] No livro de Ezequiel, Jeová fala de uma prostituta para mostrar como a traição do seu povo o afetou pessoalmente. Em dois relatos marcantes, Ezequiel registrou como Jeová estava se sentindo por causa da deslealdade e infidelidade do seu povo. Por que ele os comparou a prostitutas?

---

7. Por que é importante obedecer ao aviso de sair de Babilônia, a Grande?
8-10. (a) Que requisito importante da adoração pura nos ajuda a entender o que Jeová acha de qualquer envolvimento com a religião falsa? (b) Que ilustração nos ajuda a entender isso?

[9] Para entender a resposta, temos que primeiro nos lembrar de um requisito importante da adoração pura que estudamos no capítulo 5 deste livro. Na Lei dada a Israel, Jeová disse: “Não tenha outros deuses além de mim [ou “em oposição a mim”, nota]. . . . Eu, Jeová, seu Deus, sou um Deus que exige devoção exclusiva.” (Êxo. 20:3, 5) Mais tarde, ele destacou essa mesma verdade ao dizer: “Você não deve se curvar diante de nenhum outro deus, pois Jeová é conhecido por exigir devoção exclusiva. Sim, ele é um Deus que exige devoção exclusiva.” (Êxo. 34:14) Mais claro do que isso impossível. Para adorar a Jeová de modo aceitável, temos que adorar somente a ele.

[10] Podemos ilustrar isso com o casamento. Tanto o marido como a esposa têm o direito de esperar exclusividade. Se um deles começasse a demonstrar interesse romântico ou sexual por outra pessoa, o outro teria toda a razão de ficar com ciúmes e se sentir traído. (Leia Hebreus 13:4.) Da mesma forma, Jeová com razão se sentiu traído quando seu próprio povo, que tinha se dedicado para servir somente a Ele, passou a adorar deuses falsos. Em Ezequiel 16 podemos ver como Jeová se sentiu profundamente magoado com isso.

[11] No capítulo 16 de Ezequiel encontramos a maior fala de Jeová nesse livro, que também é uma das mais longas profecias de Jeová nas Escrituras Hebraicas. Jeová usa a cidade de Jerusalém para representar a infiel Judá. Ele conta a história triste e chocante da origem e da traição de Jerusalém. No começo, ela não passava de um bebê sujo e abandonado. Seus pais eram cananeus e adoravam deuses falsos. E, realmente, até Davi conquistar essa cidade, ela foi muito tempo controlada pelos jebuseus, uma tribo de Canaã. Jeová ficou com pena daquele bebê; ele limpou Jerusalém e cuidou dela. Com o tempo, ela se tornou como uma esposa para ele. Na verdade, os israelitas que por fim foram morar em Jerusalém já faziam parte de uma nação dedicada a Jeová desde os dias de Moisés e, portanto, tinham prometido servir somente a Ele. (Êxo. 24:7, 8) Depois que Jerusalém se tornou a capital da nação, Jeová a abençoou, enriqueceu e embelezou. Assim como um marido rico e poderoso talvez encha sua esposa de presentes, Jeová cuidou de Jerusalém. — Eze. 16:1-14.

---

11. O que Jeová falou sobre Jerusalém e a origem dela?

[12] Veja o que aconteceu depois. Jeová disse: “Você começou a confiar na sua beleza, e se tornou prostituta devido à sua fama. Você se prostituiu fartamente com todos os que passavam, e a sua beleza se tornou deles.” (Eze. 16:15) Nos dias de Salomão, Jeová abençoou e enriqueceu tanto o seu povo que Jerusalém se tornou uma cidade grandiosa, que se destacava no mundo antigo. (1 Reis 10:23, 27) Mas aos poucos a deslealdade tomou conta de Jerusalém. Salomão, querendo agradar suas muitas esposas estrangeiras, contaminou a cidade com a adoração de deuses falsos. (1 Reis 11:1-8) E alguns dos reis depois dele fizeram ainda pior, já que espalharam a adoração falsa por todo o país. Como Jeová se sentiu com toda essa traição e prostituição espiritual? Ele disse: “Essas coisas não deveriam ocorrer; jamais deveriam acontecer.” (Eze. 16:16) Mas o povo rebelde se afundou ainda mais no pecado.

[13] Imagine a dor e a indignação de Jeová ao ver a maldade do seu povo escolhido. Ele disse: “Você pegou os filhos e as filhas que havia gerado para mim e

12. Como a deslealdade aos poucos tomou conta de Jerusalém?

13. Que grande maldade o povo de Deus em Jerusalém tinha cometido?

os sacrificou a imagens para que fossem consumidos — não bastavam os seus atos de prostituição? Você matou os meus filhos e os ofereceu como sacrifício, queimando-os no fogo." (Eze. 16:20, 21) Essas coisas horríveis que os israelitas faziam mostram como Satanás é cruel. Ele tem prazer em fazer o povo de Jeová se envolver com todo tipo de coisas detestáveis. Mas Jeová vê tudo. Não há nenhuma crueldade de Satanás que Jeová não possa desfazer, e Ele vai fazer justiça. — Leia Jó 34:24.

14 Jerusalém devia ter ficado chocada com sua maldade, mas não ficou. Ela continuou na sua prostituição. Jeová disse que ela era pior do que as outras prostitutas, visto que pagava para outros cometerem imoralidade com ela. (Eze. 16:34) Deus disse que Jerusalém era igual à "mãe" dela — as tribos que tinham morado naquela terra e que adoravam deuses falsos. (Eze. 16:44, 45) Ainda usando a ilustração sobre família, Jeová disse que a irmã mais velha de Jerusalém era Samaria, que tinha cometido prostituição espiritual antes dela. Deus também falou de uma segunda irmã, So-doma, que é mencionada porque tinha sido destruída por causa da sua arrogância e descarada imoralidade. Jeová queria dizer que, quanto à maldade, Jerusalém era pior do que Samaria e até Sodoma, suas duas irmãs. (Eze. 16:46-50) O povo de Deus se recusou a ouvir inúmeros avisos e continuou a agir de modo detestável.

14. Na ilustração que Jeová fez, quem eram as duas irmãs de Jerusalém, e qual das três foi a pior?

[15] O que Jeová ia fazer? Ele disse a Jerusalém: "Vou reunir todos os seus amantes, aos quais você dava prazer", e "vou entregá-la nas mãos deles". Os anteriores aliados do povo de Deus iam destruí-la, arrancando dela sua beleza e riquezas. Jeová disse que 'eles a apedrejariam e a matariam com as espadas' deles. Qual era o objetivo de Jeová com esse julgamento? Não era acabar com o seu povo. Em vez disso, era 'pôr fim à prostituição deles'. Jeová disse: "Saciarei meu furor contra você, e minha indignação se desviará de você; vou me acalmar e não me sentirei mais ofendido." Como vimos no capítulo 9 deste livro, o propósito de Jeová a longo prazo era restaurar a adoração pura entre o seu povo depois do exílio. Por quê? Ele disse: "Eu me lembrarei

15. (a) Qual era o objetivo de Jeová com o julgamento contra Jerusalém? (b) Que esperança Jeová deu?

DUAS IRMÃS PROSTITUTAS

VEJA OS PARÁGRAFOS 16 E 17.

Em Ezequiel 23, encontramos fortes condenações contra o povo de Deus por causa da infidelidade deles. Esse capítulo é muito parecido com o capítulo 16. Os dois comparam a infidelidade do povo de Deus à prostituição. Jerusalém é descrita como a irmã mais nova; e Samaria, a mais velha. Eles também mostram como a irmã mais nova se tornou prostituta igual à mais velha, só que a mais nova acabou ficando pior em relação à maldade e à imoralidade. No capítulo 23, Jeová dá nome às duas irmãs: Oolá é a mais velha, Samaria (capital do reino de Israel, de dez tribos); Oolibá é a mais nova, Jerusalém (capital do reino de Judá).*[a] — Eze. 23:1-4.

Os dois capítulos têm outros pontos em comum. Os mais destacados talvez sejam os seguintes: As mulheres começam como esposas de Jeová, mas depois são infiéis e se tornam prostitutas. E há uma promessa de esperança. No capítulo 23, a esperança de perdão não é tão clara como no capítulo 16, mas nos dois capítulos Jeová promete que ‘poria fim à prostituição’ do seu povo. — Eze. 16:16, 20, 21, 37, 38, 41, 42; 23:4, 11, 22, 23, 27, 37.

*[a] Os nomes não foram escolhidos à toa. Oolá significa “tenda [de adoração] dela”. Pelo visto isso é uma referência ao que Israel fez: o povo estabeleceu seus próprios centros de adoração em vez de usar o templo em Jerusalém. Já Oolibá significa “minha tenda [de adoração] está nela”; Jerusalém era onde ficava o templo de Jeová.

Será que elas representam a cristandade?

No passado, nossas publicações diziam que essas duas irmãs, Oolá e Oolibá, representavam a cristandade, em especial suas duas principais divisões: a religião católica e a protestante. Mas depois de um estudo mais cuidadoso, feito com oração, surgiram perguntas que deram o que pensar. Alguma vez a cristandade foi comparada à esposa de Jeová? Será que Jeová fez algum pacto com ela? Claro que não. A cristandade nem existia quando Jesus atuou como mediador do "novo pacto" com o Israel espiritual, e ela nunca fez parte da nação espiritual de cristãos ungidos. (Jer. 31:31; Luc. 22:20) A cristandade só passou a existir bem depois da morte dos apóstolos, especificamente nos anos 300 d.C. Essa organização apóstata, formada por cristãos de imitação, é o "joio" da profecia sobre o trigo e o joio feita por Jesus. — Mat. 13:24-30.

Outra diferença: Jeová deu às infiéis Jerusalém e Samaria a esperança de voltarem a ter o seu favor. (Eze. 16:41, 42, 53-55) Será que a cristandade tem essa esperança? Não! Ela não tem nenhuma esperança, assim como o resto de Babilônia, a Grande.

Assim, Oolá e Oolibá não representam a cristandade. Mas elas nos ajudam a entender algo muito importante: como Jeová se sente com aqueles que desonram seu santo nome e rebaixam seus padrões para adoração pura. A cristandade tem grande parcela de culpa nessa questão porque suas inúmeras igrejas dizem representar o Deus da Bíblia. Além disso, elas dizem que Jesus Cristo, o Filho amado de Jeová, é o seu líder. Mas suas ações contradizem isso. Elas dizem que Jesus é parte de uma trindade e desobedecem à ordem clara dele de não fazer “parte do mundo”. (João 15:19) A cristandade se envolve na política e pratica idolatria, provando assim que é parte de Babilônia, a Grande. Com certeza a cristandade merece ter o mesmo fim que a “grande prostituta”. — Apo. 17:1.

do pacto que fiz com você nos dias da sua juventude e estabelecerei com você um pacto permanente.” (Eze. 16:37-42, 60) Ao contrário do seu povo, Jeová ia ser totalmente leal. — Leia Apocalipse 15:4.

16 As palavras fortes de Jeová em Ezequiel 16 nos ensinam muito sobre seus padrões justos, seu senso de justiça e sua grande misericórdia. Pode-se dizer o mesmo de Ezequiel 23. Os cristãos verdadeiros hoje levam a sério a clara mensagem de Jeová sobre a prostituição espiritual do seu povo. Jamais queremos correr o risco de magoar a Jeová como Judá e Jerusalém magoaram. Queremos ficar longe de todo tipo de idolatria. Isso inclui ganância e materialismo, que podem ser formas de idolatria. (Mat. 6:24; Col. 3:5) Jeová foi muito misericordioso ao restaurar a adoração pura nestes últimos dias e ele não vai deixar que ela seja contaminada de novo. Queremos ser gratos por isso. Jeová fez um "pacto permanente" com o Israel espiritual, e esse pacto nunca vai ser quebrado por deslealdade ou prostituição espiritual. (Eze. 16:60) Assim, queremos dar valor ao privilégio de fazer parte do povo puro de Jeová hoje.

16, 17. (a) Que lições aprendemos de Ezequiel 16 e 23? (b) Por que não falamos mais que Oolá e Oolibá representam a cristandade? (Veja o quadro “Duas irmãs prostitutas”.)

17 Mas o que as palavras de Jeová contra as prostitutas descritas em Ezequiel nos ensinam sobre a "grande prostituta", Babilônia, a Grande? Vamos ver.

"Babilônia . . . nunca mais será achada"

18 Jeová não muda. (Tia. 1:17) O ódio que Jeová tem da religião falsa é o mesmo de quando ela começou a existir. Por isso, não ficamos admirados ao ver muitos pontos em comum entre o julgamento contra as prostitutas no livro de Ezequiel e o que vai acontecer com a "grande prostituta" descrita em Apocalipse.

19 Veja, por exemplo, que a punição contra as prostitutas descritas em Ezequiel não veio diretamente de Jeová. Essa punição veio de várias nações, as mesmas nações com as quais o povo infiel de Deus tinha cometido imoralidade espiritual. Da mesma forma, a religião falsa é condenada por cometer imoralidade com "os reis da terra". E de quem vai vir a punição dela? A Bíblia diz que esses mesmos poderes políticos "odiarão a prostituta; eles a deixarão devastada e nua, comerão a sua carne e a queimarão completamente no fogo". Por que os governos deste mundo vão agir dessa forma inesperada? Porque Deus vai pôr "no coração deles o desejo de executarem o pensamento dele". — Apo. 17:1-3, 15-17.

18, 19. Que pontos em comum observamos entre as prostitutas descritas em Ezequiel e a prostituta descrita em Apocalipse?

[20] Assim, Jeová vai usar as nações deste mundo para executar seu julgamento contra a religião falsa, incluindo as muitas religiões da cristandade. Seu julgamento vai ser definitivo; a religião falsa não vai ser perdoada nem vai ter mais chance de mudar seu modo de agir. Apocalipse mostra que Babilônia "nunca mais será achada". (Apo. 18:21) Os anjos vão se alegrar com a destruição dela, dizendo: "Louvem a Jah! A fumaça dela continuará subindo para todo o sempre." (Apo. 19:3) Essa condenação vai durar por toda a eternidade.

20. O que mostra que o julgamento contra Babilônia, a Grande, vai ser definitivo?

Nunca mais a religião falsa vai voltar a existir e contaminar a adoração pura. O julgamento de Babilônia vai ser como um fogo arrasador, e a "fumaça" da sua destruição nunca vai deixar de existir.

[21] Quando os governos deste mundo se voltarem contra Babilônia, a Grande, eles estarão executando o julgamento de Deus. Esse é um acontecimento importante no cumprimento do propósito de Jeová. Vai marcar o início da grande tribulação, um tempo em que haverá dificuldades como nunca antes. (Mat. 24:21) No final da grande tribulação vai acontecer o Armagedom, a guerra de Jeová contra este perverso sistema de coisas. (Apo. 16:14, 16) Como os próximos capítulos deste livro vão mostrar, o livro de Ezequiel nos ensina muita coisa sobre a grande tribulação. Mas que lições de Ezequiel 16 e 23 aprendemos e queremos aplicar?

[22] Satanás tem prazer em desviar os servos de Jeová para que não adorem a Deus de modo puro. O seu objetivo é nos fazer abandonar a adoração pura e nos fazer agir como as prostitutas do livro de Ezequiel.

---

21. A destruição da religião falsa vai marcar o início de que período, e como esse período vai acabar?

22, 23. Como o estudo sobre as prostitutas descritas em Ezequiel e em Apocalipse deve afetar nossa adoração a Jeová?

Precisamos lembrar que Jeová não tolera nenhuma infidelidade em nossa adoração; temos que ser leais somente a ele. (Núm. 25:11) Fazemos o máximo para não ter nada a ver com a religião falsa, para 'não tocar em nada impuro' aos olhos de Jeová. (Isa. 52:11) Por esse motivo nós também nos mantemos neutros nos assuntos políticos deste mundo desunido. (João 15:19) Para nós, o nacionalismo é só mais uma religião falsa criada por Satanás, e não queremos ter nada a ver com isso.

[23] Acima de tudo, precisamos ter em mente que adorar a Jeová de modo puro e limpo no seu templo espiritual é um grande privilégio. Queremos dar valor a isso e estar determinados a não ter nada a ver com a religião falsa e sua prostituição!

SEU LUGAR NA ADORAÇÃO PURA

1 Por que faz sentido comparar a religião falsa com uma prostituta?

2 O que o relato sobre as prostitutas em Ezequiel 16 e 23 nos ensina sobre o que Jeová pensa da religião falsa?

3 O que vai acontecer com a religião falsa, e o que devemos fazer agora?

16 “MARQUE COM UM SINAL A TESTA DOS HOMENS”

PONTO PRINCIPAL: EZEQUIEL 9:4

Como os fiéis nos dias de Ezequiel foram marcados para sobreviver e o que essa marca significa em nossos dias

EZEQUIEL está sem palavras! Ele acaba de ter uma visão das coisas detestáveis que os judeus apóstatas estão fazendo no templo em Jerusalém.*[1] Aqueles rebeldes estão contaminando o centro da adoração pura em Israel. Mas eles não param por aí. A terra de Judá está tão cheia de violência que a situação não tem mais conserto. Bastante ofendido com o que seu povo está fazendo, Jeová diz para Ezequiel: “Agirei com furor.” — Eze. 8:17, 18.

[2] Ezequiel fica triste ao saber que o templo — que já foi um local tão sagrado — e Jerusalém vão sofrer a ira de Jeová e ser destruídos. Ezequiel talvez se

*[1] A visão de Ezequiel sobre as coisas detestáveis que estavam acontecendo no templo foi analisada no capítulo 5 deste livro.

1-3. (a) Por que Ezequiel fica sem palavras, e o que ele descobre sobre a destruição de Jerusalém? (b) O que vamos estudar?

pergunte: ‘E os fiéis que estiverem na cidade? Será que vão ser salvos? E, se forem salvos, como isso vai acontecer?’ Ezequiel logo descobre a resposta. Depois de ouvir a terrível condenação de Jerusalém, ele escuta uma alta voz convocando os que vão executar o julgamento de Jeová. (Eze. 9:1) Mas Ezequiel fica aliviado de saber que os justos não vão ser destruídos junto com os maus. Eles vão ser salvos!

[3] Sabemos que o fim deste sistema perverso está próximo, e pode ser que nos perguntemos quem vai sobreviver à grande destruição. Por isso, vamos estudar: (1) O que mais acontece na visão de Ezequiel? (2) Como essa visão se cumpriu lá naquele tempo? (3) O que essa visão significa para nós hoje?

“Convoquem os que trarão punição”

[4] O que mais Ezequiel viu e ouviu na visão? (Leia Ezequiel 9:1-11.) Ele viu um grupo de homens “vindo da direção do portão superior que dá para o norte”, talvez perto do símbolo do ciúme ou de onde as mulheres estavam chorando pelo deus Tamuz. (Eze. 8:3, 14) Era um grupo de sete homens. Eles entraram no

---

4. O que mais Ezequiel viu e ouviu na visão?

pátio interno do templo e ficaram junto ao altar de cobre para sacrifícios. Mas eles não estavam ali para oferecer sacrifícios. Jeová não ia mais aceitar os sacrifícios oferecidos naquele templo. Seis dos homens tinham uma “arma esmagadora na mão”. O sétimo era diferente dos outros. Esse homem estava vestido de linho e, em vez de uma arma, ele tinha “um tinteiro de secretário”.

[5] O que o homem com o tinteiro tinha que fazer? Jeová deu para ele uma designação importante: “Percorra a cidade, percorra Jerusalém, e marque com um sinal a testa dos homens que suspiram e gemem por causa de todas as coisas detestáveis que estão sendo feitas na cidade.” Ao ouvir isso, Ezequiel talvez tenha se lembrado de quando os israelitas fiéis passaram sangue em volta das portas quando estavam no Egito. O sangue era um sinal de que seus primogênitos não deviam ser mortos. (Êxo. 12:7, 22, 23) Será que na visão de Ezequiel a marca na testa feita pelo homem com o tinteiro tinha um objetivo parecido? Ou seja, será que era um sinal de que a pessoa ia sobreviver à destruição de Jerusalém?

5, 6. O que aprendemos sobre os que foram marcados?

[6] A resposta fica clara quando pensamos em quem devia ser marcado: os que 'suspiravam e gemiam' por causa de todas as coisas detestáveis que 'estavam sendo feitas na cidade'. O que isso nos ensina sobre os que foram marcados? Aprendemos que eles estavam profundamente tristes não só por causa da idolatria que havia no templo, mas também por causa da violência, imoralidade e corrupção que tomavam conta de Jerusalém. (Eze. 22:9-12) Além disso, é provável que eles não escondessem o que pensavam de toda aquela maldade. Suas palavras e ações sem dúvida mostravam que eles faziam a vontade de Jeová e que detestavam tudo o que estava acontecendo no país. Por ser misericordioso, Jeová ia salvar aquelas pessoas de coração sincero.

[7] Então como os seis homens com as armas esmagadoras deviam cumprir sua missão? Ezequiel ouviu as instruções de Jeová: Eles tinham que seguir o homem com o tinteiro e destruir a todos, menos os que tivessem sido marcados na testa. Jeová disse ainda: "Vocês devem começar pelo meu santuário." (Eze.

7, 8. (a) Como os homens com as armas esmagadoras deviam cumprir sua missão? (b) Qual foi o resultado?

9:6) Aqueles homens tinham que começar sua missão no coração de Jerusalém, o templo, que não era mais um local sagrado para Jeová. Os primeiros a serem mortos deviam ser os "anciãos que estavam na frente da casa", ou seja, os 70 anciãos de Israel que estavam no templo oferecendo incenso a deuses falsos. — Eze. 8:11, 12; 9:6.

[8] Qual foi o resultado? Na continuação da visão, Ezequiel viu o homem com o tinteiro dizer a Jeová: "Fiz exatamente como me ordenaste." (Eze. 9:11) O que será que aconteceu com os habitantes de Jerusalém? Será que algum fiel sobreviveu à destruição? Vamos descobrir.

Como a visão se cumpriu nos dias de Ezequiel?

[9] Leia 2 Crônicas 36:17-20. A profecia de Ezequiel se cumpriu em 607 a.C., quando o exército de Babilônia destruiu Jerusalém e o templo. Como um 'cálice na sua mão', Jeová usou os babilônios para punir a infiel Jerusalém, fazendo a cidade beber do seu furor. (Jer. 51:7) Será que todas as pessoas foram

9, 10. Quais foram alguns dos fiéis que sobreviveram à destruição de Jerusalém, e o que podemos concluir sobre eles?

JERUSALÉM REPRESENTA A CRISTANDADE?

VEJA OS PARÁGRAFOS 12 E 13.

No passado, nossas publicações diziam que a apóstata Jerusalém representava a cristandade. As coisas erradas que a infiel Jerusalém fazia, incluindo idolatria e corrupção moral, com certeza nos lembram do que acontece na cristandade. Mas nos últimos anos nossas publicações, incluindo este livro, não têm mais usado tipos e antítipos para explicar profecias da Bíblia, a menos que a própria Bíblia faça isso. Será que temos base bíblica para dizer que Jerusalém representa a cristandade? Não.

Analise o seguinte: Durante um tempo, Jerusalém foi o centro da adoração pura; mais tarde, seus habitantes se tornaram apóstatas. Mas a cristandade nunca adorou a Deus de modo puro. Desde que começou a existir, nos anos 300 d.C., a cristandade sempre ensinou coisas erradas.

Além disso, anos depois de Jerusalém ter sido destruída pelos babilônios, a cidade voltou a ter o favor de Jeová e a ser o centro da adoração verdadeira. Já a cristandade nunca teve o favor de Deus. E, quando for destruída na grande tribulação, ela nunca mais vai voltar a existir.

Então, o que podemos concluir? Quando estudamos as profecias da Bíblia que se cumpriram na infiel Jerusalém, pode acontecer de encontrarmos pontos em comum com o que acontece na cristandade hoje. Mas parece que não há base bíblica para dizer que Jerusalém representa a cristandade.

destruídas? Não. A visão de Ezequiel tinha predito que alguns não seriam mortos pelos babilônios. — Gên. 18:22-33; 2 Ped. 2:9.

[10] Alguns fiéis sobreviveram, incluindo os recabitas, o etíope Ebede-Meleque, o profeta Jeremias e o secretário dele, Baruque. (Jer. 35:1-19; 39:15-18; 45:1-5) Analisando a visão de Ezequiel, podemos concluir que eles estavam 'suspirando e gemendo por causa de todas as coisas detestáveis' que estavam acontecendo em Jerusalém. (Eze. 9:4) Tudo indica que, antes da destruição, eles mostraram que serviam somente a Jeová e que detestavam toda aquela maldade. Assim eles puderam ser salvos.

[11] Será que aqueles fiéis receberam mesmo uma marca na testa? Não há nada na Bíblia que indique que Ezequiel ou algum outro profeta tenha percorrido Jerusalém e marcado a testa dos fiéis. Pelo

11. O homem com o tinteiro de secretário e os seis homens com as armas esmagadoras representavam a quem?

visto, a visão de Ezequiel revela o que os anjos estavam fazendo — o que, portanto, era invisível para os humanos. O homem com o tinteiro de secretário e os seis homens com as armas esmagadoras representavam as criaturas espirituais de Jeová, que estão sempre prontas para fazer a vontade Dele. (Sal. 103:20, 21) Sem dúvida, Jeová usou os anjos para punir a infiel Jerusalém. Como que colocando uma marca na testa dos que iam ser salvos, os anjos garantiram que os justos não fossem destruídos junto com os infiéis.

O que a visão de Ezequiel significa em nossos dias?

[12] Em breve vamos ver um julgamento da parte de Deus nunca visto antes: a "grande tribulação, como nunca ocorreu desde o princípio do mundo até agora, não, nem ocorrerá de novo". (Mat. 24:21) Mas surgem algumas perguntas: Será que alguém vai sobreviver à futura destruição? Será que os que adoram a Jeová vão de alguma forma ser marcados para sobreviver? Em outras palavras, será que a visão do homem

---

12, 13. (a) Por que Jeová derramou o seu furor sobre Jerusalém, e por que é natural esperar que ele tenha a mesma reação hoje? (b) Será que a infiel Jerusalém representa a cristandade? Por quê? (Veja o quadro "Jerusalém representa a cristandade?".)

com o tinteiro tem um cumprimento em nossos dias? A resposta a essas três perguntas é sim. Por que dizemos isso? Para descobrir, vamos voltar à visão de Ezequiel.

[13] Lembra por que Jeová derramou o seu furor sobre a antiga Jerusalém? Veja novamente Ezequiel 9:8, 9. (Leia.) Ezequiel temia que a destruição acabasse com 'todos os que restavam de Israel'. Assim, Jeová citou quatro motivos para trazer a destruição. Primeiro, "o erro" da nação era "muito, muito grande".*[2] Segundo, a terra de Judá estava 'cheia de derramamento de sangue'. Terceiro, Jerusalém, a capital do reino de Judá, estava "cheia de corrupção". Quarto, o povo dava desculpas para justificar seus erros, achando que Jeová 'não estava vendo' as coisas erradas que eles faziam. Essas palavras se aplicam muito bem ao mundo hoje, onde a maioria das pessoas têm uma péssima moral, são violentas, corruptas e sem fé. Jeová "não muda", então aquilo que provocou sua ira nos dias de Ezequiel

*[2] Certa obra de referência diz que a palavra hebraica traduzida "erro" pode transmitir a ideia de "perversidade". Outra obra de referência diz que essa palavra "tem um forte significado religioso, e quase sempre é usada para indicar culpa em sentido moral ou maldade diante de Deus".

com certeza provoca sua ira hoje. (Tia. 1:17; Mal. 3:6) Sendo assim, faz sentido dizer que os seis homens com as armas esmagadoras e o homem com o tinteiro vão ter um trabalho a fazer em nossos dias.

[14] Então como a visão de Ezequiel se cumpre em nossos dias? Se observarmos como a visão se cumpriu no passado, poderemos saber o que vai acontecer agora e no futuro. Vamos ver como a profecia de Ezequiel já está se cumprindo em alguns aspectos e como ainda vai se cumprir.

[15] Jeová avisa antes de trazer destruição. Como vimos no capítulo 11 deste livro, Jeová designou Ezequiel "como vigia para a casa de Israel". (Eze. 3:17-19) A partir de 613 a.C., Ezequiel avisou Israel sobre a destruição que se aproximava. Outros profetas, como Isaías e Jeremias, também avisaram sobre a destruição de Jerusalém. (Isa. 39:6, 7; Jer. 25:8, 9, 11) Hoje, Jeová está avisando as pessoas sobre a grande tribulação que vai acontecer em breve. Para isso ele usa, por meio de Cristo, um pequeno grupo de cristãos ungidos. Além de dar o aviso, esse grupo produz alimento espiritual para os domésticos, ou seja, todos os que adoram a Deus de modo puro. — Mat. 24:45.

---

14, 15. Que exemplos mostram que Jeová avisa as pessoas antes de trazer destruição?

[16] O povo de Jeová não marca os que vão sobreviver. Lembre-se que Jeová não disse para Ezequiel percorrer Jerusalém e marcar as pessoas que iam sobreviver. Da mesma forma hoje, Jeová não designou seu povo para marcar os que vão sobreviver. Em vez disso, nós, os domésticos, temos a designação de pregar. Mostramos que levamos essa designação a sério por fazermos o máximo para pregar as boas novas do Reino e para avisar as pessoas que o fim deste sistema perverso está bem próximo. (Mat. 24:14; 28:18-20) Assim, nós ajudamos as pessoas de coração sincero a adorar a Jeová de modo puro. — 1 Tim. 4:16.

[17] Para sobreviverem à futura destruição, as pessoas precisam provar agora que têm fé. Como já vimos, os que sobreviveram à destruição de Jerusalém em 607 a.C. mostraram, antes da destruição, que adoravam a Jeová de modo puro e que rejeitavam a

---

16. Será que nós, como povo de Jeová, vamos marcar os que vão sobreviver? Por quê?

17. O que as pessoas precisam fazer agora para sobreviverem à futura destruição?

maldade. Hoje não é diferente. Antes de a destruição acontecer, as pessoas precisam mostrar que estão profundamente tristes, 'suspirando e gemendo', por causa da maldade deste mundo. E, em vez de esconderem o que pensam deste mundo mau, elas têm que mostrar por palavras e ações que adoram a Jeová de modo puro. Como podem fazer isso? Elas precisam aceitar a pregação das boas novas, começar a desenvolver a personalidade cristã, se dedicar a Jeová e se batizar, e lealmente apoiar os irmãos de Cristo. (Eze. 9:4; Mat. 25:34-40; Efé. 4:22-24; 1 Ped. 3:21) Apenas os que vivem de acordo com a vontade de Deus agora, e que no começo da grande tribulação estiverem adorando a Jeová de modo puro, vão ser marcados para sobreviver.

[18] Jesus vai marcar os que merecem ser salvos. Nos dias de Ezequiel, os anjos tiveram uma participação em marcar os fiéis para sobreviver. No cumprimento em nossos dias, o homem com o tinteiro de secretário representa Jesus Cristo quando ele "vier na sua

18. (a) Como e quando Jesus Cristo vai marcar os que merecem ser salvos? (b) Por que os ungidos não vão precisar ser marcados para sobreviver ao Armagedom?

SUSPIRAR E GEMER, MARCAR, ESMAGAR QUANDO E COMO?

VEJA OS PARÁGRAFOS 17-19.

A visão registrada em Ezequiel, capítulo 9, tem um cumprimento em nossos dias. Entender como as coisas vão acontecer neste tempo do fim vai nos ajudar a enfrentar o fim deste sistema com confiança.

"Suspirar e gemer"

QUANDO: Nos últimos dias, antes da grande tribulação.

COMO: Pessoas de coração sincero mostram por palavras e ações que detestam a maldade deste mundo. Elas aceitam a pregação das boas novas, desenvolvem a personalidade cristã, se dedicam a Jeová e se batizam, e lealmente apoiam os irmãos de Cristo.

"Marcar"

QUANDO: Durante a grande tribulação.

COMO: O homem com o tinteiro de secretário representa Jesus Cristo quando ele vier para julgar todas as nações. Os da grande multidão vão ser julgados (ou marcados) como ovelhas, o que mostra que vão sobreviver ao Armagedom.

"Esmagar"

QUANDO: No Armagedom.

COMO: Jesus Cristo vai comandar seu exército celestial (os anjos e os 144 mil) para destruir por completo este mundo mau e levar os verdadeiros adoradores para um novo mundo justo.

glória” para julgar todas as nações. (Mat. 25:31-33) A vinda de Jesus vai acontecer durante a grande tribulação, depois da destruição da religião falsa.*[3] Naquele momento importante, imediatamente antes de o Armagedom começar, Jesus vai julgar as pessoas como ovelhas ou cabritos. Os da “grande multidão” vão ser julgados (ou marcados) como ovelhas, o que mostra que “partirão . . . para a vida eterna”. (Apo. 7:9-14; Mat. 25:34-40, 46) Já os ungidos não vão precisar ser marcados para sobreviver ao Armagedom. Eles vão receber sua selagem final, ou seja, sua aprovação final, antes de morrerem ou antes do começo da grande tribulação. Daí, em algum momento antes de o Armagedom começar, os ungidos que ainda estiverem na Terra vão receber sua recompensa no céu. — Apo. 7:1-3.

[19] O Rei Jesus Cristo e seu exército celestial vão destruir este sistema de coisas. Na visão de Ezequiel, os

*[3] Pelo visto, a destruição de Babilônia, a Grande, não significa que todos os membros da religião falsa vão morrer. Naquela ocasião, até alguns líderes religiosos talvez abandonem a religião falsa e digam que nunca fizeram parte dela. — Zac. 13:3-6.

19. Quem vai destruir este sistema de coisas? (Veja o quadro “Suspirar e gemer, marcar, esmagar — Quando e como?”.)

seis homens com as armas esmagadoras só começaram a destruir os maus depois que o homem com o tinteiro terminou seu trabalho. (Eze. 9:4-7) Da mesma forma, a futura destruição só vai começar depois que Jesus julgar pessoas de todas as nações e marcar as ovelhas para serem salvas. Daí, durante a guerra do Armagedom, Jesus vai comandar seu exército celestial (os anjos e os 144 mil) para destruir por completo este mundo mau e levar os verdadeiros adoradores para um novo mundo justo. — Apo. 16:14-16; 19:11-21.

[20] A visão de Ezequiel do homem com o tinteiro de secretário com certeza fortalece nossa fé, e somos muito gratos a Jeová por isso. Podemos ter total confiança de que Jeová não vai destruir os justos junto com os maus. (Sal. 97:10) Sabemos o que temos que fazer para no futuro sermos marcados para sobreviver. Nós adoramos a Jeová e estamos decididos a fazer o nosso máximo para pregar as boas novas e avisar os que suspiram e gemem por causa da maldade do mundo de Satanás. Assim, podemos ter o

---

20. O que aprendemos da visão de Ezequiel que estudamos neste capítulo?

privilégio de ajudar os que têm "a disposição correta para com a vida eterna" a adorar a Jeová de modo puro. Dessa forma, eles poderão ser marcados para sobreviver e entrar no novo mundo de Deus. — Atos 13:48.

SEU LUGAR NA ADORAÇÃO PURA

1 Como a visão de Ezequiel do homem com o tinteiro de secretário destaca a misericórdia de Jeová?

2 O que você tem que fazer agora para no futuro ser marcado para sobreviver?

3 Depois de estudar a visão de Ezequiel do homem com o tinteiro, o que você está decidido a fazer?

17 "EU ESTOU CONTRA VOCÊ, Ó GOGUE"

PONTO PRINCIPAL: Quem é "Gogue" e qual é "a terra" que ele invade

EZEQUIEL 38:3

JÁ POR milhares de anos, a Terra tem ficado manchada com o sangue dos que morrem nas guerras humanas. Isso inclui o banho de sangue que marcou as duas guerras mundiais que aconteceram nos anos 1900. Mas a maior guerra de todas ainda está por vir. Só que não vai ser simplesmente uma guerra entre nações lutando umas contra as outras por motivos egoístas. Em vez disso, vai ser "a guerra do grande dia de Deus, o Todo-Poderoso". (Apo. 16:14) Como essa guerra vai começar? Um inimigo vai invadir uma terra preciosa para Deus. Por causa disso, o Soberano Senhor Jeová vai usar seu grande poder para trazer uma destruição nunca vista antes.

[2] Isso levanta algumas perguntas: Quem é esse

1, 2. (a) Que grande guerra vai acontecer em breve? (b) Que perguntas vamos começar a responder agora?

inimigo? Que terra ele invade? Quando, por que e como ele vai invadir essa terra? Visto que esses eventos têm a ver com todos nós, que servimos a Jeová, precisamos saber as respostas. Para isso, vamos estudar a impressionante profecia registrada em Ezequiel, capítulos 38 e 39.

O inimigo — Gogue de Magogue

[3] Leia Ezequiel 38:1, 2, 8, 16, 18; 39:4, 11. Os pontos principais da profecia são: "Na parte final dos dias", um inimigo chamado "Gogue . . . de Magogue" invade "a terra" do povo de Deus. Esse ataque cruel faz o "grande furor" de Jeová se acender; Jeová então toma ação e derrota Gogue.*[1] Depois de vencer, Jeová entrega o seu inimigo e todos os que estão do lado dele "como alimento a todo tipo de aves de rapina e aos animais selvagens". Por fim, Jeová dá a Gogue "uma sepultura". Para entender como essa profecia vai se cumprir em breve, precisamos primeiro saber quem é Gogue.

*[1] No próximo capítulo deste livro, vamos ver como e quando o grande furor de Jeová vai se acender contra Gogue de Magogue e o que isso vai significar para os servos de Jeová.

3. Quais os pontos principais da profecia sobre Gogue de Magogue?

[4] Então quem é Gogue de Magogue? Pela descrição de Ezequiel, podemos concluir que Gogue é um inimigo dos servos de Deus. Será que Gogue é outro nome para Satanás, o maior inimigo da adoração pura? Por décadas, nossas publicações disseram isso. Mas um estudo mais profundo mostrou que era preciso ajustar nosso entendimento. A Sentinela explicou que o título Gogue de Magogue não se refere a uma criatura espiritual invisível, mas a um inimigo humano: uma coalizão, ou grupo, de nações que vai lutar contra a adoração pura.*[2] Antes de estudarmos por que podemos dizer isso, vamos ver duas coisas na profecia de Ezequiel que indicam que Gogue não é uma criatura espiritual.

[5] "Eu o darei como alimento a todo tipo de aves de rapina." (Eze. 39:4) Para avisar sobre um julgamento de Deus, a Bíblia muitas vezes fala de aves de rapina devorando cadáveres. Jeová deu avisos desse tipo tanto

---

*[2] Veja "Perguntas dos Leitores" em A Sentinela de 15 de maio de 2015, páginas 29 e 30.

---

4. O que podemos concluir sobre Gogue de Magogue?

5, 6. Na profecia de Ezequiel, o que indica que Gogue de Magogue não é uma criatura espiritual?

para a nação de Israel como para outras nações. (Deut. 28:26; Jer. 7:33; Eze. 29:3, 5) Note que esses avisos não foram dados para criaturas espirituais, mas para humanos de carne e osso. Afinal, aves de rapina e animais selvagens comem carne, não espírito. Assim, o aviso de Deus na profecia de Ezequiel indica que Gogue não é uma criatura espiritual.

[6] "Darei a Gogue uma sepultura . . . em Israel." (Eze. 39:11) A Bíblia não fala de criaturas espirituais sendo enterradas. Em vez disso, Satanás e os demônios vão ficar presos no abismo por mil anos e depois vão ser lançados no lago de fogo, o que significa a destruição eterna deles. (Luc. 8:31; Apo. 20:1-3, 10) Visto que a Bíblia diz que Gogue recebe "uma sepultura" aqui na Terra, podemos concluir que ele não é uma criatura espiritual.

[7] Se não é uma criatura espiritual, então quem ou o que é Gogue, o inimigo que vai fazer o ataque final contra o povo de Deus? Vamos ver duas profecias da Bíblia que nos ajudam a descobrir isso.

7, 8. Como o fim do "rei do norte" é parecido com o fim de Gogue de Magogue?

[8] “O rei do norte.”* (Leia Daniel 11:40-45.) Daniel predisse o aparecimento de potências mundiais ao longo da história humana. Uma dessas profecias fala de dois inimigos políticos: “o rei do sul” e “o rei do norte”. Quem esses reis representam? Bem, isso foi mudando ao longo da história humana, conforme as nações foram lutando para ganhar poder. Sobre o último ataque do rei do norte “no tempo do fim”, Daniel disse: “Ele sairá com grande furor para aniquilar e entregar muitos à destruição.” O alvo principal do rei do norte são os servos de Jeová.*[3] Mas, assim como Gogue de Magogue, o rei do norte vai ‘chegar ao seu fim’ depois que seu ataque contra o povo de Deus falhar.

[9] Os “reis de toda a terra habitada”.* (Leia Apocalipse 16:14, 16; 17:14; 19:19, 20.) O livro de Apocalipse diz que “os reis da terra” vão atacar o “Rei dos reis”, Jesus. Mas, como não é possível atingir Jesus já que ele está no céu, os rebeldes vão atacar os que apoiam o

*[3] Daniel 11:45 indica que o alvo do rei do norte vai ser o povo de Deus, já que diz que esse rei “armará suas tendas reais entre o grande mar [Mediterrâneo] e o monte santo da Terra Gloriosa [onde um dia ficou o templo de Deus e onde o povo de Deus prestava adoração]”.

9. Como o que acontece com Gogue de Magogue é parecido com o que acontece com os “reis de toda a terra habitada”?

Reino de Deus na Terra. Só que, no Armagedom, os reis da Terra vão perder a batalha. Observe que eles chegam ao seu fim depois de atacar o povo de Jeová. Isso é parecido com o que a Bíblia diz sobre Gogue de Magogue.*[4]

[10] Assim, o que podemos concluir sobre quem é Gogue? Primeiro, Gogue não é uma criatura espiritual. Segundo, Gogue se refere às nações que vão atacar o povo de Deus no futuro. É muito provável que essas nações se unam e formem uma coalizão, ou grupo, de nações. Por quê? Visto que o povo de Deus está em toda a Terra, as nações vão ter que estar unidas para fazer esse ataque. (Mat. 24:9) Mas é claro que, apesar de serem as nações que vão atacar, é Satanás quem vai estar por trás disso. Já faz muito tempo que ele vem influenciando as nações a lutarem contra a adoração verdadeira. (1 João 5:19; Apo. 12:17) Mas a profecia de Ezequiel sobre Gogue de

*[4] A Bíblia também diz que os servos de Deus vão ser atacados pelo "assírio", que vai tentar eliminar o povo de Deus. (Miq. 5:5) Os quatro ataques contra o povo de Deus preditos na Bíblia (o ataque de Gogue de Magogue, do rei do norte, dos reis da Terra e do assírio) provavelmente se referem ao mesmo ataque, mas com nomes diferentes.

10. O que podemos concluir sobre quem é Gogue de Magogue?

Magogue se concentra em como as nações vão atacar o povo de Jeová.*[5]

“A terra” — O que é?

[11] Como vimos no parágrafo 3, Gogue de Magogue vai provocar a ira de Jeová. Como? Por invadir uma terra preciosa para Jeová. Para descobrir o que é essa terra, vamos voltar à profecia de Ezequiel. (Leia Ezequiel 38:8-12.) Ela diz que Gogue vai ‘invadir a terra cujo povo foi restabelecido’ e “reunido dentre as nações”. Note também o que ela diz sobre os adoradores que moram nessa terra: Eles “moram em segurança”; “em povoados sem muralhas, trancas ou portões”; e eles estão “acumulando riquezas”. Todos os verdadeiros adoradores de Jeová moram nessa terra. Mas afinal o que é essa terra?

[12] Vale a pena analisarmos a restauração que aconteceu no antigo Israel, a terra onde o povo de Deus viveu, trabalhou e adorou a Jeová por centenas de anos. Quando os israelitas foram infiéis, Jeová usou

---

*__[5]__ Veja o capítulo 22 deste livro para saber quem é “Gogue e Magogue” mencionado em Apocalipse 20:7-9.

---

11. Como a profecia de Ezequiel descreve “a terra” que Gogue vai invadir?

12. Que restauração aconteceu na terra de Israel no passado?

Ezequiel para predizer que a terra deles seria destruída e ficaria abandonada. (Eze. 33:27-29) Mas Jeová também predisse que mais tarde pessoas arrependidas sairiam do exílio em Babilônia e voltariam para sua terra para restaurar a adoração pura. Com as bênçãos de Jeová, a terra de Israel seria transformada, se tornando "como o jardim do Éden". (Eze. 36:34-36) Essa restauração começou em 537 a.C., quando os judeus exilados voltaram para Jerusalém para restaurar a adoração pura.

[13] Nos nossos dias, os servos de Jeová viram uma restauração parecida. Como vimos no capítulo 9 deste livro, em 1919 o povo de Deus foi libertado do longo cativeiro de Babilônia, a Grande. Naquele ano, Jeová levou seus servos para uma terra espiritual. Essa terra é o paraíso espiritual, uma condição ou ambiente espiritual abençoado onde adoramos ao Deus verdadeiro. Nessa terra, nós moramos juntos em segurança e temos paz na mente e no coração. (Pro. 1:33) Recebemos muito alimento espiritual e temos bastante para fazer na pregação, o que nos dá muita alegria. De fato, sabemos por experiência própria como são verdadeiras as palavras de Provérbios 10:22: "É a bênção de Jeová que enriquece, e ele não acrescenta a ela nenhuma dor." Não importa em que lugar do planeta moremos, nós vivemos nessa terra — o paraíso espiritual — e podemos permanecer nela com uma condição: Por continuar a apoiar a adoração pura em palavras e ações.

13, 14. (a) O que é a terra espiritual? (b) Por que essa terra é preciosa para Jeová?

14 Essa terra espiritual é preciosa para Jeová. Por quê? Para ele, os que moram ali são "as coisas preciosas de todas as nações", pessoas que ele atraiu para a adoração pura. (Ageu 2:7; João 6:44) Essas pessoas se esforçam muito para ter a nova personalidade e imitar as belas qualidades de Deus. (Efé. 4:23, 24; 5:1, 2) Como servos de Jeová, elas se dedicam plenamente ao serviço dele, procurando maneiras de dar glória a Deus e demonstrar seu amor por ele. (Rom. 12:1, 2; 1 João 5:3) Como Jeová deve ficar feliz ao ver seus adoradores se esforçando para deixar a terra espiritual ainda mais bonita! Por colocar a adoração pura em primeiro lugar na vida, você não apenas deixa o paraíso espiritual mais bonito, mas também alegra o coração de Jeová. — Pro. 27:11.

Quando, por que e como Gogue vai invadir a terra?

[15] Saber que em breve uma coalizão, ou grupo, de nações vai invadir nossa preciosa terra espiritual dá o que pensar. Visto que esse ataque vai afetar todos os que adoram a Jeová, queremos saber mais sobre isso. As seguintes perguntas vão nos ajudar.

[16] Quando Gogue de Magogue vai invadir nossa terra espiritual? A profecia diz que Gogue vai atacar o povo de Deus "na parte final dos dias", o que dá a entender que isso vai acontecer perto do fim deste sistema. (Eze. 38:16) Lembre-se que a grande tribulação vai começar com a destruição de Babilônia, a Grande, ou a religião falsa. Depois que a religião falsa tiver sido destruída e antes de o Armagedom começar, o povo de Deus vai sofrer um ataque final em que Gogue vai usar todos os seus recursos para tentar nos eliminar.

[17] Por que Gogue vai invadir a terra espiritual dos servos de Jeová? A profecia de Ezequiel revela duas coisas que vão levar a isso: (1) Jeová vai guiar os assuntos e (2) a maldade de Gogue.

[18] Jeová vai guiar os assuntos. (Leia Ezequiel 38:4, 16.)

15, 16. Quando Gogue de Magogue vai invadir nossa terra espiritual?
17, 18. Como Jeová vai guiar os assuntos durante a grande tribulação?

Note o que Jeová diz para Gogue: "Porei ganchos nas suas mandíbulas" e "vou trazê-lo contra a minha terra". Será que isso significa que Jeová vai forçar as nações a atacar seus servos? Não! Ele jamais faria o que é mau contra o seu povo. (Jó 34:12) Mas Jeová conhece seus inimigos. Ele sabe que eles vão odiar os seus servos e não vão perder a chance de tentar destruí-los. (1 João 3:13) Como que colocando ganchos nas mandíbulas (ou na boca) de Gogue e o puxando para onde quiser, Jeová vai guiar os assuntos para que tudo aconteça de acordo com Sua vontade e no tempo que Ele determinou. Em algum momento depois da destruição de Babilônia, a Grande, é provável que Jeová de algum modo faça as nações realizarem o que elas já têm intenção de fazer: atacar o povo de Deus. Assim, Jeová vai criar as condições para o ataque que leva ao Armagedom, a maior guerra que o mundo já viu. Daí ele vai salvar seu povo, enaltecer sua soberania e santificar seu nome. — Eze. 38:23.

[19] A maldade de Gogue. As nações há muito tempo odeiam a adoração pura e vão planejar "uma trama perversa". Elas vão querer descontar toda a sua raiva

19. Por que Gogue vai tentar nos impedir de adorar a Jeová?

nos servos de Jeová, que vão parecer desprotegidos, como que morando "em povoados sem muralhas, trancas ou portões". As nações também vão querer "tomar muito despojo" daqueles que estão "acumulando riquezas". (Eze. 38:10-12) Que "riquezas"? O povo de Jeová tem uma grande riqueza espiritual; nosso bem mais precioso é a adoração pura. As nações vão querer tirar essa riqueza de nós, tentando nos impedir de adorar a Jeová. Elas farão isso, não porque acham que a adoração pura tem algum valor, mas porque têm ódio dela e de todos os que a praticam.

[20] Como Gogue vai invadir a terra, ou o paraíso, espiritual? As nações talvez tentem atrapalhar nossa rotina cristã e nos impedir de praticar nossa adoração. Para isso, pode ser que tentem interromper a produção de alimento espiritual, acabar com nossa união, e nos impedir de nos reunir e de pregar. Todas essas coisas fazem parte do paraíso espiritual. Influenciadas por Satanás, as nações vão tentar eliminar da Terra os adoradores verdadeiros e, junto com eles, a adoração pura.

---

20. Como Gogue vai invadir a terra, ou o paraíso, espiritual?

[21] O ataque de Gogue de Magogue vai afetar todos os servos de Jeová que moram na terra espiritual. Somos muito gratos por Jeová nos avisar sobre o que vai acontecer em breve! Enquanto aguardamos a grande tribulação, queremos estar decididos a apoiar a adoração pura e colocá-la em primeiro lugar na vida. Se fizermos isso, vamos deixar o paraíso espiritual ainda mais bonito. Além disso, poderemos ver algo incrível: como Jeová vai defender o seu povo e santificar o seu nome no Armagedom. O próximo capítulo vai falar sobre isso.

---

21. Por que você se sente grato por Jeová nos avisar sobre o que vai acontecer em breve?

SEU LUGAR NA ADORAÇÃO PURA

1 Quem é Gogue de Magogue, e como sabemos disso?

2 O que é a terra espiritual, e como você pode deixá-la mais bonita?

3 Enquanto aguardamos a grande tribulação, queremos estar decididos a fazer o quê? Por quê?

18 “O MEU GRANDE FUROR SE ACENDERÁ”

PONTO PRINCIPAL: | EZEQUIEL 38:18

O ataque de Gogue provoca a ira de Deus; Jeová defende seu povo durante o Armagedom

JUNTOS, homens, mulheres e crianças cantam um cântico do Reino. Daí um ancião faz uma oração sincera a Jeová, pedindo sua proteção. Os irmãos da congregação confiam que Jeová vai cuidar deles. Mesmo assim eles precisam de consolo e encorajamento. Dá para ouvir o barulho de pessoas lutando lá fora. O Armagedom começou! — Apo. 16:14, 16.

² Na guerra do Armagedom, Jeová vai trazer destruição com “grande furor”. (Leia Ezequiel 38:18.) Ele vai direcionar toda a sua ira não apenas sobre um exército ou uma nação, mas sobre um grande número de pessoas em toda a Terra. Naquele dia, “os mortos por Jeová ficarão espalhados de uma extremidade da terra à outra extremidade da terra”. — Jer. 25:29, 33.

1-3. (a) O que o “grande furor” de Jeová vai causar? (b) O que vamos estudar agora?

[3] Por que Jeová, o Deus de amor, que a Bíblia descreve como "misericordioso e compassivo" e "paciente", vai agir dessa forma, com "grande furor"? (Êxo. 34:6; 1 João 4:16) A resposta a essa pergunta vai nos dar muito consolo, nos encher de coragem e nos motivar a continuar na obra de pregação.

O que provoca o "grande furor" de Jeová?

[4] Primeiro temos que nos lembrar que a ira de Jeová não é como a ira de humanos imperfeitos. Quando uma pessoa fica irada e perde a cabeça, dificilmente as coisas terminam bem. Por exemplo, Caim, o primeiro filho de Adão, ficou muito irado quando Jeová rejeitou o sacrifício dele, mas aceitou a oferta de Abel. O resultado? Caim matou seu irmão, que era um homem justo. (Gên. 4:3-8; Heb. 11:4) Veja também o exemplo de Davi, um homem que agradava a Jeová. (Atos 13:22) Mesmo sendo um homem bom, ele quase cometeu um crime terrível. Davi ficou sabendo que Nabal, um rico proprietário de terra, tinha falado muito mal dele e dos seus soldados. Cheios de raiva, Davi e seus homens colocaram "a espada na cintura", decididos a matar não apenas Nabal, aquele homem ingrato, mas também todos os homens da casa dele. Felizmente, a esposa de Nabal, Abigail, conseguiu convencer Davi e seus homens a não fazer isso. (1 Sam. 25:9-14, 32, 33) Dá para entender por que Jeová inspirou Tiago a escrever: "A ira do homem não produz a justiça de Deus." — Tia. 1:20.

4, 5. Como a ira de Jeová é diferente da ira de humanos imperfeitos?

[5] Ao contrário dos humanos, Jeová sempre controla sua ira. Por exemplo, quando ele luta contra seus inimigos, ele nunca destrói "os justos junto com os maus". (Gên. 18:22-25) Assim, mesmo quando está irado, Jeová age com justiça. Além disso, podemos saber claramente por que Jeová está irado, e seus motivos são sempre justos. Vamos ver dois desses motivos e que lições podemos aprender.

[6] Motivo: Quando o nome de Jeová é manchado. Os que dizem representar a Jeová, mas fazem coisas erradas, mancham a reputação dele. Isso provoca a ira de Jeová. (Eze. 36:23) Como vimos nos capítulos anteriores deste livro, a nação de Israel manchou o nome de Deus. Dá para entender por que ele ficou muito irado. Mas Jeová nunca deixava sua ira sair do controle; ele punia seu povo de modo justo, não de modo

---

6. Como Jeová reage quando seu nome é manchado?

exagerado. (Jer. 30:11) E, depois que a disciplina cumpria o seu objetivo, Jeová não ficava mais ressentido. — Sal. 103:9.

[7] Lições: A forma como Jeová lidou com os israelitas nos dá um alerta bem sério. Igual aos israelitas, nós temos o privilégio de levar o nome de Deus. Somos Testemunhas de Jeová, e por isso nossas palavras e ações afetam o que as pessoas pensam sobre ele. (Isa. 43:10) Jamais queremos fazer coisas erradas de propósito e manchar o nome de nosso Pai. Agir dessa forma vai acender a ira de Jeová e, mais cedo ou mais tarde, ele vai agir para proteger sua reputação. — Heb. 3:13, 15; 2 Ped. 2:1, 2.

[8] Vimos que Jeová pode demonstrar "grande furor". Será que isso deveria nos impedir de nos achegar a ele? Não. Sabemos que Jeová é paciente e perdoador. (Isa. 55:7; Rom. 2:4) Mas também sabemos que ele disciplina quando necessário. Jeová fica irado com os que fazem coisas erradas e não se arrependem; ele não vai permitir que essas pessoas continuem a fazer parte do seu povo. (1 Cor. 5:11-13)

7, 8. Que lições aprendemos da forma como Jeová lidou com os israelitas?

Saber disso nos ajuda a ter profundo respeito por ele. Jeová nos diz claramente o que provoca sua ira. Depende de nós, então, não fazer coisas que deixam Jeová irado. — João 3:36; Rom. 1:26-32; Tia. 4:8.

[9] Motivo: Quando o povo de Jeová é ameaçado. Jeová fica irado quando inimigos atacam seus servos leais, que buscam sua proteção. Por exemplo, depois que os israelitas saíram do Egito, Faraó e seu exército perseguiram aquele povo que parecia indefeso e os encurralaram diante do Mar Vermelho. Jeová abriu um caminho no mar para os israelitas atravessarem. Quando o poderoso exército egípcio foi atrás deles, Jeová desprendeu as rodas dos carros de guerra e lançou os egípcios no mar. "Não [sobrou] nem sequer um deles." (Êxo. 14:25-28) Por causa do "amor leal" que Jeová tem pelo seu povo, ele fez os egípcios sentirem sua ira. — Leia Êxodo 15:9-13.

[10] O amor de Jeová pelo seu povo também o levou a agir nos dias do rei Ezequias. Os assírios, o povo mais poderoso e cruel daquela época, estavam prontos para atacar Jerusalém. Os servos leais de Jeová corriam o risco de enfrentar um cerco que os faria sofrer uma morte lenta e dolorosa. (2 Reis 18:27) Em resposta, Jeová enviou um anjo, que matou 185 mil soldados inimigos numa única noite! (2 Reis 19:34, 35) Imagine o acampamento assírio na manhã seguinte. Lanças, escudos e espadas que nem chegaram a ser usadas. Ninguém tocou as trombetas; ninguém deu ordens aos soldados. Um silêncio assustador tomou conta do acampamento, e o que se via eram corpos espalhados por todo lado.

9, 10. Como Jeová reage quando seu povo é ameaçado? Dê exemplos.

[11] Lições: Esses exemplos de como Jeová reage quando seu povo é ameaçado dão um forte aviso para os nossos inimigos: "Coisa terrível é cair nas mãos do Deus vivente" quando ele fica irado. (Heb. 10:31) Mas, para nós, esses exemplos dão consolo e coragem. Eles mostram que nosso principal inimigo, Satanás, não vai ser bem-sucedido. Em breve, o "pouco tempo" que ele tem vai acabar. (Apo. 12:12) Até lá, podemos servir a Jeová com coragem, tendo a plena certeza de que nenhuma pessoa, organização ou governo pode nos impedir de fazer a vontade Dele. (Leia Salmo 118:6-9.) Temos a mesma confiança que o apóstolo Paulo: "Se Deus é por nós, quem será contra nós?" — Rom. 8:31.

11. Que lições aprendemos dos exemplos de como Jeová reage quando seu povo é ameaçado?

[12] Na grande tribulação, Jeová vai nos proteger assim como protegeu seu povo quando eles atravessaram o Mar Vermelho e quando os assírios cercaram Jerusalém. Jeová nos ama muito. Por isso, quando os inimigos tentarem nos destruir, ele vai ficar muito irado. Os que forem tolos o suficiente para nos atacar estarão como que tocando na menina do olho de Jeová. Ele vai agir de modo rápido e definitivo. (Zac. 2:8, 9) Isso vai resultar numa destruição como nunca antes. Mas os inimigos de Deus não vão ter nenhum motivo para ficar surpresos quando Jeová trouxer sobre eles o seu furor. Por que não?

Que avisos Jeová tem dado?

[13] Jeová é paciente e por isso tem dado muitos avisos de que vai destruir os que se opõem a ele e que ameaçam seu povo. (Êxo. 34:6, 7) Jeová usou profetas como Jeremias, Ezequiel, Daniel e Jesus Cristo, bem como os apóstolos Pedro, Paulo e João, para

12. Na grande tribulação, o que vai provocar a ira de Jeová?

13. Que avisos Jeová tem dado?

18A

JEOVÁ AVISA SOBRE A GRANDE BATALHA

VEJA OS PARÁGRAFOS 13 E 14.

Na Bíblia encontramos várias profecias que nos avisam sobre a guerra em que Jeová vai destruir os inimigos dele e do seu povo. Aqui temos algumas dessas profecias. Observe como esses avisos são parecidos. Veja também como Jeová se certificou de que toda a humanidade tivesse a oportunidade de ouvir esses avisos e de agir de acordo com eles.

TEMPO DE ISRAEL

EZEQUIEL:

"'Vou convocar contra Gogue uma espada em todas as minhas montanhas', diz o Soberano Senhor Jeová." — Eze. 38:18-23.

JEREMIAS:

"[Jeová] julgará pessoalmente toda a humanidade. E entregará os maus à espada." — Jer. 25:31-33.

DANIEL:

"O Deus do céu estabelecerá um reino que . . . vai esmigalhar e pôr um fim a todos esses reinos." — Dan. 2:44.

PRIMEIRO SÉCULO

JESUS:

"Haverá grande tribulação, como nunca ocorreu desde o princípio do mundo." — Mat. 24:21, 22.

PAULO:

"Jesus . . . com os seus anjos poderosos [vai] trazer vingança sobre os que não conhecem a Deus." — 2 Tes. 1:6-9.

PEDRO:
"O dia de Jeová virá como ladrão, . . . e a terra e as obras nela serão expostas." — 2 Ped. 3:10.

JOÃO:
"Da boca [de Jesus] se estende uma longa espada afiada, para que ele golpeie com ela as nações." — Apo. 19:11-18.

NOSSOS DIAS

A Bíblia é o livro mais traduzido e distribuído de todos os tempos

OS SERVOS DE JEOVÁ HOJE . . .

- Distribuem bilhões de publicações bíblicas em centenas de idiomas
- Dedicam centenas de milhões de horas à obra de pregação todos os anos avisar sobre uma grande batalha decisiva. — Veja o quadro "Jeová avisa sobre a grande batalha".

[14] Jeová fez com que esses avisos fossem registrados na Bíblia. Ele também fez com que a Bíblia se tornasse o livro mais traduzido e distribuído da História. Em toda a Terra, ele tem um exército de voluntários que ajudam outros a se tornar amigos de Deus e que avisam as pessoas sobre "o grande dia de 14, 15. O que Jeová tem feito, e por quê?

Jeová". (Sof. 1:14; Sal. 2:10-12; 110:3) Ele tem motivado seu povo não só a traduzir publicações bíblicas em centenas de idiomas, mas também a dedicar centenas de milhões de horas todos os anos à obra de pregação. Com isso, as promessas e os avisos da Bíblia são divulgados na Terra inteira.

[15] Jeová tem feito tudo isso "porque não deseja que ninguém seja destruído, mas deseja que todos alcancem o arrependimento". (2 Ped. 3:9) É um grande privilégio representar nosso Deus amoroso e paciente e poder participar nessa obra! Mas o tempo está acabando para aqueles que não dão atenção aos avisos.

Quando vai 'se acender o furor' de Jeová?

[16] Jeová já estabeleceu o dia para a guerra final. E ele sabe quando será o ataque contra o seu povo. (Mat. 24:36) Mas como Jeová sabe disso?

[17] Como vimos no capítulo 17 deste livro, Jeová diz a Gogue: "Porei ganchos nas suas mandíbulas." Jeová vai guiar os assuntos para que as nações ataquem o povo de Deus. (Eze. 38:4) Isso não quer dizer que é Jeová quem vai fazer esse ataque, nem que ele vai forçar os inimigos a atacar seu povo. Mas Jeová pode ler corações e por isso ele sabe como os inimigos vão reagir diante das circunstâncias. — Sal. 94:11; Isa. 46:9, 10; Jer. 17:10.

16, 17. Como Jeová sabe quando será o ataque contra o seu povo?

[18] Vimos que Jeová não vai começar a batalha nem vai forçar seus inimigos a fazer isso. Então por que simples humanos iriam lutar contra o Todo-Poderoso? Bem, pode ser que naquela ocasião eles estejam convencidos de que, ou Deus não existe, ou ele não vai interferir nos assuntos humanos. Talvez eles pensem assim: 'Nós acabamos de eliminar as religiões. Se Deus existisse, com certeza teria defendido as religiões que diziam representar a ele.' Só que eles não vão perceber um detalhe: É Jeová quem vai colocar no coração deles a ideia de acabar com as religiões que, de forma tão descarada, mancham o Seu nome. — Apo. 17:16, 17.

[19] Algum tempo depois que a religião falsa for destruída, é bem possível que Jeová faça seu povo divulgar uma forte mensagem. Em Apocalipse, ela é com-

---

18. Por que simples humanos iriam lutar contra o Todo-Poderoso?

19. O que é bem possível que aconteça depois que a religião falsa for destruída?

parada a pedras de granizo de uns 20 quilos. (Apo. 16:21, nota) Talvez essa mensagem seja uma declaração de que os sistemas político e comercial do mundo estão prestes a acabar. Essa mensagem vai atormentar as pessoas a tal ponto que elas vão blasfemar contra Deus. É possível que seja essa mensagem o que vai fazer as nações atacarem o povo de Deus numa tentativa de nos destruir para sempre. Elas vão achar que somos um alvo fácil, mas vão estar muito enganadas.

Como Jeová vai expressar seu furor?

[20] Como vimos no capítulo 17 deste livro, Ezequiel usa o título "Gogue da terra de Magogue" para se referir a uma coalizão, ou grupo, de nações que vai nos atacar. (Eze. 38:2) Mas a união entre os membros dessa coalizão vai ser apenas de fachada. Por fora, vai parecer que eles cooperam entre si, mas na verdade o que vai existir é um espírito nacionalista, de competição e de orgulho. Para Jeová vai ser muito fácil fazer com que a espada de cada um se volte "contra o seu próprio irmão". (Eze. 38:21) Mas quem vai destruir as nações não são os homens.

20, 21. (a) Quem é Gogue? (b) O que vai acontecer com Gogue?

[21] Antes de serem destruídos, nossos inimigos vão ver o sinal do Filho do Homem, provavelmente coisas sobrenaturais que vão mostrar o poder de Jeová e de Jesus. (Mat. 24:30) Os inimigos vão ver coisas que vão deixá-los com muito medo. Como Jesus predisse, "pessoas desfalecerão de medo, na expectativa das coisas que vêm sobre a terra habitada". (Luc. 21:25-27) Os inimigos vão ficar desesperados quando perceberem que cometeram um grande erro ao atacar o povo de Jeová. Eles serão obrigados a reconhecer o papel do Criador como comandante militar, Jeová dos exércitos. (Sal. 46:6-11; Eze. 38:23) Jeová sem dúvida vai usar seus exércitos celestiais e as forças da natureza tanto para proteger seus servos leais como para destruir os inimigos. — Leia 2 Pedro 2:9.

[22] Imagine como Jesus deve estar ansioso para liderar o ataque contra os inimigos de Deus e proteger os que amam e servem a seu Pai. Imagine também como os ungidos vão se sentir. Em algum momento antes de o Armagedom começar, os ungidos que ainda estiverem na Terra vão receber sua recompensa celestial. Assim, todos os 144 mil vão poder lutar ao lado de Jesus na batalha. (Apo. 17:12-14) Sem dúvida, muitos dos ungidos têm feito boas amizades com membros das outras ovelhas ao trabalharem lado a lado com eles nestes últimos dias. No Armagedom os ungidos vão ter a autoridade bem como o poder para defender aqueles que os apoiaram lealmente nos momentos difíceis. — Mat. 25:31-40.

22, 23. (a) Quem vai proteger o povo de Deus? (b) Como eles sem dúvida vão se sentir por participarem nessa tarefa?

[23] Os anjos também vão fazer parte do exército celestial liderado por Jesus. (2 Tes. 1:7; Apo. 19:14) Eles já ajudaram Jesus a expulsar Satanás e os demônios do céu. (Apo. 12:7-9) E hoje eles ajudam no trabalho de reunir os sinceros que querem adorar a Jeová. (Apo. 14:6, 7) Faz todo o sentido Jeová usar os anjos para proteger os leais no futuro! E, o mais importante, todos do exército de Jeová vão ter o privilégio de santificar e defender o nome de Jeová. Como? Por ajudarem a destruir os inimigos de Deus. — Mat. 6:9, 10.

[24] Esse exército poderoso está decidido a fazer a vontade de Jeová e vai proteger os da grande multidão. Por isso, os da grande multidão não vão precisar

24. Como os da grande multidão vão se sentir?

ter medo. Na verdade, eles vão 'se pôr de pé e levantar a cabeça' porque o "livramento está se aproximando". (Luc. 21:28) Assim, antes de o dia de Jeová chegar, é importante ajudarmos o máximo de pessoas possível a conhecer e a amar o nosso Pai, que é misericordioso e vai nos proteger. — Leia Sofonias 2:2, 3.

[25] As guerras humanas trazem confusão e grande sofrimento. Mas a guerra do Armagedom vai trazer paz e felicidade. Imagine como vai ser a vida depois que a ira de Jeová acabar, seus guerreiros não tiverem mais que usar suas espadas e essa grande batalha tiver terminado! Vamos estudar sobre esse maravilhoso futuro no próximo capítulo.

---

25. O que vamos estudar no próximo capítulo?

SEU LUGAR NA ADORAÇÃO PURA

1 O que provoca a ira de Jeová?

2 Como Jeová vai expressar sua ira?

3 Por que devemos apoiar a adoração pura com coragem hoje?

SEÇÃO CINCO

5

“RESIDIREI ENTRE O POVO”

A ADORAÇÃO PURA DE JEOVÁ É RESTAURADA

EZEQUIEL 43:7

PONTO PRINCIPAL: Aspectos da visão do templo e o que eles nos ensinam sobre a adoração pura

Jeová deu ao profeta Ezequiel e ao apóstolo João visões parecidas. Essas visões nos ensinam importantes lições sobre como adorar a Jeová de modo puro hoje. Elas também nos dão uma ideia de como vai ser a vida no Paraíso debaixo do Reino de Deus.

19 “TUDO VIVERÁ POR ONDE QUER QUE A CORRENTE DE ÁGUA PASSAR”

PONTO PRINCIPAL: EZEQUIEL 47:9

A visão do rio que saía do templo e seu cumprimento no passado, nos nossos dias e no futuro

NA VISÃO do templo, Ezequiel observa outra coisa impressionante: ele vê águas cristalinas saindo do santuário! Imagine Ezequiel acompanhando o percurso dessas águas. (Leia Ezequiel 47:1-12.) A partir da entrada do santuário, as águas correm para fora do complexo do templo, saindo perto do portão leste. Um anjo está guiando Ezequiel. Esse anjo leva o profeta para fora do templo. Conforme eles vão andando, o anjo vai medindo o caminho. O anjo faz Ezequiel atravessar a água várias vezes, e o profeta percebe que o rio vai ficando cada vez mais fundo. Logo o rio se torna uma torrente que só dá para atravessar nadando.

1, 2. (a) De acordo com Ezequiel 47:1-12, que coisa impressionante Ezequiel observa? (b) O que Ezequiel descobre?

[2] Ezequiel descobre que as águas do rio vão até o Mar Morto, um mar salgado e sem vida. Mas, conforme as águas do rio vão entrando em contato com o mar, a água do mar fica boa e cheia de peixes. Ao longo das margens do rio, Ezequiel vê todo tipo de árvores. Elas produzem frutos nutritivos todo mês, e suas folhas têm o poder de curar. Ver tudo isso deve ter enchido o coração de Ezequiel de paz e esperança. Mas o que essa parte da visão significava para ele e os outros exilados? E o que ela significa para nós hoje?

O que o rio que Ezequiel viu significava para os exilados?

[3] Os judeus com certeza não pensavam que o rio da visão de Ezequiel fosse literal. Talvez eles tenham se lembrado de outra profecia de restauração, registrada pelo profeta Joel uns 200 anos antes. (Leia Joel 3:18.) Ao lerem as palavras de Joel, os judeus exilados não esperavam que “vinho novo” fosse sair dos montes ou que “leite” fosse sair das colinas, nem esperavam que uma fonte fosse sair “da casa de Jeová”. Da mesma forma, os judeus exilados provavelmente não pensavam que a visão de Ezequiel fosse sobre um rio

3. Por que os judeus não pensavam que o rio da visão de Ezequiel fosse literal?

RIOS DE BÊNÇÃOS DA PARTE DE JEOVÁ

VEJA OS PARÁGRAFOS 3 E 4.

Além do livro de Ezequiel, outros livros da Bíblia usam as palavras "rio" e "água" para ilustrar as bênçãos que vêm de Jeová. Esses relatos fortalecem nossa fé nas muitas maneiras de Jeová abençoar seu povo. Como assim?

JOEL 3:18 Essa profecia mostra que uma fonte de água sai do santuário do templo. O objetivo era levar água até o "vale das Acácias", que estava seco. Dessa forma, tanto Joel como Ezequiel viram um rio levar vida a um lugar que estava como que morto. Nos dois casos, o rio saía da casa (ou templo) de Jeová.

ZACARIAS 14:8 O profeta Zacarias viu "águas vivas" saindo da cidade de Jerusalém. Metade da água ia para o mar oriental, ou Mar Morto, e metade ia para o mar ocidental, ou mar Mediterrâneo. Jerusalém era a "cidade do grande Rei", Jeová Deus. (Mat. 5:35) O fato de Zacarias mencionar essa cidade nos lembra do governo de Jeová sobre toda a Terra no futuro. As águas dessa profecia sugerem que Jeová vai abençoar dois grupos de fiéis no Paraíso: os que sobreviverem à grande tribulação e os que forem ressuscitados.

APOCALIPSE 22:1, 2 O apóstolo João viu um rio muito parecido com o da visão de Ezequiel. Mas há uma pequena diferença: o rio que João viu não saía de um templo, mas do trono de Jeová. Dessa forma, igual à visão de Zacarias, a visão de João parece destacar as bênçãos do governo de Jeová durante os mil anos.

Apesar dessa diferença, tanto as bênçãos que saem do trono de Deus como as que são representadas pelo rio que Ezequiel viu vêm de Jeová e estão disponíveis para todos os Seus servos fiéis.

SALMO 46:4 Observe como esse versículo parece falar de dois aspectos: adoração e governo. Aqui vemos que um rio leva alegria para "a cidade de Deus", o que parece se referir a governo e reinado. Já a parte que menciona "o santo e grandioso tabernáculo do Altíssimo" parece se referir à adoração pura.

Esses textos bíblicos nos garantem que Jeová vai abençoar a humanidade obediente de duas maneiras. Por toda a eternidade, nós vamos ser abençoados (1) pelo governo de Jeová e (2) pelo que ele estabeleceu para a adoração pura. Assim, queremos estar decididos a continuar buscando a "água viva", ou seja, a aproveitar tudo o que Jeová e seu Filho amorosamente fornecem para termos vida eterna! — Jer. 2:13; João 4:10.

literal.*[1] Então o que Jeová queria ensinar? A Bíblia nos ajuda a entender algumas partes dessa visão. Mas neste capítulo vamos nos concentrar em três garantias que essa profecia nos dá, mostrando assim o amor de Jeová.

*[1] Além disso, os judeus exilados que se lembravam de como era a terra de Israel provavelmente sabiam que esse rio não poderia ser um rio literal. Isso porque, na visão, esse rio saía do templo, que ficava num monte muito alto, e esse monte nem existia. E a visão dava a entender que o rio corria de forma direta e sem obstáculos até o Mar Morto. Isso também era algo impossível por causa das características do terreno.

[4] Um rio de bênçãos. Na Bíblia, água e rios muitas vezes são usados para ilustrar as bênçãos que vêm de Jeová. O rio que Ezequiel viu também representava bênçãos. Assim, o povo de Deus deve ter entendido que, enquanto adorassem a Deus de modo puro, continuariam a receber bênçãos. Que bênçãos? Eles voltariam a ser instruídos pelos sacerdotes. E, com os sacrifícios sendo novamente oferecidos no templo, eles poderiam ficar tranquilos de que teriam os seus pecados perdoados. (Eze. 44:15, 23; 45:17) Assim, eles voltariam a ser puros, como se tivessem sido lavados pela água que saía do templo.

[5] Será que sempre haveria bênçãos suficientes para todos? Ninguém precisava se preocupar com isso. A visão mostrava que, num trecho de menos de 2 quilômetros, o rio, que no começo era só um pouco de água escorrendo, se transformava numa torrente! (Eze. 47:3-5) Se a população de Israel aumentasse, as bênçãos de Jeová aumentariam também; não ia faltar nada! O rio

---

4. (a) O rio da visão de Ezequiel deve ter feito o povo de Deus esperar receber que bênçãos? (b) A Bíblia usa as palavras "água" e "rio" para ilustrar bênçãos. Que garantia isso nos dá? (Veja o quadro "Rios de bênçãos da parte de Jeová".)

5. Como a visão mostrava que sempre haveria bênçãos suficientes para todos?

mostrava que a nação voltaria a ter muitas bênçãos da parte de Jeová!

[6] Água que dá vida. Na visão de Ezequiel, o rio terminava no Mar Morto, onde dava vida a uma grande quantidade de peixes. Eram tantos peixes que o mar podia ser comparado ao Grande Mar, ou mar Mediterrâneo. Chegou a ponto de haver uma indústria pesqueira ao longo da costa do Mar Morto. E essa indústria não era pequena, já que ficava entre duas cidades que, pelo visto, eram longe uma da outra. O anjo disse: "Tudo viverá por onde quer que a corrente de água passar." Mas será que isso quer dizer que a água que saía da casa de Jeová deu vida, ou seja, curou cada parte do Mar Morto? Não. O anjo explicou que algumas partes do Mar Morto, que eram áreas pantanosas, não seriam curadas. Essas áreas ficariam 'abandonadas ao sal'.*[2] (Eze. 47:8-11) Assim, essa parte da visão dava a

*[2] Alguns comentaristas afirmam que essa expressão traz uma mensagem positiva. Eles dizem que a produção de sal para a preservação de alimentos sempre foi uma atividade lucrativa na região do Mar Morto. Mas observe que o relato é bem claro ao dizer que aquelas águas pantanosas 'não iam ser curadas'. Elas continuariam como que mortas porque a água que dava vida e que saía da casa de Jeová não chegaria até elas. Sendo assim, parece que nesse relato o sal representa algo negativo. — Sal. 107:33, 34; Jer. 17:6.

6. (a) A visão dava que garantia? (b) Que aviso ela também dava? (Veja também a nota 2.)

19B

UM RIO QUE SE TRANSFORMA NUMA TORRENTE!

VEJA OS PARÁGRAFOS 4-21.

Ezequiel viu um rio saindo do templo. Em menos de 2 quilômetros o rio, que no começo era só um pouco de água, se tornou uma torrente! Nas margens do rio, ele viu árvores que davam frutos e que serviam para cura. O que isso significa?

	O rio traz muitas bênçãos	Água que dá vida	Árvores para alimento e para cura
PASSADO	Os exilados que voltaram para sua terra receberam muitas bênçãos ao participarem na restauração da adoração pura no templo	Jeová abençoou muito o seu povo em sentido espiritual; o povo aumentou em número, mas sempre houve bênçãos mais do que suficientes para todos	Jeová alimentou seu povo em sentido espiritual quando eles voltaram para sua terra; também os curou em sentido espiritual por ajudá-los a não voltar a praticar adoração falsa
NOSSOS DIAS	Em 1919 a adoração pura foi restaurada, abrindo o caminho para que os servos fiéis de Jeová recebessem muitas bênçãos em sentido espiritual	No paraíso espiritual, cada vez mais pessoas se beneficiam das águas da verdade, que não param de aumentar; elas aprendem sobre Jeová e passam a adorar a ele junto com Seu povo	Uma grande quantidade de alimento espiritual está ajudando o povo de Deus a lutar contra a influência deste mundo, que passa fome e está doente em sentido espiritual
FUTURO	Depois do Armagedom, Jeová vai nos abençoar tanto em sentido físico como espiritual	Milhões de ressuscitados vão se juntar aos que sobreviverem ao Armagedom, e todos serão muito abençoados por Jeová	Cristo e os 144 mil vão levar a humanidade obediente à perfeição, livrando-os da doença e da morte para sempre garantia de que o povo voltaria a viver em sentido espiritual, adorando a Jeová de modo puro e sendo abençoados por ele. Só que ela também dava um aviso: Nem todos aceitariam as bênçãos de Jeová; nem todos seriam curados.

[7] Árvores para alimento e para cura. E que dizer das árvores ao longo das margens do rio? Com certeza elas deixaram a visão ainda mais bonita! Mas elas também significavam algo. Ezequiel e os outros exilados sem dúvida ficaram felizes ao pensar nos frutos deliciosos daquelas árvores; todo mês elas dariam novos frutos! Esse belo quadro mental deu para eles ainda mais confiança de que Jeová ia alimentá-los em sentido espiritual. Além disso, observe que as folhas das árvores 'seriam para cura'. (Eze. 47:12) Jeová sabia que, acima de tudo, os exilados que voltassem para sua terra iam precisar ser curados em sentido espiritual, e ele prometeu fazer exatamente isso. Outras profecias de restauração falam de que modo ele fez isso, como vimos no capítulo 9 deste livro.

[8] Mas, como também vimos no capítulo 9, os judeus

---

7. As árvores ao longo das margens do rio davam que garantia para os judeus exilados?

8. O que mostra que a visão de Ezequiel teria um cumprimento maior?

que voltaram só viram essas profecias se cumprir até certo ponto. E a culpa disso era deles mesmos. Afinal, como Jeová poderia abençoar plenamente o povo se eles vez após vez voltavam a fazer o que é errado, desobedecendo a Jeová e abandonando a adoração pura? Os fiéis ficaram muito tristes e decepcionados com o que os outros judeus estavam fazendo. Mas eles sabiam que as promessas de Jeová nunca falham; elas sempre se cumprem. (Leia Josué 23:14.) Sendo assim, um dia a visão de Ezequiel teria um cumprimento maior. Mas quando?

O rio hoje

[9] Como vimos no capítulo 14 deste livro, a visão de Ezequiel sobre o templo tem um cumprimento maior "na parte final dos dias", tempo em que a adoração pura recebe glória e destaque como nunca antes. (Isa. 2:2) Mas e o rio? Como essa parte da visão de Ezequiel se cumpre hoje?

[10] Um rio de bênçãos. A água que sai da casa de Jeová nos faz lembrar do quê? Com certeza ela nos lembra de

---

9. Quando a visão de Ezequiel sobre o templo tem um cumprimento maior?

10, 11. (a) Que bênçãos temos recebido hoje? (b) Como as águas da verdade acompanharam o aumento do povo de Jeová?

todas as bênçãos espirituais que Jeová nos dá. A mais importante de todas é o resgate. Por meio dele, nós somos como que lavados de nossos pecados, sendo perdoados por Jeová. Além disso, temos as verdades puras da Palavra de Deus. Essas verdades podem nos dar vida e, assim como a água, podem nos purificar em sentido moral e espiritual. (Efé. 5:25-27) Será que temos visto esse rio de bênçãos em nossos dias?

[11] Em 1919, só havia alguns milhares de servos de Jeová, e eles ficaram muito felizes de entender as verdades da Bíblia. Daquele ano em diante, o povo de Deus não parou de aumentar. Hoje, somos bem mais de 8 milhões! Será que as águas da verdade acompanharam esse aumento? Sim! O que não falta é alimento espiritual! Nos últimos cem anos, o povo de Deus tem recebido uma enxurrada de alimento espiritual; foram literalmente bilhões de Bíblias, livros, revistas, brochuras e folhetos. Igual ao rio que Ezequiel viu, as águas da verdade não pararam de aumentar, ajudando pessoas que têm sede espiritual no mundo todo. Já faz muito tempo que nossas publicações estão disponíveis no formato impresso. E hoje, por meio do site jw.org, esse alimento espiritual está disponível em formato eletrônico em mais de 900 idiomas! Como essas águas da verdade têm ajudado as pessoas de coração sincero?

[12] Água que dá vida. Foi dito a Ezequiel: "Tudo viverá por onde quer que a corrente de água passar." Pense em como as águas da verdade influenciaram a vida de todos os que passaram a fazer parte do paraíso espiritual. As verdades da Bíblia têm tocado o coração de milhões de pessoas, ajudando-as a ter fé em Jeová. Mas a visão também traz um aviso: Nem todos continuam a ter amor pela verdade. Assim como as áreas pantanosas do Mar Morto na visão de Ezequiel, alguns param de dar valor às verdades da Bíblia e abandonam a Jeová.*[3] Que isso nunca aconteça no nosso caso! — Leia Deuteronômio 10:16-18.

[13] Árvores para alimento e para cura. As árvores da visão ensinam lições que tocam o nosso coração. Lembra que as árvores davam frutos deliciosos todo mês e

*[3] Ainda sobre isso, pense na ilustração de Jesus sobre a rede de arrasto. A rede pega muitos peixes, mas nem todos são "bons". Os que são imprestáveis têm que ser jogados fora. Assim, Jesus avisou que um grande número dos que se associassem com a organização de Jeová não seriam considerados peixes bons; com o tempo eles deixariam de ser fiéis. — Mat. 13:47-50; 2 Tim. 2:20, 21.

12. (a) Como as verdades da Bíblia têm ajudado as pessoas? (b) A visão traz que aviso? (Veja também a nota.)

13. Que lições aprendemos das árvores da visão de Ezequiel?

que suas folhas serviam para cura? (Eze. 47:12) Isso nos lembra que Jeová generosamente nos dá o tipo de alimento e de cura mais importante: em sentido espiritual. O mundo está doente e passando fome nesse sentido. Mas com o povo de Jeová acontece o contrário. Por exemplo, já aconteceu de seu coração ficar cheio de gratidão depois de ler um artigo em uma de nossas revistas, de assistir a um de nossos vídeos ou de cantar o último cântico de um congresso? Somos muito bem alimentados! (Isa. 65:13, 14) Todo esse alimento espiritual nos ajuda a manter a espiritualidade forte. As orientações que recebemos se baseiam na Bíblia e nos ajudam a lutar contra coisas erradas, como imoralidade, ganância e falta de fé. E, para os que ficam doentes em sentido espiritual por causa de um pecado sério, Jeová providenciou ajuda amorosa por meio da congregação. (Leia Tiago 5:14.) Realmente, assim como as árvores da visão de Ezequiel indicam, somos muito abençoados!

14 Também aprendemos uma lição daqueles lugares pantanosos que não foram curados pela água. Não queremos ser como muitos neste mundo doente em sentido espiritual, que se recusam a ser curados por Deus. (Mat. 13:15) Em vez disso, queremos ter as bênçãos de Jeová em nossa vida. O rio que Ezequiel viu nos lembra das muitas bênçãos que temos à nossa disposição. Podemos estudar e entender as verdades da Bíblia. Também podemos ensinar essas verdades a outros por meio da pregação. E temos a ajuda amorosa dos anciãos. Esses homens treinados pelo escravo fiel nos dão conselhos, consolo e orientações. Sem dúvida, o rio da visão de Ezequiel leva vida e cura por onde passa!

14, 15. (a) Que lição aprendemos dos lugares pantanosos que não foram curados pela água? (b) O rio que Ezequiel viu nos lembra de que bênçãos?

15 Mas essa visão vai ter um cumprimento maior no futuro. Como vamos ver, as águas desse rio vão beneficiar a humanidade no mais pleno sentido.

Como a visão vai se cumprir no Paraíso?

16 Você se imagina no Paraíso, vivendo feliz ao lado de sua família e de seus amigos? Essa imagem vai ficar ainda mais clara na sua mente depois que estudarmos como a visão de Ezequiel sobre o rio vai se cumprir no futuro. Para isso, vamos ver novamente os três aspectos da visão que mostram o amor de Jeová.

17 Um rio de bênçãos. Se o que vimos sobre o rio até agora já é maravilhoso, no futuro vai ser ainda melhor!

16, 17. Como vamos ser beneficiados pelo rio de bênçãos no Paraíso? Dê exemplos.

Durante o Reinado de Mil Anos de Jesus, os fiéis vão se beneficiar ainda mais do resgate, já que, além de bênçãos espirituais, eles vão ter bênçãos físicas. Aos poucos, as pessoas vão ser levadas à perfeição. Nada de doenças, médicos, enfermeiros, hospitais ou planos de saúde. Os da "grande multidão" — os milhões que sobreviverem ao Armagedom — vão beber da água da vida. (Apo. 7:9, 14) Mas, por mais impressionantes que sejam essas bênçãos que o rio vai trazer, elas são apenas umas poucas gotas quando comparadas com o que vai acontecer depois. O rio da visão de Ezequiel vai trazer bênçãos ainda maiores!

[18] Água que dá vida. Durante o Reinado de Mil Anos, o "rio de água da vida" vai se tornar uma torrente. (Apo. 22:1) Milhões, até bilhões, de pessoas vão ser ressuscitadas e ter a oportunidade de viver para sempre no Paraíso. Dessa forma, Jeová vai libertar os "que residem no pó", os "impotentes na morte". (Isa. 26:19) Essa vai ser mais uma das bênçãos que Jeová vai trazer por meio do Reino. Mas será que todos esses ressuscitados vão continuar vivendo para sempre?

---

18. Como o "rio de água da vida" vai se tornar uma torrente durante o Reinado de Mil Anos?

[19] Isso vai depender deles. Lá no Paraíso vamos continuar recebendo as águas da verdade que vêm de Jeová. Essas "águas" vão incluir coisas novas que vamos aprender sobre Jeová e os novos rolos, com novas instruções. Você não fica animado só de pensar nisso? Mas alguns vão se recusar a seguir essas novas instruções, preferindo desobedecer a Jeová. Alguns desses talvez se rebelem ainda durante os mil anos, mas eles não vão conseguir atrapalhar a paz no Paraíso. (Isa. 65:20) Quando isso acontecer, nós talvez nos lembremos dos lugares pantanosos da visão de Ezequiel, que ficaram "abandonados ao sal", sem vida. Não querer beber da água da vida vai ser uma péssima decisão. Depois dos mil anos, um grupo de rebeldes vai se juntar a Satanás. Todos os que rejeitarem o governo justo de Jeová vão ter o mesmo fim: morte eterna. — Apo. 20:7-12.

[20] Árvores para alimento e para cura. Jeová não quer que aqueles que estiverem no Paraíso percam a chance de viver para sempre. Como ele vai nos ajudar a não

---

19. (a) O que vamos continuar recebendo no Paraíso? (b) Em que sentido alguns vão ser "abandonados ao sal"?

20. As árvores da visão de Ezequiel nos lembram de que benefícios que vamos ter no Paraíso?

perder essa maravilhosa oportunidade? Durante os mil anos ele vai providenciar novamente uma ajuda parecida com as árvores que Ezequiel viu. Na visão de Ezequiel, as árvores ao longo das margens do rio davam frutos nutritivos e suas folhas eram para cura. Assim, no Paraíso teremos benefícios físicos e espirituais. Como reis e sacerdotes, Jesus e os 144 mil vão ajudar os fiéis a se beneficiar plenamente do resgate durante os mil anos, levando os humanos à perfeição. (Apo. 20:6) Essa visão de Ezequiel é parecida com outra visão muito bonita, registrada pelo apóstolo João. (Leia Apocalipse 22:1, 2.) As folhas das árvores que João viu são "para a cura das nações". Junto com Jesus, os 144 mil vão participar em 'curar' milhões de humanos fiéis, livrando-os do pecado e da morte.

21 Meditar no rio da visão de Ezequiel enche nosso coração de paz e esperança. Que futuro maravilhoso temos pela frente! Pense no seguinte: Milhares de anos atrás, Jeová deu profecias que nos ajudam a imaginar a vida no Paraíso. E, durante todo esse tempo, ele tem convidado as pessoas a estarem lá para ver essas

---

21. (a) Como você se sente ao meditar no rio da visão de Ezequiel? (Veja o quadro "Um rio que se transforma numa torrente!".) (b) O que vamos estudar no próximo capítulo?

profecias se cumprirem. Mas você talvez se pergunte: ‘E eu? Será que eu vou estar lá?’ No próximo capítulo vamos ver como o final da profecia de Ezequiel nos dá confiança quanto ao futuro.

SEU LUGAR NA ADORAÇÃO PURA

1 Como a visão de Ezequiel sobre o rio se cumpriu no passado?

2 Como essa visão está se cumprindo hoje?

3 Como o cumprimento dessa visão vai ser ainda maior durante o Reinado de Mil Anos?

20 'DISTRIBUAM A TERRA COMO HERANÇA'

PONTO PRINCIPAL: | EZEQUIEL 45:1

O significado da divisão da terra

A VISÃO que Ezequiel acaba de ter talvez tenha feito o profeta lembrar do que aconteceu no tempo de Moisés e Josué, quase 900 anos antes. Naquela ocasião, Jeová descreveu para Moisés quais seriam os limites da Terra Prometida. Mais tarde, Jeová disse para Josué como a terra deveria ser distribuída entre as tribos de Israel. (Núm. 34:1-15; Jos. 13:7; 22:4, 9) Mas agora, no ano 593 a.C., Jeová diz para Ezequiel e os outros exilados distribuírem de novo a Terra Prometida entre as tribos de Israel! — Eze. 45:1; 47:14; 48:29.

[2] Que mensagem essa visão trazia para Ezequiel e os outros exilados? Por que essa visão serve de encorajamento para o povo de Deus hoje? Será que ela vai ter um cumprimento maior no futuro?

1, 2. (a) Que instruções Ezequiel recebeu de Jeová? (b) Que perguntas vamos considerar?

20A

A DISTRIBUIÇÃO DA TERRA

VEJA OS PARÁGRAFOS 5-11.

A descrição tão detalhada dos limites da Terra Prometida garantiu aos exilados que sua amada terra com certeza seria restaurada. Que lições podemos aprender dessa visão? Vamos ver dois pontos.

Um lugar e uma designação valiosa

Cada um dos exilados que voltassem receberia uma herança na Terra Prometida restaurada. Hoje também todos os servos de Jeová têm um lugar no paraíso espiritual. Não importa se o que fazemos na organização parece pouco, todos nós temos um lugar e uma designação valiosa na terra espiritual. Para Jeová, todos os seus servos são preciosos e têm o mesmo valor.

A terra seria distribuída igualmente

Na visão de Ezequiel, todos os habitantes da Terra Prometida restaurada, não importa qual território recebessem, teriam a mesma oportunidade de aproveitar tudo de bom que essa terra tinha para oferecer. Hoje também Jeová dá a todos os seus servos a mesma oportunidade de receber as bênçãos do paraíso espiritual.

DÃ
ASER
NAFTALI
MANASSÉS
EFRAIM
RUBEM
JUDÁ
A CONTRIBUIÇÃO
BENJAMIM
SIMEÃO
ISSACAR
ZEBULÃO
GADE

Uma visão, quatro garantias

[3] A última visão de Ezequiel ocupa nove capítulos do seu livro. (Eze. 40:1–48:35) Ela deu aos exilados quatro garantias animadoras sobre a restauração da nação de Israel. Que garantias? Primeiro, a adoração pura seria restaurada no templo de Deus. Segundo, sacerdotes e pastores leais voltariam a liderar a nação. Terceiro, todos os que voltassem receberiam uma parte da terra como herança. E, quarto, Jeová voltaria a residir entre eles.

[4] Nos capítulos 13 e 14 deste livro, estudamos sobre as duas primeiras garantias: como a adoração pura seria restaurada e como o povo de Deus voltaria a ser liderado por pastores leais. Neste capítulo, vamos analisar a terceira garantia: os exilados que voltassem receberiam uma parte da terra como herança. No próximo capítulo, vamos considerar a promessa de que Jeová voltaria a residir entre eles. — Eze. 47:13-21; 48:1-7, 23-29.

3, 4. (a) Que quatro garantias a última visão de Ezequiel deu aos exilados? (b) Que garantia vamos analisar neste capítulo?

“Essa terra . . . é repartida entre vocês como herança”

[5] Leia Ezequiel 47:14. Na visão, Jeová falou para Ezequiel que aquela terra logo ficaria parecida com “o jardim do Éden”. (Eze. 36:35) Depois Jeová disse: “Esse é o território que vocês repartirão como a herança de terra das 12 tribos de Israel.” (Eze. 47:13) “O território” a ser repartido era a terra de Israel para onde os exilados voltariam. Daí, conforme registrado em Ezequiel 47:15-21, Jeová descreveu em detalhes os limites de toda a terra de Israel.

[6] Qual era o objetivo dessa visão? Aquela descrição tão detalhada dos limites garantiu a Ezequiel e aos outros exilados que sua amada terra com certeza seria restaurada. Imagine como essa garantia de Jeová, descrita em tantos detalhes, deve ter deixado os exilados felizes! Mas será que o povo de Deus recebeu mesmo a terra que foi prometida para eles como herança? Com certeza.

[7] Em 537 a.C., 56 anos depois de Ezequiel ter recebido a visão, milhares de exilados começaram a vol-

5, 6. (a) Na visão de Ezequiel, que território deveria ser repartido? (b) Qual era o objetivo dessa visão de Ezequiel?

7. (a) O que aconteceu a partir de 537 a.C.? Isso nos lembra do quê? (b) Que pergunta vamos analisar primeiro?

tar para Israel e a receber a terra como herança. Isso nos lembra de algo parecido que tem acontecido com o povo de Deus em nossos dias. De certa forma, eles também receberam uma terra. Que terra? Jeová permitiu que seus servos entrassem numa terra espiritual. Assim, a restauração da Terra Prometida pode nos ensinar muitas lições sobre a restauração da terra espiritual do povo de Deus hoje. Mas, antes de estudarmos essas lições, vamos responder à seguinte pergunta: "Por que podemos dizer que a terra espiritual realmente existe hoje?"

[8] Em outra visão dada a Ezequiel, Jeová tinha indicado que as profecias sobre a restauração de Israel teriam um cumprimento maior depois que seu "servo Davi", Jesus Cristo, começasse a reinar. (Eze. 37:24) Isso aconteceu em 1914. Naquela época, já fazia muito tempo que a nação de Israel não era mais o povo de Deus. Ela tinha sido substituída pelo Israel espiritual, formado pelos cristãos ungidos. (Leia Mateus 21:43; 1 Pedro 2:9.) Mas, além de substituir a

---

8. (a) Jeová substituiu a nação de Israel por qual nação? (b) O que é a terra, ou paraíso, espiritual? Quando essa terra começou a existir? (c) Quem faz parte da terra espiritual?

nação de Israel por uma nação espiritual, Jeová também substituiu a terra de Israel por uma terra espiritual. (Isa. 66:8) Como vimos no capítulo 17 deste livro, essa terra (ou paraíso) espiritual é uma condição ou ambiente espiritual abençoado onde os ungidos que ainda estão na Terra têm adorado a Jeová desde 1919. (Veja o quadro 9B, "Por que 1919?", no capítulo 9.) Com o passar do tempo, pessoas com esperança de viver na Terra, as "outras ovelhas", também entraram nessa terra espiritual. (João 10:16) Apesar de hoje já vivermos no paraíso espiritual, vai ser só depois do Armagedom que vamos receber todas as bênçãos que esse paraíso pode nos proporcionar.

A terra é dividida igualmente

[9] Leia Ezequiel 48:1, 28. Depois de estabelecer os limites da terra, Jeová descreveu em detalhes como a terra devia ser distribuída como herança. De norte a sul, ela seria dividida em partes iguais entre as 12 tribos. Começaria com a tribo de Dã (no ponto mais ao norte) e terminaria com a tribo de Gade (no ponto mais ao sul). Cada uma das 12 tribos recebe-

9. Que detalhes Jeová deu sobre como a terra devia ser distribuída?

ria uma faixa de terra que cruzaria o território de Israel de leste a oeste. Essa faixa de terra começaria na fronteira mais ao leste e iria até o Grande Mar, ou mar Mediterrâneo, ao oeste. — Eze. 47:20.

[10] Que garantias essa parte da visão deve ter dado aos exilados? A descrição detalhada que Ezequiel deu sobre a distribuição da terra deve ter garantido aos exilados que a divisão da terra seria feita de modo organizado. Além disso, o fato de a terra ser dividida de modo tão exato entre as 12 tribos enfatizava que todos os exilados que voltassem receberiam uma herança na terra restaurada. Ninguém ficaria sem herdar uma terra ou sem ter onde morar.

[11] Que lições essa visão tem para nós hoje? Bem, os sacerdotes, os levitas e os maiorais (ou líderes) não seriam os únicos a ter um lugar na Terra Prometida restaurada. Todos os membros das 12 tribos teriam um lugar. (Eze. 45:4, 5, 7, 8) O mesmo acontece hoje. Os ungidos que ainda estão na Terra e os da "grande multidão" que exercem a liderança não são os únicos

---

10. Que garantias essa parte da visão deve ter dado aos exilados?

11. Que lições a visão da distribuição da terra tem para nós hoje? (Veja o quadro "A distribuição da terra".)

que têm um lugar no paraíso espiritual.*[1] Todos os da grande multidão têm um lugar. (Apo. 7:9) Não importa se o que fazemos na organização parece pouco, todos nós temos um lugar e uma designação valiosa na terra espiritual. Que garantia maravilhosa!

Duas diferenças importantes — O que elas significam para nós?

[12] Algumas das instruções de Jeová sobre a distribuição da terra devem ter deixado Ezequiel intrigado. Isso porque elas eram diferentes das instruções que Deus tinha dado para Moisés. Veja duas dessas diferenças. Uma tinha a ver com a terra; a outra, com os habitantes.

[13] A terra. Jeová tinha dito para Moisés dar mais terra para as tribos maiores do que para as menores. (Núm. 26:52-54) Mas, na visão de Ezequiel, Jeová deu instruções específicas para que todas as tribos recebessem "partes iguais" ["cada um como o seu irmão", nota]. (Eze. 47:14) Assim, de norte a sul, o território de cada uma das 12 tribos devia ter o mesmo tamanho. Todos os israelitas, não importa de qual tribo fossem, teriam a mesma oportunidade de aproveitar tudo de bom que essa terra fértil tinha para oferecer, já que toda a Terra Prometida era bem irrigada.

*[1] Para saber sobre a posição e a designação especial que Jeová estabeleceu para o sacerdócio e o maioral na terra espiritual, veja o capítulo 14 deste livro.

12, 13. Que instruções específicas Jeová deu sobre a distribuição da terra?

14 Os habitantes. A Lei de Moisés protegia os estrangeiros e permitia que eles adorassem a Jeová, só que eles não podiam receber nenhuma parte da terra. (Lev. 19:33, 34) Mas o que Jeová disse para Ezequiel foi além do que Ele tinha estabelecido na Lei. Jeová falou: "Vocês devem dar ao residente estrangeiro uma herança no território da tribo em que ele tiver estabelecido residência." Com isso, Jeová eliminou uma grande diferença que havia entre os "israelitas de nascimento" e os estrangeiros que moravam entre eles. (Eze. 47:22, 23) Na visão que Ezequiel teve, ele observou que entre os habitantes da terra restaurada havia igualdade e união na adoração a Jeová. — Lev. 25:23.

---

14. Como as instruções de Jeová sobre os estrangeiros foram além do que ele tinha estabelecido na Lei de Moisés?

[15] Essas duas instruções que Ezequiel recebeu sobre a terra e seus habitantes devem ter dado ainda mais confiança para os exilados. Eles sabiam que Jeová daria para todos eles uma herança igual, não importa se eram israelitas de nascimento ou se eram estrangeiros que adoravam a Jeová. (Esd. 8:20; Nee. 3:26; 7:6, 25; Isa. 56:3, 8) Essas instruções também confirmaram uma verdade muito consoladora sobre Jeová: para ele, todos os seus servos são preciosos e têm o mesmo valor. (Leia Ageu 2:7.) Essa verdade toca o nosso coração, não importa se a nossa esperança é viver no céu ou na Terra.

[16] O que aprendemos desses detalhes sobre a terra e seus habitantes? Eles nos lembram que a igualdade e a união precisam ser características marcantes da família de Jeová no mundo inteiro. Jeová não é parcial. Precisamos nos perguntar: 'Será que eu imito a imparcialidade de Jeová? Trato todos os meus irmãos com respeito, não importa sua raça ou suas circuns-

---

15. As instruções sobre a terra e seus habitantes confirmaram que verdade sobre Jeová?

16, 17. (a) O que aprendemos dos detalhes sobre a terra e seus habitantes? (b) O que vamos estudar no próximo capítulo?

tâncias na vida?' (Rom. 12:10) Ficamos felizes por Jeová ter dado a todos nós a mesma oportunidade de fazer parte do paraíso espiritual, onde podemos servir ao nosso Pai celestial de todo o coração e ter suas bênçãos. — Gál. 3:26-29; Apo. 7:9.

[17] No próximo capítulo nós vamos estudar a quarta garantia que a última visão de Ezequiel deu para os exilados: a promessa de que Jeová voltaria a estar com eles. Que lições aprendemos dessa promessa? Vamos ver.

SEU LUGAR NA ADORAÇÃO PURA

1 Por que você acredita que o paraíso espiritual existe hoje?

2 Por que você pode ter a certeza de que você tem um lugar e uma designação valiosa no paraíso espiritual?

3 O que você aprendeu sobre Jeová na visão da distribuição da terra?

21 “O NOME DA CIDADE SERÁ JEOVÁ ESTÁ ALI”

PONTO PRINCIPAL: | EZEQUIEL 48:35

O significado da cidade e da contribuição

NA SUA última visão, Ezequiel fica sabendo que uma parte da terra de Israel tem que ser separada para um objetivo especial. Essa parte não era para ser dada a uma das tribos de Israel; era para ser oferecida como contribuição a Jeová. Ezequiel também fica sabendo sobre uma cidade impressionante com um nome curioso. Essa parte da visão dá aos exilados uma garantia muito importante: Jeová vai estar com eles quando retornarem para sua amada terra.

[2] Ezequiel nos dá uma descrição detalhada daquela contribuição. Esse relato está cheio de lições para nós, servos de Jeová. Vamos ver quais são essas lições.

1, 2. (a) Uma parte da terra de Israel devia ser separada para que objetivo especial? (b) Que garantia a visão dava aos exilados?

A “contribuição sagrada” e a “cidade”

[3] Dentro da parte que devia ser separada para um objetivo especial, havia um terreno de 25 mil côvados (ou 13 quilômetros) de comprimento por 25 mil côvados de largura, formando um quadrado. Ele era chamado de “a contribuição inteira”. Ele era dividido em três partes. A parte de cima era para os levitas, e a parte do meio era para o templo e os sacerdotes. Essas duas partes formavam a “contribuição sagrada”. A parte de baixo, ou ‘a área que sobrava’, era a menor de todas e era para o “uso comum da cidade”. — Eze. 48:15, 20.

[4] Que lição podemos aprender desse relato sobre a contribuição para Jeová? Observe como devia ser feita a distribuição da terra: primeiro seria separada a terra para a contribuição especial e depois a terra para as tribos. Com isso Jeová mostrou que a contribuição especial era mais importante do que o restante

---

3. A terra que Jeová separou para um objetivo especial era dividida em que cinco partes? Para que servia cada uma delas? (Veja o quadro “Vocês devem reservar [uma parte] como contribuição”.)

4. Que lição podemos aprender do relato sobre a contribuição para Jeová?

“VOCÊS DEVEM RESERVAR [UMA PARTE] COMO CONTRIBUIÇÃO”

EZEQUIEL 48:8

VEJA O PARÁGRAFO 3.

Vamos acompanhar Ezequiel enquanto ele descreve a terra que Jeová separou para um objetivo especial. Ela é formada por cinco partes. Quais são elas? E para que servem?

A A “contribuição”
É para uso administrativo e também é chamada de “faixa administrativa”.
EZE. 48:8

B “A contribuição inteira”
Foi separada para os sacerdotes, os levitas e a cidade. Além disso, membros das 12 tribos entram nessa parte para adorar a Jeová e apoiar a administração.
EZE. 48:20

C “O território do maioral”
“Essa terra se tornará sua propriedade em Israel.” “Pertencerá ao maioral.”
EZE. 45:7, 8; 48:21, 22

D “A contribuição sagrada”
Essa parte também é chamada de “porção santa”. A parte de cima é “para os levitas”; é algo ‘sagrado’. A parte do meio é “a contribuição sagrada para os sacerdotes”. É “um lugar para suas casas e um lugar sagrado para o santuário”, ou templo.
EZE. 45:1-5; 48:9-14

E “A área que sobrar”
“Ela pertencerá a toda a casa de Israel” e “será destinada ao uso comum da cidade, para moradia e para pastagem”.
EZE. 45:6; 48:15-19

do território. (Eze. 45:1) Isso sem dúvida ensinou aos exilados que adorar a Jeová devia ser a coisa mais importante na vida. Hoje não é diferente. Para nós, atividades espirituais, como estudar a Bíblia, ir às reuniões e participar na pregação, vêm em primeiro lugar. Se imitarmos o exemplo de Jeová em estabelecer as prioridades certas, vamos mostrar no nosso dia a dia que adorar a Jeová é o mais importante para nós.

“A cidade ficará no meio”

5 Leia Ezequiel 48:15. O que “a cidade” e a área em volta dela significavam? (Eze. 48:16-18) Na visão, Jeová tinha dito para Ezequiel que a “propriedade da cidade” pertenceria a “toda a casa de Israel”. (Eze. 45:6, 7) Assim, a cidade e a área em volta dela não faziam parte da “contribuição sagrada” que devia ser ‘reservada para Jeová’. (Eze. 48:9) Com essa diferença em mente, vamos ver o que podemos aprender dessa cidade.

6 Para saber que lições podemos aprender da

5, 6. (a) A quem a cidade pertencia? (b) Que três coisas a cidade não podia ser, e por quê?

cidade, primeiro temos que saber que cidade era essa. Será que era a cidade de Jerusalém com o seu templo depois de ela ser reconstruída? Não, porque a cidade que Ezequiel viu não tinha nenhum templo. Será que era alguma outra cidade reconstruída pelos exilados que voltaram ou pelos descendentes deles? Não, porque nenhuma cidade na terra de Israel tinha as mesmas características da cidade descrita na visão. Então será que era uma cidade no céu? Não, porque a cidade foi construída num terreno "para uso comum", ou seja, num terreno que não seria usado para coisas sagradas. — Eze. 42:20.

[7] Então o que é a cidade que Ezequiel viu? Lembre-se que ele viu a cidade na mesma visão em que viu a terra. (Eze. 40:2; 45:1, 6) A Bíblia indica que a visão era sobre uma terra em sentido espiritual. Da mesma forma, a cidade deve ser uma cidade em sentido espiritual. Em geral, o que significa a palavra "cidade"? Essa palavra traz a ideia de uma estrutura organizada formada por pessoas que moram num mesmo lugar. Assim, a cidade que Ezequiel viu, que

7. O que é a cidade que Ezequiel viu, e o que ela parece representar?

formava um quadrado perfeito, parece representar uma administração bem organizada.

[8] Qual o objetivo dessa administração? A visão de Ezequiel mostra que a cidade funciona dentro da terra que Ezequiel viu. Assim, essa administração funciona dentro do paraíso espiritual, guiando a atividade do povo de Deus hoje. E o que significa o fato de a cidade ficar num terreno para uso comum, ou seja, que não era sagrado? Isso nos lembra que a administração é terrestre, não celestial. Essa administração tem trabalhado para beneficiar todos os que moram no paraíso espiritual.

[9] Quem faz parte dessa administração terrestre? Na visão de Ezequiel, era "o maioral" quem exercia a liderança na cidade. (Eze. 45:7) Ele era um líder entre o povo, mas não era nem sacerdote nem levita. O maioral nos lembra principalmente dos anciãos de nossos dias que não são ungidos. Esses pastores

8. O que a visão de Ezequiel nos ensina sobre o objetivo da administração?

9. (a) Quem faz parte da administração terrestre hoje? (b) O que Jesus vai fazer durante os mil anos?

espirituais amorosos e humildes fazem parte das "outras ovelhas" e são servos do governo celestial de Cristo. (João 10:16) Durante os mil anos, Jesus vai escolher e designar "príncipes", ou seja, anciãos qualificados "em toda a terra". (Sal. 45:16) Seguindo as orientações do Reino, eles vão cuidar do povo de Deus aqui na Terra durante os mil anos.

"Jeová Está Ali"

[10] Leia Ezequiel 48:35. O nome da cidade é "Jeová Está Ali". Esse nome garante que nessa cidade é possível sentir a presença de Jeová. Ao mostrar para Ezequiel essa cidade, localizada no centro da terra restaurada, Jeová estava como que dizendo: 'Vou estar com vocês de novo!' Que garantia maravilhosa!

[11] Que lições podemos aprender dessa parte da profecia de Ezequiel? O nome da cidade nos garante que Jeová está entre o seu povo na Terra hoje e sempre estará. O nome dessa cidade também destaca uma verdade muito importante: o objetivo da cidade não é dar poder a algum homem, mas colocar em prática

10. Qual é o nome da cidade, e que garantia isso dá?

11. Que lições podemos aprender da cidade e do nome dela?

as orientações justas e amorosas de Jeová. Por exemplo, Jeová não dá à administração autoridade para "dividir a terra" como bem entende. Em vez disso, Jeová espera que os administradores respeitem a "divisão da terra" que ele próprio já fez, ou seja, o lugar que ele deu a cada um de seus servos no paraíso espiritual, incluindo os que talvez pareçam insignificantes. — Pro. 19:17; Eze. 46:18; 48:29.

[12] Qual é outra característica impressionante da cidade "Jeová Está Ali"? Para proteger seus habitantes, as cidades no passado tinham muros com o menor número de portões possível. Mas essa cidade tem 12 portões! (Eze. 48:30-34) Com esse grande número de portões (três de cada lado da cidade), a cidade é de fácil acesso. Isso mostra que os administradores da cidade são acessíveis e estão sempre prontos para ajudar a todos os servos de Deus. Além disso, o fato de a cidade ter 12 portões destaca que ela está aberta a todos, "a toda a casa de Israel". (Eze. 45:6) Essa característica da cidade ensina algo importante para todos os anciãos. Jeová quer que eles sejam acessíveis e que estejam sempre prontos para ajudar a todos no paraíso espiritual.

12. (a) Qual é outra característica impressionante da cidade, e o que isso mostra? (b) O que essa característica da cidade ensina para os anciãos?

Os servos de Deus 'entram para adorar' e apoiam a cidade

[13] Vamos voltar ao tempo de Ezequiel e aprender mais detalhes sobre a visão da distribuição da terra. Jeová mencionou pessoas que participavam de vários tipos de serviço. Os sacerdotes, 'que serviam no santuário', deviam oferecer sacrifícios e se aproximar de Jeová para servir a ele. E os levitas, 'que serviam no templo', deviam "cuidar do serviço realizado ali e de todas as coisas que se [deviam] fazer nele". (Eze. 44:14-16; 45:4, 5) Além disso, haveria trabalhadores perto da cidade. Quem eram esses trabalhadores?

[14] Os trabalhadores perto da cidade vinham de "todas as tribos de Israel". O papel deles era dar apoio. De que maneira? A tarefa deles era cultivar a terra para produzir alimento para os que trabalhavam na cidade. (Eze. 48:18, 19) Será que isso nos lembra de algo hoje? Sim. Hoje todos os habitantes do paraí-

13. Que vários tipos de serviço Jeová mencionou?

14. Os trabalhadores perto da cidade nos lembram do quê?

so espiritual têm a oportunidade de apoiar os ungidos e os da "grande multidão" que Jeová designou para exercer a liderança. (Apo. 7:9, 10) Uma das principais maneiras de fazermos isso é por cooperar de coração com as orientações do escravo fiel.

15 A visão de Ezequiel traz ainda outro detalhe que nos ensina uma lição sobre nosso ministério. Que detalhe? Jeová diz que membros das 12 tribos (tirando os levitas) estariam ativos em dois lugares: no pátio do templo e na área da cidade que servia para pastagem. O que eles fariam em cada um desses lugares? No pátio do templo, todas as tribos 'entrariam para adorar' a Jeová, oferecendo sacrifícios. (Eze. 46:9, 24) Na área da cidade que servia para pastagem, membros de todas as tribos dariam o seu apoio por cultivar essa terra. O que o exemplo desses trabalhadores nos ensina?

16 Hoje, os da grande multidão têm a oportunidade de participar em atividades como aquelas da visão de Ezequiel. Eles adoram a Jeová "no seu templo",

15, 16. (a) Qual é outro detalhe da visão de Ezequiel? (b) Em que atividades temos a oportunidade de participar?

oferecendo 'sacrifícios de louvor'. (Heb. 13:15; Apo. 7:9-15) Eles fazem isso ao pregar as boas novas e ao comentar e cantar nas reuniões, expressando assim sua fé. Para eles, adorar a Jeová por meio de atividades espirituais como essas é sua responsabilidade principal. (1 Crô. 16:29) Além disso, muitos do povo de Deus têm condições de apoiar a organização de forma prática. Por exemplo, eles ajudam na construção e na manutenção de Salões do Reino e de filiais, bem como em muitos outros projetos da organização. Já outros apoiam esses projetos por meio de donativos. Ao apoiarem a organização dessas maneiras, eles estão como que cultivando a terra, "para a glória de Deus". (1 Cor. 10:31) Eles fazem tudo isso com zelo e alegria porque sabem que Jeová "se agrada desses sacrifícios". (Heb. 13:16) E você? Também está aproveitando para participar ao máximo nessas atividades?

"Há novos céus e uma nova terra que aguardamos"

[17] Será que no futuro nós vamos ver um cumpri-

---

17. (a) Que cumprimento maior da visão de Ezequiel nós vamos ver no futuro? (b) Durante os mil anos, quem vai se beneficiar da administração terrestre?

mento maior da visão de Ezequiel sobre a contribuição? Sim! Pense no seguinte: Ezequiel viu que a parte da terra chamada "a contribuição sagrada", onde se localizava "o santuário de Jeová", ficava no centro do território. (Eze. 48:10) Isso é uma garantia de que, depois do Armagedom, não importa em que lugar da Terra nós moremos, Jeová vai estar entre nós. (Apo. 21:3) Durante os mil anos, a administração terrestre — aqueles na Terra que vão ser designados para cuidar do povo de Deus — vai dar orientação a todos os que fizerem parte da "nova terra", ou seja, as pessoas que vão viver no Paraíso. — 2 Ped. 3:13.

18 Por que podemos ter certeza de que a administração terrestre vai continuar a agir de acordo com as orientações do governo de Deus? A Bíblia mostra que a cidade da visão de Ezequiel tinha 12 portões. Da mesma forma, a Nova Jerusalém, a cidade celestial formada pelos 144 mil que vão reinar com Cristo, também tem 12 portões. (Apo. 21:2, 12, 21-27) Isso indica que a administração terrestre vai agir de acordo com todas as decisões do Reino de Deus no céu. O nome da cidade "Jeová Está Ali" garante a cada um de nós que a adoração pura vai durar para sempre no Paraíso. Que futuro maravilhoso temos pela frente!

18. (a) Por que podemos ter certeza de que a administração terrestre vai agir de acordo com as orientações do governo de Deus? (b) O nome da cidade nos dá que garantia?

SEU LUGAR NA ADORAÇÃO PURA

1 Na visão sobre a contribuição para Jeová, o que você aprendeu sobre estabelecer prioridades?

2 Como você pode apoiar as atividades do escravo fiel?

3 Qual é a nossa responsabilidade principal?

22 "ADORE A DEUS"

PONTO PRINCIPAL: Revisão dos pontos principais do livro bíblico de Ezequiel e como eles se aplicam hoje e no futuro

APOCALIPSE 22:9

CADA um de nós tem que responder a uma pergunta muito importante: A quem vou adorar? Muitos talvez digam que esse é um assunto complexo já que existem muitas religiões. Mas, na verdade, a escolha é simples e clara. Ou adoramos a Jeová ou a Satanás.

2 Satanás quer muito ser adorado. Isso ficou bem claro quando ele tentou Jesus. Como vimos no capítulo 1 deste livro, Satanás ofereceu a Jesus algo impressionante: autoridade sobre todos os reinos da Terra. Tudo o que o Diabo queria em troca era "um ato de adoração". (Mat. 4:9) Já o anjo que deu uma visão ao apóstolo João se recusou a ser adorado. (Leia Apocalipse 22:8, 9.) Quando João tentou adorar o anjo, aquele humilde filho espiritual de Deus disse:

1, 2. (a) Que escolha todos nós temos que fazer? (b) Como um anjo humilde reagiu quando tentaram adorá-lo?

"Não faça isso!" Em vez de dizer 'adore a mim', o anjo disse: "Adore a Deus."

[3] O objetivo deste livro é fortalecer nossa determinação de fazer o que o anjo disse: adorar somente a Jeová. (Deut. 10:20; Mat. 4:10) Neste capítulo, nós vamos fazer uma breve revisão das profecias e visões de Ezequiel e ver o que aprendemos sobre adoração pura. Daí, com a ajuda da Bíblia, nós vamos olhar para o futuro — para o tempo em que todas as pessoas na Terra vão enfrentar um teste final. Esse teste vai determinar quem vai continuar vivendo para ver a adoração pura ser enfim plenamente restaurada.

Três pontos que são destacados no livro de Ezequiel

[4] No livro bíblico de Ezequiel aprendemos que, para nossa adoração ser aceitável, precisamos (1) adorar somente a Jeová, (2) continuar unidos na adoração pura e (3) mostrar amor a outros. Vamos ver como as profecias e visões que estudamos nos capítulos anteriores destacam esses três pontos.

---

3. (a) Qual é o objetivo deste livro? (b) O que vamos estudar neste capítulo?

4. Que três pontos são destacados no livro bíblico de Ezequiel?

Ponto 1: Adorar somente a Jeová

[5] Capítulo 3:*[1] Ezequiel teve uma visão impressionante. Ele viu o trono de Jeová acima de poderosas criaturas espirituais. Viu também um arco-íris em volta de Jeová. Essa visão nos ensina uma lição muito importante: Apenas o Todo-Poderoso merece nossa adoração. — Eze. 1:4, 15-28.

[6] Capítulo 5: Ezequiel ficou chocado ao observar numa visão o templo de Jeová ser contaminado. Essa visão mostra que nada fica escondido de Jeová. Mesmo que outros não vejam, ele vê quando seu povo é desleal e se envolve em coisas erradas, como idolatria. Os que agem assim magoam a Jeová, e eles não vão escapar da punição. — Eze. 8:1-18.

[7] Capítulo 7: As nações ao redor de Israel trataram o povo de Deus com "profundo desprezo". (Eze. 25:6) Por isso, Jeová condenou aquelas nações. Isso prova que os que maltratam o povo de Jeová vão ter que prestar contas a ele. Mas também aprendemos outra lição do contato de Israel com aquelas nações: Nossa lealdade a Jeová deve vir acima de qualquer outra coisa. Jamais

[1] Os números dos capítulos se referem aos capítulos deste livro, não do livro bíblico de Ezequiel.

5-9. Neste livro, o que aprendemos sobre adorar somente a Jeová?

vamos abrir mão do que acreditamos só para agradar parentes que não servem a Jeová. Também não vamos confiar nas riquezas nem deixar de ser neutros por dar aos governos a lealdade que só Jeová merece.

[8] Capítulos 13 e 14: A visão do templo num monte muito alto nos ensina que temos que viver à altura dos padrões elevados de Jeová. Temos que reconhecer que ele está acima de qualquer outro deus. — Eze. 40:1–48:35.

[9] Capítulo 15: Israel e Judá são descritas como duas prostitutas. Isso nos lembra que Jeová detesta o adultério espiritual. — Ezequiel, capítulos 16 e 23.

Ponto 2: Continuar unidos na adoração pura

[10] Capítulo 8: As profecias de que Jeová colocaria "um só pastor" para cuidar do Seu povo destacam algo importante: Todos nós precisamos servir em paz e união debaixo da liderança de Jesus. — Eze. 34:23, 24; 37:24-28.

[11] Capítulo 9: Nesse capítulo, vimos as profecias de Ezequiel sobre o povo de Deus ser libertado do cativeiro em Babilônia e voltar para sua terra. Essas pro-

---

10-14. Como a necessidade de continuarmos unidos na adoração pura foi destacada neste livro?

fecias transmitem uma mensagem para os que querem agradar a Jeová hoje. Os que adoram a Jeová de modo puro têm que se livrar de qualquer influência da religião falsa e não se deixar contaminar por ela. Apesar de sermos de diferentes formações culturais, econômicas e sociais, temos que manter a união, que é uma das coisas que nos identificam como servos de Jeová. — Eze. 11:17, 18; 12:24; João 17:20-23.

[12] Capítulo 10: A visão dos ossos secos que voltam à vida destacou a união dos servos de Jeová. Que privilégio nós temos por fazer parte do povo restaurado de Deus, um povo que adora a Jeová de modo puro e que trabalha lado a lado como um grande exército! — Eze. 37:1-14.

[13] Capítulo 12: A união foi especialmente destacada na profecia dos dois bastões que se tornam um só. Ver como os ungidos e os das outras ovelhas cumprem essa profecia fortalece nossa fé. Hoje vivemos num mundo dividido pelo ódio causado pela religião falsa e pela política. Apesar disso, a lealdade e o amor nos mantêm unidos. — Eze. 37:15-23.

[14] Capítulo 16: A visão do homem com o tinteiro e dos homens com as armas esmagadoras nos dá um alerta bem sério: Apenas os que estiverem adorando a Jeová de modo puro quando a “grande tribulação” começar é que vão ser marcados para sobreviver. — Mat. 24:21; Eze. 9:1-11.

Ponto 3: Mostrar amor a outros

[15] Capítulo 4: A visão sobre as quatro criaturas viventes nos ensinou sobre as qualidades de Jeová, a principal delas sendo o amor. Quando falamos e agimos com amor, provamos que Jeová é o nosso Deus. — Eze. 1:5-14; 1 João 4:8.

[16] Capítulos 6 e 11: O amor motivou Jeová a designar vigias, como Ezequiel. Deus é amor; por isso ele não quer que ninguém seja destruído quando ele acabar com o governo de Satanás aqui na Terra. (2 Ped. 3:9) Nós temos o privilégio de imitar o amor de Deus. Fazemos isso quando cumprimos nossa responsabilidade de apoiar o trabalho do vigia atual. — Eze. 33:1-9.

[17] Capítulos 17 e 18: Jeová sabe que muitos vão rejeitar sua misericórdia e tentar eliminar seus servos leais. Por amor, Jeová vai defender seu povo quando “Gogue da terra de Magogue” atacar os que servem a 15-18. Por que temos que mostrar amor a outros, e como podemos fazer isso?

Deus lealmente. O amor que temos por outros nos motiva a avisar ao maior número de pessoas possível que Jeová vai destruir os que maltratam seu povo. — Eze. 38:1–39:20; 2 Tes. 1:6, 7.

[18] Capítulos 19, 20 e 21: Podemos ver claramente o amor de Jeová pelas pessoas na visão do rio que dá vida e na visão da distribuição da terra. Essas visões descrevem as bênçãos da maior demonstração do amor de Jeová, que foi dar a vida do seu Filho por nós. Por causa do resgate, podemos ter nossos pecados perdoados e viver para sempre como parte da família de Deus. Uma das melhores formas de mostrar nosso amor pelas pessoas é por falar a elas sobre o futuro maravilhoso que Jeová prometeu para os que têm fé em Jesus. — Eze. 45:1-7; 47:1–48:35; Apo. 21:1-4; 22:17.

Depois dos mil anos, um grande ato de humildade

[19] Durante o Reinado de Mil Anos, Jesus vai ressuscitar bilhões de pessoas e acabar com a dor causada pelo nosso “inimigo”, “a morte”. (1 Cor. 15:26; Mar. 5:38-42; Atos 24:15) A história da humanidade não tem sido uma história feliz. Mas, no futuro,

---

19. O que Jesus vai fazer durante o Reinado de Mil Anos? (Veja também o quadro “O teste final”.)

O TESTE FINAL

VEJA OS PARÁGRAFOS 19-29.

A humanidade volta a ser perfeita
1 COR. 15:26

Jesus entrega o Reino de volta a Jeová
1 COR. 15:24

Satanás é solto do abismo;
rebeldes se juntam a Satanás no ataque final
APO. 20:3, 7, 8

Todos os rebeldes são destruídos
APO. 20:9, 10, 15

Vida eterna em paz e união
ROM. 8:19-21

conforme as pessoas forem sendo ressuscitadas, todo esse sofrimento vai ficar para trás. Jesus vai dar aos ressuscitados a oportunidade de escrever uma nova história, uma história melhor. Por causa do sacrifício de resgate, ele vai poder desfazer todo o mal causado pelas guerras, pelas doenças e pela fome. Mais do que isso, ele vai nos ajudar a eliminar a raiz do problema: o pecado herdado de Adão, que nos causa tanto sofrimento. (Rom. 5:18, 19) Jesus vai desfazer completamente "as obras do Diabo". — 1 João 3:8.

[20] Leia 1 Coríntios 15:24-28. O que vai acontecer depois que toda a humanidade for perfeita e a Terra tiver sido transformada no Paraíso que Jeová queria desde o começo? Jesus e os 144 mil vão demonstrar grande humildade ao entregar o Reino a Jeová. De boa vontade, eles vão abrir mão da autoridade que tiveram durante os mil anos. Tudo o que o Reino tiver realizado vai durar para sempre.

O teste final

[21] Jeová vai então fazer algo que vai mostrar a grande confiança que ele tem nos seus servos aqui na Terra. Ele vai ordenar que Satanás e os demônios sejam soltos do abismo onde ficaram presos durante os mil anos. (Leia Apocalipse 20:1-3.) O mundo vai estar bem diferente do que esses inimigos de Deus conheciam. Antes do Armagedom, a maioria das pessoas era enganada por Satanás, e a humanidade estava dividida pelo ódio e pelo preconceito. (Apo. 12:9) Mas, no final dos mil anos, toda a humanidade vai ser uma só família que se ama e que adora a

---

20. Como Jesus e os 144 mil vão demonstrar grande humildade?

21, 22. (a) Como a Terra vai estar no final dos mil anos? (b) Por que Jeová vai soltar Satanás e os demônios?

Jeová de forma unida. A Terra vai ser um verdadeiro Paraíso!

[22] Por que Jeová vai soltar Satanás e os demônios e deixá-los entrar nesse ambiente perfeito? No final dos mil anos, a maioria das pessoas nunca terá tido a oportunidade de provar sua lealdade como servo fiel de Jeová. Como assim? Bem, grande parte delas só vai conhecer a Jeová no Paraíso, depois de ser ressuscitada. Jeová não só vai ressuscitá-las como vai dar a elas tudo o que precisarem em sentido físico e espiritual. Além disso, no Paraíso só haverá pessoas que amam e servem a Jeová; assim, no final dos mil anos, os ressuscitados nunca terão sofrido influência negativa de ninguém. Satanás poderia acusar esses ressuscitados da mesma coisa que acusou Jó: que eles servem a Jeová só porque Ele os protege e abençoa. (Jó 1:9, 10) Assim, antes de Jeová escrever nossos nomes para sempre no livro da vida, ele vai nos dar uma oportunidade de provar de uma vez por todas que somos leais a ele como nosso Pai e Governante. — Apo. 20:12, 15.

[23] Por um curto período, Satanás vai ter a oportunidade de fazer as pessoas parar de servir a Deus. Que

23. Que teste cada pessoa vai enfrentar?

teste cada pessoa vai enfrentar? Pelo visto, todos vão enfrentar uma situação parecida com a de Adão e Eva: ou ficam do lado de Jeová, aceitando seus padrões, apoiando seu direito de governar e adorando a ele, ou ficam do lado de Satanás e se rebelam contra Deus.

[24] Leia Apocalipse 20:7-10. É interessante notar que os que se rebelam no final dos mil anos são chamados de Gogue e Magogue. Eles têm características parecidas com "Gogue da terra de Magogue", da profecia de Ezequiel. (Eze. 38:2) Como assim? Ezequiel predisse que "Gogue da terra de Magogue" atacaria o povo de Deus na grande tribulação. E Gogue é formado por nações que se opõem ao governo de Jeová. Da mesma forma, os que se rebelam no final dos mil anos são descritos como "nações". Essa é uma descrição interessante. Por quê? Porque, durante os mil anos, não existirão nações para dividir as pessoas; todas as pessoas serão governadas pelo Reino de Deus, formando uma só nação. Ao chamar esses rebeldes de Gogue e Magogue e dizer que eles são "nações", Apocalipse indica que Satanás vai conseguir criar divisões entre alguns do povo de Deus. Mas ninguém vai ser forçado a ficar do lado de Satanás. Cada pessoa perfeita vai tomar a sua própria decisão.

24. Por que os que vão se rebelar no final dos mil anos são chamados de Gogue e Magogue?

[25] Quantos vão se juntar a Satanás? O número desses rebeldes é “como a areia do mar”. Essa expressão não significa necessariamente que uma quantidade enorme de pessoas vai se rebelar. Como sabemos disso? Veja a promessa feita a Abraão. Jeová disse que o descendente de Abraão se tornaria como “os grãos de areia à beira do mar”. (Gên. 22:17, 18) Mas essa descendência acabou sendo de 144.001 — Jesus e seus irmãos ungidos. (Gál. 3:16, 29) É verdade que esse é um número significativo, mas, comparado com toda a humanidade, é um número bem pequeno. Da mesma forma, o número dos que vão se juntar a Satanás talvez seja significativo, mas não vai ser um número muito grande. Os rebeldes não vão conseguir acabar com os servos leais de Jeová.

[26] Os que se rebelarem vão ser logo destruídos. Junto com Satanás e os demônios, eles vão deixar de existir, sem nenhuma chance de um dia voltar a viver.

25, 26. (a) Quantos vão se juntar a Satanás? (b) O que vai acontecer com eles?

A única coisa a respeito deles que vai ser lembrada são as consequências das suas más decisões. — Apo. 20:10.

[27] Por outro lado, os que passarem no teste final vão ter seus nomes escritos para sempre no "livro da vida". (Apo. 20:15) Daí, como uma família unida e leal, todos os filhos e filhas de Jeová vão dar a ele a adoração pura que só ele merece.

[28] Imagine o futuro maravilhoso que você tem pela frente! Nunca mais você ou as pessoas que você ama vão sofrer. A cada dia você vai poder trabalhar com algo que dá alegria e desenvolver verdadeiras amizades. Você vai ser considerado justo aos olhos de Deus, não mais por causa do resgate de Cristo, mas por estar totalmente livre do pecado. Todas as pessoas vão ter uma amizade perfeita com Deus. E, o mais importante de tudo, tanto no céu como na Terra a adoração pura vai ser realizada de modo perfeito. A adoração pura terá sido restaurada no mais pleno sentido!

[29] Você vai estar lá para ver esse grande dia? Você poderá estar se continuar a colocar em prática os três pontos principais do livro bíblico de Ezequiel. Precisamos adorar somente a Jeová, continuar unidos na

27-29. Que bênçãos vão receber os que passarem no teste final?

adoração pura e mostrar amor a outros. Mas as profecias de Ezequiel ainda nos ensinam uma última lição muito importante. Qual?

"Terão de saber que eu sou Jeová"

[30] Em todo o livro de Ezequiel, as palavras "terão de saber que eu sou Jeová" aparecem vez após vez. (Eze. 6:10; 39:28) Para os inimigos de Deus, essas palavras vão significar guerra e morte. Eles vão ser obrigados a fazer mais do que apenas reconhecer que Jeová existe. Eles vão aprender da maneira mais difícil o significado do grande nome de Jeová: "Ele faz com que venha a ser". "Jeová dos exércitos" vai se tornar "um poderoso guerreiro" que vai lutar contra eles. (1 Sam. 17:45; Êxo. 15:3) Vai ser tarde demais quando eles entenderem uma verdade básica sobre Jeová: Nada pode impedi-lo de realizar sua vontade.

[31] Para o povo de Deus, as palavras "terão de saber que eu sou Jeová" vão significar vida e paz. Jeová vai fazer com que nos tornemos o que ele queria desde o começo: filhos e filhas que imitam perfeitamente suas qualidades. (Gên. 1:26) Já agora Jeová tem se tornado para nós um Pai amoroso e um Pastor que nos protege. Em breve ele vai se tornar um Rei vencedor. Antes de esse dia chegar, queremos estar decididos a seguir de coração a mensagem de Ezequiel. A cada dia queremos provar por palavras e ações que conhecemos a Jeová e sabemos o tipo de Deus que ele é. Daí, quando a grande tribulação começar, não vamos precisar ter medo. Pelo contrário, nós vamos 'nos pôr de pé e levantar a cabeça' porque saberemos que nossa salvação está próxima. (Luc. 21:28) Enquanto isso, queremos ajudar o máximo de pessoas possível a conhecer e a amar o único Deus que merece ser adorado, Aquele que tem o mais grandioso de todos os nomes: Jeová! — Eze. 28:26.

30, 31. O que as palavras "terão de saber que eu sou Jeová" vão significar para (a) os inimigos de Deus? (b) o povo de Deus?

SEU LUGAR NA ADORAÇÃO PURA

1 Que lições aprendemos no livro bíblico de Ezequiel?

2 Que promessa você não vê a hora de se cumprir durante o Reinado de Mil Anos de Jesus?

3 O que você pode fazer agora para se preparar para o teste final?

RESUMO DOS NOVOS ENTENDIMENTOS

Ao longo dos anos, A Sentinela tem publicado ajustes no nosso entendimento de várias profecias de Ezequiel. E este livro, A Adoração Pura de Jeová É Restaurada!, traz vários novos ajustes. Veja se você consegue responder às seguintes perguntas.

O que as quatro faces das criaturas viventes representam?

Texto bíblico
Eze. 1:4-6, 10; 10:2

Adoração Pura
Cap. 4, parág. 5-14

Entendimento anterior: Cada uma das quatro faces das criaturas viventes, ou querubins, representa uma das quatro qualidades principais de Jeová.

Novo entendimento: É verdade que cada uma das quatro faces das criaturas viventes representa uma das quatro qualidades principais de Jeová. Mas, quando vistas como um todo, as quatro faces representam todas as qualidades de Jeová. Além disso, as quatro faces destacam a grandiosidade do poder e da glória de nosso Deus.

Motivos para a mudança: Na Bíblia, o número quatro geralmente é usado para representar algo completo, abrangente. Assim, quando as quatro faces são vistas como um todo, elas representam mais do que quatro qualidades. Elas são a base da impressionante personalidade de Jeová. Além disso, cada face é de uma criatura que representa grandeza, poder e força. Mesmo assim, esses quatro poderosos representantes da criação — homem, leão, touro e águia — estão abaixo do trono de Jeová. Isso destaca que Jeová é o Soberano do Universo.

Quem o homem com o tinteiro de secretário representa?

Texto bíblico
Eze. 9:2

A Sentinela
Junho de 2016, pág. 16-17

Adoração Pura
Cap. 16, parág. 18

Entendimento anterior: O homem com o tinteiro de secretário representa os ungidos que ainda estão na Terra. Por meio da obra de pregação e de fazer discípulos, os ungidos estão como que colocando uma marca na testa dos que passam a fazer parte da "grande multidão". — Apo. 7:9.

Novo entendimento: O homem com o tinteiro de secretário representa Jesus Cristo. Ele vai marcar os da grande multidão quando eles forem julgados como ovelhas durante a "grande tribulação". — Mat. 24:21.

Motivos para a mudança: Jeová deixou o julgamento nas mãos do seu Filho. (João 5:22, 23) De acordo com Mateus 25:31-33, é Jesus quem vai determinar quem é 'ovelha' e quem é 'cabrito'.

Será que as irmãs prostitutas, Oolá e Oolibá, representam a cristandade, em especial a religião católica e a protestante?

Texto bíblico
Eze. 23:1-4

Adoração Pura
Cap. 15, quadro 15A

Entendimento anterior: Oolá (Samaria, capital de Israel), a irmã mais velha, representa a religião católica; Oolibá (Jerusalém, capital de Judá), a irmã mais nova, representa a religião protestante.

Novo entendimento: Essas duas irmãs prostitutas não representam nenhuma parte da cristandade. Em vez disso, esse relato nos ajuda a entender como Jeová se sente com aqueles que eram leais, mas que acabaram cometendo prostituição espiritual. Ele sente a mesma coisa com relação a todas as religiões falsas.

Motivos para a mudança: Nada na Bíblia dá a entender que Oolá e Oolibá representam a cristandade. Israel e Judá já foram comparadas a esposas fiéis de Jeová, mas essa comparação nunca foi feita com relação à cristandade. Além disso, apesar de os capítulos 16 e 23 de Ezequiel compararem o povo infiel de Deus a prostitutas, eles também dão uma esperança de recuperação e restauração. Mas a cristandade, por ser parte de Babilônia, a Grande, nunca teve essa esperança.

A infiel Jerusalém representa a cristandade?

Adoração Pura
Cap. 16, quadro 16A

Entendimento anterior: A infiel Jerusalém representa a cristandade. Sendo assim, a destruição de Jerusalém no passado indica que a cristandade também será destruída.

Novo entendimento: As coisas erradas que existiam na infiel Jerusalém, como idolatria e corrupção moral, nos lembram da cristandade, mas não dizemos mais que Jerusalém representa a cristandade.

Motivos para a mudança: Não existe base bíblica para dizer que Jerusalém representa a cristandade. Ao contrário da antiga Jerusalém, a cristandade nunca adorou a Jeová de modo puro. Além disso, Jerusalém teve o perdão de Jeová por um tempo, mas isso é algo que a cristandade nunca vai ter.

Como a visão dos ossos secos se cumpriu?

Texto bíblico
Eze. 37:1-14

A Sentinela
Março de 2016, pág. 29-31

Adoração Pura
Cap. 10, parág. 9-14

Entendimento anterior: Em 1918 os ungidos estavam sendo perseguidos e foram levados para o cativeiro de Babilônia, a Grande. Com isso, eles ficaram como que mortos em sentido espiritual e sua obra praticamente parou. Esse cativeiro durou pouco tempo e terminou em 1919, quando Jeová os trouxe de volta à vida como pregadores do Reino.

Novo entendimento: O cativeiro espiritual dos cristãos ungidos durou muito tempo e começou muito antes de 1918. Eles ficaram como que mortos em sentido espiritual desde os anos 100 d.C. até 1919. Isso combina com o longo período de crescimento do joio e do trigo da ilustração de Jesus.

Motivos para a mudança: O cativeiro do antigo Israel durou muito tempo; começou em 740 a.C. e terminou em 537 a.C. A profecia de Ezequiel descreve os ossos como "secos" ou "muito secos". Isso indica que aqueles representados pelos ossos tinham morrido havia muito tempo. Além disso, a restauração desses ossos é descrita como acontecendo aos poucos, o que levaria tempo.

O que significava juntar os dois bastões?

Texto bíblico
Eze. 37:15-17

A Sentinela
Julho de 2016, pág. 31-32

Adoração Pura
Cap. 12, parág. 13-14 e quadro 12A

Entendimento anterior: Depois de um breve período de desunião durante a Primeira Guerra Mundial, os ungidos fiéis voltaram a ser unidos em 1919.

Novo entendimento: A profecia destaca que Jeová faz seus adoradores se tornarem um só povo. Depois de 1919, com o passar do tempo, cada vez mais pessoas com esperança de viver na Terra foram se juntando aos ungidos. Os dois grupos servem a Jeová de forma unida.

Motivos para a mudança: A profecia não fala de um bastão que foi primeiro quebrado em dois e daí as duas partes voltaram a ser um só bastão. Assim, o objetivo da profecia não é descrever um grupo que primeiro ia ficar dividido e depois ia voltar a ser unido. Em vez disso, o objetivo é descrever como dois grupos iam se tornar um só.

Quem é Gogue de Magogue?

Texto bíblico
Eze. 38:2, 10-13

A Sentinela
15 de maio de 2015, pág. 29-30

Adoração Pura
Cap. 17, parág. 3-10

Entendimento anterior: Gogue de Magogue é o nome dado a Satanás depois que ele foi expulso do céu.

Novo entendimento: Gogue de Magogue se refere a uma coalizão, ou grupo, de nações que vai atacar o povo de Deus na grande tribulação.

Motivos para a mudança: A Bíblia diz que Gogue é dado como alimento para as aves de rapina e que ele recebe uma sepultura aqui na Terra. Isso indica que Gogue não é uma criatura espiritual. Além disso, o ataque de Gogue combina com o que os livros de Daniel e de Apocalipse dizem sobre o ataque que as nações farão contra o povo de Deus. — Dan. 11:40, 44, 45; Apo. 17:14; 19:19.

Será que o templo da visão de Ezequiel é o grande templo espiritual que o apóstolo Paulo explicou mais tarde?

Texto bíblico
Eze. 40:1-5

Adoração Pura
Caps. 13 e 14

Entendimento anterior: O templo da visão de Ezequiel e o templo espiritual que o apóstolo Paulo explicou são a mesma coisa.

Novo entendimento: Ezequiel não viu o templo espiritual que passou a existir em 29 d.C. O que ele viu foi um exemplo perfeito de como a adoração pura devia ser realizada de acordo com a Lei de Moisés depois do exílio. A explicação que Paulo deu sobre o templo espiritual se concentra no trabalho que Jesus fez como o Sumo Sacerdote Maior entre os anos 29 e 33 d.C. Já na visão de Ezequiel sobre o templo, não se fala nada sobre o sumo sacerdote; a visão se concentra na restauração espiritual que começou em 1919. Sendo assim, nós não procuramos um significado simbólico em todas as características e medições do templo da visão de Ezequiel. Em vez disso, precisamos nos concentrar principalmente nas lições que a visão de Ezequiel nos ensina sobre os padrões de Jeová para adoração.

Motivos para a mudança: As diferenças entre o templo da visão de Ezequiel e o templo espiritual são grandes. Por exemplo, no templo de Ezequiel são oferecidos muitos sacrifícios de animais; no templo espiritual é oferecido apenas um sacrifício, "de uma vez para sempre". (Heb. 9:11, 12) Jeová só revela suas verdades na hora certa. Nas centenas de anos antes de Cristo vir à Terra, ainda não era o tempo para Jeová revelar as verdades sobre o templo espiritual.

Posição religiosa e ética

sobre tratamentos médicos e assuntos relacionados

As Testemunhas de Jeová amam a vida e fazem tudo o que for razoável para prolongá-la. Procuram obter tratamento de saúde de qualidade e aceitam a grande maioria dos tratamentos médicos.

Aborto

Um aborto provocado de modo deliberado só para evitar o nascimento de um filho indesejado equivale a tirar premeditadamente uma vida humana. Isso é inaceitável para as Testemunhas de Jeová. Se na hora do nascimento for preciso escolher salvar a vida da mãe ou a do bebê, cabe aos pais ou responsáveis legais fazer essa escolha.

Álcool, narcóticos e medicamentos

A Bíblia não proíbe o consumo moderado de bebidas alcoólicas. (Deuteronômio 14:26; Efésios 5:18; 1 Timóteo 5:23) Mas princípios bíblicos relacionados com a moderação e o respeito pela vida e pelas faculdades mentais não permitem o abuso de substâncias, como o uso de tabaco e drogas recreativas. O uso de medicamentos com acompanhamento médico, incluindo narcóticos para dor extrema, é assunto de decisão pessoal.

Assistência pastoral

As Testemunhas de Jeová dão consolo espiritual e ajuda prática aos membros de sua religião que estão doentes ou hospitalizados. Na maioria dos principais centros urbanos, foram formados Grupos de Visitas a Pacientes, compostos de ministros qualificados.

Autópsias e dissecações

São os familiares que decidem se é recomendável ou não que uma autópsia seja feita para determinar a causa da morte.

Autotransfusão (Veja a tabela neste documento.)

As Testemunhas de Jeová não aceitam a doação autóloga pré-operatória de sangue. Mas técnicas que envolvem autotransfusão, como hemodiluição, recuperação intraoperatória de células, máquina coração-pulmão e hemodiálise, são assuntos de decisão pessoal. Os equipamentos, porém, devem ser preparados com fluidos que não contenham sangue. Pacientes Testemunhas de Jeová talvez aceitem tampão sanguíneo peridural, plasmaférese, técnicas de marcação celular e gel de plaquetas autólogas. Os profissionais da saúde devem determinar com antecedência quais produtos e procedimentos são aceitáveis para cada paciente.

Circuncisão

No começo da história do cristianismo do primeiro século, a circuncisão deixou de ser uma questão religiosa. (1 Coríntios 7:19) Por isso, hoje os pais é que decidem se o filho será circuncidado. A prática de submeter meninas à mutilação genital feminina é encarada como algo cruel e desnecessário.

Controle de natalidade (contracepção)

A Bíblia não proíbe o controle de natalidade. Os casais determinam em particular e de modo responsável se vão usar ou não algum método apropriado de planejamento familiar. Mas as Testemunhas de Jeová rejeitam qualquer método contraceptivo que cause aborto.

FATO INTERESSANTE

As Testemunhas de Jeová possuem uma ampla variedade de conceitos sobre o uso de frações derivadas dos componentes primários (hemocomponentes) do sangue. Os médicos devem verificar com antecedência qual é a posição de cada paciente sobre o assunto.

Decisões e escolha consciente

As Testemunhas de Jeová buscam prontamente ajuda médica quando ela é necessária. Muitos tribunais reconhecem o direito fundamental de o paciente decidir sobre seu próprio corpo quanto a decisões de ordem médica, e protegem a autonomia do paciente de acordo com o princípio do consentimento informado ou escolha consciente de tratamentos de saúde. Em alguns países, isso inclui pacientes que são adolescentes maduros.

O paciente (ou os pais/tutores de um menor) deve ser plenamente informado do diagnóstico, do prognóstico e dos tratamentos recomendados, para que ele possa se informar e tomar decisões sobre tratamentos de saúde. Os pais têm o direito natural e assegurado por lei de tomar essas decisões por seus filhos menores.

FATO INTERESSANTE

As Testemunhas de Jeová não praticam a cura pela fé.

Disciplina, negligência e abuso de crianças

Não há justificativa para a negligência ou o abuso de crianças. A disciplina com o objetivo de instruir, treinar e corrigir com amor é vital para moldar a vida dos filhos pequenos.

Doação e transplante de órgãos

Embora a Bíblia claramente proíba a ingestão de sangue, não há nenhuma ordem bíblica que proíba especificamente receber tecidos ou ossos de outra pessoa. Portanto, doar órgãos ou receber um transplante de órgãos é um assunto de decisão pessoal.

Eutanásia

Veja “Prolongamento da vida e direito de morrer/Testamentos vitais ou diretrizes antecipadas”.

Frações de sangue (hemoderivados)

(Veja a tabela neste documento.)

O entendimento religioso das Testemunhas de Jeová não proíbe de modo absoluto o uso de frações provenientes dos componentes primários do sangue (hemocomponentes), como albumina, imunoglobulinas, fatores de coagulação e soluções de hemoglobina. Os profissionais da saúde devem determinar com antecedência quais produtos e procedimentos são aceitáveis para cada paciente. — Veja “Imunoglobulinas e soros” e “Opções terapêuticas às transfusões”.

Imunoglobulinas e soros

O entendimento religioso das Testemunhas de Jeová não proíbe de modo absoluto o uso de produtos com frações derivadas do sangue (hemoderivados). Cada Testemunha de Jeová precisa decidir se aceita ou não imunoglobulinas ou soros feitos com frações do sangue.

Leis dietéticas e crenças

As Testemunhas de Jeová se abstêm de comer sangue e carne não sangrada. (Atos 15:20, 28, 29) Com exceção a esse mandamento bíblico, as Testemunhas de Jeová como grupo não têm nenhuma restrição dietética.

Marcação celular

Alguns pacientes Testemunhas de Jeová permitem que uma quantia de seu sangue seja extraída e marcada com um agente para facilitar a realização de diferentes testes para diagnósticos.

Opções terapêuticas às transfusões

Para evitar transfusões de sangue durante um tratamento médico é preciso usar de forma sistemática estratégias clínicas de gerenciamento de hemorragia e anemia. Essas opções terapêuticas às transfusões são uma combinação de medicamentos, equipamentos e/ou técnicas médico-cirúrgicas para reduzir ou evitar a perda de sangue e aumentar a produção de sangue do próprio paciente. Esse tipo de abordagem, na qual uma equipe colaborativa adota vários métodos para evitar transfusões de sangue, também é chamada de “medicina e cirurgia sem sangue”, “conservação de sangue” ou “gerenciamento do sangue do paciente”.*

Plasmaférese

Quando um substituto do plasma (p. ex., coloide artificial) é usado, cabe a cada paciente Testemunha de Jeová decidir se usará ou não a plasmaférese. As Testemunhas de Jeová não aceitam plasma alogênico.

Procuradores

Em muitos países, cabe a cada Testemunha de Jeová decidir, de acordo com as circunstâncias pessoais e as disposições da lei, a quem ou quais pessoas deseja nomear para tomar decisões em seu lugar em caso de incapacidade. Se o paciente nomear um procurador em seu documento com diretrizes antecipadas e procuração para tratamento de saúde, deve-se respeitar a autoridade que essa pessoa tem para tomar decisões no lugar do paciente incapacitado. — Veja “Decisões e escolha consciente” e o quadro “Documentos com diretrizes antecipadas e procuração para tratamento de saúde”.

* As Comissões de Ligação com Hospitais para as Testemunhas de Jeová (Colihs) poderão fornecer aos médicos informações relacionadas com as opções terapêuticas às transfusões de sangue. Além disso, poderão providenciar que os médicos entrem em contato com médicos que são experientes no gerenciamento de pacientes sem o uso de transfusões de sangue. Essas comissões atuam na maioria dos principais centros urbanos.

Posição das Testemunhas de Jeová sobre o uso de sangue alogênico e autólogo

POSIÇÃO	SANGUE ALOGÊNICO				SANGUE AUTÓLOGO
	Sangue total
Inaceitável	Glóbulos vermelhos	Glóbulos brancos	Plaquetas	Plasma	• Doação e armazenamento pré-operatório de sangue autólogo para reinfusão posterior
Decisão pessoal	Frações de glóbulos vermelhos • Hemina • Hemoglobina	Frações de glóbulos brancos	Frações de plaquetas	Frações do plasma • Albumina • Fatores de coagulação • Fibrinogênio • Imunoglobulinas	• Hemodiluição normovolêmica aguda • Hemodiálise • Circulação extracorpórea (bypass cardiopulmonar) • Recuperação intraoperatória de sangue

Cada Testemunha de Jeová, de acordo com sua consciência, toma sua decisão quanto ao que pode aceitar. É importante conversar com antecedência com cada paciente sobre que produtos ou procedimentos são aceitáveis para ele.

Documentos com diretrizes antecipadas e procuração para tratamento de saúde

As Testemunhas de Jeová portam um documento legalmente válido com diretrizes que proíbem que transfusões de sangue lhes sejam dadas, independentemente das circunstâncias. O documento é elaborado de acordo com as leis locais e contém a decisão pessoal do portador quanto a frações de sangue (hemoderivados), procedimentos envolvendo o uso do próprio sangue e outros assuntos de natureza médica. Em alguns lugares, a lei permite que o paciente também use esse documento para nomear um procurador, ou representante legal, autorizado a tomar decisões médicas ou a ser consultado em nome do paciente caso este esteja incapacitado de fazer isso.

Prolongamento da vida e direito de morrer/Testamentos vitais ou diretrizes antecipadas

A vida é sagrada. Por isso, devem-se fazer esforços razoáveis e humanitários para sustentar e prolongar a vida. Mas a Bíblia não exige que se tomem medidas extraordinárias, complicadas, aflitivas ou custosas para manter viva uma pessoa que está morrendo. Em alguns casos, o consenso dos médicos que estão cuidando do caso é que medidas assim simplesmente prolongariam o processo de morte e/ou deixariam o paciente sem uma vida digna. As instruções explícitas do paciente, expressas por escrito ou oralmente, precisam ser respeitadas.

FATO INTERESSANTE

Em muitos países, a maioria das Testemunhas de Jeová nomeia um (ou mais de um) representante com autoridade jurídica para tomar decisões ou ser consultado caso o paciente esteja impossibilitado de fazer isso.

Religião e curas pela fé

As Testemunhas de Jeová têm fé em Deus, mas não praticam curas pela fé.

Sacramentos religiosos, ordenanças, rituais e costumes

As Testemunhas de Jeová não possuem rituais especiais que precisam ser realizados para os que estão doentes ou morrendo. Deve-se fazer todo o empenho razoável para prover alívio e consolo ao paciente por meio de assistência médica e ajuda espiritual.

Tecnologia de reprodução

As Testemunhas de Jeová encaram a fertilização in vitro, em que os óvulos e o esperma vêm de pessoas que não são casadas entre si, algo comparável ao adultério e, por isso, inaceitável. (Levítico 18:20; Hebreus 13:4) A maternidade de substituição também é inaceitável.

Transfusões de sangue (Veja a tabela.)

As Testemunhas de Jeová não aceitam transfusões de sangue em vista do que indicam os seguintes textos bíblicos: "Somente não comam a carne de um animal com seu sangue, que é a sua vida." (Gênesis 9:3, 4) "Terá de derramar o sangue e cobri-lo com pó." (Levítico 17:13, 14) "Abstenham[-se] . . . de imoralidade sexual, do que foi estrangulado e de sangue." (Atos 15:19, 20) Embora esses versículos não estejam expressos em termos médicos, as Testemunhas de Jeová os consideram como proibindo a transfusão de sangue total, glóbulos vermelhos, glóbulos brancos, plaquetas e plasma. Pacientes que são Testemunhas de Jeová solicitam tratamentos que usem alternativas às transfusões de sangue. — Veja "Opções terapêuticas às transfusões".

FATO INTERESSANTE

Muitas Testemunhas de Jeová aceitam técnicas de gerenciamento de sangue autólogo, como a recuperação intraoperatória de células e a hemodiluição.

Transplante de células-tronco

Células-tronco obtidas à custa da vida de um embrião são inaceitáveis para as Testemunhas de Jeová. Mas cabe a cada paciente decidir se aceitará ou não células-tronco extraídas de seu próprio sangue ou do sangue de outra pessoa — desde que os componentes sanguíneos não sejam intencionalmente coletados, armazenados e reinfundidos com as células-tronco.

Transplante de medula óssea

Visto que a Bíblia não considera a medula óssea equivalente ao sangue, aceitar ou não um transplante de medula é uma decisão pessoal. — Isaías 25:6.

Vacinas

As Testemunhas de Jeová não são contra vacinas. Para elas, tomar ou não vacinas é uma decisão pessoal. Muitas Testemunhas de Jeová decidem se vacinar.

Para mais informações

As Testemunhas de Jeová contam com uma rede mundial de mais de 2 mil Comissões de Ligação com Hospitais (Colihs). Essa rede fornece informações abalizadas sobre estratégias clínicas para evitar transfusões de sangue e facilita o acesso a tratamentos de saúde para os pacientes que são Testemunhas de Jeová.

Para contatar um representante da Colih local, acesse www.jw.org/medical e clique em "Contate um representante".

2/22

Serviços de Informações sobre Hospitais para as Testemunhas de Jeová
Escritório internacional
+1 718-560-4700 | HIS@jw.org

ret-T
220607

Grzegorz Kaszyński
grzekasz@vp.pl
POLAND

13 May 2023

JOHN 1:1c

234 translations not rendering theos ēn ho logos as “the Word was God”

ΕΝ ΑΡΧΗ ΗΝ Ο ΛΟΓΟΣ
ΚΑΙ Ο ΛΟΓΟΣ ΗΝ ΠΡΟΣ ΤΟΝ Θ̅Ν̅
ΚΑΙ Θ̅Σ̅ ΗΝ Ο ΛΟΓΟΣ

The oldest Greeks papyrus with John 1:1

$\mathfrak{P}^{66}$ (Papirus Bodmer II)

c. 200 C.E.

$\mathfrak{P}^{75}$ (Papirus Bodmer XIV. XV)

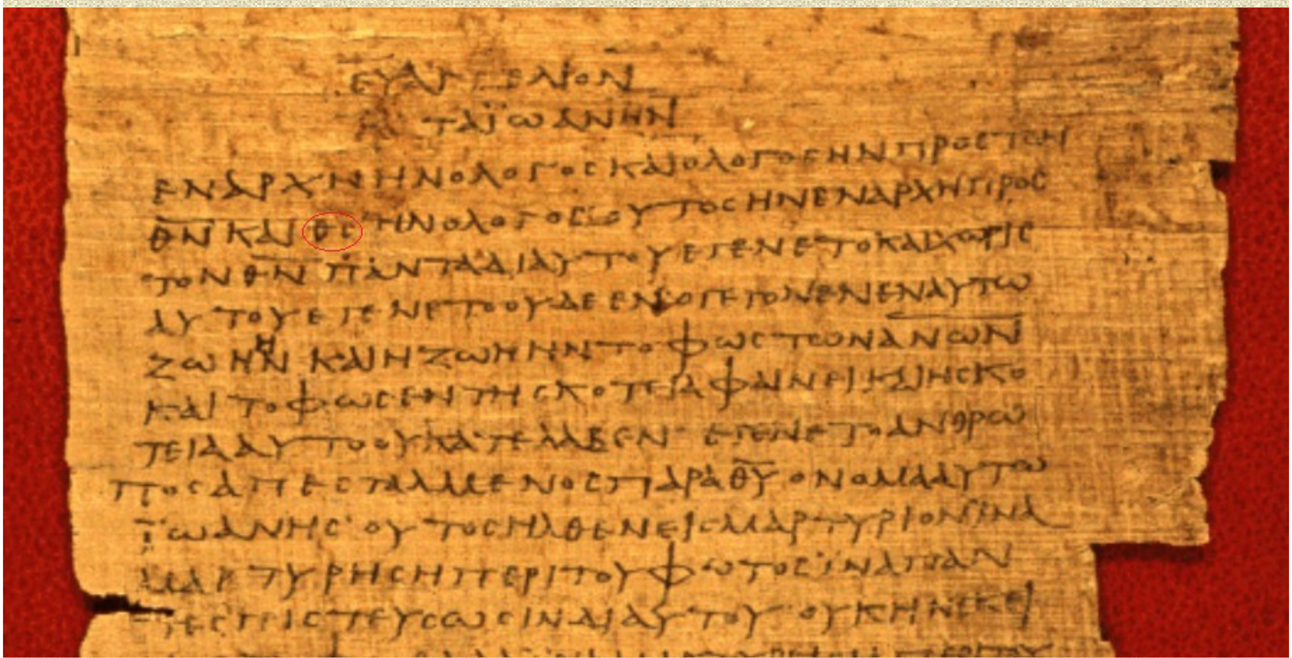
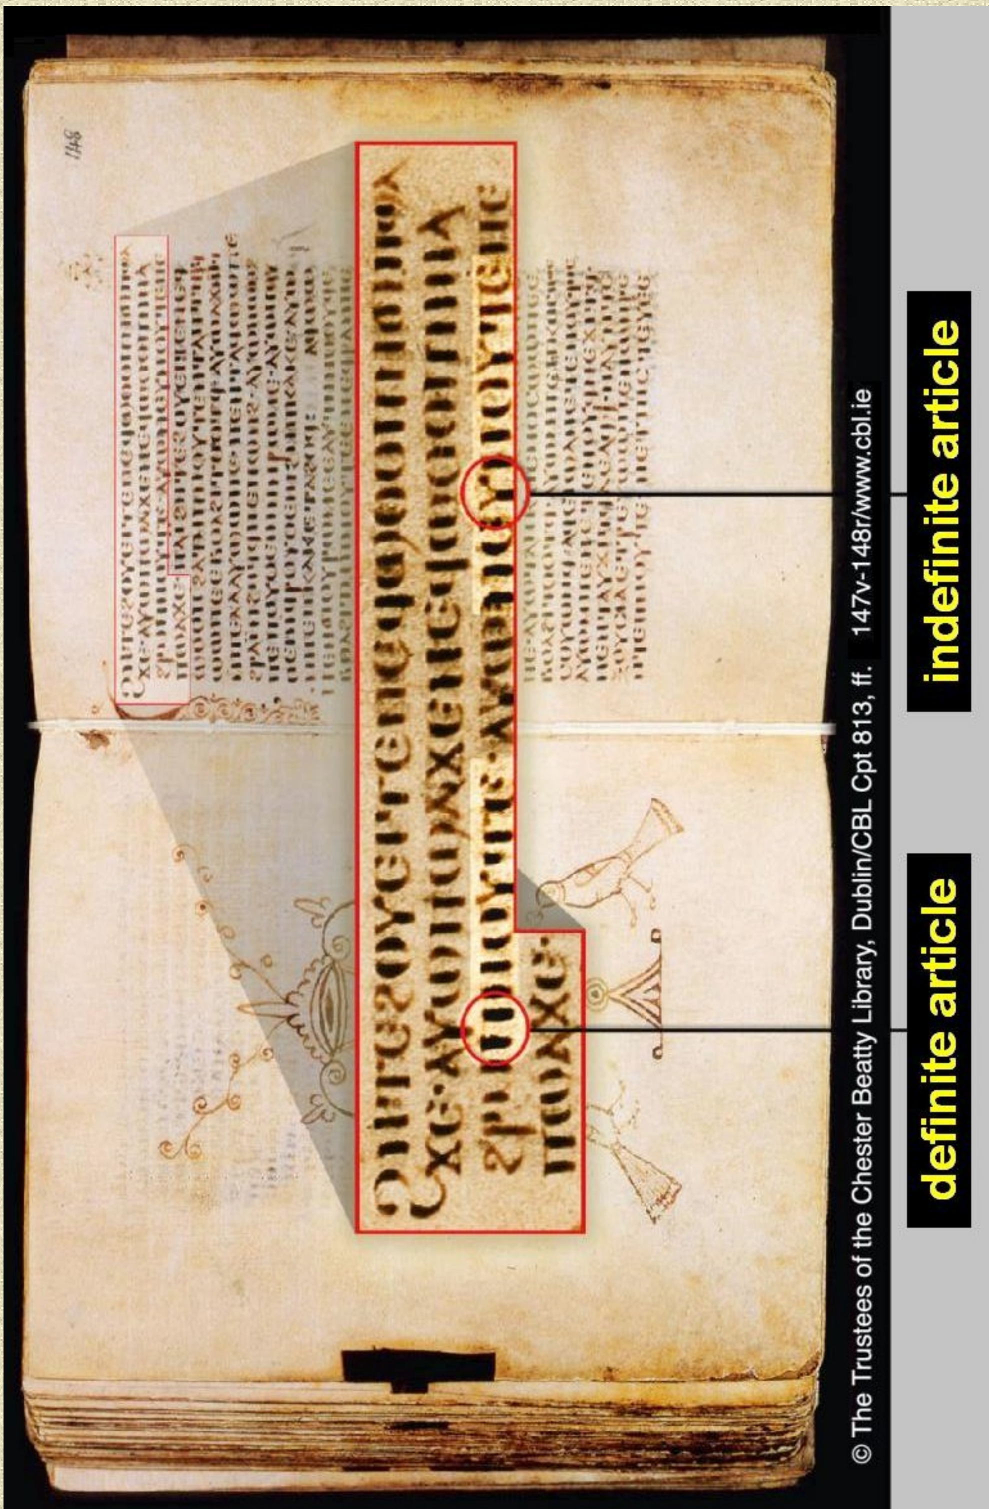
3 century



The Coptic papyrus with John 1:1 (dialect of Sahidic)

Papirus Chester Beatty 813

3 century



If you know some Bible version(s) that not have in this document, please let me know about it. From advance thank you very much!

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS:

• Bruno Borba (Brasil) who sent me the scans of John 1:1
from the following Portuguese translations:
Bereano, Chaves, Kerr, Lima, Luiz, D. Oliveira, E. S. Oliveira, Marins, Piloto, Pinho, Sanders, Sonnemann, Tófolo, Tolissano • Bulgarian: ERV • English: Coory, Thornhill • French: Caubet, Colinet •
Italian: Dalessandro • Spanish: El Libro de Yeshua / Jesús, Ferrando, NT-Interlineal, Ayala, Ramos, Toledo.
He also informed me about translations: Abdullah, Bíblia Aberta, Bíblia Exacta, Schoneveld, Schütz.

• Gerd Imhoff (Germany) who sent me the scans of John 1:1
from the following German translations:
Albrecht, Böhmer, Jeremias, Menge, Pfäfflin, Thimme, Wiese, English: Estes, Asante Twi: Agyeman

• Heinz Schmitz (USA) who sent me the scans of John 1:1
from Berkeley*'s*, Hall*'s*, Jannaris, Price*'s* version.

• Anthony F. Buzzard (USA) who sent me the scans of John 1:1
from own English version.

• Jan Kåre Christensen (Norway) who sent me the scans of John 1:1
from Norwegian Brune's version.

• Marc Claeys (Netherlands/Dutch) who sent me the scans of John 1:1
from Dutch Ogilvie*'s* version.

• Didier Fontaine (France) who sent me the scans of John 1:1
from French Pautrat's version.

• Bente Krogh Hansen (Syddansk Universitetsbibliotek, Odense, Denmark) who sent me the scans of John 1:1 from German Schulz's version.

• Natan Iwosa (England) who sent me the scans of John 1:1
from Stringfellow's version.

• Zenon Katulski (Poland) who sent me the scans of John 1:1
from Polish Łuczkiewicz's version.

• Oun Jon Kwon (Korea) who sent me the scans of John 1:1 from Faircloth*'s* version.

• Christiane Nord (German) who sent me the scans of John 1:1
from own German version.

• Pavlos D. Vasileiadis (Greece) who sent me the scans of John 1:1 from Hebrew Robertson's version.

NOTE: This project OMITS the following 3 controversial translations (translators of these versions were spiritists, cf. Ac 16:16-18):

John S. Thompson, A Monotessaron; or, The Gospel of Jesus Christ, According to the Four Evangelists: Harmonized and Chronologically Arranged
Baltimore: J. Robinson, Part First, 1828, p. 12

In the beginning existed the Logos,† and the Logos was with God, and the Logos was a god. This same was in the beginning with God: all things were made

Johannes Greber, Das Neue Testament aus dem Griechischen neu übersetzt und erklärt
New York: John Felsberg, Inc., 1937 (see "Foreword" in Ed. 1980, p. 15, § 2, 3)

1 Im Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war bei Gott; und ein 'Gott' war das Wort. 2 Dies war im Anfang bei Gott. 3 Alles ist durch das Wort

and the Word was a 'god'

Leonardo F. Betetto, Nuevo Testamento Reina Valera 1960 Con Modificaciones
PDF, Argentyna, 2016

1 En el principio era el Verbo, y el Verbo era con el Elohim, y el Verbo era un Elohim. 2 Este era en el principio con el Elohim. 3 Todas las cosas por él fueron hechas, y sin él nada de lo que ha sido

and the Word was a Elohim

• a god	53
• [a] god	2
• a God	12
• [a] God	3
• god	16
• god (of a kind)	4
• god of a kind	4
• god-like	1
• an unknown god	1
• “the specific god”	1
• a god being	1
• of God	4
• God (indef. art.)	1
• God (the same character as God)	1
• “God”	1
• divine	23
• Divine	8
• divine being	12
• divine Being	1
• divine nature	8
• divine kind	1
• divine sort	1
• divine weightiness	1
• a divine person	2
• Godlike	2
• godlike sort	2
• godlike nature	1
• godly	1
• godly object	1
• a nature like God’s	1
• God’s nature	1
• the essence of God	4
• of the quality of God	2
• like God	4
• [like] Jehovah	1
• like God in everything	2
• represented God	1
• a superior one	1
• mighty	5
• a mighty one	4
• powerful	3
• a powerful one	1
• what God was	15
• the very same as God	1
• the same as God	1
• the same as the nature of God	1
• shared his nature	1
• an exalted one	1
• one of the gods	1
• elohim	1
• elohim [mighty]	1
• an elohim	1
• a Elohim	4
• a Elohim (contrasted with “the Elohim” or “haElohim”)	4
• (a) Elohim	1
• Elohim [mighty, in charge of everything]	1
• Holy	1
• holy person	1
• fully expressive of God Himself	1

1

1480?-1500?

no the title and the front page

MSS Vat.ebr.100, Vatican

(4 Gospels in Hebrew)

?

and a son of God was a god

ובן האל היה אלוה

אותם היה נפרד מהם · והוא נשוא בשמים והם
מתפללים · חזרו בירושלם בגודל שמחה
והיו במקדש בכל עת משבחים
ומברכים השם ;
הס׳

קפיטולו ראשון נפי ש׳ יואן

בתחלה

היה בן תאוה · ובן האל
עם הא׳ · ובן הא׳ היה אלוה ; זה היה בתחלה
עם הא׳ כל הדברים עשוים בעדו · וזולתו שום
דבר אינו עשוה ; מה שעשה כי היה חיים
אותו החיים היה נר האנשים · והנר היה מאיר
בערפל · ושרפל וחשך לא היה להם יכולת
עליו ; הא׳ שלח אדם אחד שמו ג׳ואן זה בא
לעדות בעבור שיתן עדות מרחוק · הוא היה
אמיתות נר והוא האיר כל אדם בעולם הזה
עולם היה והעולם בעבורו עשה · והעולם לא
הכירו ולא עצמות דבריו · ואותו שלא קבלוהו · רק לכל אותו שקבלוהו נתן יכולת שיהיו

http://digi.vatlib.it/view/MSS_Vat.ebr.100/0238

2

1529

CZECH

Biblij Czeska w starem miestie Prazskem wytisstiena: Cum gratia et Priuilegio Regiae Maiestatis. (Ed. 1)

Praha: Pavel Severýn z Kapí Hory

anonymous translator

and a god was the word

a buch Bijsse slowo

https://www.manuscriptorium.com/apps/index.php?direct=record&pid=NKPEOD-NKCR__54_A_000051_4CW2A15-cs#search

NOTE: There is no the title page in this 1529 edition.

3 CATHOLIC

1532

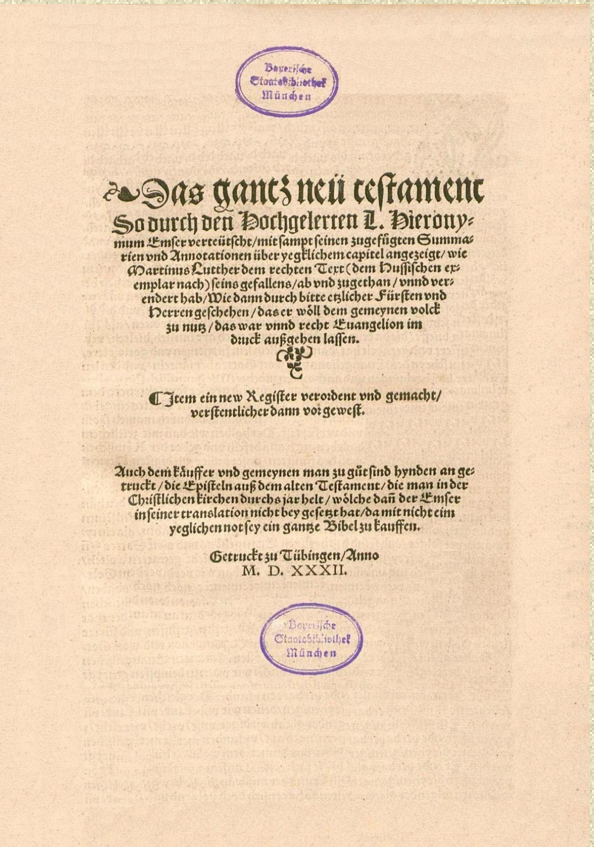
Das gantz neü testament so durch den Hochgelerten L. Hieronymum Emser

Tübingen: Morhart

Hieronymus Emser

and god was the word

und got war das wort

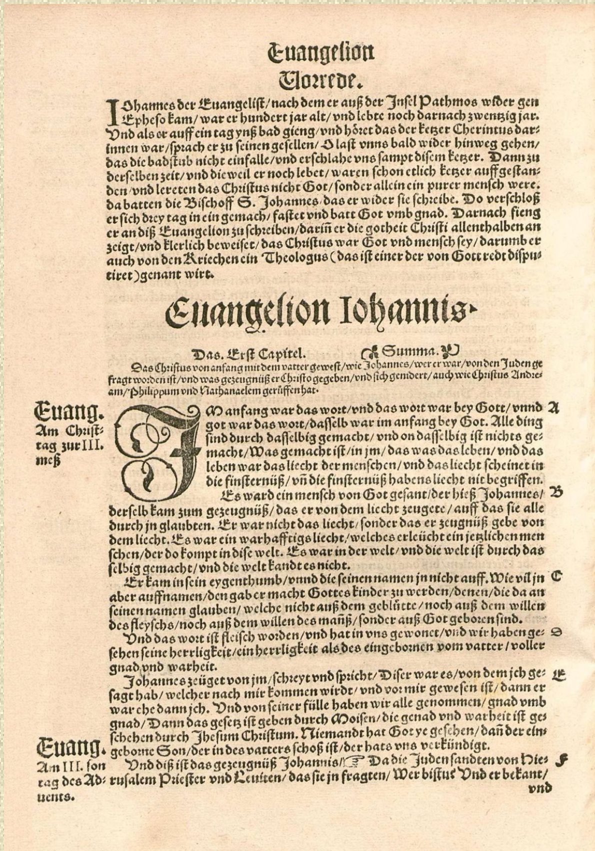


Das gantz neü testament
So durch den Hochgelerten L. Hieronymum Emser verteütscht/mit sampt seinen zugefügten Summarien vnd Annotationen über yeglichem capitel angezeigt/ wie Martinus Lutther dem rechten Text (dem Hussischen exemplar nach) seins gefallens/ab vnd zugethan / vnnd verendert hab/Wie dann durch bitte etzlicher Fürsten vnd Herren geschehen / das er wöll dem gemeynen volck zu nutz / das war vnnd recht Euangelion im druck außgehen lassen.

Jtem ein new Register verordent vnd gemacht/ verstentlicher dann vor gewest.

Auch dem käuffer vnd gemeynen man zu gůt sind hynden an getruckt / die Episteln auß dem alten Testament / die man in der Christlichen kirchen durchs jar helt / wölche dañ der Emser in seiner translation nicht bey gesetzt hat/da mit nicht eim yeglichen not sey ein gantze Bibel zu kauffen.

Getruckt zu Tübingen/Anno
M. D. XXXII.



Euangelion
Vorrede.

Johannes der Euangelist/nach dem er auß der Jnsel Pathmos wider gen Epheso kam/ war er hundert jar alt/ vnd lebte noch darnach zwentzig jar. Vnd als er auff ein tag ynß bad gieng/vnd höret das der ketzer Cherintus darinnen war/sprach er zu seinen gesellen/ O last vnns bald wider hinweg gehen/ das die badstub nicht einfalle/vnd erschlahe vns sampt disem ketzer. Dann zu derselben zeit/vnd die weil er noch lebet/ waren schon etlich ketzer auffgestanden/vnd lereten das Christus nicht Got/sonder allein ein purer mensch were. da batten die Bischoff S. Johannes/das er wider sie schreibe. Do verschloß er sich drey tag in ein gemach/ fastet vnd batt Got vmb gnad. Darnach fieng er an diß Euangelion zu schreiben/darin̄ er die gotheit Christi allenthalben an zeigt/vnd klerlich beweiset/ das Christus war Got vnd mensch sey/ darumb er auch von den Kriechen ein Theologus (das ist einer der von Gott redt disputiret) genant wirt.

Euangelion Johannis.

Das. Erst Capitel. Summa.

Das Christus von anfang mit dem vatter gewest/wie Johannes/wer er war/von den Juden gefragt worden ist/vnd was gezeugnüß er Christo gegeben/vnd sich genidert/ auch wie Christus Andream/ Philippum vnd Nathanaelem gerüffen hat.

Euang. Am Christtag zur III. meß

JM anfang war das wort/vnd das wort war bey Gott/ vnnd got war das wort/dasselb war im anfang bey Got. Alle ding sind durch dasselbig gemacht/ vnd on dasselbig ist nichts gemacht/Was gemacht ist/in jm/ das was das leben/ vnd das leben war das liecht der menschen/ vnd das liecht scheinet in die finsternüß/ vñ die finsternüß habens liecht nit begriffen. A

Es ward ein mensch von Got gesant/der hieß Johannes/ derselb kam zum gezeugnüß/ das er von dem liecht zeugete / auff das sie alle durch jn glaubten. Er war nicht das liecht/sonder das er zeugnüß gebe von dem liecht. Es war ein warhafftigs liecht/welches erleücht ein jetzlichen menschen/der do kompt in dise welt. Es war in der welt/ vnd die welt ist durch das selbig gemacht/ vnd die welt kandt es nicht. B

Er kam in sein eygenthumb/vnnd die seinen namen jn nicht auff. Wie vil jn aber auffnamen/den gab er macht Gottes kinder zu werden/denen/die da an seinen namen glauben/ welche nicht auß dem geblütte/noch auß dem willen des fleyschs/noch auß dem willen des mañß/sonder auß Got geboren sind. C

Vnd das wort ist fleisch worden/vnd hat in vns gewonet/vnd wir haben gesehen seine herrligkeit/ein herrligkeit als des eingebornen vom vatter / voller gnad vnd warheit. D

Johannes zeüget von jm/schreyt vnd spricht/ Diser war es/von dem jch gesagt hab/ welcher nach mir kommen wirdt/ vnd vor mir gewesen ist/ dann er war ehe dann jch. Vnd von seiner fülle haben wir alle genommen/ gnad vmb gnad/ Dann das gesetz ist geben durch Moisen/ die genad vnd warheit ist geschehen durch Jhesum Christum. Niemandt hat Got ye gesehen/ dañ der eingeborne Son/der in des vatters schoß ist/der hats vns verkündigt. E

Euang. An III. sontag des Aduents.

Vnd diß ist das gezeugnüß Johannis/ Da die Juden sandten von Hierusalem Priester vnd Leuiten/ das sie jn fragten/ Wer bistu? Vnd er bekant/ vnd F

https://bildsuche.digitale-sammlungen.de/index.html?c=viewer&bandnummer=bsb00073600

Ed. 1, 1530

1534

The Newe Testament, Imprinted at Anwerp by Marten Emperowr Anno M. D. xxxiiij. (Revised Edition)

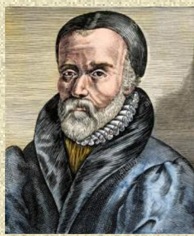
William Tyndale



In the begynnyng was the woorde/ and y worde was with God: and the word was god.

In the begynnyng was the woorde/ and y worde was with God: and the word was god.

The ne-
we Testament,
Imprinted at An-werp by Marten Emperowr.
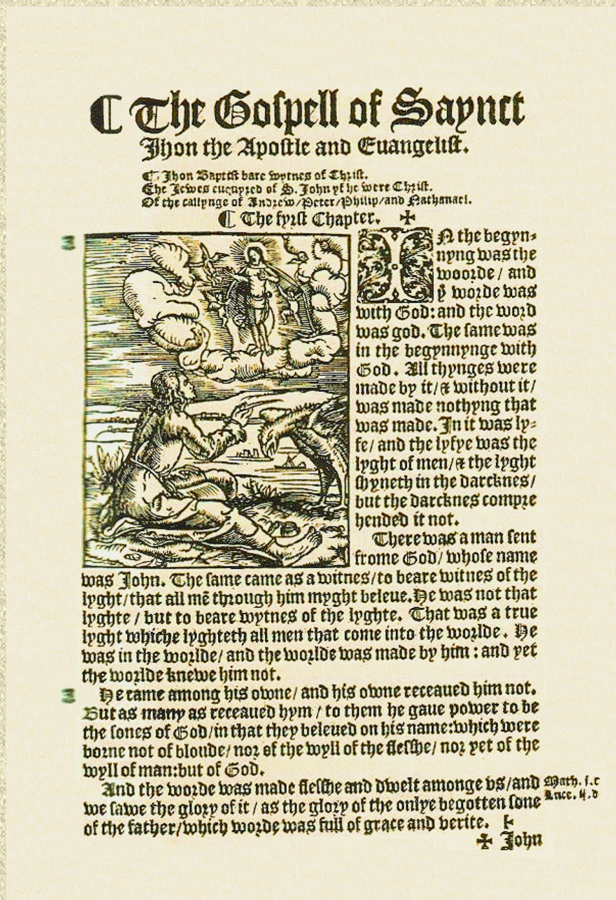
Anno. M. D. xxxiiij.



The Gospell of Saynct
Jhon the Apostle and Euangelist.

Jhon Baptist bare wytnes of Christ.
The Iewes enquyred of S. John yf he were Christ.
Of the callynge of Andrew/Peter/Philip/and Nathanael.

The fyrst Chapter.

IN the begynnyng was the woorde/ and y worde was with God: and the word was god. The same was in the begynnynge with God. All thynges were made by it/ & without it/ was made nothyng that was made. In it was lyfe/ and the lyfe was the lyght of men/ & the lyght shyneth in the darcknes/ but the darcknes comprehended it not.

There was a man sent frome God/ whose name was John. The same came as a witnes/to beare witnes of the lyght/that all mē through him myght beleue. He was not that lyghte / but to beare wytnes of the lyghte. That was a true lyght whiche lyghteth all men that come into the worlde. He was in the worlde/ and the worlde was made by him : and yet the worlde knewe him not.

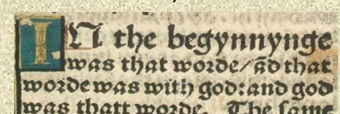
He came among his owne/ and his owne receaued him not. But as many as receaued hym / to them he gaue power to be the sones of God/in that they beleued on his name:which were borne not of bloude/ nor of the wyll of the flesshe/ nor yet of the wyll of man:but of God.

And the worde was made flesshe and dwelt amonge vs/and we sawe the glory of it / as the glory of the onlye begotten sone of the father/which worde was full of grace and verite.

Math. i.c
Luce. ii.d

John

Ed. 1, 1526



IN the begynnynge was that worde/ ād that worde was with god: and god was thatt worde. The same

5 CATHOLIC

1537

Bibel, Alt vnd new Testament/

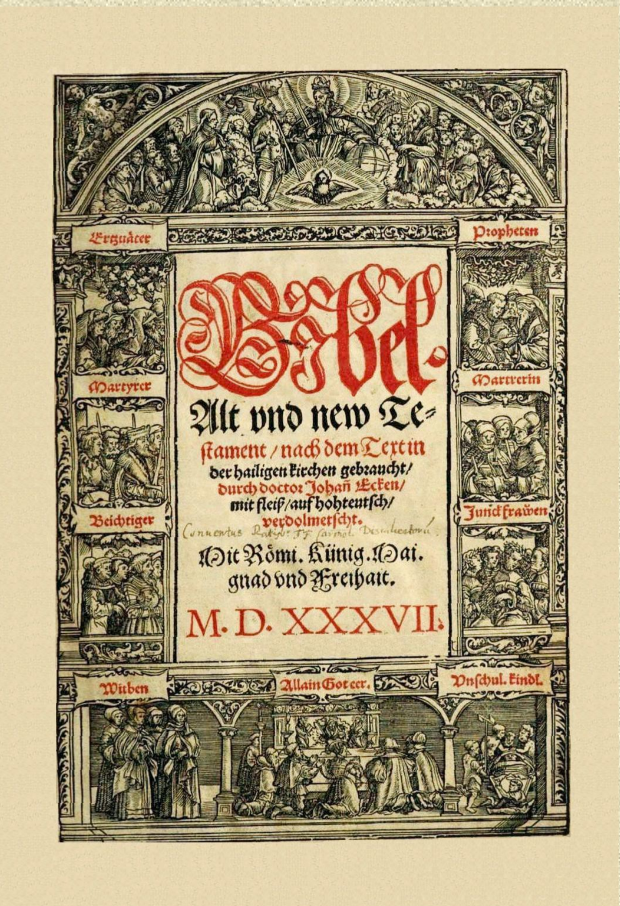
nach dem Text in der hailigen kirchen gebraucht

Augsburg: Aleksander I. Weißenhorn

Johann Eck

and god was the word

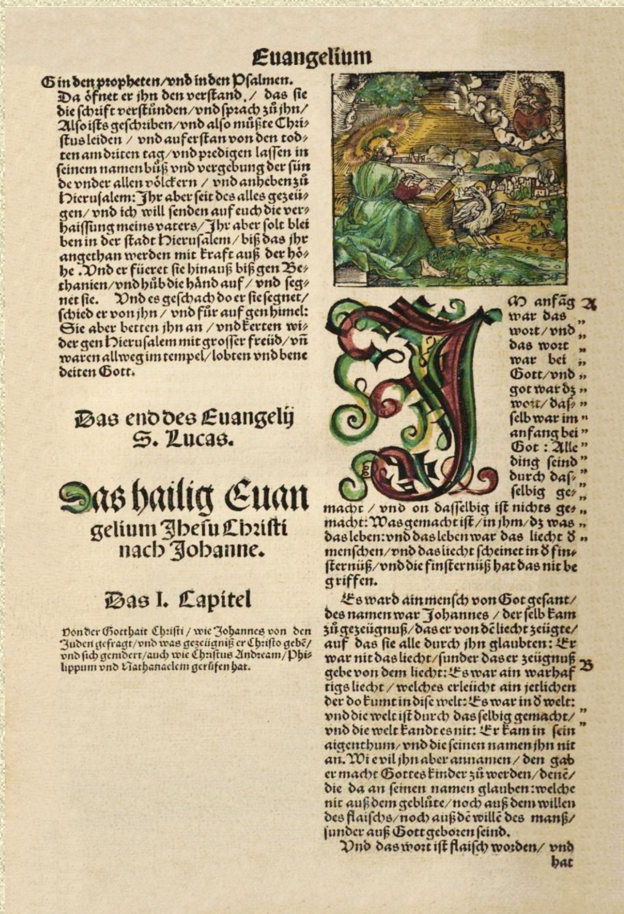
und got war das wort



Bibel. Alt vnd new Testament / nach dem Text in der hailigen kirchen gebraucht / durch doctor Johañ Ecken / mit fleiß / auf hohteutsch / verdolmetscht.

Mit Römi. Künig. Mai. gnad vnd Freihait.

M.D.XXXVII.



Euangelium

G in den propheten/vnd in den Psalmen. Da öfnet er jhn den verstand./ das sie die schrift verstünden/vnd sprach zů jhn/ Also ists geschriben/vnd also můßte Christus leiden / vnd auferstan von den todten am driten tag/vnd predigen lassen in seinem namen bůß vnd vergebung der sünde vnder allen völckern / vnd anheben zů Hierusalem: Jhr aber seit des alles gezeügen/ vnd ich will senden auf euch die verhaissung meins vaters/ Jhr aber solt bleiben in der stadt Hierusalem / biß das jhr angethan werden mit kraft auß der höhe. Vnd er füeret sie hinauß biß gen Bethanien/vnd hůb die händ auf / vnd segnet sie. Vnd es geschach do er sie segnet/ schied er von jhn / vnd fůr auf gen himel: Sie aber betten jhn an / vnd kerten wider gen Hierusalem mit grosser freüd/vñ waren allweg im tempel/lobten vnd benedeiten Gott.

Das end des Euangelij S. Lucas.

Das hailig Euangelium Jhesu Christi nach Johanne.

Das I. Capitel

Von der Gotthait Christi / wie Johannes von den Juden gefragt/vnd was gezeügniß er Christo gebẽ/ vnd sich gemidert/auch wie Christus Andream/Philippum vnd Nathanaelem gerůfen hat.

IM anfãg war das wort/vnd das wort war bei Gott/vnd got war dz wort/dasselb war im anfang bei Got: Alle ding seind durch dasselbig gemacht / vnd on dasselbig ist nichts gemacht: Was gemacht ist/in jhm/dz was das leben: vnd das leben war das liecht d' menschen/vnd das liecht scheinet in d' finsternüß/vnd die finsternüß hat das nit begriffen.

Es ward ain mensch von Got gesant/ des namen war Johannes / der selb kam zů gezeügnuß/das er von dẽ liecht zeügte/ auf das sie alle durch jhn glaubten: Er war nit das liecht/sunder das er zeügnuß gebe von dem liecht: Es war ain warhaftigs liecht / welches erleücht ain jetlichen der do kumt in dise welt: Es war in d' welt: vnd die welt ist durch das selbig gemacht/ vnd die welt kandt es nit: Er kam in sein aigenthum/ vnd die seinen namen jhn nit an. Wi e vil jhn aber annamen / den gab er macht Gottes kinder zů werden/denẽ/ die da an seinen namen glauben: welche nit auß dem geblůte/ noch auß dem willen des flaischs/noch auß dẽ willẽ des manß/ sunder auß Gott geboren seind.

Vnd das wort ist flaisch worden/ vnd hat

https://books.google.cz/books?id=QO7_PV7s0PMC

6

1581

בשורת הקרואות שנה בשנה וכו בשבתות ובחגי

= Besorot haq-qeru'ot shana va-shana bash-shabatot uvehaggê

Evangelia anniversaria, quae Dominicis diebus & in Sanctorum feſtis leguntur, Hebraicè conuerſa

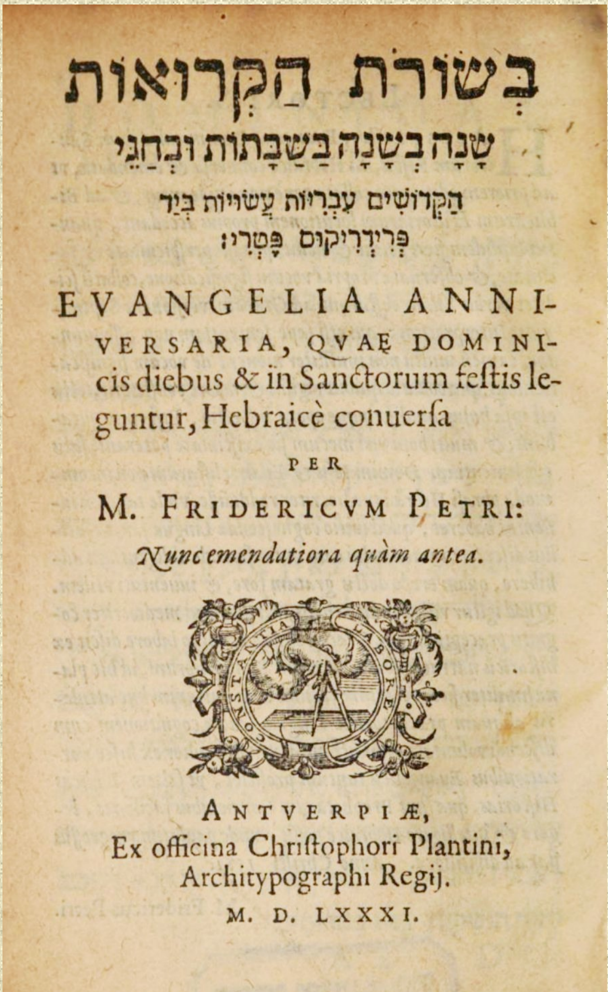
(Liturgical Gospels /selected fragments/ + part of the Acts 9)

Antverpiae: Ex officina Chriſtophori Plantini

Friedrich Peters (Fridericum Petri)

and a god was the Speech

והיה אלהים האמר



בשורת הקרואות
שנה בשנה בשבתות ובחגי
הקדושים עבריות עשויות ביד
פרידריקוס פטרי׃

EVANGELIA ANNI-VERSARIA, QVAE DOMINI-cis diebus & in Sanctorum feſtis leguntur, Hebraicè conuerſa

PER

M. FRIDERICVM PETRI:

Nunc emendatiora quàm antea.

ANTVERPIÆ,
Ex officina Chriſtophori Plantini, Architypographi Regij.
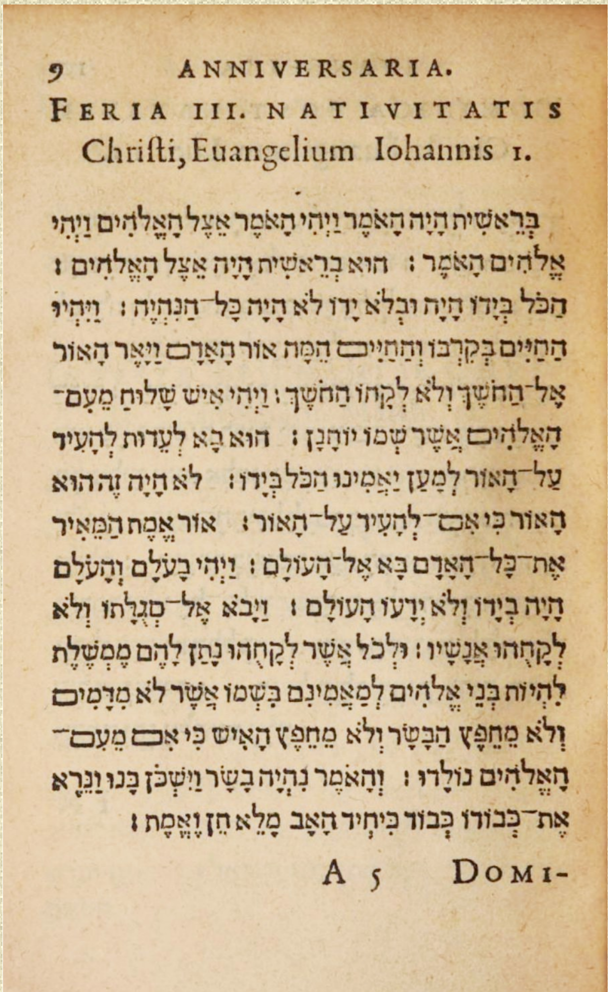
M. D. LXXXI.



FERIA III. NATIVITATIS
Chriſti, Euangelium Iohannis 1.

בראשית היה האמר ויהי האמר אצל האלהים ויהי
אלהים האמר ׃ הוא בראשית היה אצל האלהים ׃
הכל בידו היה ובלא ידו לא היה כל־הנהיה ׃ ויהיו
החיים בקרבו והחיים המה אור האדם ויאר האור
אל־החשך ולא לקחו החשך ׃ ויהי איש שלוח מעם־
האלהים אשר שמו יוחנן ׃ הוא בא לעדות להעיד
על־האור למען יאמינו הכל בידו ׃ לא היה זה הוא
האור כי אם־להעיד על־האור ׃ אור אמת המאיר
את־כל־האדם בא אל־העולם ׃ ויהי בעלם והעלם
היה בידו ולא ידעו העולם ׃ ויבא אל־סגלתו ולא
לקחהו אנשיו ׃ ולכל אשר לקחהו נתן להם ממשלת
להיות בני אלהים למאמינם בשמו אשר לא מדמים
ולא מחפץ הבשר ולא מחפץ האיש כי אם מעם־
האלהים נולדו ׃ והאמר נהיה בשר וישכן בנו ונרא את־כבודו כבוד כיחיד האב מלא חן ואמת ׃

http://books.google.pl/books?id=qsRIAAAAcAAJ

7

1599

Nouum Testamentum D[omi]ni N[ost]ri Iesu Christi: Syriacè Ebraicè Graecè Latinè Germanicè Bohemicè Italicè Hispanicè Gallicè Anglicè Danicè Polonicè

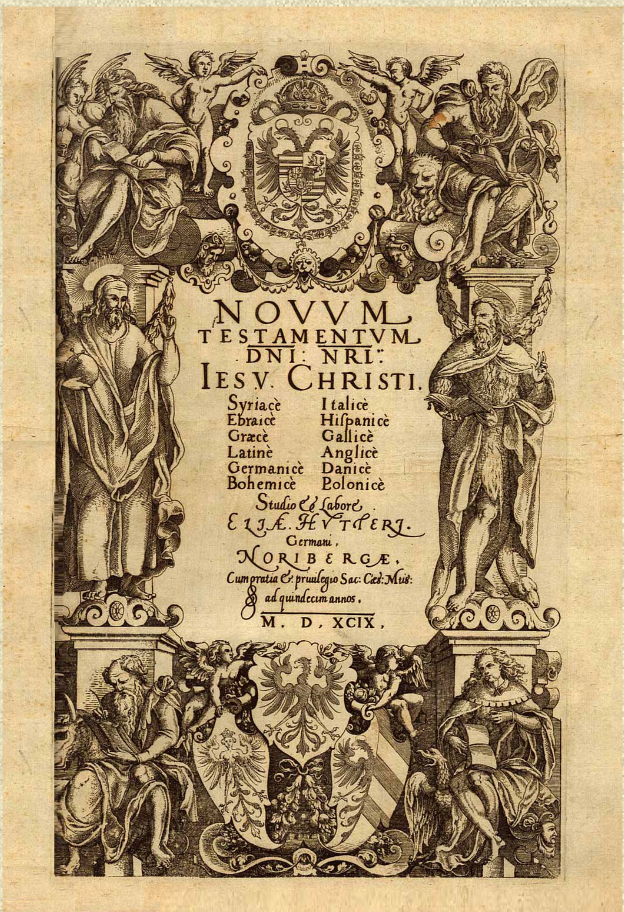
(NT in 12 languages)

Noribergae

Elias Hutter (Eliae Hutteri)

and a god was the Word

ואלהים היה הדבר



NOVVM TESTAMENTVM. DNI: NRI: IESV CHRISTI.

Syriacè Ebraicè Græcè Latinè Germanicè Bohemicè Italicè Hispanicè Gallicè Anglicè Danicè Polonicè

Studio & Labore ELIÆ HVTTERI. Germani.

NORIBERGÆ, Cum gratia & priuilegio Sac: Cæs: Mtis: ad quindecim annos.

M. D. XCIX.

En el principio ya era la Palabra: y la Palabra era acerca de Dios, y Dios era la Palabra.

Esta era enel principio acerca de Dios.

Todas las cosas por esta fueron hechas: y sin ella nada de lo que es hecho, fue hecho.

En ella estaua la uida, y la vida era la Luz de los hombres.

Y la Luz en las tinieblas resplandece mas las tinieblas no la comprehendieron.

Fue vn hombre embiado de Dios, el qual se llamaua Ioan:

Este vino por testimonio para que diesse testimonio de la Luz, para que todos creyessen por el.

El no era la Luz: sino para que diesse testimonio de la Luz.

Aquella Palabra era la Luz verdadera, que alumbra à todo hõbre, que viene en este mundo.

http://www.bibles-online.net/hutter/NewTestament/4-John/

8

CATHOLIC

1615

Testame[n]tum Nouum

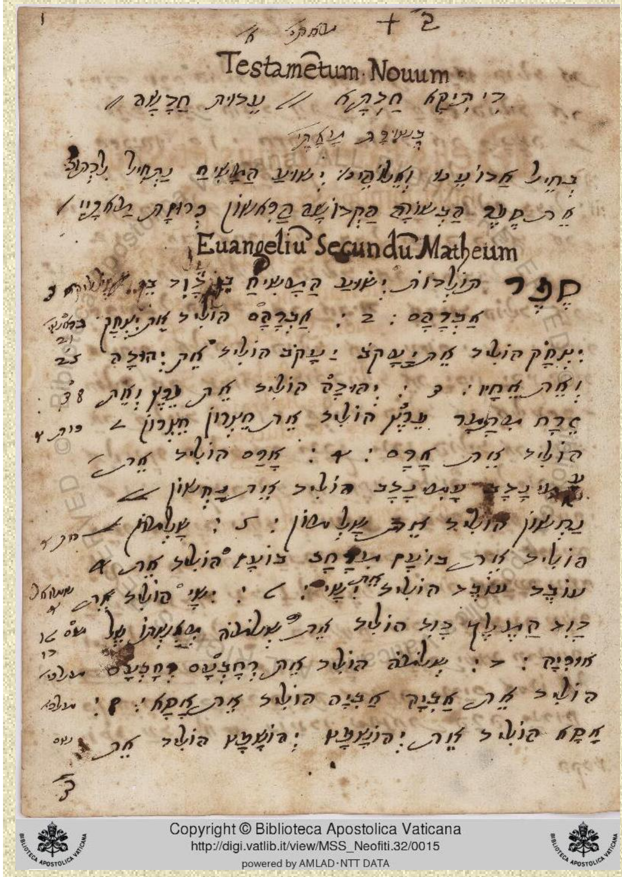
MSS Neofiti 32, Vatican

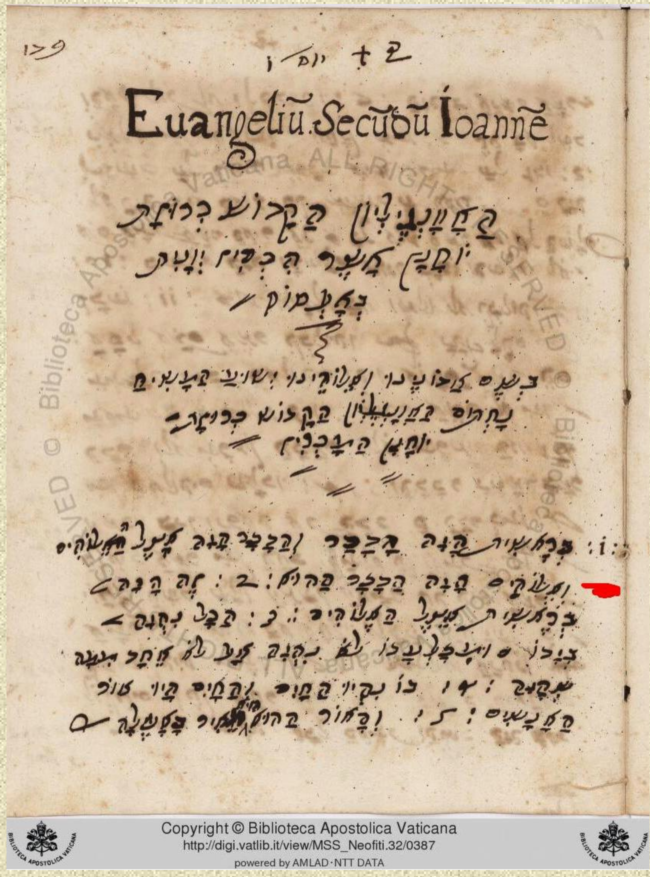
(4 Gospels in Hebrew)

Domenico Jerosomilitano (Dominicus Hierosomilitanus)

and a god was that Word

ואלהים היה הדבר ההוא





https://digi.vatlib.it/view/MSS_Neofiti.32

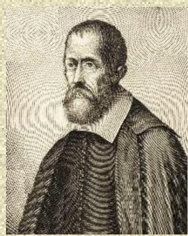
9

1630

Das Newe Testament, Das ist/ Alle Bücher des newen Bundes/ welchen Gott durch Christum mit den menschen gemacht hat/ Trewlich aus dem Griechischen ins Teutsche versetzet.

Raków (Poland): Sebastian Sternacki

Jan Kreliusz (Johannes Krell)



and the Speech was a god

und die Rede war ein Gott

Das Newe TESTAMENT,
Das ist/
Alle Bücher des newen Bundes/welchen Gott durch Christum mit den menschen gemacht hat/

Trewlich aus dem Griechischen ins Teutsche versetzet.

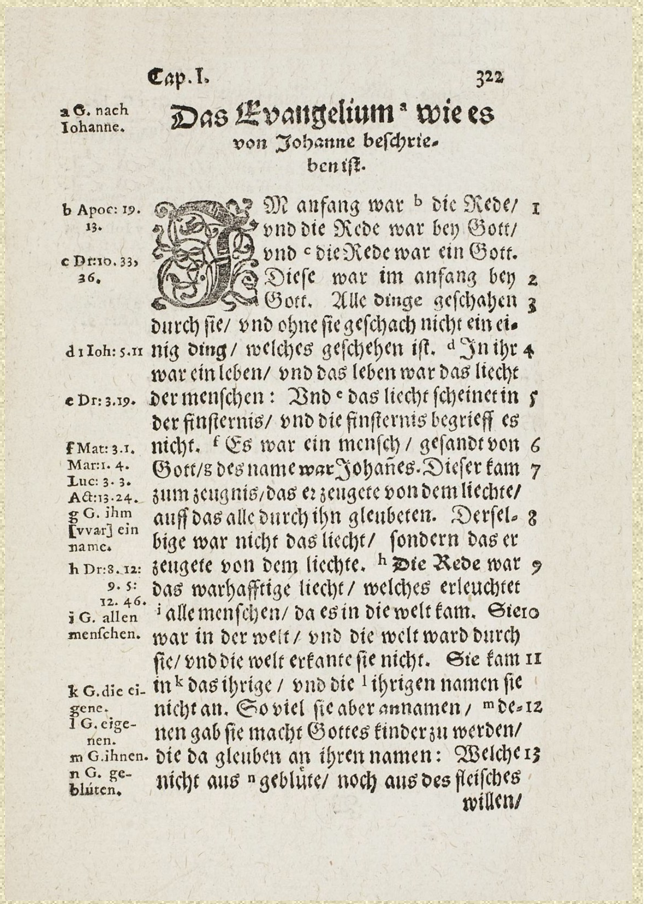
2 Timoth: 1. 9, 10.
Die gnade (Gottes) ist vns gegeben in Christo Jesu vor ewigen zeiten / ietzt aber offenbaret durch die erscheinung vnsers Heilandes Jesu Christi: welcher zwar den tod abgeschafft hat / das leben aber vnd vnverwesligkeit ans liecht gebracht durch das Evangelium.

Gedruckt im Jahr Christi
1 6 3 0.



Cap. I. 322

a G. nach Iohanne.

Das Evangelium [a] wie es von Johanne beschrieben ist.

IM anfang war [b] die Rede/ vnd die Rede war bey Gott/ vnd [c] die Rede war ein Gott. 1
Diese war im anfang bey Gott. 2
Alle dinge geschahen durch sie/ vnd ohne sie geschach nicht ein einig ding / welches geschehen ist. 3
[d] In ihr war ein leben/ vnd das leben war das liecht der menschen: 4
Vnd [e] das liecht scheinet in der finsternis/ vnd die finsternis begrieff es nicht. 5
[f] Es war ein mensch / gesandt von Gott/ [g] des name war Johañes. 6
Dieser kam zum zeugnis/ das er zeugete von dem liechte/ auff das alle durch ihn gleubeten. 7
Derselbige war nicht das liecht/ sondern das er zeugete von dem liechte. 8
[h] Die Rede war das warhafftige liecht / welches erleuchtet [i] alle menschen/ da es in die welt kam. 9
Sie war in der welt / vnd die welt ward durch sie/ vnd die welt erkante sie nicht. 10
Sie kam in [k] das ihrige / vnd die [l] ihrigen namen sie nicht an. 11
So viel sie aber annamen / [m] denen gab sie macht Gottes kinder zu werden/ die da gleuben an ihren namen: 12
Welche nicht aus [n] geblüte/ noch aus des fleisches willen/ 13

b Apoc: 19. 13.
c Dr:10. 33, 36.
d 1 Ioh: 5.11
e Dr: 3.19.
f Mat: 3.1. Mar: 1. 4. Luc: 3. 3. Act: 13. 24.
g G. ihm [vvar] ein name.
h Dr: 8. 12: 9. 5: 12. 46.
i G. allen menschen.
k G. die eigene.
l G. eigenen.
m G. ihnen.
n G. geblüten.

https://gdz.sub.uni-goettingen.de/id/PPN738373648

10

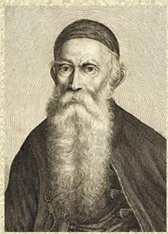
1658

DUTCH

Jonas Slichting van Bukowieks Uitbreyding over de 15 eerste verssen / van 't eerfte Kapittel van Joannes Euangelium, Met een bygevoeghde uytbreyding van het overige des zelfden Kapittels, door D. K. F.

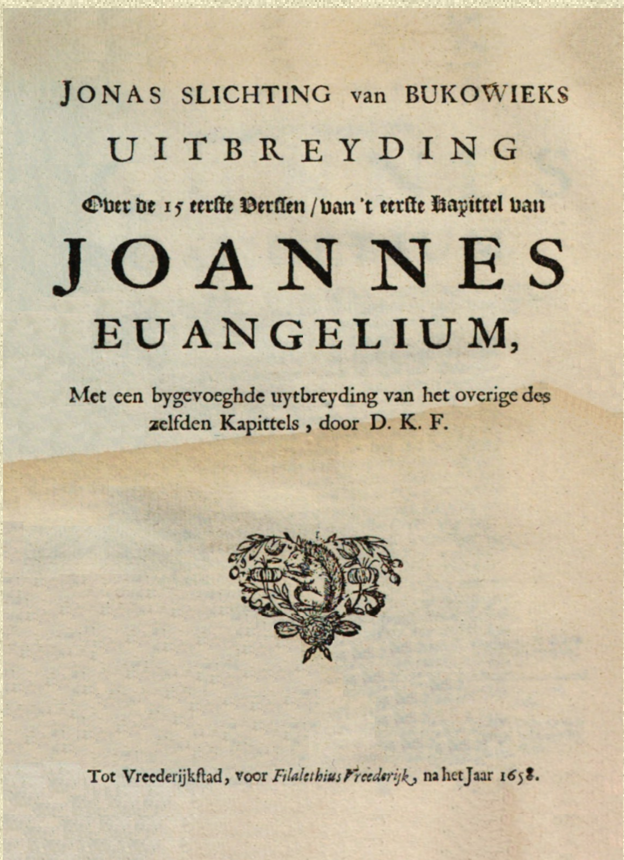
Tot Vreederijkstad, voor Filalethius Vreederik

Jonasz Szlichtyng



And the word was [a] God

En het woord was [een] God



JONAS SLICHTING van BUKOWIEKS

UITBREYDING

Over de 15 eerste Verssen / van 't eerste Kapittel van

JOANNES

EUANGELIUM,

Met een bygevoeghde uytbreyding van het overige des zelfden Kapittels, door D. K. F.

Tot Vreederijkstad, voor Filalethius Vreederijk, na het Jaar 1658.

Pag 1

UYTBREYDING

Over het eerste Kapittel van

JOANNES

EUANGELIUM.

Mark. 1. 1. V. 1. De geene die voor my het Euangelium beschreeven hebben / die hebben die zaak van het begin / 't welk Joannes des Doopers verkondiging is / verhandelt; (want een iegelijk ziet wel dat ik het begin verstaa van die zaak daar ik van handel / dat is van het Euangelium/) maar ik zal iets verhaalen dat van andere niet gezeyt is/ namelijk dat het Woord of de Reeden Gods (met welke benaaming ik Jesus beteeken / als den eersten en voornaamsten verkondiger en uytvoerder van Gods volmaakte wil/) in het begin geweest is: dat is / dat Jesus het ampt van het Woord of de Reeden Gods / nu al gehad heeft/ van God hem opgeleyt/toen Joannes de Dooper het Euangelium van de naaking des Heemelschen of Gods Kooningrijk (het welk het Kooningrijk van de Messias is) al verkondigde / toen Jesus zich noch stil hield. Het welk my goed gedacht heeft aan te roeren om die geene dewelke Joannes den Dooper hooger achten als Jesus / en gevolgelijk ontkennen dat Jesus de beloofde Messias Gods geweest heeft / om dat Jesus met zijn verkondiging niet te voorschijn quam terwijl Joannes de Dooper het Euangelium verkondigde. En indien iemand vraagt waar Jesus toen geweest / en wat hy gedaan heeft / die weete dat Jesus toen by God was / gelijk als aan het woord Gods en aan zoo groot een gezant Gods aan de menschen betaamde. Ja zoo groot was de waardigheyt en uytneementheyt van dat woord dat hy ook zelfs een God was / van God met goddelijke macht en wijsheyt begaaft.

V. 2. Dit woord dan / of deeze reeden Gods was in het begin des Euangeliums by God: want toen Joannes ampt en verkonding ten eynde liep/ quam het woord van God tot den menschen / en heeft zijn ampt onder hen begonnen te bedienen:

In het begin was de reeden.

En de reeden was by God,

En het woord was [een] God.

Deeze was in het begin by God.

A V. 3. En

https://books.google.pl/books?id=rbtnAAAAcAAJ

1660

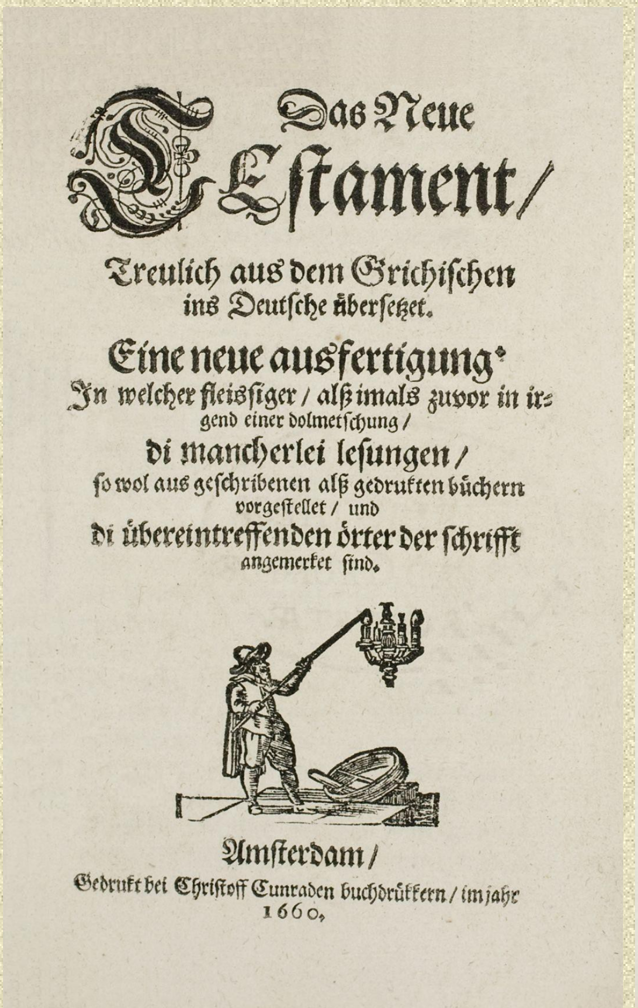
Das Neue Testament: Treulich aus dem Grichischen ins Deutsche übersetzet

Amsterdam: Christoff Cunraden

Jeremias Felbinger

and the Speech was a god

und di Rede war ein Gott



Das Neue Testament/

Treulich aus dem Grichischen ins Deutsche übersetzet.

Eine neue ausfertigung*

In welcher fleissiger / alß imals zuvor in irgend einer dolmetschung / di mancherlei lesungen /

so wol aus geschribenen alß gedrukten büchern vorgestellet / und di übereintreffenden örter der schrifft angemerket sind.

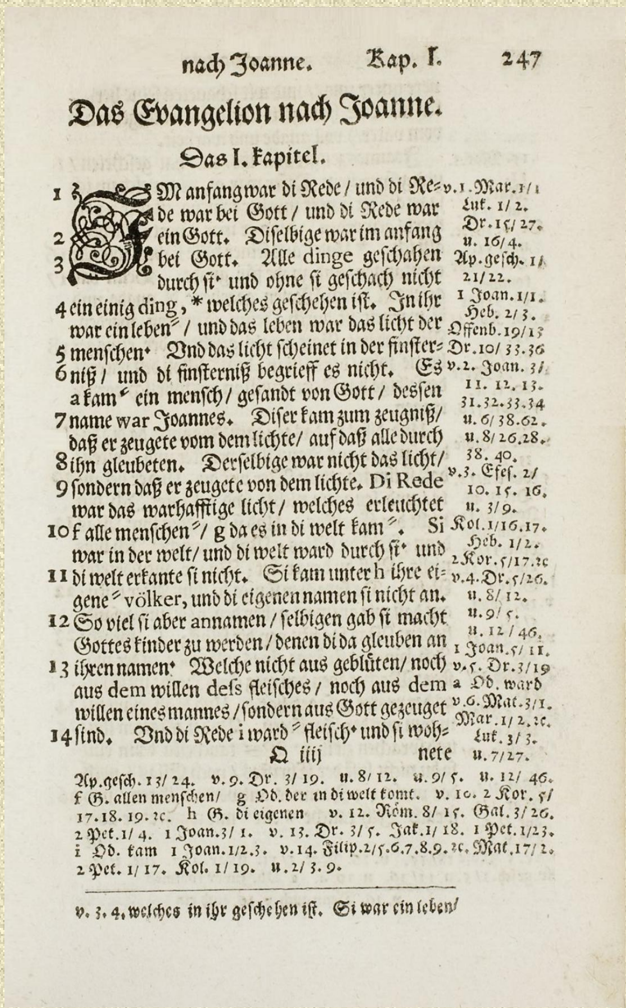
Amsterdam /

Gedrukt bei Christoff Cunraden buchdrükkern / im jahr 1660.



nach Joanne. Kap. I. 247

Das Evangelion nach Joanne.

Das I. kapitel.

1 IM anfang war di Rede / und di Rede war bei Gott / und di Rede war 2 ein Gott. Diselbige war im anfang 3 bei Gott. Alle dinge geschahen durch si* und ohne si geschach nicht 4 ein einig ding, * welches geschehen ist. In ihr war ein leben / und das leben war das licht der 5 menschen. Und das licht scheinet in der finster- 6 niß / und di finsterniß begrieff es nicht. Es a kam ein mensch / gesandt von Gott / dessen 7 name war Joannes. Diser kam zum zeugniß / daß er zeugete vom dem lichte / auf daß alle durch 8 ihn gleubeten. Derselbige war nicht das licht / 9 sondern daß er zeugete von dem lichte. Di Rede war das warhafftige licht / welches erleuchtet 10 f alle menschen / g da es in di welt kam. Si war in der welt / und di welt ward durch si* und 11 di welt erkante si nicht. Si kam unter h ihre eigene völker, und di eigenen namen si nicht an. 12 So viel si aber annamen / selbigen gab si macht Gottes kinder zu werden / denen di da gleuben an 13 ihren namen. Welche nicht aus geblüten / noch aus dem willen deſs fleisches / noch aus dem willen eines mannes / sondern aus Gott gezeuget 14 sind. Und di Rede i ward fleisch* und si woh-

Q iiij nete

Ap.gesch. 13/ 24. v. 9. Or. 3/ 19. u. 8/ 12. u. 9/ 5. u. 12/ 46. f G. allen menschen / g Od. der in di welt komt. v. 10. 2 Kor. 5/ 17.18. 19. ꝛc. h G. di eigenen v. 12. Röm. 8/ 15. Gal. 3/ 26. 2 Pet. 1/ 4. 1 Joan. 3/ 1. v. 13. Or. 3/ 5. Jak. 1/ 18. 1 Pet. 1/23. i Od. kam 1 Joan. 1/2.3. v. 14. Filip. 2/5.6.7.8.9. ꝛc. Mat. 17/ 2. 2 Pet. 1/ 17. Kol. 1/ 19. u. 2/ 3. 9.

v. 3. 4. welches in ihr geschehen ist. Si war ein leben /

http://gdz.sub.uni-goettingen.de/dms/load/img/?PID=PPN737238097

12

1661

תורת יהוה חדשה // Lex DEI ſummi nova; Atque haec eſt, Novum Domini noſtri Jeſu Chriſti Teſtamentum, Sacro-Sanctum; Chriſtianis ſimul, ac Judais, Sanctâ Linguâ Hebrœâ Scriptum & exhibitum;
Ab Elia Huttero Germano (NT)
Londini: Typis Thoma Roycrost
William Robertson (Gulielmi Robertsoni)

and a god was the Word
ואלהים היה הדבר

תורת יהוה חדשה:

והיא

ברית האדונינו ישוע המשיח חדשה למשיחיים
וליהודיים בלשון הקדש נכתבה:

Lex DEI ſummi nova;

Atque hæc eſt,

Novum Domini noſtri Jeſu Chriſti *Te-ſtamentum Sacro-Sanctum ; Chriſtianis ſimul, ac Judais, Sanctâ Linguâ Hebræâ Scriptum & exhibitum ;

Ab Elia Huttero Germano (Viro, Hebraicis ejus operibus; iſthoc præſertim in obeundo munere , de univerſo Mundo Chriſtiano & Judaico, laudes meritante maximas, & nunquam perituras) cum undecim aliis evulgatum Linguis ; atque duobus per-magnis voluminibus (orbi proinde etiam literato, vix, aut parum viſis admodum, aut notis) Noribergæ , plus minus, abhinc, ſexaginta retroactis annis, primùm, editum & excuſum ;

Nunc autem, in Volumen portatu facile redactum ; atque centenis quibuſdam in locis, poſt diligentem ipſius recognitionem, emendatum, atque caſtigatum ; Abſque cæteris iſtis in Editione Hutteriana Linguis, (oneroſum ſcilicet, illud , & multo minus uſitatum tantummodo reddentibus) per ſeſe, ſeparatim, & puro puto idiomate ſolummodo Hebraico, publicatum ; operâ & induſtriâ

GULIELMI ROBERTSONI, Scoto-Britanni.

הנה העלמה הרה וילדת בן וקראת שמו עמנואל:
נשקו בר פן יאנף ותאבדו דרך כי יבער כמעט אפו אשרי
כל חוסי בו:

Londini ; Typis Thomæ Roycroft , Regiæ Majeſtati in Orientalibus Linguis Typographi, M. DC. LXI.
Venales proſtant apud pleroſq; Bibliopolas Londinenſes.

בשורת האדונינו ישוע המשיח כפי יוחנן המבשר:

א CAP. I.

1 בראשית היה הדבר והדבר היה את־האלהים ואלהים היה הדבר: 2 וזה היה בראשית אצל האלהים: 3 כל נעשו בו ובלעדיו אף אחת לא נעשתה אשר נעשתה: 4 בו היו החיים והחיים היו אור האנשים: 5 והאור בחשך האיר והחשך לא קבלנו: 6 היה איש שלוח מאלהים ושמו יוחנן: 7 זה בא לעדות להעד על־האור למען כלם יאמינו בידו: 8 זה לא היה האור כי אם אשר יעד על־האור: 9 כי היה האור נאמן אשר מאיר את־כל־האדם הבא בעולם: 10 בעולם היה והעולם בידו נעשה והעולם לא ידעו: 11 אל־חניכיו בא וחניכיו לא קבלוהו: 12 וכמה קבלוהו נתן להם את־שלטון להיות בני־אלהים למאמינים בשמו: 13 אשר לא מדמים ולא מאביונת הבשר ולא מרצון האיש כי מאלהים ילדו: 14 והדבר היה בשר ושכן עמנו וראינו את־כבודו כמו כבוד היחיד נולד מאב מלא חסד ואמת: 15 יוחנן העיד עליו ויצעק לאמר זה הוא אשר אמרתי אשר אחרי בא ולפני היה כי־ראשון ממני היה: 16 וממלואה כלנו לקחנו חנם חן על חן: 17 כי־התורה במשה נתנה החן והאמת בישוע המשיח היתה: 18 את־אלהים איש לא ראה בכל־עת בן־
היחיד

13

CATHOLIC

1668

ארבעה אבני הגיליונים מהתורה החדשה

Quatuor Evangelia Novi Testamenti Ex Latino in Hebraicum fermonem verfa

(4 Gospels)

Romae: S. C. Prop. Fidei

Giovanni Battista Jona (Ioanne Baptista Iona)

and a god was the word

ואלהים היה דבר

ארבעה אבני הגיליונים
מהתורה החדשה
אשר נעתקו מלשון רומי ללשון עברי
על יד יוחנן הטובל יונה

QVATVOR
EVANGELIA
NOVI TESTAMENTI
Ex Latino in Hebraicum fermonem verfa
AB IOANNE BAPTISTA IONA:

והרים אותם תרומה לקדוש הכהן הגדול
קלימנתי תשעי יצ"ו

SANCTISS. D. N.
CLEMENTI NONO P. M.
DICATA.

ROMÆ, Typis S. C. Prop. Fidei, Anno MDCLXVIII.

305

בשורה הקדושה מישוע המשיח כפי יוחנן:

SANCTVM IESV CHRISTI
EVANGELIVM SECVNDVM IOANNEM.

CAP. I. פ׳ א

1 In principio erat verbum, & verbum erat apud Deum, & Deus erat verbum. 2 Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. 3 Omnia per ipfum facta funt: & fine ipfo factum eft nihil, quod fa-

בראשון היה דבר ודבר היה אצל האלהים ואלהים היה דבר׃ וזה היה בראשית אצל האלהים׃ כל הדברים בזה נעשו ובלתו לא נעשה מאומה

http://books.google.pl/books?id=uStJAAAAcAAJ

1682

DUTCH

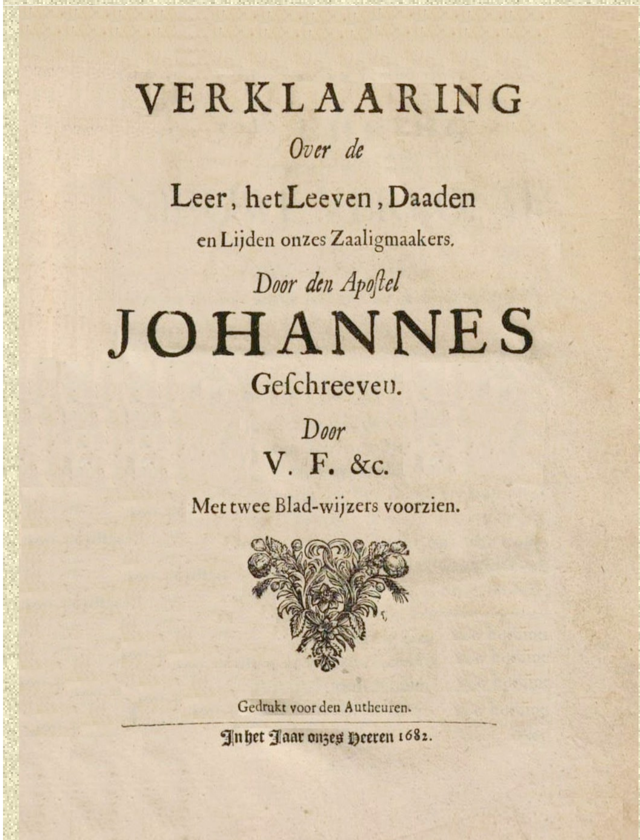
Verklaaring Over de Leer, het Leeven, Daaden en Lijden onzes Zaaligmaakers. Door den Apostel Johannes Geschreeveu.

Gedruckt voor der Autheuren

Frans Kuyper

and the word was a god

en het woord was een God



VERKLAARING

Over de

Leer, het Leeven, Daaden

en Lijden onzes Zaaligmaakers.

Door den Apostel

JOHANNES

Geschreeveu.

Door

V. F. &c.

Met twee Blad-wijzers voorzien.

Gedrukt voor den Autheuren.

In het Jaar onzes Heeren 1682.

Kap. I. v. I. van den Apostel Iohannes. 5

van den Apostel eijgentlijk verstaan en verklaart)Zodatmen klaarlijk kan verstaan / dat zoo wel de Verleijders / als Johannes, van een geestelijke schepping spreeken / die zij aan Christus, en Johannes ook aan Jesus toeschrijft. Zulks dat onze meening / uijt de staat des geschils / klaarlijk word bevestigt.

Ten anderen / alsmen de zin van de spreuk, in 't begin, uijt de H. Schrift zal opzoeken / zullenwe bevinden / dat de Schrijvers des Nieuwen Verbonds / en inzonderheijd Johannes, alsze op Christus, of op dingen des Nieuwen Verbonds gepast word / die altijd van 't begin des Nieuwen Verbonds verstaan. Ziet Mark. I. I. Luk. I. I. Joh. 6. 64. XV. 4. Hebr. I. 10 vergel. met kap. 2. 5. I Joh. I. I. II. 7/ 13/ 14/ 24. III. II. 2 Joh. 6. Waar in aan te merken is / dat de Schrijver aan de Hebreën, in de gemelde plaatsen / de schepping des Werrelds in 't begin / aan Christus toeschrijvende / die uijtdrukkelijk van de nieuwe Werreld verklaart (gelijkwe daar getoont hebben) 't welk den uijtslach van dit geschil / krachtelijk voor ons geeft. En daar komt noch bij / dat onze zelfden Apostel, in 't begin van zijn eerste brief / met deeze zelfde woorden / van de tijd der herschepping verklaart. Al het welk dan klaarlijk leert / dat deeze manier van spreeken / die den Apostel hier gebruijkt / aan de kennis van die oude dwaalingen hangt: dewelken van ons hier / en over I Tim. I. 4 / ook in den Inhoud des boeks / zoo klaarlijk aangeweezen zijnde / de duijsterheijd van deeze geheele plaats / gantschelijk kan doen verdwijnen. Ofmen dan de naam ho Logos, het Woord, of de Reeden vertaalt / dat zal geen zwaarigheijd maaken. Wat nu dit begin is / zullenwe over het begin van het darde vers verklaaren.

En het woord was een God. Alsmen zeijt het was God, dat beteekenen de woorden niet. Gelijk deeze zelfde woorden / Act. 28. 6 ook vertaalt zijn een God was, en hier kap. 9. 39 tot een oordeel. Dus moest Mat 27. 54 ook overgezet worden de Zoon van een God. Ende schijnt Johannes op de verleijders zijn oog te hebben / dewelken dreeven / dat Logos het woord een God was / van den Oppersten God voortgebracht / 't welk hij toestaat / maar in een heel andere zin als zij. Bijaldienmen met de Arrianen stelt / dat Christus het eerste Goddelijk Weezen is / dat God heeft voortgebracht / voor alle eeuwen en tijd / en dat dit in Maria is gezonden / om in Jesus, als zijn ziel te woonen / zoo moet dat Goddelijk Weezen gewisselijk / of zijn Goddelijk verstand gehouden hebben / in Marias lijf / en altijd daar naa / of hij moet dat geheel verlooren hebben gehad. Heeft hij 't verlooren gehad / zoo lang als hij noch ongebooren / en een kind was / zoo bedenkt eens / hoe gerijmd dat het is / dat een Goddelijk weezen / dat bijnaa van alle eeuwigheijd heeft geweest / en de alleropperste naast God / door welk God de geheele Natuur heeft gemaakt / voor eenige jaaren / zijn geheel verstand en macht quijt raakt. Maar zooze zeggen dat hij zijn verstand heeft behouden / en zijn macht / zoo zijn die ongerijmtheeden / haar noch krachtiger teegen.

Vers 2. Deeze was in 't begin bij God. Alle menschen bekennen / dat Christus, ten opzicht van zijn menschelijke Natuur / niet bij God heeft geweest / voor dat hij gebooren was. Waarom / aangezien de Christenen willen /

A 3

https://books.google.pl/books?id=DzhlAAAAcAAJ

15

1684

Christliche Unterweisung/

Wie diejenigen Oerter H. Schrifft Alten und Neuen Bundes contain translation of John 1:1-18, pp. 189-221

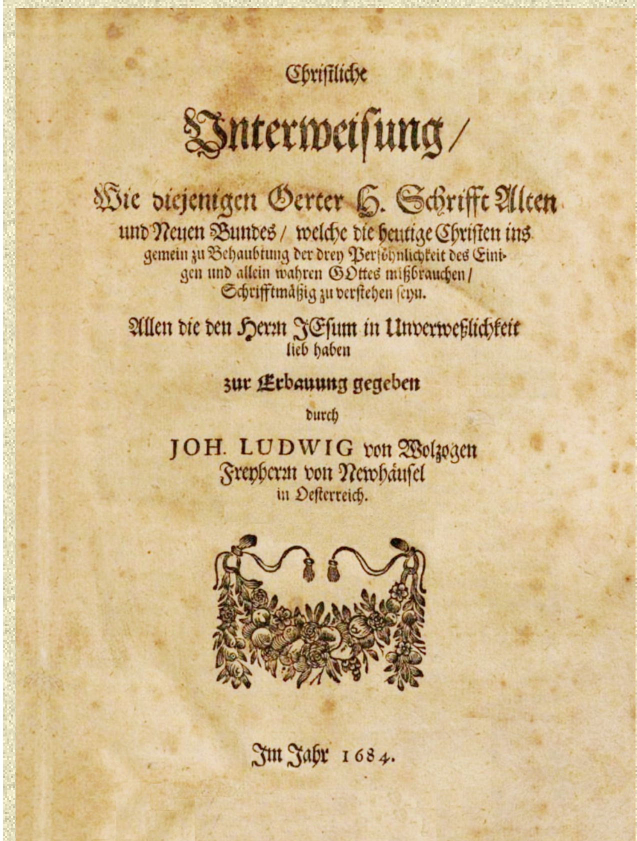
Editor: n.s.

Johann Ludwig von Wolzogen

And the Speech was a god

Und die Rede war ein Gott



Christliche
Unterweisung/
Wie diejenigen Oerter H. Schrifft Alten und Neuen Bundes/ welche die heutige Christen ins gemein zu Behaubtung der drey Persöhnlichkeit des Einigen und allein wahren GOttes mißbrauchen/Schrifftmäßig zu verstehen seyn.
Allen die den Herrn JEsum in Unverweßlichkeit lieb haben zur Erbauung gegeben durch
JOH. LUDWIG von Wolzogen
Freyherrn von Newhäusel in Oesterreich.

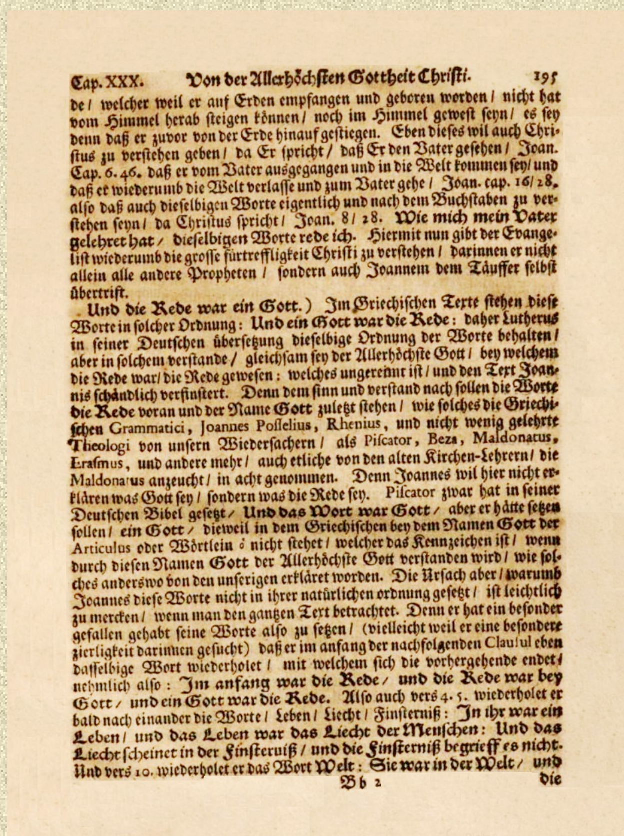
Im Jahr 1684.



Cap. XXX. Von der Allerhöchsten Gottheit Christi. 195

de/ welcher weil er auf Erden empfangen und geboren worden/ nicht hat vom Himmel herab steigen können/ noch im Himmel gewest seyn/ es sey denn daß er zuvor von der Erde hinauf gestiegen. Eben dieses wil auch Christus zu verstehen geben/ da Er spricht/ daß Er den Vater gesehen/ Joan. Cap. 6. 46. daß er vom Vater ausgegangen und in die Welt kommen sey/ und daß er wiederumb die Welt verlasse und zum Vater gehe/ Joan. cap. 16/28. also daß auch dieselbigen Worte eigentlich und nach dem Buchstaben zu verstehen seyn/ da Christus spricht/ Joan. 8/28. Wie mich mein Vater gelehret hat/ dieselbigen Worte rede ich. Hiermit nun gibt der Evangelist wiederumb die grosse fürtreffligkeit Christi zu verstehen/ darinnen er nicht allein alle andere Propheten/ sondern auch Joannem dem Täuffer selbst übertrift.

Und die Rede war ein Gott.) Im Griechischen Texte stehen diese Worte in solcher Ordnung: Und ein Gott war die Rede: daher Lutherus in seiner Deutschen übersetzung dieselbige Ordnung der Worte behalten/ aber in solchem verstande/ gleichsam sey der Allerhöchste Gott/ bey welchem die Rede war/ die Rede gewesen: welches ungereimt ist/ und den Text Joannis schändlich verfinstert. Denn dem sinn und verstand nach sollen die Worte die Rede voran und der Name Gott zuletzt stehen/ wie solches die Griechischen Grammatici, Joannes Possélius, Rhenius, und nicht wenig gelehrte Theologi von unsern Wiedersachern/ als Piscator, Beza, Maldonatus, Erasmus, und andere mehr/ auch etliche von den alten Kirchen-Lehrern/ die Maldonatus anzeucht/ in acht genommen. Denn Joannes wil hier nicht erklären was Gott sey/ sondern was die Rede sey. Piscator zwar hat in seiner Deutschen Bibel gesetzt/ Und das Wort war Gott/ aber er hätte setzen sollen/ ein Gott/ dieweil in dem Griechischen bey dem Namen Gott der Articulus oder Wörtlein ὁ nicht stehet/ welcher das Kennzeichen ist/ wenn durch diesen Namen Gott der Allerhöchste Gott verstanden wird/ wie solches anderswo von den unserigen erkläret worden. Die Ursach aber/ warumb Joannes diese Worte nicht in ihrer natürlichen ordnung gesetzt/ ist leichtlich zu mercken/ wenn man den gantzen Text betrachtet. Denn er hat ein besonder gefallen gehabt seine Worte also zu setzen/ (vielleicht weil er eine besondere zierligkeit darinnen gesucht) daß er im anfang der nachfolgenden Clausul eben dasselbige Wort wiederholet/ mit welchem sich die vorhergehende endet/ nehmlich also: Im anfang war die Rede/ und die Rede war bey Gott/ und ein Gott war die Rede. Also auch vers 4. 5. wiederholet er bald nach einander die Worte/ Leben/ Liecht/ Finsterniß: In ihr war ein Leben/ und das Leben war das Liecht der Menschen: Und das Liecht scheinet in der Finsterniß/ und die Finsterniß begrieff es nicht. Und vers 10. wiederholet er das Wort Welt: Sie war in der Welt/ und

Bb 2 die

https://books.google.pl/books?id=c5JlAAAAcAAJ

16

1687

DUTCH

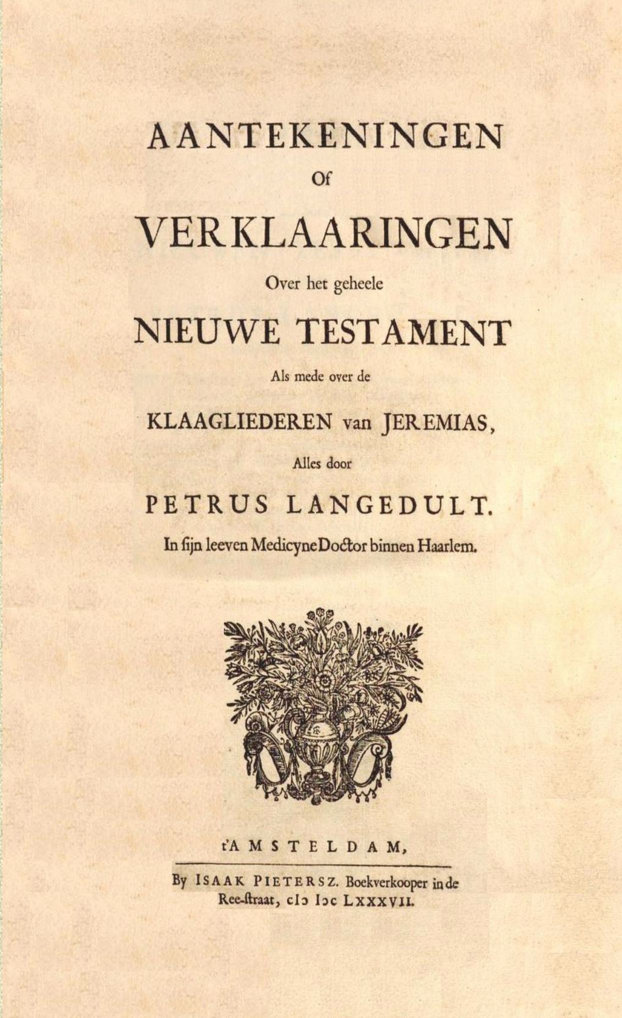
Aantekeningen Of Verklaaringen Over het geheele Nieuwe Testament Als mede over de Klaagliederen van Jeremias

t'Amsteldam: Isaak Pietersz

Petrus Langedult

and the speech was a god

ende de rede was een God



AANTEKENINGEN

Of

VERKLAARINGEN

Over het geheele

NIEUWE TESTAMENT

Als mede over de

KLAAGLIEDEREN van JEREMIAS,

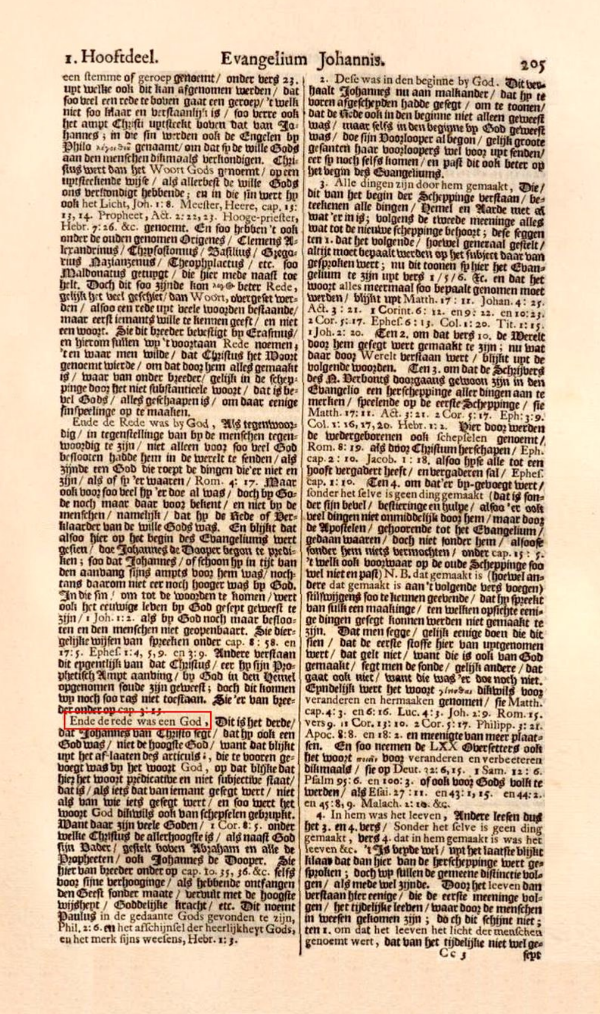
Alles door

PETRUS LANGEDULT.

In ſijn leeven Medicyne Doctor binnen Haarlem.

t'AMSTELDAM,

By ISAAK PIETERSZ. Boekverkooper in de Ree-ſtraat, cIↃ IↃc LXXXVII.



Ende de rede was een God.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=md1jAAAAcAAJ

17

1694

DUTCH

Het Nieuwe Testament

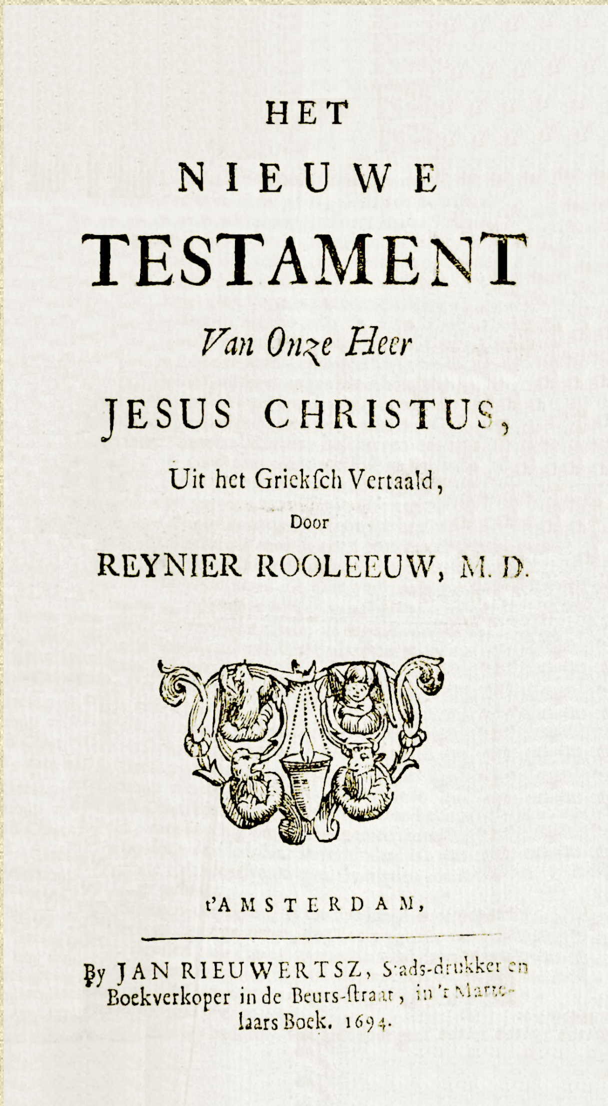
Van Onze Heer Jesus Christus, Uit het Grieksch Vertaald

Amsterdam: Jan Rieuwertsz

Reynier Rooleeuw

and the Word was a god

en het Woord was een God



HET

NIEUWE

TESTAMENT

Van Onze Heer

JESUS CHRISTUS,

Uit het Griekſch Vertaald,

Door

REYNIER ROOLEEUW, M. D.

t'AMSTERDAM,

By JAN RIEUWERTSZ, Stads-drukker en Boekverkoper in de Beurs-ſtraat, in 't Martelaars Boek. 1694.

Cap. xxiv. Van Lukas. Fol. 163

48 Gy nu zijt getuigen van deze dingen.

49 En zie / ik zende mijns Vaders belofte op ulieden af: maar gy zet u neder in de ſtad Jeruſalem / tot dat gy met kragt uit de hoogte zult aangedaan zijn.

50 EN hy leide hen uit / buiten tot aan Bethania / en zijne handen opgeheven hebbende / zegende hy hen.

51 En het geſchiede / terwijl hy hen zegende / dat hy van hen ſcheide / en in den Hemel opgevoerd wierd.

52 En als zy hem aangebeden hadden / keerden zy weder na Jeruſalem met grote blydſchap.

53 En zy waren alle tyd in den Tempel / lovende / en dankende God. Amen.

Vs 48. Joh. 15. 27. Vs 49. Joh. 14. 26. en 15. 26. en 16. 7. Act. 1. 4. en 2 heel. Vs 50. Act. 1. 12. Vs 51. Marc. 16. 19. Act. 1. 9.

Het EVANGELY van

JOANNES.

Het Eerſte Capittel.

1 IN het begin was het Woord / en het Woord was by God / en het Woord was een God.

2 Dit was in het begin by God.

3 Alle dingen zijn door het zelve geworden: en zonder het zelve is ook niet een ding geworden / dat geworden is.

4 In het zelve was het leven / en het leven was het ligt der menſchen.

5 En het ligt ſchijnt in duiſternis / en de duiſternis heeft het zelve niet aangenomen.

6 Daar was een menſch van God afgezonden / wiens naam was Joannes.

7 Deze kwam tot getuigenis / om van het ligt te getuigen / op dat zy alle door hem geloven zouden.

8 Hy was het ligt niet / maar op dat hy van het ligt getuigen zoude.

9 Dat was het ware ligt / 't welk alle menſche verligt / komende in de wereld.

10 Hy was in de wereld / en de wereld is door hem geworden / en de wereld heeft hem niet gekent.

11 Hy kwam tot de zijne / en de zijne hebben hem niet aangenomen.

12 Maar zo vele hem aangenomen hebben / dien heeft hy magt gegeven Gods kinderen te worden / den genen die in zijnen naam geloven:

13 Die niet uit bloed / nog uit de wil des vleeſchs / nog

Vs 1. 1 Joh. 1. 1/2. Apoc. 19. 13. onder 10. 33. 36. Vs 3. Efeſ. 3. 9. Coloſſ. 1. 17. Hebr. 1. 2. onder 5. 26. en 8. 12. en 9. 5. en 12. 46. 1 Joh. 5. 11. Vs 5. onder 3. 19. Vs 6. Matt. 3. 1. Marc. 1. 2. enz. Luc. 3. 3. en 7. 17. Act. 13. 24.

Vs 9. onder 3. 19. en 8. 12. en 9. 5. en 12. 46. Vs 10. Hebr. 1. 2. Vs 12. Rom. 8. 15. Gal. 3. 26. 2 Petr. 1. 4. 1 Joh. 3. 1. Vs 13. onder 3. 5. Jac. 1. 18. 1 Pet. 1. 23.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=TwBiAAAAcAAJ

18

1726

LATIN

Initium Evangelii S. Joannis Apostoli ex Antiquitate Ecclesiastica restitutum, Indidemque Nova ratione illustratum. In isto Opere ante omnia probatur, Joannem non scripsisse, Et Deus erat, sed, Et Dei erat Verbum. Tum etiam tota 18. prima ejus Evangelii commata, & alia multa dicta Scripturæ S. illustrantur; & non pauca antiquorum Ecclesiasticorum ac Hæreticorum loca ventilantur ac emendantur.

Amsterdam?

Samuel Krell-Spinowski (pseud. Lucas Mellierus Artemonium)

And of God was the Logos

Et Dei erat ille Logos

INITIUM

EVANGELII

S. JOANNIS Apoſtoli

EX

Antiquitate Eccleſiaſtica reſtitutum,

Indidemque

Nova ratione illuſtratum.

In iſto Opere ante omnia probatur, Joannem non ſcripſiſſe, Et Deus erat, ſed, Et Dei erat Verbum. Tum etiam tota 18. prima ejus Evangelii commata, & alia multa dicta Scripturæ S. illuſtrantur; & non pauca antiquorum Eccleſiaſticorum ac Hæreticorum loca ventilantur ac emendantur.

Per

L. M. Artemonium.

PARS PRIOR.

Diſcite igitur——, quoniam Jeſus qui paſſus eſt pro nobis, qui inhabitavit in nobis, idem ipſe eſt Verbum Dei. Iren. Lib. I. Cap. I. § xx. ed. Grab.

Anno Domini M.DCC.XXVI.

CAP. XLVII.

Paraphraſis 18 primorum Commatum Evangelii S. Joannis ex ſupra dictis concinnata. Andreas Oſiander in explicatione ejus exordii Lælio Socino facem prætuliſſe videtur.

Ver. 1. In principio erat ille Logos,
Et ille Logos erat apud Deum,
Et Dei erat ille Logos.

Ver. 2. Hic erat in principio apud Deum.

Ver. 3. Omnia per ipſum fiebant.

Et ſine eo ne unicum quidem fiebat eorum quæ facta ſunt in eo.

Ver. 4. Hic ipſe Vita erat, & illa vita erat illa Lux hominum.

Ver. 5. Et Lux illa in tenebris lucet, & tenebræ illam non comprehenderunt.

Ver. 6. Erat homo miſſus à Deo cui nomen erat Joannes.

Ver. 7. Hic venit in teſtimonium, ut teſtaretur de illa Luce, ut omnes crederent per eum.

Ver. 8. Non erat is ea Lux, ſed (erat) ut teſtaretur de ea Luce.

Ver. 9. Erat illa Lux, illa vera, quæ illuminat omnem hominem veniens in mundum.

Ver. 10. In mundo erat, & mundus per eam fiebat, & mundus eum non cognoſcebat.

Ver. 11. Ad ſua propria veniebat, & ejus proprii cum non recipiebant.

Ver. 12. Quotquot autem eum recipiebant, dedit ipſis poteſtatem liberos Dei fieri, credentibus in nomen ejus.

Ver. 13. Qui non ex ſanguinibus, neque ex voluntate, carnis, nec ex voluntate viri, ſed ex Deo ſunt generati.

Ver. 14. Et Logos ille caro erat, & habitavit in nobis, & contemplati ſumus gloriam ejus, gloriam tanquam Unigeniti à Patre, contemplati ſumus () plenum gratia & veritate.

Ver. 15. Joannes teſtatur de eo, & clamavit, dicens: Hic eſt de quo dicebam, qui poſt me venit, ante me factus eſt, quia prior me erat.

Ver. 16. Quoniam ex ejus plenitudine nos omnes accepimus, & gratiam pro gratia.

Ver. 17. Quoniam Lex per Moſen data eſt, Gratia autem iſta & Veritas per Jeſum Chriſtum facta eſt.

Ver. 18. Deum nemo vidit unquam; Unigenitus ille Filius, qui erat in ſinu Patris, ille enarravit.

In this book individual verses are on pp. 536-544

https://books.google.pl/books?id=1hFiAAAAcAAJ

19

1768

A Liberal Translation of the New Testament (Vol. 1)

London: T. Becket and P. A. De Hondt

Edward Harwood

and was himself a divine person

A

LIBERAL TRANSLATION

OF THE

NEW TESTAMENT;

BEING

An Attempt to translate the SACRED WRITINGS

WITH THE SAME

Freedom, Spirit, and Elegance,

With which other English Translations from the Greek Classics have lately been executed:

The DESIGN and SCOPE of each Author being strictly and impartially explored, the TRUE SIGNIFICATION and FORCE of the Original critically observed, and, as much as possible, transfused into our Language, and the Whole elucidated and explained upon a new and rational Plan:

With SELECT NOTES, Critical and Explanatory.

BY E. HARWOOD.

Ταυτην μονην ἑυρισκον φιλοσοφιαν ασφαλη τε και συμφορον.

This have I found to be the only safe and useful Philosophy!

JUSTIN MARTYR, p. 225. Edit. Paris. 1636.

VOL. I.

LONDON:

Printed for T. BECKET and P. A. DE HONDT, in the Strand; and J. JOHNSON, in Pater-noster Row; T. CADELL, at Bristol; J. GORE and J. SIBBALD, at Liverpool; and T. BANCKS, at Warrington.

M.DCC.LXVIII.

THE

HISTORY OF JESUS

BY JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 BEFORE the origin of this world existed the LOGOS [y]—who was then with the Supreme God—and was himself a divine person.

2 He existed with the Supreme Being, before the foundation of the earth was laid:

3 For this most eminent personage did the Deity solely employ in the formation of this world, and of every thing it contains.

4 This exalted spirit assumed human life—and from his incarnation the most pure and sacred emanations of light were derived to illuminate mankind:

5 This light shot its beams into a benighted world—and conquered and dispelled that gloomy darkness, in which it was inveloped [z].

6 To usher this divine personage into the world, and to prepare men for his reception, God previously commissioned and sent John the Baptist.

7 This prophet came to give public notice that a glorious light would shortly appear—to excite all the Jews to credit and receive this great messenger of God.

8 John himself openly disavowed all pretensions to this exalted character—declaring, that he was only appointed of God to give public information of this illustrious personage.

9 That divine person was

[y] The Platonists, whose Philosophy obtained among the Jews at this time, and particularly Philo, speak of REASON as a Being inferior and subordinate to the Supreme God. "The material World was made after the likeness of the second God, who is the REASON of the supreme God, Ος εστιν εκεινυ ΛΟΓΟΣ. Philo apud Euseb. Prep. vii. 13." In his book of Husbandry, he also calls REASON God's first born son, πρωτογονος υιος, p. 152."

[z] Alluding to that pure and perfect Dispensation of Religion which he introduced among mankind.

the

Vol. 1:
https://archive.org/details/liberaltranslati01harw

20

1774
Das Neue Testament. Aus dem Griechischen uberſezt, mit Anmerkungen für Leſer aus allen Ständen (Erster Band)
Leipzig: Wengandſchen Buchhandlung
Johann Chriſtoph Friedrich Schulz

and was himself a divine person
und war ſelbſt eine göttliche Perſon

Das

Neue Teſtament.

Aus dem Griechiſchen überſezt, mit Anmerkungen für Leſer aus allen Ständen,
von

Johann Chriſtoph Friedrich Schulz,
Prof. der Gottesgelahrth. u. der Morgenl. u. Griechiſch. Litterat. wie auch der Alterth. in Gießen, u. Direkt. des Predigerſem. daſelbſt.

Erſter Band.

Leipzig,
in der Weygandſchen Buchhandlung.
1774.

Im Anfange war der Logos. — Dieſer Logos [1] Kap. I. war bey Gott — und war ſelbſt eine göttli-che Perſon. — Vor Grundlegung der [2]
Welt exiſtirte er ſchon bey Gott. — Durch ihn iſt [3] alles geſchaffen; und nichts von allem, was geſchaf-fen iſt, iſt ohne ihn gemacht worden. — Er nahm [4] menſchliches Leben an, und dadurch wurden die Menſchen glücklich. — Dieß Glück verbreitete ſich über [5]
eine in Finſterniß liegende Welt; aber nur mit vieler
Mühe drang es durch dieſe Finſterniß. — Ein von [6]
Gott geſandter Mann, mit Nahmen Johannes, trat [7] auf, um ein Zeugniß abzulegen; um einen Unter-richt von der Glückſeligkeit zu ertheilen, damit alle um ihrentwillen dieſen göttlichen Geſandten annehmen möchten. Jener war nicht die Quelle dieſer Glück- [8] ſeligkeit ſelbſt, ſondern er mußte nur auftreten, um Unterricht von dieſer Glückſeligkeit zu ertheilen. Der- [9] jenige, der die wahre Quelle dieſer Glückſeligkeit iſt, durch welchen alle Menſchen, die dieſe Welt betreten, glücklich werden können, kam in die Welt, deren [10]
Urheber er iſt: aber dieſe Welt wollte ihn nicht er-kennen. In ſein Eigenthum kam er; und ſeine [11] eignen Leute nahmen ihn nicht an. Wer ihn aber [12] annahm, den krönte er mit der Ehre, ein Kind

X 2 Got-

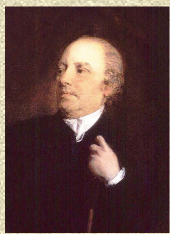
21

1790

An Exposition of the New Testament; intended as an Introduction to The Study of the Scriptures, by Pointing ot the Leading Sense, and Connection of the Sacred Writers

London: R. Blamire, in the Strand

William Gilpin



THAT holy person, of whom this narration treats, being united to God from eternity, was one together with him.

AN EXPOSITION
OF THE
NEW TESTAMENT; INTENDED AS AN INTRODUCTION
TO
The STUDY of the SCRIPTURES,
BY
Pointing out the LEADING SENSE, and CONNECTION
OF THE SACRED WRITERS.

By WILLIAM GILPIN, M. A.
PREBENDARY OF SALISBURY, AND VICAR OF BOLDRE, IN NEW-FOREST, NEAR LYMINGTON.

LONDON:
PRINTED FOR R. BLAMIRE, IN THE STRAND.
M.DCC.XC.

ST. JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1. 2. THAT holy person, of whom this narration treats, being united to God from eternity, was one together with him. 3. 4. 5. It is he who created the world. It is he, who offers salvation 6. 7. 8. to mankind. He is a light shining through darkness. Before his face God sent his holy messenger, John the Baptist, to draw 9. men by his testimony, to follow this true light, which God intended for the direction of mankind.

10. And yet even that very world, which he created, received him 11. not. Those very creatures to whom he gave life, rejected the

1. Many learned men, and especially Dr. Lardner, have shewn, that when St. John speaks of the word, he did it not in conformity to the Platonists, as many have supposed; but merely as it was a customary way of speaking among the Jews. By the word of the Lord were the heavens made. Ps. xxxiii. 6. Until the time came that his cause was known, the word of the Lord tried him. Ps. cv. 19.

2. St. John in the two first verses, shews the nature of Christ——in the third his power; and from the fourth to the nineteenth he expatiates on the work of redemption.

9. Better translated; which coming into the world, inlighteneth every man.

11. Some commentators apply this immediately to the Jews: as if they were more peculiarly his own. I should suppose it refers equally to all, who reject him.

1799

The New Testament of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, in Hebrew and English, in three volumes; Corrected from the version published by Dr. Hutter, at Nuremburg, 1599; and republished by Dr. Robertson, at London, 1661.

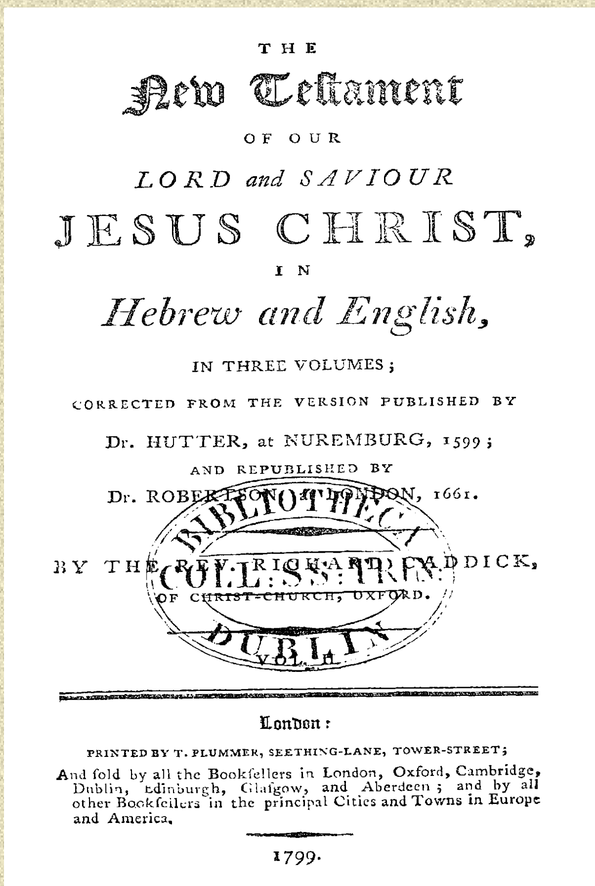
(Vol. 2: Luke-John)

London: T. Plummer, Seething-Lane, Tower-Street

Richard Caddick

and a god was the Word

ואלהים היה הדבר



THE

New Testament

OF OUR

LORD and SAVIOUR

JESUS CHRIST,

IN

Hebrew and English,

IN THREE VOLUMES;

CORRECTED FROM THE VERSION PUBLISHED BY

Dr. HUTTER, at NUREMBURG, 1599;

AND REPUBLISHED BY

Dr. ROBERTSON, at LONDON, 1661.

BY THE REV. RICHARD CADDICK,

OF CHRIST-CHURCH, OXFORD.

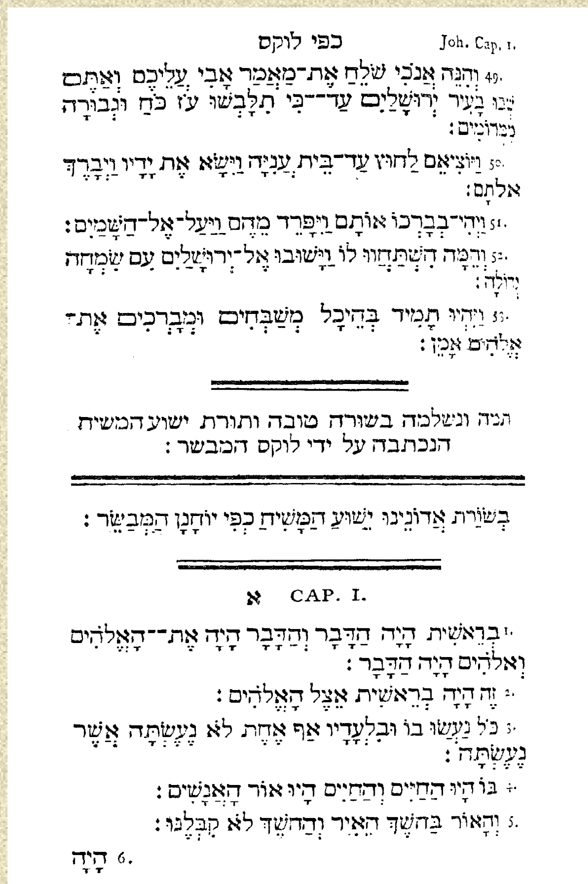
VOL. II.

London:

PRINTED BY T. PLUMMER, SEETHING-LANE, TOWER-STREET;

And fold by all the Bookfellers in London, Oxford, Cambridge, Dublin, Edinburgh, Glafgow, and Aberdeen; and by all other Bookfellers in the principal Cities and Towns in Europe and America.

1799.



Joh. Cap. 1. כפי לוקס

49. והנה אנכי שלח את־מאמר אבי עליכם ואתם שבו בעיר ירושלים עד־כי תלבשו עז כח וגבורה ממרומים :

50. ויוציאם לחוץ עד־בית עניה וישא את ידיו ויברך אלתם :

51. ויהי־בברכו אותם ויפרד מהם ויעל־אל־השמים :

52. והמה השתחוו לו וישובו אל־ירושלים עם שמחה גדולה :

53. ויהיו תמיד בהיכל משבחים ומברכים את־אלהים אמן :

תמה ונשלמה בשורה טובה ותורת ישוע המשיח הנכתבה על ידי לוקס המבשר :

בשורת אדונינו ישוע המשיח כפי יוחנן המבשר :

א CAP. I.

1. בראשית היה הדבר והדבר היה את־האלהים ואלהים היה הדבר :

2. זה היה בראשית אצל האלהים :

3. כל נעשו בו ובלעדיו אף אחת לא נעשתה אשר נעשתה :

4. בו היו החיים והחיים היו אור האנשים :

5. והאור בחשך האיר והחשך לא קבלנו :

היה 6.

1800
"New Translation of First Chapter of St. John"
The Gentleman's Magazine
red. Sylvanus Urban, Vol. LXX (Part 2), p. 923
London: Nichols and Son
John Hill (signed as "Inspector")

and A GOD was THE ORACLE

THE

Gentleman's Magazine.

AND

Hiſtorical Chronicle.

For the YEAR MDCCC.

VOLUME LXX.

PART THE SECOND.

PRODESSE ET DELECTARE — E PLURIBUS UNUM.

By SYLVANUS URBAN, Gent.

LONDON, Printed by NICHOLS and SON,
at Cicero's Head, Red Lion Paſſage, Fleet-Street; where LETTERS are particularly requeſted to be ſent, POST PAID.
And ſold by ELIZABETH NEWBERY,
the Corner of St. Paul's Church Yard, Ludgate-Street. 1800.

Latin Vulgate wanting the definite article ὁ of the Greek, and the Engliſh definite and indefinite articles the and a; the latter of which gives our moſt noble language a ſuperiority over "the imperial Greek" itſelf, rendering it the moſt truly philoſophical language; as it is the fitteſt for the carrying trade of tranſlation ever framed, from its copiouſneſs and verſatility, and accommodating ſpirit of naturalization towards others.

JOHN i. 1—18.

1. At firſt was THE ORACLE; and the Oracle was with

2. THE DEITY; and A GOD was THE ORACLE: the ſame was at firſt with THE DEITY.

3. Through Him were all things made; and without Him was not even a ſingle thing made that hath been:

4. In Him was life; and the life was the light

5. Of men; and the light ſhineth in the duſk; but the duſk comprehended it not.

6. There was a man ſent forth from GOD, whoſe

7. Name was John; the ſame came for teſtimony, to teſtify concerning the light; to the end that

8. All, through him, might believe: (he was not that [perſonage] The Light; but [he came] to teſtify concerning the Light).

9. That was the true Light, which, coming into the world, enlighteneth every man.

10. He was in the world, and through Him the world was made; but the world knew him not:—

11. He came unto His own [home], and His own [houſehold] entertained Him not:—

12. But as many as received Him, to them gave He authority to become children of GOD; even to them

13. That believe on His name: who were born, not of [peculiar] races, nor of fleſhly will, nor of man's will, but of GOD.

14. And THE ORACLE became fleſh, and ſojourned among us (and we ourſelves behold his glory, a glory ſuitable to THE FATHER's only genuine [Son]), full of grace and truth:—

15. (John teſtified concerning Him, and proclaimed, ſaying: This is He of whom I ſpake; who, coming after me, hath been before me; for he was my PRINCE).

16. —And of His fulneſs have we all received; even

17. Grace ſurpaſſing grace: for THE LAW was given through Moſes; but the Grace and the Truth [of THE GOSPEL] came to paſs through JESUS CHRIST.

18. GOD no one hath ever ſeen: THAT SON, the only genuine, reclining on HIS FATHER's boſom, himſelf expounded.

Allow me, Mr. Urban, to add a few explanatory remarks on points wherein this tranſlation differs from the authorized.

1. I have rendered εν αρχη, correſponding to בראשית, Gen i. 1, "at firſt," or "originally," becauſe the definite τη, or emphatic article ה, is wanting in both. "In the beginning" unſkilfully defines an indefinite time. Prov. viii, 22; Micah v. 2. See the INSPECTOR, p. 100.

2. I have rendered ὁ Λογος "THE ORACLE," correſponding to the Hebrew דבר, Dabar, as "the Expounder" of the ſpiritual nature and true worſhip of GOD THE FATHER to mortals. John i. 18; iii. 34; iv. 24; v. 37; Matt. xi. 27. See ANALYS. FLUX. Append. II. p. 201, &c.

THE ORACLE was perſonified under the patriarchal diſpenſation by the title of Dabar Iahoh, "THE ORACLE OF THE LORD," Gen. xv. 1; and under the Moſaical, Exod. xxxiii. 22; 1 Sam. iii. 1; 1 Kings xix. 9; and under the Evangelical alſo, as ὁ Λογος τȣ Θεȣ, "THE ORACLE OF THE DEITY," Rev. xix. 13.

3. I have rendered ὁ Θεος "THE DEITY," meaning THE SUPREME GOD, John x. 29: in which ſenſe the articled term, when uſed abſolutely, or unconnected, is uniformly underſtood by theſe moſt truly philoſophical writers, the Evangeliſts. When uſed relatively, or in regimen, it may denote an inferior god; as, ὁ θεος τȣ αιωνος τȣτȣ, "the god of this age," means the devil, 2 Cor. iv. 4.—godhead ſimply, denoting power, Rom. i. 20; whence THE DEITY is ſtyled ὁ Δυνατος, ὁ Δυναςης, ὁ Δεσποτης, ὁ Παντοκρατωρ. The term Θεος, without the articles, is uſed by the Evangeliſt either elliptically, for Θεος ο Πατηρ, "GOD THE FATHER," as in ver. 18, or abſolutely, as contraſted with man. Θεȣ Φωνη και ȣκ Ανθρωπȣ, "voice of a God, and not of a Man,"

24

1805

אונגליון והיא הבשורה הקדושה לאדוננו ומושיענו ישוע המשיח
כפי מתיהו המבשׂר אשר בשר בלשון צברית בארץ פלשתים לקוח מספרי
הנקראים הברית החדשה ונצתק מלשון יון ללשון הקודש

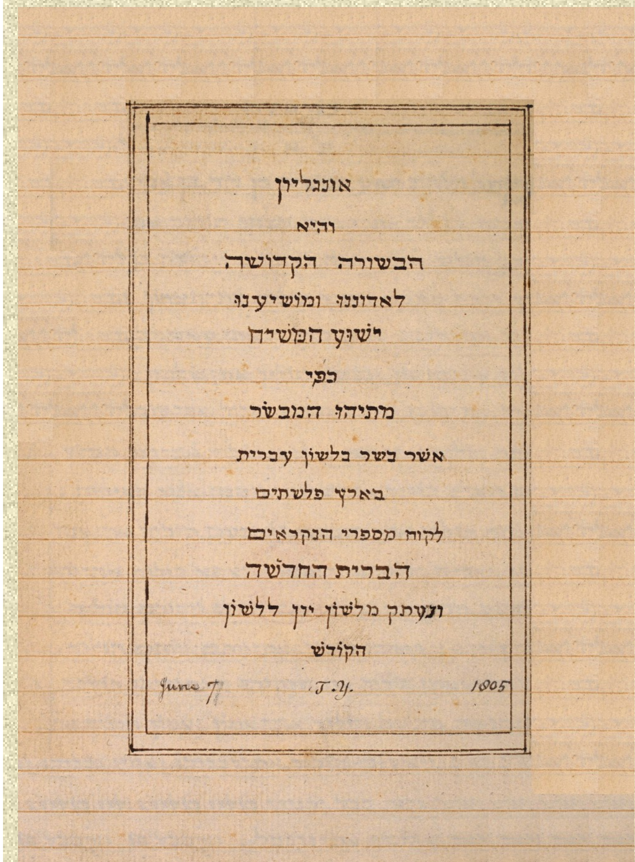
(4 Gospels, in the British Museum Library as MSS 11659)

London

Thomas Yeates

and a god was the Word

ואלהים היה הדבר



אונגליון
והיא הבשורה הקדושה
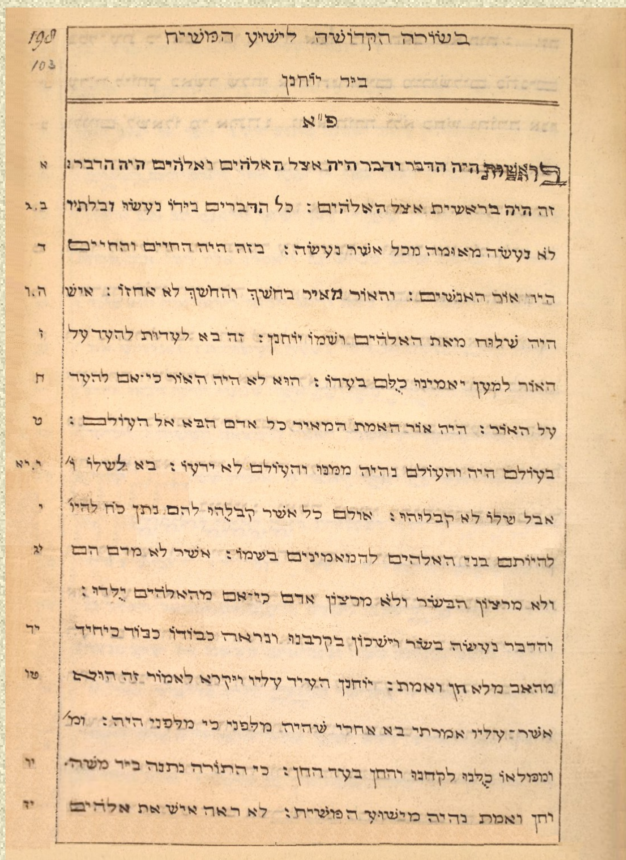
לאדוננו ומושיענו
ישוע המשיח
כפי
מתיהו המבשׂר
אשר בשר בלשון עברית
בארץ פלשתים
לקוח מספרי הנקראים
הברית החדשה
ונעתק מלשון יון ללשון
הקודש

June 7 T.Y. 1805



198
103

בשורה הקדושה לישוע המשיח
ביד יוחנן

פ"א

א בראשית היה הדבר והדבר היה אצל האלהים ואלהים היה הדבר:
ב.ג זה היה בראשית אצל האלהים: כל הדברים בידו נעשו ובלתיו
ד לא נעשה מאומה מכל אשר נעשה: בזה היה החיים והחיים
ה.ו היו אור האנשים: והאור מאיר בחשך והחשך לא אחזו: איש
ז היה שלוח מאת האלהים ושמו יוחנן: זה בא לעדות להעד על
ח האור למען יאמינו כלם בעדו: הוא לא היה האור כי־אם להעד
ט על האור: היה אור האמת המאיר כל אדם הבא אל העולם:
י.יא בעולם היה והעולם נהיה ממנו והעולם לא ידעו: בא לשלו
יב אבל שלו לא קבלוהו: אולם כל אשר קבלהו להם נתן כח להיו
יג להיותם בני האלהים להמאמינים בשמו: אשר לא מדם הם
ולא מרצון הבשר ולא מרצון אדם כי־אם מהאלהים ילדו:
יד והדבר נעשה בשר וישכון בקרבנו ונראה כבודו כבוד כיחיד
טו מהאב מלא חן ואמת: יוחנן העיד עליו ויקרא לאמור זה הוא
אשר־עליו אמרתי בא אחרי שהיה מלפני כי מלפני היה: ומ
טז ומפולאו כלנו לקחנו וחן בעד החן: כי התורה נתנה ביד משה
יז וחן ואמת נהיה מישוע המשיח: לא ראה איש את אלהים

http://www.bl.uk/manuscripts/Viewer.aspx?ref=add_ms_11659_fs001r

25

1807

An Exposition of the Historical Writings of the New Testament, With Reflections Subjoined to Each Section (in 3Vols.)

London: Longman Hurst, Rees and Orme, Paternoster Row

Timothy Kenrick

and the Word was [a] God

AN

EXPOSITION

OF THE

HISTORICAL WRITINGS

OF THE

NEW TESTAMENT,

WITH REFLECTIONS SUBJOINED TO EACH SECTION,

BY THE LATE

REV. TIMOTHY KENRICK.

WITH

MEMOIRS OF THE AUTHOR.

IN THREE VOLUMES.

VOL. II.

CONTAINING THOSE PARTS OF LUKE WHICH ARE NOT FOUND IN THE OTHER EVANGELISTS, AND THE ENTIRE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN.

LONDON:
PRINTED FOR LONGMAN, HURST, REES, AND ORME, PATERNOSTER-ROW.

1807.

whence the apostle would be most likely to take its meaning, where it is applied to express the wisdom or reason of God. The term used in the book of Proverbs, where the wisdom of God is personified in the passage referred to, is not LOGOS, but another Greek term, SOPHIA.

Again, according to this interpretation, we are told in the fourteenth verse, that the wisdom of God became flesh, that is, dwelt in man, as it has been interpreted; as if it was from that time, and not before, manifested to the world. Yet in the preceding verses we find that this same wisdom is described as having life in it, and this life as being the light of men, as shining in darkness; as lighting every man that cometh into the world; all which things imply that it had been already manifested to the world. But such a construction of the apostle's language represents him as writing in a desultory and incoherent manner, and cannot therefore be true.

Besides, it must be acknowledged, that to say "wisdom became a man," is an unusual, if not a harsh, expression. Let us see how far these difficulties, and others which might be suggested, can be removed by the second interpretation, to which I have referred.

This interpretation supposes, that the word spoken of by the apostle in the introduction to his gospel, is not the wisdom of God, but the person who is the subject of the rest of his history, or Jesus Christ. I would remind you, before we enter on this explanation, that it is an established rule, founded upon obvious reasons, that to interpret scripture by itself, that is, to employ one part of the sacred writings to explain another, and more especially to infer the sense of an obscure passage from another of the same author, which is more plain, is the safest and fairest mode of interpretation.

1. In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was [a] God.

For an explanation of this verse we are are referred to the first epistle of John, which he begins in this

https://books.google.pl/books?id=jgUWAAAAYAAJ

26

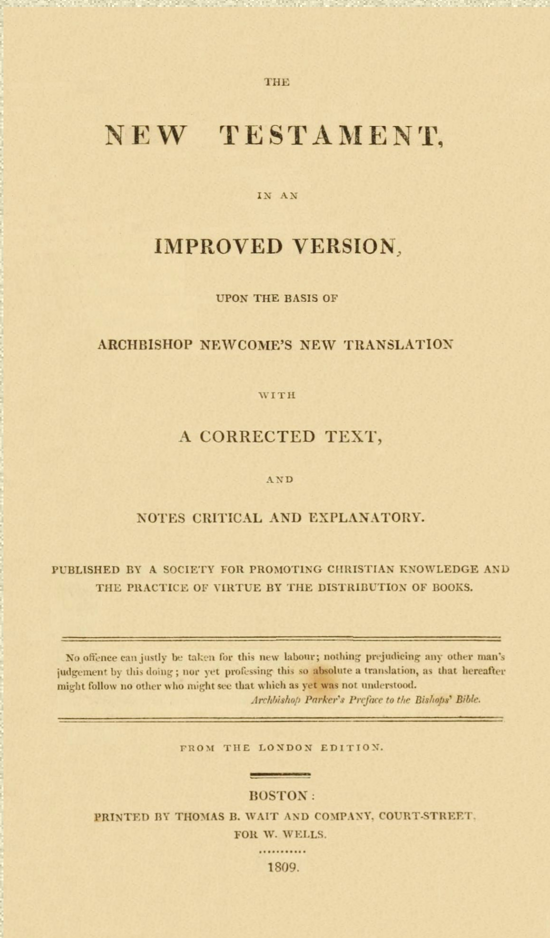
1809

The New Testament, in An Improved Version,
Upon the Basis of Archbishop Newcome's New Translation:
With a Corrected Text, and Notes Critical and Explanatory

London: Richard Taylor and Co.

Thomas Belsham

and the Word was a god



THE

NEW TESTAMENT,

IN AN

IMPROVED VERSION,

UPON THE BASIS OF

ARCHBISHOP NEWCOME'S NEW TRANSLATION

WITH

A CORRECTED TEXT,

AND

NOTES CRITICAL AND EXPLANATORY.

PUBLISHED BY A SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE AND THE PRACTICE OF VIRTUE BY THE DISTRIBUTION OF BOOKS.

No offence can justly be taken for this new labour; nothing prejudicing any other man's judgement by this doing; nor yet professing this so absolute a translation, as that hereafter might follow no other who might see that which as yet was not understood.

Archbishop Parker's Preface to the Bishops' Bible.

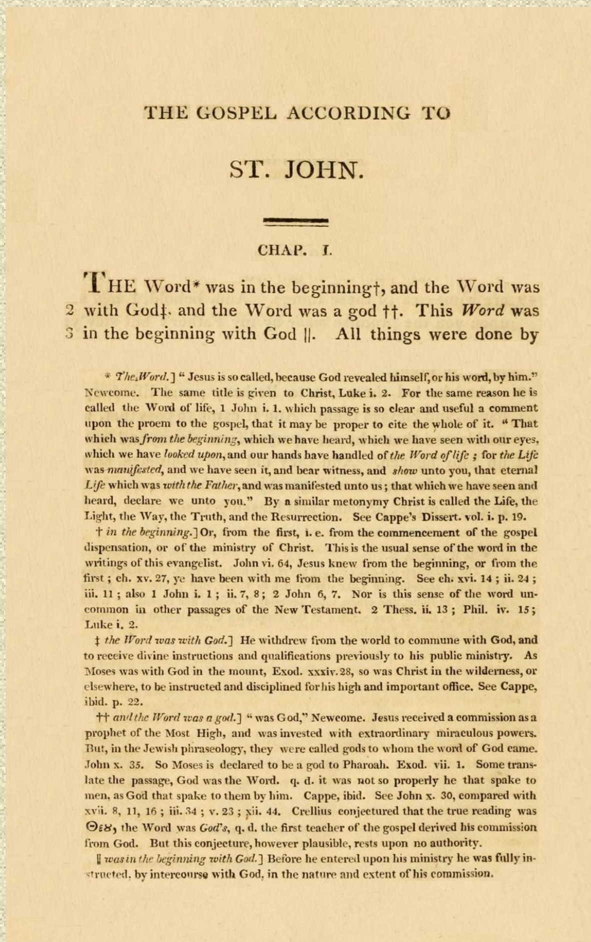
FROM THE LONDON EDITION.

BOSTON:

PRINTED BY THOMAS B. WAIT AND COMPANY, COURT-STREET.

FOR W. WELLS.

1809.



THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

ST. JOHN.

CHAP. I.

THE Word* was in the beginning†, and the Word was 2 with God‡. and the Word was a god ††. This Word was 3 in the beginning with God ||. All things were done by

* The Word.] "Jesus is so called, because God revealed himself, or his word, by him." Newcome. The same title is given to Christ, Luke i. 2. For the same reason he is called the Word of life, 1 John i. 1. which passage is so clear and useful a comment upon the proem to the gospel, that it may be proper to cite the whole of it. "That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the Word of life; for the Life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show unto you, that eternal Life which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us; that which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you." By a similar metonymy Christ is called the Life, the Light, the Way, the Truth, and the Resurrection. See Cappe's Dissert. vol. i. p. 19.

† in the beginning.] Or, from the first, i. e. from the commencement of the gospel dispensation, or of the ministry of Christ. This is the usual sense of the word in the writings of this evangelist. John vi. 64, Jesus knew from the beginning, or from the first; ch. xv. 27, ye have been with me from the beginning. See ch. xvi. 14; ii. 24; iii. 11; also 1 John i. 1; ii. 7, 8; 2 John 6, 7. Nor is this sense of the word uncommon in other passages of the New Testament. 2 Thess. ii. 13; Phil. iv. 15; Luke i. 2.

‡ the Word was with God.] He withdrew from the world to commune with God, and to receive divine instructions and qualifications previously to his public ministry. As Moses was with God in the mount, Exod. xxxiv. 28, so was Christ in the wilderness, or elsewhere, to be instructed and disciplined for his high and important office. See Cappe, ibid. p. 22.

†† and the Word was a god.] "was God," Newcome. Jesus received a commission as a prophet of the Most High, and was invested with extraordinary miraculous powers. But, in the Jewish phraseology, they were called gods to whom the word of God came. John x. 35. So Moses is declared to be a god to Pharoah. Exod. vii. 1. Some translate the passage, God was the Word. q. d. it was not so properly he that spake to men, as God that spake to them by him. Cappe, ibid. See John x. 30, compared with xvii. 8, 11, 16; iii. 34; v. 23; xii. 44. Crellius conjectured that the true reading was Θεȣ, the Word was God's, q. d. the first teacher of the gospel derived his commission from God. But this conjecture, however plausible, rests upon no authority.

|| was in the beginning with God.] Before he entered upon his ministry he was fully instructed, by intercourse with God, in the nature and extent of his commission.

https://archive.org/details/newtestamentinim00newc

27

1810
Additional Essays on the Language of Scripture (Vol. 2)
Bath: Richard Cruttwell
John Simpson

and the Word was a god

ADDITIONAL

ESSAYS

ON THE

LANGUAGE

OF SCRIPTURE.

BY

JOHN SIMPSON.

PRINTED BY
RICHARD CRUTTWELL, ST. JAMES'S-STREET, BATH; AND SOLD BY
T. EGERTON, WHITEHALL, LONDON.
1810.

A TRANSLATION AND PARAPHRASE OF JOHN I. 1 to 18.

TRANSLATION.	PARAPHRASE.
Ver. 1. In the beginning was the Word;	From the commencement of his public life Jeſus was a teacher of righteouſneſs, and a publiſher of glad tidings.
and the Word was with God,	To this preacher the Moſt High imparted extraordinary wiſdom and power, and the privilege of ſpeaking and acting in his name.
and the Word was a god.	As it was on account of ſimilar divine communications, that the Supreme Being himſelf called Moſes a god; that Jewiſh writers called thoſe men gods, to whom the word of God came; that Chriſt himſelf countenanced this meaning of the term; and that Iſaiah predicted the Meſſiah by the names Jehovah and God; ſo, in the ſame ſenſe, Jeſus was a god.
2. This "Word" was in the beginning with God.	This teacher was, from the beginning of his miniſtry, aided in a much greater degree than any other prophet by the Divine Spirit, in order to qualify him for his ſuperior office.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=eKoXAAAAYAAJ

28

1811

A New Analysis of Chronology, in which an attempt is made to explain the History and Antiquities of the Primitive Nations of the World, and the Prophecies Relating to them, on principles tending to remove the imperfection and discordance of preceding systems (Vol. 2)

London: Printed for the author; and sold by F. C. and J. Rivington

William Hales

and the Oracle was A GOD

A

NEW ANALYSIS

OF

CHRONOLOGY,

IN WHICH AN ATTEMPT IS MADE TO EXPLAIN THE History and Antiquities

OF THE

PRIMITIVE NATIONS OF THE WORLD,

AND THE

PROPHECIES RELATING TO THEM,

ON PRINCIPLES

TENDING TO REMOVE THE IMPERFECTION AND DISCORDANCE OF PRECEDING SYSTEMS.

TEMPORA si FASTOSQUE velis evolvere MUNDI. HOR.

BY

THE REV. WILLIAM HALES, D. D.

RECTOR OF KILLESANDRA, IN IRELAND; AND FORMERLY FELLOW OF TRINITY COLLEGE, AND PROFESSOR OF ORIENTAL LANGUAGES IN THE UNIVERSITY OF DUBLIN.

IN THREE VOLUMES.

VOL. II.

London:

PRINTED FOR THE AUTHOR;

AND SOLD BY F. C. AND J. RIVINGTON, ST. PAUL'S CHURCH-YARD; CADELL AND DAVIES, IN THE STRAND; T. PAYNE, PALL-MALL; J. HATCHARD, PICCADILLY; NORNAVILLE AND FELL, NEW BOND STREET; J. ASPERNE, CORNHILL; AND BY THE BOOKSELLERS IN OXFORD, CAMBRIDGE, DUBLIN, AND EDINBURGH.

1811

ence of CHRIST; 2. his antecedent dignity, as THE LEADER, Micah v. 2, Matt. ii. 6, Dan. ix. 25; or PRINCE, Dan. x. 21.

These two important articles are more fully explained in the sublime Introduction of John's Gospel, which was immediately and primarily designed as a commentary on the Baptist's testimony, introduced into the midst of it, as essentially connected therewith.

INTRODUCTION OF JOHN'S GOSPEL*.

1. " In the beginning was THE ORACLE, and the Oracle was with
2. THE GOD, and the Oracle was A GOD. This same was in the beginning with THE GOD.

3. " All

2. Γεγονεν, the definite perfect tense middle, is rather inaccurately rendered " is," for it properly denotes time past, terminating before, at, or in, the present; and should be rendered " hath been;" corresponding to the Latin, fuit: for it is contrasted with the present, " is," and the future, " shall be," Matt. xxiv. 21. That it terminates, however, at, or in, the present time, appears from the phrases τι γεγονεν, " how is it?" &c. or, " what hath been, and now is," the reason? &c. John xiv. 22; and, γεγονε, " it is done," or " the mystery of GOD hath been, and is now finished," Rev. xvi. 16. And so, fuit Ilium, fuimus Troes, intimates, that Troy hath been in existence, but is now no more. Hence, γεγονε, is distinguished from the indefinite tenses, εγενετο, " was made," " became," or " came to pass," John i. 3, or ην, " was," which contain no reference to present time.

3. Πρωτος μου ην is inaccurately rendered, " he was before me," confounding πρωτος with προτερος, " before," in point of time; whereas, in strictness, it relates to precedence of rank, as ὁς αν θελη ὑμων γενεσθαι πρωτος, εσται παντων δουλος. " Whosoever is desirous to become your chief, shall be servant of all," Mark x. 44; as exemplified by OUR LORD in washing his disciples feet, John xiii. 3—17, who called himself their chief, John xv. 18. And St. Paul, speaking of his former persecution of the Church, ranks himself among sinners, ὡν πρωτος ειμι εγω, " of whom I am chief," 1 Tim. i. 15. Compare Luke i. 43, 44.

4. Κεκραγε—ὁν ειπον. This relates to his first testimony, εγω φωνη βοωντος, " I am the voice of one crying," &c. for κεκραγε, and βοωντος, signify a public crier or herald.

* The translation of this sublime Introduction, differing from the received, especially in the first and most important verse, attesting the proper divinity of THE ORACLE (CHRIST) but still distinguishing him personally from THE FATHER, " neither confounding the persons, nor dividing the substance," according to the judicious canon of the Athanasian creed, requires to be supported by a critical analysis of the terms of the original, upon the logical principles established by Middleton, in his profound Doctrine of the Greek Article.

The

John 1:1-5, 9-18 is on pp. 724-728

https://catalog.hathitrust.org/Record/008911100

1813

ברית חדשה על פי משיח

= Brit Ḥadasha ʻal pi Mashiaḥ

London: B. R. Godkman

Thomas Fry – William B. Collyer

and the Word was a god

ואלהים היה הדבר

ברית חדשה

על פי

משיח:

נעתק מלשון יון ללשון עברי

לשוב בני ישראל

נעשה ונדפס במצות ובהוצאות

אחזת מרעהו לאנרן

להודיע תורת המשיח

ליהודים:

LONDINI:
TYPIS SOCIETATIS LONDINENSIS AD PROMOVENDAM CHRISTIANITATEM
INTER JUDÆOS,
Excudebat B. R. GOAKMAN,
9, CHURCH STREET, SPITALFIELDS.

1813.

ברית חדשה

כפי

יוחנן:

א א בראשית היה הדבר והדבר היה עם
2 האלהים ואלהים היה הדבר: הוא
3 היה בראשית עם--האלהים: כל נהיו ממנו
4 ומבלעדיו לא נהיה אחד אשר היה: חיים היו
ה בו והחיים היו אור אנשים: והאור בחשך נראה
והחשך לא השיגו: פ
6 7 וישלח איש מאלהים ושמו יוחנן: הוא
בא לעד להעד על־האור למען יאמינו כל על־
8 ידו: הוא לא היה האור כי אם--להעד על--
9 האור: הוא היה האור הנאמן המאיר לכל־איש
י הבא לארץ: היה בארץ והארץ נהיתה על־ידו
11 ולא ידעה אתו הארץ: הוא בא לאשר לו
12 ואת אשר־לו לא לקחו: ולאשר לקחהו להם
נתן שלטון להיות בני אלהים למאמינים בשמו:
13 אשר לא נולדו מדמים ומרצון הבשר ומרצון
14 האיש כי--אם מאלהים: והדבר היה לבשר
וישכן בתוכנו ונראה את־כבודו ככבוד בן־יחיד
לאב מלא חן ואמת: פ
טו ויעד יוחנן עליו ויצעק לאמר זה הוא
אשר אמרתי עליו הבא אחרי היה מלפני כי
16 לראש היה לי: וממלאו לקחנו כלנו וחן תחת
17 חן: כי התורה נתנה ביד משה וחן ואמת היה

https://books.google.pl/books?id=aB6w-32xqCMC

30

1823

The New Testament

being the English Only of the Greek and English Testament

Philadelphia: William Fry

Abner Kneeland

and the Word was a God

THE

NEW TESTAMENT;

BEING THE ENGLISH ONLY

OF THE

GREEK AND ENGLISH TESTAMENT;

Translated from the original Greek according to Griesbach; upon the basis of the fourth London edition of the Improved Version, with an attempt to further improvement from the translations of Campbell, Wakefield, Scarlett, Macknight, and Thomson.

BY ABNER KNEELAND,
Minister of the First Independent Church of Christ, called Universalist, in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA:
Published by the Editor, No. 31, South Second Street, and sold by him—also by Abm. Small, No. 165, Chesnut Street; and by the principal booksellers in the city.

WILLIAM FRY, PRINTER.

1823.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 IN the beginning was the Word,* and the Word was with God, and the Word was a God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were done by him;† and without him, was not any thing done that hath been done. 4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men. 5 And the light shone in darkness; and the darkness obscured it not.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness, to testify concerning the Light; that through him all might believe. 8 He was not himself the Light, but was sent to testify concerning the Light. 9 That was the true Light, which, having come into the world, is enlightening every man.

10 He was in the world, and the world was enlightened by him,‡ and yet the world knew him not. 11 He came to his

* The Word.] "Jesus is so called, because God revealed himself, or his word, by him." Newcome. The same title is given to Christ, Luke i. 2. For the same reason he is called the Word of life, 1 John i. 1. which passage is so clear and useful a comment upon the proem to the gospel, that it may be proper to cite the whole of it. "That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the Word of life; for the Life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show to you, that aionian Life which was with the Father, and was manifested to us; that which we have seen and heard, declare we to you." By a similar metonymy Christ is called the Life, the Light, the Way, the Truth, and the Resurrection. See Cappe's Dissert. vol. i. p. 19.

† All things were done by him.] "All things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made." Newcome: who explains it of the creation of the visible material world by Christ, as the agent and instrument of God. See his notes on ver. 3 and 10. But this is a sense which the word εγενετο will not admit. Γινομαι occurs upwards of seven hundred times in the New Testament, but never in the sense of create. It signifies in this gospel, (where it occurs fifty-three times,) to be, to come, to become, to come to pass: also, to be done or transacted, chap. xv. 7; xix. 36. It has the latter sense, Matt. v. 18; vi. 8; xxi. 42; xxvi. 6. All things in the christian dispensation were done by Christ, i. e. by his authority, and according to his direction; and in the ministry committed to his apostles, nothing has been done without his warrant. See John xv. 4, 5, "Without me ye can do nothing." Compare ver. 7, 10, 16; John xvii. 8; Col. i. 16, 17. Cappe's Dissert. vol. i. p. 19.

‡ and the world was enlightened by him.] ὁ κοσμος δι' αυτȣ εγενετο. The common version, adopted by Abp. Newcome, is, "the world was made by him," meaning that "the visible material world was created by him." But this, as was observed before in the note on verse 3, is inadmissible, as the word εγενετο never bears that sense. In the present version πεφωτισμενοι, enlightened, is understood after εγενετο, as best connecting with the preceding verse. So ver. 6, a man was sent from God, εγενετο απεσταλμενος. And Matt. xxiii. 15. προσηλυτος is understood after γενεται. Mr. Cappe translates the words, "the world was made for him;" understanding by the world, the Jewish dispensation, Gal. iv. 3; Col. ii. 8, 20, and taking δια with a genitive to express the final cause: of which he has produced several remarkable instances. Cappe, ibid. p. 50. The reader will judge which of these interpretations is to be preferred. See Improved Version, and the notes there

http://books.google.com/books?id=8fMSAAAAYAAJ

31

1828

Das Leben Jesu, als Grundlage einer reinen Geschichte des Urchristentums. De wortgetrue, erklärende, synoptische Uebersetzung der vier vereint geordneten Evangelien in Beziehung auf die Geschichterzählung derselben: Der Text=Uebersetzung erste Abtheilung (Vol. 2)

Heildelberg: C. F. Winter

Heinrich Eberhard Gottlob Paulus

and a g o d was that Spokesman spirit und e i n G o t t war jener Sprechergeist

Das

Leben Jesu,

als Grundlage

einer reinen Geschichte des Urchristentums.

Die wortgetreue, erklärende, synoptische

Uebersetzung

der vier vereint geordneten Evangelien

in Beziehung auf

die Geschichterzählung

derselben.

Von

Dr. Heinrich Eberh. Gottlob Paulus.

Der Text=Uebersetzung erste Abtheilung.

Heidelberg,
bey C. F. Winter.
1828.

anerkannte) S p r e c h e r g e i s t (Logos) und jener Sprechergeist war zu der Gottheit hin (gewendet, konnte damals noch auf etwas anderes nicht sich beziehen, als auf Gott selbst) und e i n G o t t war jener Sprechergeist. 2] Dieser war im Anfang (als noch Nichts durch ihn gewordenes da war) zu der Gottheit hin (gewendet). 3] Alles ward (alsdann) durch denselben und ausser durch denselben ward nicht Eines, was geworden ist.

4] In demselben war (das natürliche) Leben und das Leben (mit all seinen Erfahrungen von innen und außen) war das Licht der Menschen 5] und dieses Licht (die Erleuchtung, wie wir wollen sollen) scheinet in der Dunkelheit (unter vielem Nichtwissen und Nichtwollen) und die Dunkelheit hat dasselbe (in so langer Zeit) nicht (genug) aufgenommen.

6] Es ward (deswegen endlich zu unserer Zeit) ein Mann abgesendet von Gott; sein Name ist J o h a n n e s (Gottes=Huld). 7] Dieser kam zur Bezeugung, so daß Er (seine Ueberzeugung) bezeugte wegen des Lichts, damit Alle überzeugungstreu wären (für den wahren Erleuchter 20, 31) durch ihn (den Johannes). 8] Nicht war Jener das Licht (der Messias selbst Lk. 3, 15) sondern (er war) so daß er bezeugete wegen des Lichts (seine vielgültige Ueberzeugung).

9] Es war (bereits der Erleuchter und Aufklärer für das gute und gotteswürdige Wahre) das wahre Licht, welches (jetzt) als Licht sich zeigt für jeden Menschen (ohne Unterschied der Nation), kommend in die (Menschen=) Welt. 10] In dieser Welt war es (schon von längst her) und die Welt ward durch dasselbe (da nichts gewordenes ohne durch dasselbe ward Vs. 3). Und (doch) hat die Welt Ihn (das wahre Licht, da es jetzt als ein Er, als eine Person auftrat) nicht tief=erkannt. 11] In das Eigene (das Ihm, dem Messias, im Allgemeinen längst zugeeignete Volk, das Ihm jetzt sogleich eigen hätte seyn sollen) kam Er und (doch) haben die Eigenen Ihn nicht (genug) angenommen.

12] So viele aber ihn annahmen, denen gab Er Macht (volle Möglichkeit zu diesem Vorzug zu gelangen,) Gottes Kinder zu werden, denen für seine Benennung (für die thätige Anerkennung, daß er der Messias ist) Ueberzeugungstreuen. 13] Welche (als Kinder geistiger Art, als Geistes-Verwandte der Gottheit) nicht aus Geblüt (sinnlichen Erzeugungsmitteln) noch aus leiblichem Belieben (einer Geschlechtslust) noch aus Belieben eines Mannes (der an Kindesstatt annimmt), sondern aus Gott (aus gotteswürdigen und göttlich kräftigen Würkungen für ihr wollendes und denkendes Wesen) erzeugt (neue Geistiggeborne) wurden. 14] Und (dies zu

https://catalog.hathitrust.org/Record/008407525

1831

ספר הברית החדשה על פי אדננו ומושיענו

= Sefer HaBrit HaḤadasha ʻal pi Adonenu weMoshianu

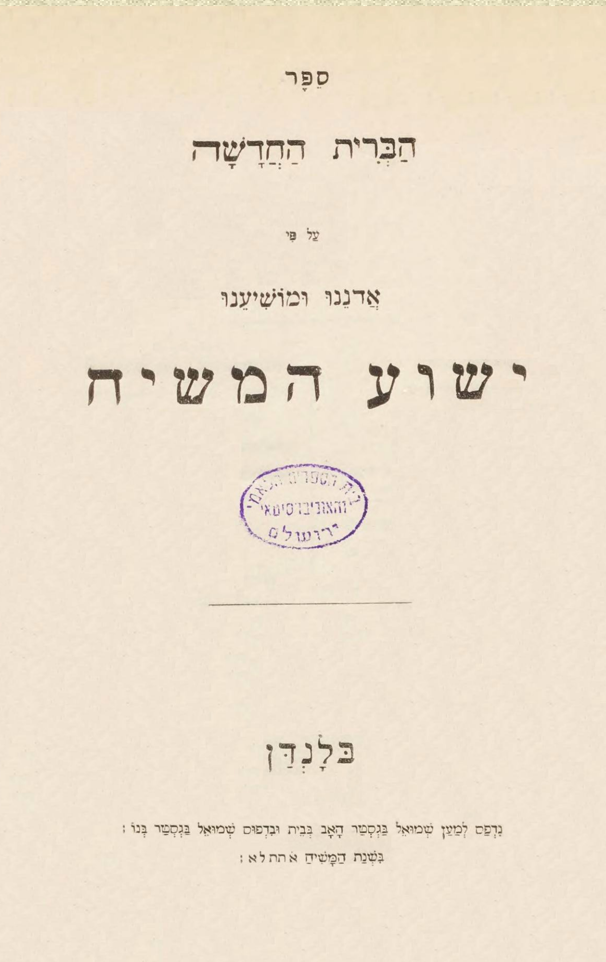
London: Samuel Bagster

William Greenfield

and a god was the Word

ואלהים היה הדבר



סֵפֶר

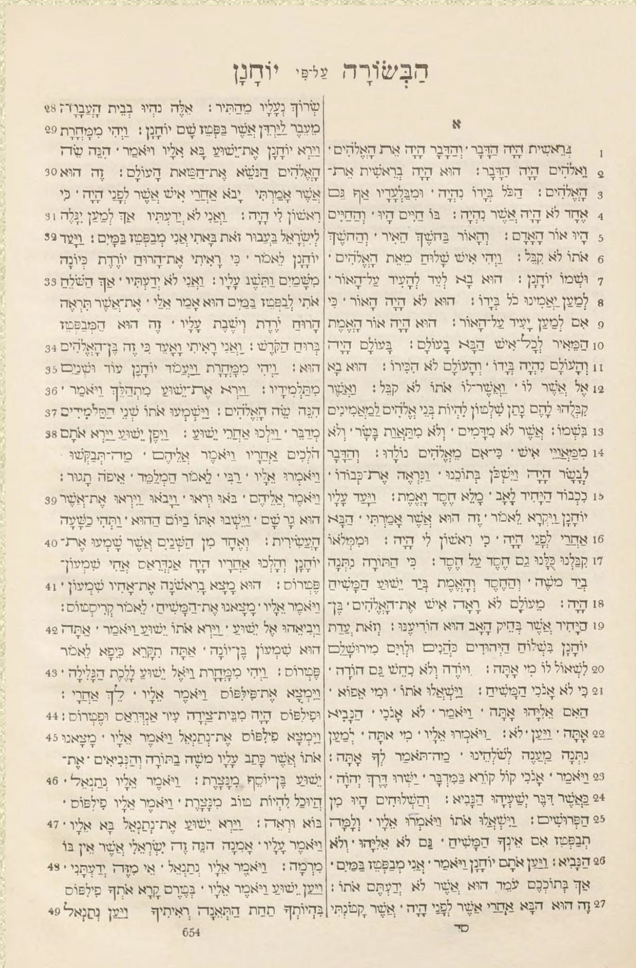
הַבְּרִית הַחֲדָשָׁה

עַל פִּי

אֲדֹנֵנוּ וּמוֹשִׁיעֵנוּ

יֵשׁוּעַ הַמָּשִׁיחַ

בְּלֹנְדֹּן



הַבְּשׂוֹרָה עַל־פִּי יוֹחָנָן

א

https://www.nli.org.il/en/books/NNL_ALEPH001854470/NLI

33

1838

Die Evangelische Geschichte, kritisch und philosophisch bearbeitet (Vol. 2)

Leipzig, Germany: Breitkopf und Härtel

Christian Hermann Weiße

and a god was the Word

und ein Gott war der Wort

Die

evangelische Geschichte

kritisch und philosophisch bearbeitet

von

Ch. Hermann Weiße,

Doctor der Theologie und Philosophie.

Zweiter Band.

Enervis fidei confessio est, in Christum sine teste et argumento non credere.
Faust. Manich.

Leipzig.

Druck und Verlag von Breitkopf und Härtel.

1838.

Sechstes Buch.

Evangelische Erzählungen und Reden nach Johannes.

1. „Am Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war bei Gott, und ein Gott war das Wort. Dieses war im Anfang bei Gott, Alles entstand durch dasselbe, und ohne es entstand auch nicht Ein Ding von denen, die entstanden sind. In ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen. Und das Licht scheint im Dunkel, und das Dunkel nahm es nicht auf. — Es war ein Mann, abgesandt von Gott, sein Name Johannes. Dieser kam zum Zeugniß, zu zeugen von dem Licht, damit Alle durch ihn gläubig würden. Nicht er selbst war das Licht, sondern er sollte zeugen von dem Lichte. Es sollte das Licht, das wahrhaftige, das jeden Menschen erleuchtet, in die Welt kommen. In der Welt war es, und die Welt entstand durch dasselbe, und die Welt kannte es nicht. In das, was sein eigen ist, kam es, und die Seinen nahmen es nicht auf. So viele aber es aufnahmen, diesen gab es die Fähigkeit, Kinder Gottes zu werden, Jenen, die an Seinen Namen glauben. Solche sind nicht aus Blut, noch aus Fleisches Gelüst, noch aus eines Mannes Gelüst, sondern aus Gott erzeugt. — Und das Wort ward Fleisch und wohnte unter uns, — wir schauten seinen Glanz, den Glanz wie eines Eingeborenen vom Vater, — voll von Gnade und Wahrheit. Johannes zeugt von ihm; er rief aus: Dieser ist es, von dem ich sagte, der nach mir kommt, ist größer als ich, denn er war vor mir! Aus seiner Fülle haben wir alle empfangen, und zwar Gnade auf Gnade. Das Gesetz nämlich ward durch Moses gegeben, die Gnade aber und die Wahrheit ward durch Jesus Christus. Gott

34

1849

A Literal Translation of the Gospel according to St. John

London: Cradock & Co.

Herman Heinfetter (=Frederick Parker)

and a God, the word spoken was i e became

A LITERAL TRANSLATION

OF THE

GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN,

ON

DEFINITE RULES OF TRANSLATION

BY

HERMAN HEINFETTER,

AUTHOR OF "RULES FOR ASCERTAINING THE SENSE CONVEYED IN ANCIENT GREEK MANUSCRIPTS," &c. &c.

PART I.

LONDON:
PUBLISHED BY CRADOCK & Co. (LATE BALDWIN & CRADOCK)
48, PATERNOSTER ROW.

1849.

[ENTERED AT STATIONERS' HALL.]

with the God to fulfil, and [502] a God, the word [501] spoken was i e became,

2. this [502] God was in beginning i e in commencing [500] this Dispensation, with the God,

3. all things in this Dispensation, by means of him, he did, and without him, he did not one thing, which he has done,

4. to it i e this Dispensation, life [22] he was, and the life, the light of [503] the men benefitted by it was,

5. and the light, in [503] the darkness referred to, still shines, but the darkness referred to [504] comprehended not it i e has not accepted it, well known as an acknowledged Appellation of the Individual, but is, on no other occasion, ever applied as an Appellation of the Individual. To admit such to be the case, is to admit the Article is a nullity. Rev. 19-13 Is not the same Appellation. It is not. And his name is called the word, but, And his name is called the word of the God. To say nothing of its having been written, 28 years afterwards.

502. A God. Was this used as an Appellation of Almighty God, the Article would certainly have been expressed before it; its omission therefore determines, that it must be used as an Appellation of some other, and this other, I judge from the context to be what I have expressed in the Paraphrase. I judge my view to be somewhat strengthened by the 2nd verse, which would otherwise be a mere repetition of the 3rd Clause of the first verse.

503. The men. The Article is expressed, and therefore, The light of men, is not an admissible Translation, In like manner, The darkness in v. 5, cannot be, The light shineth in darkness.

504. The darkness comprehended not it. If Regularly Arranged, the Literal Sense would imply, that the parties referred to, did not understand the light; whereas the Sense intended to be conveyed is, They did not accept the light; hence the Disarrangement. See Rule 321.

https://archive.org/details/aliteraltransla00johngoog

Ed. Oct 1863

CHAPTER I.

1. In [500] commencing this Dispensation, the [501] command was existing i e had [502] been spoken, yet the [322,2] command [503] was with the God, he having to fulfil it, as a God the command [322,2] was [502] i e had relation to,

Ed. March 1864

CHAPTER 1.

1. In commencing this Dispensation, the command was existing, yet the command was with the God, as the command had relation to a God.

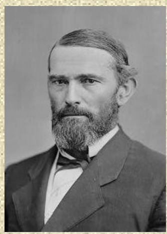
35

1864

The Emphatic Diaglott

New York: Fowler & Wells Co. Publishers

Benjamin Wilson



interlinear translation:
and a god was the word

target translation:
and the LOGOS was God

THE

EMPHATIC DIAGLOTT

CONTAINING THE Original Greek Text

OF WHAT IS COMMONLY STYLED THE

NEW TESTAMENT

(According to the Recension of Dr. J. J. Griesbach)

WITH AN

INTERLINEARY WORD FOR WORD ENGLISH TRANSLATION

A NEW EMPHATIC VERSION

BASED ON THE INTERLINEARY TRANSLATION, ON THE RENDERINGS OF EMINENT CRITICS, AND ON THE VARIOUS READINGS OF

THE VATICAN MANUSCRIPT

No. 1209 in the Vatican Library

TOGETHER WITH ILLUSTRATIVE AND EXPLANATORY FOOT NOTES, AND A COPIOUS SELECTION OF REFERENCES

TO THE WHOLE OF WHICH IS ADDED

A VALUABLE ALPHABETICAL APPENDIX

BY BENJAMIN WILSON

NEW YORK
FOWLER & WELLS CO., PUBLISHERS
27 EAST 21ST ST. NEW YORK
LONDON: L. N. FOWLER & CO., 7, Imperial Arcade, Ludgate Circus
[NEW ADDRESS, SEE NEXT PAGE]

---

*[ΕΥΑΓΓΕΛΙΟΝ] ΚΑΤΑ ΙΩΑΝΝΗΝ.
[GLAD TIDINGS] BY JOHN.

* ACCORDING TO JOHN.

ΚΕΦ. α'. 1.

[1] Εν αρχῃ ην ὁ λογος, και ὁ λογος ην προς
In a beginning was the word, and the word was with τον θεον, και θεος ην ὁ λογος. [2] Οὑτος ην εν the God, and a god was the word. This was in αρχῃ προς τον θεον. [3] Παντα δι' αυτου a beginning with the God. All through it † εγενετο· και χωρις αυτου εγενετο ουδε ἑν, ὁ was done: and without it was done not even one, that γεγονεν. [4] Εν αυτῳ ζωη ην, και ἡ ζωη ην το has been done. In it life was, and the life was the φως των ανθρωπων· [5] και το φως εν τῃ σκοτιᾳ light of the men: and the light in the darkness φαινει, και ἡ σκοτια αυτο ου καταλαβεν.
shines, and the darkness it not apprehended.

[6] Εγενετο ανθρωπος απεσταλμενος παρα θεου,
Was a man having been sent from God,
ονομα αυτῳ Ιωαννης· [7] οὑτος ηλθεν εις μαρτυριαν,
a name to him John: this came for a witness,
ἱνα μαρτυρησῃ περι του φωτος, ἱνα παντες πισ-that he might testify about the light, that all might τευσωσι δι' αυτου. [8] Ουκ ην εκεινος το φως, believe through him. Not was he the light, αλλ' ἱνα μαρτυρησῃ περι του φωτος. [9] Ην το but that he might testify about the light. Was the φως το αληθινον, ὁ φωτιζει παντα ανθρωπον light the true, which enlightens every man ερχομενον εις τον κοσμον. [10] Εν τῳ κοσμῳ ην, coming into the world. In the world he was,
και ὁ κοσμος δι' αυτου εγενετο, και ὁ κοσμος and the world through him was, and the world αυτον ουκ εγνω. [11] Εις τα ιδια ηλθε, και οἱ him not knew. Into the own he came, and the ιδιοι αυτον ου παρελαβον. [12] Ὁσοι δε ελαβον own him not received. As many as but received

CHAPTER I.

1 In the ‡ Beginning was the † LOGOS, and the LOGOS was with GOD, and the LOGOS was God.

2 This was in the Beginning with GOD.

3 ‡ Through it every thing was done; and without it not even one thing was done, which has been done.

4 In it was Life; and the LIFE was the LIGHT of MEN.

5 And the ‡ LIGHT shone in the DARKNESS, and the DARKNESS apprehended It not.

6 ‡ There was a Man, named John, sent by God.

7 He came for a Witness, that he might testify concerning the LIGHT, that all might believe through him.

8 He was not the LIGHT, but to testify concerning the LIGHT.

9 The TRUE LIGHT was that, which, coming into the WORLD, enlightens Every Man.

10 He was in the WORLD, and † the WORLD was (enlightened) through him; and yet the WORLD knew Him not.

11 ‡ He came to his OWN domains, and yet his OWN people received Him not;

12 but to as many as received him, ‡ he gave

* VATICAN MANUSCRIPT.—Title—ACCORDING TO JOHN.

† 1. In this and the fourteenth verse logos, has been transferred, rather than translated. Dr. A. Clarke remarks, "This term should be left untranslated, for the very same reasons why the names Jesus and Christ are left untranslated. As every appellative of the Savior of the world, was descriptive of some excellence in his person, nature, or work, so the epithet Logos, which signifies a word spoken, speech, eloquence, doctrine, reason, or the faculty of reasoning, is very properly applied to him." See 1 John i. 1, for a clear and useful comment by the apostle John on the proem to this Gospel. † 3. Ginomai occurs upwards of seven hundred times in the New Testament, but never in the sense of create, yet in most versions it is translated, as though the word was ktizo. "The word occurs fifty-three times in this Gospel, and signifies to be, to come, to become, to come to pass; also, to be done or transacted. All things in the christian dispensation were done by Christ, i. e. by his authority, and according to his direction; and in the ministry committed to his apostles, nothing has been done without his warrant. See John xv. 4, 5, "Without me ye can do nothing." Compare ver. 7, 10, 16; John xvii. 8; Col. i. 16, 17." Cappe's Diss † 10. ho kosmos, the order, arrangement of things, the human race; here it evidently means that kosmos of human beings which he came to enlighten and to save. John viii. 12; iii. 16.

‡ 1. Prov. viii. 22, &c.; 1 John i. 1. ‡ 3. Eph. iii. 9; Col. i. 16. ‡ 5. John viii 12; ix. 5; xii. 35, 46. ‡ 6. Mal. iii. 1; Matt. iii. 1; Luke iii. 2. ‡ 11. Matt. xxi 38; Mark xii. 7; Luke xix. 14; xx. 14. ‡ 12. Rom. viii. 15; Gal. iii. 26, 27; 1 John iii. 1

10*

https://archive.org/details/emphaticdiaglott00wils

36a

1872

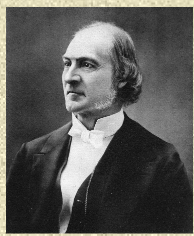
FRENCH

Le Nouveau Testament de Notre Seigneur Jésus-Christ

Genève: A. Cherbuliez et Cie, Libraires-Éditeurs

Paris: Librairie Sandoz & Fischbacher

Hugues Oltramare



and the Word was god

et la Parole était dieu

LE

NOUVEAU TESTAMENT

DE

NOTRE SEIGNEUR

JÉSUS-CHRIST

VERSION NOUVELLE

PAR

HUGUES OLTRAMARE

PASTEUR ET PROFESSEUR DE THÉOLOGIE A L'ACADÉMIE DE GENÈVE

GENÈVE

A. CHERBULIEZ ET Cie, LIBRAIRES-ÉDITEURS

2, GRAND'RUE

PARIS

LIBRAIRIE SANDOZ & FISCHBACHER

33, RUE DE SEINE

1872

ÉVANGILE SELON SAINT JEAN

La Parole avec Dieu. — La Parole créatrice. — La Parole faite chair. — Témoignage de Jean-Baptiste. — Jean-Baptiste et Jésus au Jourdain. — Jésus et ses premiers disciples. — Retour de Jésus en Galilée.

1 Au commencement était la Parole; la Parole était avec 2 Dieu, et la Parole était dieu. Elle était au commencement avec 3 Dieu. Toutes choses ont été faites par elle, et rien de ce qui 4 a été fait, n'a été fait sans elle. En elle était la vie, et cette vie 5 était la lumière des hommes : la lumière brille dans les ténèbres, mais les ténèbres ne l'ont point reçue.

6 Un homme parut; il était envoyé de Dieu, son nom était 7 Jean. Il vint pour un témoignage, pour rendre témoignage à 8 la Lumière, afin que tous crussent par lui : il n'était pas la Lu- 9 mière, mais il devait rendre témoignage à la Lumière. La véritable Lumière, qui éclaire tout homme, était entrée dans le 10 monde; elle était dans le monde, et le monde a été fait par elle, 11 mais le monde ne l'a point connue. Elle est venue chez les siens, 12 et les siens ne l'ont point reçue; mais à tous ceux qui l'ont reçue, à tous ceux qui croient en son nom, elle a donné la pré- 13 rogative d'être enfants de Dieu : enfants, qui ne sont pas nés du sang, ni de la volonté de la chair, ni de la volonté de 14 l'homme, mais qui sont nés de Dieu. Et la Parole a été faite chair; elle a habité au milieu de nous pleine de grâce et de vérité, et nous avons contemplé sa gloire, une gloire comme celle 15 d'un fils unique envoyé par son père. Jean lui rend témoignage, quand il dit à haute voix : « Voici celui dont je disais : Celui qui vient après moi, a pris le pas devant moi, parce qu'il est 16 plus grand que moi. » C'est de sa plénitude que nous avons tous 17 reçu grâce sur grâce; car la Loi a été donnée par Moïse; mais

https://archive.org/details/Httplamejortraducciondelabiblia.blogspot.com.es201505quien-fue-hugues-oltramare.html

36b

1908

FRENCH

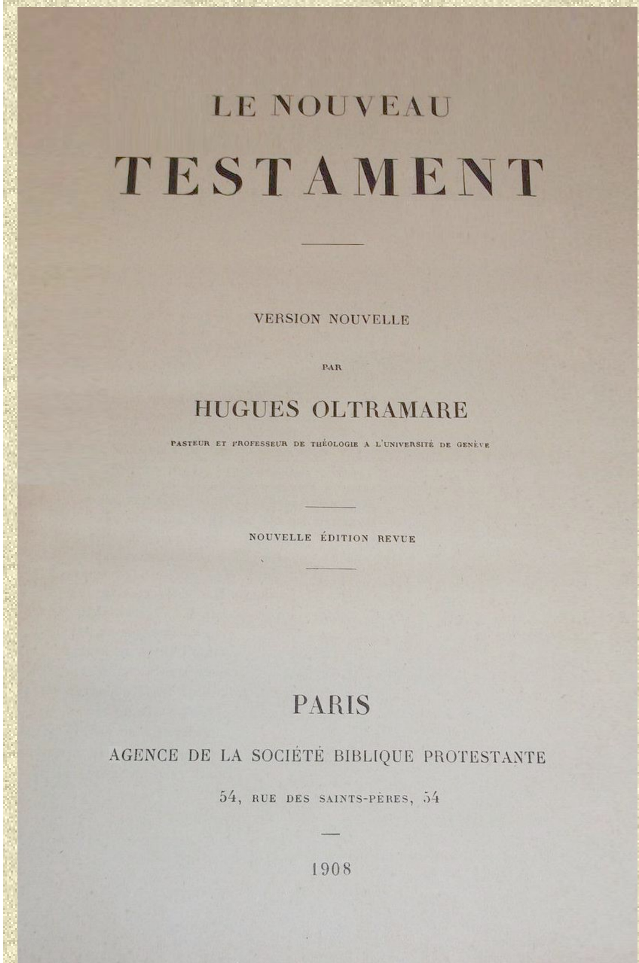
Le Nouveau Testament

Paris: Agence de la Société Biblique Protestante

Hugues Oltramare

and the Word was divine nature

et la Parole était d'essence divine



LE NOUVEAU

TESTAMENT

VERSION NOUVELLE

PAR

HUGUES OLTRAMARE

PASTEUR ET PROFESSEUR DE THÉOLOGIE A L'UNIVERSITÉ DE GENÈVE

NOUVELLE ÉDITION REVUE

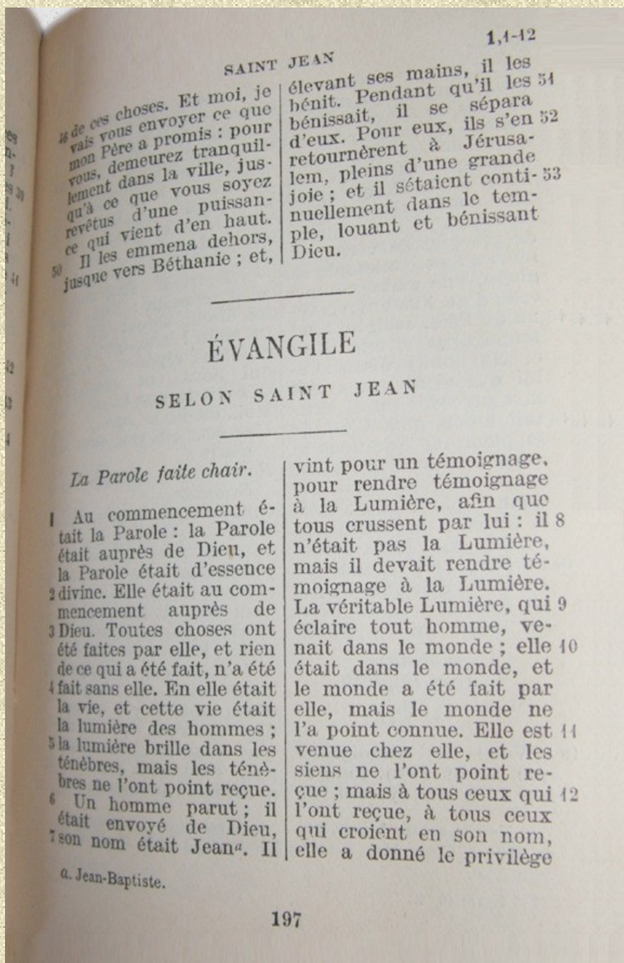
PARIS

AGENCE DE LA SOCIÉTÉ BIBLIQUE PROTESTANTE

54, RUE DES SAINTS-PÈRES, 54

—

1908



SAINT JEAN 1,1-12

48 de ces choses. Et moi, je vais vous envoyer ce que mon Père a promis : pour vous, demeurez tranquillement dans la ville, jusqu'à ce que vous soyez revêtus d'une puissance qui vient d'en haut. 50 Il les emmena dehors, jusque vers Béthanie ; et, élevant ses mains, il les bénit. 51 Pendant qu'il les bénissait, il se sépara d'eux. 52 Pour eux, ils s'en retournèrent à Jérusalem, pleins d'une grande joie ; 53 et il s'étaient continuellement dans le temple, louant et bénissant Dieu.

ÉVANGILE

SELON SAINT JEAN

La Parole faite chair.

1 Au commencement était la Parole : la Parole était auprès de Dieu, et la Parole était d'essence 2 divine. Elle était au commencement auprès de 3 Dieu. Toutes choses ont été faites par elle, et rien de ce qui a été fait, n'a été 4 fait sans elle. En elle était la vie, et cette vie était la lumière des hommes ; 5 la lumière brille dans les ténèbres, mais les ténèbres ne l'ont point reçue. 6 Un homme parut ; il était envoyé de Dieu, 7 son nom était Jean[a]. Il vint pour un témoignage, pour rendre témoignage à la Lumière, afin que tous crussent par lui : 8 il n'était pas la Lumière, mais il devait rendre témoignage à la Lumière. 9 La véritable Lumière, qui éclaire tout homme, venait dans le monde ; 10 elle était dans le monde, et le monde a été fait par elle, mais le monde ne l'a point connue. 11 Elle est venue chez elle, et les siens ne l'ont point reçue ; 12 mais à tous ceux qui l'ont reçue, à tous ceux qui croient en son nom, elle a donné le privilège

a. Jean-Baptiste.

197

1877

ספרי הברית החדשה

= Sifre HaBrit HaḤadasha (Ed. 1)

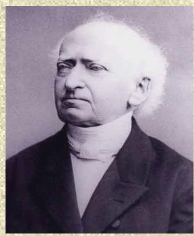
Leipzig: Ackermann & Glaser

Franz J. Delitzsch



and a god was the Word

ואלהים היה הדבר

ספרי

ה ב ר י ת ה ח ד ש ה

נעתקים מלשון יון ללשון עברית

בהשתדלות ובהשגחת

החכם פראפעסאר פ ר א נ ץ ד ע ל י ט ש

בשנת זכרתי משפטיך לפ"ק

1877.

הבשורה הקדושה על־פי

יוחנן

א בראשית היה הדבר והדבר היה את האלהים
2 ואלהים היה הדבר׃ הוא היה בראשית את
3 האלהים׃ הכל נהיה על־ידו ולא נהיה בלעדיו
4 גם־אחד אשר נהיה׃ בו החיים והחיים היו לאור
5 בני האדם׃ והאור הופיע בחשך והחשך לא
6 השיגו׃ ויהי איש שלוח מאת אלהים ושמו
7 יוחנן׃ הוא בא לעדות להעיד על־האור למען יאמינו
8 כלם על־ידו׃ הוא לא־היה האור אך למען יעיד
9 על־האור׃ האור האמתי המאיר לכל־אדם היה לבוא
10 לעולם׃ ויהי בעולם ועל־ידו נהיה העולם והעולם
11 לא ידעו׃ הוא בא אל־אשר לו ואשר־לו הם לא
12 קבלוהו׃ וכל אשר אספוהו נתן־עז למו להיות
13 בנים לאלהים למאמינים בשמו׃ אשר לא מדמים
ולא מחמדת הבשר אף לא־מתאות גבר כי אם־
14 מאלהים נולדו׃ והדבר היה לבשר וישכן בתוכנו
ונחזה כבודו ככבוד בן יחיד לאביו רב־חסד ואמת׃
15 ויוחנן מעיד עליו ויקרא לאמר הנה זה הוא אשר
אמרתי עליו הבא אחרי היה לפני כי־קדם לי
16 17 היה׃ וממלואו לקחנו כלנו חסד על־חסד׃ כי
התורה נתנה ביד־משה והחסד והאמת באו על־ידי ישוע

https://books.google.pl/books?id=EkHgAAAAMAAJ

1885

הברית החדשה = HaBrit HaḤadasha

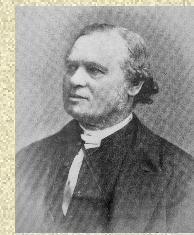
Edinburgh

Isaac E. Salkinson – Christian D. Ginsburg



and he, the Word, was a god

והוא הדבר היה אלהים

Ed. 1886

הברית החדשה

העתקה חדשה מלשון יון ללשון עבר

מאת

יצחק זאלקינסאָן ז״ל

תוצאה שנית

הובאה לדפוס עם תקונים והערות

מאת

כ׳ דוד גינצבורג

על ידי חברת מוציאי לאור תורת יהוה התמימה

בשנת שאלו שלום ירושלם לפ״ק

1886.

הַבְּשׂוֹרָה אֲשֶׁר לְיוֹחָנָן

א בְּרֵאשִׁית הָיָה הַדָּבָר וְהַדָּבָר הָיָה אֶת־הָאֱלֹהִים וְהוּא
2 הַדָּבָר הָיָה אֱלֹהִים: הוּא הָיָה מֵרֹאשׁ אֶת־הָאֱלֹהִים:
3 כָּל־הַמַּעֲשִׂים נִהְיוּ עַל־יָדוֹ וְאֵין דָּבָר אֲשֶׁר נַעֲשָׂה
4 מִבַּלְעָדָיו: בּוֹ נִמְצָא חַיִּים וְהַחַיִּים הֵם אוֹר הָאָדָם:
5 6 וְהָאוֹר זֹרֵחַ בַּחשֶׁךְ וְהַחשֶׁךְ לֹא יְכִילֶנּוּ: אִישׁ הָיָה
7 בָּאָרֶץ יוֹחָנָן שְׁמוֹ אֲשֶׁר שְׁלָחוֹ אֱלֹהִים: הוּא בָא
לְעֵדוּת לְהָעִיד עַל־הָאוֹר לְמַעַן יַאֲמִינוּ כֻלָּם עַל־יָדוֹ:
8 וְלֹא הוּא הָיָה הָאוֹר כִּי אִם־בָּא לְהָעִיד עַל־הָאוֹר
9 הַהוּא: הוּא אוֹר אֱמֶת אֲשֶׁר בָּא לָעוֹלָם לְהָאִיר לְכָל־
10 אָדָם: הוּא הָיָה בָעוֹלָם וְהָעוֹלָם נִהְיָה עַל־יָדוֹ
11 וְהָעוֹלָם אֹתוֹ לֹא יָדָע: הוּא בָא אֶל־עַמּוֹ שֶׁלּוֹ וְעַמּוֹ
12 שֶׁלּוֹ לֹא הֶחֱזִיקוּ־בוֹ: וְאֵלֶּה אֲשֶׁר הֶחֱזִיקוּ־בוֹ נָתַן־כֹּחַ
בְּיָדָם לִהְיוֹת בָּנִים לֵאלֹהִים הֲלֹא הֵם הַמַּאֲמִינִים בִּשְׁמוֹ:
13 אֲשֶׁר לֵדָתָם לֹא מִדָּם וְלֹא מִתַּאֲוַת בָּשָׂר וְלֹא מֵרוּחַ
14 גָּבֶר כִּי אִם־מֵאֱלֹהִים: וְהַדָּבָר לָבַשׁ בָּשָׂר וַיִּשְׁכֹּן
בְּתוֹכֵנוּ וְאֶת־כְּבוֹדוֹ רָאִינוּ כִּכְבוֹד בֵּן יָחִיד לְאָבִיו
15 מָלֵא חֶסֶד וֶאֱמֶת: וְיוֹחָנָן הֵעִיד עָלָיו וַיִּקְרָא לֵאמֹר
זֶה הוּא אֲשֶׁר אָמַרְתִּי עָלָיו כִּי הוּא בָא אַחֲרַי וְהִנֵּה הוּא

https://www.nli.org.il/en/books/NNL_ALEPH002250173/NLI

1891

The Bible;

Analyzed, Translated and Accompanied with Critical Studies:

New Testament

Whitesboro, N.Y.: L. A. Sawyer

Leicester Ambrose Sawyer

and the word was a god

THE BIBLE;

ANALYZED, TRANSLATED AND ACCOMPANIED WITH

CRITICAL STUDIES,

PUBLISHED IN PARTS OF BOOKS, SINGLE BOOKS AND COLLECTIONS OF BOOKS, BY

REV. LEICESTER A. SAWYER.

NEW TESTAMENT.

WHITESBORO, N. Y.
L. A. SAWYER.
1891.

says] are witnesses of these things. 49 And behold I will send the promise of my father on you, and do you remain in the city till you are endued with power from on high. 50 And he led them out to Bethany, and lifted up his hands and blessed them, 51 and it came to pass while he blessed them that he departed from them. 52 And they returned to Jerusalem with great joy, 53 and were continually in the temple praising and blessing the God.

4. Gospel according to John.

CHAPTER I. 1 : 1—51.

The word of the Jewish mystics appears in Jesus, and he is introduced by John the Baptist.

1 : 1 In the beginning was the word, and the word was with the God, and the word was a god. 3 This [god] was in the beginning with the God. 3 All things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men ; 5 and the light shone in the darkness, and the darkness apprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God whose name was John. 7 This [man] came for a witness to testify concerning the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but [a witness] to testify concerning the light. 9 The light was the true, that lights every man that comes into the world. 10 He was in the world, and ihe world was made

https://archive.org/details/bibleanalyzed00sawy

40

1896

Der Logos. Geschichte seiner Entwickelung der griechischen Philosophie und der christlichen Litteratur

Leipzig: O. R. Reisland

Anathon August Fredrik Aall

and a god being was the Logos und ein Gottwesen war der Logos

DER LOGOS.

Geschichte seiner Entwickelung

in der griechischen Philosophie und der christlichen Litteratur.

I.

Geschichte der Logosidee

in der griechischen Philosophie

von

Anathon Aall

aus Christiania.

Leipzig,

O. R. Reisland.

1896.

Joh. 1, 1—18.

Vers 1. Im Anfang war der Logos, und der Logos war bei Gott, und ein Gottwesen war der Logos. 110

Vers 2. Es war dieser im Anfang bei Gott[5]). 111

Vers 3. Alles ist durch ihn geworden, und ohne ihn geworden ist nichts, was geworden. 112

Vers 4. In ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen.

Vers 5. Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis, und die Finsternis hat es nicht ergriffen. 113

Vers 6—8. Es ward ein Mensch von Gott her gesandt, sein Name Johannes. Der kam zum Zeugnis, dafs er zeugete über das Licht, damit alle durch ihn glaubten. Nicht war er das Licht, sondern (er kam), um vom Licht zu zeugen. 115

Vers 9. Es war das wahre Licht, welches jedem Menschen leuchtet, kommend in die Welt. 116

Vers 10. Er war in der Welt, und die Welt ist durch ihn geworden, und die Welt kannte ihn nicht.

Vers 11. Er kam in sein Eigentum, und die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf.

Vers 12. Wie viele ihn aber aufnahmen, denen gab er das Vermögen, Gotteskinder zu werden, zumal sie an seinen Namen glauben. 117

Vers 13. Welche nicht aus Geblüt, noch aus Fleisches-Willen, noch aus Mannes-Willen, sondern aus Gott geboren sind.

Vers 14. Und der Logos wurde Fleisch und zeltete unter uns, und wir sahen seine Herrlichkeit, eine Herrlichkeit als des eingebornen Sohnes vom Vater, voller Gnade und Wahrheit. 118

Vers 15. Johannes zeuget von ihm, ruft und spricht: Dieser war's, von welchem ich sagte: Der nach mir Kommende ist vor mir schon dagewesen; denn er war eher denn ich. 121

Vers 16. Denn aus seiner Fülle haben wir alle genommen Gnade um Gnade. 122

Vers 17. Denn das Gesetz ist durch Moses gegeben, die Gnade und die Wahrheit durch Jesus Christus geworden.

Vers 18. Die Gottheit hat niemand jemals gesehen, der göttliche Eingeborne, der an des Vaters Busen ist, der hat von ihr Kunde gebracht. 123

In this book individual verses are on pages 110-123

https://archive.org/details/derlogosgeschic03aallgoog

41

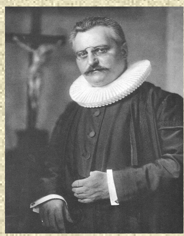
1897

Das Neue Testament

übersetz in die Sprache der Gegenwart

Leipzig: Phillip Reclam jun.

Curt Stage



and the W o r d was itself of divine being und das W o r t war selbst göttlichen Wesens

Das Evangelium nach Johannes.

Einleitung des Evangelisten.

1. Im Anfang war das Wort*) und das Wort war selbst göttlichen Wesens. So war es im Anfang bei Gott. Alles in der Schöpfung ist durch das Wort geworden, nichts, was geworden ist, ist ohne es geworden. In ihm war Leben, und sein Leben war das Licht der Menschen. Das Licht scheint in der Finsternis, und die Finsternis hat es sich nicht zu eigen gemacht.

Es trat ein Mensch auf, von Gott gesandt, Namens Johannes. Er kam, um Zeugnis abzulegen, Zeugnis für das Licht, damit alle durch ihn zum Glauben kämen. Er war nicht das Licht, er sollte nur dafür Zeugnis ablegen.

Das wahrhaftige Licht, das jeden Menschen erleuchtet, das war der, der nach der Verheißung kommen sollte. Er war in der Welt, und die Welt ist durch ihn geworden, und die Welt erkannte ihn nicht. Er kam in sein Eigentum, und seine eigenen Leute nahmen ihn nicht an! Denjenigen aber, die ihn annahmen, gab er das Anrecht, Gottes Kinder zu werden; denen nämlich, die an seinen Messias-Namen glauben, die nicht aus menschlichem Geblüt, nicht aus Fleischestrieb, nicht aus dem Willen eines Mannes, sondern aus Gott ihr Leben haben.

Und das Wort wurde Mensch und nahm seine Wohnung unter uns, und wir sahen seine himmlische Herrlichkeit, eine Herrlichkeit wie die eines einzigen Sohnes vom Vater, voll Gnade und Wahrheit. Johannes legt für ihn Zeugnis ab und ruft: „Dieser war es, von dem ich sagte: ‚Der nach mir kommt, ist vor mir schon da, denn er ist eher als ich.‘“

*) Das Wort, griechisch Logos, ist ein der alexandrinischen Philosophie der damaligen Zeit geläufiger Begriff. Er bezeichnet ein Mittelwesen zwischen der Gottheit und der „vielgestaltigen Wirklichkeit der Dinge.“ Dieser Begriff wird hier auf Jesus angewandt, der als der Mensch gewordene Logos erscheint.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=HOU2AAAAMAAJ

1898
The Coptic Version of the New Testament
in the Northern Dialect
otherwise called Memphitic and Bohairic (Vol. 2)
Oxford: Clerendon Press
George W. Horner

and God (indef. art.) was the Word

THE COPTIC VERSION
OF THE
NEW TESTAMENT
IN THE NORTHERN DIALECT

OTHERWISE CALLED
MEMPHITIC AND BOHAIRIC

WITH
INTRODUCTION, CRITICAL APPARATUS, AND LITERAL ENGLISH TRANSLATION

VOLUME II

THE GOSPELS OF S. LUKE AND S. JOHN

EDITED FROM MS. HUNTINGTON 17
IN THE BODLEIAN LIBRARY

Oxford
AT THE CLARENDON PRESS
1898

WITH GOD

GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN.

I. In (the) beginning was the Word, and the Word was (imperf.) with God, and God (indef. art.) was the Word: [2] this (one) [who?] was (imperf.) from beginning with God: [3] all things became through him; and without him did not anything become of (lit. in) that which became: [4] (the) life was that [which] is in him. And (the) life was (the) light of [the] men: [5] and the light gave light in the darkness, and the darkness did not apprehend it (lit. him). [6] There was (lit. became) a man sent from (lit. through) God, his name being John: [7] this (one) came for a witness, that he

[1] ⲡⲓⲥⲁϫⲓ 1°] A $D_{1.2}^c$: ⲡⲥⲁϫⲓ, B &c. ⲡⲓⲥⲁϫⲓ 2°] A &c.: ⲡ., B C_1 D_2*? Δ_1*?. ⲟⲩⲛⲟⲩϯ] ⲉⲟⲩⲛⲟⲩϯ, B: Gr. L ὁ θεός. [2] ⲉⲛⲁϥϫⲏ] ⲛⲁϥ., F_1*. [3] ϩⲱⲃ] pref. ⲟⲩⲟϩ, F_1* Q. ⲙ̀ⲡⲉϩⲗⲓ] cf. Gr. ℵ* D &c. ϧⲉⲛ] om. D_1*: prefix ⲉⲃⲟⲗ, J_1 V Hunt 18. ϧⲉⲛ to end] om. G_2. ⲉⲧⲁϥ.] ⲉⲛⲁϥ., Γ^{rc} N^c S. ϣⲱⲡⲓ 3°] om. A*. For connection of words cf. Gr. C^3 &c., but obs. the division of verses in A, occurring in verse 4. [4] ⲡⲉ] cf. Gr. ABCL &c. ⲡⲉⲧ] ACEHJS* Hunt 18: ⲡⲉ ⲉⲧ, D_1 &c.: ⲡⲉ ⲉⲧ, B. ⲟⲩⲟϩ ⲡⲱⲛϧ] ⲟⲩⲟϩ ⲛⲉⲡⲱⲛϧ, O. ⲡⲉ 2°] ⲡⲉ, B^c O. ⲛ̀ⲛⲓⲣⲱⲙⲓ] om. ⲛⲓ, M^r: Gr. B* om. τῶν ἀνθρ. ⲡⲉ] om. B. [5] ⲟⲩⲟϩ 1°] om. F_1*G_2. ⲡⲓⲭⲁⲕⲓ 1°] ⲡⲭⲁⲕⲓ, M^r. ⲟⲩⲟϩ ⲙ̀ⲡⲉⲡⲓⲭⲁⲕⲓ] om. B homeot.; ⲭ over erased letter, A^c. ⲧⲁϩⲟϥ] A B C D_1* E_1 F H J P Q M^r Hunt 18: ϣⲧⲁϩⲟϥ could apprehend, Γ^r $D_{1.2}^c$ Δ_1 E_2 G_2 K N O S. P has gloss ϣ تسمى شاى القدرة خ 'it (i.e. ϣ kh) is called the sign of potentiality.' [6] ⲁϥϣⲱⲡⲓ] ϥ over erasure, A^c. ⲉ (om. H) ⲁⲩⲟⲩⲟⲣⲡϥ] -ⲱⲣⲡϥ, A F_1^c: ⲉⲟⲩⲟⲣⲡϥ, B. ⲫϯ] Gr. D* κυριου. ⲡⲉ] om. B*.

ABCΓ^r D_1 Δ_1 EFG_2 H K M^r N O I S V Hunt 18 1–12

~1900
MSS Hebr. 8° 751
Jerusalem, Israel: The National Library of Israel
Ed. Zeev Poznansky (זאב פוזננסקי)

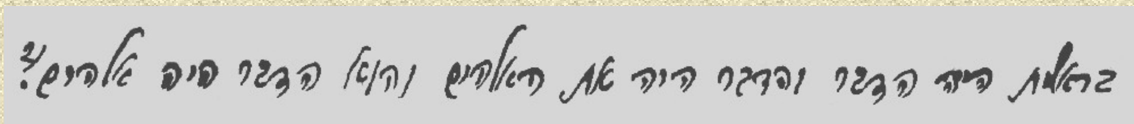
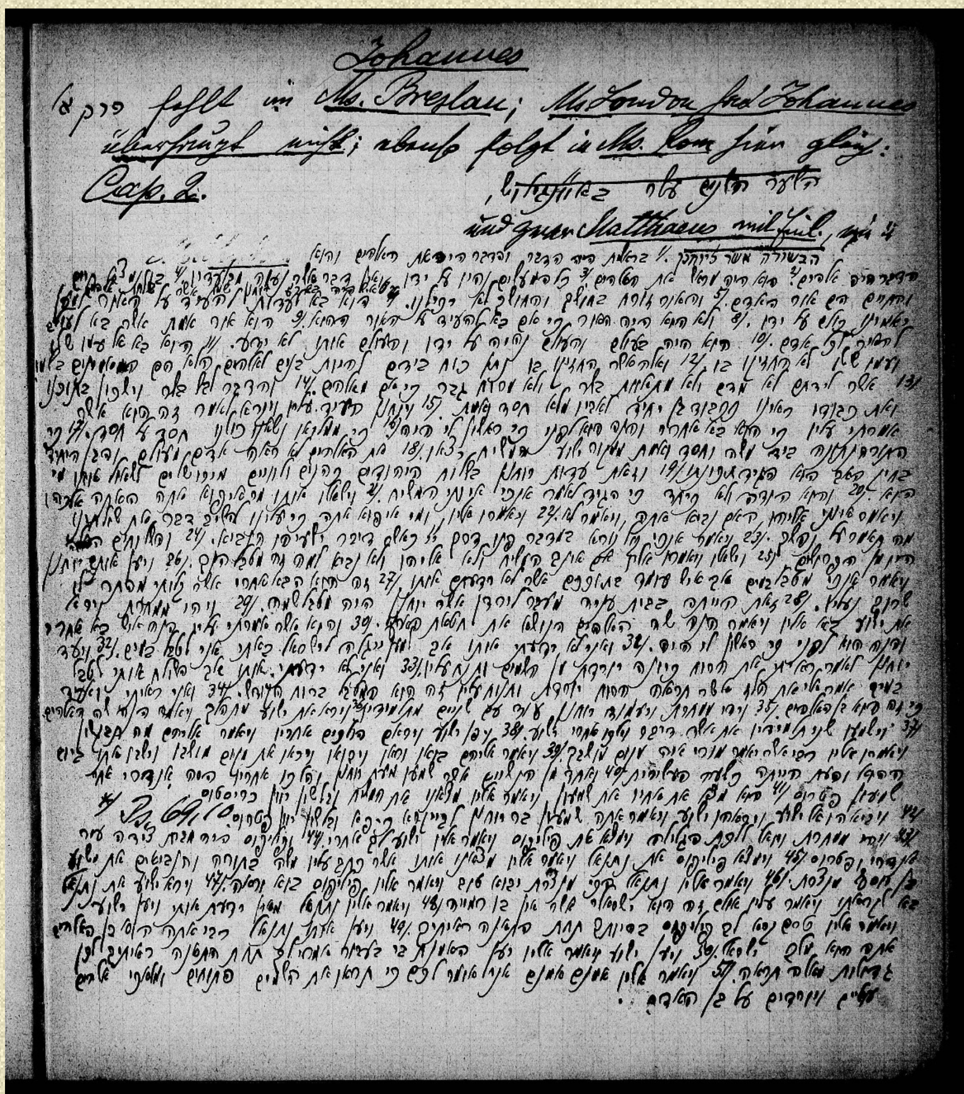
and this Word was a god

בראשית היה הדבר והדבר היה את האלהים והאו הדבר היה אלהים





https://www.nli.org.il/en/manuscripts/NNL_ALEPH000041287/NLI (p. 264)

1901

The Testament of Jesus

(a harmony of the 4 Gospels with many quotations of the OT)

Watford: C. W. Hillyear

Edward Vaughan Kenealy

and the Word was a God, and the Word was the sacred Spirit of God

THE

TESTAMENT

OF

JESUS.

BY

KENEALY

THE TWELFTH MESSENGER OF GOD.

Neither by offerings, nor sacrifice, nor incense, nor gifts,
Nor libations poured upon the altar :
By love alone, and a life made beautiful by truth,
Is God in heaven worshipped.
For he is a pure spirit,
And delighteth not in things of earth.
The works of mercy, love, and charity,
The diffusion among men of that which is divine,
The exercise of justice and humanity to all creatures,
These are the offerings dear to God.

FO-HI.

WATFORD :
C. W. HILLYEAR, 223 ST. ALBAN'S ROAD.
1901.

CHAPTER II.

And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken to my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him. 12 And the multitudes asked him, saying, What shall we do then ? He answered and said unto them, He that hath two coats, let him give to him that hath none ; and he that hath food, let him do likewise. 13 Then came publicans also to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do ? And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you. 14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, What shall we do ? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither trouble any man wrongfully ; and be content with your pay. 15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men dialogued in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ ; the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou ? 16 John answered them, saying, In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was a God, and the Word was the sacred Spirit of God. This same was in the beginning with God. 17 All things were made by it ; and without it was not any thing made that is. In it was life ; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness ; and the darkness comprehendeth it not. 18 This also is the sacred Spirit, of whom it hath been written by the priest of old,

The Lord possessed me in the beginning of his way,— before his works of ancient time.
I was set up for everlasting,— from the beginning, before the earth was.
When there were no seas, I was brought forth ;
When there were no fountains of waters.
Before the mountains were founded,—before the hills was I brought forth.
While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the clouds,
Nor the highest parts of the dust of the world.
When he prepared the heavens, I was there :
When he described a circle on the face of the deeps :
When he established the clouds above :—when he strengthened the fountains of the waters :
When he gave to the sea his decree,—that the waters should not pass his commandment ;
When he fixed the foundations of the earth :

https://archive.org/details/testamentofjesus00kenerich

45

1901

"St John's Gospel and the Logos"

Zeitschrift für die neuetestamentliche Wissenschaft (Vol. 2, p. 13-25)

Giessen: J. Ricker'sche Verlagsbuchhandlung (Alfred Töpelmann)

Antonius Nicholas Jannaris

Now the utterance was made unto God, and was a god.

Zeitschrift

für die

neutestamentliche Wissenschaft

und die Kunde des Urchristentums

herausgegeben von

Dr. ERWIN PREUSCHEN

Zweiter Jahrgang

1901

GIESSEN

J. Ricker'sche Verlagsbuchhandlung

(Alfred Töpelmann)

1901.

[1] Ἐν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ λόγοϲ. καὶ ὁ λόγοϲ ἦν πρὸϲ τὸν θεὸν καὶ θεὸϲ ἦν. ὁ λόγοϲ [2] οὗτοϲ* ἦν ἐν ἀρχῇ πρὸϲ τὸν θεόν. [3] πάντα δι' αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο, καὶ χωρὶϲ αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο οὐδὲ ἕν. ὃ γέγονεν [4] ἐν αὐτῷ ζωὴ ἦν, καὶ ἡ ζωὴ ἦν τὸ φῶϲ τῶν ἀνθρώπων. [5] καὶ τὸ φῶϲ ἐν τῇ ϲκοτίᾳ φαίνει καὶ ἡ ϲκοτία αὐτὸ οὐ κατέλαβεν.

[6] Ἐγένετο ἄνθρωποϲ ἀπεϲταλμένοϲ παρὰ θεοῦ· ὄνομα αὐτῷ Ἰωάννηϲ. [7] οὗτοϲ ἦλθεν εἰϲ μαρτυρίαν (ἵνα μαρτυρήϲῃ περὶ τοῦ Φωτόϲ), ἵνα πάντεϲ πιϲτεύϲωϲιν δι' αὐτοῦ. [8] οὐκ ἦν ἐκεῖνοϲ τὸ Φῶϲ, ἀλλ' ἵνα μαρτυρήϲῃ περὶ τοῦ φωτόϲ [9] ἦν. τὸ Φῶϲ τὸ ἀληθινόν, ὃ φωτίζει πάντα ἄνθρωπον ἐρχόμενον εἰϲ τὸν κόϲμον, [10] ἐν τῷ κόϲμῳ ἦν, καὶ ὁ κόϲμοϲ δι' αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο, καὶ ὁ κόϲμοϲ αὐτὸν οὐκ ἔγνω. [11] εἰϲ τὰ ἴδια ἦλθε καὶ οἱ ἴδιοι αὐτὸν οὐ παρέλαβον. [12] ὅϲοι δὲ ἔλαβον αὐτὸν ἔδωκεν αὐτοῖϲ ἐξουϲίαν τέκνα θεοῦ γενέϲθαι τοῖϲ πιϲτεύουϲιν εἰϲ τὸ ὄνομα αὐτοῦ· [13] οἳ οὐκ ἐξ αἱμάτων οὐδὲ ἐκ θελήματοϲ ϲαρκὸϲ οὐδὲ ἐκ θελήματοϲ ἀνδρὸϲ ἀλλ' ἐκ θεοῦ ἐγεννήθηϲαν. [14] καὶ ὁ λόγοϲ ϲὰρξ ἐγένετο καὶ ἐϲκήνωϲεν ἐν ἡμῖν καὶ ἐθεαϲάμεθα τὴν δόξαν αὐτοῦ.

[1] "In the beginning was the utterance. Now the utterance was made unto God, and was a god. This [2] utterance was in the beginning made unto God. [3] All things came into being through it and without it not a thing came into being. That which is come into being, [4] therein was life and the life was the light of mankind. [5] And the light is shining in the darkness and the darkness hath not overtaken it.

[6] There appeared a man sent from God: his name was John. [7] The same came for declaration (to declare things concerning the Light), so that all may become believers through him. [8] He was not the Light, but was (came) to declare things concerning the Light. [9] The true Light that illuminateth every man coming into the world [10] was in the world, and the world came into being through him, and yet the world recognised him not. [11] He came into his own home and his own people received him not. [12] But as many as received him, to them gave he authority to become God's children for those which believe in his name; [13] which were born not through bloodshed nor through the will of the flesh nor through the will of man, but from God. [14] And the mandate became flesh and lodged in us, and so we beheld his (the Light's) glory."

* This is one of the numerous instances of mispunctuation and consequent misinterpretation in the New Testament, especially in St John.

 Another instance of the editorial misreadings found in St John.

p. 24, 25

https://zenodo.org/record/2119469#.XNBSRripUnh

46

1905

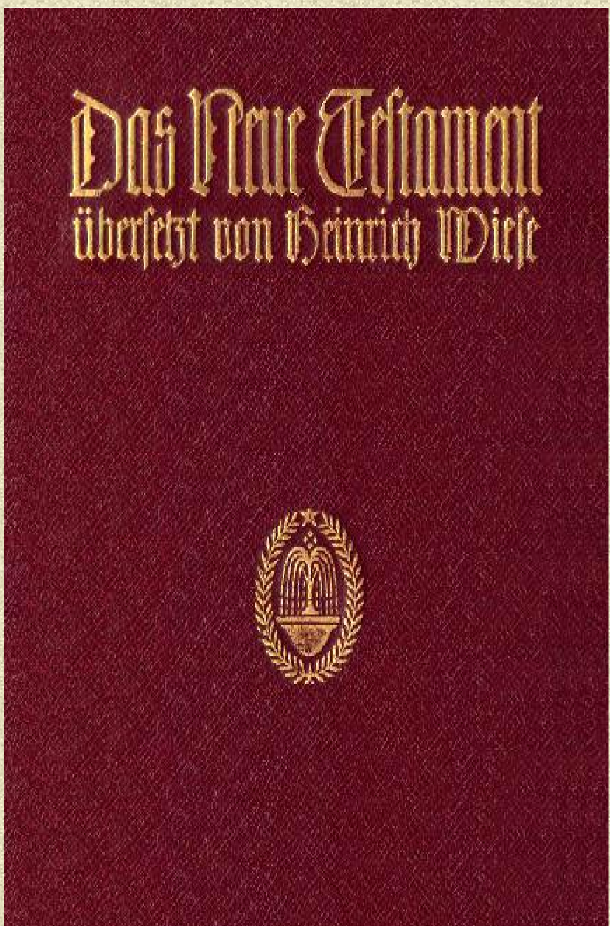
Das Neue Testament unsers Herrn und Heilandes Jesus Christus, übersetzt und mit Anmerkungen begleitet

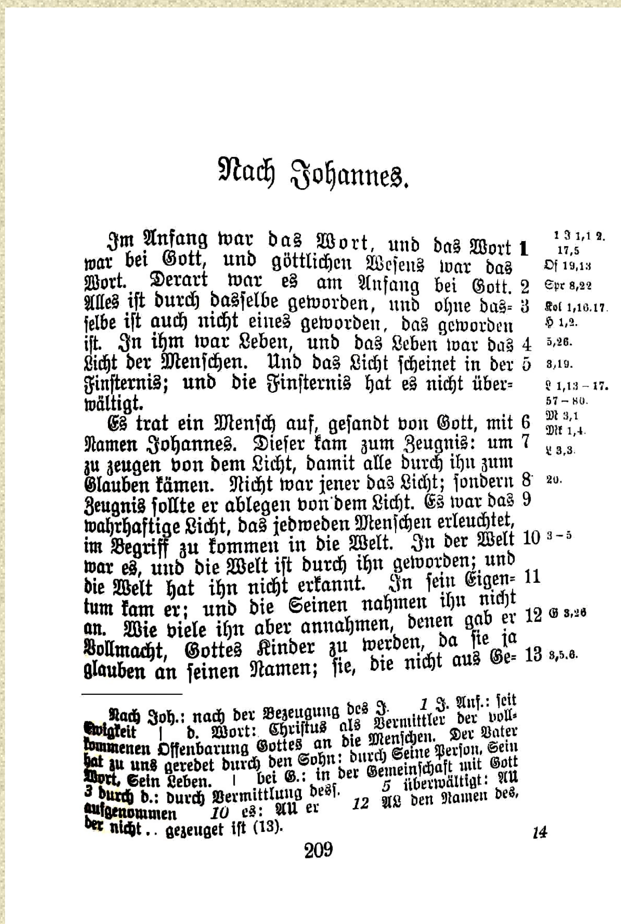
Berlin: Martin Warneck

Heinrich Wiese

and divine being was the Word

und göttlichen Wesens war das Wort





Nach Johannes.

1 Im Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war bei Gott, und göttlichen Wesens war das Wort. 2 Derart war es am Anfang bei Gott. 3 Alles ist durch dasselbe geworden, und ohne dasselbe ist auch nicht eines geworden, das geworden ist. 4 In ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen. 5 Und das Licht scheinet in der Finsternis; und die Finsternis hat es nicht überwältigt.

6 Es trat ein Mensch auf, gesandt von Gott, mit Namen Johannes. 7 Dieser kam zum Zeugnis: um zu zeugen von dem Licht, damit alle durch ihn zum Glauben kämen. 8 Nicht war jener das Licht; sondern Zeugnis sollte er ablegen von dem Licht. 9 Es war das wahrhaftige Licht, das jedweden Menschen erleuchtet, 10 im Begriff zu kommen in die Welt. In der Welt war es, und die Welt ist durch ihn geworden; und die Welt hat ihn nicht erkannt. 11 In sein Eigentum kam er; und die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht an. 12 Wie viele ihn aber annahmen, denen gab er Vollmacht, Gottes Kinder zu werden, da sie ja glauben an seinen Namen; 13 sie, die nicht aus Ge-

1 J 1,1 2. 17,5 · Of 19,13 · Spr 8,22 · Kol 1,16.17. H 1,2. · 5,26. · 3,19. · L 1,13–17. 57–80. · M 3,1 Mk 1,4. · L 3,3. · 20. · 3–5 · G 3,26 · 3,5.6.

Nach Joh.: nach der Bezeugung des J. 1 J. Anf.: seit Ewigkeit | d. Wort: Christus als Vermittler der vollkommenen Offenbarung Gottes an die Menschen. Der Vater hat zu uns geredet durch den Sohn: durch Seine Person, Sein Wort, Sein Leben. | bei G.: in der Gemeinschaft mit Gott 3 durch d.: durch Vermittlung dess. 5 überwältigt: AU aufgenommen 10 es: AU er 12 AL den Namen des, der nicht .. gezeuget ist (13).

14

209

47

1908

The Messages of Jesus according to the Gospel of John; the discourses of Jesus in the Fourth Gospel, Arranged, Analyzed and Freely Rendered in Paraphrase (Vol. 10)

Frank K. Sanders – Charles F. Kent (Ed.)

New York: Charles Scribner's Sons

James Stevenson Riggs

He who has been to us the Revealer of God has existed from all eternity in communion with God, and is himself essentially divine.

The Messages of the Bible

THE MESSAGES OF JESUS ACCORDING TO THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

THE DISCOURSES OF JESUS IN THE FOURTH GOSPEL, ARRANGED, ANALYZED AND FREELY RENDERED IN PARAPHRASE

BY

JAMES STEVENSON RIGGS, D.D.
Professor of Biblical Criticism in Auburn Theological Seminary

NEW YORK
CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS 1908 may be their relation to Jesus or to John, are certainly not speculative constructions in support of a Logos theorem.

Prologue substance of the history

(2) That the three leading ideas of the prologue are the substance respectively of the three facts developed simultaneously in the history. These three facts are: The Messiahship of Jesus, the blind and pitiful rejection of him by the Jews, and the response made to him in faith by those whose spiritual desires or whose sense of need caused them to listen to his gracious message. As the story unfolds we come to see even more clearly how fully Jesus has interpreted to us the holiness and love of God, and by this very interpretation shown himself to be the Messiah. We also can watch the deepening antagonism of the capital, and note as well the answer to his call of those who "knew his voice."

II

THE PROLOGUE (1:1–18)

Relation of the Word to God and creation (1–4)

He who has been to us the Revealer of God has existed from all eternity in communion with God, and is himself essentially divine. He is so identified with God in reference to creation that it is possible to say that all things without exception came into being through his cooperation.

Creation itself has the stamp of the Messiah upon it.

1908

Die Schriften des Neuen Testaments
neu übersetzt und für die Gegenwart erklärt (Vol. 2)
red. Johannes Weiß, Göttingen: Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht translator the Gospel of John in this work:
Wilhelm Heitmüller

and god (of a kind) was the Logos
und Gott (von Art) war der Logos

718 Johannes 1,1–5: Der Logos in seinem Verhältnis zu Gott, Welt, Menschen.

sophie in Kreisen, von denen wir durch die sogenannten „hermetischen" Schriften Kunde haben, eine Logos-Anschauung, die weit mehr religiösen Charakter hatte als die philonische. Auch hier ist der Logos Mittler der Schöpfung, aber vor allem der Offenbarung und der Wiedergeburt.

So war man damals in weiten Kreisen einer Logos-Lehre sehr zugänglich. Auch da wo Begriff und Spekulation selbst fehlten, waren die Grundlagen dazu vorhanden und die Voraussetzung für das Verständnis derartiger Lehren gegeben. Das gilt vor allem von den Kreisen des hellenistischen Judentums, denen gerade unser Evangelium nahe steht.

Der Evangelist wußte sehr wohl, was er tat, wenn er an diese Logos-Vorstellung anknüpfte. Er konnte nicht nur auf Verständnis, sondern auch auf Interesse hoffen, wenn er mit dem Logos begann. Es war ein hochbedeutsamer Schritt, den er — vielleicht schon Paulus (1.Kor.8,6; Kol.1,15 f.) vor ihm — tat, als er diese halb abstrakte, halb persönliche Vorstellung aufgriff und nun den Gedanken bildete: die geheimnisvolle Weltkraft, dieser Bote und Vermittler Gottes, den Juden und Griechen ahnten und glaubten, über dessen Wesen sie grübelten, dem sie allerlei Namen beilegten, unter ihnen den umfassendsten und vielseitigsten „Logos" — dieser hat sich nur uns Christen ganz klar und überzeugend erschlossen, wir kennen ihn aus beseligender Erfahrung: es ist unser Herr Jesus Christus.

1. Der Logos in seinem Verhältnis zu Gott, Welt, Menschen 1,1–5.

[1]Im Anfang war der Logos,
Und der Logos war bei Gott,
Und Gott (von Art) war der Logos.

[2]Der war im Anfang bei Gott.
[3]Alles ward durch ihn,
Und ohne ihn ward nichts [was geworden ist].

[4]In ihm war Leben,
Und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen;
[5]Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis,
Und — die Finsternis hat es nicht ergriffen.

a) Der Logos und Gott, V.1. Unvergleichlich eindrucksvoll ist der Eingang des Evangeliums: ein Akkord von drei Sätzen, kurz und wuchtig, schlicht und majestätisch, durchsichtig und doch voll Rätsel. Als eine Quelle geheimnisvoller Kräfte erscheinen diese Worte dem schlichten Leser, und in den Kreisen des Aberglaubens und der Magie, die dem Glauben sich angliedern, ist dieser Dreiklang je und je als stärkstes Zauberwort verwertet. „Im Anfang war der Logos". „Im Anfang": unwillkürlich dachten die Leser an den Anfang des heiligen Offenbarungs-Buches des A. T.'s, und ihre Seele mußte sich spannen: welche Offenbarung werden wir hören? Gebildetere unter den griechischen Lesern mußten sich erinnern an den Anfang eines vielgerühmten Buches, das auf dem Boden Klein-Asiens entstanden war, des Buches Heraklits des Dunklen; das begann auch mit dem Hinweis, daß der Logos ewig war, daß alles nach seinen Gesetzen geschehe — und die Menschen doch kein Verständnis für ihn hätten —: welche philosophischen Erkenntnisse wird dies Buch bringen? Ehe die Berge und die Erde und die Welt geschaffen worden, ehe der große Prozeß des Werdens begann, von dem wir nachher hören, war der Logos. Er war: von ihm gilt nicht, was von allem unter der Sonne gilt — außer Gott, das Werden und Geworden-sein. Er ist allem Gewordenen schlechthin überlegen. Er ist ewig: allem Wechsel, allem Unsicheren, allem Zufälligen enthoben. Aber noch mehr. Nur von einem noch gilt, daß er von Anfang war, von — Gott. Mit ihm lebte der Logos in Gemeinschaft, wie wir nachher V.18 hören, in engster, innigster Vertrautheit. Gemeinschaft mit Gott kann natürlich nur von einem persönlichen Wesen ausgesagt werden. Also ist dieser Logos nicht bloß als Kraft oder Eigenschaft Gottes zu be-https://archive.org/details/dieschriftendesn0002unse

49

1908

Hand-Commentar zum Neuen Testament.

Vierter Band (Erste Abteilung): Evangelium des Johannes

Tübingen: J. C. B. Möhr

Heinrich Julius Holtzmann

and a divine being was the Logos und göttlichen Wesens war der Logos

HAND-COMMENTAR

ZUM

NEUEN TESTAMENT

BEARBEITET VON

PRIVATDOZENT LIC. W. BAUER IN MARBURG,
PROFESSOR D. H. J. HOLTZMANN IN BADEN-BADEN, † GEH. KIRCHENRAT PROFESSOR D. R. A. LIPSIUS IN JENA, PROFESSOR D. P. W. SCHMIEDEL IN ZÜRICH,
PROFESSOR D. H. von SODEN IN BERLIN,
PRIVATDOZENT LIC. DR. HANS WINDISCH IN LEIPZIG.

Vierter Band.

Erste Abteilung.

Evangelium des Johannes.

Bearbeitet von H. J. Holtzmann.

Dritte, neubearbeitete Auflage, besorgt von W. Bauer.

Tübingen.
Verlag von J. C. B. Mohr (Paul Siebeck).
1908.

und göttlichen Wesens war der Logos. [2] Dieser war im Anfang zu Gott hin. [3] Alles ist durch ihn geworden, und ohne ihn ist auch nicht Evglien 231; nach Kr I 398 dagegen die Zeitform der geschichtlichen Erzählung) der Logos. Da übrigens an betonter Stelle nicht ὁ λόγος, sondern ἐν ἀρχῇ steht (wie später auch πρὸς τὸν θεόν und θεός), so liegt die zu machende Mitteilung nicht etwa darin, dass es einen Logos gibt, sondern sie erfolgt „an solche, die ihn voraussetzen, die aber hören sollen, was er ist" (Hrk, ZThK II 217). Solche Verfolgung des zeitlich Geschehenen bis zurück in seine vorweltlichen Ursprünge dient übrigens nur als Vorbereitung zu dem sofort zu entrollenden Gemälde von dem Wirken des λόγος ἔνσαρκος auf einem bestimmten Punkte des Schauplatzes irdischer Geschichte. Dazu eben bildet das weiter ausgreifende Verhältnis des λόγος ἄσαρκος zu Welt und Menschheit überhaupt nur ein wesentlich analog verlaufendes Vorspiel. Eine erste Frage betrifft hier die Beziehung des Logos zu demjenigen Subjekte, welchem sonst Vorweltlichkeit, bzw. Ewigkeit, allein zuzukommen schien, zu Gott. Diese Beziehung ist nun auf keinen Fall als ein feindlich abgekehrtes, ja nicht einmal als ein gleichgültig ruhendes Verhältnis zu fassen, sondern der Logos war zu Gott hin. Das die Bezogenheit des Logos auf Gott unter den Gesichtspunkt eines tätigen und lebendigen Gemeinschaftsverkehrs stellende πρός (wie I Joh 1 2, vgl. Mc 9 19 πρὸς ὑμᾶς) geht über das, nur räumliches Beisammensein aussagende, sonst parallele παρὰ τῷ πατρί 8 38 17 5 (J Sir 1 1 παρὰ κυρίου καὶ μετ' αὐτοῦ, Prv 8 27 συνπαρήμην αὐτῷ 8 30 ἤμην παρ' αὐτῷ, Sap 9 4 πάρεδρος) hinaus (so Ws geg. Calm) und ist Voraussetzung für παρὰ τοῦ θεοῦ 6 46. Es will also nicht den Logos als „nur eine Relation in der Gottheit selbst" charakterisieren (Kr I 388 393 f. 395 432). Von der Aussage über die intime Beziehung des Logos zu Gott geht der dritte der in ruhigem Fortschritt sich aneinander reihenden Sätze zu dem wichtigsten und abschliessenden Moment über, nämlich zu dem ursprünglichen Wesen des Logos, und weil darauf der Ton liegt, steht θεός, wiewohl Prädikat, nachdrücklich, wie 4 24, voran: und gerade göttlichen Wesens selbst war der Logos. Wäre θεός artikuliert, so würde teils Versuchung bestehen, es als Subjekt zu fassen, teils würde, bei prädikativer Fassung, das schlechthinige Zusammenfallen beider Begriffe, also das Gegenteil von dem ausgesagt sein, was der Verf. aussprechen wollte. So aber beschränkt sich dieser, jede Ausführung, die über notwendig Gebotenes hinausginge, vermeidend, auf wenige, deutlich in Sicht tretende Striche, um nach diesen drei feierlichen Akkorden das Spiel der Tonverschlingungen beginnen zu lassen mit Wiederaufnahme des mittleren Gedankens, da er ja vom Logos nicht sowohl nach oben zu Gott empor, als vielmehr zur Welt herabführen will, mithin durch den dritten Satz, auf dessen Inhalt übrigens οὗτος zurückgreift, im natürlichen Fortschritt seiner Gedanken eigentlich gehemmt war. Aus dem ersten Satz aber findet ἐν ἀρχῇ Aufnahme, und wird auf solche Weise der ganze Inhalt von 1 zusammengedrängt in 2 (solchergestalt, als selbst Gottwesen, war der Logos im Anfang zu Gott hin), damit zugleich aber ein Uebergang für die weitere Entwickelung gewonnen. Diese macht uns 3 sofort mit dem wirksamsten Grund der ganzen Unterscheidung von Gott und Logos bekannt, da nur vermöge einer solchen das Dasein sämtlicher endlichen, geschaffenen Wesen (πάντα, dagegen τὰ πάντα in den Sachparallelen I Kor 8 6 Kol 1 16 das Universum) erklärbar erscheint: der schlechthin überweltliche Gott wirkt durch die Mittelursache des Logos, der damit als Offenbarungsorgan und Schöpfungsprinzip gekennzeichnet ist. Entsprechend dem hebr. Parallelismus anti-https://archive.org/details/handcommentarzum0004unse_pt01

50

1908

Jesus im Urteil der Jahrhunderte.
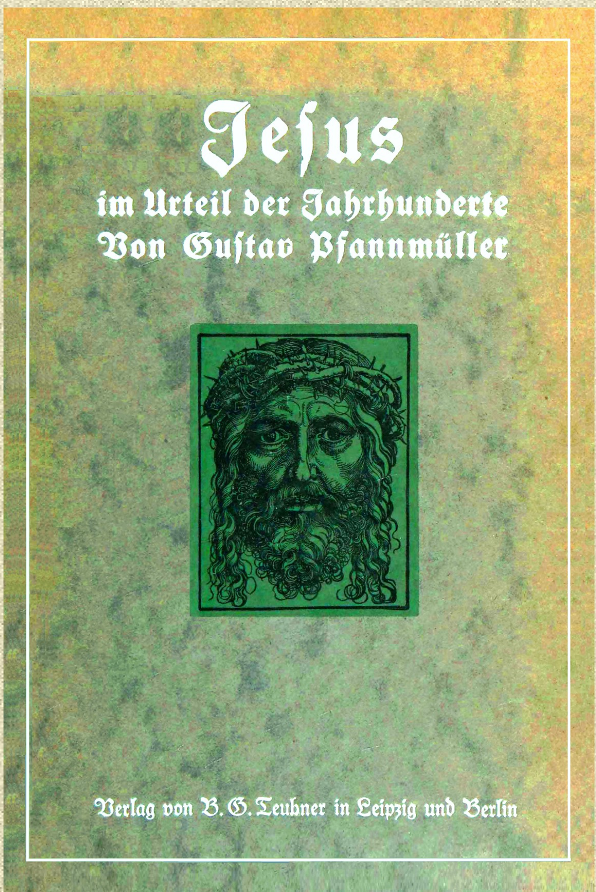
Die bedeutendsten Auffassungen Jesu in Theologie, Philosophie, Literatur und Kunst bis zur Gegenwart

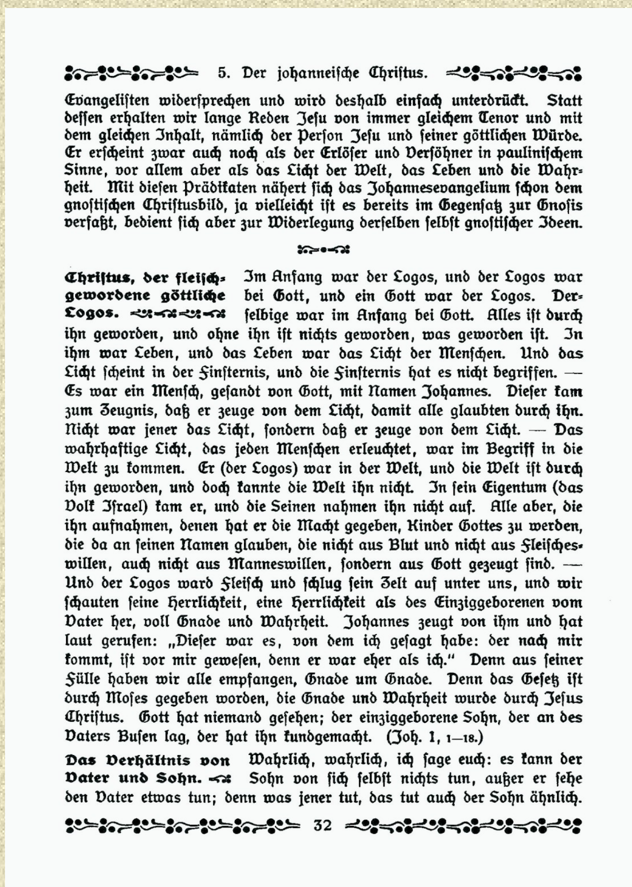
Leipzig-Berlin: B. G. Teubner

Gustav Pfannmüller

and a god was the Logos

und ein Gott war der Logos





Evangelisten widersprechen und wird deshalb einfach unterdrückt. Statt dessen erhalten wir lange Reden Jesu von immer gleichem Tenor und mit dem gleichen Inhalt, nämlich der Person Jesu und seiner göttlichen Würde. Er erscheint zwar auch noch als der Erlöser und Versöhner in paulinischem Sinne, vor allem aber als das Licht der Welt, das Leben und die Wahrheit. Mit diesen Prädikaten nähert sich das Johannesevangelium schon dem gnostischen Christusbild, ja vielleicht ist es bereits im Gegensatz zur Gnosis verfaßt, bedient sich aber zur Widerlegung derselben selbst gnostischer Ideen.

Christus, der fleischgewordene göttliche Logos. Im Anfang war der Logos, und der Logos war bei Gott, und ein Gott war der Logos. Derselbige war im Anfang bei Gott. Alles ist durch ihn geworden, und ohne ihn ist nichts geworden, was geworden ist. In ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen. Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis, und die Finsternis hat es nicht begriffen. — Es war ein Mensch, gesandt von Gott, mit Namen Johannes. Dieser kam zum Zeugnis, daß er zeuge von dem Licht, damit alle glaubten durch ihn. Nicht war jener das Licht, sondern daß er zeuge von dem Licht. — Das wahrhaftige Licht, das jeden Menschen erleuchtet, war im Begriff in die Welt zu kommen. Er (der Logos) war in der Welt, und die Welt ist durch ihn geworden, und doch kannte die Welt ihn nicht. In sein Eigentum (das Volk Israel) kam er, und die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf. Alle aber, die ihn aufnahmen, denen hat er die Macht gegeben, Kinder Gottes zu werden, die da an seinen Namen glauben, die nicht aus Blut und nicht aus Fleischeswillen, auch nicht aus Manneswillen, sondern aus Gott gezeugt sind. — Und der Logos ward Fleisch und schlug sein Zelt auf unter uns, und wir schauten seine Herrlichkeit, eine Herrlichkeit als des Einziggeborenen vom Vater her, voll Gnade und Wahrheit. Johannes zeugt von ihm und hat laut gerufen: „Dieser war es, von dem ich gesagt habe: der nach mir kommt, ist vor mir gewesen, denn er war eher als ich." Denn aus seiner Fülle haben wir alle empfangen, Gnade um Gnade. Denn das Gesetz ist durch Moses gegeben worden, die Gnade und Wahrheit wurde durch Jesus Christus. Gott hat niemand gesehen; der einziggeborene Sohn, der an des Vaters Busen lag, der hat ihn kundgemacht. (Joh. 1, 1—18.)

Das Verhältnis von Vater und Sohn. Wahrlich, wahrlich, ich sage euch: es kann der Sohn von sich selbst nichts tun, außer er sehe den Vater etwas tun; denn was jener tut, das tut auch der Sohn ähnlich.

https://archive.org/details/jesusimurteilder0000pfan

51

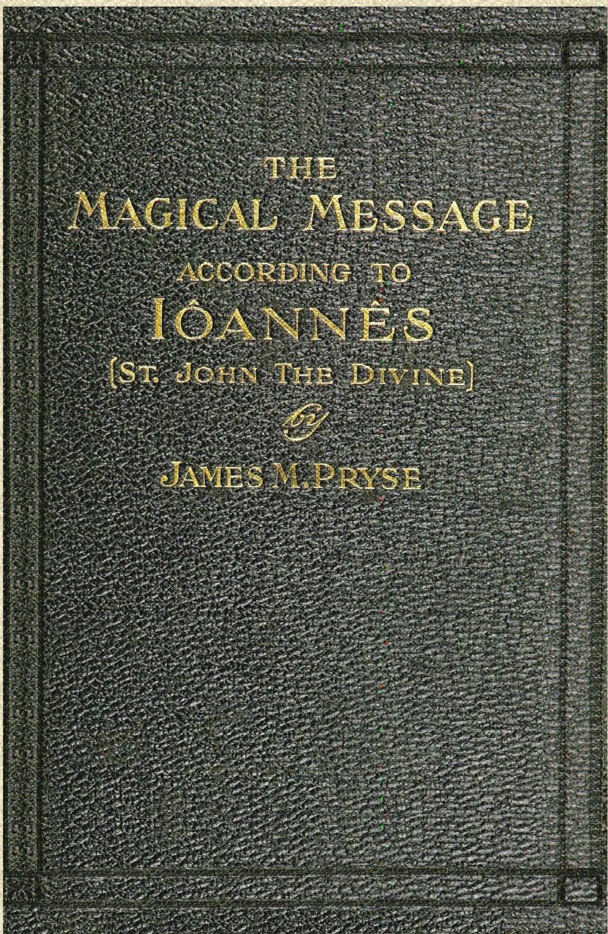
1909

The Magical Message according to Iôannês (To kata Iōannon Euangelion); commonly called the Gospel according to [St.] John

New York: The Theosophical Publishing Company of New York

James M. Pryse

and the Thought was a God



The God,[1] and the Thought was a God.[2] This [God] it was who in a First-principle was in relation to The God. All [things][3] came into Thought, which, impressed upon the primal substance (archê), is alike the pattern and the formative force of the universe. It is, therefore, the Archetypal World, containing the Ideas or Souls of all things. The Logos and the Absolute Principle (archê) are the two aspects of the One.

[1] Gr. ho theos, probably from the older form Zeus — the Father of the Gods and of men; but still not Absolute Deity, the Unmanifested, the incognizable "Only One." "The God" is a collective term for all in the purely spiritual worlds.

[2] Gr. theos, without the definite article, in contrast with ho theos, The God. The distinction is clearly indicated also in the preceding phrase (which is emphatically repeated), "in relation to The God," pros ton theon, where the preposition pros — though commonly translated "with," out of deference to theological notions and in defiance of Greek — has somewhat of an adversative force; in fact, it would be good Greek for "in spite of The God," while the rendering "with God" is untenable. In Rom. xv. 17 and Heb. ii. 17 the phrase is used, ta pros ton theon, "the [things] relating to The God." The conception in the text is unmistakably identical with that of Philo Judæus, who speaks of the Logos as "the Second God" (De Somn. i. 655) and makes him the synthesis of all the spiritual powers acting upon the kosmos. Hermês Trismegistos also (quoted approvingly by Lactantius, Divin. Instit. iv. 6) calls the Logos "the Second God"; he moreover makes the same distinction between theos and ho theos, calling the Logos "a God" to distinguish him from The God. Justin Martyr held the same view, using the term "Second God" (deuteros theos), and so did Origen.

[3] Gr. panta, all; here used absolutely, the whole kosmos.

https://archive.org/details/cu31924032341327

52

1910

Das Neue Testament verdeutscht

Stuttgart: Max Kielmann

Eduard Rudolf Böhmer

it was tightly bound up with God, yes, itself of divine being es war fest mit Gott verbunden, ja selbst göttlichen Wesens

4. Das Evangelium nach Johannes.

Einleitung.

Das Evangelium des Johannes hat der Auslegung von jeher große Schwierigkeiten bereitet. Es ist keine eigentliche Erzählung des Lebens des Herrn Jesus, sondern mehr eine Betrachtung darüber. Einzelne Ereignisse werden angeführt und daran in Form von Reden Betrachtungen angeknüpft, welche die Herrlichkeit Gottes in Christus bezeugen. Die Reden wie das Leben des Herrn gipfeln im Siege über Welt und Tod.

Als Verfasser galt lange Zeit der Apostel Johannes. In den letzten hundert Jahren haben viele Gelehrte das für unmöglich erklärt. Es kann sein, daß nur der Grundstock des Evangeliums vom Apostel Johannes stammt. Diese Urschrift ist dann später überarbeitet worden.

Eingang: Christus ist das allein wahre Wort.) 1, 1—18.

Im Uranfange aller Dinge war das Wort, es war fest mit Gott verbunden, ja selbst göttlichen Wesens. Uranfänglich war es bei Gott. Alles ist durch sein Wirken geschaffen. Es gibt nichts, das ihm nicht seinen Bestand verdankte. In ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen. Das Licht leuchtet in der Finsternis, und die Finsternis konnte das Licht nicht aufhalten.

Gott sandte einen Mann mit Namen Johannes. Der sollte vom Lichte Zeugnis ablegen, auf daß alle durch ihn zum Glauben kämen. Er war nicht selbst das Licht, sondern sollte nur Zeugnis dafür ablegen.

Das wahrhaftige Licht, das jeden Menschen erleuchtet, wollte in die Welt kommen. Er war auch in der Welt. Die Welt verdankt ihm seinen Bestand, aber sie erkannte ihn nicht. Er kam in sein Eigentum, aber die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf. Allen aber, welche ihn aufnahmen, denen gab er Vollmacht, Gottes Kinder zu sein, da sie an seinen Namen glauben. Solche) sind nicht von *) Das Wort (griechisch: Logos) war in den ersten Jahrhunderten nach Christus eine besondere Bezeichnung für Offenbarung und Wesen Gottes.

) Andere Lesart: Da sie an den Namen des glauben, der nicht vom Willen des Fleisches . . ., sondern aus Gott geboren wurde.

53

1911

The Coptic Version of the New Testament in the Southern Dialect otherwise called Sahidic and Thebaic (Vol. 3)

Oxford: Clerendon Press

George W. Horner

and [a] God was the word

THE

COPTIC VERSION

OF THE

NEW TESTAMENT

IN THE SOUTHERN DIALECT

OTHERWISE CALLED

SAHIDIC AND THEBAIC

WITH

CRITICAL APPARATUS LITERAL ENGLISH TRANSLATION REGISTER OF FRAGMENTS AND ESTIMATE OF THE VERSION

by G.W. Horner

VOLUME III

THE GOSPEL OF S. JOHN
REGISTER OF FRAGMENTS, ETC.
FACSIMILES

OXFORD
AT THE CLARENDON PRESS
MCMXI

GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

I. In the beginning was being the word, and the word was being with God, and [a] God was the word. [2] This in the beginning was being with (ϩⲁⲧⲛ̄) God. [3] All things became through him, and without him did not anything become: that which became [4] in him is the life, and the life is the light of the men. [5] And the light is enlightening in the darkness, and the darkness apprehended it not. I. [6] There was a man having been sent from God, his name being Iōhannēs. [7] This (one) came for a witness, that he should bear witness ⲡⲉⲛⲧⲁϥϣⲱⲡⲉ that which became] om Bo (G$_2$)   ⲡⲉⲛⲧ. ϩⲣⲁⲓ ⲛ̄ϩⲏⲧϥ̄ that which became in him] thus joined 1^{ep} &c 109 28^1 48^1, A^{vid} C*D G*^{vid}LO*^{vid} al, OL (abefffq^{vid}) Fu, Syr g(2)c Arm^{cd}, Naass^h Perat^h Valent^{ir} Heracl Thdrt^{clem} Clem Or Eus Cyr Hil .. ο γεγονεν. εν αυτω thus C^3 &c, OL (c) Vg^{ed} Bo Syr (gj) Arm Eth, Ign^{int} Dial Did Ephr Chr Epiph Thdrt Thdor Nonn Thphl .. without punctuation ℵBΔ al

---

[4] ϩⲣ. ⲛ̄ϩ. in him] (ϲ?) &c 109 13^1 28^1 48^1 .. by him Arm   ⲡⲉ is 1^o] ϲ &c 109 13^1 28^1 48^1, ℵD, OL (abcefffq), (Syr c) Eth, Valent^{ir} Naass^h Perat^h Hil Aug .. ην AB &c, OL (g) Vg Bo Syr (gjh) Arm, Or Eus Chr Cyr Nonn Thdrt   ⲁⲩⲱ and] 1^{ep} &c 13^1 28^1, Arm .. but Eth   ⲡⲉ is 2^o] ϲ &c 109 28^1 48^1, Syr (c) Eth .. ην ℵ &c, OL (b) Arm   ⲛ̄ⲛ̄ⲣ. of the men] 1^{ep} &c 109 13^1 (48^1) .. om B* .. of men Arm

[5] ⲁⲩⲱ and 1^o] (ϲ) &c 109 13^1 28^1 48^1 .. om Bo (F$_1$*G$_2$) .. but Eth   ⲉϥⲣ̄(ϥ̄ⲣ̄ 108 .. ϥⲉⲣ 48^1). is enlightening] (ϲ) &c 109, ℵAB &c, Arm^{cdd} .. ⲛ̄ⲛⲉϥⲣ̄ was enl. 1^{ep}, Syr (c) Arm   ⲡⲕ. the d.] 1^{ep} &c 109 48^1 .. om ⲡ the 13^1 ⲧⲁϩⲟϥ app. it (masculine)] (ϲ) &c 109 13^1 28^1 48^1, Bo .. αυτο ℵAB &c, Syr (gc) .. αυτον H 13 al 4, OL (e) Thdrt^{clem} .. could not app. it Bo (Γ^{r}D$_1$C$_2$Δ$_1$E$_2$KNOSV) .. findeth it not Eth

[6] ⲁϥϣ. lit. he became] ϲ &c 1^{ep} 41 100 .. pref and Eth   ⲉⲃ. ϩ. from] (ϲ) &c 41, παρα ℵAB &c, a OL Syr (gc) Arm   ⲡⲛⲟⲩⲧⲉ God] ϲ &c 41 .. κυριου D* (d abs.)   ⲉⲡ. ⲡⲉ his-being] 41 &c ..

https://archive.org/details/copticversionofn03hornuoft

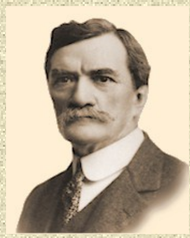
54

1913

The New Testament: A New Translation

New York: Hodder and Stoughton

James Moffatt



Logos was divine

THE NEW TESTAMENT

A NEW TRANSLATION

BY

JAMES MOFFATT

D.D., D.Litt.

YATES PROFESSOR OF NEW TESTAMENT GREEK AND EXEGESIS, MANSFIELD COLLEGE, OXFORD

HODDER AND STOUGHTON

NEW YORK

GEORGE H. DORAN COMPANY

1913

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. JOHN

CHAP. 1

1 The Logos existed in the very beginning, the Logos was with God,
the Logos was divine.
2 He was with God in the very beginning:
3 through him all existence came into being,
no existence came into being apart from him.
4 In him life lay,
and this life was the Light for men:
5 amid the darkness the Light shone,
but the darkness did not master it.

6 A man appeared, sent by God, 7 whose name was John: he came for the purpose of witnessing, to bear testimony to the Light, so that all men might believe by means of 8 him. He was not the Light; it was to bear testimony to the 9 Light that he appeared. The real Light, which enlightens every man, was coming then into the world:

10 he entered the world—
the world which existed through him—
yet the world did not recognize him;
11 he came to what was his own,
yet his own folk did not welcome him.

12 On those who have accepted him, however, he has conferred the right of being children of God, that is, on those who believe in his Name, 13 who owe this birth of theirs to God, not to human blood, nor to any impulse of the flesh or of man. 14 So the Logos became flesh and tarried among us; we have seen his glory—glory such as an only son enjoys from his father—seen it to be full of grace and reality. 15 (John testified to him with the cry, 'This was he of whom I said, my successor has taken precedence of me, for he preceded me.') 16 For we have all been receiving grace 17 after grace from his fulness; while the Law was given through Moses, grace and reality are ours through 18 Jesus Christ. Nobody has ever seen God, but God has been unfolded by the divine One, the only Son,* who lies upon the Father's breast.

19 Now here is John's testimony. When the Jews of Jerusalem despatched priests and Levites to 20 ask him, "Who are you?" he frankly confessed—he did not deny it, he frankly confessed, "I am not 21 the Christ." They asked him, "Then what are you? Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" "No," he an- 22 swered. "Then who are you?" they said; "tell us, so that we can give some answer to those who sent us. What have you to say for 23 yourself?" He said, "I am

* Although θεός ('the divine one') is probably more original than the variant reading υἱός, μονογενής (see ver. 14) requires some such periphrasis in order to bring out its full meaning here.

1913

Jedermanns-Bibel:

Das Neue Testament verdeutscht ubd verdeutlicht für Jedermann

Leipzig: Adolf Klein

Julius Böhmer??

and the Manifested-Mediator possessed a nature like God's und der Offenbarer-Mittler hatte Gottes Art an sich

Jedermanns-Bibel

Das Neue Testament

verdeutscht

und verdeutlicht

für

Jedermann

Leipzig S 3

Verlag von Adolf Klein

1930

Vorwort. Der Logos 1,1—18.

1. Der Logos und die Welt 1,1—10.

1 Im Anfang aller Dinge war der Offenbarer-Mittler, und der Offenbarer-Mittler stand in innigstem Verhältnis zu Gott, und der Offenbarer-Mittler hatte Gottes Art an sich.
2 Er stand also[1]) schon im Anfang aller Dinge im innigsten Verhältnis zu Gott.
3 Das All wurde durch ihn:
ohne ihn wurde überhaupt nichts von dem, was geworden ist.
4 In ihm war das Leben,
und dies Leben war das Licht der Menschen.
5 Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis[2]) und die Finsternis[2]) begriff es nicht.
6 Es war einmal ein Mensch, den hatte Gott gesandt: er hieß Johannes.
7 Der trat auf, Zeugnis zu geben, Zeugnis von dem Licht;[3]) durch ihn sollten alle zu seiner Anerkennung gelangen.
8 Er selber war nicht das Licht,
nein er sollte nur Zeugnis geben von dem Licht.
9 Es war[4]) wirklich an dem, daß das rechte Licht, das jeden Menschen erleuchten muß, unterwegs in die Welt[5]) war.
10 [6]) Er[7]) war in der Welt, seitdem die Welt durch ihn wurde.
Und doch erkannte ihn die Welt nicht.

2. Der Logos und die Seinen 1,11—18.

11 Nun kam er in das Seine, aber die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf.[8])

[1]) (noch einmal gesagt:). [2]) Welt. [3]) vgl. 4. 5. [4]) (noch einmal gesagt, wie 5). [5]) Finsternis. [6]) Anders gesagt: [7]) der Offenbarer-Mittler. [8]) machten ihn sich nicht zu eigen.

56

1913

RAETO-ROMANCE

Das Neue Testament: erste rätoromanische übersetzung von Jakob Bifrun, 1560. Neudruck, mit einem Vorwort, einer Formenlehre und einem Wörterverzeichnis Versehen von Theodor Gartner

Vertreter für den Buchhandel, Max Neimeyer, Halle

Theodor Gartner (German editor)

& dieu era aque uierf

& god was the word

GESELLSCHAFT FÜR ROMANISCHE LITERATUR
BAND 32

DAS NEUE TESTAMENT

ERSTE RÄTOROMANISCHE ÜBERSETZUNG

VON

JAKOB BIFRUN

1560

NEUDRUCK, MIT EINEM VORWORT, EINER FORMENLEHRE UND EINEM WÖRTERVERZEICHNIS VERSEHEN

VON

THEODOR GARTNER

DRESDEN 1913
GEDRUCKT FÜR DIE GESELLSCHAFT FÜR ROMANISCHE LITERATUR

VERTRETER FÜR DEN BUCHHANDEL:
MAX NIEMEYER, HALLE a. S.

L'EVANGELI
ſeguond Ioannem.

Cap. I.

IL'g principi era l'g uierf, & l'g uierf era tiers Dieu, & dieu era aque uierf. 2. Aque era ilg principi tiers Dieu. 3. Tuottes chioſes ſun fattas três el, & ſainza el nun es fat ünguotta, aque chi es fat. 4. In el era la uitta, & la uitta era la liüſth della lieud, 5. & la liüſth liüſcha in la ſckiürezza, & la ſckiürezza nun l'ho pigliêda. 6. Er era ün hum tramis da Dieu, quæl hauaiua num Iohannes: 7. aquaiſt uen par teſtimuniaunza, par che dès pardütta de la liüſth, & par che tuots craieſſen três el. 8. El nun era aquella liüſth, mu el era tramis, par dêr pardütta a la liüſth. 9. Aquella era la uaira liüſth, la quæla chi igliümna ſcodün hum chi uain ilg muond. 10. El era ilg muond, & l'g muond es fat três el, & l'g muond nun l'g ho cunſchieu. 11. El es gnieu ilg ſieu, & l's ſes nulg haun arfschieu. 12. Mu tauns chi l'g haun arfschieu. Ad aquels hol do che poſſen duantêr filgs da Dieu, ad aquels, cun num, chi criaſſen in ſieu num. 13. Quæls chi nu ſun da ſaung, ne da la uoluntæd della chiarn, ne da la uoluntæd delg [306] hum, dimperſe ſun naſchieus da Dieu. 14. Et aquè uierf es fat chiarn, & ho afdô traunter nus: & nus hauain uis la ſia glœrgia ſco da quel filg ſul genieu dalg bab: plain d'gracia & d'uardæt. 15. Ioãnes do pardütta da del & clamma dſchant: Aquaiſt era è da quæl ch'eau dſchaiua, quæl gniand ſieua mè, ho paſſo auaunt mè, per che chel era

7 par chel dès — 12 chi craieſſen in — 14 glœrgia ſco üna glœrgia da quel filg ſul genuieu.

Ed. of 1560:

L'g principi era l'g uierf, & l'g uierf era tiers dieu, & dieu era aque uierf. Aqüe era

https://books.google.pl/books?id=1i_2xgEACAAJ

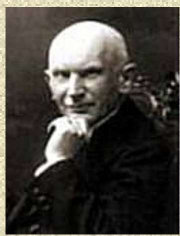
57

1920

Das Neue Testament in die Sprache der Gegenwart (Ed. 1)

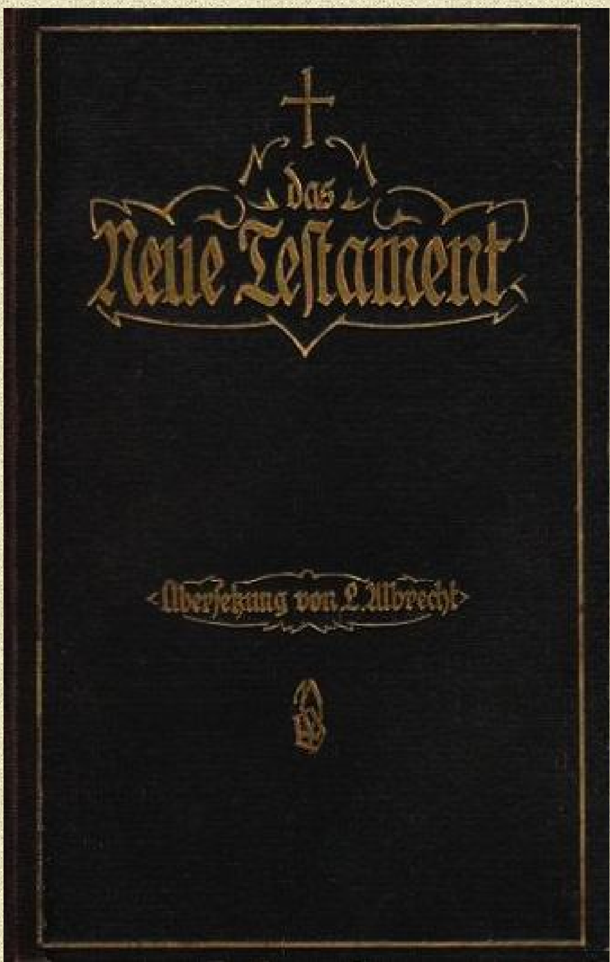
Gotha–Thüringen: Evangelischen Buchhandlung

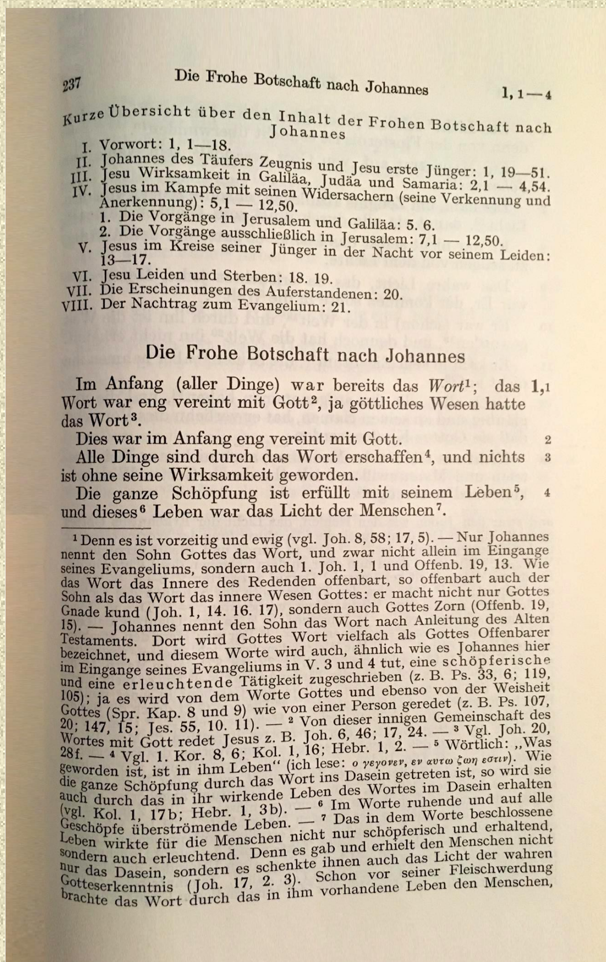
Ludwig Albrecht



yes, divine nature has this Word

ja göttliches Wesen hatte das Wort





237 Die Frohe Botschaft nach Johannes 1, 1—4

Kurze Übersicht über den Inhalt der Frohen Botschaft nach Johannes

I. Vorwort: 1, 1—18.
II. Johannes des Täufers Zeugnis und Jesu erste Jünger: 1, 19—51.
III. Jesu Wirksamkeit in Galiläa, Judäa und Samaria: 2,1 — 4,54.
IV. Jesus im Kampfe mit seinen Widersachern (seine Verkennung und Anerkennung): 5,1 — 12,50.
   1. Die Vorgänge in Jerusalem und Galiläa: 5. 6.
   2. Die Vorgänge ausschließlich in Jerusalem: 7,1 — 12,50.
V. Jesus im Kreise seiner Jünger in der Nacht vor seinem Leiden: 13—17.
VI. Jesu Leiden und Sterben: 18. 19.
VII. Die Erscheinungen des Auferstandenen: 20.
VIII. Der Nachtrag zum Evangelium: 21.

Die Frohe Botschaft nach Johannes

1,1 Im Anfang (aller Dinge) war bereits das Wort[1]; das Wort war eng vereint mit Gott[2], ja göttliches Wesen hatte das Wort[3].
2 Dies war im Anfang eng vereint mit Gott.
3 Alle Dinge sind durch das Wort erschaffen[4], und nichts ist ohne seine Wirksamkeit geworden.
4 Die ganze Schöpfung ist erfüllt mit seinem Leben[5], und dieses[6] Leben war das Licht der Menschen[7].

[1] Denn es ist vorzeitig und ewig (vgl. Joh. 8, 58; 17, 5). — Nur Johannes nennt den Sohn Gottes das Wort, und zwar nicht allein im Eingange seines Evangeliums, sondern auch 1. Joh. 1, 1 und Offenb. 19, 13. Wie das Wort das Innere des Redenden offenbart, so offenbart auch der Sohn als das Wort das innere Wesen Gottes: er macht nicht nur Gottes Gnade kund (Joh. 1, 14. 16. 17), sondern auch Gottes Zorn (Offenb. 19, 15). — Johannes nennt den Sohn das Wort nach Anleitung des Alten Testaments. Dort wird Gottes Wort vielfach als Gottes Offenbarer bezeichnet, und diesem Worte wird auch, ähnlich wie es Johannes hier im Eingange seines Evangeliums in V. 3 und 4 tut, eine schöpferische und eine erleuchtende Tätigkeit zugeschrieben (z. B. Ps. 33, 6; 119, 105); ja es wird von dem Worte Gottes und ebenso von der Weisheit Gottes (Spr. Kap. 8 und 9) wie von einer Person geredet (z. B. Ps. 107, 20; 147, 15; Jes. 55, 10. 11). — [2] Von dieser innigen Gemeinschaft des Wortes mit Gott redet Jesus z. B. Joh. 6, 46; 17, 24. — [3] Vgl. Joh. 20, 28f. — [4] Vgl. 1. Kor. 8, 6; Kol. 1, 16; Hebr. 1, 2. — [5] Wörtlich: „Was geworden ist, ist in ihm Leben" (ich lese: ο γεγονεν, εν αυτω ζωη εστιν). Wie die ganze Schöpfung durch das Wort ins Dasein getreten ist, so wird sie auch durch das in ihr wirkende Leben des Wortes im Dasein erhalten (vgl. Kol. 1, 17b; Hebr. 1, 3b). — [6] Im Worte ruhende und auf alle Geschöpfe überströmende Leben. — [7] Das in dem Worte beschlossene Leben wirkte für die Menschen nicht nur schöpferisch und erhaltend, sondern auch erleuchtend. Denn es gab und erhielt den Menschen nicht nur das Dasein, sondern es schenkte ihnen auch das Licht der wahren Gotteserkenntnis (Joh. 17, 2. 3). Schon vor seiner Fleischwerdung brachte das Wort durch das in ihm vorhandene Leben den Menschen,

Ed. 7 (1953)

https://www.stepbible.org/?q=version=GerAlbrecht%7Creference=Joh.1 (Ed. 1929)

58

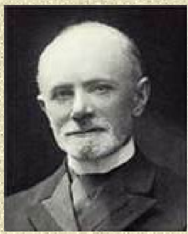
1922

FRENCH

Les livres du Nouveau Testament:
traduits du Grec en Français avec introduction générale et notices

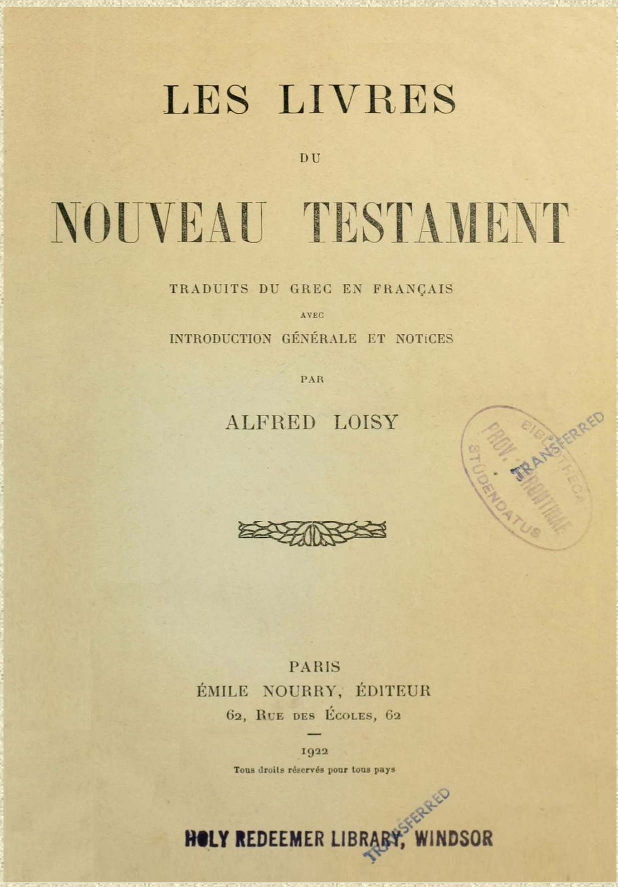
Paris: Émile Nourry

Alfred F. Loisy



i Logos był bogiem

Et le Logos était dieu



LES LIVRES
DU
NOUVEAU TESTAMENT

TRADUITS DU GREC EN FRANÇAIS AVEC
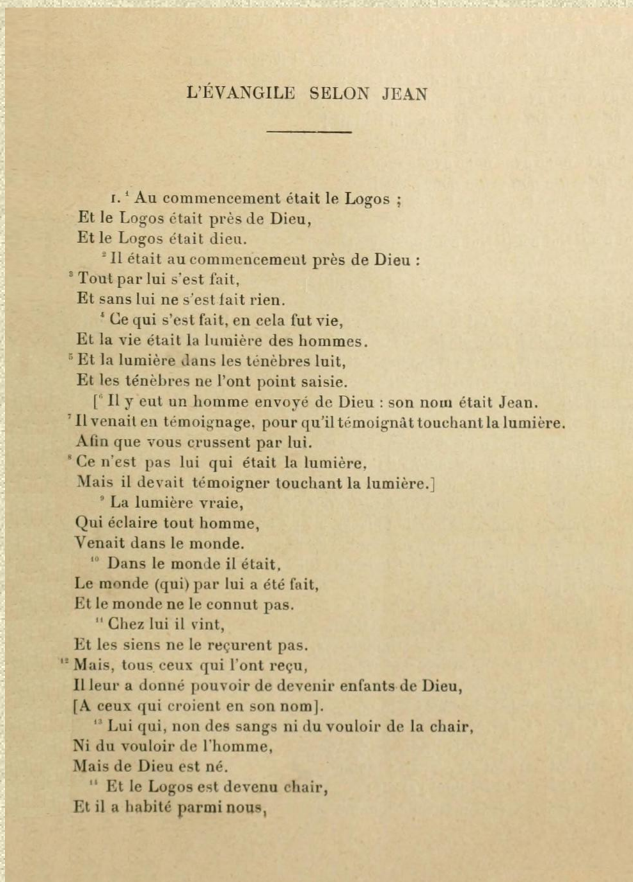
INTRODUCTION GÉNÉRALE ET NOTICES
PAR
ALFRED LOISY

PARIS
ÉMILE NOURRY, ÉDITEUR
62, RUE DES ÉCOLES, 62
—
1922



L'ÉVANGILE SELON JEAN

I. [1] Au commencement était le Logos ;
Et le Logos était près de Dieu,
Et le Logos était dieu.
[2] Il était au commencement près de Dieu :
[3] Tout par lui s'est fait,
Et sans lui ne s'est fait rien.
[4] Ce qui s'est fait, en cela fut vie,
Et la vie était la lumière des hommes.
[5] Et la lumière dans les ténèbres luit,
Et les ténèbres ne l'ont point saisie.
[[6] Il y eut un homme envoyé de Dieu : son nom était Jean.
[7] Il venait en témoignage, pour qu'il témoignât touchant la lumière.
Afin que vous crussent par lui.
[8] Ce n'est pas lui qui était la lumière,
Mais il devait témoigner touchant la lumière.]
[9] La lumière vraie,
Qui éclaire tout homme,
Venait dans le monde.
[10] Dans le monde il était,
Le monde (qui) par lui a été fait,
Et le monde ne le connut pas.
[11] Chez lui il vint,
Et les siens ne le reçurent pas.
[12] Mais, tous ceux qui l'ont reçu,
Il leur a donné pouvoir de devenir enfants de Dieu,
[A ceux qui croient en son nom].
[13] Lui qui, non des sangs ni du vouloir de la chair,
Ni du vouloir de l'homme,
Mais de Dieu est né.
[14] Et le Logos est devenu chair,
Et il a habité parmi nous,

https://archive.org/details/leslivresdunouve00lois

59

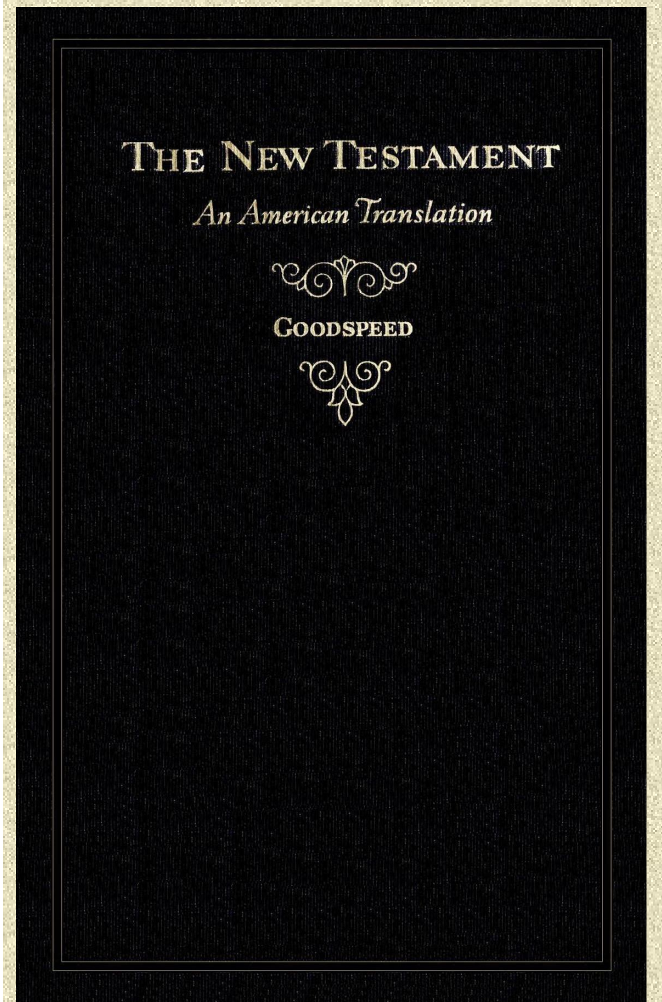
1923

The New Testament: An American Translation

Chicago: The University of Chicago Press

Edgar J. Goodsped

and the Word was divine



THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

In the beginning the Word existed. The Word was with God, and the Word was divine.

It was he that was with God in the beginning. Everything came into existence through him, and apart from him nothing came to be. It was by him that life came into existence, and that life was the light of mankind. The light is still shining in the darkness, for the darkness has never put it out.

There appeared a man by the name of John, with a message from God. He came to give testimony, to testify to the light, so that everyone might come to believe in it through him. He was not the light; he came to testify to the light.

The real light, which sheds light upon everyone, was just coming into the world. He came into the world, and though the world came into existence through him, the world did not recognize him. He came to his home, and his own family did not welcome him. But to all who did receive him and believe in him he gave the right to become children of God, owing their birth not to nature nor to any human or physical impulse, but to God.

So the Word became flesh and blood and lived for a while among us, abounding in blessing and truth, and we saw the honor God had given him, such honor as an only son receives from his father. (John testified to him and cried out—for it was he who said it—"He who was to come after me is now ahead of me, for he existed before me!")

For from his abundance we have all had a share, and received blessing after blessing. For while the Law was given through Moses, blessing and truth came to us through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God; it is the divine Only Son, who leans upon his Father's breast, that has made him known.

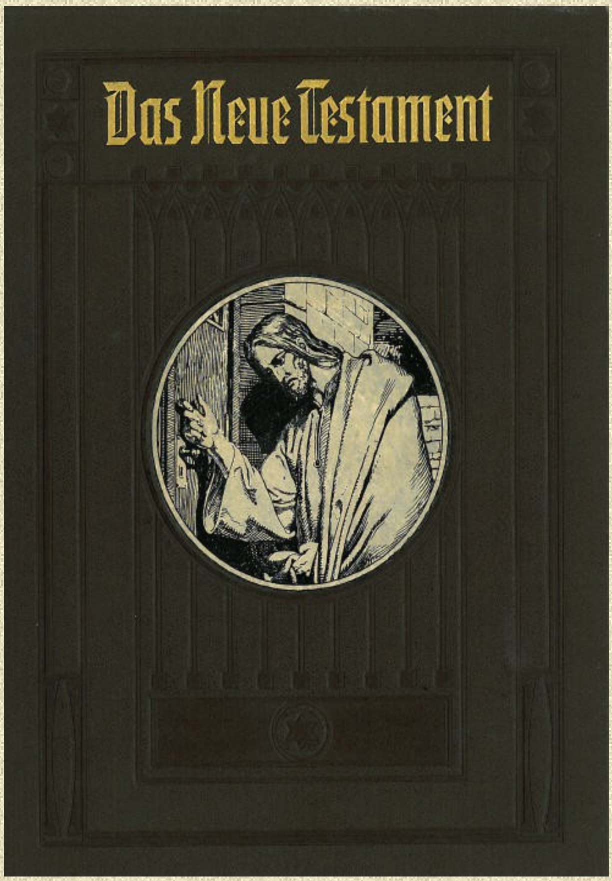
Now this is the testimony that John gave when the Jews sent priests and Levites to him from Jerusalem to ask him who

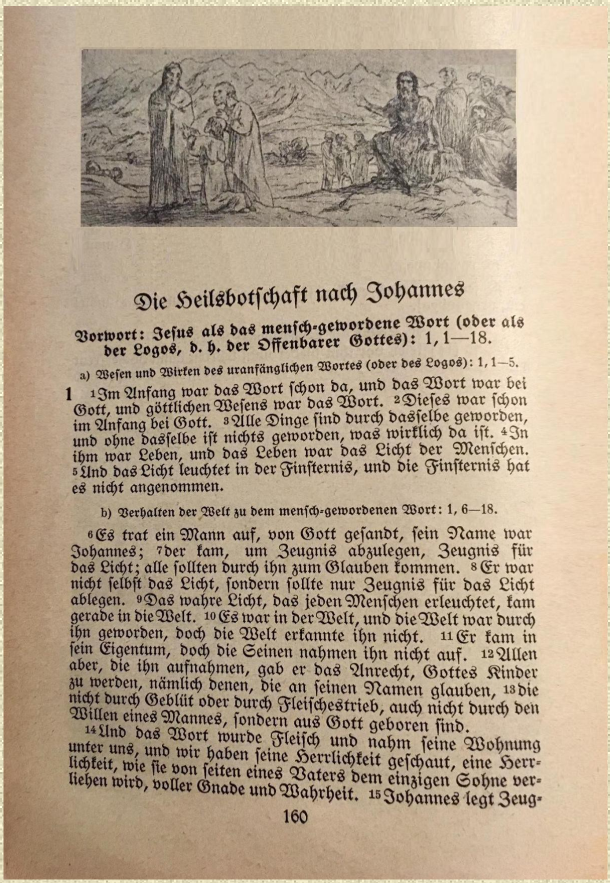
https://catalog.hathitrust.org/Record/001410621

60

1923
Das Neue Testament (Ed. 2)
Braunschweig: C. Appenhans & Comp.
Hermann Menge

and of divine being was Word
und göttlichen Wesens war das Wort





Die Heilsbotschaft nach Johannes

Vorwort: Jesus als das mensch-gewordene Wort (oder als der Logos, d. h. der Offenbarer Gottes): 1, 1—18.

a) Wesen und Wirken des uranfänglichen Wortes (oder des Logos): 1, 1–5.

1 [1]Im Anfang war das Wort schon da, und das Wort war bei Gott, und göttlichen Wesens war das Wort. [2]Dieses war schon im Anfang bei Gott. [3]Alle Dinge sind durch dasselbe geworden, und ohne dasselbe ist nichts geworden, was wirklich da ist. [4]In ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen. [5]Und das Licht leuchtet in der Finsternis, und die Finsternis hat es nicht angenommen.

b) Verhalten der Welt zu dem mensch-gewordenen Wort: 1, 6—18.

[6]Es trat ein Mann auf, von Gott gesandt, sein Name war Johannes; [7]der kam, um Zeugnis abzulegen, Zeugnis für das Licht; alle sollten durch ihn zum Glauben kommen. [8]Er war nicht selbst das Licht, sondern sollte nur Zeugnis für das Licht ablegen. [9]Das wahre Licht, das jeden Menschen erleuchtet, kam gerade in die Welt. [10]Es war in der Welt, und die Welt war durch ihn geworden, doch die Welt erkannte ihn nicht. [11]Er kam in sein Eigentum, doch die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf. [12]Allen aber, die ihn aufnahmen, gab er das Anrecht, Gottes Kinder zu werden, nämlich denen, die an seinen Namen glauben, [13]die nicht durch Geblüt oder durch Fleischestrieb, auch nicht durch den Willen eines Mannes, sondern aus Gott geboren sind.
[14]Und das Wort wurde Fleisch und nahm seine Wohnung unter uns, und wir haben seine Herrlichkeit geschaut, eine Herrlichkeit, wie sie von seiten eines Vaters dem einzigen Sohne verliehen wird, voller Gnade und Wahrheit. [15]Johannes legt Zeug-

160

Ed. 12 (1951): und Gott (= göttlichen Wesens) war das Wort electronic version:

https://www.die-bibel.de/bibeln/online-bibeln/menge-bibel/bibeltext/bibel/text/lesen/stelle/53/10001/19999/

61

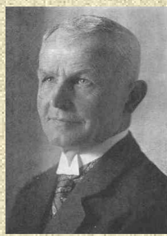
1925

Handbuch zum Neuen Testament.

Band 6: Das Johannesevangelium (Ed. 2)

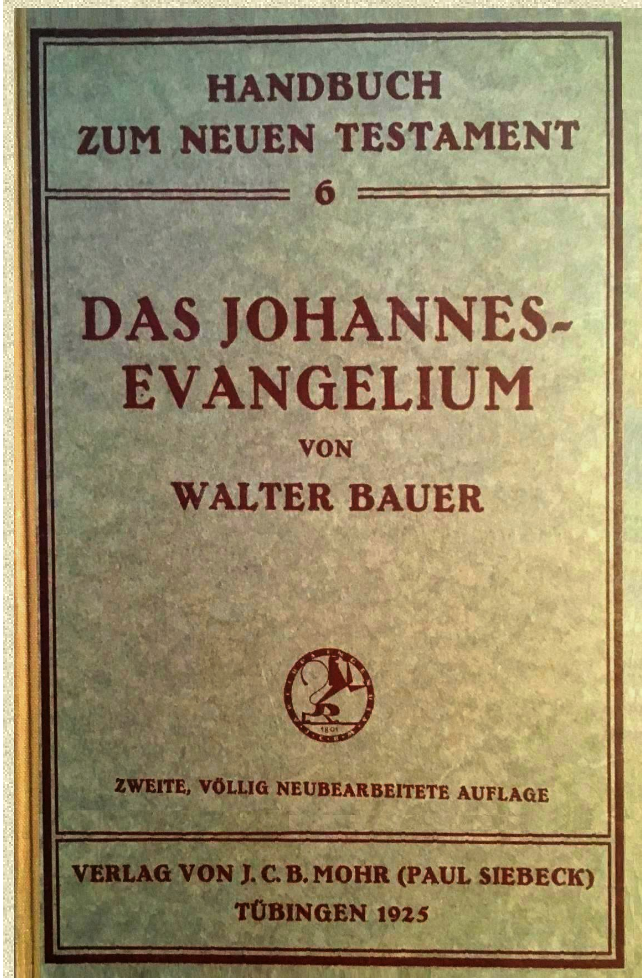
Tübingen: J. C. B. Möhr

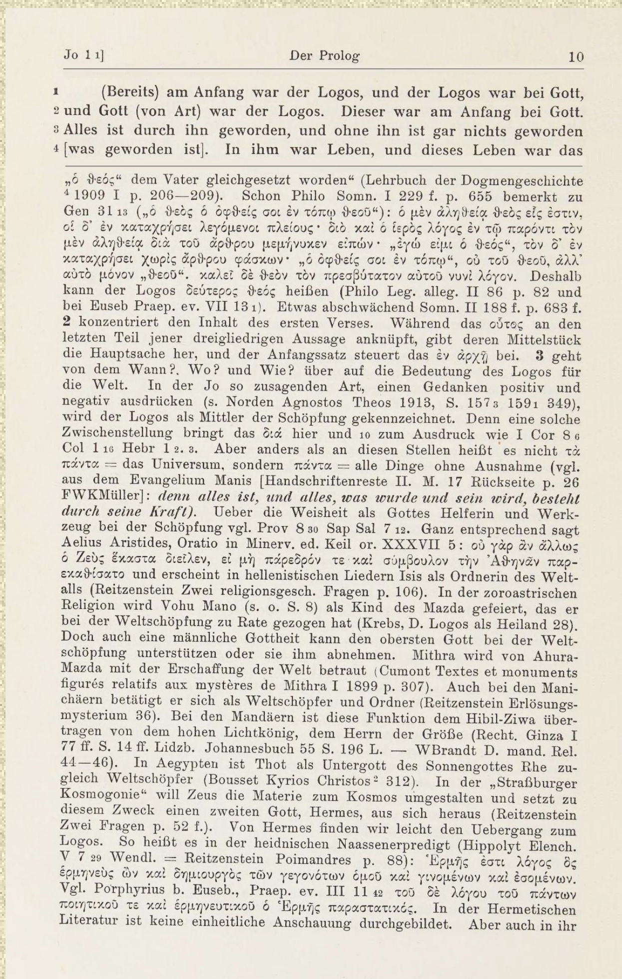
Walter Bauer



and god (of a kind) was the Logos

und Gott (von Art) war der Logos





1 (Bereits) am Anfang war der Logos, und der Logos war bei Gott, 2 und Gott (von Art) war der Logos. Dieser war am Anfang bei Gott. 3 Alles ist durch ihn geworden, und ohne ihn ist gar nichts geworden 4 [was geworden ist]. In ihm war Leben, und dieses Leben war das

„ὁ θεός“ dem Vater gleichgesetzt worden“ (Lehrbuch der Dogmengeschichte [4]1909 I p. 206—209). Schon Philo Somn. I 229 f. p. 655 bemerkt zu Gen 31 13 („ὁ θεὸς ὁ ὀφθείς σοι ἐν τόπῳ θεοῦ“): ὁ μὲν ἀληθείᾳ θεὸς εἷς ἐστιν, οἱ δ᾽ ἐν καταχρήσει λεγόμενοι πλείους· διὸ καὶ ὁ ἱερὸς λόγος ἐν τῷ παρόντι τὸν μὲν ἀληθείᾳ διὰ τοῦ ἄρθρου μεμήνυκεν εἰπών· „ἐγώ εἰμι ὁ θεός“, τὸν δ᾽ ἐν καταχρήσει χωρὶς ἄρθρου φάσκων· „ὁ ὀφθείς σοι ἐν τόπῳ“, οὐ τοῦ θεοῦ, ἀλλ᾽ αὐτὸ μόνον „θεοῦ“. καλεῖ δὲ θεὸν τὸν πρεσβύτατον αὐτοῦ νυνὶ λόγον. Deshalb kann der Logos δεύτερος θεός heißen (Philo Leg. alleg. II 86 p. 82 und bei Euseb Praep. ev. VII 13 1). Etwas abschwächend Somn. II 188 f. p. 683 f. 2 konzentriert den Inhalt des ersten Verses. Während das οὗτος an den letzten Teil jener dreigliedrigen Aussage anknüpft, gibt deren Mittelstück die Hauptsache her, und der Anfangssatz steuert das ἐν ἀρχῇ bei. 3 geht von dem Wann?, Wo? und Wie? über auf die Bedeutung des Logos für die Welt. In der Jo so zusagenden Art, einen Gedanken positiv und negativ ausdrücken (s. Norden Agnostos Theos 1913, S. 157 3 159 1 349), wird der Logos als Mittler der Schöpfung gekennzeichnet. Denn eine solche Zwischenstellung bringt das διά hier und 10 zum Ausdruck wie I Cor 8 6 Col 1 16 Hebr 1 2. 3. Aber anders als an diesen Stellen heißt es nicht τὰ πάντα = das Universum, sondern πάντα = alle Dinge ohne Ausnahme (vgl. aus dem Evangelium Manis [Handschriftenreste II. M. 17 Rückseite p. 26 FWKMüller]: denn alles ist, und alles, was wurde und sein wird, besteht durch seine Kraft). Ueber die Weisheit als Gottes Helferin und Werkzeug bei der Schöpfung vgl. Prov 8 30 Sap Sal 7 12. Ganz entsprechend sagt Aelius Aristides, Oratio in Minerv. ed. Keil or. XXXVII 5: οὐ γὰρ ἂν ἄλλως ὁ Ζεὺς ἕκαστα διεῖλεν, εἰ μὴ πάρεδρόν τε καὶ σύμβουλον τὴν Ἀθηνᾶν παρεκαθίσατο und erscheint in hellenistischen Liedern Isis als Ordnerin des Weltalls (Reitzenstein Zwei religionsgesch. Fragen p. 106). In der zoroastrischen Religion wird Vohu Mano (s. o. S. 8) als Kind des Mazda gefeiert, das er bei der Weltschöpfung zu Rate gezogen hat (Krebs, D. Logos als Heiland 28). Doch auch eine männliche Gottheit kann den obersten Gott bei der Weltschöpfung unterstützen oder sie ihm abnehmen. Mithra wird von Ahura-Mazda mit der Erschaffung der Welt betraut (Cumont Textes et monuments figurés relatifs aux mystères de Mithra I 1899 p. 307). Auch bei den Manichäern betätigt er sich als Weltschöpfer und Ordner (Reitzenstein Erlösungsmysterium 36). Bei den Mandäern ist diese Funktion dem Hibil-Ziwa übertragen von dem hohen Lichtkönig, dem Herrn der Größe (Recht. Ginza I 77 ff. S. 14 ff. Lidzb. Johannesbuch 55 S. 196 L. — WBrandt D. mand. Rel. 44—46). In Aegypten ist Thot als Untergott des Sonnengottes Rhe zugleich Weltschöpfer (Bousset Kyrios Christos [2] 312). In der „Straßburger Kosmogonie“ will Zeus die Materie zum Kosmos umgestalten und setzt zu diesem Zweck einen zweiten Gott, Hermes, aus sich heraus (Reitzenstein Zwei Fragen p. 52 f.). Von Hermes finden wir leicht den Uebergang zum Logos. So heißt es in der heidnischen Naassenerpredigt (Hippolyt Elench. V 7 29 Wendl. = Reitzenstein Poimandres p. 88): Ἑρμῆς ἐστι λόγος ὃς ἑρμηνεὺς ὢν καὶ δημιουργὸς τῶν γεγονότων ὁμοῦ καὶ γινομένων καὶ ἐσομένων. Vgl. Porphyrius b. Euseb., Praep. ev. III 11 42 τοῦ δὲ λόγου τοῦ πάντων ποιητικοῦ τε καὶ ἑρμηνευτικοῦ ὁ Ἑρμῆς παραστατικός. In der Hermetischen Literatur ist keine einheitliche Anschauung durchgebildet. Aber auch in ihr

https://archive.org/details/dasjohannesevang0000unse

62

1925

FRENCH

Pages choisies des Évangiles littéralement traduites de l'original et commentées à l'usage du public lettré avec le texte en regard

Paris: Société d'édition « Les Belles Lettres »

Hubert Pernot

and the Logos was god

et le Logos était dieu

COLLECTION DE L'INSTITUT NÉO-HELLÉNIQUE
DE L'UNIVERSITÉ DE PARIS
Fascicule 2.

PAGES CHOISIES
DES ÉVANGILES

LITTÉRALEMENT TRADUITES DE L'ORIGINAL
ET COMMENTÉES
A L'USAGE DU PUBLIC LETTRÉ AVEC LE TEXTE EN REGARD

PAR
HUBERT PERNOT
Professeur à la Faculté des Lettres
de l'Université de Paris.

PARIS
SOCIÉTÉ D'ÉDITION « LES BELLES LETTRES »
95, BOULEVARD RASPAIL
1925 auprès de Dieu, et le Logos était dieu. [2] Il était au commencement auprès de Dieu, [3] tout s'est fait par lui et sans lui pas une chose ne s'est faite de ce qui est arrivé. [4] En lui était la Vie, et la Vie était la Lumière des hommes. [5] Et la lumière éclaire dans les ténèbres, et les Ténèbres ne l'ont pas acceptée. [6] Il y eut un homme envoyé par Dieu; son nom était Jean; [7] il vint en témoignage, pour témoigner touchant la Lumière, afin que tous crussent terme français, qui ne la recouvrirait pas, mais l'expliquerait tout au moins, le meilleur serait peut-être manifestation. Le Logos de Jn. est la manifestation de Dieu, et c'est pourquoi Jn. déclare à la fin du vt. 1 que le Logos est dieu. Comme l'auteur vient d'établir une distinction entre le Logos et Dieu, il est difficile de lui faire dire : et le Logos était Dieu. Mieux vaut entendre que le Logos avait un caractère divin ; comp. Jn. x 34 ss.

---

On voit que, dès le début de son évangile, Jean, délaissant les questions de généalogie et de naissance de Jésus, traitées avant lui par Mt. et par Lc., s'élève à des considérations générales. Il suit ici la tradition de Mc. ; avec cette différence que Mc. est simple et que Jn. a un esprit plus complexe et plus mystique.

3. Tout s'est fait par lui, δι' αὐτοῦ et non ὑπ' αὐτοῦ, c'est-à-dire par son intermédiaire.

4. En lui était la Vie. Lorsque Jn. parle de la vie, il s'agit toujours de la vie éternelle, c'est-à-dire du Salut, sauf à un seul passage (vi 51), où, pour qu'on ne s'y trompe pas, il précise et dit « la vie de ce monde ». Le sens du vt. 4 est d'ailleurs éclairé par d'autres : v 21, I Jn. 1 1, 2. Cette phrase de Jn. nous paraît correspondre à Lc. ii 31-32, où il est dit que Jésus est le Salut et que ce Salut brille pour les hommes. A viii 12 Jn. réunit les deux idées de Vie et de Lumière qu'il a présentées ici séparément : « Celui qui me suit ne cheminera pas dans les ténèbres, mais aura la Lumière de la Vie ».

5. Et les Ténèbres ne l'ont pas acceptée. Les Ténèbres représentent ici le paganisme. On traduit aussi : ne l'ont pas saisie, pas comprise. Le verbe καταλαμβάνω répond dans ces textes au gr. mod. πιάνω, qui donnerait ici le sens que nous avons adopté ; comp. la fin du vt. 10. Jn. veut dire qu'en général la lumière brille dans les ténèbres, mais que pourtant les Ténèbres du paganisme n'ont pas accepté la Lumière qu'était le Logos. — La pensée exprimée au vt. 5 s'interrompt pour reprendre au vt. 9. On aimerait transporter les vts. 6-8 immédiatement après le vt. 15, mais rien dans la tradition manuscrite ne justifie cette modification.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=iDYAAAAMAAJ

63

1925

The Gospel of John

A Handbook for Christian Leaders

New York: The Macmillan Company

Benjamin W. Robinson

and the Word was divine

The Gospel of John

A Handbook for Christian Leaders

BY

BENJAMIN W. ROBINSON

PROFESSOR OF NEW TESTAMENT INTERPRETATION
CHICAGO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

New York
THE MACMILLAN COMPANY
1925

CHAPTER IV

THE PROLOGUE

JOHN I, 1-18

1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was divine. 2. The Word existed in the beginning with God. 3. All things came into being through the Word, and nothing came to pass apart from him. 4. In him was life; and that life was the light of men. 5. The light is shining in the darkness, and the darkness has never overcome it.

6. There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John. 7. He came as a witness, to bear witness to the light, in order that every one might believe.

8. He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light. 9. The real light which enlightens every man was coming into the world. 10. He was in the world, and though the world came into being through him, the world did not recognize him. 11. He came into his own world and his own kin did not give him a welcome. 12. But to all who did receive him and believe in him he gave the right to become children of God, 13. who owe their new birth not to nature or to human or physical impulse, but to God.

14. The Word was embodied in a human life, and lived among us. And we saw the beauty and power of his life, the heritage of an only son from his father, full of appeal and conviction. 15. (John testified concerning him; John is the one who said: The Coming One, though he comes after me, is yet before me, for he was ever first.) 16. For out of his abundance we have all received, bless-

1926
Das Neue Testament
nach dem Stuttgarter griechischen Text (Zweiter Band)
Gießen: Alfred Töpelmann
Oskar Holtzmann

and a god was the Idea und ein Gott war der Gedanke

960 Johannes 1 1

V. Das Evangelium des Johannes.

Κατὰ Ἰωάνην: vgl. die Überschriften der synoptischen Evangelien.

1 I Einführung Joh 1 1—18: Im Anfang war der Gedanke, und der Gedanke 2 war bei Gott, und ein Gott war der Gedanke. Der war im Anfang bei 3 Gott. Alles ist durch ihn geworden, und ohne ihn ist auch nicht eins ge- 4 worden, das geworden ist. In ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das 5 Licht der Menschen. Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis, und die 6 Finsternis hat es nicht festgehalten. Es war ein von Gott gesandter Mann, 7 der hieß Johannes; der kam zum Zeugnis, um vom Lichte zu zeugen, da- 8 mit alle durch ihn gläubig würden. Er war nicht das Licht, aber er sollte 9 vom Lichte zeugen. Das wahrhaftige Licht, das jeden Menschen erhellt, 10 kam in die Welt; es war in der Welt, und die Welt ist durch es geworden; 11 aber die Welt erkannte ihn nicht. Er kam in sein Eigentum, und die 12 Seinigen nahmen ihn nicht auf. Alle, die ihn aufnahmen, denen gab er die Möglichkeit, Gottes Kinder zu werden, denen, die an seinen Namen 13 glauben, die nicht aus Blut und nicht aus Fleischeswillen und nicht aus 14 Manneswillen, sondern aus Gott gezeugt wurden. Und der Gedanke ward Fleisch und wohnte unter uns, und wir schauten seine Herrlichkeit, eine Herrlichkeit, wie ein einziger Sohn sie vom Vater erhalten mag, voll Gnade 15 und Wahrheit. Johannes gibt Zeugnis von ihm, ruft und spricht: Der war es, von dem ich sagte: der nach mir kommt, ist vor mir gewesen; denn er 16 war früher als ich. Denn aus seiner Fülle haben wir alle empfangen, und 17 zwar Gnade aus Gnade. Denn das Gesetz ward durch Moses gegeben, die 18 Gnade und die Wahrheit sind durch Jesus Christus gekommen. Gott hat niemand je gesehen; der einzigartige Gott, der am Busen des Vaters ist, der hat es bekundet.

1 1 ἐν ἀρχῇ: bewußte Gleichbildung mit Gen 1 1. Das Johannesevangelium will die heilige Schrift NT, die bei seiner Niederschrift schon in Sicht ist, eröffnen, wie die Genesis das AT. Das Christentum wurzelt wie das Judentum in der Vorgeschichte der Schöpfung. Zum Vorwurf der Neuheit des Christentums vgl. Theophilus ad Autolyc. 3 1: οἰόμενος προσφάτους καὶ νεωτερικὰς εἶναι τὰς παρ' ἡμῖν γραφάς. ὁ λόγος, ohne Genitiv oder adjektivisches Attribut dem Leser bekannte metaphysische Größe durch die Volkstümlichkeit der stoischen Gedankenwelt: die in der Welt erkennbare Vernunft, Ordnung, der in der Welt erkennbare, alles einzelne aus sich hervorbringende Gedanke. So vielleicht schon Heraklit von Ephesus c. 500 v. Chr. vgl. Sext. Math. 7 132: „Die Menschen fassen diesen immer vorhandenen Logos nicht —, obgleich alles nach diesem Logos geschieht." Und später: „Die meisten leben, als ob sie auf eigenes Raten angewiesen wären, da doch der Logos Gemeingut ist." Von Stoikern feiert Kleanthes von Assos im Hymnus auf Zeus, der Apg 17 28 wahrscheinlich angeführt ist, diesen Gott als Begründer (ἀρχηγός) der Natur, der mit ewiglebendem Blitz den κοινὸς λόγος lenke, ὃς διὰ πάντων φοιτᾷ (Stob. Ekl. I 30 V. 7 f.). Kleanthes' Schüler, Chrysippus von Soli (280—206 v. Chr.), sagt, das Verhängnis, die εἱμαρμένη, sei ὁ τοῦ κόσμου λόγος oder λόγος τῶν ἐν τῷ κόσμῳ προνοίᾳ διοικουμένων oder λόγος καθ' ὃν τὰ μὲν γεγονότα γέγονεν, τὰ δὲ γιγνόμενα γίγνεται, τὰ δὲ γενησόμενα γενήσεται (Stob. Ekl. I 180; Plut. plac. I 28). Wie der Same die

https://archive.org/details/MN41393ucmf_2

65

1929

FRENCH

Le Nouveau Testament: traduction nouvelle

Paris: Payot

Henri Monnier – Maurice Goguel

and the Word was a divine being et le Verbe était un être divin

LE NOUVEAU TESTAMENT

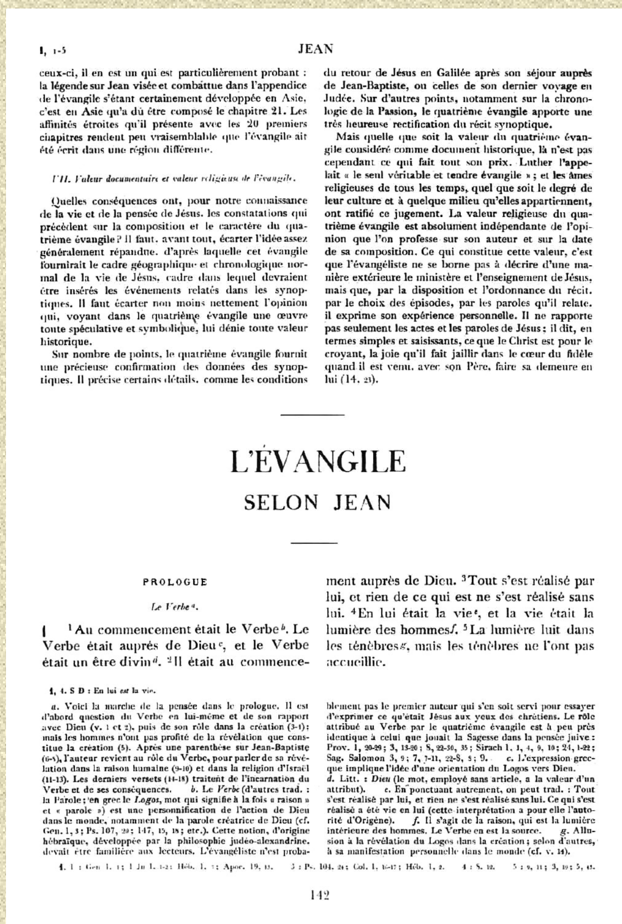
TRADUCTION NOUVELLE D'APRÈS LES MEILLEURS TEXTES AVEC INTRODUCTIONS ET NOTES SOUS LA DIRECTION DE

MAURICE GOGUEL
PROFESSEUR À LA FACULTÉ LIBRE DE THÉOLOGIE PROTESTANTE DE PARIS, DIRECTEUR D'ÉTUDES À L'ÉCOLE DES HAUTES ÉTUDES

ET

HENRI MONNIER
PROFESSEUR À LA FACULTÉ LIBRE DE THÉOLOGIE PROTESTANTE DE PARIS

PAYOT, PARIS



1, 1-5 JEAN

ceux-ci, il en est un qui est particulièrement probant : la légende sur Jean visée et combattue dans l'appendice de l'évangile s'étant certainement développée en Asie, c'est en Asie qu'a dû être composé le chapitre 21. Les affinités étroites qu'il présente avec les 20 premiers chapitres rendent peu vraisemblable que l'évangile ait été écrit dans une région différente.

VII. Valeur documentaire et valeur religieuse de l'évangile.

Quelles conséquences ont, pour notre connaissance de la vie et de la pensée de Jésus, les constatations qui précèdent sur la composition et le caractère du quatrième évangile ? Il faut, avant tout, écarter l'idée assez généralement répandue, d'après laquelle cet évangile fournirait le cadre géographique et chronologique normal de la vie de Jésus, cadre dans lequel devraient être insérés les événements relatés dans les synoptiques. Il faut écarter non moins nettement l'opinion qui, voyant dans le quatrième évangile une œuvre toute spéculative et symbolique, lui dénie toute valeur historique.

Sur nombre de points, le quatrième évangile fournit une précieuse confirmation des données des synoptiques. Il précise certains détails, comme les conditions du retour de Jésus en Galilée après son séjour auprès de Jean-Baptiste, ou celles de son dernier voyage en Judée. Sur d'autres points, notamment sur la chronologie de la Passion, le quatrième évangile apporte une très heureuse rectification du récit synoptique.

Mais quelle que soit la valeur du quatrième évangile considéré comme document historique, là n'est pas cependant ce qui fait tout son prix. Luther l'appelait « le seul véritable et tendre évangile » ; et les âmes religieuses de tous les temps, quel que soit le degré de leur culture et à quelque milieu qu'elles appartiennent, ont ratifié ce jugement. La valeur religieuse du quatrième évangile est absolument indépendante de l'opinion que l'on professe sur son auteur et sur la date de sa composition. Ce qui constitue cette valeur, c'est que l'évangéliste ne se borne pas à décrire d'une manière extérieure le ministère et l'enseignement de Jésus, mais que, par la disposition et l'ordonnance du récit, par le choix des épisodes, par les paroles qu'il relate, il exprime son expérience personnelle. Il ne rapporte pas seulement les actes et les paroles de Jésus ; il dit, en termes simples et saisissants, ce que le Christ est pour le croyant, la joie qu'il fait jaillir dans le cœur du fidèle quand il est venu, avec son Père, faire sa demeure en lui (14, 23).

L'ÉVANGILE
SELON JEAN

PROLOGUE

Le Verbe [a].

1 [1] Au commencement était le Verbe [b]. Le Verbe était auprès de Dieu [c], et le Verbe était un être divin [d]. [2] Il était au commencement auprès de Dieu. [3] Tout s'est réalisé par lui, et rien de ce qui est ne s'est réalisé sans lui. [4] En lui était la vie [e], et la vie était la lumière des hommes [f]. [5] La lumière luit dans les ténèbres [g], mais les ténèbres ne l'ont pas accueillie.

1, 4. S D : En lui est la vie.

a. Voici la marche de la pensée dans le prologue. Il est d'abord question du Verbe en lui-même et de son rapport avec Dieu (v. 1 et 2), puis de son rôle dans la création (3-4) ; mais les hommes n'ont pas profité de la révélation que constitue la création (5). Après une parenthèse sur Jean-Baptiste (6-8), l'auteur revient au rôle du Verbe, pour parler de sa révélation dans la raison humaine (9-10) et dans la religion d'Israël (11-13). Les derniers versets (14-18) traitent de l'incarnation du Verbe et de ses conséquences. b. Le Verbe (d'autres trad. : la Parole ; en grec le Logos, mot qui signifie à la fois « raison » et « parole ») est une personnification de l'action de Dieu dans le monde, notamment de la parole créatrice de Dieu (cf. Gen. 1, 3 ; Ps. 107, 20 ; 147, 15, 18 ; etc.). Cette notion, d'origine hébraïque, développée par la philosophie judéo-alexandrine, devait être familière aux lecteurs. L'évangéliste n'est probablement pas le premier auteur qui s'en soit servi pour essayer d'exprimer ce qu'était Jésus aux yeux des chrétiens. Le rôle attribué au Verbe par le quatrième évangile est à peu près identique à celui que jouait la Sagesse dans la pensée juive : Prov. 1, 20-29 ; 3, 13-20 ; 8, 22-30, 35 ; Sirach 1, 1, 4, 9, 10 ; 24, 1-22 ; Sag. Salomon 3, 9 ; 7, 7-11, 22-8, 8 ; 9. c. L'expression grecque implique l'idée d'une orientation du Logos vers Dieu. d. Litt. : Dieu (le mot, employé sans article, a la valeur d'un attribut). e. En ponctuant autrement, on peut trad. : Tout s'est réalisé par lui, et rien ne s'est réalisé sans lui. Ce qui s'est réalisé a été vie en lui (cette interprétation a pour elle l'autorité d'Origène). f. Il s'agit de la raison, qui est la lumière intérieure des hommes. Le Verbe en est la source. g. Allusion à la révélation du Logos dans la création ; selon d'autres, à sa manifestation personnelle dans le monde (cf. v. 14).

1. 1 : Gen. 1, 1 ; 1 Jn 1, 1-2 ; Héb. 1, 7 ; Apoc. 19, 13. 3 : Ps. 104, 24 ; Col. 1, 16-17 ; Héb. 1, 2. 4 : 5, 26. 5 : 9, 11 ; 3, 19 ; 5, 45.

142

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1gY3B_9mPXMPGoN5jexNeS3dL-qjptv5S/view

66

1933

Das Neue Testament: Übersetzung in der Originalfassung

Giessen: Urachhaus

Emil Bock

and a divine being was the Word

und ein göttliches Wesen war das Wort

DAS JOHANNESEVANGELIUM

Prolog

1 Im Urbeginne war das Wort,
und das Wort war bei Gott,
und ein göttliches Wesen war das Wort.
2 Dieses war im Urbeginne bei Gott.
3 Durch es sind alle Dinge geworden, und nichts von allem Entstandenen ist anders als durch das Wort geworden.
4 In ihm war das Leben,
und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen.
5 Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis;
aber die Finsternis hat es nicht aufgenommen.
6 Es kam ein Mensch,
von Gott war er gesandt,
sein Name war Johannes.
7 Er kam, um Zeugnis abzulegen.
Er sollte von dem Lichte zeugen und so in allen Herzen den Glauben erwecken.
8 Er war nicht selbst das Licht,
er sollte ein Zeuge des Lichtes sein.
9 Das wahre Licht, das alle Menschen erleuchtet, sollte in die Welt kommen.
10 Es war in der Welt,
denn die Welt ist durch es geworden,
aber die Welt hat es nicht erkannt.
Zu den Ich-Menschen kam es,
11 aber die Ich-Menschen nahmen es nicht auf.

224

https://pl.scribd.com/doc/157205504/EMIL-BOCK-JOHANNESEVANGELIUM-pdf

67

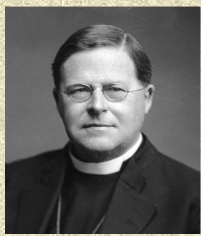
1933

Readings in St. John's Gospel

(First Series: Chapters I-XII)

London: Macmillan & Co.

William Temple



and the Word was divine

READINGS

IN

ST. JOHN'S GOSPEL

(FIRST SERIES: CHAPTERS I-XII)

BY

WILLIAM TEMPLE

ARCHBISHOP OF YORK

MACMILLAN AND CO., LIMITED
ST. MARTIN'S STREET, LONDON
1933

68

1933

The Gospel of the Hellenists

New York: Henry Holt and Company

Benjamin W. Bacon

And the Logos was in nature divine

THE GOSPEL OF THE HELLENISTS

BY

BENJAMIN W. BACON, D.D., LITT.D. (OXON.)
SOMETIME BUCKINGHAM PROFESSOR OF NEW TESTAMENT CRITICISM AND EXEGESIS IN YALE UNIVERSITY

EDITED BY

CARL H. KRAELING, PH.D.
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF NEW TESTAMENT CRITICISM IN YALE UNIVERSITY

NEW YORK
HENRY HOLT AND COMPANY

PROLOGUE

A HYMN IN THREE STROPHES. 1:1-18

FIRST STROPHE

The Logos and God

1:1 In the beginning was the Logos.[1]
And the Logos was inherent in God.
And the Logos was in nature divine.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.
3 All things came to being through him;
Without him nothing received existence.

4 Through him the creation was infused with life,
And the life was the guiding-light of men.
5 The light shineth in the darkness;
But the darkness overcame it not.

6 There came a man, sent from God, whose name was R
7 John. The same came for witness, that he might bear witness of the Light, that all might believe through 8 him. He was not the Light, but came that he might bear witness of the Light.

[1] [Professor Bacon's original typescript rendered this verse, "In the beginning was Thought. Thought belonged to God. Thought was in nature divine." This rendering he subsequently changed, his pen and ink corrections giving the following translation: "In the beginning was Soul. Soul was inherent in God. Soul was in nature divine." (For his interpretation of the word "Soul" as used in this connection see below p. 321 and p. 347.) Random notes indicate that he had also contemplated the possibility of interpreting Logos as "the principle of order," associating Christ so conceived with the thought of Rev. 3:14. In view of Professor Bacon's own uncertainty and the limitations which translation places upon interpretation, it has seemed wise to use the untranslatable 'Logos' in the text.]

69

1936

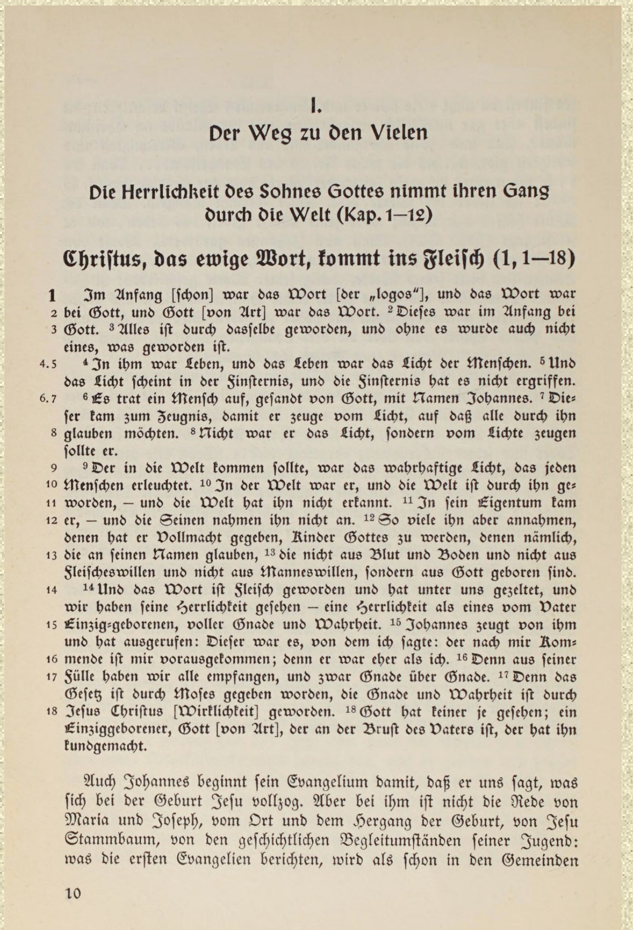
Das Johannes-Evangelium: übersetzt und ausgelegt

Leipzig und Hamburg: Gustav Schloetzmanns Verlagsbuchhandlung (Gustav Fick)

Wilhelm Schütz

and a god [of a kind] was the Word

und Gott [von Art] war das Wort



I.

Der Weg zu den Vielen

Die Herrlichkeit des Sohnes Gottes nimmt ihren Gang durch die Welt (Kap. 1—12)

Christus, das ewige Wort, kommt ins Fleisch (1, 1—18)

1 Im Anfang [schon] war das Wort [der „logos"], und das Wort war bei Gott, und Gott [von Art] war das Wort. 2 Dieses war im Anfang bei Gott. 3 Alles ist durch dasselbe geworden, und ohne es wurde auch nicht eines, was geworden ist.

4 In ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen. 5 Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis, und die Finsternis hat es nicht ergriffen.

6 Es trat ein Mensch auf, gesandt von Gott, mit Namen Johannes. 7 Dieser kam zum Zeugnis, damit er zeuge vom Licht, auf daß alle durch ihn glauben möchten. 8 Nicht war er das Licht, sondern vom Lichte zeugen sollte er.

9 Der in die Welt kommen sollte, war das wahrhaftige Licht, das jeden Menschen erleuchtet. 10 In der Welt war er, und die Welt ist durch ihn geworden, — und die Welt hat ihn nicht erkannt. 11 In sein Eigentum kam er, — und die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht an. 12 So viele ihn aber annahmen, denen hat er Vollmacht gegeben, Kinder Gottes zu werden, denen nämlich, die an seinen Namen glauben, 13 die nicht aus Blut und Boden und nicht aus Fleischeswillen und nicht aus Manneswillen, sondern aus Gott geboren sind.

14 Und das Wort ist Fleisch geworden und hat unter uns gezeltet, und wir haben seine Herrlichkeit gesehen — eine Herrlichkeit als eines vom Vater Einzig-geborenen, voller Gnade und Wahrheit. 15 Johannes zeugt von ihm und hat ausgerufen: Dieser war es, von dem ich sagte: der nach mir Kommende ist mir vorausgekommen; denn er war eher als ich. 16 Denn aus seiner Fülle haben wir alle empfangen, und zwar Gnade über Gnade. 17 Denn das Gesetz ist durch Moses gegeben worden, die Gnade und Wahrheit ist durch Jesus Christus [Wirklichkeit] geworden. 18 Gott hat keiner je gesehen; ein Einziggeborener, Gott [von Art], der an der Brust des Vaters ist, der hat ihn kundgemacht.

Auch Johannes beginnt sein Evangelium damit, daß er uns sagt, was sich bei der Geburt Jesu vollzog. Aber bei ihm ist nicht die Rede von Maria und Joseph, vom Ort und dem Hergang der Geburt, von Jesu Stammbaum, von den geschichtlichen Begleitumständen seiner Jugend: was die ersten Evangelien berichten, wird als schon in den Gemeinden

10

https://archive.org/details/dasjohannesevang0000scht

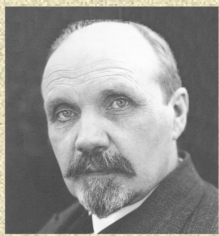
70

1938

Briefe über das Johannesevangelium

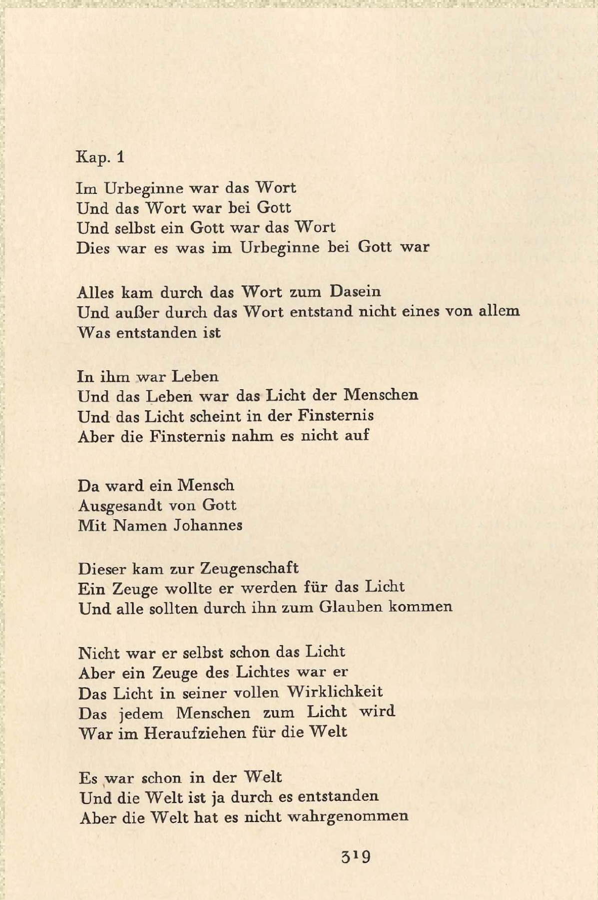
Stuttgart: Verlag Urachhaus

Friedrich Rittelmeyer



And himself a god was the Word

Und selbst ein Gott war das Wort



Kap. 1

Im Urbeginne war das Wort
Und das Wort war bei Gott
Und selbst ein Gott war das Wort
Dies war es was im Urbeginne bei Gott war

Alles kam durch das Wort zum Dasein
Und außer durch das Wort entstand nicht eines von allem
Was entstanden ist

In ihm war Leben
Und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen
Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis
Aber die Finsternis nahm es nicht auf

Da ward ein Mensch
Ausgesandt von Gott
Mit Namen Johannes

Dieser kam zur Zeugenschaft
Ein Zeuge wollte er werden für das Licht
Und alle sollten durch ihn zum Glauben kommen

Nicht war er selbst schon das Licht
Aber ein Zeuge des Lichtes war er
Das Licht in seiner vollen Wirklichkeit
Das jedem Menschen zum Licht wird
War im Heraufziehen für die Welt

Es war schon in der Welt
Und die Welt ist ja durch es entstanden
Aber die Welt hat es nicht wahrgenommen

319

71

1939

The Message of Jesus Christ:
The Tradition of the Early Christian Communities trans. by Frederick Clifton Grant
New York: Charles Scribner's Sons
Martin Dibelius

and of godlike nature was the everlasting Word

THE MESSAGE OF JESUS

By

MARTIN DIBELIUS

Professor in the University of Heidelberg

1939

NICHOLSON AND WATSON
LIMITED LONDON

In the beginning was the everlasting Word and the everlasting Word was with God
and of godlike nature was the everlasting Word,
hence it was in the beginning with God.
By its activity all things came into being and naught that exists came apart from its activity.

And the everlasting Word became man upon earth and sojourned in our midst
and we beheld his glory—
glory given an only begotten by a Father—full of grace and truth.

And from his fulness have we all partaken:
grace upon grace.
For Moses gave the Law,
but Jesus Christ brought grace and truth.

No one has ever seen God;
the only-begotten Son,
who was in the Father's bosom,
he has made him known. —John 1:1–3, 14, 16–18.

https://archive.org/details/messageofjesus0000dibe

72

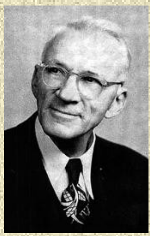
1943

The New Testament.

The Gospels: A Translation, Harmony and Annotations

St. Louis–Chicago–New York–Cincinnati: John S. Swift Co. Inc.

Ervin Edward Stringfellow



and the Word was Divine

THE GOSPELS

A TRANSLATION, HARMONY AND ANNOTATIONS

by

ERVIN EDWARD STRINGFELLOW, A. M.

Professor of New Testament
Language and Literature in Drake University

E.E. Stringfellow

PLANOGRAPHED BY
JOHN S. SWIFT CO., INC.
ST. LOUIS-CHICAGO-NEW YORK-CINCINNATI
PRINTED IN ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, U. S. A.

I. THE PERIOD OF PREPARATION: THIRTY THREE YEARS OF PRIVATE LIFE

From the Birth of Jesus Until the Beginning of John the Baptist's Ministry.

(December 25, 7 B.C. to October, 27 A.D.)

I. Prologue[2] of the Fourth Gospel.[1]

John 1:1-18.

1 In the beginning was the Word,[3] and the Word was face to face with God, and the Word was Divine.[4] 2 He was in the beginning face to face with God. 3 All things came into being through him, and apart from him not one thing came into being. 4 That which has come into being was in him, life, and the life was the light of men. 5 And the light is shining in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. 6 There arose a man sent from God; his name was John.[5] 7 This man came for witnessing, that he might witness concerning the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but (he came) that he might witness concerning the light. 9 The genuine light, which lights every man, was in the act of coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world came into being through him, and the world did not know him. 11 He came into his own home, and his own people did not receive him. 12 But as many as received him, he gave to them authority to become children of God, (even) to them who believe on his name, 13 who were begotten, not of bloods,[6] nor yet of the will of the flesh, nor yet of the will of a man, but of God. 14 And the Word became flesh, and pitched his tent among us, and we beheld his glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father full of grace and truth. 15 John witnessed concerning him and has cried aloud saying, "This was he regarding whom I said, He that comes after me (in time) has precedence over me, for (in reality) he did precede me. 16 For we all received from his fulness, even grace after grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses,[7] grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only-begotten, who is Divine, who is in the bosom of the Father - he it is that interpreted him.

Explanations:

1. John the Apostle. The Fourth Gospel is that according to John the apostle; son of Zebedee and Salome of Galilee (Mt. 27:56; Mk. 15:40; brother of James; cousin of Jesus; a fisherman (Mk. 1:19); partner of his father, brother James, and Simon (Lk. 5:10); disciple of John the Baptist (Jn. 1:35-40); with James designated by Jesus as Boanerges (Mk. 3:17; 9:38; Lk. 9:54-56); requested special honor of Jesus (Mk. 10:35-41); reclined on Jesus' bosom at the last supper (Jn. 13:23); acquainted with the high priest (Jn. 18:15); had committed to him at the cross the care of Jesus' mother, his aunt (Jn. 19:26,27); one of the first to empty tomb (Jn. 20:2-10); had a long continued service (Jn. 21:20-23); with Peter healed the lame man (Ac. 3:1-11); before the Sanhedrin (Ac. 4:1-22); with Peter received commission to Samaria (Ac. 8:14-24); pillar of the church (Gal. 2:9); exiled to Patmos (Rev. 1:9); author of Revelation (1:4). The Johns of the New Testament are: (1) John, the son of Zebedee, the apostle; (2) John the Baptist; (3) John (Jonah) the father of Simon Peter and Andrew (Mt. 16:17; Jn. 1:42); (4) John of the Sanhedrin (Ac. 4:6). John the Presbyter, the possible author of the Fourth Gospel and the three epistles, is not mentioned in the New Testament.
2. The prologue. This introduction to the Gospel has been designated "the Gospel in miniature". It contains three leading ideas, which are also emphasized in the book as a whole. These three ideas are: (1) The messiahship of Jesus. (2) The rejection of Jesus by the Jews. (3) The acceptance of Jesus by faith on the part of many. The purpose of the prologue is fourfold: (1) To appeal to Jewish thought that emphasized God's word as his power. (2) To answer the Gnostic who taught that God could have nothing to do with an evil world. (3) To set forth Jesus as preexistent, yet to refute the Gnostics who denied his incarnation. (4) To counteract the teaching that John the Baptist was the Messiah.
3. The Word. The primary meaning of "word" (logos) is "the spoken word as expressive of thought". The Greeks had used the term to denote the principle which maintains order in the world. In Jesus' day the Jews used the term to denote the will of God manifested in personal action. In Philo the "Word" was the sum of all God's activities in the world.

73

1945

NORWEGIAN

Det nye testamente i ny oversettelse. I: Evangeliet

Oslo: H. Aschehoug & Co.

Johan Lyder Brun

and the Word was of divine kind og Ordet var av guddomsart

LYDER BRUN

DET NYE TESTAMENTE

I NY OVERSETTELSE

I

Evangeliet

OSLO 1945

FORLAGT AV H. ASCHEHOUG & CO.
(W. NYGAARD)

Evangeliet
efter Johannes

Ordet ble kjød

1 I begynnelsen var Ordet, og Ordet var hos Gud, og Ordet var av guddomsart. 2 Det var i begynnelsen hos Gud. 3 Alt er blitt til ved det, og uten det er ikke en eneste ting blitt til av det som er. 4 I det var liv, og livet var menneskenes lys. 5 Og lyset skinner i mørket; men mørket har ikke fått bukt med det.

6 En mann stod frem, utsendt av Gud, hans navn var Johannes. 7 Han kom for å frembære vidnesbyrd: for å vidne om lyset, forat alle skulde komme til tro ved ham. 8 Han var ikke selv lyset, men skulde vidne om lyset. 9 Det sanne lys — det som opplyser hvert menneske — skulde nu komme til verden. 10 Han var i verden, og verden var blitt til ved ham; men verden kjente ham ikke. 11 Han kom til sitt eget, men hans egne tok ikke imot ham. 12 Men alle som tok imot ham, dem gav han rett og makt til å bli Guds barn — dem som tror på hans navn. 13 Og de er ikke født av blod, ikke av kjødelig vilje, ikke av mannevilje, men av Gud.

14 Ja, Ordet ble kjød og tok bolig iblant oss, og vi fikk skue hans herlighet: en herlighet som Guds énbårne har den fra Faderen, full av nåde og sannhet. 15 Johannes vidner om ham, når han roper: «Han som kommer efter meg, er kommet foran meg; for han var før meg.» 16 Ja, av hans fylde har vi alle fått — nåde og atter igjen nåde. 17 For loven ble gitt ved Moses; nåden og sannheten er kommet ved Jesus Kristus. 18 Gud har ingen noensinne sett; den énbårne

1946

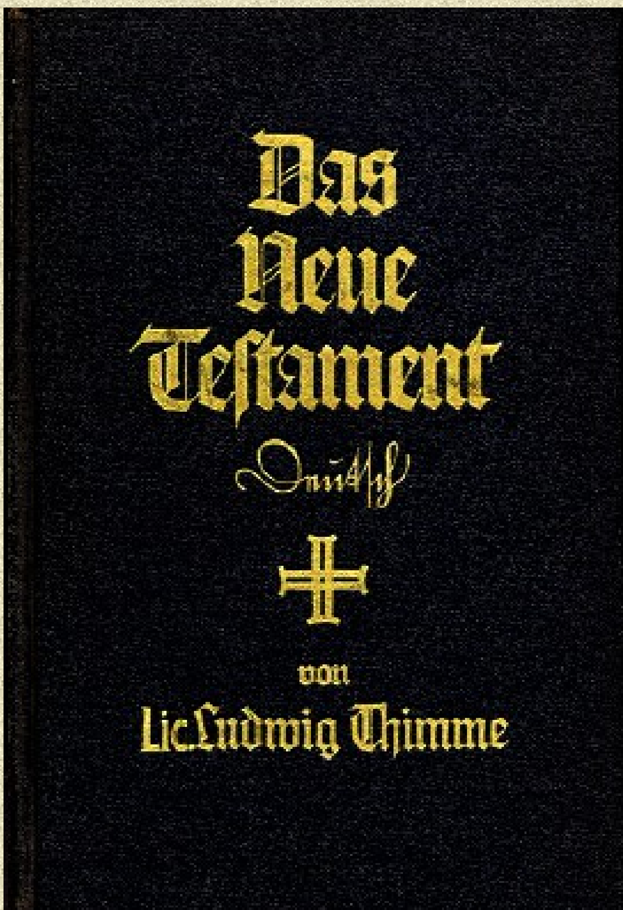
Das Neue Testament für die bibellesende Gemeinde (Ed. 1)

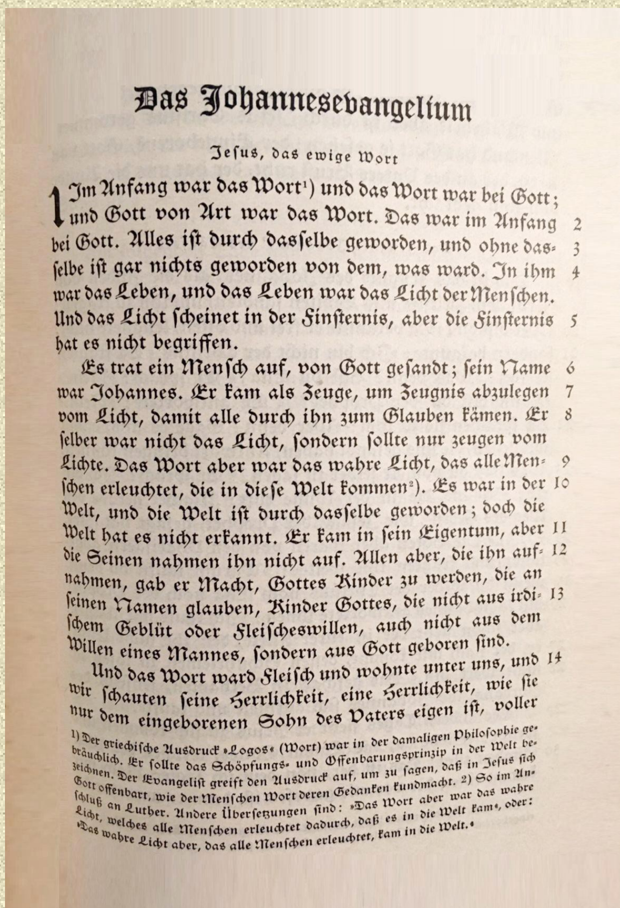
Stuttgart: Privilegierte Württembergische Bibelanstalt

Ludwig Thimme

and god of a kind was the Word

und Gott von Art war das Wort





Das Johannesevangelium

Jesus, das ewige Wort

1 Im Anfang war das Wort¹) und das Wort war bei Gott; und Gott von Art war das Wort. 2 Das war im Anfang bei Gott. 3 Alles ist durch dasselbe geworden, und ohne dasselbe ist gar nichts geworden von dem, was ward. 4 In ihm war das Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen. 5 Und das Licht scheinet in der Finsternis, aber die Finsternis hat es nicht begriffen.

6 Es trat ein Mensch auf, von Gott gesandt; sein Name war Johannes. 7 Er kam als Zeuge, um Zeugnis abzulegen vom Licht, damit alle durch ihn zum Glauben kämen. 8 Er selber war nicht das Licht, sondern sollte nur zeugen vom Lichte. 9 Das Wort aber war das wahre Licht, das alle Menschen erleuchtet, die in diese Welt kommen²). 10 Es war in der Welt, und die Welt ist durch dasselbe geworden; doch die Welt hat es nicht erkannt. 11 Er kam in sein Eigentum, aber die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf. 12 Allen aber, die ihn aufnahmen, gab er Macht, Gottes Kinder zu werden, die an seinen Namen glauben, 13 Kinder Gottes, die nicht aus irdischem Geblüt oder Fleischeswillen, auch nicht aus dem Willen eines Mannes, sondern aus Gott geboren sind.

14 Und das Wort ward Fleisch und wohnte unter uns, und wir schauten seine Herrlichkeit, eine Herrlichkeit, wie sie nur dem eingeborenen Sohn des Vaters eigen ist, voller

1) Der griechische Ausdruck »Logos« (Wort) war in der damaligen Philosophie gebräuchlich. Er sollte das Schöpfungs- und Offenbarungsprinzip in der Welt bezeichnen. Der Evangelist greift den Ausdruck auf, um zu sagen, daß in Jesus sich Gott offenbart, wie der Menschen Wort deren Gedanken kundmacht. 2) So im Anschluß an Luther. Andere Übersetzungen sind: »Das Wort aber war das wahre Licht, welches alle Menschen erleuchtet dadurch, daß es in die Welt kam«, oder: »Das wahre Licht aber, das alle Menschen erleuchtet, kam in die Welt.«

75a

1947

DUTCH

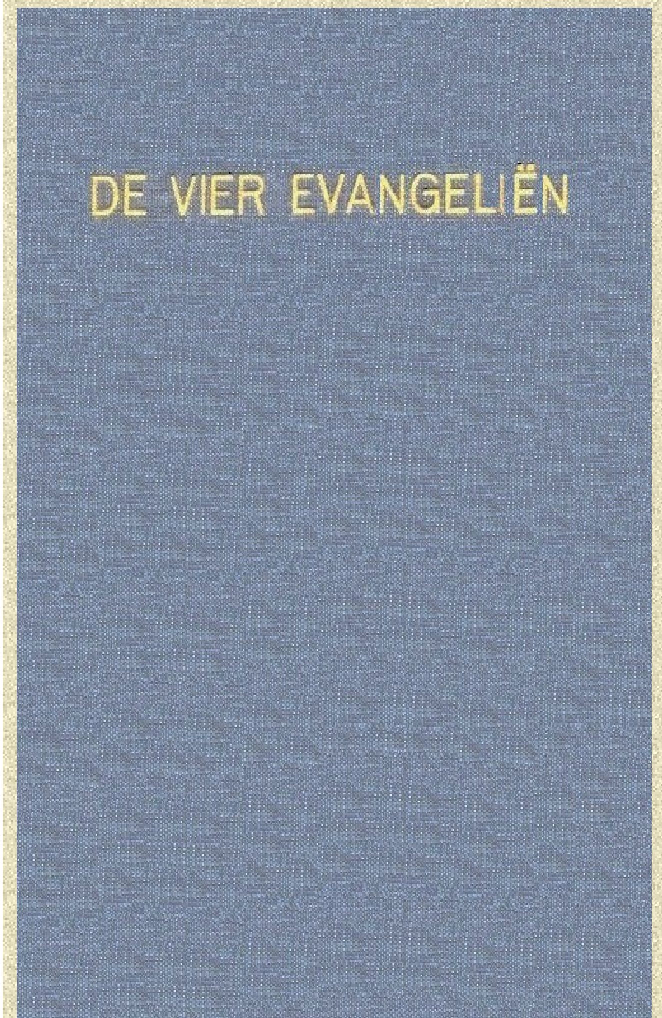
De vier Evangeliën: uit de Griekse tekst vertaald

Amsterdam: Christengemeenschap

Heinrich A. P. J. Ogilvie

and a divine being was the Word

en een goddelijk wezen was het Woord



I

In den oerbeginne was het Woord, en het Woord was bij God
en een goddelijk wezen was het Woord;
dit was in den oerbeginne bij God.

Alles is door hetzelve geworden,
en niets van het gewordene is anders
dan door het Woord ontstaan.

In hetzelve was het Leven,
en het Leven was het Licht der menschen.
En het Licht schijnt in de duisternis,
en de duisternis heeft het niet begrepen.

Er is een mensch geworden,
van God gezonden,
zijn naam Joannes.
Deze kwam tot getuigenis,
om van het Licht te getuigen,
opdat zij allen door hem gelooven zouden.
Hij was niet het Licht,
maar een getuige van het Licht.
Want het Waarachtige Licht,
dat iederen mensch verlicht,
wilde in de wereld komen.

Het Woord was in de wereld
en de wereld is door hetzelve geworden,
en de wereld kende het niet.
Tot de Enkelingen kwam het,
en de Enkelingen namen het niet op.
Zoovelen het opnamen,
hun gaf het de kracht Kinderen Gods te worden.

213

75b

1968

DUTCH

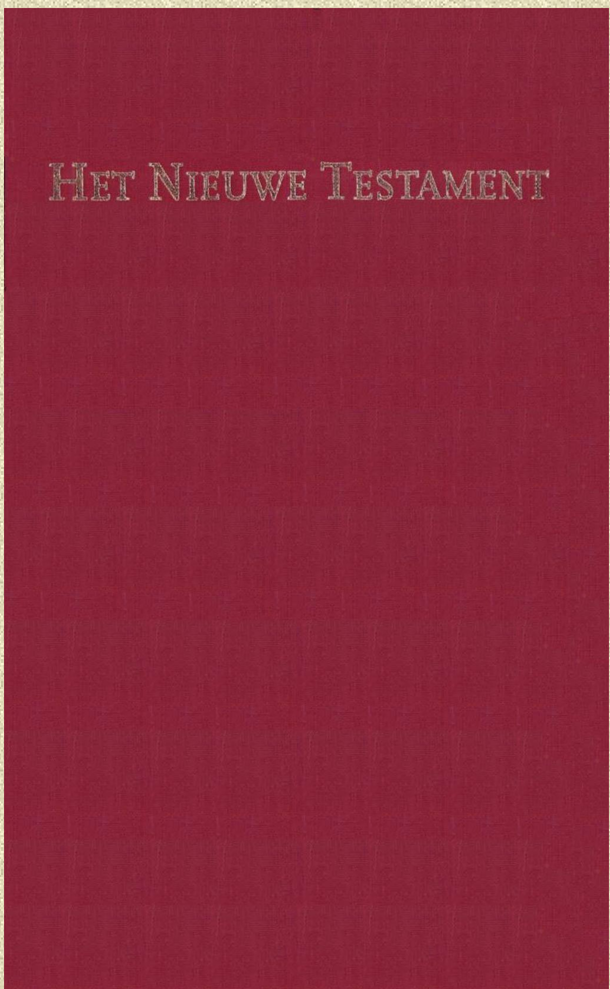
Het Nieuwe Testament

Rotterdam: Boekerij van de Christengemeenschap

Heinrich A. P. J. Ogilvie

and a divine being was the Word

en goddelijk was het Woordwezen



In het oerbegin was het scheppende Woordwezen en het Woordwezen was bij God
en goddelijk was het Woordwezen;
dit was in het oerbegin bij God.

Alles is door hetzelve geworden
en niets van het gewordene is anders
dan door het Woord ontstaan.

In hetzelve was het Leven
en het Leven was het Licht der mensen.
En het Licht schijnt in de duisternis
en de duisternis heeft het niet begrepen.

Er is een mens geworden,
van God gezonden,
zijn naam is Joannes.
Deze kwam tot getuigenis
om van het Licht te getuigen,
opdat zij allen door hem geloven zouden.
Hij was niet het Licht,
maar hij was er om te getuigen van het Licht.
Want het Waarachtige Licht,
dat ieder mens verlicht,
wilde in de wereld komen.

In de wereld was het Woordwezen
en de wereld is door hetzelve geworden
en de wereld kende het niet.
Tot de Enkelingen kwam het
en de Enkelingen namen het niet op.
Zovelen het opnamen,
hun gaf het de volmacht Kinderen Gods te worden.
Zij vertrouwden in zijn Naam.
Zij zijn niet uit de bloedskrachten, niet uit het willen van de menselijke natuur noch uit de wil van een man, maar uit God geboren.

En het Wereldwoord is aarde-mens geworden

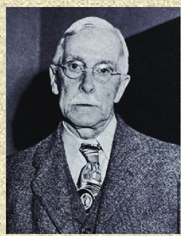
76

1947

The Four Gospels: A New Translation (Ed. 2)

New York - London: Harper & Brothers Publishers

Charles C. Torrey



and the Word was god

The Four Gospels

A NEW TRANSLATION

By CHARLES CUTLER TORREY

Professor of Semitic Languages in Yale University

SECOND EDITION

HARPER & BROTHERS PUBLISHERS
New York and London

The Gospel of John

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with 2* God, and the Word was god. When he was in the be- 3 ginning with God all things were created through him; 4 without him came no created thing into being. In him was 5 life, and the life was the light of men; and the light shone on in the darkness, and the darkness overcame it not.

6 There was a man sent of God, whose name was John. 7 He came for witness, to testify concerning the light, that 8* all through him might believe. He was not the light, but 9 the one who was to bear witness to the light. The true light, which illumines every man, was coming into the 10 world. He was in the world, and the world was created 11 through him; but the world knew him not. He came to his 12 own, but his own received him not. To those who received him he gave power to become children of God; to those 13* believing on the name of him who was born not of blood, nor of carnal desire, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14* The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory; glory as of an only son, bestowed by a 15* father; fulness of grace and truth. John bore witness concerning him, and proclaimed: "This is he of whom I said, The one who is coming after me has already superseded 16* me, for he was before me; he of whose fulness we all have 17* received, even grace succeeding grace; for the law was given

https://archive.org/details/fourgospels00torruoft

77

1949

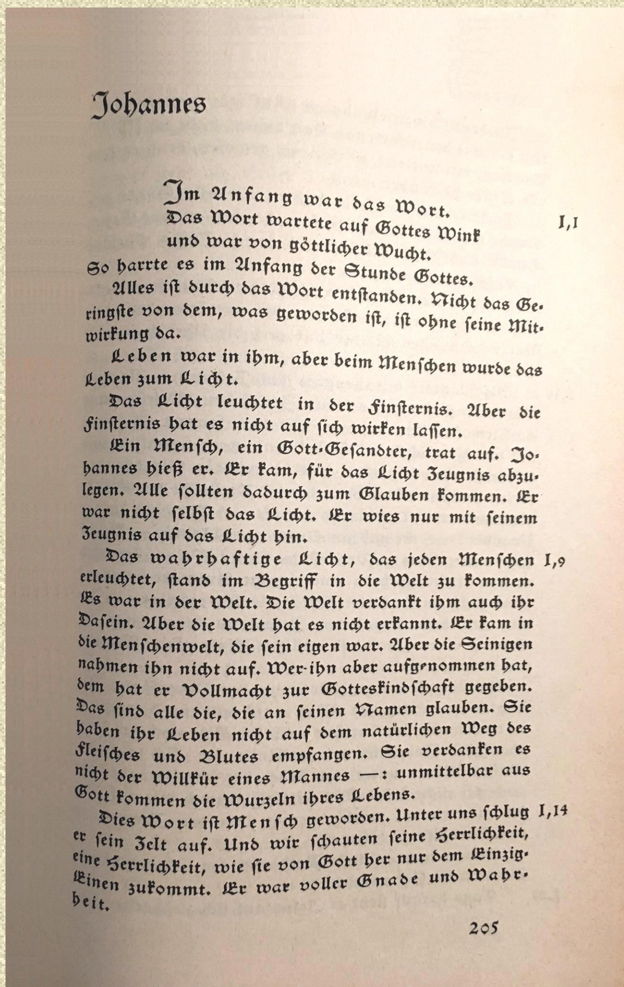
Das Neue Testament in der Sprache von heute

Heilbronn und Stuttgart: Eugen Salzer Verlag

Friedrich Pfäfflin

and was of divine weightiness

und war von göttlicher Wucht



Johannes

Im Anfang war das Wort.
Das Wort wartete auf Gottes Wink — I,1
und war von göttlicher Wucht.
So harrte es im Anfang der Stunde Gottes.

Alles ist durch das Wort entstanden. Nicht das Geringste von dem, was geworden ist, ist ohne seine Mitwirkung da.

Leben war in ihm, aber beim Menschen wurde das Leben zum Licht.

Das Licht leuchtet in der Finsternis. Aber die Finsternis hat es nicht auf sich wirken lassen.

Ein Mensch, ein Gott-Gesandter, trat auf. Johannes hieß er. Er kam, für das Licht Zeugnis abzulegen. Alle sollten dadurch zum Glauben kommen. Er war nicht selbst das Licht. Er wies nur mit seinem Zeugnis auf das Licht hin.

Das wahrhaftige Licht, das jeden Menschen (I,9) erleuchtet, stand im Begriff in die Welt zu kommen. Es war in der Welt. Die Welt verdankt ihm auch ihr Dasein. Aber die Welt hat es nicht erkannt. Er kam in die Menschenwelt, die sein eigen war. Aber die Seinigen nahmen ihn nicht auf. Wer ihn aber aufgenommen hat, dem hat er Vollmacht zur Gotteskindschaft gegeben. Das sind alle die, die an seinen Namen glauben. Sie haben ihr Leben nicht auf dem natürlichen Weg des Fleisches und Blutes empfangen. Sie verdanken es nicht der Willkür eines Mannes —: unmittelbar aus Gott kommen die Wurzeln ihres Lebens.

Dies Wort ist Mensch geworden. Unter uns schlug (I,14) er sein Zelt auf. Und wir schauten seine Herrlichkeit, eine Herrlichkeit, wie sie von Gott her nur dem Einzig-Einen zukommt. Er war voller Gnade und Wahrheit.

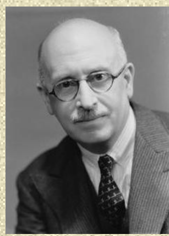
205

1949

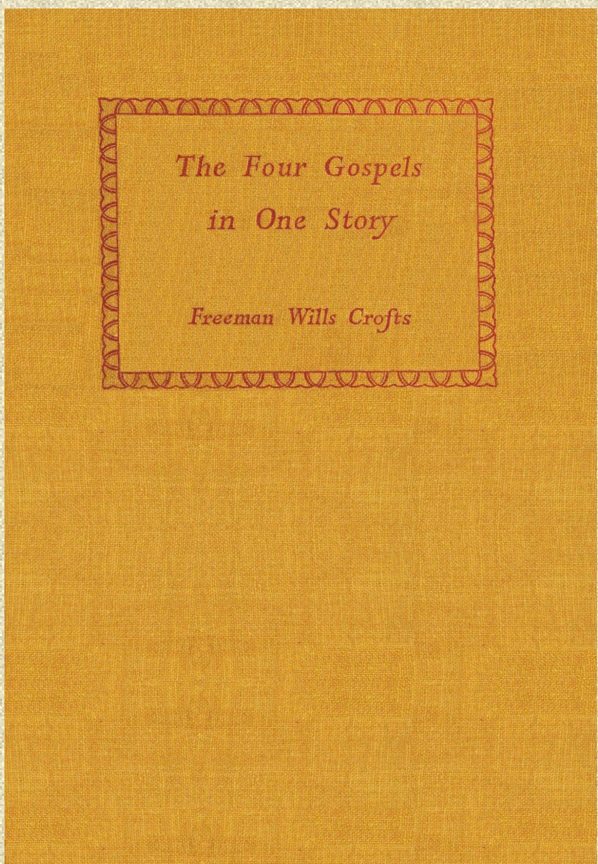
The Four Gospels in One Story,
Written as a Modern Biography:
With difficult passages clarified and Explanatory Notes

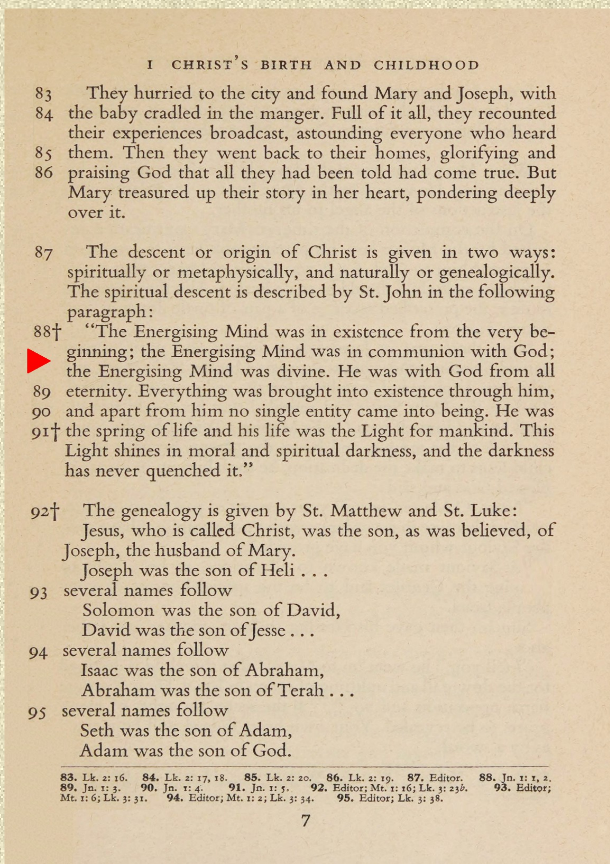
London - New York - Toronto: Longmans, Green and Co

Freeman Wills Crofts



the Energising Mind was divine





I CHRIST'S BIRTH AND CHILDHOOD

83 They hurried to the city and found Mary and Joseph, with 84 the baby cradled in the manger. Full of it all, they recounted their experiences broadcast, astounding everyone who heard 85 them. Then they went back to their homes, glorifying and 86 praising God that all they had been told had come true. But Mary treasured up their story in her heart, pondering deeply over it.

87 The descent or origin of Christ is given in two ways: spiritually or metaphysically, and naturally or genealogically. The spiritual descent is described by St. John in the following paragraph:

88† "The Energising Mind was in existence from the very beginning; the Energising Mind was in communion with God; the Energising Mind was divine. He was with God from all 89 eternity. Everything was brought into existence through him, 90 and apart from him no single entity came into being. He was 91† the spring of life and his life was the Light for mankind. This Light shines in moral and spiritual darkness, and the darkness has never quenched it."

92† The genealogy is given by St. Matthew and St. Luke:
Jesus, who is called Christ, was the son, as was believed, of Joseph, the husband of Mary.
Joseph was the son of Heli . . .
93 several names follow
Solomon was the son of David,
David was the son of Jesse . . .
94 several names follow
Isaac was the son of Abraham,
Abraham was the son of Terah . . .
95 several names follow
Seth was the son of Adam,
Adam was the son of God.

83. Lk. 2: 16. 84. Lk. 2: 17, 18. 85. Lk. 2: 20. 86. Lk. 2: 19. 87. Editor. 88. Jn. 1: 1, 2. 89. Jn. 1: 3. 90. Jn. 1: 4. 91. Jn. 1: 5. 92. Editor; Mt. 1: 16; Lk. 3: 23*b*. 93. Editor; Mt. 1: 6; Lk. 3: 31. 94. Editor; Mt. 1: 2; Lk. 3: 34. 95. Editor; Lk. 3: 38.

7

https://archive.org/details/fourgospelsinone0000crof

79

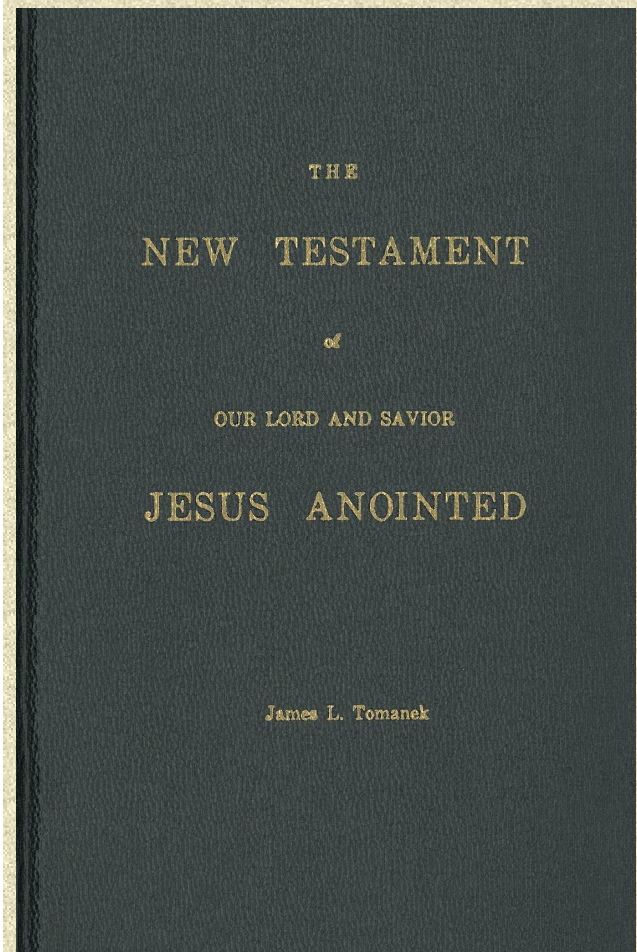
1958

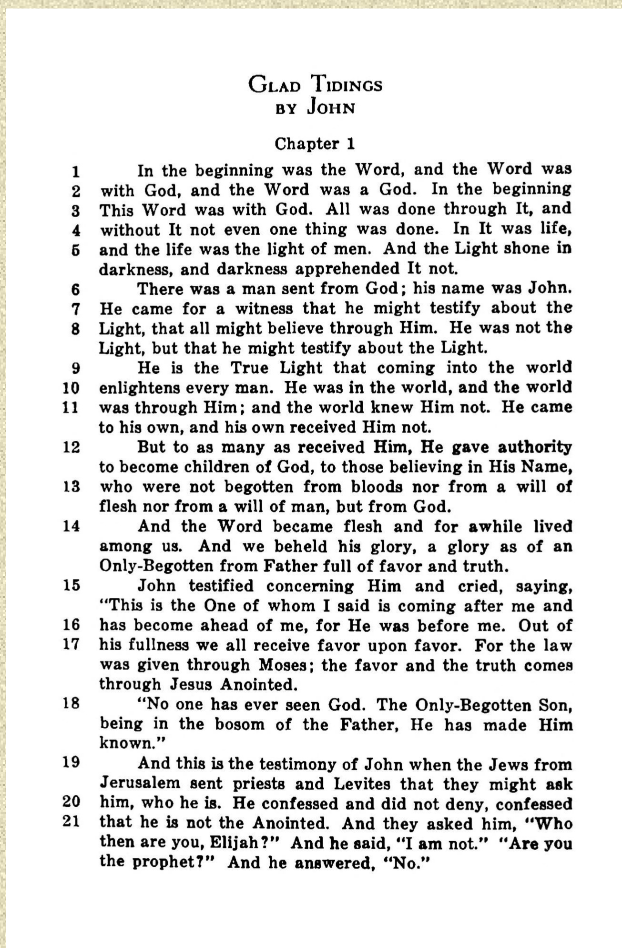
The New Testament of our Lord and Savior Jesus Anointed

Pocatello: Arrowhead Press, USA

James L. Tomanek

and the Word was a God





GLAD TIDINGS
BY JOHN

Chapter 1

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was 2 with God, and the Word was a God. In the beginning 3 This Word was with God. All was done through It, and 4 without It not even one thing was done. In It was life, 5 and the life was the light of men. And the Light shone in darkness, and darkness apprehended It not.

6 There was a man sent from God; his name was John. 7 He came for a witness that he might testify about the 8 Light, that all might believe through Him. He was not the Light, but that he might testify about the Light.

9 He is the True Light that coming into the world 10 enlightens every man. He was in the world, and the world 11 was through Him; and the world knew Him not. He came to his own, and his own received Him not.

12 But to as many as received Him, He gave authority to become children of God, to those believing in His Name, 13 who were not begotten from bloods nor from a will of flesh nor from a will of man, but from God.

14 And the Word became flesh and for awhile lived among us. And we beheld his glory, a glory as of an Only-Begotten from Father full of favor and truth.

15 John testified concerning Him and cried, saying, "This is the One of whom I said is coming after me and 16 has become ahead of me, for He was before me. Out of 17 his fullness we all receive favor upon favor. For the law was given through Moses; the favor and the truth comes through Jesus Anointed.

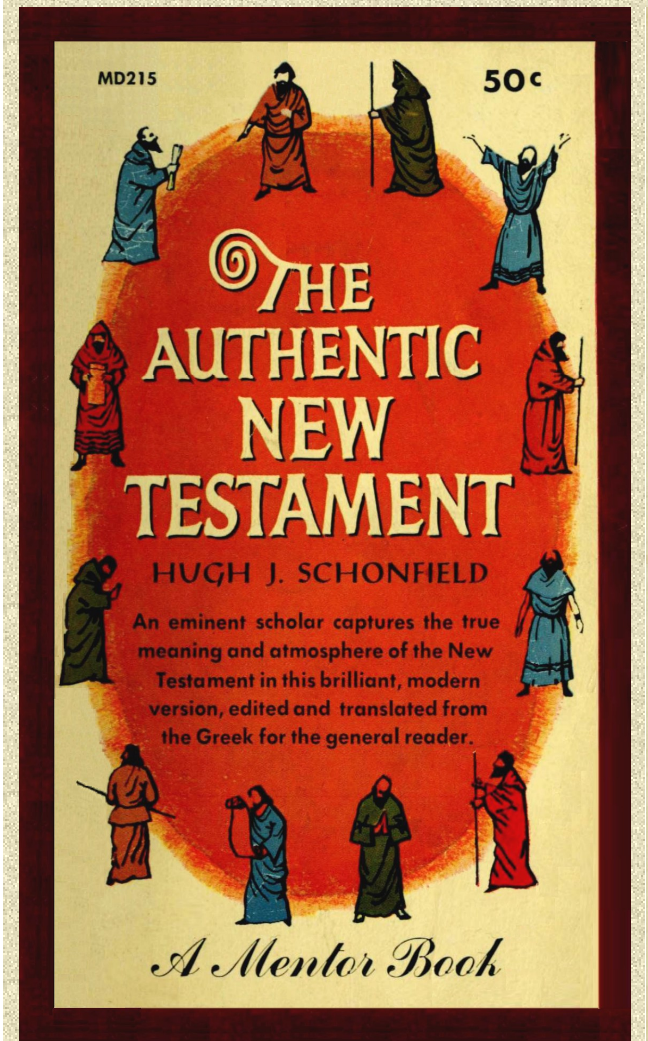
18 "No one has ever seen God. The Only-Begotten Son, being in the bosom of the Father, He has made Him known."

19 And this is the testimony of John when the Jews from Jerusalem sent priests and Levites that they might ask 20 him, who he is. He confessed and did not deny, confessed 21 that he is not the Anointed. And they asked him, "Who then are you, Elijah?" And he said, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" And he answered, "No."

https://archive.org/stream/TheNewTestamentForEnglishReadersAlfordH.rOpts/NewTestament TomanekJL 1958-opt

1958
The Authentic New Testament
New York: The New American Library, USA
Hugh J. Schonfield

So the Word was divine



THE GOOD NEWS OF JESUS CHRIST

John's Version

PROLOGUE[1]

In the beginning was the Word.[2]
And the Word was with God.
So the Word was divine.
He was in the beginning with God.
By him everything had being.
And without him nothing had being.[3]
What had being by him was Life.
And Life was the Light of men.
And the Light shines in the Darkness.
And the Darkness could not suppress it.

There was a man sent from God called John. He came as a witness, to testify about the Light, that all might believe through him. He was not himself the Light, but came that he should testify about the Light.

This was the true Light.
It illumines all who enter the world.
He was in the world, [and the world had being by him.]
But the world did not recognize him.
He came to his own domains.
And his own did not receive him.

On those who did receive him, those who believed in him,[4] he conferred the privilege of becoming children of God, who owed their being not to race, nor physical intention, nor to human design, but to God.

The Word took bodily form and dwelt with us.
And we beheld his glory.
Glory as of the Father's Only-begotten.
Full of loving-kindness and truth.

[1] The Prologue consists of a hymn interspersed with brief remarks. The hymn is antiphonal, the alternate lines being chanted as a response. Our book was published in Asia Minor early in the second century, and this hymn could well be the one mentioned by Pliny the Younger, when as Governor of Bithynia (c. A.D. 112) he wrote about the Christians to the Emperor Trajan, that 'they met on a certain fixed day before it was light and sang an antiphonal chant to Christ, as to a god'. See also Acts of John, 94-6.
[2] The Logos, the expressed concept, here personified.
[3] Cp. Prov. viii. 22-31.
[4] Cp. Jn. xii. 36, below p. 414.

389

https://archive.org/details/authenticnewtest00scho

81

1958

Reading the Gospel of John (Ed. 1)

Chicago - Philadelphia - Los Angeles: The Judson Press

James Percival Berkeley

And the Word was Divine

READING THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

By JAMES P. BERKELEY

THE JUDSON PRESS

CHICAGO PHILADELPHIA LOS ANGELES

I (1:1-5)

In the beginning was the Word,
And the Word was with God,
And the Word was Divine.

The same was in the beginning with God,
All things through him became,
And apart from him not one thing became which has become.

In him was Life,
And the Life was the Light of men,
And the Light shines in the Darkness,
And the Darkness did not overcome it.

II (1:9-13)

The Light, the True Light,
Which enlightens every man,
Was coming into the World.

In the World he was,
And the World through him became,
And the World did not know him.

He came unto his own,
And they who were his own did not receive him.

As many as received him,
To them he gave sanction to become children of God,
To those who believe on his name;
Who,
  not of blood,
  not of the will of flesh,
  not of the will of man,
But of God, were begotten.

82

1960

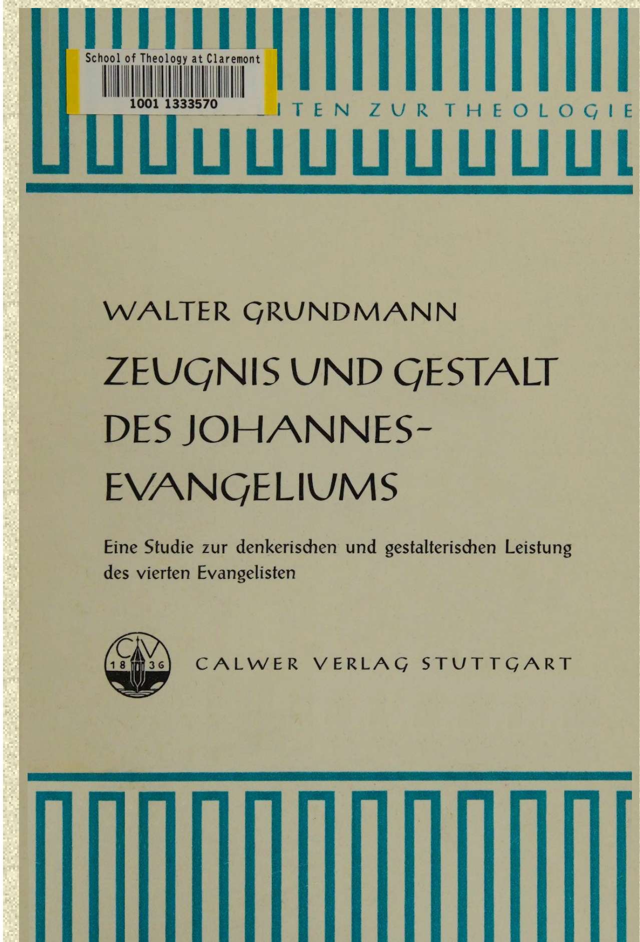
Zeugnis und Gestalt des Johannes-Evangeliums:
Eine Studie zer denkerischen und gestalterischen Leistung des vierten Evangelisten

Stuttgart: Calwer Verlag, Germany

Walter Grundmann

and god of a kind was the Logos

und Gott von Art war der Logos



Begriffe, die im Evangelium selbst nicht wieder vorkommen, z. B. der Begriff des Logos, und zugleich enthält er die entscheidenden Themen, die im Evangelium entfaltet werden.

Wenn wir die Ergebnisse der Durchforschung des Prologs zusammenfassen, ergibt sich folgendes Bild:[48]

I (1) Im Uranfang war der Logos, und der Logos war auf Gott zu,
und Gott von Art war der Logos.
(2) Dieser war im Uranfang auf Gott zu.
(3) Alles wurde durch ihn,
und ohne ihn wurde nicht eines.
(4) Was geworden ist, in ihm war das Leben.
Und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen.
(5) Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis,
und die Finsternis hat es nicht überwältigt.
(6) Es wurde ein Mensch, gesandt von Gott,
mit Namen Johannes.
(7) Dieser kam zum Zeugnis, daß er zeugte vom Licht,
daß alle durch ihn glaubten.
(8) Jener war nicht das Licht,
sondern daß er zeugte vom Licht.
(9) Er war das wahrhaftige Licht,
das jeden Menschen erleuchtet,
der in die Welt kommt.

II (10) (Der Logos) war in der Welt, und die Welt wurde durch ihn,
und die Welt erkannte ihn nicht.
(11) Er kam in sein Eigentum,
und die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf.
(12) Wie viele ihn aber aufnahmen,
denen gab er (Vollmacht), Gottes Kinder zu werden,
(12 c) die an seinen Namen glauben,
(13) die nicht aus Blut und nicht aus dem Willen des Fleisches und nicht aus dem Willen des Mannes, sondern aus Gott erzeugt sind.

[48] Die links stehenden Stücke gehören dem Hymnus an, die rechts stehenden enthalten die Zusätze und Erweiterungen; die kursiv gedruckten Partien des Hymnus sind die ältesten Bestandteile, die gesperrten Partien eine Zudichtung, wahrscheinlich vom Evangelisten oder seiner Vorlage.

28

https://archive.org/details/zeugnisundgestal0000grun

83

1961

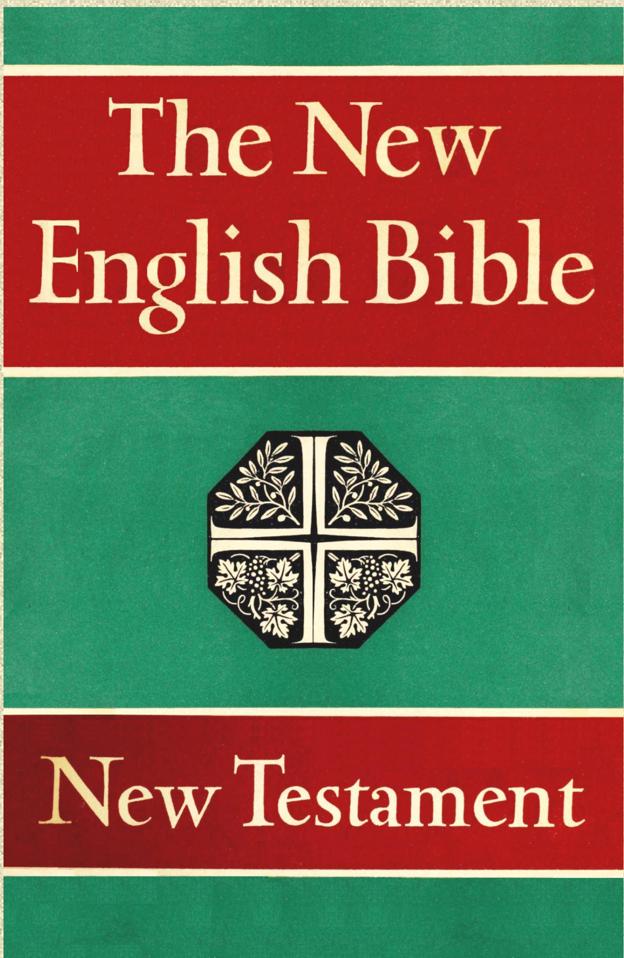
The New English Bible

Oxford University Press, Cambridge University Press

Oxford-Cambridge-New York

Charles T. Dodd

and what God was, the Word was



THE

GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

JOHN

The Coming of Christ

1 WHEN ALL THINGS began, the Word already was.[a] The Word dwelt with God, and what God was, the 2 Word was. The Word, then, was with God at the beginning, 3 and through him all things came to be; no single thing was 4 created without him. All that came to be was alive with his life,[b] 5 and that life was the light of men. The light shines on in the dark, and the darkness has never quenched it.

6, 7 There appeared a man named John, sent from God; he came as a witness to testify to the light, that all might become believers 8 through him. He was not himself the light; he came to bear witness 9 to the light. The real light which enlightens every man was even then coming into the world.[c]

10 He was in the world;[d] but the world, though it owed its being to 11 him, did not recognize him. He entered his own realm, and his own 12 would not receive him. But to all who did receive him, to those who have yielded him their allegiance, he gave the right to become 13 children of God, not born of any human stock, or by the fleshly 14 desire of a human father, but the offspring of God himself. So the Word became flesh; he came to dwell among us, and we saw his glory, such glory as befits the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth.

15 Here is John's testimony to him: he cried aloud, 'This is the man I meant when I said, "He comes after me, but takes rank before me"; for before I was born, he already was.'

16, 17 Out of his full store we have all received grace upon grace; for while the Law was given through Moses, grace and truth came

[a] Or The Word was at the creation. [b] Or no single created thing came into being without him. There was life in him... [c] Or The light was in being, light absolute, enlightening every man born into the world. [d] Or The Word, then, was in the world.

https://archive.org/details/newenglishbiblen00join

84

1967

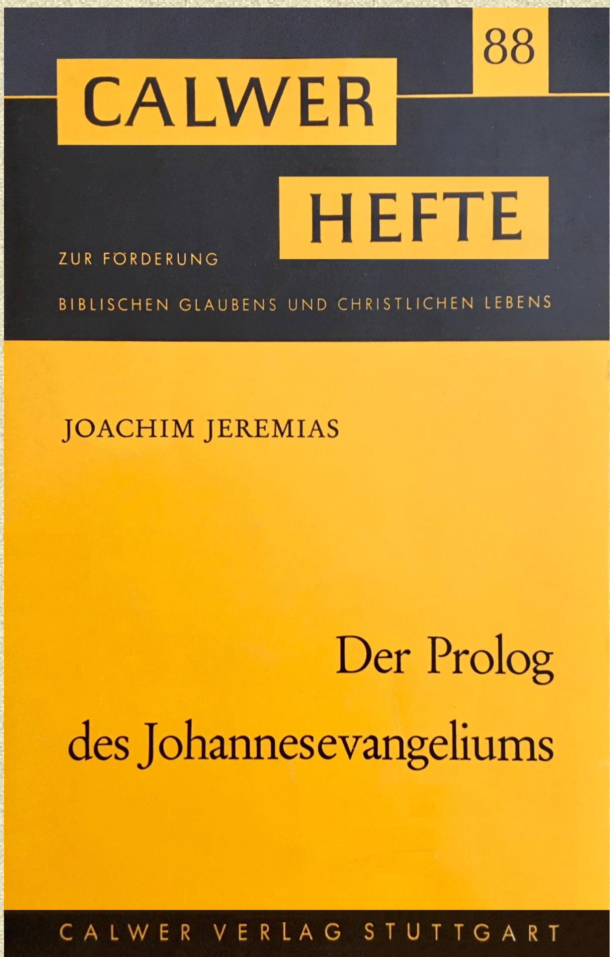
Der Prolog des Johannesevangeliums (Johannes 1, 1-18)

Stuttgart: Calwer Verlag

Joachim Jeremias

and godlike sort was the Logos

und göttlicher Art war der Logos



2. DIE GEDANKENFÜHRUNG DES PROLOGS

a) Die erste Strophe (V. 1–5): Der Logos

In dreifacher Weise wird der Logos vorgestellt:

„Im Anfang war der Logos,
und der Logos war bei Gott,
und göttlicher Art war der Logos."

Mit bewußtem Anklang an das erste Wort der Bibel: „Im Anfang schuf Gott Himmel und Erde" beginnt der Prolog. Aber das Wort „Anfang" hat im Prolog einen anderen Sinn als in der Genesis. Es bezeichnet nicht die Schöpfung, die erst später, in V. 3, erwähnt wird, sondern die vorweltliche Ewigkeit, den Uranfang, mit anderen Worten: „Im Anfang" ist Joh. 1, 1 kein temporaler, sondern ein qualitativer Begriff. Dieser Anfang umschreibt die Sphäre Gottes. Der Logos kommt aus der Ewigkeit. Wer es mit ihm zu tun hat, hat es mit dem lebendigen Gott selbst zu tun.

Sodann wird der Logos vorgestellt als der Schöpfungsmittler:

„Alle Dinge sind durch ihn geschaffen worden, und ohne ihn ist nichts geschaffen worden von allem, was ist."[3]

Was ist der Sinn dieser seltsamen christologischen Aussage von der Schöpfungsmittlung, die zuerst bei Paulus in einer

[3] Manche Exegeten verbinden die letzten Worte mit den folgenden: „Was geschaffen worden war, war in ihm Leben." Aber das gibt schwerlich einen guten Sinn. Die Schöpfung war nicht Leben (zoe), d. h. Leben im Vollsinn. Nur im Logos war Leben.

17

https://books.google.pl/books?id=J68qAQAAMAAJ (limited view)

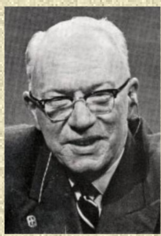
85

1968

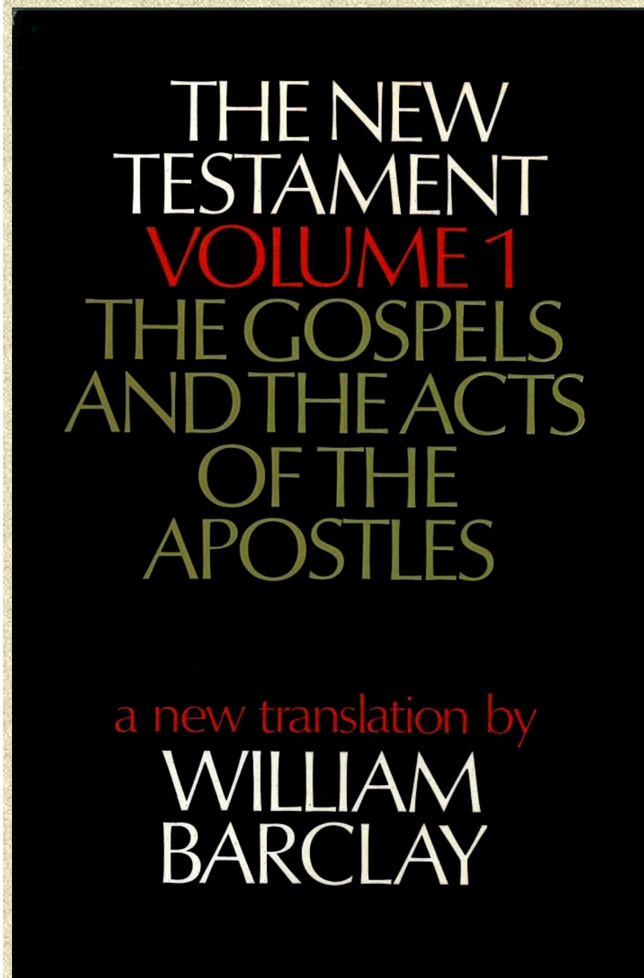
The New Testament: A New Translation

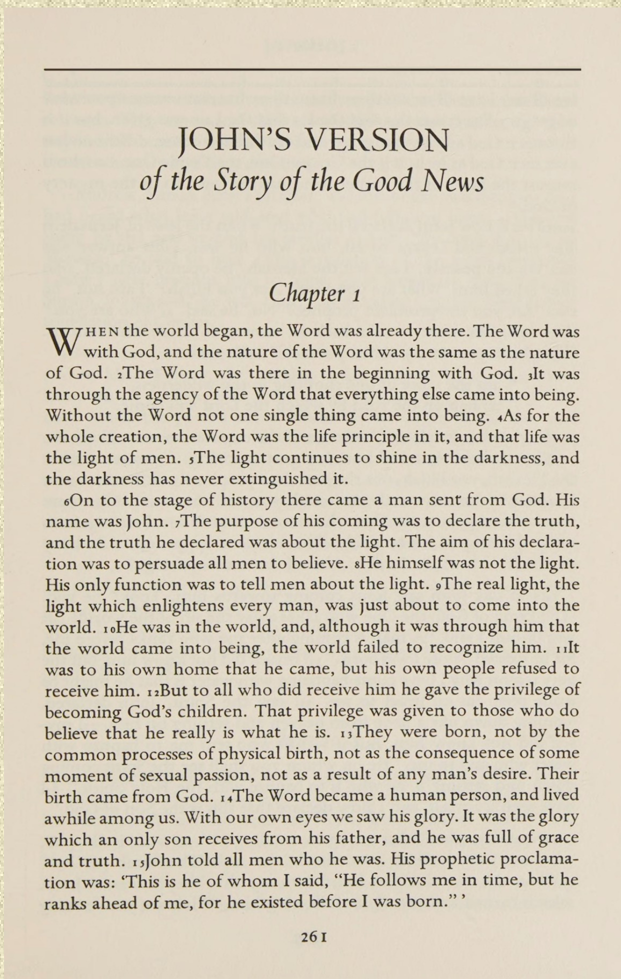
London: Collins St James's Place

William Barclay



and the nature of the Word was the same as the nature of God





JOHN'S VERSION
of the Story of the Good News

Chapter 1

WHEN the world began, the Word was already there. The Word was with God, and the nature of the Word was the same as the nature of God. 2The Word was there in the beginning with God. 3It was through the agency of the Word that everything else came into being. Without the Word not one single thing came into being. 4As for the whole creation, the Word was the life principle in it, and that life was the light of men. 5The light continues to shine in the darkness, and the darkness has never extinguished it.

6On to the stage of history there came a man sent from God. His name was John. 7The purpose of his coming was to declare the truth, and the truth he declared was about the light. The aim of his declaration was to persuade all men to believe. 8He himself was not the light. His only function was to tell men about the light. 9The real light, the light which enlightens every man, was just about to come into the world. 10He was in the world, and, although it was through him that the world came into being, the world failed to recognize him. 11It was to his own home that he came, but his own people refused to receive him. 12But to all who did receive him he gave the privilege of becoming God's children. That privilege was given to those who do believe that he really is what he is. 13They were born, not by the common processes of physical birth, not as the consequence of some moment of sexual passion, not as a result of any man's desire. Their birth came from God. 14The Word became a human person, and lived awhile among us. With our own eyes we saw his glory. It was the glory which an only son receives from his father, and he was full of grace and truth. 15John told all men who he was. His prophetic proclamation was: 'This is he of whom I said, "He follows me in time, but he ranks ahead of me, for he existed before I was born."'

261

https://archive.org/details/newtestament0000unse_j8v7

1968

Wuppertaler Studienbibel. Das Evangelium des Johannes
1. Theil: Kapitel 1 bis 10
Wuppertal: R. Brockhaus Verlag, Germany
Werner de Boor

and god [of a kind] was the Logos
und Gott [von Art] war der Logos

Das Evangelium des Johannes 1. Teil

erklärt von Dr. Werner de Boor

Wuppertaler Studienbibel

DAS GEHEIMNIS DER PERSON JESU

Johannes 1, 1–5

1 Im Anfang war der Logos (das Wort), und der Logos war bei Gott, 2 und Gott [von Art] war der Logos. * Dieser war im Anfang bei Gott. 3 * Alles wurde durch ihn, und ohne ihn wurde auch nicht eines, was 4 geworden ist. * In ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht 5 der Menschen. * Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis, und die Finsternis hat es nicht ergriffen.

Von dem Größten, was es in der Welt gibt, von dem einzig wirklich Großen und Wichtigen soll berichtet werden, von Jesus Christus, von seinem Leben, Reden, Wirken, Leiden, Sterben und Auferstehen. Der an Jesus glaubenden Gemeinde[35] soll mit diesem Bericht die ganze „Herrlichkeit" Jesu zur Stärkung, Klärung und Vertiefung ihres Glaubens gezeigt werden. Aber wie soll dieses Berichten „anfangen"?

Johannes übergeht alles, was Matthäus und Lukas von der Geburt und der Kindheit Jesu erzählen; es ist der Gemeinde schon bekannt[36]. Und es ist in sich selbst noch nicht das Eigentliche und Entscheidende, was von dem Geheimnis der Person Jesu gesagt werden muß. Johannes möchte sofort am Anfang seiner Schrift gerade auf dieses Geheimnis den Blick seiner Leser lenken, damit sie alles, was er von Jesus berichtet, in der rechten Weise verstehen. Denn er will uns durch seine ganze Schrift hindurch zeigen, wie nicht die Gaben, Taten und Wirkungen Jesu das Wichtigste sind, sondern Jesus selbst in seiner Person, in seinem wunderbaren Sein. Darum sind die Gipfelpunkte des Evangeliums, wie Johannes es uns bezeugt, die großen „Ich bin"-Worte Jesu. Jesus g i b t nicht nur Wasser, Brot, Leben, Auferstehung, Jesus i s t selber dieses alles und kann es uns nur darum wahrhaft „geben", weil er es wesensmäßig ist. Darum kann Johannes das Geheimnis der Person Jesu nicht nur wie Markus in Kürze aussprechen. Er muß mehr davon sagen. Er fängt darum mit dem Anfang an; aber mit jenem Anfang, der im letzten Sinn „der Anfang" ist, jener „Anfang", mit dem deshalb auch die ganze Bibel beginnt: „Im Anfang schuf Gott Himmel und Erde" (1 Mo 1, 1). Über diesen „Anfang" geht Johannes bewußt und in Ablehnung aller „gnostischen" Spekulationen[37] nicht hinaus. In die vorweltliche Ewigkeit Gottes sucht er nicht zu blicken. Aber das allerdings stellt er fest: An diesem Anfang „war" Er bereits, den wir als Jesus Christus kennen und von dem zu Vers 1: Jo 17, 5. 8; 1 Jo 1, 1. 2; Offb 19, 13 zu Vers 3: 1 Mo 1, 1; Ps 33, 6; 1 Ko 8, 6; Kol 1, 16; Hbr 1, 2

zu Vers 4: Jo 5, 26; 8, 12; 14, 6; 1 Jo 1, 2
zu Vers 5: Lk 1, 78 f; Jo 3, 19; 9, 5; 12, 35; 1 Th 5, 4

1/2

[35] Vgl. Einleitung S. 29.
[36] Vgl. Einleitung S. 22.
[37] Vgl. Anmerkung Einleitung S. 26 Nr. 25.

https://b-ok2.org/book/1187074/34936a

1969

SAYULA POPOLUCA (SAYULTEC) (Veracruz, Mexico)

Aye nam acuerdu iwatway Jesucristu* // *Nuevo Testamento en Popoluca de Sayula

Mexico: Sociedad Bíblica de México

Lawrence E. Clark

and the Word was (and still is) the same as God

mit ayé Palabra nije'yu Dios

Ayé nam acuerdu iwatway Jesucristu

Nuevo Testamento
en Popoluca de Sayula

SOCIEDAD BÍBLICA DE MÉXICO
México, D. F.

SAN JUAN 1

Ayé Palabra jat jayau

1 Antes ichu̱chij ayú̱j mundu tsu̱nau ayé Palabra našactu-iščapcapay Dios, mit ayé Palabra tsu̱nau mit Dios, mit ayé Palabra nije'yu Dios. 2 Je' tsu̱nau mit Dios antes ichu̱chij ayú̱j mundu. 3 Je' iwat nu'pʉjʉn cosajat, mit ca-itpate neti te je' igawatp nu'pʉjʉn itpay. 4 Je' ayé iyacpay vida, mit je' našmoygap vida, mit iyacpey luz pa jayajwat ma e'pca. 5 Ayé luz ta'cšp chitimicni'c, mit ayé chitimic iga-acpi'chu ayé luz.

6 It tu'c jayau i-ajyu'tway Dios, mit ayé jayau inʉ'jy Juan. 7 Ayé jayau min ašam testigu pa našactu-iščapcáj jeme našmoygapay luz, pa nu'pʉjʉn jayajwat ma cupʉjca ayé luz, ni'c we'n iguinʉm Juan. 8 Mit Juan caje' je' iyacp luz, po je' min pa našactu-iščapcáj jeme našmoygapay luz. 9 Ayé jeme našmoygapay luz iyacšta'cway min en ayú̱j mundu, mit ayé iyacp luz pa nu'pʉjʉn jayajwat.

10 Je' tsu̱nau en ayú̱j mundu, mit je' iwat ayú̱j mundu, po jayajwat ayú̱j mundujway iga-iščapcawu je'. 11 Je' min en ayú̱j mundu jeme je' iwatway, mit jayajwat ayú̱j mundujway igapʉctsougawu je'. 12 Po nu'pʉjʉn iguipʉctsougaway je', mit nu'pʉjʉn iguicupʉjcapay, imoygʉš derechu pa ijatcawa'n Dios iwajyat. 13 Ni'c Dios igawayjatcʉšu ašam ite̱jtat iguiwatcap, ne caje' ašam jayajwat

https://chop.bible.com/pl/bible/2129/JHN.1.PSNT

see https://tips.translation.bible/tip_verse/john-11/

88

1971
Die Bibel in heutigem Deutsch:
Die Gute Nachricht des Alten und Neuen Testaments
ohne die Spätschriften des Alten Testaments (Ed. 2) Stuttgart: Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft
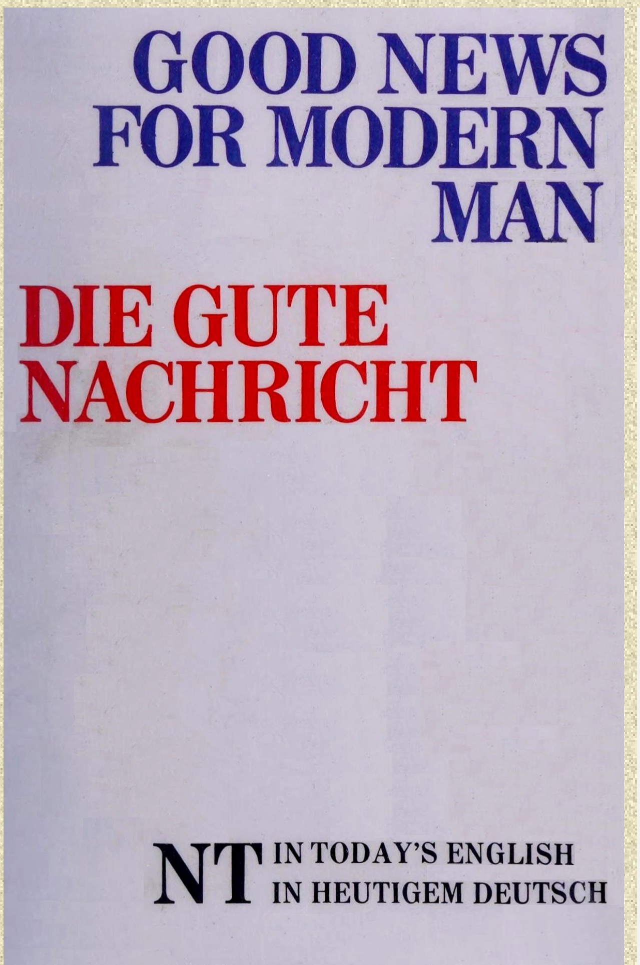
?

He was with God and in everything like God
Er war bei Gott und in allem Gott gleich



THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

The Word of Life

1 [1] Before the world was created, the Word already existed; he was with God, and he was the same as God. [2] From the very beginning, the Word was with God. [3] Through him God made all things; not one thing in all creation was made without him. [4] The Word was the source of life, and this life brought light to men. [5] The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never put it out.

[6] God sent his messenger, a man named John, [7] who came to tell people about the light. He came to tell them, so that all should hear the message and believe. [8] He himself was not the light; he came to tell about the light. [9] This was the real light, the light that comes into the world and shines on all men.

[10] The Word, then, was in the world. God made the world through him, yet the world did not know him. [11] He came to his own country, but his own people did not receive him. [12] Some, however, did receive him and

DIE GUTE NACHRICHT NACH JOHANNES

Christus – das Wort

1 Am Anfang, bevor die Welt geschaffen wurde, war schon der, der »Das Wort« heißt. Er war bei Gott und in allem Gott gleich. [2] Von Anfang an war er bei Gott. [3] Durch ihn wurde alles geschaffen; nichts entstand ohne ihn. [4] Allen Geschöpfen gab er das Leben, und für die Menschen war er das Licht. [5] Das Licht strahlt im Finstern, und die Finsternis hat es nicht auslöschen können.

[6] Gott sandte einen Mann namens Johannes. [7] Der sollte die Menschen auf das Licht hinweisen, damit alle es erkennen und annehmen. [8] Er selbst war nicht das Licht; seine Aufgabe war nur, auf das Licht hinzuweisen.

[9/10] Das wahre Licht ist der, der »Das Wort« heißt. Er ist in die Welt gekommen als das Licht für alle Menschen. Obwohl die Welt durch ihn geschaffen wurde, erkannte sie ihn nicht. [11] Er kam in seine Schöpfung, aber seine eigenen Geschöpfe wiesen

https://archive.org/details/goodnewsformoder0000unse_w6n4

Ed. 1 (1967):
Was Gott war, das war das Wort auch What God was, that was the Word also 1972

Das Evangelium nach Johannes (Ed. 12)

Göttingen-Zürich: Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht

Siegfried Schulz

and a god (or: of a divine kind) was the Word

und ein Gott (oder: Gott von Art) war das Wort

Das Evangelium nach Johannes

Übersetzt und erklärt

von

Siegfried Schulz

1987

Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht
Göttingen und Zürich

Der Prolog: 1, 1-18

[1] Im Anfang war das Wort,
und das Wort war bei dem Gott,
und ein Gott (oder: Gott von Art) war das Wort.
[2] Dieses war im Anfang bei dem Gott.
[3] Durch dasselbe ist alles geworden, und ohne dasselbe wurde gar nichts,
was geworden ist.
[4] In ihm war Leben,
und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen.
[5] Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis,
aber die Finsternis hat es nicht ergriffen.
[6] Ein Mensch trat auf, von Gott gesandt, mit Namen Johannes. [7] Dieser kam zum Zeugnis, um Zeugnis zu geben für das Licht, damit alle durch ihn zum Glauben kämen. [8] Jener war nicht das Licht, sondern er wollte (nur) Zeugnis geben für das Licht. [9] Es war das wahre Licht, das jeden Menschen erleuchtet, der in die Welt kam.
[10] Es war in der Welt,
und die Welt ist durch es geworden,
aber die Welt wollte von ihm nichts wissen.
[11] Es kam in das Seine, aber die Seinen nahmen es nicht auf.
[12] So viele es jedoch aufnahmen, ihnen gab es Vollmacht,
Gottes Kinder zu werden, ihnen, die an seinen Namen glauben, [13] welche nicht aus dem Blut noch aus dem Willen des Fleisches noch aus dem Willen des Mannes, sondern aus Gott gezeugt sind. [14] Und das Wort ward Fleisch und zeltete unter uns, und wir schauten seine Herrlichkeit, eine Herrlichkeit, wie sie der Einzigerzeugte vom Vater hat, voller Gnade und Wahrheit. [15] Johannes zeugt von ihm und ruft: Dieser war es, von dem ich sagte: Der nach mir kommt, ist vor mir gewesen, denn er war eher als ich. [16] Denn aus seiner Fülle haben wir alle empfangen, und zwar Gnade um Gnade. [17] Denn das Gesetz wurde durch Mose gegeben, die Gnade und die Wahrheit (aber) kamen durch Jesus Christus. [18] Niemand hat Gott je gesehen. Der einziggezeugte Sohn (nach anderen Textzeugen: Gott), der im Schoß des Vaters ist, der hat (von ihm) Kunde gebracht.

Die ersten 18 Verse des Johannesevangeliums haben vor allem in den letzten Jahrzehnten der Forschung viel Mühe bereitet. Der Abschnitt wird herkömmlicherweise als „Prolog" bezeichnet. Diese Bezeichnung ist aber alles andere als eindeutig, und man hat auch bald erkannt, daß sie nicht viel weiterführt. Welches war der Zweck dieses Prologs? Er ist sicher keine literarische Vorrede für Gebildete, wie Lk. 1, 1-4, aber auch keine Themaangabe im Sinne von 1.Joh. 1, 1-4. Der Prolog stellt auch keine pädagogische Hinführung für den damaligen Leser dar, es wird in diesem Abschnitt auch nicht der heilsgeschichtliche Anfang des vierten Evangeliums markiert und schließlich auch kein Summarium des folgenden Evangeliums gegeben. Viel näher läge es, im Prolog den regelrechten Anfang des Evangeliums zu sehen. Aber 1, 19 ff. mit seiner Folge von Perikopen im Erzählungsstil setzt nicht

Ed. 16 (1987)

1972: https://books.google.pl/books?id=598AAAAAMAAJ (limited view)
1987: https://1lib.pl/book/5425023/91f306

1973

The Translator's New Testament

London: B&FBS

William D. McHardy

and the Word was with God and shared his nature

145 LUKE 24: 42–53; JOHN 1: 1–7

'Have you anything to eat here?' [42]They gave him a piece of cooked fish. [43]He took it and ate it in their presence.

[44]He said to them, 'This is what I told you while I was still with you, when I said that all that is written concerning me in the *Law of Moses, the *Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.' [45]Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures; [46]and he said to them, 'This is what *Scripture says: the *Messiah must suffer, and rise from the dead on the third day, [47]and repentance and forgiveness of sins must be *proclaimed in his *name among all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. [48]You are witnesses of these things. [49]And I am about to send upon you what my Father promised; but you must stay in the city till you are clothed with power from above.'

[50]He led them out near to Bethany, lifted up his hands and blessed them. [51]While he was blessing them he parted from them, and was carried up to heaven. [52]They worshipped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; [53]and they spent their whole time in the temple, praising God.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

JOHN

1 When everything began the †Word already existed. †The Word was with God and shared his nature. [2]He was with God in the beginning. [3]†All things came into being through him, and apart from him not even one thing came into being. Everything that came into being [4]derived its life from him, and his life was the light of men. [5]The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never overcome it.

[6]There was a man, sent from God; his name was John. [7]He came for witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might

11 BTT

https://archive.org/details/translatorsnewte0000unse

91a

1976

ספרי הברית החדשה: תרגום חדש

= Sifre Ha-Berit Ha-Ḥadashah: targum ḥadash (NT)

United Bible Societies, Jerusalem

Joseph Atzmon – Yohanan Elihai

and a god was the Word

ואלהים היה הדבר

ספרי

הברית החדשה

תרגום חדש

UNITED BIBLE SOCIETIES

החברות המאוחדות לכתבי הקודש

1976

הַבְּשׂוֹרָה עַל-פִּי יוֹחָנָן

הדבר

1 א [1] בְּרֵאשִׁית הָיָה הַדָּבָר וְהַדָּבָר הָיָה אֵצֶל הָאֱלֹהִים וֵאלֹהִים הָיָה הַדָּבָר. [2] הוּא הָיָה בְּרֵאשִׁית אֵצֶל הָאֱלֹהִים. [3] הַכֹּל נִהְיָה עַל-יָדוֹ וּמִבַּלְעָדָיו לֹא נִהְיָה כָּל אֲשֶׁר נִהְיָה. [4] בּוֹ הָיוּ חַיִּים וְהַחַיִּים הָיוּ הָאוֹר לִבְנֵי הָאָדָם. [5] הָאוֹר מֵאִיר בַּחֹשֶׁךְ וְהַחֹשֶׁךְ לֹא הִשִּׂיגוֹ.

[6] אִישׁ הָיָה שָׁלוּחַ מֵאֵת אֱלֹהִים וּשְׁמוֹ יוֹחָנָן. [7] הוּא בָּא לְעֵדוּת, לְהָעִיד עַל הָאוֹר כְּדֵי שֶׁעַל-פִּיו יַאֲמִינוּ הַכֹּל. [8] הוּא לֹא הָיָה הָאוֹר; הוּא בָּא לְהָעִיד עַל הָאוֹר. [9] הָאוֹר הָאֲמִתִּי, הַמֵּאִיר לְכָל אָדָם, בָּא אֶל הָעוֹלָם. [10] בָּעוֹלָם הָיָה וְעַל-יָדוֹ נִהְיָה הָעוֹלָם, וְהָעוֹלָם לֹא הִכִּירוֹ. [11] הוּא בָּא אֶל שֶׁלּוֹ וְאֵלֶּה אֲשֶׁר לוֹ לֹא קִבְּלוּ אוֹתוֹ. [12] אֲבָל לְכָל אֲשֶׁר קִבְּלוּ אוֹתוֹ, הַמַּאֲמִינִים בִּשְׁמוֹ, נָתַן תֹּקֶף לִהְיוֹת בָּנִים לֵאלֹהִים. [13] וְהֵם לֹא מִדָּם וְלֹא מֵחֵפֶץ הַבָּשָׂר נוֹלְדוּ, אַף לֹא מֵחֵפֶץ גֶּבֶר, כִּי אִם מֵאֱלֹהִים.

[14] הַדָּבָר נִהְיָה בָּשָׂר וְשָׁכַן בְּתוֹכֵנוּ; וַאֲנַחְנוּ רָאִינוּ אֶת כְּבוֹדוֹ, כְּבוֹד בֵּן יָחִיד מִלִּפְנֵי אָבִיו, מָלֵא חֶסֶד וֶאֱמֶת. [15] יוֹחָנָן הֵעִיד עָלָיו וְקָרָא בְּאָמְרוֹ: "זֶה הוּא שֶׁאָמַרְתִּי עָלָיו, 'הַבָּא אַחֲרַי הוּא כְּבָר לְפָנַי, כִּי קֹדֶם לִי הָיָה.'" [16] הֵן מִמְּלוֹאוֹ כֻּלָּנוּ קִבַּלְנוּ, וְחֶסֶד עַל חֶסֶד; [17] כִּי הַתּוֹרָה

https://archive.org/details/sifrehaberithaad0000unse

91b

1991

The Modern Hebrew New Testament

The Bible Society in Israel, Jerusalem

(next eds. 1995 | 2000 | 2003 | 2005 | 2006 | 2010)

Joseph Atzmon – Yohanan Elihai

and a god was the Word

ואלהים היה הדבר

The Modern Hebrew New Testament

הַבְּשׂוֹרָה עַל־פִּי יוֹחָנָן

הדבר

א בְּרֵאשִׁית הָיָה הַדָּבָר, וְהַדָּבָר הָיָה עִם הָאֱלֹהִים, וֵאלֹהִים הָיָה הַדָּבָר. 2 הוּא הָיָה בְּרֵאשִׁית עִם הָאֱלֹהִים. 3 הַכֹּל נִהְיָה עַל־יָדָיו, וּמִבַּלְעָדָיו לֹא נִהְיָה כָּל אֲשֶׁר נִהְיָה. 4 בּוֹ הָיוּ חַיִּים וְהַחַיִּים הָיוּ הָאוֹר לִבְנֵי הָאָדָם. 5 וְהָאוֹר מֵאִיר בַּחֹשֶׁךְ וְהַחֹשֶׁךְ לֹא הִשִּׂיגוֹ.

6 אִישׁ הָיָה שָׁלוּחַ מֵאֵת אֱלֹהִים וּשְׁמוֹ יוֹחָנָן. 7 הוּא בָּא לְעֵדוּת, לְהָעִיד עַל הָאוֹר כְּדֵי שֶׁעַל־פִּיו יַאֲמִינוּ הַכֹּל. 8 הוּא לֹא הָיָה הָאוֹר; הוּא בָּא לְהָעִיד עַל הָאוֹר. 9 הָאוֹר הָאֲמִתִּי, הַמֵּאִיר לְכָל אָדָם, בָּא אֶל הָעוֹלָם. 10 בָּעוֹלָם הָיָה וְעַל־יָדָיו נִהְיָה הָעוֹלָם, וְהָעוֹלָם לֹא הִכִּירוֹ. 11 הוּא בָּא אֶל שֶׁלּוֹ וְאֵלֶּה אֲשֶׁר לוֹ לֹא קִבְּלוּ אוֹתוֹ. 12 אֲבָל לְאֵלֶּה אֲשֶׁר קִבְּלוּ אוֹתוֹ, הַמַּאֲמִינִים בִּשְׁמוֹ, נָתַן תֹּקֶף לִהְיוֹת בָּנִים לֵאלֹהִים. 13 לֹא מִדָּם וְלֹא מֵחֵפֶץ הַבָּשָׂר נוֹלְדוּ, אַף לֹא מֵחֵפֶץ גֶּבֶר, כִּי אִם מֵאֱלֹהִים.

14 הַדָּבָר נִהְיָה בָּשָׂר וְשָׁכַן בְּתוֹכֵנוּ; וַאֲנַחְנוּ רָאִינוּ אֶת כְּבוֹדוֹ, כְּבוֹד בֵּן יָחִיד מִלִּפְנֵי אָבִיו, מָלֵא חֶסֶד וֶאֱמֶת. 15 יוֹחָנָן הֵעִיד עָלָיו וְקָרָא בְּאָמְרוֹ: "זֶה הוּא שֶׁאָמַרְתִּי עָלָיו, 'הַבָּא אַחֲרַי הוּא כְּבָר לְפָנַי, כִּי קֹדֶם לִי הָיָה'." 16 הֵן מִמְּלוֹאוֹ כֻּלָּנוּ קִבַּלְנוּ, וְחֶסֶד עַל חֶסֶד; 17 כִּי הַתּוֹרָה נִתְּנָה עַל־יְדֵי מֹשֶׁה, וְהַחֶסֶד וְהָאֱמֶת בָּאוּ דֶּרֶךְ יֵשׁוּעַ הַמָּשִׁיחַ. 18 אֶת הָאֱלֹהִים לֹא רָאָה אִישׁ מֵעוֹלָם; הַבֵּן הַיָּחִיד, הַנִּמְצָא בְּחֵיק הָאָב, הוּא אֲשֶׁר הוֹדִיעוֹ.

2006: https://1lib.eu/book/2573891/c72ad7

2010: https://www.jewishtestimonies.com/wp-content/uploads/2013/06/ModernHebrewNT.pdf

1976

Das Evangelium nach Johannes

Berlin: Evangelische Verlagsanstalt

Johannes Schneider

and godlike sort was the Logos

und göttlicher Art war der Logos

Auslegung

Der Prolog
1,1–18

(1) Im Anfang war der Logos
Und der Logos war bei Gott
Und göttlicher Art war der Logos

(2) Dieser war im Anfang bei Gott.

(3) Alles ist durch ihn geworden
Und ohne ihn wurde auch nicht eins.

(4) Was geworden ist, in ihm war es Leben
Und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen.

(5) Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis
Und die Finsternis hat es nicht überwältigt.

(6) Es trat ein Mann auf, von Gott gesandt, sein Name war Johannes. (7) Dieser kam zum Zeugnis, daß er Zeugnis ablegte von dem Licht, damit alle durch ihn glaubten. (8) Er selbst war nicht das Licht, sondern daß er zeugte von dem Licht.

(9) Er (der Logos) war das wahrhaftige Licht,
Das jeden Menschen erleuchtet,
Der in die Welt kommt.

(10) Er war in der Welt,
Und die Welt ist durch ihn geschaffen worden,
Und die Welt erkannte ihn nicht.

(11) Er kam in sein Eigentum,
Und die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf.

(12) So viele ihn aber aufnahmen,
Denen gab er Vollmacht, Gottes Kinder zu werden,
die an seinen Namen glauben,
(13) die nicht aus Blut, auch nicht aus dem Willen des Fleisches
und nicht aus dem Willen des Mannes, sondern aus Gott gezeugt sind.

(14) Und der Logos wurde Fleisch
Und wohnte unter uns,
Und wir sahen seine Herrlichkeit,
Die Herrlichkeit des Einziggeborenen vom Vater
Voller Gnade und Wahrheit.

(15) Johannes legt Zeugnis von ihm ab und ruft und spricht: dieser war es, von dem ich sagte: der nach mir kommt, ist (schon) vor mir gewesen, denn er war der Erste vor mir.

93 CATHOLIC

1979

SPANISH

"Notas de exégesis sobre el prólogo del Cuarto Evangelio (Jn 1, 1-18)"

Teología y Vida, Vol. 20, p. 55-62

Miguel Angel Ferrando

and in quality of God existed the Word

y en calidad de Dios existía el Verbo

EL TEXTO

I. El Verbo en Dios

1 a. En el principio existía el Verbo
b. y el Verbo existía cabe el Dios (= el Padre)
c. y en calidad de Dios existía el Verbo.
2 a. Este existía en el principio cabe el Dios.

3 a. Todo mediante él llegó a ser
b. y fuera de él llego a ser nada.
4 a. Lo llegado a ser en él vida era
b. y la vida era la luz de los hombres
5 a. y la luz en la tiniebla aparece
b. y la tiniebla no la venció.

II. El Verbo en la historia de la salvación

6 a. Llegó a ser un hombre
b. enviado de junto a Dios,
c. nombre de él, Juan.
7 a. Este vino para testimonio,
b. para que diera testimonio acerca de la luz,
c. para que todos creyeran mediante él.
8 a. No era aquél la luz,
b. sino para que diera testimonio acerca de la luz.

9 a. Era (existía) la luz verdadera que alumbra a todo hombre
b. viniendo (la luz) al mundo.

10 a. En el mundo era (existía)
b. y el mundo mediante él llegó a ser
c. y el mundo no lo conoció.

https://repositorio.uc.cl/xmlui/bitstream/handle/11534/15299/000421974.pdf

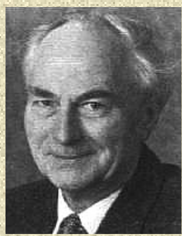
94

1979

Das Evangelium nach Johannes

Würtzburg: Gütersloher Verlagshaus

Jürgen Becker



and a god was the Logos

und ein Gott war der Logos

I. Der Prolog 1,1–18

1 Am Anfang war der Logos, und der Logos war bei dem Gott,
und ein Gott war der Logos.

2 Dieser war am Anfang bei dem Gott.

3 Alles ist durch ihn geworden,
und ohne ihn ist nichts geworden.

Was geworden ist, 4 in dem war er Leben,
und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen.

5 Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis,
aber die Finsternis hat es nicht in Besitz genommen.

6 Es trat ein Mensch auf, gesandt von Gott, mit Namen Johannes. 7 Dieser kam zum Zeugnis, um über das Licht Zeugnis abzulegen, damit alle durch ihn zum Glauben kämen. 8 Er war nicht (selbst) das Licht, sondern damit er über das Licht Zeugnis ablege (, dazu war er gesandt). 9 Das war das wahrhaftige Licht, das jeden Menschen erleuchtet, der in die Welt kommt. 10 Es war in der Welt, und die Welt ist durch es geschaffen, aber die Welt hat es nicht erkannt.

11 Er (der Logos) kam in das Seine,
aber die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf.

12 Wieviele ihn aber aufnahmen,
denen gab er die Ermächtigung,
Gottes Kinder zu werden.

(Das sind die,) die an seinen Namen glauben, 13 die nicht aus Blut oder Fleischeswillen noch aus Manneswillen sondern aus Gott gezeugt sind.

14 Und der Logos wurde Fleisch
und wohnte unter uns.

https://archive.org/details/dasevangeliumnac0001beck

95a

1980

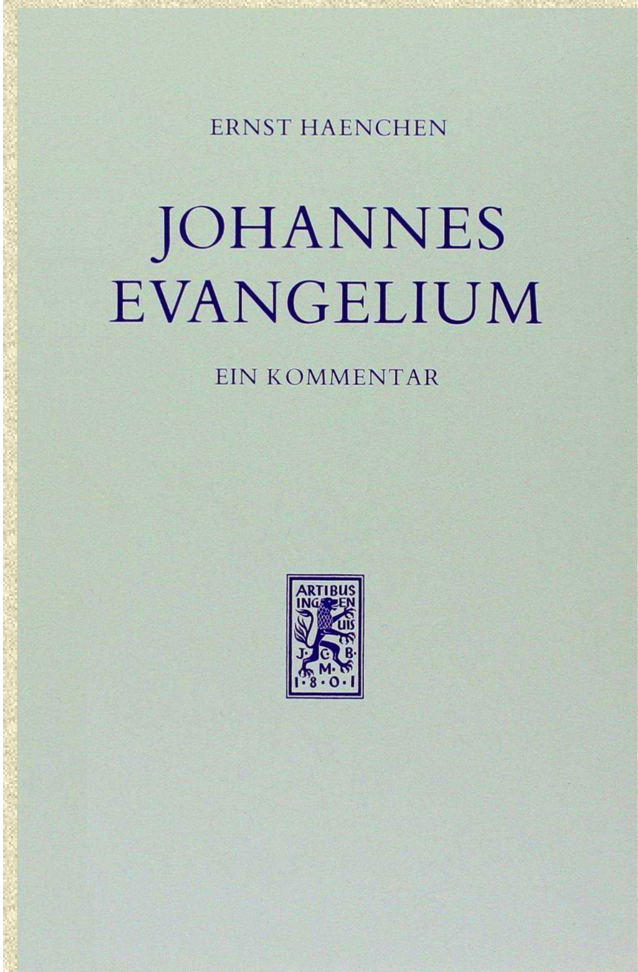
GERMAN VERSION

Das Johannesevangelium. Ein Kommentar

Tübingen: J. C. B. Mohr (Paul Siebeck)

Ernst Haenchen

und Gott (von Art) war der Logos



[1]Im Anfang war der Logos, und der Logos war bei (dem) Gott, und Gott (von Art) war der Logos. [2]Dieser war im Anfang bei (dem) Gott. [3]Alles ist durch ihn geworden, und ohne ihn ward nicht eins, was geworden ist. [4]In ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen. [5]Und das Licht scheint in die Finsternis, und die Finsternis hat es nicht erfaßt.

[6]Es ward ein Mensch, gesandt von Gott, sein Name Johannes. [7]Dieser kam zum Zeugnis, damit er Zeugnis gebe für das Licht, auf daß alle gläubig würden durch ihn. [8]Nicht er war das Licht, sondern er sollte Zeugnis geben für das Licht.

[9]Er war das wahre Licht, das jeden Menschen erleuchtet, der in die Welt kommt. [10]Er war in der Welt, und die Welt war durch ihn geworden, und die Welt erkannte ihn nicht. [11]Zu den Seinen kam er, und die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf.

[12]Die aber, welche ihn aufnahmen, ihnen gab er Macht, Kinder Gottes zu werden, den an seinen Namen Glaubenden, [13]die nicht aus Blut und nicht aus Fleischeswillen und nicht aus Manneswillen, sondern aus Gott gezeugt waren.

[14]Und der Logos ward Mensch und zeltete unter uns, und wir schauten seine Herrlichkeit, eine Herrlichkeit wie die des einzigen Sohnes vom Vater, voll Gnade und Wahrheit.

[15]Johannes gibt Zeugnis für ihn und ruft: ,,Dieser war es, von dem ich sagte: Der nach mir Kommende ist vor mir geworden.“

[16]Denn aus seiner Fülle haben wir alle genommen, und (zwar) Gnade um Gnade. [17]Denn das Gesetz wurde durch Moses gegeben, die Gnade und die Wahrheit sind durch Jesus Christus geworden.

[18]Gott hat niemand jemals gesehen; der einzige Sohn, der am Busen des Vaters ist, er hat Kunde gebracht.

Literatur:

Aland, K., Eine Untersuchung zu Joh 1,3.4. Über die Bedeutung eines Punktes, ZNW 59 (1968) 174–209.

Ammon, C. H. von, De prologi Johannis Evangelistae fontibus et sensu, 1800.

Asbeck, M., La ponctuation des versets 3 et 4 du prologue du quatrième évangile et la doctrine du Logos, in: FS. A. Loisy, Paris 1928 I, 220–228.

Atal, D., Structure et signification des cinq premiers versets de l'hymne johannique au Logos, Kinshasa 1972.

Ausejo, S. de, Es un himno a Cristo el prólogo de San Juan, EstB 15 (1956) 223–277.381–427.

Baldensperger, W., Der Prolog des vierten Evangeliums. Sein polemisch-apologetischer Zweck, Tübingen 1898.

Barclay, W., John 1,1–14, ET 70 (1958/59) 78–82.114–117.

Barrett, C. K., The Prologue of St. John's Gospel, in: ders., New Testament-Essays, 1972, 27–48.

Ders., Κατέλαβεν in John 1,5, ET 53 (1941/42) 297.

Becker, J., Beobachtungen zum Dualismus im Johannes-Evangelium, ZNW 65 (1974) 71–87 bes. 73–78.

Berger, K., Zu ,,das Wort ward Fleisch“: Joh 1,14a, NT 16 (1974) 161–166.

Van den Bergh van Eysinga, G. A., Zum richtigen Verständnis des johanneischen Prologs, PrM 13 (1909) 143–150.

Beutler, J., ,,Und das Wort ist Fleisch gewor-https://archive.org/details/dasjohannesevang0000haen

95b

1984

ENGLISH VERSION

A Commentary on the Gospel of John.

John 1: Chapters 1-6

trans. by Robert W. Funck

Philadelphia: Fortress Press

Ernst Haenchen

and divine [of the category divinity] was the Logos

1 In the beginning was the Logos, and the Logos was with God, and divine [of the category divinity] was the Logos. 2/ He was in the beginning with God; 3/ all things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. 4/ In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5/ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not comprehended it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7/ He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him. 8/ He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light.

9 The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world; 10/ he was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world knew him not; 11/ he came to his own home, and his own people received him not.

12 But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God; 13/ who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

15 John bears witness to him, and cried, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, for he was before me.'"

16 And from his fullness have we all received, (indeed,) grace upon grace. 17/ For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

18 No one has ever seen God; the only Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has made him known.

■ 1 Like Gen 1:1 LXX, verse 1 begins with ἐν ἀρχῇ ("in the beginning"). That is no mere coincidence; the agreement is intentional. But the differences are much greater than this scarcely accidental congruence: Gen 1:1 narrates an event: God creates. John 1:1, however, tells of something that was in existence already in time primeval; astonishingly, it is not "God." The hymn thus does not begin with God and his creation, but with the existence of the Logos in the beginning. The Logos (we have no word in either German or English that corresponds to the range of meaning of the Greek term)[1] is thereby elevated to such heights that it almost becomes offensive. The expression is made tolerable only by virtue of the continuation in "and the Logos was in the presence of God," viz., in intimate, personal union with God.

In order to avoid misunderstanding, it may be inserted here that θεός and ὁ θεός ("god, divine" and "the God") were not the same thing in this period. Philo has therefore written: the λόγος means only θεός ("divine") and not ὁ θεός ("God") since the logos is not God in the strict sense.[2] Philo was not thinking of giving up Jewish monotheism. In a similar fashion, Origen, too, interprets: the Evangelist does not say that the logos is "God," but only that the logos is "divine."[3] In fact, for the author of the hymn, as for the Evangelist, only the Father was "God" (ὁ θεός; cf. 17:3); "the Son" was subordinate to him (cf. 14:28). But that is only hinted at in this passage because here the emphasis is on the proximity of the one to the other: the Logos was "in the presence of God," that is, in intimate, personal fellowship with him.

The two prepositions εἰς and πρός with the accusative were originally used only in response to the question "whither?" In Koine they are also used frequently for ἐν and παρά with the dative (cf. 19:25) in response to the question "where?" with the meaning "in" or "at, by, beside."

The Logos therefore was not a substitute for God in the beginning, but lives in and out of this fellowship (1:18, 4:34). But precisely for this reason, viz., that he alone had this primeval union with "God," does he take on added significance. Verse 1c expresses this meaning even more strongly: "and divine (belonging to the category divinity) was the Logos." These statements about him thereby reach their high point, insofar as they concern the realm of that primeval beginning. They impress upon the reader ever more clearly the incomparable station and significance of the Logos.

Bultmann objects to this interpretation: one cannot speak of God (in the Christian sense) in the plural.[4] On the contrary, in the period in which the hymn took its rise, it was quite possible in Jewish and Christian monotheism to speak of divine beings that existed alongside and under God but were not identical with him. Phil 2:6–10 proves that. In that passage Paul depicts just such 1 See the Excursus on the pre-Johannine Logos-hymn.

2 De Somn. 1.229f.

3 Origen, Comm. in Joh. 2.2.13–15.

4 John, 32f. [16].

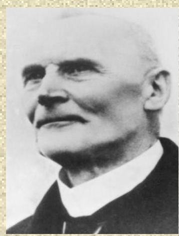
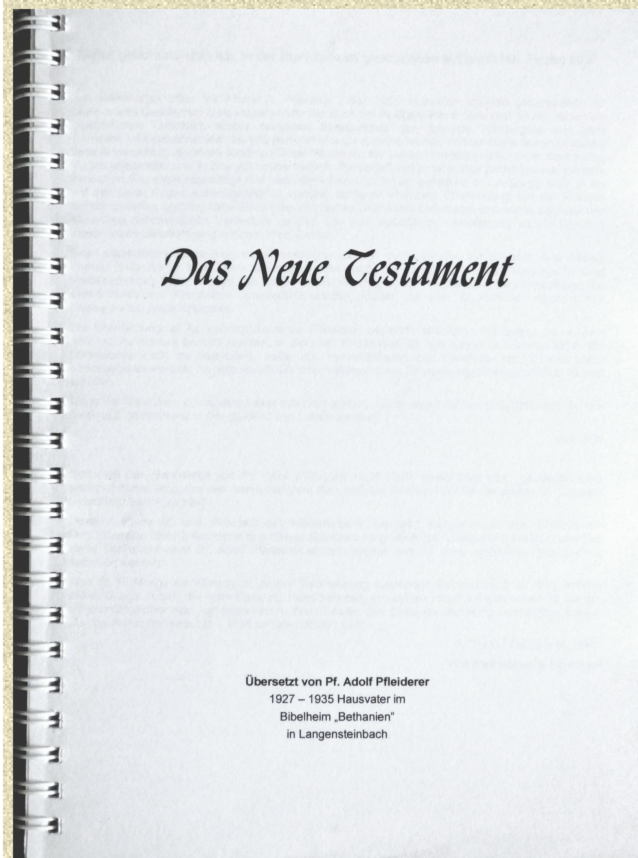
96

1980
Das Neue Testament
Karlsbad – Langensteinbach, Baden: Bibelheim Bethanien
Adolf Pfleiderer

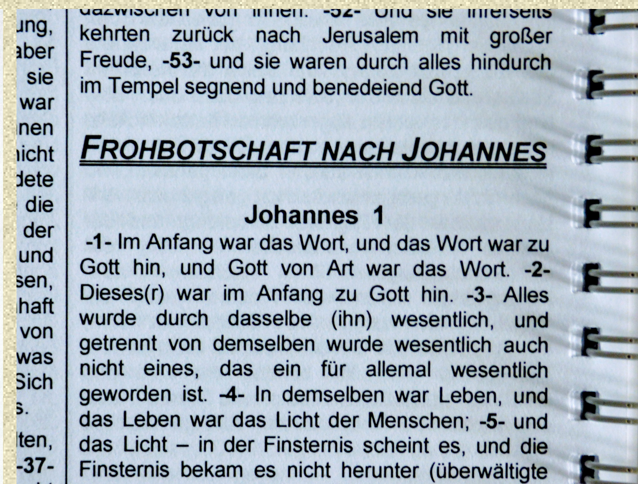


and god of a kind was the Word
und Gott von Art war das Wort



Das Neue Testament

Übersetzt von Pf. Adolf Pfleiderer
1927 – 1935 Hausvater im
Bibelheim „Bethanien"
in Langensteinbach



kehrten zurück nach Jerusalem mit großer Freude, -53- und sie waren durch alles hindurch im Tempel segnend und benedeiend Gott.

FROHBOTSCHAFT NACH JOHANNES

Johannes 1

-1- Im Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war zu Gott hin, und Gott von Art war das Wort. -2- Dieses(r) war im Anfang zu Gott hin. -3- Alles wurde durch dasselbe (ihn) wesentlich, und getrennt von demselben wurde wesentlich auch nicht eines, das ein für allemal wesentlich geworden ist. -4- In demselben war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen; -5- und das Licht – in der Finsternis scheint es, und die Finsternis bekam es nicht herunter (überwältigte

http://www.bibelwissen.ch/wiki/Joh_1:1

97

1984

Good News from God: A Translation of John with Corresponding Scriptures from Matthew through Revelation

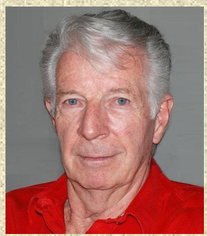
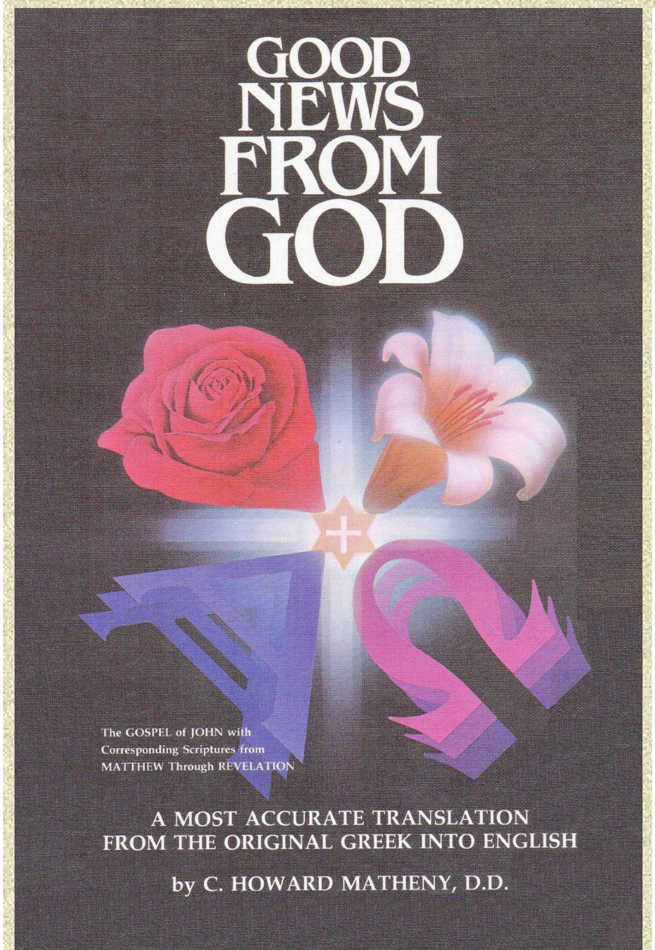
Self published, Columbia, USA

C. Howard Matheny



and the Word was God (the same character as God)



Chapter 1

1. In (the[1]) beginning was the Word,[2] and the Word was continually with[3] the (only) God, and the Word was God (the same character as God).

2. This (Word, the Christ) was in (the) beginning (origin) with the only God.

3. All things[4] came into existence through[5] Him, and

---

[1] There is no Greek article "the" with beginning. Without the Greek article the time could be considered indefinite and could mean at any point of time you begin even before time began or creation started the Word was already existing timelessly with God. The imperfect state of the verb "was" (ἦν) describes this continuous existence. The beginning can be definite even without the article as there is only one beginning.

[2] In continuous existence was the "Word" (λόγος), the Thought, the Whole Revelation, the Complete Expression.

[3] The preposition "with" (πρὸς) describes the "Word" (λόγος) the Christ as being continually with God, in the presence of God, face to face with God, in communion with God, in living relationship and in intimate fellowship with God.

[4] "All things" (πάντα) includes all creation, unlimited, universally and all that exists.

[5] In an absolute sense all things came into existence "by" (ὑπό) God the direct agent. This describes all things under https://archive.org/stream/EpistlesMacknightJ1984.rOpts/John MathenyCH 1984-opt

3

98

1985

HAITIAN CREOLE

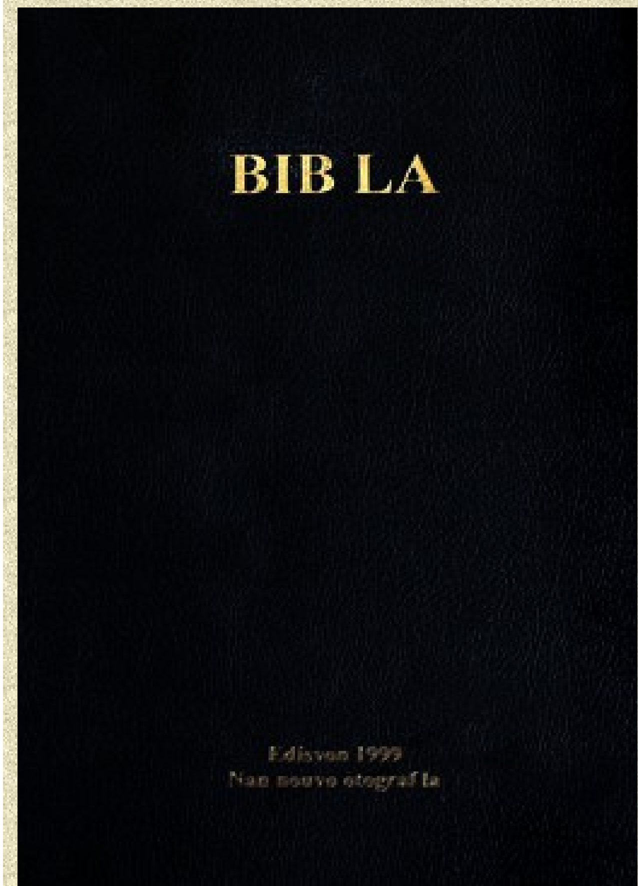
Bib la: Paròl Bondié an Ayisyin (Ed. 1)

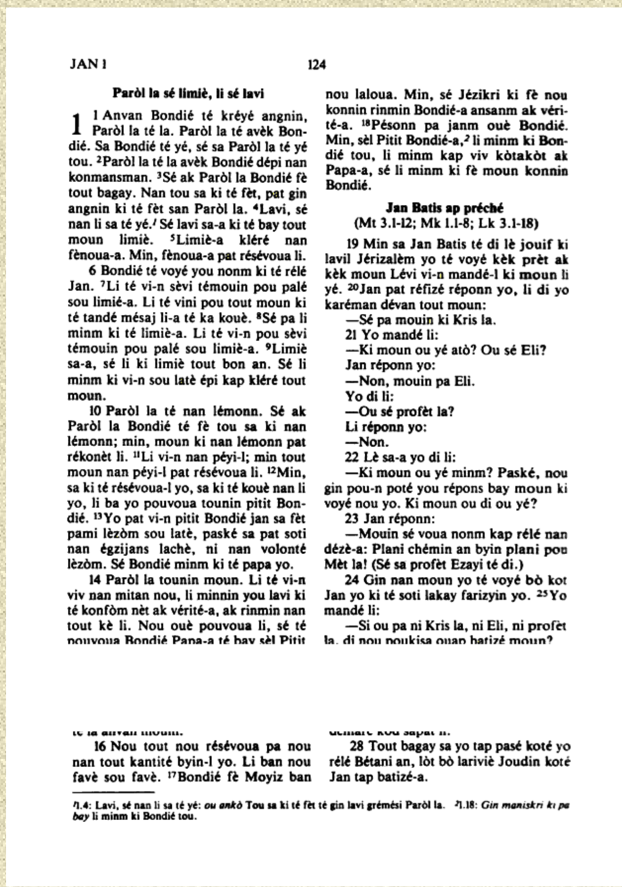
Port-au-Prince: Société Biblique Haïtienne, Haiti

Roger Désir

So what God was, the Word also was

Sa Bondié té yé, sé sa Paròl la té yé tou





JAN 1 124

Paròl la sé limiè, li sé lavi

1 1 Anvan Bondié té kréyé angnin, Paròl la té la. Paròl la té avèk Bondié. Sa Bondié té yé, sé sa Paròl la té yé tou. [2]Paròl la té la avèk Bondié dépi nan konmansman. [3]Sé ak Paròl la Bondié fè tout bagay. Nan tou sa ki té fèt, pat gin angnin ki té fèt san Paròl la. [4]Lavi, sé nan li sa té yé.[1] Sé lavi sa-a ki té bay tout moun limiè. [5]Limiè-a kléré nan fènoua-a. Min, fènoua-a pat résévoua li.

6 Bondié té voyé you nonm ki té rélé Jan. [7]Li té vi-n sèvi témouin pou palé sou limié-a. Li té vini pou tout moun ki té tandé mésaj li-a té ka kouè. [8]Sé pa li minm ki té limiè-a. Li té vi-n pou sèvi témouin pou palé sou limiè-a. [9]Limiè sa-a, sé li ki limiè tout bon an. Sé li minm ki vi-n sou latè épi kap kléré tout moun.

10 Paròl la té nan lémonn. Sé ak Paròl la Bondié té fè tou sa ki nan lémonn; min, moun ki nan lémonn pat rékonèt li. [11]Li vi-n nan péyi-l; min tout moun nan péyi-l pat résévoua li. [12]Min, sa ki té résévoua-l yo, sa ki té kouè nan li yo, li ba yo pouvoua tounin pitit Bondié. [13]Yo pat vi-n pitit Bondié jan sa fèt pami lèzòm sou latè, paské sa pat soti nan égzijans lachè, ni nan volonté lèzòm. Sé Bondié minm ki té papa yo.

14 Paròl la tounin moun. Li té vi-n viv nan mitan nou, li minnin you lavi ki té konfòm nèt ak vérité-a, ak rinmin nan tout kè li. Nou ouè pouvoua li, sé té pouvoua Bondié Papa-a té bay sèl Pitit

16 Nou tout nou résévoua pa nou nan tout kantité byin-l yo. Li ban nou favè sou favè. [17]Bondié fè Moyiz ban

nou laloua. Min, sé Jézikri ki fè nou konnin rinmin Bondié-a ansanm ak vérité-a. [18]Pésonn pa janm ouè Bondié. Min, sèl Pitit Bondié-a,[2] li minm ki Bondié tou, li minm kap viv kòtakòt ak Papa-a, sé li minm ki fè moun konnin Bondié.

Jan Batis ap préché
(Mt 3.1-12; Mk 1.1-8; Lk 3.1-18)

19 Min sa Jan Batis té di lè jouif ki lavil Jérizalèm yo té voyé kèk prèt ak kèk moun Lévi vi-n mandé-l ki moun li yé. [20]Jan pat réfizé réponn yo, li di yo karéman dévan tout moun:

—Sé pa mouin ki Kris la.

21 Yo mandé li:

—Ki moun ou yé atò? Ou sé Eli?

Jan réponn yo:

—Non, mouin pa Eli.

Yo di li:

—Ou sé profèt la?

Li réponn yo:

—Non.

22 Lè sa-a yo di li:

—Ki moun ou yé minm? Paské, nou gin pou-n poté you répons bay moun ki voyé nou yo. Ki moun ou di ou yé?

23 Jan réponn:

—Mouin sé voua nonm kap rélé nan dézè-a: Plani chémin an byin plani pou Mèt la! (Sé sa profèt Ezayi té di.)

24 Gin nan moun yo té voyé bò kot Jan yo ki té soti lakay farizyin yo. [25]Yo mandé li:

—Si ou pa ni Kris la, ni Eli, ni profèt la, di nou poukisa ouap batizé moun?

28 Tout bagay sa yo tap pasé koté yo rélé Bétani an, lòt bò larivièJoudin koté Jan tap batizé-a.

[1]1.4: Lavi, sé nan li sa té yé: ou ankò Tou sa ki té fèt té gin lavi grémési Paròl la. [2]1.18: Gin maniskri ki pa bay li minm ki Bondié tou.

Ed. 2 (1999) Ed. 1 (1985)

https://ebible.org/pdf/hat/hat_nt.pdf

99 CATHOLIC

1986

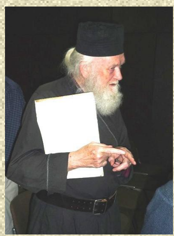
ספרי הברית חדשה // קְיָמָא חַדְתָּא //

The New Covenant Commonly Called The New Testament:

Peshitta Aramaic Text With a Hebrew Translation (Ed. 1) (Heb.-Aram.)

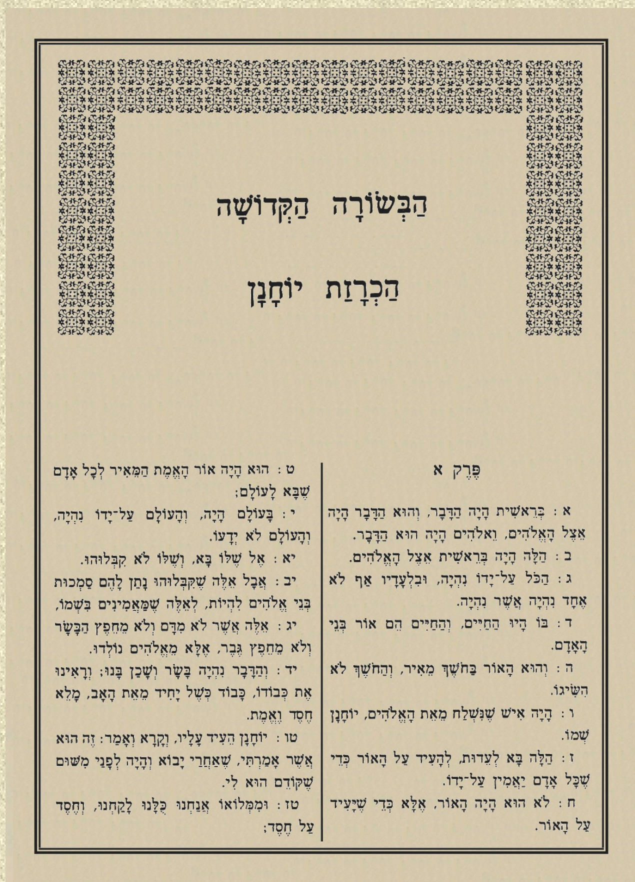
The Aramaic Scriptures Research Society in Israel, Jerusalem: The Bible Society

Jacob Barclay – Massimo Pazzini (Eds.)



and a god was this Word

ואלהים היה הוא הדבר



הַבְּשׂוֹרָה הַקְּדוֹשָׁה

הַכְרָזַת יוֹחָנָן

פֶּרֶק א

א : בְּרֵאשִׁית הָיָה הַדָּבָר, וְהוּא הַדָּבָר הָיָה אֵצֶל הָאֱלֹהִים, וֵאלֹהִים הָיָה הוּא הַדָּבָר.
ב : הַלָּה הָיָה בְּרֵאשִׁית אֵצֶל הָאֱלֹהִים.
ג : הַכֹּל עַל־יָדוֹ נִהְיָה, וּבִלְעָדָיו אַף לֹא אֶחָד נִהְיָה אֲשֶׁר נִהְיָה.
ד : בּוֹ הָיוּ הַחַיִּים, וְהַחַיִּים הֵם אוֹר בְּנֵי הָאָדָם.
ה : וְהוּא הָאוֹר בַּחֹשֶׁךְ מֵאִיר, וְהַחֹשֶׁךְ לֹא הִשִּׂיגוֹ.
ו : הָיָה אִישׁ שֶׁנִּשְׁלַח מֵאֵת הָאֱלֹהִים, יוֹחָנָן שְׁמוֹ.
ז : הַלָּה בָּא לְעֵדוּת, לְהָעִיד עַל הָאוֹר כְּדֵי שֶׁכָּל אָדָם יַאֲמִין עַל־יָדוֹ.
ח : לֹא הוּא הָיָה הָאוֹר, אֶלָּא כְּדֵי שֶׁיָּעִיד עַל הָאוֹר.
ט : הוּא הָיָה אוֹר הָאֱמֶת הַמֵּאִיר לְכָל אָדָם שֶׁבָּא לָעוֹלָם;
י : בָּעוֹלָם הָיָה, וְהָעוֹלָם עַל־יָדוֹ נִהְיָה, וְהָעוֹלָם לֹא יְדָעוֹ.
יא : אֶל שֶׁלּוֹ בָּא, וְשֶׁלּוֹ לֹא קִבְּלוּהוּ.
יב : אֲבָל אֵלֶּה שֶׁקִּבְּלוּהוּ נָתַן לָהֶם סַמְכוּת בְּנֵי אֱלֹהִים לִהְיוֹת, לְאֵלֶּה שֶׁמַּאֲמִינִים בִּשְׁמוֹ,
יג : אֵלֶּה אֲשֶׁר לֹא מִדָּם וְלֹא מֵחֵפֶץ הַבָּשָׂר וְלֹא מֵחֵפֶץ גֶּבֶר, אֶלָּא מֵאֱלֹהִים נוֹלְדוּ.
יד : וְהַדָּבָר נִהְיָה בָּשָׂר וְשָׁכַן בָּנוּ; וְרָאִינוּ אֶת כְּבוֹדוֹ, כָּבוֹד כְּשֶׁל יָחִיד מֵאֵת הָאָב, מָלֵא חֶסֶד וֶאֱמֶת.
טו : יוֹחָנָן הֵעִיד עָלָיו, וְקָרָא וְאָמַר: זֶה הוּא אֲשֶׁר אָמַרְתִּי, שֶׁאַחֲרַי יָבוֹא וְהָיָה לְפָנַי מִשּׁוּם שֶׁקּוֹדֵם הוּא לִי.
טז : וּמִמְּלוֹאוֹ אֲנַחְנוּ כֻּלָּנוּ לָקַחְנוּ, וְחֶסֶד עַל חֶסֶד;

https://archive.org/details/newcovenantcommo0000unse

100

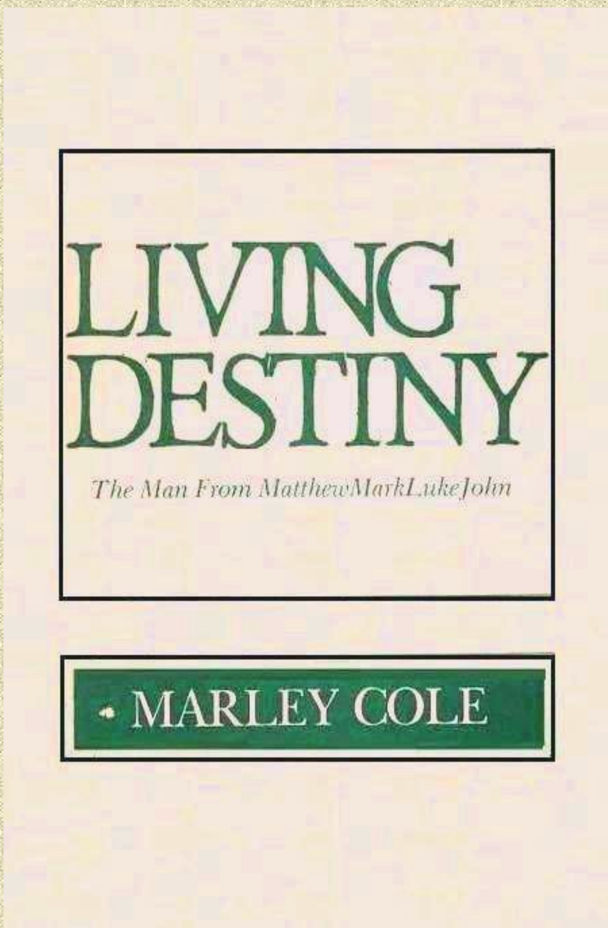
1987

Living Destiny. The Man From Matthew Mark Luke John

Knoxville: Proguides Publishers, TN, USA

Marley Cole

The Word himself is a God, a Mighty One.



PROLOGUE

John 1:1-18

FOR ALL CREATION there had to be a beginning. In the beginning there was the Word. The Word was from the hand of the Uncreated One, the One who is from everlasting to everlasting, the Almighty God. The Word is the Almighty's only direct creation, the image and glory of the invisible GOD. To all other creation the Word has become the Wisdom of God. The Word himself is a God, a Mighty One.

THERE CAME A TIME when the Word became flesh and resided among men, extending a means of restoration to the full, beyond the Law of Moses, and in that way explaining the Father to all. They beheld his glory, a glory belonging to the Only Begotten of the Father.

THIS IS AN ACCOUNT of how it came about.

xv

101

1988

The Unvarnished Gospels

Brighton MA: Threshold Books, USA

Andy Gaus

and God was what the Word was 1

IN THE BEGINNING was the Word, and the Word was toward God, and God was what the Word was. It was with God in the beginning. All things happened through it, and not one thing that has happened, happened without it. Within it there was Life, and the Life was the light of the world. And in the darkness the light is shining, and the darkness never got hold of it.

There was a person sent from God, and he had the name John. He came as a witness to testify about the light, so that all would have faith through him. He wasn't the light himself, he was to testify about the light.

The light was the true light that comes into the world and shines for every human being. He was in the world, and the world was created by him, and the world didn't know him. He came to his own kind, and his own kind wouldn't accept him. But to those who did accept him he gave the right to become children of God if they had faith in his name, they who were born not of blood, nor the flesh's will, nor a man's will, but of God.

And the Word turned flesh and lodged among us, and we witnessed his glory, the kind of glory a father gives his only son, full of grace and truth. John testifies about him, and has been heard crying, "This is the one of whom I said that the one coming after me has come ahead of me, because he is ahead of me," because from his abundance we all received grace for grace; since the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus the Anointed. No one has seen God ever; God's only son who has been on his father's lap, he himself explained that to us.

And such was the testimony of John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" And he admitted it and didn't try to deny it, he admitted, "I am not the Anointed."

https://archive.org/details/isbn_3908104412002

102

1989

The Revised English Version New Testament

(revision of NEB)

Oxford University Press, Cambridge University Press

M. Jack Suggs – Katherine Doob Sakenfield – James R. Mueller

and what God was, the Word was

The resurrection LUKE 24 ; JOHN 1 described what had happened on their journey and told how he had made himself known to them in the breaking of the bread.

[36]As they were talking about all this, there he was, standing among them. [37]Startled and terrified, they thought they were seeing a ghost. [38]But he said, 'Why are you so perturbed? Why do doubts arise in your minds? [39]Look at my hands and feet. It is I myself. Touch me and see; no ghost has flesh and bones as you can see that I have.' [41]They were still incredulous, still astounded, for it seemed too good to be true. So he asked them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' [42]They offered him a piece of fish they had cooked, [43]which he took and ate before their eyes.

[44]And he said to them, 'This is what I meant by saying, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms was bound to be fulfilled.' [45]Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures. [46]'So you see', he said, 'that scripture foretells the sufferings of the Messiah and his rising from the dead on the third day, [47]and declares that in his name repentance bringing the forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed to all nations beginning from Jerusalem. [48]You are to be witnesses to it all. [49]I am sending on you the gift promised by my Father; wait here in this city until you are armed with power from above.'

[50]Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and blessed them with uplifted hands; [51]and in the act of blessing he parted from them. [52]And they returned to Jerusalem full of joy, [53]and spent all their time in the temple praising God.

24:36 among them: some witnesses add And he said to them, 'Peace be with you!' 24:39 I have: some witnesses add [40]After saying this he showed them his hands and feet. 24:51 parted from them: some witnesses add and was carried up into heaven. 24:52 And they: some witnesses add worshipped him and.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

JOHN

The coming of Christ

1 In the beginning the Word already was. The Word was in God's presence, and what God was, the Word was. [2]He was with God at the beginning, [3]and through him all things came to be; without him no created thing came into being. [4]In him was life, and that life was the light of mankind. [5]The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never mastered it.

[6]There appeared a man named John. He was sent from God, [7]and came as a witness to testify to the light, so that through him all might become believers. [8]He was not himself the light; he came to bear witness to the light. [9]The true light which gives light to everyone was even then coming into the world.

[10]He was in the world; but the world, though it owed its being to him, did not recognize him. [11]He came to his own, and his own people would not accept him. [12]But to all who did accept him, to those who put their trust in him, he gave the right to become children of God, [13]born not of human stock, by the physical desire of a human father, but of God. [14]So the Word became flesh; he made his home among us, and we saw his glory, such glory as befits the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth.

[15]John bore witness to him and proclaimed: 'This is the man of whom I said, "He comes after me, but ranks ahead of me"; before I was born, he already was.'

[16]From his full store we have all received grace upon grace; [17]for the law

1:3–4 through him . . . was life: or without him no single thing was created. All that came to be was alive with his life. 1:9 The true . . . world: or The true light was in being, which gives light to everyone entering the world.

79

https://archive.org/details/revisedenglishbi00oxfo (Ed. 1989)

https://books.google.pl/books?id=n61YBQAAQBAJ (Ed. 1992)

103

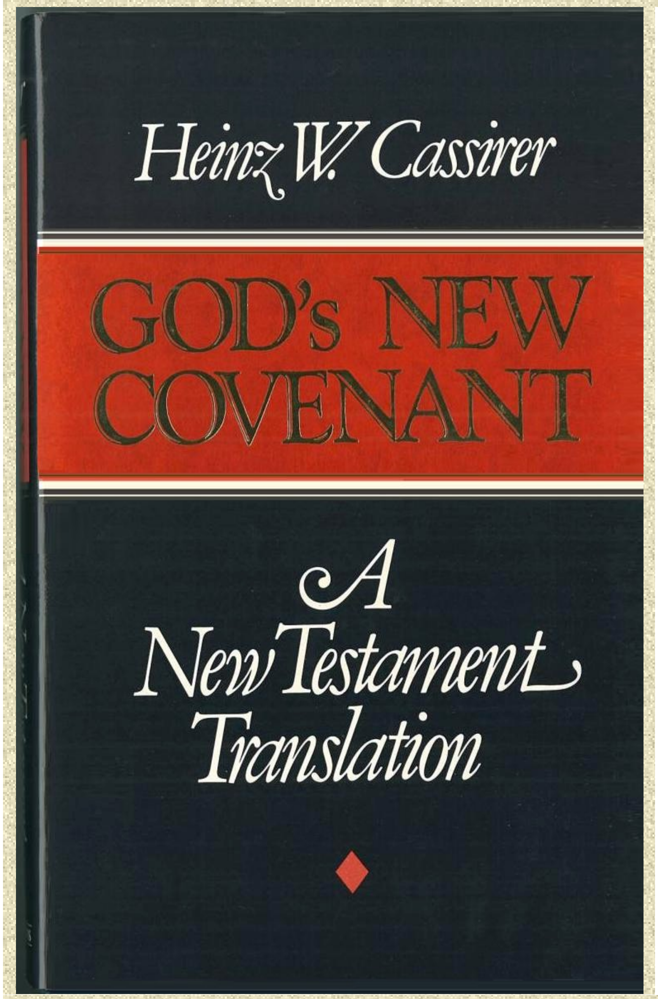
1989

God's New Covenant: A New Testament Translations

Grand Rapids: William B. Eerdmans Publishing

Heinz W. Cassirer

and the Word was the very same as God



THE GOSPEL STORY
AS TOLD BY JOHN

1 It was the Word that was at the very beginning; and the Word was by the side of God, and the Word was the very same as God. 2It was he who at the very beginning was by the side of God. 3All things came into being through him, and there was nothing that came into being apart from him. 4In him there was life, that life which was ever the light of men, 5the light which shines on in the darkness, and the darkness failing to gain mastery over it.

6There was a man that made his appearance, a man sent forth by God; and his name was John. 7He came to bear witness: he was to be witness of the light, so that everyone might learn to believe through him. 8It was not that man who was the light; to be a witness of the light was the task appointed to him. 9Meanwhile, the true light which sheds its light on every man was ever coming into the world. 10He was in the world, and it was through him that the world came into being. Yet the world did not acknowledge him. 11He came into a realm that was his, and those who were his very own would not accept him. 12Yet to those who would receive him, to those placing their trust in his very name, he granted the right to become God's children, 13they being the ones whose birth was not owing to their bodily descent, not to the promptings of fleshly desire, nor to the promptings of man, but who took birth from God himself. 14So the Word became a creature of flesh and blood and made his stay in our midst. And we saw his glory, the glory which is his as the Father's only Son, coming forth from the Father, full of grace and truth.

15John bears him witness, crying aloud, "He it is concerning whom I spoke the words, 'He who comes after me has taken precedence over me, because he was before I was.'" 16Out of his fullness we have, all of us, received grace upon grace. 17For while the law was given through Moses, truth and grace have come through Jesus Christ. 18No one has ever seen God. It is his only Son, who rests on the breast of the Father, who has made him known.

19And this is the testimony borne by John when the Jews sent priests

165

https://archive.org/details/godsnewcovenantn01cass

104

1990

"Torah in the Flesh—A New Reading of the Prologue of the Gospel of John as a Contribution to a Christology without Anti-Judaism"

Immanuel, Vol. 24/25, 1990, p. 80 [77-94]

Jacobus Schoneveld

and Godlike was the Torah

Torah in the Flesh

A New Reading of the Prologue of the Gospel of John as a Contribution to a Christology without Anti-Judaism

by Jacobus Schoneveld

Christian theology, in particular the doctrine on Christ, has for many centuries been infested with anti-Judaism. After Auschwitz, Christians are challenged to develop a Christology without anti-Judaism: a doctrine on Christ that does not deny but affirms the integrity and worth of the Jewish people and the Jewish faith. At the heart of Christology lies the doctrine of the incarnation, and at the source of this doctrine lies the prologue of the Gospel of John, in particular the short sentence: "And the word became flesh," or in the Greek original: καὶ ὁ λόγος σὰρξ ἐγένετο (Jn. 1:14). A new look at this central statement of Christian faith is therefore necessary.

The first question to be asked is: What is meant by "Word," by "Logos"? The hypothesis advanced in this paper is that in the prologue of John Logos is to be equated with Torah. Reasons for this hypothesis will first be given, then some thoughts will be offered on its theological consequences, especially with regard to the relation of the Church to the Jewish people.

Logos Equals Torah

The equation of Torah with divine Wisdom is well documented. According to E.E. Urbach,[1] the remnants of the Wisdom myth referring to Wisdom's pre-existence and its presence at the creation of the world were transferred to the Torah. In Proverbs 8:22 ff., Wisdom says:

> The Lord created me as the beginning of His way, the first of His acts of old.... When He established the heavens, I was there.... When He assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress His command, when He marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside Him, like a master workman [another reading is: as a little child], and I was λόγος ὁ ἐν τῷ νόμῳ αὐτῶν γεγραμμένος). These verses from the Gospel of John itself provide support for the equation of Logos and Torah. Further support is found in the combination of the verb τηρέω ("to observe") with λόγος, as τηρέω is frequently used in connection with words for commandments or prescribed festivals. See John 8:51, 52, 55; 14:23 f.; 15:20; 17:7; 1 John 2:5.

1. E.E. Urbach, The Sages: Their Concepts and Beliefs (Jerusalem, 1979), p. 287.

A Translation of the Prologue

In the following a translation of the prologue of John is proposed, based on the understanding of Logos as Torah in the broad meaning indicated in the above quotation from Gershenson, namely, the Torah revealed to Moses on Sinai, which is at the same time the means or the instrument with which the world has been created and is maintained. An important key word is ἐγένετο (or derivatives from the same stem). It means "came into being," "became," "came to pass." For the sake of using the same word throughout the translation, it is translated as "emerged." In order to put the equation of Logos and Torah into relief, λόγος is translated as "Torah."

(1) In the beginning was the Torah, and the Torah was toward God,
and Godlike[9] was the Torah.

(2) It was this which was in the beginning toward God.

(3) All things emerged through it,
and apart from it not one thing emerged.

(4) What has emerged in [or: through] it, was life, and the life was the light of the human beings.

(5) And the light shines in the darkness,
and the darkness did not take it away.

(6) There emerged a human being sent forth from God,
his name was John.

(7) It was he who came to witness, in order that he witnessed about the light, in order that through him all would be faithful.

(8) Not he was the light, but [he was there] in order that he witnessed about the light.

9. The word order makes the traditional translation "and the Word was God" unlikely. In that case we would have expected καὶ ὁ λόγος ἦν ὁ θεός. Brown (op. cit.) remarks in his commentary on this verse that the grammatical rule that predicate nouns generally lack the article cannot be invoked here to prove that an identity of λόγος and θεός is meant, since the "I am" formulae (Jn. 11:25, 14:6, etc.) that imply identity, and to which "the Word was..." in the prologue is akin, have the article. Philo makes a clear distinction between ὁ θεός (with article) and θεός (without article). The former is God Himself, the source of divinity, with which Philo never identifies the λόγος. The latter, however, is used by Philo to indicate the λόγος, understood as the divine energy working in the world. I have therefore chosen "Godlike" for the translation, although even this is not entirely satisfactory. The New English Bible paraphrases: "What God was, the Word was."

105a

1990

SPANISH

Las Escrituras Mesiánicas (Nuevo Testamento)
Edición cotejada con el texto griego de Nestle, con la antigua Versión Peshita y con las mejores traducciones modernas
San Juan: Asociación de Investigación Bíblica, Puerto Rico
José Antonio Álvarez Rivera

and the Word was mighty
y el Verbo era poderoso

LA BUENA NUEVA SEGUN JUAN

1 [1] En el principio existía el Verbo, y el Verbo estaba con el Poderoso, y el Verbo era poderoso. [2] El estaba en el principio con el Poderoso. [3] Todas las cosas se hicieron por medio de él, y sin él no se hizo nada de lo que se ha hecho. [4] En él estaba la vida, y esa vida era la luz de los hombres. [5] La luz resplandece en medio de las tinieblas, pero las tinieblas no la han comprendido.

[6] Apareció un hombre enviado por Yahweh, llamado Juan. [7] Este vino como testigo, para dar testimonio de la luz, a fin de que todos creyeran por medio de él. [8] El no era la luz sino que vino para dar testimonio de la luz.

[9] La luz verdadera que alumbra a todo hombre estaba para venir al mundo. [10] En el mundo estuvo, y el mundo fue hecho por medio de él, pero el mundo no lo conoció. [11] "A lo suyo vino, pero los suyos no lo recibieron. [12] Pero a todos los que lo recibieron, es decir, a los que creen en su nombre, les ha dado el derecho de llegar a ser hijos del Poderoso; [13] éstos no son engendrados de linaje humano, ni por el deseo carnal, ni por la voluntad del hombre, sino por Yahweh.

[14] El Verbo se hizo carne y acampó entre nosotros, y vimos su gloria; una gloria como del Hijo Unico del Padre, y estaba lleno de amor y verdad. [15] Juan daba testimonio de él cuando clamaba: "Este es aquél de quien yo decía: El que viene después de mí se me ha adelantado; porque existía antes que yo." [16] Porque de su plenitud todos nosotros hemos recibido, amor y más amor.

[17] Porque la ley se dio por medio de Moisés; pero el amor y la verdad vinieron por medio de Yahshua el Mesías. [18] A Yahweh nadie lo ha visto jamás; el poderoso Hijo Unico, que está en el regazo del Padre, es quien lo ha dado a conocer.

[19] Este fue el testimonio de Juan, cuando las autoridades judías de Jerusalem le enviaron sacerdotes y levitas para pre-

105b

2011

SPANISH

Las Sagradas Escrituras

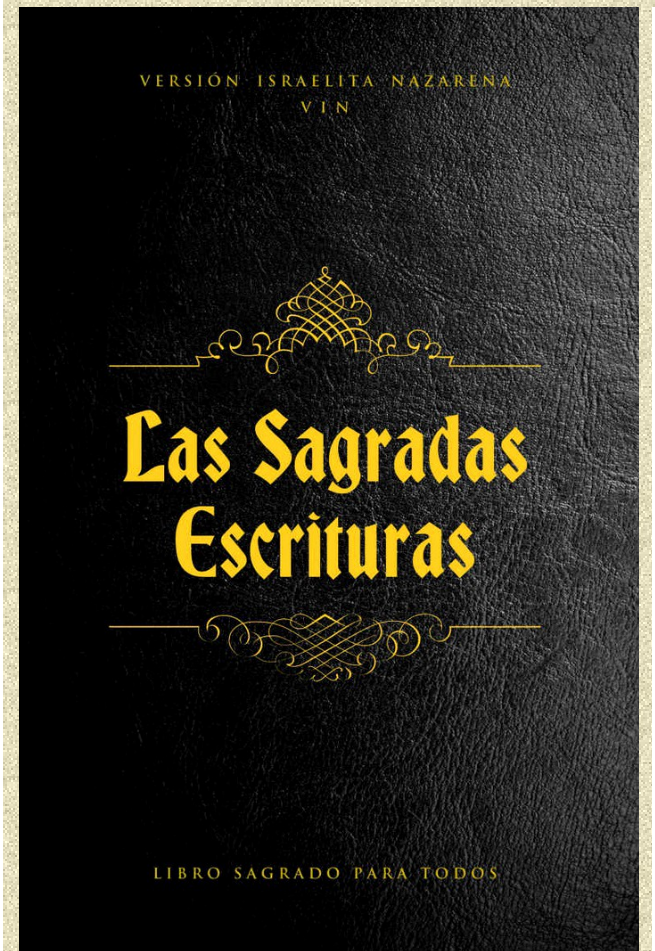
Versión Israelita Nazarena (VIN)

El Candelero de Luz, Inc., Puerto Rico

José Antonio Álvarez Rivera (Ch. Ed.)

and [he that is] the Word was a mighty one

y [el que es] la Palabra era poderoso



YOJANÁN — JUAN

1 En el principio existía la Palabra y la Palabra estaba con el Poderoso y [el que es] la Palabra era poderoso.* 2 Él estaba en el principio con el Poderoso. 3 Todas las cosas fueron hechas por medio de él, y sin él no se hizo nada de lo que se ha hecho. 4 En él estaba la vida, y esa vida era la luz de los hombres. 5 La luz resplandece en medio de las tinieblas, y las tinieblas no la han vencido.

6 Apareció un hombre, enviado por Elohim, que se llamaba Yojanán. 7 Este vino como testigo, para dar testimonio de la luz, para que todos creyeran por medio de él. 8 No era él la luz, sino que vino para dar testimonio de la luz.

9 Aquél era la luz verdadera que alumbra a todo hombre que viene al mundo. 10 En el mundo estuvo, y el mundo fue hecho por medio de él, pero el mundo no lo conoció. 11 A lo suyo vino, pero los suyos no lo recibieron. 12 Pero a todos los que lo recibieron, a los que creen en su nombre, les dio derecho de llegar a ser hijos de Elohim; 13 no por [linaje de] sangre, ni por el deseo carnal, ni por la voluntad del hombre, sino por YHWH.

14 El Verbo se hizo carne y acampó entre nosotros, y vimos su gloria, una gloria como del unigénito del Padre, lleno de amor y verdad.

Testimonio de Yojanán el Inmersor

15 Yojanán dio testimonio de él cuando proclamó: "Este es aquel de quien yo decía: El que viene después de mí se me ha adelantado, porque existía antes que yo".

16 Porque de su plenitud todos nosotros recibimos, amor y más amor. 17 La Torah se dio por medio de Mosheh, pero el amor y la verdad nos han llegado por medio de Yahoshúa el Mashíaj. 18 A YHWH nadie lo ha visto jamás; el unigénito de Elohim,* que está en el regazo del Padre, él lo ha dado a conocer.

19 Este es el testimonio de Yojanán: Cuando las autoridades yahuditas le enviaron de Yerushaláyim unos sacerdotes y lewitas para preguntarle: "¿Quién eres tú?" 20 Él declaró sin negar nada, sino que confesó: "Yo no soy el Mashíaj".

21 Así que le preguntaron: "¿Entonces, qué? ¿Eres tú Eliyah?" Y dijo: "No lo soy". "¿Eres tú el Profeta?" Y respondió: "No". 22 Le preguntaron entonces: "¿Quién eres?, para que demos respuesta a los que nos han enviado. ¿Qué dices en cuanto a ti mismo?" 23 Él dijo: "Yo soy la voz de uno que proclama en el desierto: 'Enderecen el camino de YHWH', como dijo el profeta Yeshayah".

24 Los enviados eran de los fariseos. 25 Y le preguntaron: "¿Entonces, por qué sumerges, si tú no eres el Mashíaj, ni Eliyahu, ni el Profeta?" 26 Yojanán les respondió: "Yo sumerjo en agua, pero en medio de ustedes está uno a quien ustedes no conocen. 27 Él es el que viene después de mí, a quien yo no soy digno de desatarle la correa del calzado". 28 Esto sucedió en Bet-Hiní, al otro lado del Yardén, donde Yojanán estaba sumergiendo.

Proclamación de Yojanán

29 Al día siguiente, Yojanán vio a Yahoshúa que venía hacia él y dijo: "¡Este es el Cordero de YHWH que quita el pecado del mundo! 30 Este es aquel de quien dije: 'Después de mí viene un hombre que ha llegado a ser antes de mí, porque existía primero que yo'. 31 Yo no lo conocía; pero para que él se manifestara a Yisrael fue que vine yo sumergiendo en agua".

32 Además, Yojanán dio testimonio diciendo: "He visto el espíritu bajar del cielo como paloma, y posarse sobre él. 33 Yo no lo conocía, pero el que me envió a sumergir en agua me dijo: 'Aquel sobre quien veas bajar el espíritu y posarse sobre él, éste es el que sumerge en el espíritu de santidad'. 34 Yo lo he visto y he dado testimonio de que éste es el Hijo de Elohim".

Sus primeros discípulos

35 Al día siguiente, estaba de nuevo Yojanán con dos de sus discípulos. 36 Al ver a Yahoshúa que andaba por allí, dijo: "¡Este es el Cordero de YHWH!" 37 Los dos discípulos lo oyeron hablar y siguieron a Yahoshúa. 38 Yahoshúa, al voltearse y ver que lo seguían, les preguntó: "¿Qué buscan?" Y ellos le

1:1 Esta es la traducción más literal y exacta del texto griego. La primera vez que aparece la palabra theós está con artículo definido, lo que indica personalidad; la segunda vez que aparece está sin artículo, lo que indica cualidad, o sea, que es un adjetivo. Véase la versión del Dr. Goodspeed. Si se vierte theós aquí como "elohim" se da la impresión errónea de que esto es un nombre, cuando es un título.

1:18 Según la Peshita aramea. Obviamente el texto griego de algunos manuscritos del siglo 4, que dicen "el unigénito Dios" no refleja correctamente el sentido del original arameo.

https://carmelourso.files.wordpress.com/2014/03/biblia-version-israelita-nazarena-completa.pdf

106

1991

The Christian Bible: Its New Contract Writings Portion.

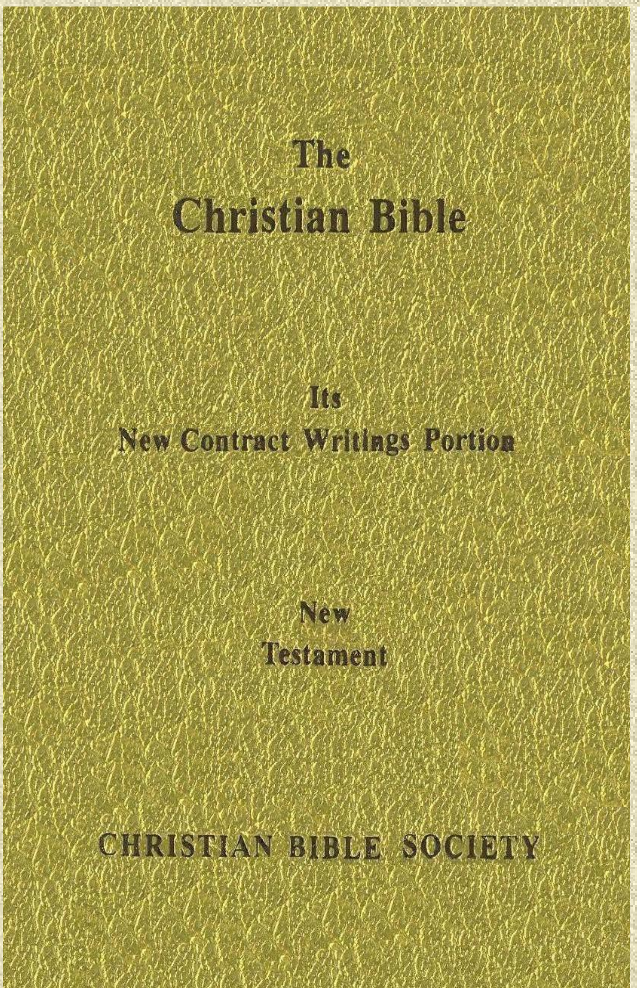
A Literal, Accurate, Plain English New Testament (Ed. 1)

Christian Bible Society (Ed. 2, 1995)

translators team

Lynne Alberts?

and the Word represented God



John

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was face to face with God, and the Word represented God. [2] He was face to face with God in the beginning. [3] Everything came into being through Him; and apart from Him not even one thing came into being, that has come into being. [4] It was by Him that life began to exist, and the Life was the Light of humans. [5] So the Light is continually appearing in the darkness; and the darkness hasn't grabbed hold of it.

[6] There occurred a human who had been dispatched by God; his name was John. [7] This person came for a testimony, so that he might testify about the Light, so that everyone might believe through him. [8] He wasn't the Light, but he came so that he might testify about the Light. [9] The true Light that came into the world, is enlightening every human. [10] He was in the world, and the world came into being through Him, but the world didn't know Him. [11] He came to His own; and those who were His own, didn't accept Him. [12] Yet whoever did accept Him, to them He gave the right to become children [ones born] of God; to those who are continually believing in His name ["Yesu"], [13] who were born not from the bloods [of parents], nor from what was wanted by the flesh, nor from what was wanted by a man, but from God.

[14] Now the Word became flesh and had a tent [temporary home (His body)] among us, and we gazed at His glory, a glory like that of an only Son born to His Father, and He was full of Favor and Truth. [15] John testified about Him, and has yelled out, saying, "This was the One of whom I said, 'The One who is coming after me, has come to be in front of me, for He was first, before me.' " [16] For from that which fills Him we have all obtained, and favor upon favor. [17] For the Law was given through Moses; Favor and Truth have come through Yesu (the Anointed One). [18] No one has ever seen God; rather, it was the only God to be born, who is lying upon the Father's chest, who has described Him.

[19] Now this is the testimony of John, when the Jews dispatched to him priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" [20] Now he acknowledged and didn't deny it; he acknowledged, "I am not the Anointed One." [21] So they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" Then he said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" [Deu. 18:15,18]. Then he responded, "No." [22] So then they said to him, "Who are you, so that we might give a response to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?" [23] He affirmed, "I am 'the voice of one crying out in the wasteland: "You+ must straighten the road of the Master!" ' [Isa. 40:3], just

https://archive.org/stream/TheNewTestamentForEnglishReadersAlfordH.rOpts/TheChristianBibleNT2nd 1995

107

1991
"Ostrakon BM 50466 (Joh 1,1 - 7)"
ENCHORIA. Zeitschrift für Demotistik und Koptologie, Band 18, p. 10 [1-11]
Wiesbaden: Harrasowitz Verlag
Anneliese Biedenkopf-Ziehner

and the Word was divine nature
und das Wort war göttlicher Natur

ENCHORIA

ZEITSCHRIFT FÜR
DEMOTISTIK UND KOPTOLOGIE

HERAUSGEGEBEN VON
E. LÜDDECKENS, H.-J. THISSEN, K.-TH. ZAUZICH

XVIII
1991

IN KOMMISSION BEI
OTTO HARRASSOWITZ · WIESBADEN

10 ENCHORIA 18, 1991

von Perf. I das Perf. II: "Zum Zeugnis ist dieser (in der Tat) gekommen" steht in Gegensatz zu "Dieser ist zum Zeugnis gekommen". -

5. Übersetzung

An dieser Stelle sei die Übersetzung gegeben, ohne daß auf die Struktur des Textes und die semantisch/pragmatischen Funktionen der einzelnen Sprachsignale eingegangen wird. Dies soll und kann nur im Zusammenhang mit dem vollständigen Text des Logosliedes bzw. dem Prolog insgesamt vorgenommen werden.

Aussage 1: Im Anfang war das Wort existent und das Wort war im Angesicht Gottes existent
und das Wort war göttlicher Natur.
Aussage 2: (Einschub des Evangelisten:)
Dieses war im Anfang unter dem Herzen Gottes existent.
Aussage 3: Alles war entstanden unter (/in/auf) seiner Hand und ohne ihn war nichts entstanden.
Aussage 4: Das Leben war das, was in ihm entstanden war und das Licht der Menschen war das Leben.
Aussage 5: (Einschub des Evangelisten:)
Und das Licht leuchtet in der Finsternis
und die Finsternis hat es nicht erfaßt.
Aussage 6: (Einschub des Evangelisten:)
Ein Mensch ist entstanden, gesandt vom Herrn,
Aussage 7: (Einschub des Evangelisten:)

https://books.google.pl/books?id=uCcPAQAAMAAJ (limited view)

108

1992

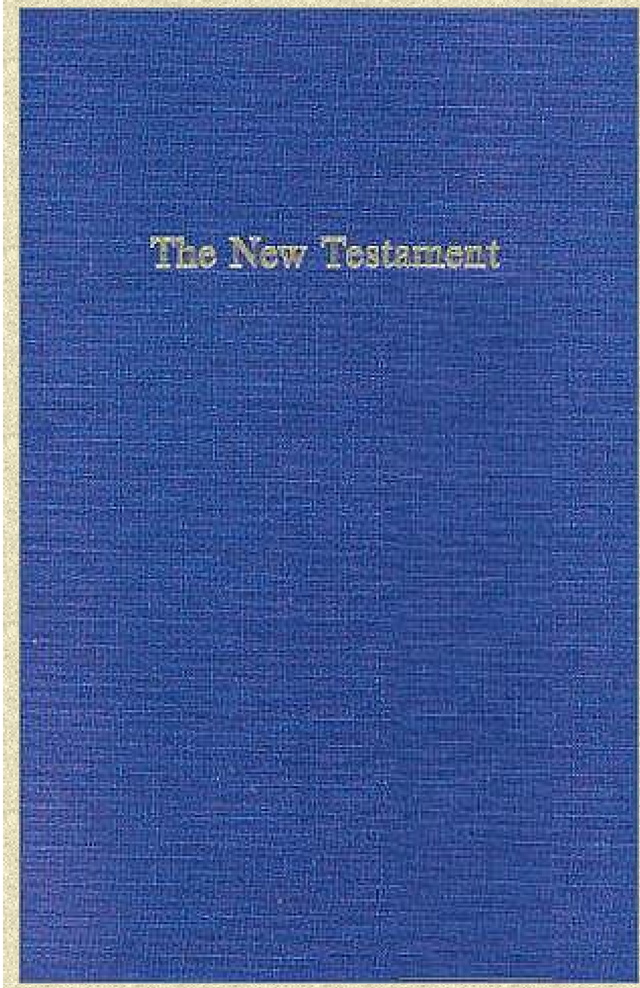
The New Testament

Edinburgh: Floris Books

(updated 2017)

Jon Madsen

and the Word was a divine Being



The Gospel of John

1 Prologue

In the very beginning was the Word,
and the Word was with God,
and the Word was a divine Being.
[2]He was in the very beginning with God.
[3]All things came into being through him, and nothing of all that has come into being was made except through him.
[4]In him was life,
and the life was the light of human beings.
[5]And the light shines in the darkness;
and the darkness has not accepted it.
[6]There came a man,
sent from God,
his name was John.
[7]He came to bear witness, to witness to the light
and so to awaken faith in all hearts.
[8]He himself was not the light,
he was to be a witness to the light.
[9]The true light that enlightens all human beings was to come into the world.
[10]It was in the world,
for the world came into being through it,
yet the world did not recognize it.
[11]It came to men of individual spirit,
but those very individuals did not accept it.
[12]To all, however, who did accept it,
it gave the free power to become children of God.
They are the ones who trustingly take its power into themselves.
[13]They receive their life, not out of blood, nor out of the will of the flesh,
and not out of human willing;
for they are born of God.
[14]And the Word became flesh and lived among us.
And we have beheld his revelation,

https://books.google.pl/books?id=AWzfDQAAQBAJ (Ed. 2017)

109

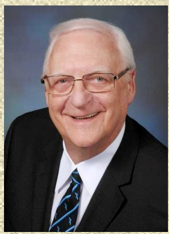
1993

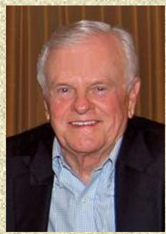
The Five Gospels

The Search for the Authentic Words of Jesus: New Translation and Commentary

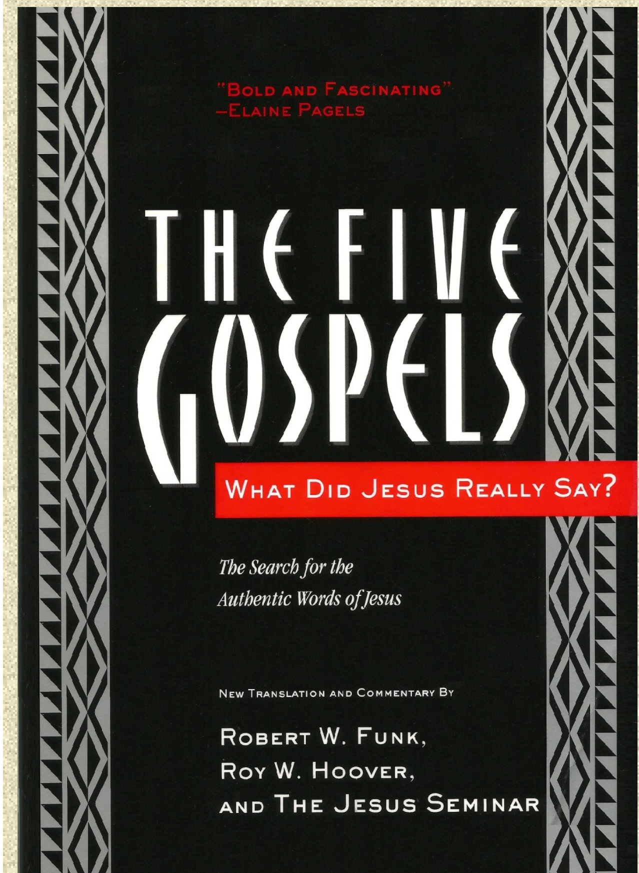
New York: HarperSanFrancisco

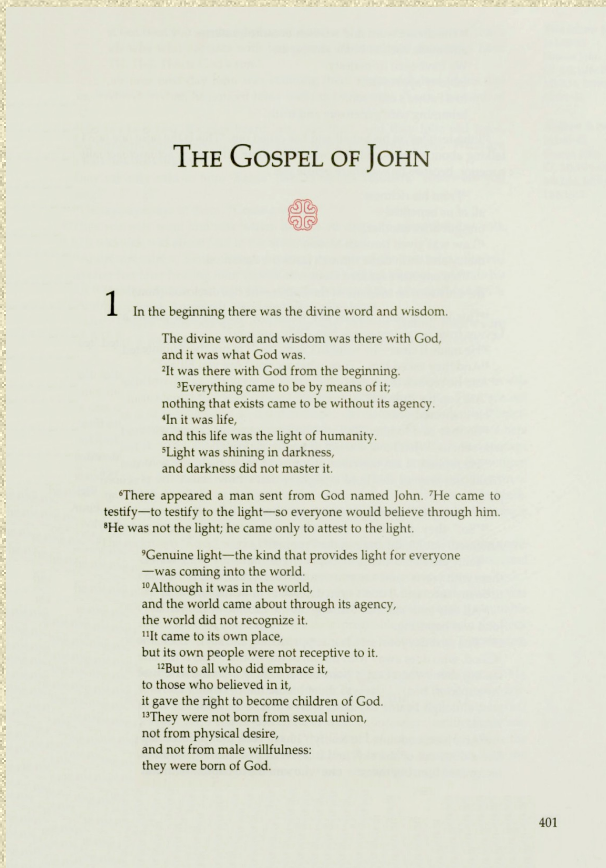
Robert W. Funk – Roy W. Hoover and the Jesus Seminar





The divine word and wisdom was there with God,
and it was what God was





The Gospel of John

1 In the beginning there was the divine word and wisdom.

The divine word and wisdom was there with God,
and it was what God was.
[2]It was there with God from the beginning.
[3]Everything came to be by means of it;
nothing that exists came to be without its agency.
[4]In it was life,
and this life was the light of humanity.
[5]Light was shining in darkness, and darkness did not master it.

[6]There appeared a man sent from God named John. [7]He came to testify—to testify to the light—so everyone would believe through him. [8]He was not the light; he came only to attest to the light.

[9]Genuine light—the kind that provides light for everyone —was coming into the world.
[10]Although it was in the world, and the world came about through its agency,
the world did not recognize it.
[11]It came to its own place,
but its own people were not receptive to it.
[12]But to all who did embrace it,
to those who believed in it,
it gave the right to become children of God.
[13]They were not born from sexual union,
not from physical desire,
and not from male willfulness:
they were born of God.

401

https://pl.scribd.com/document/260445525/Robert-W-Funk-The-Five-Gospels-What-Did-Jesus-Really-Say-the-Search-for-the-Authentic-Words-of-Jesus-HarperOne-1996

1994

POLISH

Ewangelia Jana: przekład filologiczny z języka greckiego

Warszawa: Sławomir Łuczkiewicz

Sławomir Łuczkiewicz

Wewnątrz w nieokreślonej fundamentalnej zasadzie jakościowo był lecz nie dokonał się określony odwzorowany wniosek, i ten odwzorowany wniosek jakościowo był
lecz nie dokonał się istotnie do wiadomego boga,
i jakiś niewiadomy bóg jakościowo był ten odwzorowany wniosek.

. . . and an unknown god . . .

This Polish Gospel contain "to pain-literal" translation (ultraliteral), which extremally hard is translate into English.

EWANGELIA

JANA

PRZEKŁAD FILOLOGICZNY
Z JĘZYKA GRECKIEGO

zawiera

NOWE ŚWIECKIE SŁOWNICTWO

OBJAŚNIENIA ETYMOLOGICZNE, ODMIANOWE I SKŁADNIOWE

FORMY SŁOWNIKOWE DLA GRECKICH SŁÓW TEKSTOWYCH

ISBN 83-903921-2-7

Warszawa 1994

W dół w Ioannesa

Wewnątrz*w nieokreślonej *fundamentalnej zasadzie 384 D jakościowo był lecz nie dokonał się 834 3s ipf ac określony 1966 odwzorowany wniosek 1726 m, i ten 1966 odwzorowany wniosek jakościowo był lecz nie dokonał się ipf *istotnie do wiadomego boga A, i jakiś niewiadomy* bóg N jakościowo* był ipf ten odwzorowany wniosek. [1,2] Ten właśnie Ns m jakościowo* był wewnątrz w fundamentalnej zasadzie D istotnie do tego wiadomego A boga A. [1,3] Wszystkie rzeczy 2193 Np n przez-z niego G jako jedna *poczęła stawać się 584 3s ao md-dp, i bez niego nie poczęło stawać się ani jedno 843 Ns n. Które 2061 Ns n od przeszłości* staje się 3s pf ac [1,4] wewnątrz w nim Ds m życie biologiczne 1223 Ns f jakościowo było lecz nie dokonało się 834 3s ipf ac, i to życie biologiczne jakościowo było ipf wiadome światło Ns n. [1,5] I to światło w tym zaciemnieniu 2576 objawia się pr ac, i to zaciemnienie go nie schwyciło z góry 1481 ao ac.

[1,6] *Stał się 584 3s ao md-dp niewiadomy* człowiek odprawiony 334 N pt pf ps od strony niewiadomego boga G, imię mu Ioannes. [1,7] Ten właśnie przyjechał 1139 ao ac do funkcji świadczenia A aby zaświadczyłby 1776 ao sb ac około tego wiadomego światła G, aby wszyscy 2193 Np m wtwierdziliby do rzeczywistości 2277 ao sb ac *przez-z niego 430 Gs m,n. [1,8] Nie był jakościowo ów to światło N, ale aby zaświadczyłby ao sb ac około tego światła G.

[1,9] Było jakościowo lecz nie dokonało się 834 ipf ac to światło to *pochodzące od starannej pełnej jawnej prawdy 111, które 2061 Ns n oświetla 2972 pr ac wszystkiego 2193 A niewiadomego człowieka As m przyjeżdżające(go) 1139 As m, Ns n pt pr md-ps-dp do tego A naturalnego ustroju światowego 1621 A.

[1,10] Wewnątrz w tym naturalnym ustroju światowym jakościowo był, i ten ustrój przez-z niego Gs m stał się ao md-dp, i ten ustrój go nie rozeznał 585 ao ac. [1,11] Do swoich własnych rzeczy 1334 Ap n przyjechał 1139 ao, i ci swoi właśni Np m go nie wzięli z naprzeciw do obok siebie 2164 ao ac. [1,12] Ci którzy zaś wzięli 1681 ao go As m, dał ao im samowolną władzę z wybycia na zewnątrz 1028 A niewiadomi potomkowie Ap n niewiadomego boga G stać się 584 ao if md-dp, tym wtwierdzającym jako do rzeczywistości 2277 Dp pt pr ac do tego wiadomego imienia A jego, [1,13] którzy 2061 Np m nie z krwiowych istot Gp ani z woli mięsowej istoty Gs ani z woli męża, ale z niewiadomego boga G zostali zrodzeni 570 ao ps.

[1,14] I ten odwzorowany wniosek Ns m jako niewiadoma mięsowa istota Ns

J

1995

Die Heilige Schrift NT.

Konkordantes Neues Testament mit Stichwortkonkordanz (Ed. 6)

Birkenfeld: Konkordanter Verlag Pforzheim

Adolph Knoch and others

and like God was the Word

und wie Gott war das Wort

KONKORDANTES

NEUES TESTAMENT

DIE VIER BERICHTE

Matthäus, Markus, Lukas, Johannes

Konkordanter Verlag Pforzheim

Bericht des Johannes

[i]Zu Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war zu ·Gott hingewandt, und 2 wie Gott war das Wort. Dieses war [i]zu Anfang zu ·Gott hingewandt. 3 Alles ist durch dasselbe geworden, Ko1[16] und ohne dasselbe wurde auch 4 nicht eines, das geworden ist. In demselben war Leben, und das Leben war 5 das Licht der Menschen. + Das Licht erscheint in der Finsternis, +doch die Finsternis hat es nicht ⁻erfaßt.

6 Da [w]trat ein Mann auf, [b]von Gott geschickt, sein Name war Johannes. 7 Dieser kam [h]zum Zeugnis, um [bt]von dem Licht zu zeugen, damit alle durch 8 dasselbe glaubten; er′ war nicht selbst das Licht, sondern er kam, um [bt]von 9 dem Licht zu zeugen: Es war das wahrhafte ·Licht, das, [h]in die Welt kommend, jeden Menschen erleuchtet.

10 Er war in der Welt, und die Welt wurde durch Ihn erschaffen, +doch die 11 Welt hat Ihn nicht ⁻erkannt. Er kam [h]in Sein ·Eigentum, +doch die Seinen 12 ⁻nahmen Ihn nicht an; allen aber, die Ihn ⁻annahmen – ihnen ⁻gab Er Vollmacht, Kinder Gottes zu werden, denen, die [h]an Seinen ·Namen glauben, 13 die nicht aus Geblüt, noch aus dem Willen des Fleisches, noch aus dem Willen eines Mannes, sondern aus Gott gezeugt wurden.

14 + Das Wort wurde Fleisch und ⁻zeltete [i]unter uns, und wir ⁻schauten Seine ·Herrlichkeit – wie die Herrlichkeit des Einziggezeugten [b]vom Vater – voller Gnade und Wahrheit.

15 Johannes zeugte [bt]von Ihm und hat laut ausgerufen [s]: «Dieser war es, von dem ich sagte: Er, der nach mir kommt, ist [vn]vor mir geworden; denn 16 Er war eher als ich.» [da] Aus Seiner ·Vervollständigung haben wir′ alle ⁻erhalten, und zwar Gnade [at]um Gnade. 17 Denn das Gesetz wurde durch Mose gegeben, ·Gnade und ·Wahrheit sind jedoch durch Jesus Christus gewor-18 den. Niemand hat Gott jemals gesehen; der einziggezeugte Gott, der jetzt [h]in dem Busen des Vaters ist, derselbe hat Ihn ⁻geschildert.

19 + Dies ist das Zeugnis des Johannes, als die Juden aus Jerusalem Priester und Leviten zu ihm ⁻schickten, damit sie ihn fragen sollten: «Wer bist du′?» 20 +Da ⁻bekannte er es und ⁻leugnete nicht. Und er ⁻bekannte: «Ich′ bin 21 nicht der Christus!» + Sie ⁻fragten ihn nochmals: «Was nun? Bist du Elia?» Ma4[5] + Er [s]entgegnete: «Ich bin es nicht.» «Bist du′ der Prophet?» + Er 22 antwortete: «Nein.» Nun [s]fragten sie ihn: «Wer bist du denn, damit wir denen Antwort geben, die uns ⁻gesandt haben. Was sagst du [bt]von dir selbst?» 23 Er entgegnete: «Ich bin die Stimme eines Rufers: In der Wildnis macht den Weg des Herrn gerade! – so wie es der Prophet Jesaia gesagt hat.» Je40[3]

24 + Die Abgesandten, die [as]von den 25 Pharisäern waren, ⁻fragten ihn +weiter. + Sie sagten zu ihm: «Warum[i] taufst du nun, wenn du′ nicht der Chri-

112

1999

21st. Century New Testament: The Literal/Free Dual Translation

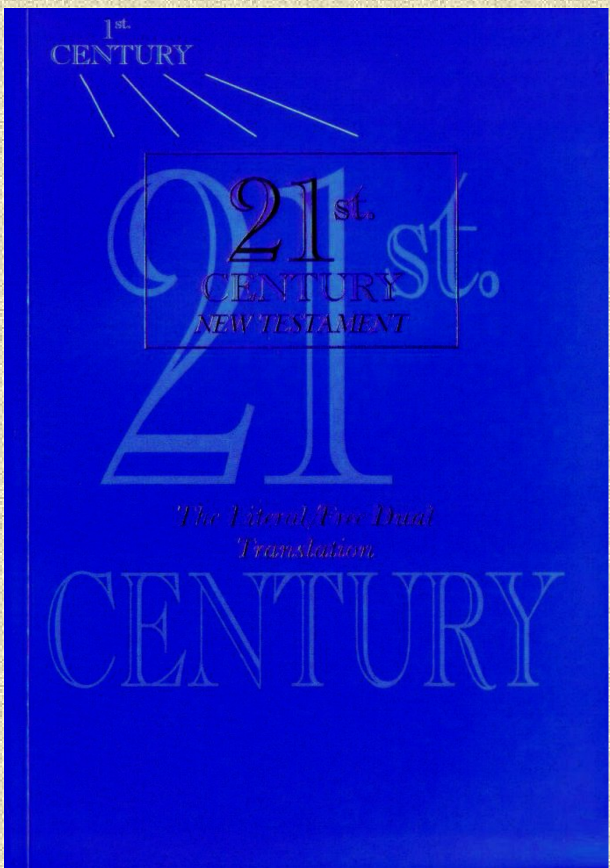
Bristol: Insight Press, England

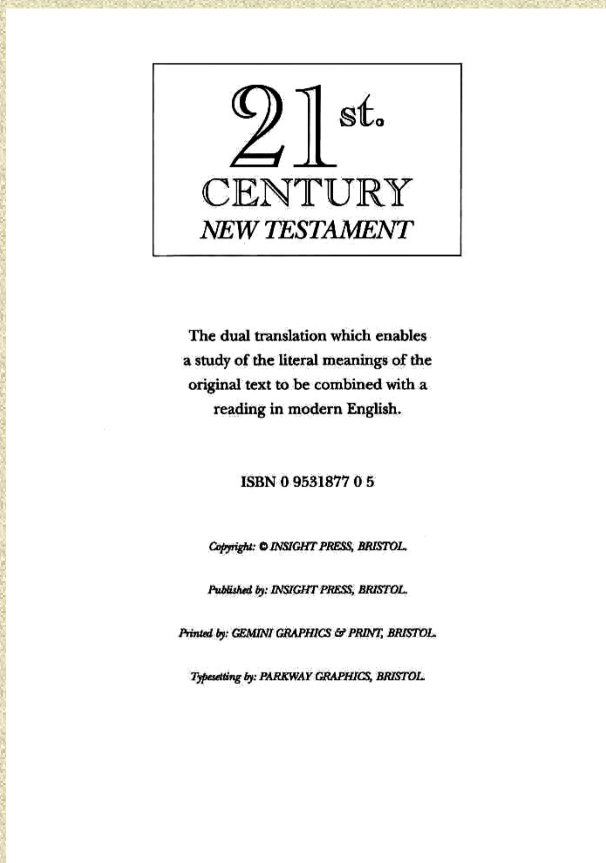
Vivian Capel

literal section:	translation section:
and the [Marshal] [Word] was a god	a mighty spirit, the Marshal

John 1

Chapter 1	Chapter 1
In a beginning* was the [Marshall] [Word] and the [Marshall]* [Word] was with the God and the [Marshall]* [Word] was a god*. 2 This one was in a beginning with the God. 3 All came to be through him, and apart from him not even one thing came to be which has come to be.	At the beginning of Creation, there dwelt with God a mighty spirit, the Marshal, who produced all things in their order. 2 He was there at the beginning with God, 3 and everything came into existence by means of him. Apart from him not a single thing that exists came into being.





21st. CENTURY NEW TESTAMENT

The dual translation which enables a study of the literal meanings of the original text to be combined with a reading in modern English.

ISBN 0 9531877 0 5

Published by: INSIGHT PRESS, BRISTOL.

Printed by: GEMINI GRAPHICS & PRINT, BRISTOL.

Typesetting by: PARKWAY GRAPHICS, BRISTOL.

113 CATHOLIC

1999

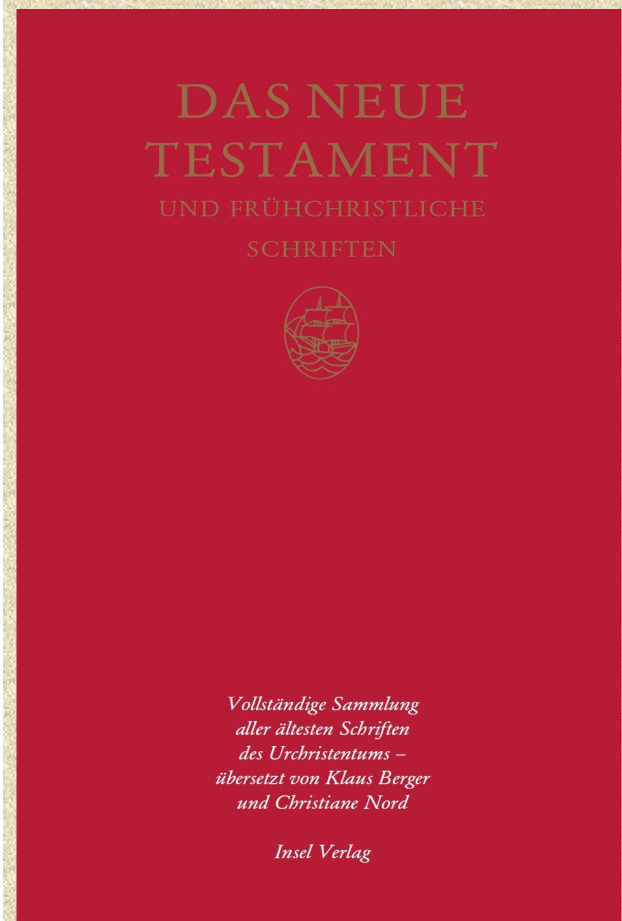
Das Neue Testament und frühchristliche Schriften (Ed. 1)

Frankfurt a.M. und Leipzig: Insel Verlag

Klaus Berger – Christiane Nord

At first the Word already was, near the God and of divine sort. (unsure translation)

Zuerst war das Wort da, Gott nahe und von Gottes Art.



DAS EVANGELIUM NACH JOHANNES

Kapitel 1

Prolog 1,1-18

Zuerst war das Wort da, Gott nahe und von Gottes Art. / Es war am Anfang bei Gott. / Alle Dinge sind durch das Wort entstanden. Ohne das Wort konnte nichts werden. / In ihm war das Leben, und für die Menschen ist Leben auch Licht. / Das Licht macht die Finsternis hell, und die Finsternis hat das Licht nicht verschluckt.

Dann kam ein Mensch, von Gott gesandt, der hieß Johannes. / Er war zur Zeugenschaft bestellt und sollte Zeugnis ablegen von dem Licht, damit alle durch ihn zum Glauben kämen. / Er war nicht selbst das Licht, sondern sollte nur Zeugnis ablegen von dem Licht.

Aber einer war wirklich das Licht und strahlt hell in jeden Menschen hinein, der zur Welt kommt. / Er war in der Welt; die Welt entstand durch ihn, doch sie wies ihn ab. / Er kam in die Welt, die durch ihn geworden und deshalb sein eigen war, doch seine eigenen Menschen nahmen ihn nicht an. / Denen aber, die ihn annahmen, gab er die Freiheit, sich seinem Namen anzuvertrauen und Kinder Gottes zu werden, / aus Gott geboren und nicht kreatürlich, nicht aus menschlichem Trieb oder Willen.

Das Wort erschien in einem Menschen und wohnte bei uns. Wir sahen seine Herrlichkeit, die so herrlich ist, wie wenn der einzige Sohn von seinem Vater allen Ruhm allein erbt. Dieses Wort ist ganz Gnade und ganz Gottes Wesen. / Johannes legt Zeugnis ab von ihm: »Diesen meinte ich, als ich sagte: ›Nach mir kommt einer, der vor mir entstanden ist, weil er früher da war als ich.‹« / Denn nur so konnten wir alle, ob vor ihm oder nach ihm, aus dem schöpfen, was ihm in Fülle gegeben ist, Gnade und nochmals Gnade. / Durch Mose gab Gott das Gesetz, durch Jesus Christus wurde uns Gnade und Gottes Wesen selbst zuteil. / Keiner hat Gott je gesehen. Der einzige Sohn, der von Gottes Art ist und seinen Platz neben dem Vater hat, brachte von ihm Kunde.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=OiYqAQAAMAAJ (limited view)

114

2000

The Testament of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ commonly called the New Testament
RVIC^{2000}
being the Revised Version (American Version) Improved and Corrected from manuscripts discovered and published to A.D. 1999

Preliminary Edition

James B. Parkinson

the Word also was a god

PRELIMINARY EDITION$_8$

THE TESTAMENT

OF

OUR LORD AND SAVIOR

JESUS CHRIST

COMMONLY CALLED

THE NEW TESTAMENT

RVIC^{2000}

BEING THE REVISED VERSION (American Edition)
Improved and Corrected
from manuscripts discovered and published to A.D. 1999

A.D. 2000

Temporarily: Send corrections to jim4888parkinson@juno.com

The Gospel recorded by John

1 In the beginning was the Word, and [1]the Word was [2]with God; the Word also was a god. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him; and without him [3]was not anything made that hath been made. 4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men. 5 And the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness [4]apprehended it not.

6 There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 The same came for witness, that he might bear witness of the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not that light, but came that he might bear witness of the light. 9 [5]There was the true light, even the light which lighteth [6]every man, coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world knew him not. 11 He came unto [7]his own, and they that were his own received him not. 12 But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become children of God, even to them that believe on his name: 13 who were [8]begotten, not of [9]blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 And the Word became flesh, and [10]dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of [11]the only begotten from the Father), full of grace and truth. 15 John beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, [12]This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after me is become before me: for he was [13]before me. 16 For of his fullness we all received, and [14]grace for grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus [15]Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time; [16]an only begotten god, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent unto him from Jerusalem priests and Levites to ask him, Who art thou? 20 And he confessed, and denied not; and he confessed, I am not the Christ. 21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elijah? And he saith, I am not. Art thou the prophet? And he answered, No. 22 They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? that we may give answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? 23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as [17]said Isaiah the prophet. 24 [18]And they had been sent from the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou, if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, neither the prophet? 26 John answered them, saying, I baptize in water: in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know not, 27 even he that cometh after me, the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to unloose. 28 These things were done in [19]Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 On the morrow he seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold, the Lamb of God, that [20]taketh away the sin of the world! 30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man who is become before me: for he was [21]before me. 31 And I knew him not; but that he should be made manifest to Israel, for this cause came I baptizing in water. 32 And John bare witness, saying, I have beheld the spirit descending as a dove out of heaven; and it abode upon him. 33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize in water, he said unto me, Upon whomsoever thou shalt see the spirit descending, and abiding upon him, the same is he that baptizeth in the Holy Spirit. 34 And I have seen, and have borne witness that this is the Son of God.

35 Again on the morrow John was standing, and two of his disciples; 36 and he looked upon Jesus as he walked, and saith, Behold, the Lamb of God! 37 And

[1] Or, the Word was with the Mighty, and mighty was the Word! which better preserves the emphasis, at little compromise of the literal. See Appendix II.
[2] Lit. toward God; or, allied with God;
[3] Or, was not anything made. That which hath been made was life in him; and the life etc.
[4] Or, overcame See ch. 12:35 (Gk.).
[5] Or, The true light, which lighteth every man, was coming into the world.
[6] Or, every man as he cometh
[7] Gk. his own things,
[8] Or, born,
[9] Gk. bloods,
[10] Gk. tabernacled
[11] Or, an only begotten from a father) Comp. Hb 11:17
[12] So $p^{66,75}$ $ℵ^b$ L and most. But B $ℵ^a$ C* read (this was he that said). ℵ* reads This was he that cometh after me, who is become before me:
[13] Gk. first in regard of me.
[14] Or, grace upon grace.
[15] Christ (Anointed) is the Greek word for Messiah.
[16] So p^{66} B ℵ* L C*. p^{75} 33 cop^{bo} read the only begotten god. 892 Ψ and most lesser Greek. mss., it^e vg sy^c arm read the only begotten Son.
[17] Is 40:3.
[18] Or, And certain had been sent from among the Pharisees.
[19] So $p^{66,75}$ B ℵ*L 892^{txt} cop^{bo} (it^e) vg. But ($ℵ^b$)T^{vid} 083 cop^{sa} $sy^{s,c}$ geo arm read Bethabara (or, Beth-Arabah).
[20] Or, beareth the sin
[21] Gk. first in regard of me. As in ch. 1:15.

http://herald-magazine.com/christian-literature/online-bible/

115

2000

FRENCH

Jean. Évangile: Traduit du grec, préfacé et annoté

Rivages poche

Bernard Pautrat

and the word was a god

et la parole était dieu

NOTE: du dieu=God / dieu=a god or divine

SELON JEAN

1 Dans le principe[1] était la parole[2], et la parole était auprès du dieu[3], et la parole était dieu. 2 Elle était dans le principe auprès du dieu. 3 Tout eut lieu à cause d'elle, et séparément d'elle pas une chose n'eut lieu[4]. Ce qui eut lieu 4 était en elle vie, et la vie était la lumière des hommes ; 5 et la lumière brille dans la ténèbre, et la ténèbre ne l'a pas saisie.

6 Eut lieu un homme envoyé d'auprès de dieu, son nom Jean ; 7 celui-là vint pour témoignage, pour témoigner au sujet de la lumière, pour que tous à l'avenir croient à cause de lui. 8 Il n'était pas, lui, la lumière, mais pour témoigner au sujet de la lumière. 9 La parole était la lumière, la vraie, qui, venant au monde, éclaire tout homme ; 10 elle était dans le monde, et le monde eut lieu à cause d'elle, et le monde ne la reconnut pas. 11 Elle vint chez elle, et les siens ne la reçurent pas ; 12 mais à tous ceux qui la reçurent, elle donna pouvoir de devenir enfants de dieu, à ceux qui croient en son nom, 13 et qui ne furent engendrés ni de sang ni de désir de chair ni de désir d'homme, mais de dieu.

33

116

2000

BULGARIAN

Новият Завет: съвременен превод

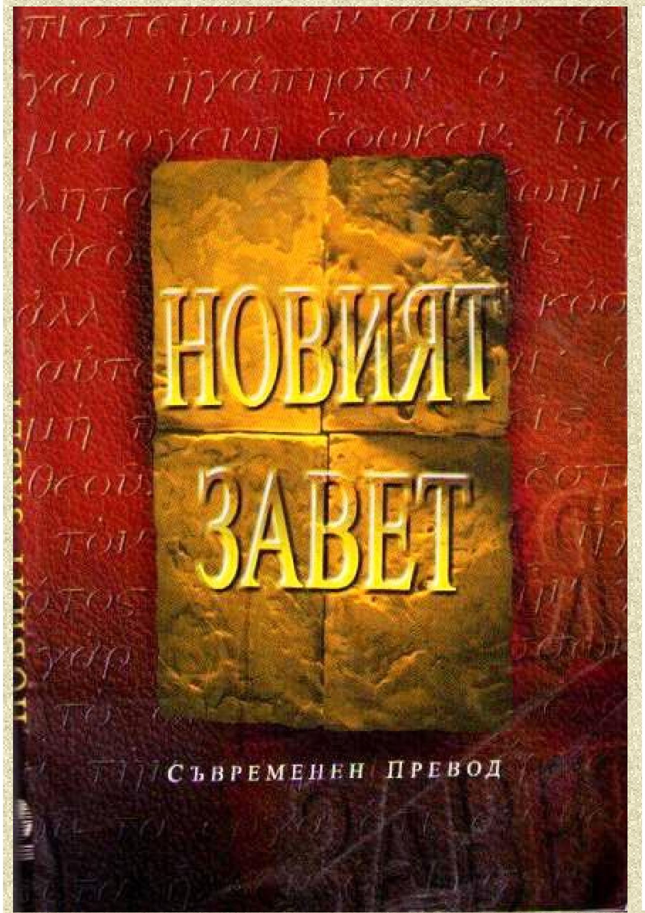
New Testament: today version

Bible League International

?

What was God was the Word

Това, което бе Бог, беше Словото



Евангелието според

Йоан

Идването на Месията

1 В началото беше Словото.
И Словото беше с Бога. Това, което бе Бог, беше Словото.
[2] Словото беше с Бога в началото.
[3] Всичко бе създадено чрез него
и нищо не бе създадено без него.
[4] В него бе животът
и този живот донесе светлина на хората.
[5] Светлината свети в тъмнината
и тъмнината не можа да я угаси.*

[6] Бог изпрати човек на име Йоан. [7] Той дойде като свидетел да изяви кой е светлината, за да могат всички да повярват чрез неговото послание. [8] Самият той не беше светлината, но дойде, за да свидетелства за светлината. [9] В света идваше истинската светлина, която осветлява всеки човек.

[10] Той бе в света и светът бе създаден чрез него, но светът не го позна. [11] Той дойде в собствения си свят, но народът му не го прие. [12] На тези обаче, които го приеха и повярваха в него, той даде правото да станат Божии деца — [13] деца, родени не по естествения начин, нито по човешко желание или съпружеска воля, а родени от Бога.

[14] Словото стана човек и живя между нас. И видяхме славата му — слава на единствения син на Отца. Той бе пълен с благодат и истина. [15] За него свидетелства Йоан, като провъзгласяваше: „Ето този, за когото казвах: «Този, който идва след мен, ме превъзхожда във всичко, защото е съществувал преди мен.»“

[16] Поради всичко, което е Синът,† ние всички получихме от него благословение след благословение.‡ [17] Законът беше даден чрез Моисей, но благодатта и истината дойдоха чрез Исус Христос. [18] Никой никога не е виждал Бога. Единственият Син, който е Бог и е най-близо до Отца, ни го разкри.¶

Свидетелството на Йоан Кръстител

(Матей 3:1-12; Марк 1:2-8; Лука 3:15-17)

[19] Ето какво бе свидетелството на Йоан, когато юдейските водачи в Ерусалим изпратиха при него няколко свещеници и левити да го попитат: „Кой си ти?“

[20] Той им отговори открито, без да се отклонява от въпроса: „Аз не съм Месията.“

[21] „Тогава кой си? — попитаха те. — Илия?“

„Не“ — отговори той.

„Пророкът,§ когото очакваме?“

„Не“ — отвърна Йоан.

[22] Тогава те го попитаха: „Кой си ти? Отговори ни, за да кажем на онези,

---

*__1:5__ угаси Или: „разбере, схване“.

†1:16 всичко, което е Синът Букв.: „От неговата пълнота“, вероятно „пълнотата на неговата благодат и истина.“ Вж. стих 14.

‡1:16 благословение след благословение Букв.: „благодат върху благодат“.

¶1:18 Единственият Син … разкри Или, по-буквално: „Единственият Бог, който е най-близо до Отца, ни го разкри.“ Според някои гръцки ръкописи: „Единственият Син е най-близо до Отца и ни го разкри.“

§1:21 Пророкът Споменат още в 1:25. Вероятно се има предвид пророкът, който Бог ще изпрати. Вж. Вт. 18:15-19.

http://d1d7ektpm2nljo.cloudfront.net/uYmu8s5-o2GGcaZIsfITAQ/Bulgarian_Bible_43__John.pdf

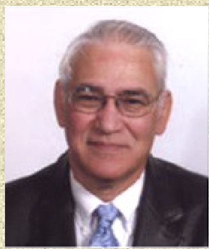
117

2001

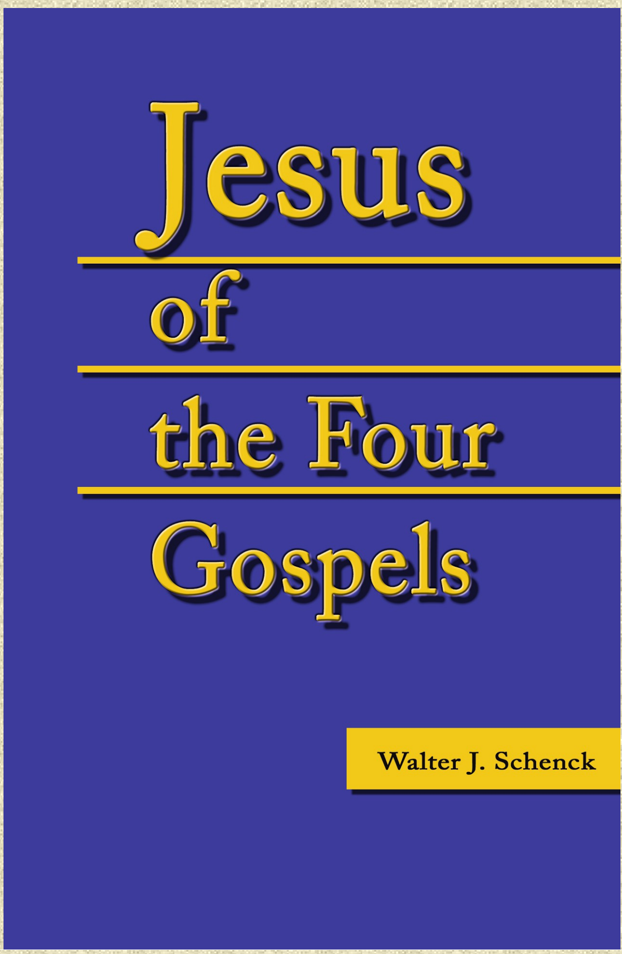
Jesus of the Four Gospels

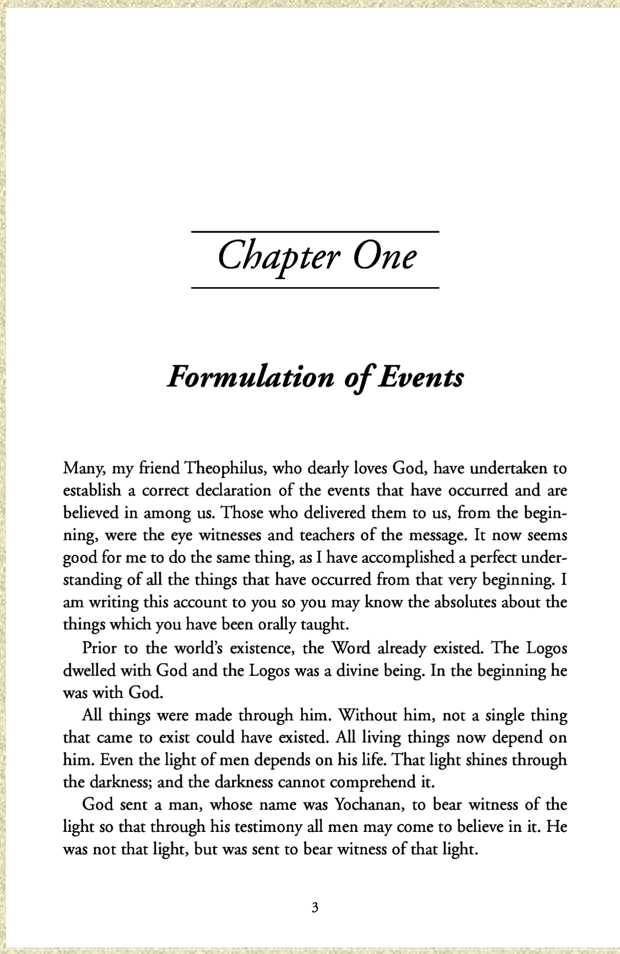
Lincoln: Writers Club Press, USA

Walter J. Schenck, Jr.



and the Logos was a divine being





Chapter One

Formulation of Events

Many, my friend Theophilus, who dearly loves God, have undertaken to establish a correct declaration of the events that have occurred and are believed in among us. Those who delivered them to us, from the beginning, were the eye witnesses and teachers of the message. It now seems good for me to do the same thing, as I have accomplished a perfect understanding of all the things that have occurred from that very beginning. I am writing this account to you so you may know the absolutes about the things which you have been orally taught.

Prior to the world's existence, the Word already existed. The Logos dwelled with God and the Logos was a divine being. In the beginning he was with God.

All things were made through him. Without him, not a single thing that came to exist could have existed. All living things now depend on him. Even the light of men depends on his life. That light shines through the darkness; and the darkness cannot comprehend it.

God sent a man, whose name was Yochanan, to bear witness of the light so that through his testimony all men may come to believe in it. He was not that light, but was sent to bear witness of that light.

3

https://books.google.pl/books?id=mMi6MXuyQgMC

118

2001

An American English Version – 2001 Translation

html

James Wheeler (Ch. Ed.)

version of 14-03-2021:

and the Word was a powerful one (gr. theos or god-like)

Plik Edycja Widok Historia Zakładki Narzędzia Pomoc

The Bible book of JOHN

www.2001translation.com/JOHN.htm

Szukaj

Onet Poczta – najle...

John

Written for Jesus' Apostle John, possibly in Aramaic, sometime late in the 1st Century CE.

Chapter 1

[1] In the beginning there was the Word. The Word was with The God (gr. Ton Theon) and the Word was a powerful one (gr. theos or god-like). [2] This one was with The God in the beginning, [3] and through him it all came to be. [4] Life was in him, and the life was the light of mankind. [5] This light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overpowered it.

[6] Then a man named John arrived who had been sent by God. [7] He came as a witness to testify about the light so that everyone might believe through him. [8] He wasn't the light, but he was to testify about the light; [9] for the true light that enlightens all mankind had come into the world. [10] He was in the world, and though the world came to be through him, it didn't recognize him. [11] For even when he went to [those who were] his own, he wasn't welcomed by them. [12] Yet, he gave all those who did welcome him (all those who put faith in his name) the authority to become the children of God. [13] So, they will not be born from blood, from the will of the flesh, or from man's will, but from God.

[14] Thus, the Word became flesh and tented among us as we gazed upon his glory, which was the glory of the one-and-only next to the Father… and he was filled with kindness and truth.

[15] Concerning him, John gave this testimony:
'This is the one about whom I said, Though he is coming behind me, he preceded me and he came before me!'

[16] So, we have received loving-kindness after loving-kindness from his great wealth. [17] For though Moses gave us the Law, loving-kindness and truth come to us through Jesus the Anointed One. [18] And though no one has ever seen God, this 'only generated god' (the one in the favored position of the

Start The Bible book of JO… PL 18:14

http://www.2001translation.com/JOHN.htm

119

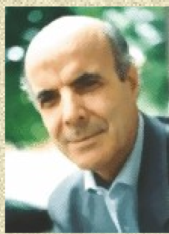
2001

ITALIAN

Nel principio era il Logos:
La luce del pensare che spiega il Creato (Vol. 1)

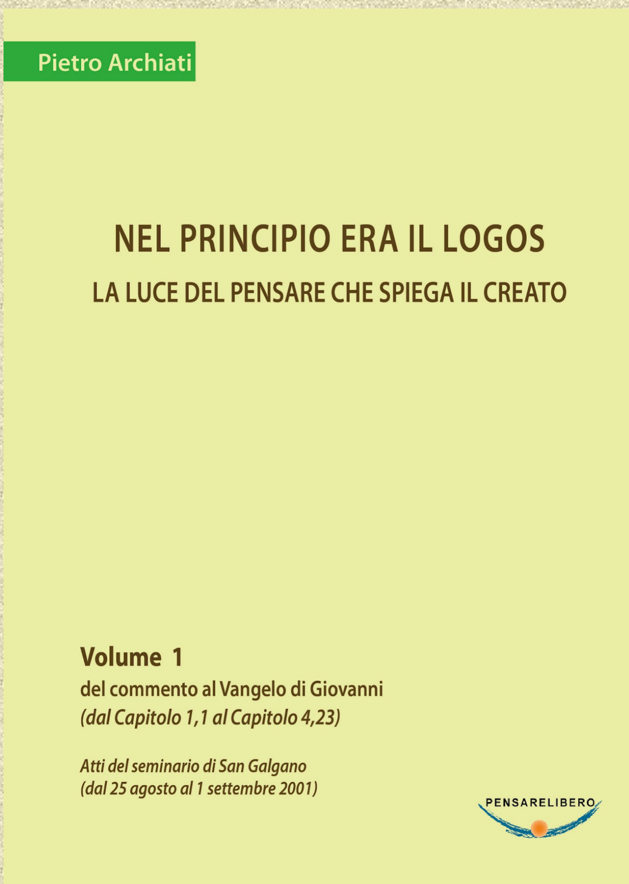
LiberaConoscenza, San Galgano

Pietro Archiati



and a god was the Word

e un dio era la Parola



Per chi desidera meditare in italiano sul Prologo, ho fatto un tentativo di traduzione, il più fedele possibile (nulla di definitivo o perfetto) che può servire da spunto per traduzioni individualizzate.

In principio era la Parola (il Verbo)
e la Parola era presso Dio
e un dio era la Parola.
Questa era nel primordio presso Dio.
Tutto è stato generato per mezzo di essa
e al di fuori di essa nulla è stato fatto di ciò che esiste.
In essa era la vita
e la vita era la luce degli uomini.
E la luce rifulge nelle tenebre ma la tenebra non l'ha compresa.
Venne all'esistenza un Uomo inviato da Dio col suo nome Giovanni.
Questi venne per la testimonianza,
affinché rendesse testimonianza della luce,
e affinché per mezzo di lui tutti potessero credere.
Non era lui la luce
bensì affinché testimoniasse della luce.
La luce vera che illumina ogni uomo
stava venendo nel mondo.
Essa era nel mondo
e il mondo fu fatto per mezzo suo ma il mondo non la riconobbe.
Essa entrava negli uomini singoli ma gli individui non l'accolsero in sé.
A coloro che l'accolsero
diede la forza di diventare figli di Dio.

154

https://books.google.pl/books?id=cHcyDwAAQBAJ

120 CATHOLIC

2002

ITALIAN

I quattro Vangeli Nova Vulgata secondo - secundum Matteo – Matthaeum, Marco – Marcum, Luca – Lucam, Giovanni – Ioannem dalla Bibbia della Chiesa Cattolica edizione di formazione il figlio dell'UOMO per la diffusione in rete Internet

PDF

Giacomo Dalessandro

and the WORD was god

e il VERBO era dio

FORMAZIONE
IL FIGLIO DELL'UOMO
I QUATTRO VANGELI
ANNO V-26 maggio 2002
CHIESA CATTOLICA

i quattro
VANGELI
NOVA VULGATA
SECONDO – SECUNDUM
MATTEO – MATTHAEUM
MARCO – MARCUM
LUCA – LUCAM
GIOVANNI – IOANNEM
DALLA
BIBBIA
DELLA
CHIESA CATTOLICA
edizione di
FORMAZIONE il FIGLIO dell'UOMO per la diffusione in RETE INTERNET

FORMAZIONE
IL FIGLIO DELL'UOMO
I QUATTRO VANGELI
ANNO V-26 maggio 2002
CHIESA CATTOLICA

GIOVANNI	IOANNEM
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 Il VERBO si fece carne	EVANGELIUM SECUNDUM IOANNEM 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21
1,1 In principio era il VERBO, il VERBO era presso di DIO e il VERBO era dio.	1,1 In principio erat Verbum, et Verbum erat apud Deum, et Deus erat Verbum.
Egli era in principio presso DIO: tutto è stato fatto per mezzo di lui e senza di lui niente è stato fatto di tutto ciò che esiste. In lui era la vita e la vita era la luce degli uomini; la luce splende nelle tenebre, ma le tenebre non l'hanno accolta.	2 Hoc erat in principio apud Deum. 3 Omnia per ipsum facta sunt, et sine ipso factum est nihil, quod factu est 4 in ipso vita erat, et vita erat lux hominum, 5 et lux in tenebris lucet, et tenebrae eam non comprehenderunt.
Venne un uomomandato da DIO e il suo nome era Giovanni. Egli venne come testimone per rendere testimonianzaalla luce, perché tutti credesseroper mezzo di lui. Egli non era la luce, ma doveva render testimonianza alla luce. Veniva nel mondo la luce vera, quella che illumina ogni uomo. Egli era nel mondo, e il mondo fu fatto per mezzo di lui, eppure il mondo non lo riconobbe. Venne fra la sua gente ma i suoi non l'hanno accolto. A quanti però l'hanno accolto, ha dato potere di diventare figli di DIO: a quelli che credono nel suo nome, i quali non da sangue, né da volere di carne, né da volere di uomo, ma da DIO sono stati generati. E il VERBO si fece carne e venne ad abitare in mezzo a noi; e noi vedemmo la sua gloria, gloria come di unigenito del PADRE, pieno di grazia e di verità. Giovanni gli rende testimonianza e grida: << Ecco l'uomo di cui io dissi: Colui che viene dopo di me mi è passato avanti, perché era prima di me >> .	6 Fuit homo missus a Deo, cui nomen erat Ioanneś 7 hic venit in testimonium, ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine, ut omnes crederent per illum. 8 Non erat ille lux, sed ut testimonium perhiberet de lumine. 9 Erat lux vera, quae illuminat omnem hominem, veniens in mundum. 10 In mundo erat, et mundus per ipsum factus est, et mundus eum non cognovit. 11 In propria venit, et sui eum non recepern. 12 Quotquot autem acceperunt eum, dedit eis potestatem filios Dei fieri, his, qui credunt in nomine eius, 13 qui non ex sanguinibus neque ex voluntate carnis neque ex voluntate viri, sed ex Deo nati sunt. 14 Et Verbum caro factum est et habitavit in nobiś et vidimus gloriam eius, gloriam quasi Unigeniti a Patre, plenum gratiae et veritatis. 15 Ioannes testimonium perhibet de ipso et clamat dicens ? Hic erat, quem dixi Qui post me venturus est, ante me factus est, qui a prior me erat.

256

http://www.cristo-re.eu/QUATTRO-VANGELI-2002-05-26 ITALIANO-LATINO-6PR.pdf

121

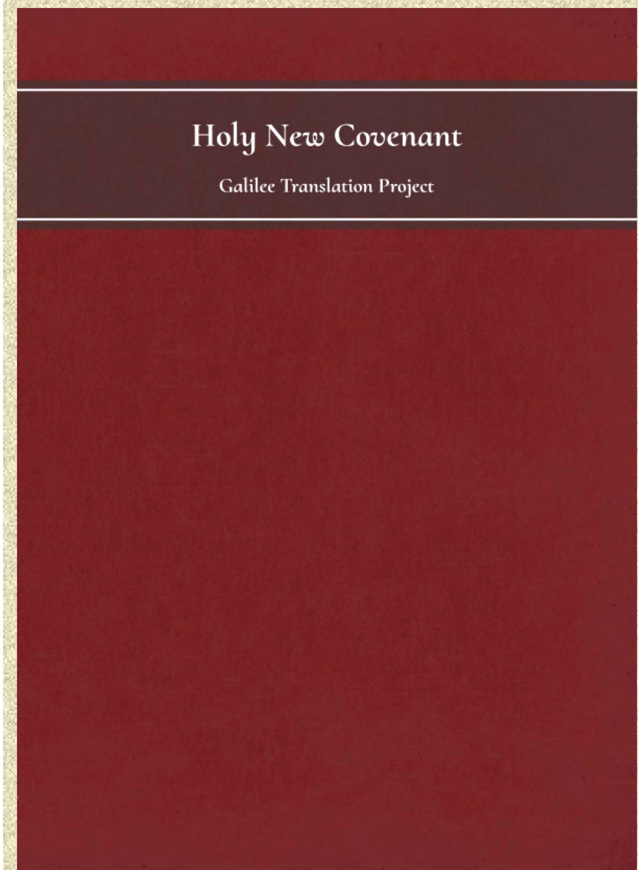
2002

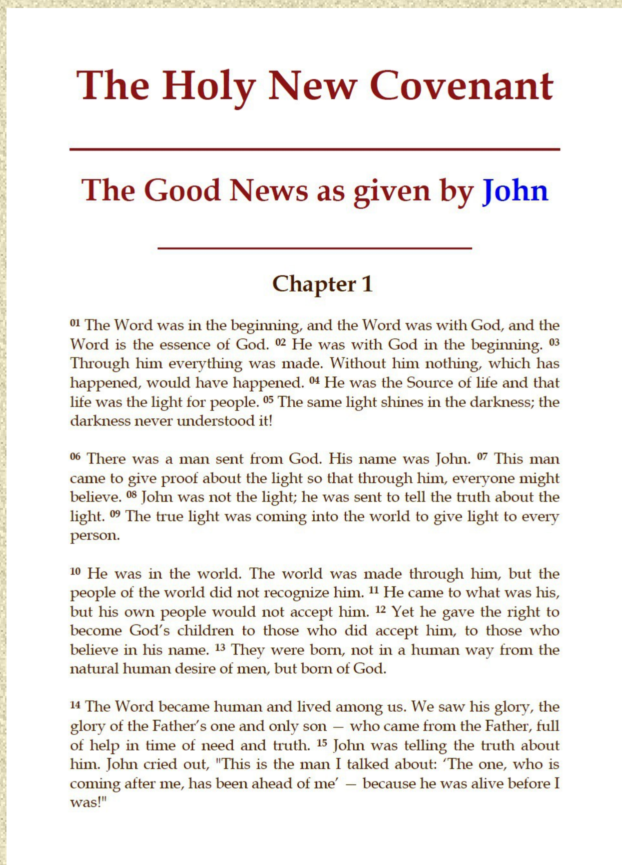
The Holy New Covenant: Galilee Translation Project

PDF

Thomas L. Hackett

and the Word is the essence of God





The Holy New Covenant

The Good News as given by John

Chapter 1

[01] The Word was in the beginning, and the Word was with God, and the Word is the essence of God. [02] He was with God in the beginning. [03] Through him everything was made. Without him nothing, which has happened, would have happened. [04] He was the Source of life and that life was the light for people. [05] The same light shines in the darkness; the darkness never understood it!

[06] There was a man sent from God. His name was John. [07] This man came to give proof about the light so that through him, everyone might believe. [08] John was not the light; he was sent to tell the truth about the light. [09] The true light was coming into the world to give light to every person.

[10] He was in the world. The world was made through him, but the people of the world did not recognize him. [11] He came to what was his, but his own people would not accept him. [12] Yet he gave the right to become God's children to those who did accept him, to those who believe in his name. [13] They were born, not in a human way from the natural human desire of men, but born of God.

[14] The Word became human and lived among us. We saw his glory, the glory of the Father's one and only son — who came from the Father, full of help in time of need and truth. [15] John was telling the truth about him. John cried out, "This is the man I talked about: 'The one, who is coming after me, has been ahead of me' — because he was alive before I was!"

http://www.thomhackett.com/bible_and_christian_resources.htm#Online_Bibles1

2003

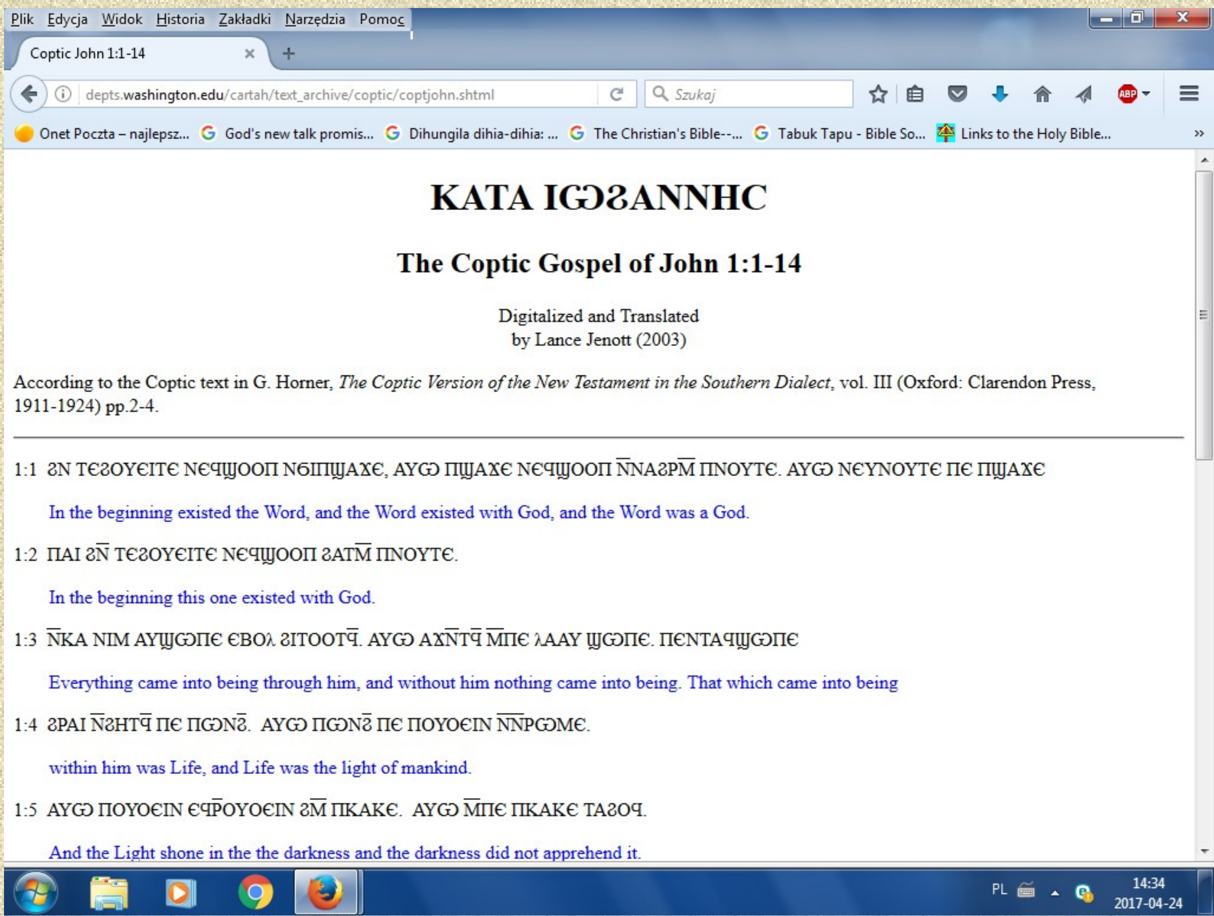
ⲔⲀⲦⲀ ⲒⲰϨⲀⲚⲚⲎⲤ

The Coptic Gospel of John 1:1-14

html

Lance Jenott

and the Word was a God



ⲔⲀⲦⲀ ⲒⲰϨⲀⲚⲚⲎⲤ

The Coptic Gospel of John 1:1-14

Digitalized and Translated by Lance Jenott (2003)

According to the Coptic text in G. Horner, The Coptic Version of the New Testament in the Southern Dialect, vol. III (Oxford: Clarendon Press, 1911-1924) pp.2-4.

1:1 ϨⲚ ⲦⲈϨⲞⲨⲈⲒⲦⲈ ⲚⲈϤϢⲞⲞⲠ ⲚϬⲒⲠϢⲀϪⲈ, ⲀⲨⲰ ⲠϢⲀϪⲈ ⲚⲈϤϢⲞⲞⲠ Ⲛ̄ⲚⲀϨⲢⲘ̄ ⲠⲚⲞⲨⲦⲈ. ⲀⲨⲰ ⲚⲈⲨⲚⲞⲨⲦⲈ ⲠⲈ ⲠϢⲀϪⲈ

In the beginning existed the Word, and the Word existed with God, and the Word was a God.

1:2 ⲠⲀⲒ ϨⲚ̄ ⲦⲈϨⲞⲨⲈⲒⲦⲈ ⲚⲈϤϢⲞⲞⲠ ϨⲀⲦⲘ̄ ⲠⲚⲞⲨⲦⲈ.

In the beginning this one existed with God.

1:3 Ⲛ̄ⲔⲀ ⲚⲒⲘ ⲀⲨϢⲰⲠⲈ ⲈⲂⲞⲖ ϨⲒⲦⲞⲞⲦϤ̄. ⲀⲨⲰ ⲀϪⲚ̄ⲦϤ̄ Ⲙ̄ⲠⲈ ⲖⲀⲀⲨ ϢⲰⲠⲈ. ⲠⲈⲚⲦⲀϤϢⲰⲠⲈ

Everything came into being through him, and without him nothing came into being. That which came into being within him was Life, and Life was the light of mankind.

1:4 ϨⲢⲀⲒ Ⲛ̄ϨⲎⲦϤ̄ ⲠⲈ ⲠⲰⲚϨ̄. ⲀⲨⲰ ⲠⲰⲚϨ̄ ⲠⲈ ⲠⲞⲨⲞⲈⲒⲚ Ⲛ̄ⲚⲢⲰⲘⲈ.

1:5 ⲀⲨⲰ ⲠⲞⲨⲞⲈⲒⲚ ⲈϤⲢ̄ⲞⲨⲞⲈⲒⲚ ϨⲘ̄ ⲠⲔⲀⲔⲈ. ⲀⲨⲰ Ⲙ̄ⲠⲈ ⲠⲔⲀⲔⲈ ⲦⲀϨⲞϤ.

And the Light shone in the the darkness and the darkness did not apprehend it.

https://www.depts.washington.edu/cartah/text_archive/coptic/coptjohn.shtml

2003
Das vollkommene Evangelium nach Johannes (Ed. 1)
Erfurt: Christlich Essenische Kirche, Erfurt
Franz Eberhard Eckard Strohm

and the Christ was a god
und der Christus war ein Gott

Das vollkommene Evangelium

1. Kapitel

Der Christus

1. Im Anfang war der Christus, und der Christus war in Gott, und der Christus war ein Gott.
2. Dieser war vom Anfang bei Gott.
3. Alle Dinge kamen durch ihn ins Dasein, und ohne ihn kam auch nicht ein Ding ins Dasein.
4. Was ins Dasein gekommen ist durch ihn war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen.
5. Und das Licht leuchtet in der Finsternis, aber die Finsternis hat es nicht überwältigt.
6. Es trat ein Mensch auf, der als ein Vertreter Gottes ausgesandt war, sein Name war Johannes und er war ein Meister der Essener, die sich selbst Kinder des Lichtes nannten und der erste der Christuspersönlichkeiten.*
7. Dieser kam zu einem Zeugnis, um Zeugnis von dem Licht abzulegen, damit durch ihn Menschen von allen Arten zum Glauben kämen.
8. Nicht er war dieses Licht, sondern er sollte Zeugnis von diesem Licht ablegen.
9. Das wahre Licht, das jeder Art von Menschen Licht gibt, war im Begriff, in die Welt zu kommen.
10. Er war in der Welt, und die Welt kam durch ihn ins Dasein, aber die Welt erkannte ihn nicht.
11. Er kam in sein eigenes Haus, aber die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf.

Kommentar: Essener gesprochen: Esseener*

7

http://www.cek.sk/user/2/upload/ftp_client/Complete Gospel/DAS VOLLKOMMENE EVANGELIUM.pdf

124

2003

LOW GERMAN (PLAUTDIETSCH)

De Bibel

Winnipeg, Man.: Kindred Productions, Canada

Ed Zacharias?

and what God was, the Word was un waut Gott wia, wia daut Wuat

1049 Johanes 1

[35] Un see vetalden an, waut hinjawäajes passieet wia, un woo see am doaderch jekjant hauden, daut hee daut Broot jebroaken haud.

Jesus bejäajent siene Jinja en Jerusalem
(Mark 16,14-19; Joh 20,19-23; Apost 1,1-14; 1.Kor 15,5)

[36] ¶ Un aus see sikj noch doavon unjahilden, kjeem Jesus selfst medden mank an un säd: Fräd met junt![a]
[37] An wia sea angst un meenden, see sagen een Jeist. Mat 14,26
[38] Un hee säd to an: Wuarom es junt Angst, un wuarom twiewlen jie?
[39] Kjikjt no miene Henj un miene Feet, un seet daut ekj dit selfst sie, wiels een Jeist haft nich Fleesch un Knoakes, soo aus jie seenen daut ekj hab.
[40] (Un aus hee daut säd, wees hee an siene Henj uk siene Feet.)[b] Joh 20,20
[41] Oba aus see dan fa Freid un Wunda nich jleewden, säd hee to an: Hab jie hia waut to äten?
[42] Un see läden am een Stekj jebrodne Fesch un Honnich väa. Joh 21,5.10; Apost 10,41
[43] Un hee neem daut un eet ver an!
[44] ¶ Dan säd hee to an: Dit es waut ekj to junt säd, aus ekj noch bie junt wia, wiels daut mott aula soo romkomen aus en Moses sien Jesaz, en de Profeeten un en de Psalmen von mie jeschräwen steit. Luk 18,31-33; 24,27
[45] Dan muak hee an daut Vestentnis op, daut see de Schreft vestunden, Luk 9,45; Joh 12,16
[46] un hee säd to an: Soo steit jeschräwen, daut Christus lieden woat un aum dredden Dach vom Doot oppstonen; Hos 6,2 [47] un daut en sienen Nomen von omkjieren un von Sindenvejäwunk jeprädicht woaren saul mank aule Velkja. Jie sellen en Jerusalem doamet aunfangen, Apost 2,38; 17,30
[48] un met jun Zeichnis doarhinja stonen.
[49] Un ekj woa junt daut schekjen waut mien Voda junt vesproaken haft. Oba blieft en Jerusalem, bat de Krauft von bowen äwa junt komen woat. Joh 15,26; 16,7; Apost 2,1-4

Jesus woat em Himmel nenn jenomen
(Mark 16,19-20; Apost 1,9-11)

[50] ¶ Hee neem an rut bat Betanien un hoof siene Henj opp un säajend an.
[51] Un wäarent hee an säajend, veschwunk hee von an un fua nopp nom Himmel.[c]
[52] See oba bäden am aun,[d] jinjen met groote Freid trigj no Jerusalem, [53] un brochten äare Tiet em Tempel too un dankten un lowden Gott.

[a] 24,36 Eenje oole Schreften sajen nich un säd: Fräd met junt!
[b] 24,40 Eenje oole Schreften haben disen Varsch nich.
[c] 24,51 Eenje oole Schreften haben nich un fua nopp nom Himmel.
[d] 24,52 Eenje oole Schreften sajen nich bäden am aun un.

De Goode Norecht von Jesus Christus no

Johanes

Daut 1. Kapitel
Jesus Christus, daut eewje Wuat

[1] ¶ Aus aules aunfunk, wia daut Wuat, un daut Wuat wia bie Gott, un waut Gott wia, wia daut Wuat. 1Mo 1,1; Joh 17,5; 1Joh 1,1-2; Opb 19,13
[2] Hee wia em Aunfank bie Gott.
[3] Derch am es aules jemoakt, un onen am es nuscht jemoakt waut jemoakt es. 1Kor 8,6; Kol 1,16-17; Heb 1,2
[4] En am wia Läwen, un daut Läwen wia daut Licht fa de Menschen. Joh 8,12
[5] Daut Licht schient em diestren, oba daut diestre haft daut nich vestonen. Joh 3,19
[6] ¶ Doa kjeem een Maun, von Gott jeschekjt, dee heet Johanes. Mat 3,1; Mrk 1,4 [7] Disa kjeem, om von däm Licht to räden un to zeijen, daut see doaderch aula sullen toom Gloowen komen. Apost 19,4 [8] Hee wia nich daut Licht, hee wia jeschekjt, no daut Licht hantowiesen.
[9] ¶ Daut wia daut woarhauftje Licht, daut fa aule Menschen schient, dee en dise Welt nenkomen.
[10] Hee wia en dise Welt, un de Welt wia derch am jemoakt, un de Welt kjand am nich.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=742ZExf0iRcC

125 CATHOLIC

2003
"Tora und Evangelium: Beobachtungen zum Johannesprolog"
Stimmen der Zeit: Monatschrift für Geistesleben der Gegenwart
Vol. 221, No. 7, p. 488 [486-494]
Ansgar Wucherpfennig

and god of a kind was the Word
und Gott von Art war das Wort

Zelten. Damit spielt er auf das Offenbarungszelt an, das in Ex 33, 7 skênê marturiou heißt. In diesem Zelt sollte Mose die beiden Tafeln der Bundesurkunde unterbringen (Ex 25, 21), die mit dem Finger Gottes beschrieben waren (Ex 31, 18). Es war der Ort, an dem das Wort Gottes auf der Wanderung Israels durch die Wüste seine Wohnung fand.

In den dazwischenliegenden Versen des Johannesprologs setzt der Evangelist die Spur fort, die er durch diese beiden expliziten Anspielungen gelegt hat. Denn die ersten 14 Verse des Johannesprologs lassen sich als eine Paraphrase der Tora bis zur Offenbarung am Sinai verstehen. Dies wird deutlich, wenn man den Text zunächst einmal unter Auslassung der Stellen über den Täufer liest:

I
(1) Im Anfang war das Wort,
und das Wort war bei Gott,
und Gott von Art war das Wort.
(2) Dieses war im Anfang bei Gott.
(3) Alles ist durch es geworden, und ohne es wurde nichts von dem, was geworden ist.

II
(4) In ihm war Leben,
und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen.
(5) Und das Licht leuchtet in der Finsternis,
und die Finsternis hat es nicht erfaßt.
...
(9) Er war das wahre Licht,
das jeden Menschen erleuchtet,
der in die Welt kommt.

III
(10) Er war in der Welt,
und die Welt ist durch ihn geworden,
und die Welt hat ihn nicht erkannt.
(11) Er kam in das Seine,
und die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht bei sich auf.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=g0EnAQAAIAAJ (limited view)

2004

AFRIKAANS

Woord en Getuienis: Torah, Vroeëre, Profete Latere, Profete Ketuviem, Kleinere Profete, Na-Messiaanse Skrifte

Elim Bedieninge Vishoek, Maart

John Wahl

and powerful was the word

en magtig was die woord

Bet-Gasdah (Betesda) Kefa (Petrus)
Bar-Abba (Barabbas) Ganan (Annas)
Elázar (Lasarus) Taóma (Tomas)
Nakdimon (Nikodemus)
Maghdalah (Magdalena)

Yahuganan / Johannes 1:1 In die begin was die woord[1], en die woord was by Elohiem, en magtig was die woord[2]. 2 Die woord was in die begin by Elohiem. 3 Alle dinge het daardeur ontstaan, en sonder die woord het nie een ding ontstaan wat ontstaan het nie. 4 In die woord was lewe, en die lewe was die lig van die mense. 5 En die lig skyn in die duisternis, en die duisternis het dit nie oorweldig nie. 6 Daar was 'n man van Elohiem gestuur, wie se naam Yahuganan was. 7 Hy het tot 'n getuienis gekom om van die lig te getuig, sodat almal deur hom sou glo. 8 Hy was nie die lig nie, maar hy moes van die lig getuig. 9 Die waaragtige lig wat elke mens verlig, was aan kom na die wêreld. 10 Die lig was in die wêreld, en die wêreld het deur hom ontstaan, en die wêreld het hom nie geken nie. 11 Hy het na sy eiendom gekom, en sy eie mense het Hom nie aangeneem nie. 12 Maar almal wat Hom aangeneem het, aan hulle het Hy mag gegee om kinders van Elohiem te word, aan hulle wat in sy Naam glo; 13 wat nie uit die bloed of uit die wil van die vlees of uit die wil van 'n man nie, maar uit Elohiem gebore is. 14 En die Woord het vlees geword en het onder ons gewoon – en ons het sy voortreflikheid aanskou, 'n voortreflikheid soos van die Eniggeborene wat van die Vader kom – vol van guns en waarheid. 15 Yahuganan getuig van Hom en roep en sê: Dit was Hy van wie ek gesê het: Hy wat na my kom, het voor my tot stand gekom, want Hy was groter as ek. 16 En uit sy volheid het ons almal ontvang, ja, guns op guns. 17 Want die Torah is deur Mosheh gegee; die guns en die waarheid het deur Yahshua die Messias gekom. 18 Niemand het ooit Elohiem gesien nie; die eniggebore Seun wat in die boesem van die Vader is, Hy het Hom verklaar. 19 En dit is die getuienis van Yahuganan, toe die Yehudiem uit Yerushalayiem priesters en Lewiete gestuur het om hom te vra: Wie is u? 20 En hy het erken en nie ontken nie, maar het erken: Ek is nie die Messias nie. 21 Toe vra hulle hom: Wat dan? Is u EliYah? En hy sê: Ek is nie. Is u die profeet? En hy antwoord: Nee. 22 Toe sê hulle vir hom: Wie is u? – dat ons antwoord kan gee aan die wat ons gestuur het. Wat sê u van uself? 23 Hy antwoord: Ek is die stem van een wat roep in die woestyn: Maak die pad van Yahweh reguit! soos YeshaYahu, die profeet, gesê het.[3] 24 En die wat gestuur was, was uit die Perushiem. 25 En hulle vra hom en sê vir hom: Waarom doop u dan as u nie die Messias of EliYah of die profeet is nie? 26 Yahuganan antwoord hulle en sê: Ek doop met water, maar onder julle staan Hy vir wie julle nie ken nie – 27 dit is Hy wat na my kom, wat voor my geword het, wie se skoenriem ek nie waardig is om los te maak nie. 28 Dit het gebeur in Betabara, oorkant die Yarden, waar Yahuganan besig was om te doop. 29 Die volgende dag sien Yahuganan Yahshua na hom toe kom, en hy sê: Daar is die Lam van Elohiem wat die sonde van die wêreld wegneem! 30 Dit is Hy van wie ek gesê het: Na my kom 'n man wat voor my geword het, want Hy was eerder as ek. 31 En ek het Hom nie geken nie; maar dat Hy aan Yiesraél openbaar sou word, daarom het ek gekom en met water gedoop. 32 En Yahuganan het getuig en gesê: Ek het die Gees soos 'n duif uit die hemel sien neerdaal, en Hy het op Hom gebly. 33 En ek het Hom nie geken nie; maar Hy wat my gestuur het om met water te doop, Hy het aan my gesê: Op wie jy die Gees sien neerdaal en op Hom bly, dit is Hy wat met die Afgesonderde Gees doop. 34 En ek het gesien en getuig dat Hy die Seun van Elohiem is. 35 Die volgende dag het Yahuganan weer daar gestaan en twee van sy dissipels; 36 en toe hy Yahshua sien wandel, sê hy: Daar is die Lam van Elohiem! 37 En die twee dissipels het hom dit hoor sê en Yahshua gevolg. 38 En toe Yahshua Hom omdraai en hulle sien volg, sê

[1] 1:1 Die Griekse woord "logos" (hier vertaal met "woord") kom van die Hebreeuse begrip "davar" wat dui op veel meer as bloot 'n gesproke woord. Hierdie begrip kan, in die lig van hierdie hoofstuk, as volg omskryf word: "Die plan, wysheid en vermoë waaroor Elohiem van die begin af beskik het om in hierdie laaste dae 'n groot werk tot stand te bring."

[2] 1:1 Hierdie vertaling is 'n meer letterlike vertaling van die ongewone bewoording van die Griekse teks as die tradisionele vertaling, "die Woord was Elohiem".

[3] 1:23 Vgl. YeshaYahu 40:3

127a CATHOLIC

2004

SPANISH

El Evangelio de Juan

by José Pérez Escobar, editorial verbo divino, Estella /Navarra/

Francis J. Moloney

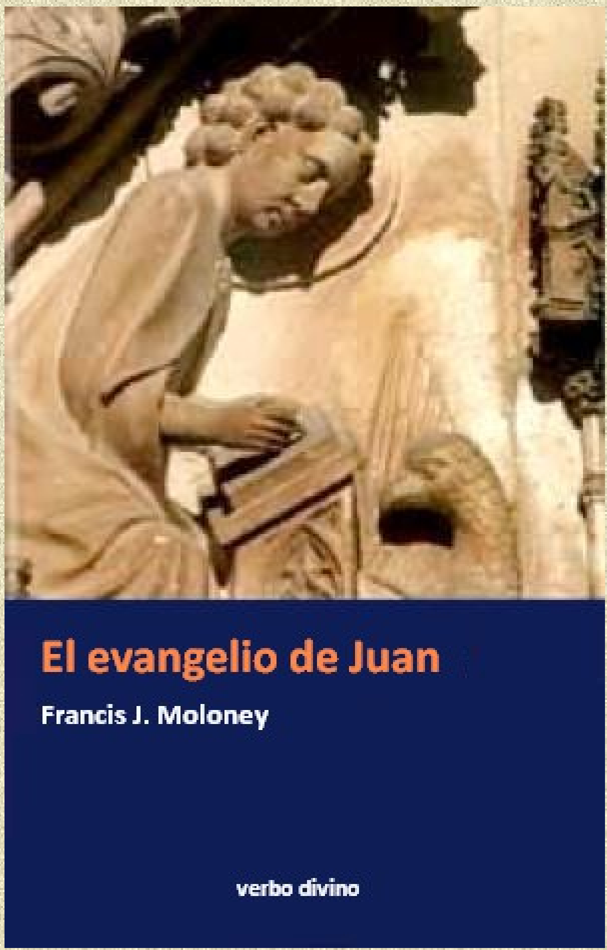
and what God was, the Word also was en y loque Dios era tambien lo era la Palabra



I. EL PRÓLOGO (1,1-18)

I

(a) 1 Al principio ya existía la Palabra y la Palabra se dirigia hacia Dios y lo que Dios era tambien lo era la Palabra 2 Ya en el principio estaba el con Dios

(b) 3 Todo fue hecho por ella y sin ella no se hizo nada Lo que acontecio en ella era vida y la vida era la luz de los hombres

(c) 5 La luz resplandece en las tinieblas, y las tinieblas no la sofocaron

II

(a) 6 Vino un hombre, enviado por Dios, que se llamaba Juan 7 Este vino como testigo, para dar testimonio de la luz a fin de que todos creyeran por el 8 No era el la luz, sino testigo de la luz

(b) 9 La luz verdadera que ilumina a todo hombre venia al mundo

(c) 10 Estaba en el mundo, pero el mundo, aunque fue hecho por ella, no la conocio 11 Vino a su propia casa y los suyos no la recibieron 12 Pero a cuantos la recibieron, los que creyeron en su nombre, les dio poder para ser hijos de Dios, 13 estos no han nacido de sangre ni de la voluntad de un hombre sino de Dios

(d) 14 Y la Palabra se hizo carne y habito entre nosotros la plenitud de un don que es verdad Hemos visto su gloria la gloria como del Hijo unico del Padre

III

(a) 15 Juan dio testimonio de el y proclamo, Este es aquel de quien yo dije El que viene detras de mi esta colocado por delante de mi, porque existia antes que yo »

(b) 16 De su plenitud todos hemos recibido un don en lugar de un don

(c) 17 Pues la ley se dio mediante Moises, el don que es la verdad vino mediante Jesucristo 18 A Dios nadie lo vio jamas, el Hijo unico, que esta vuelto hacia el Padre, nos lo ha dado a conocer

Interpretacion

Introduccion La primera pagina del cuarto evangelio es uno de los pasajes más densos del NT, toda una sintesis de la cristologia y la teologia del autor Ha habido muchos intentos de dilucidar la estructura literaria de este antiguo himno cristiano La mayoria sigue un movimiento temporal desde la preexistencia (vv 1-2) hasta la creacion (vv 3-5), prosiguiendo despues con la historia de la condicion humana hasta el climax de la encarnacion (vv 6-14) La parte final del himno trata de la recepcion posterior del Logos encarnado (vv 15-18) (cf , por ejemplo, Lagrange 2-34) Otros autores han encontrado una estructura quiastica, es decir, los mismos temas se repiten en torno a una afirmacion central p ej , A-B-C-B'-A'

https://pl.scribd.com/doc/165519334/Moloney-Francis-j-El-Evangelio-de-Juan

127b

CATHOLIC

2007

ITALIAN VERSION

Il Vangelo di Giovanni (Sacra Pagina) (Vol. 4)

Torino: Editrice Elledici

trans. into Italian Giovanni Vischioni

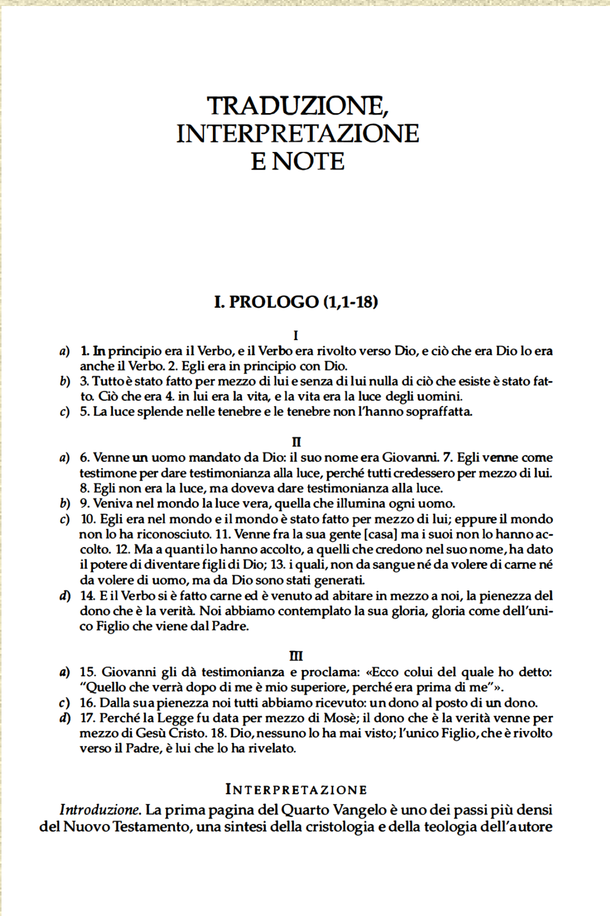
and what God was, the Word also was

e ciò che era Dio lo era anche il Verbo



TRADUZIONE, INTERPRETAZIONE E NOTE

I. PROLOGO (1,1-18)

I

a) 1. In principio era il Verbo, e il Verbo era rivolto verso Dio, e ciò che era Dio lo era anche il Verbo. 2. Egli era in principio con Dio.
b) 3. Tutto è stato fatto per mezzo di lui e senza di lui nulla di ciò che esiste è stato fatto. Ciò che era 4. in lui era la vita, e la vita era la luce degli uomini.
c) 5. La luce splende nelle tenebre e le tenebre non l'hanno sopraffatta.

II

a) 6. Venne un uomo mandato da Dio: il suo nome era Giovanni. 7. Egli venne come testimone per dare testimonianza alla luce, perché tutti credessero per mezzo di lui. 8. Egli non era la luce, ma doveva dare testimonianza alla luce.
b) 9. Veniva nel mondo la luce vera, quella che illumina ogni uomo.
c) 10. Egli era nel mondo e il mondo è stato fatto per mezzo di lui; eppure il mondo non lo ha riconosciuto. 11. Venne fra la sua gente [casa] ma i suoi non lo hanno accolto. 12. Ma a quanti lo hanno accolto, a quelli che credono nel suo nome, ha dato il potere di diventare figli di Dio; 13. i quali, non da sangue né da volere di carne né da volere di uomo, ma da Dio sono stati generati.
d) 14. E il Verbo si è fatto carne ed è venuto ad abitare in mezzo a noi, la pienezza del dono che è la verità. Noi abbiamo contemplato la sua gloria, gloria come dell'unico Figlio che viene dal Padre.

III

a) 15. Giovanni gli dà testimonianza e proclama: «Ecco colui del quale ho detto: "Quello che verrà dopo di me è mio superiore, perché era prima di me"».
c) 16. Dalla sua pienezza noi tutti abbiamo ricevuto: un dono al posto di un dono.
d) 17. Perché la Legge fu data per mezzo di Mosè; il dono che è la verità venne per mezzo di Gesù Cristo. 18. Dio, nessuno lo ha mai visto; l'unico Figlio, che è rivolto verso il Padre, è lui che lo ha rivelato.

INTERPRETAZIONE

Introduzione. La prima pagina del Quarto Vangelo è uno dei passi più densi del Nuovo Testamento, una sintesi della cristologia e della teologia dell'autore

127c CATHOLIC

2013

ENGLISH VERSION

The Gospel of John (Sacra Pagina)

Collegeville MN, USA: The Liturgical Press

Ed. Daniel J. Harrington

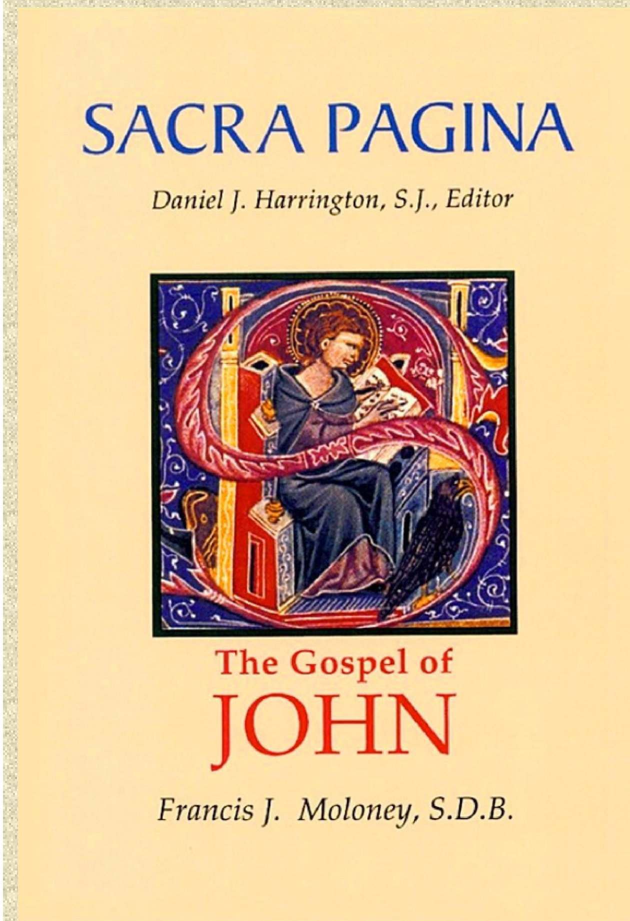
and what God was, the Word also was



TRANSLATION, INTERPRETATION, NOTES

I. THE PROLOGUE (1:1-18)

I

(a) 1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was turned toward God, and what God was the Word also was. 2. He was in the beginning with God.
(b) 3. All things were made through him, and without him nothing was made. What took place 4. in him was life, and the life was the light of humankind.
(c) 5. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

II

(a) 6. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him. 8. He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light.
(b) 9. The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.
(c) 10. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world knew him not. 11. He came to his own home, and his own people received him not. 12. But to those who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God; 13. who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of a man, but of God.
(d) 14. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, the fullness of a gift that is truth. We have gazed upon his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.

III

(a) 15. John bore witness to him, and cried, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, for he was before me.'"
(c) 16. And from his fullness have we all received, a gift in place of a gift.
(d) 17. For the law was given through Moses; the gift that is the truth came through Jesus Christ. 18. No one has ever seen God; the only Son, who is turned toward the Father, he has made him known.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=2xDRFYKldboC

128

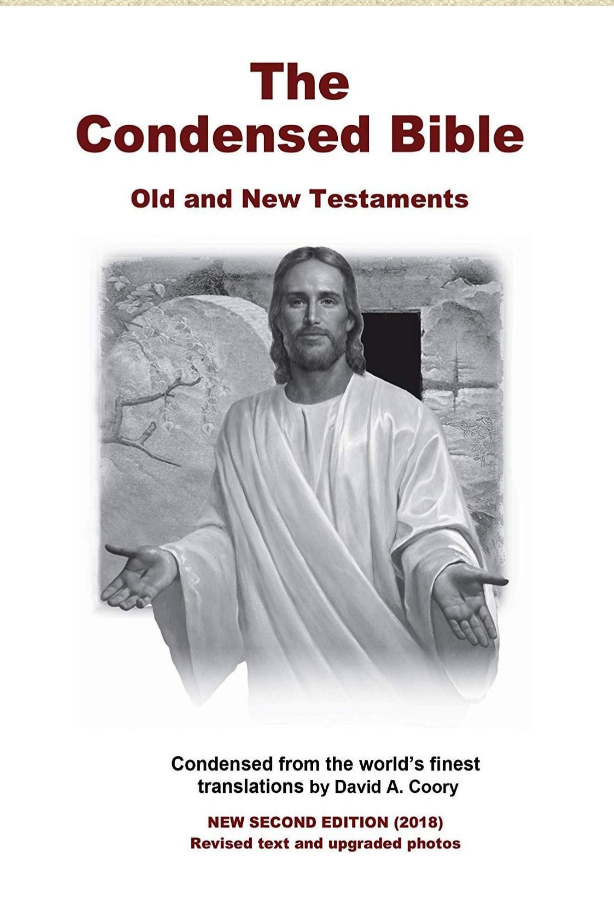
2004

The Condensed Bible: Old and New Testaments (Ed. 1)

New Zeland

David A. Coory

and he was with God and of God



Bold The Lord or an angel speaking.
Bold italics A prophet speaking under inspiration.

1

The Word (Jesus) made all things

[1]"In the beginning was the Word, and he was with God and of God. Through him all things were made." [2]"In him is life, and the light of mankind. Light that shines in the darkness but the darkness sees it not." F*

*2 Verses 1 and 2 are the words of a hymn.

John the Baptist came to testify of Jesus

[3]There came a man sent from God whose name was John,F* to testify that the true light that gives lightF* to every man was coming into the world.

His own people did not believe in him

[4]He came into the world and even though the world was made through him,F* the world knew him not.

*3 John the Baptist.

*3 Light is here used in the sense of spiritual discernment and awareness such as found in the conscience of man.

*4 Jesus Christ created this world under the direction of the Father, see John 1:1 and Hebrews 1:1.

http://condensedbible.co.nz/download/

129

2004

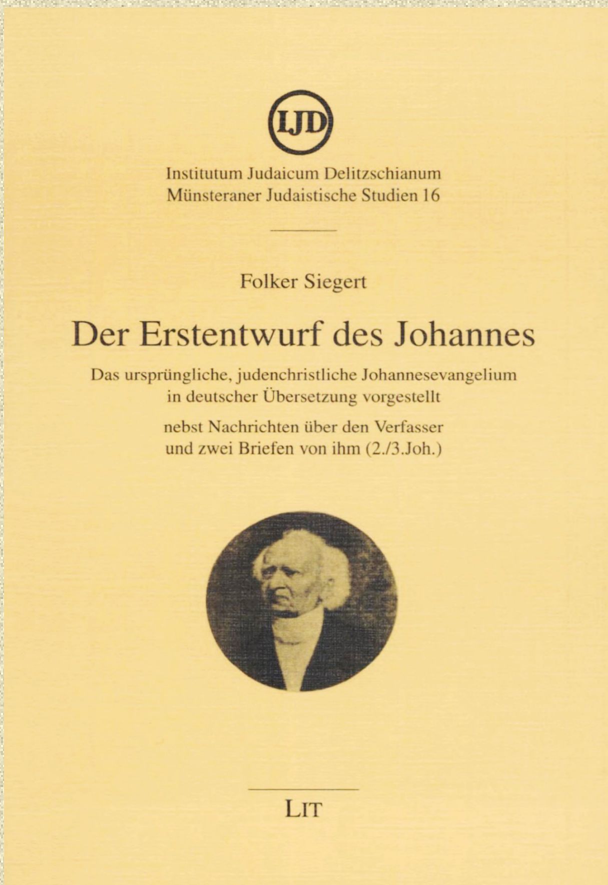
Der Erstentwurf des Johannes: Das ursprüngliche, judenchristliche Johannesevangelium in deutscher Übersetzung vorgestellt nebst Nachrichten über den Verfasser und zwei Briefen von ihm (2./3. Joh.)

Münster: LIT Verlag

Folker Siegert

and divine was the Logos

und göttlich war der Logos



PROLOG

(§ 1)

(Kap. 1,1) Im Anfang war der Logos, und der Logos war bei Gott, und göttlich war der Logos. (2) Dieser war im Anfang bei Gott.

(3) Alles ist durch ihn entstanden, und ohne ihn entstand nicht eines, das entstanden ist. (4) In Ihm war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen. (5) Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis, ABER die Finsternis hat es nicht gefasst.

(6) Ein Mensch wurde (geboren), gesandt von Gott her, mit Namen Johannes. (7) Dieser kam zum Zeugnis, um vom Licht Zeugnis zu geben, damit alle durch ihn zum Glauben kämen. (8) Nicht war jener das Licht, sondern um Zeugnis zu geben für das Licht.

(9) Es war das wahre Licht, das jeden Menschen erleuchtet, am Kommen in den Kosmos. (10) Im Kosmos war es, WO JA der Kosmos durch es entstanden ist, DOCH der Kosmos hat IHN[1] nicht begriffen. (11) In sein Eigenes kam er, DOCH die Eigenen nahmen ihn nicht auf. (12) Alle aber, die ihn aufnahmen, denen gab er Vollmacht, Kinder Gottes zu werden – denen, die an seinen Namen glauben, (13) die nicht aus dem Geblüt, auch nicht aus DEM Willen des Fleisches, auch nicht aus DEM Willen eines Mannes, sondern aus Gott gezeugt wurden.

(§ 2)

(14) Und der Logos wurde Fleisch und SCHLUG EIN ZELT AUF unter uns, und wir betrachteten seine HERRLICHKEIT,[2] eine Herrlichkeit wie eines Einziggeborenen vom Vater her, voll GNADE und Wahrheit.

(15) Johannes gibt Zeugnis von ihm und ruft: Dieser war es, von dem ich sagte: Der nach mir Kommende wurde vor mir (geboren), denn er war FRÜHER ALS ich.

(16) Denn von seiner Fülle haben wir alle empfangen, und zwar Gnade für Gnade. (17) Denn DAS GESETZ wurde durch Mose gegeben, die Gnade und die Wahrheit durch Jesus Christus (geboren).

(18) Gott hat keiner jemals gesehen. Der einziggeborene Gott, der im Schoß des Vaters ist, der hat (ihn uns) dargestellt.

---

[1] Absichtlicher Genuswechsel.

[2] Dieser Ausdruck, eigentlich "Ruf, Bekanntheit" (übersetzt hebr. "Gewicht"), wird im Folgenden nicht mehr eigens hervorgehoben.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=0IJEe3OSUTMC

130

2005

The New Testament: An Understandable Version (Ed. 3)

Seattle: Impact Publications, USA

William E. Paul

and the Word was [what] God [was] 211

JOHN

1 CHAPTER ONE

1) The Word [already] existed in the beginning [of time]. [Note: This is a reference to the preexistence of Jesus. See verse 14]. And the Word was with God and the Word was [what] God [was]. 2) This Word existed with God from the beginning [of time].

3) Everything came into being through this Word, and apart from Him not a single thing came into being. 4) Life existed in Him; and that Life [was what] enlightened mankind [spiritually]. 5) And [His] light continued to shine, [even] in the darkness [of the world], and that darkness did not overcome Him [or, did not fully understand Him].

6) There was a man sent from God whose name was John [the Immerser]. 7) He came to be a witness, so that he might testify concerning that Light, so that all people would believe [in Jesus] through him [i.e., through his testimony. See Acts 19:4]. 8) He himself was not that Light, but came [only] to testify concerning that Light. 9) [Now] the true Light, who enlightens all mankind, was [indeed] coming into the world [i.e., to earth]. 10) [Actually] He was in the world [already], for the world came into being through Him, but the world did not acknowledge Him. 11) [Then] He came to His own [world, while on earth], but His own [people, the Israelites] did not welcome Him. 12) But He gave all those who did welcome Him the opportunity of becoming children of God by believing in His name [i.e., as the Messiah]. 13) [Such people] were born of God, not of blood ties [i.e., from physical descendants], nor of the will of the flesh [i.e., merely from a sexual desire], nor of the will of man [i.e., from a husband's desire for offspring].

14) [Eventually] this Word became a human being and lived among us [Note: The word "lived" here refers to pitching a temporary tent]. (And we saw His splendor; such splendor as belongs to the Father's only Son), full of God's favor and truth.

http://ncbible.info/MoodRes/Transmission/AUVcompleteEdition11-V3.pdf

131

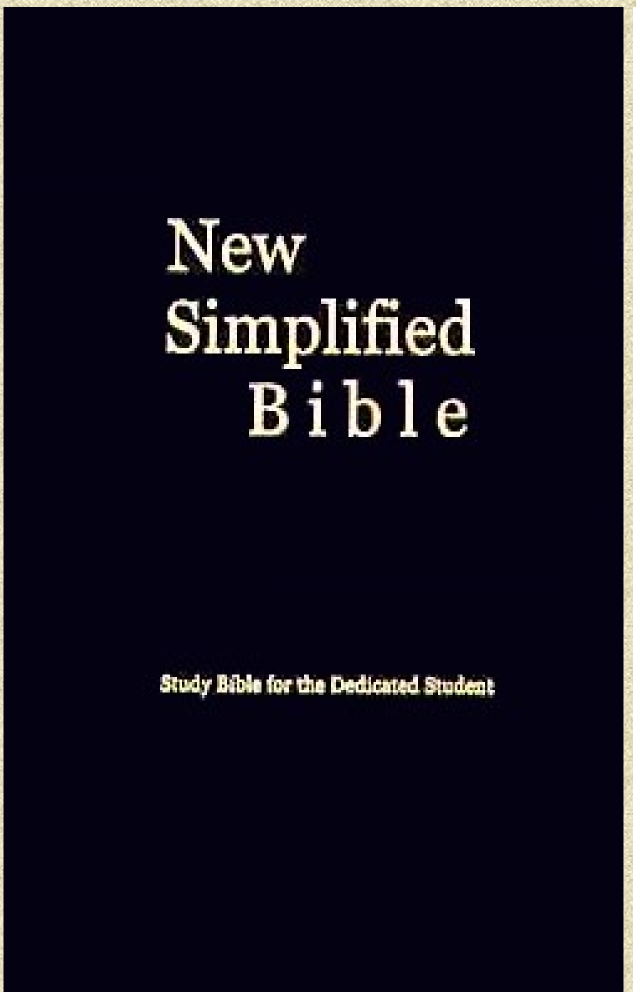
2005

The New Simplified Bible

Cañon City, CO, USA

James Madsen

and the Word was like God (God-like)



GOOD NEWS

ACCORDING TO JOHN

(Writer: Apostle John, means Jehovah Has Shown Favor) (98 C.E.) (Near Ephesus) (92% of this Gospel is new information not contained in the other three Gospels) (Tetragrammaton: YHWH is sometimes translated Jehovah, Yahweh, or LORD depending on translator's theology)

Chapter 1

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was like God (God-like) (Strong's G2316).
2 The same was in the beginning with God.
3 All things were made through him and without him not one thing was made.
4 He lived and his life gives light to all people.
5 His light shines through darkness and it cannot be extinguished.
6 God sent a man named John. (Malachi 3:1)
7 He came to tell (witness) (testify) about the light and help people have faith.
8 Not being the light he came to give a witness of it.
9 The true light, which gives light to every man, came into the world. (Isaiah 49:6)
10 The world was made through him. He was in the world and the world did not recognize him.
11 He came to his own. They did not receive him!
12 He gave the right to become children of God to all who received him. Even to those who believe in his name.
13 They were born from God. It was not from blood, or the will of the flesh, or the will of man.
14 The Word [Jesus] became flesh (a human being) and lived with us. We saw the glory of the only begotten son from the Father. He was full of loving-kindness and truth.
15 John spoke about him and declared: He is the one I said would come after me. He is greater than I am because he lived before me."
16 Out of the fullness of his undeserved kindness he gives us one blessing after another.
17 The law came through Moses. Loving-kindness and truth came through Jesus Christ.
18 No man has ever seen God. The only begotten God-like one (G2316) who is closest to the Father (in the

http://jw-archive.wikispaces.com/file/view/New+Simplified+Bible_JEHOVAH+New+Testament.pdf

https://pl.scribd.com/document/120728144/JEHOVAH-New-Testament-New-Simplified-Bible

2005

הברית החדשה = HaBrit HaḤadasha (Ed. 4)

(revised translation of Salkinson-Ginsburg)

Aaron Zelig Gabe

and he, the Word, was a god

והוא הדבר היה אלהים

הברית החדשה

העתקה חדשה מלשון יון ללשון עברית

מאת

יצחק זאלקינסאן ז"ל

מאת

כ' דוד גינצבורג ז"ל

על ידי הברית מוציאי לאור תורת יהוה התמימה
והושלם כפי הנוסח המקובל

מאת

דר. אהרן־זעליג גאבע

Sun 9th Jan, 2005

http://www.bibles.org.uk/

הבשורה הטובה על־פי
יוחנן

א בראשית היה הדבר והדבר היה את־האלהים והוא הדבר היה
2, 3 אלהים: הוא היה מראש את־האלהים: כל־המעשים נהיו על־ידו
4 ואין דבר אשר נעשה מבלעדיו: בו נמצא חיים והחיים הם אור
5, 6 האדם: והאור זרח בחשך והחשך לא יכילנו: איש היה בארץ
7 יוחנן שמו אשר שלחו אלהים: הוא בא לעדות להעיד על־האור
8 למען יאמינו כלם על־ידו: ולא הוא היה האור כי אם־בא
9 להעיד על־האור ההוא: הוא אור אמת אשר בא לעולם להאיר
10 לכל־אדם: הוא היה בעולם והעולם נהיה על־ידו והעולם אתו לא
11, 12 ידע: הוא בא אל־עמו שלו ועמו שלו לא החזיקו־בו: ואלה אשר
החזיקו־בו נתן־כח בידם להיות בנים לאלהים הלא הם המאמינים
13 בשמו: אשר לדתם לא מדם ולא מתאות בשר ולא מרוח גבר כי
14 אם־מאלהים: והדבר לבש בשר וישכן בתוכנו ואת־כבודו ראינו
15 ככבוד בן יחיד לאביו מלא חסד ואמת: ויוחנן העיד עליו ויקרא
לאמר זה הוא אשר אמרתי עליו כי הוא בא אחרי והנה הוא
16 לפני כי ראשון־לי היה: כי ממלאו נשאנו כלנו חסד על־חסד:
17 כי התורה נתונה ביד־משה וחסד ואמת ממקור ישוע המשיח
18 יצאו: את האלהים לא־ראה אדם מעולם והבן היחיד בחיק האב
19 הוא הגיד תכונתו: וזאת עדות יוחנן בשלח היהודים כהנים ולוים
20 מירושלים לשאל אתו מי הוא: והוא הודה ולא כחד כי הגיד
21 לאמר אנכי אינני המשיח: וישאלו אתו מי אפוא אתה האתה
22 אליהו ויאמר אינני אליהו האם הנביא אתה ויען לא: ויאמרו
אליו ומי אפוא אתה כי עלינו להשיב דבר את־שלחינו מה־תאמר
23 על־נפשך: ויאמר אנכי קול קורא במדבר פנו דרך יהוה כאשר

http://www.nazarenemedia.net/uploads/8/1/0/5/8105580/brit_chadasha_in_ivrit.pdf

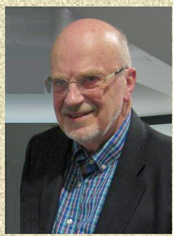
133

2005

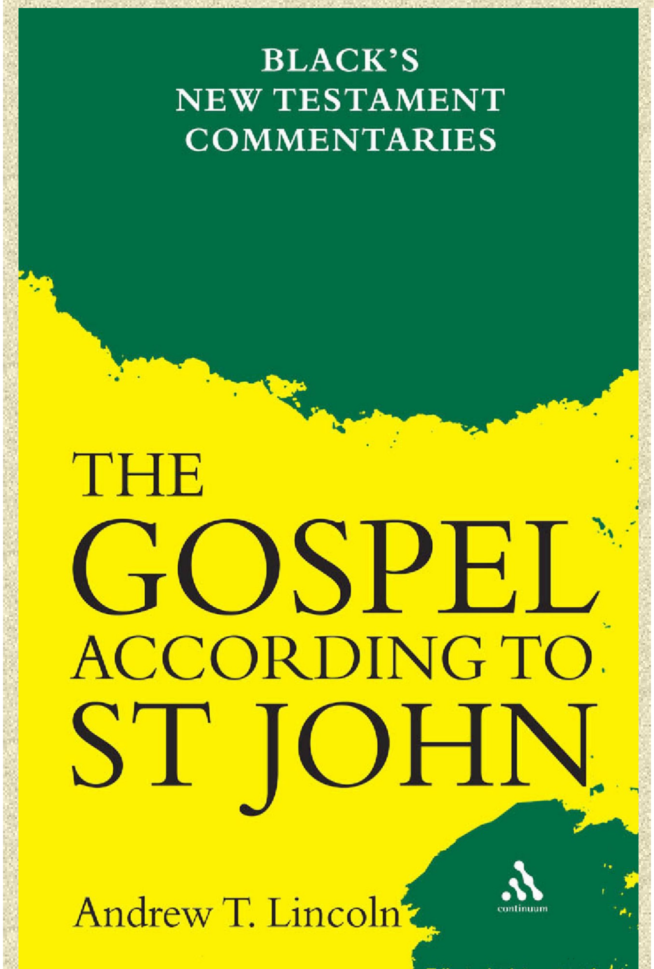
Black's New Testament Commentaries: The Gospel According to St John

London-New York: Hendrickson Publishers & Continuum

Andrew T. Lincoln



and what God was, the Word was



TRANSLATION AND COMMENTARY

A. THE PROLOGUE 1.1–18

(1) In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was at God's side, and what God was, the Word was. (2) This one was in the beginning at God's side. (3) All things came into being through him, and not one thing that has come into being came into being without him.[1] (4) In him was life, and the life was the light of humans; (5) and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

(6) There was a man sent from God, whose name was John; (7) he came for the sake of witness, in order that he might testify about the light, so that all might believe through him. (8) He was not himself the light, but came in order that he might testify about the light. (9) The true light that enlightens every person was coming into the world. (10) He was in the world, and the world came into being through him, and the world did not know him. (11) He came to what was his own, and his own people did not receive him. (12) But to whoever received him, he gave authority to become children of God, that is, to those who believed in his name, (13) who were born neither of bloods nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of the male but of God.

(14) And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we saw his glory, glory as of an only son of a father, full of grace and truth. (15) John testifies about him and cried out, saying, 'This was he of whom I said, "He who comes after me has become

[1] The earliest manuscripts contain no punctuation. There is a division, however, among some other manuscripts over where the sentences should be punctuated. The major alternative would provide the translation 'and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life . . .' This has the stronger support, but there are very good grounds for preferring the punctuation reflected in the translation above. The repetition in depicting the Word's relation to creation corresponds to the preceding repetition in depicting the Word's relation to God, and 'in him was life' corresponds to the narrative's later claims about the relation between Jesus and life.

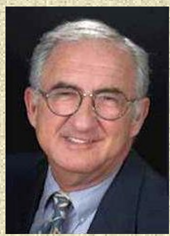
https://books.google.pl/books?id=eYmxAwAAQBAJ

2005

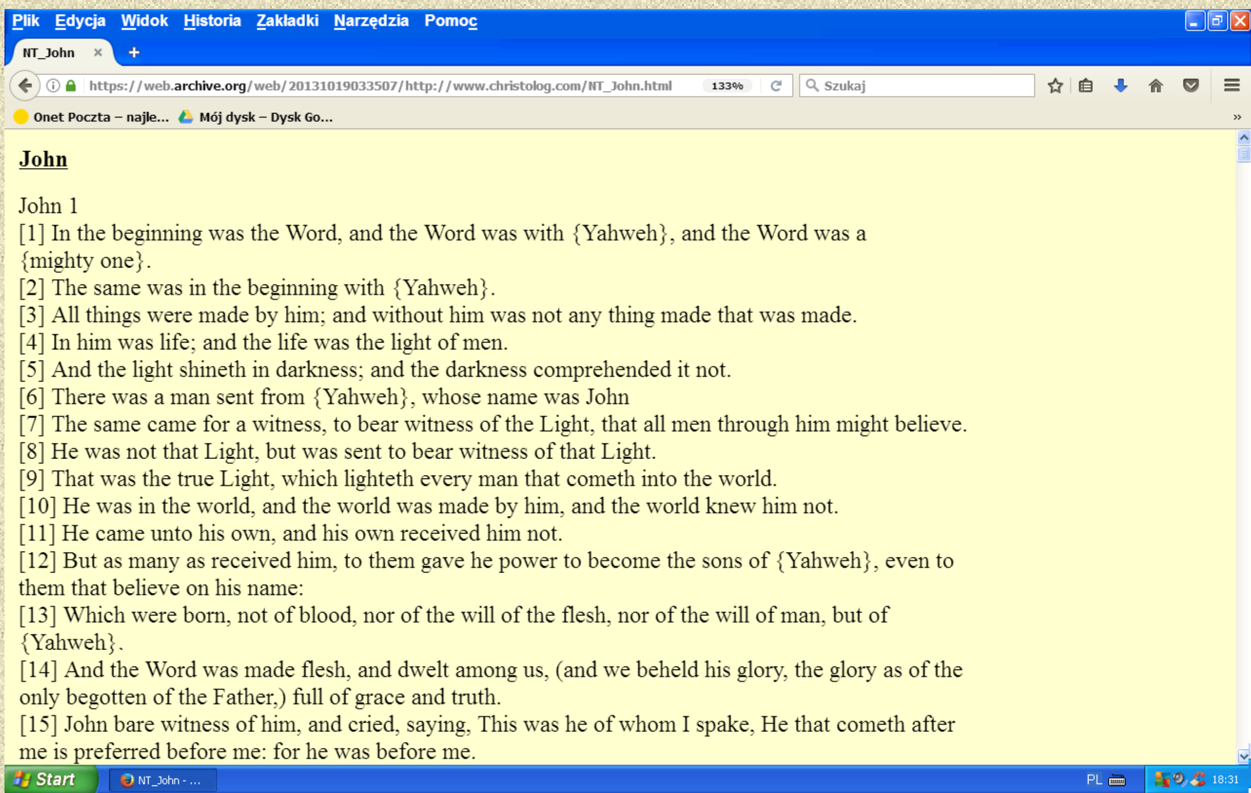
Christolog Bible King James Version: Corrected Edition

html

Richard P. Carroll



and the Word was a {mighty one}



Plik Edycja Widok Historia Zakładki Narzędzia Pomoc

NT_John

https://web.archive.org/web/20131019033507/http://www.christolog.com/NT_John.html

John

John 1
[1] In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with {Yahweh}, and the Word was a {mighty one}.
[2] The same was in the beginning with {Yahweh}.
[3] All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.
[4] In him was life; and the life was the light of men.
[5] And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.
[6] There was a man sent from {Yahweh}, whose name was John [7] The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.
[8] He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.
[9] That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.
[10] He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.
[11] He came unto his own, and his own received him not.
[12] But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of {Yahweh}, even to them that believe on his name:
[13] Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of {Yahweh}.
[14] And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.
[15] John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

https://web.archive.org/web/20131019033507/http://www.christolog.com/NT_John.html

135

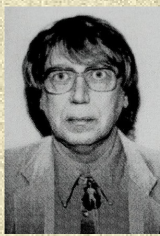
2005

The Compact Fully Translated Bible (vol. 2)

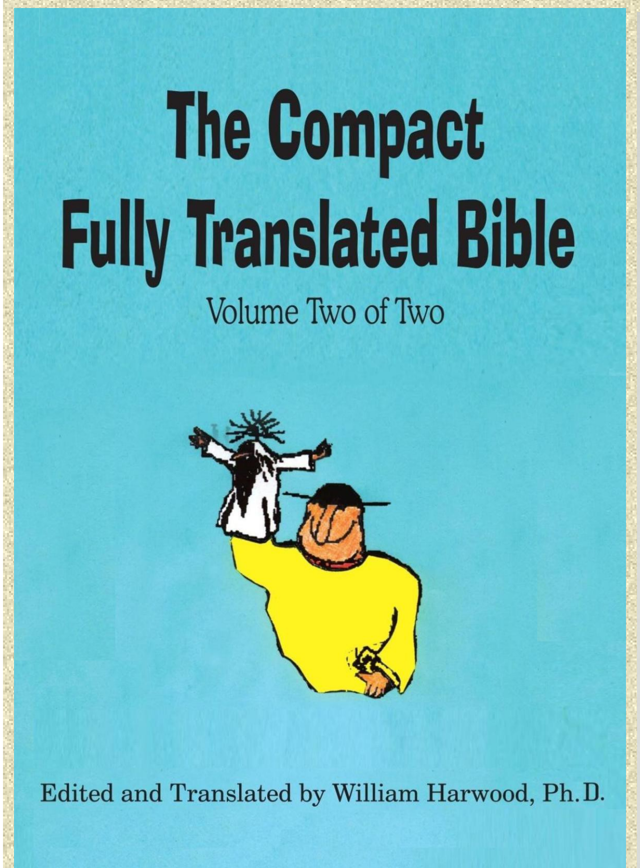
(Amos-Revelation)

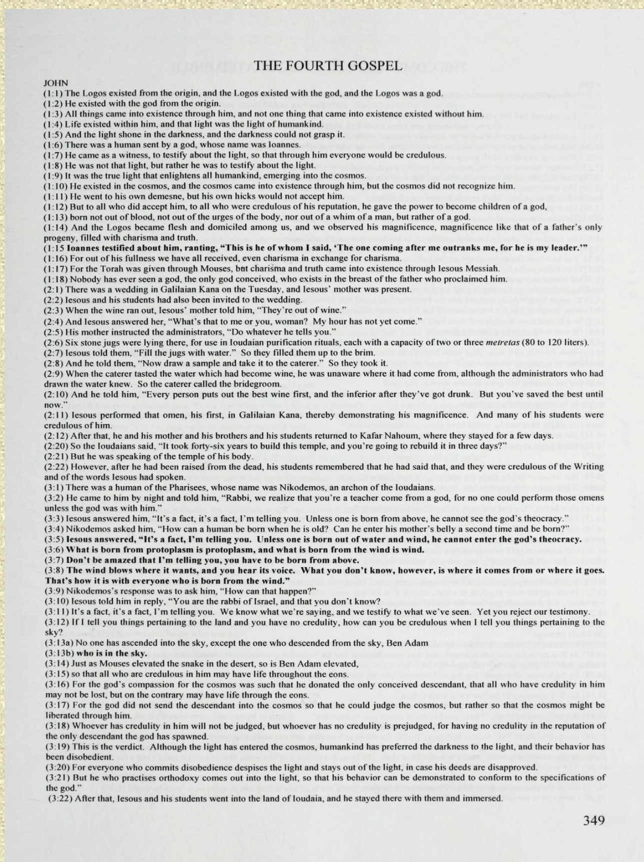
Bloomington: AuthorHouse, USA

William R. Harwood



and the Logos was a god





THE FOURTH GOSPEL

JOHN

(1:1) The Logos existed from the origin, and the Logos existed with the god, and the Logos was a god.
(1:2) He existed with the god from the origin.
(1:3) All things came into existence through him, and not one thing that came into existence existed without him.
(1:4) Life existed within him, and that light was the light of humankind.
(1:5) And the light shone in the darkness, and the darkness could not grasp it.
(1:6) There was a human sent by a god, whose name was Ioannes.
(1:7) He came as a witness, to testify about the light, so that through him everyone would be credulous.
(1:8) He was not that light, but rather he was to testify about the light.
(1:9) It was the true light that enlightens all humankind, emerging into the cosmos.
(1:10) He existed in the cosmos, and the cosmos came into existence through him, but the cosmos did not recognize him.
(1:11) He went to his own demesne, but his own hicks would not accept him.
(1:12) But to all who did accept him, to all who were credulous of his reputation, he gave the power to become children of a god,
(1:13) born not out of blood, not out of the urges of the body, nor out of a whim of a man, but rather of a god.
(1:14) And the Logos became flesh and domiciled among us, and we observed his magnificence, magnificence like that of a father's only progeny, filled with charisma and truth.
(1:15 Ioannes testified about him, ranting, "This is he of whom I said, 'The one coming after me outranks me, for he is my leader.'"
(1:16) For out of his fullness we have all received, even charisma in exchange for charisma.
(1:17) For the Torah was given through Mouses, but charisma and truth came into existence through Iesous Messiah.
(1:18) Nobody has ever seen a god, the only god conceived, who exists in the breast of the father who proclaimed him.
(2:1) There was a wedding in Galilaian Kana on the Tuesday, and Iesous' mother was present.
(2:2) Iesous and his students had also been invited to the wedding.
(2:3) When the wine ran out, Iesous' mother told him, "They're out of wine."
(2:4) And Iesous answered her, "What's that to me or you, woman? My hour has not yet come."
(2:5) His mother instructed the administrators, "Do whatever he tells you."
(2:6) Six stone jugs were lying there, for use in Ioudaian purification rituals, each with a capacity of two or three metretas (80 to 120 liters).
(2:7) Iesous told them, "Fill the jugs with water." So they filled them up to the brim.
(2:8) And he told them, "Now draw a sample and take it to the caterer." So they took it.
(2:9) When the caterer tasted the water which had become wine, he was unaware where it had come from, although the administrators who had drawn the water knew. So the caterer called the bridegroom.
(2:10) And he told him, "Every person puts out the best wine first, and the inferior after they've got drunk. But you've saved the best until now."
(2:11) Iesous performed that omen, his first, in Galilaian Kana, thereby demonstrating his magnificence. And many of his students were credulous of him.
(2:12) After that, he and his mother and his brothers and his students returned to Kafar Nahoum, where they stayed for a few days.
(2:20) So the Ioudaians said, "It took forty-six years to build this temple, and you're going to rebuild it in three days?"
(2:21) But he was speaking of the temple of his body.
(2:22) However, after he had been raised from the dead, his students remembered that he had said that, and they were credulous of the Writing and of the words Iesous had spoken.
(3:1) There was a human of the Pharisees, whose name was Nikodemos, an archon of the Ioudaians.
(3:2) He came to him by night and told him, "Rabbi, we realize that you're a teacher come from a god, for no one could perform those omens unless the god was with him."
(3:3) Iesous answered him, "It's a fact, it's a fact, I'm telling you. Unless one is born from above, he cannot see the god's theocracy."
(3:4) Nikodemos asked him, "How can a human be born when he is old? Can he enter his mother's belly a second time and be born?"
(3:5) Iesous answered, "It's a fact, I'm telling you. Unless one is born out of water and wind, he cannot enter the god's theocracy.
(3:6) What is born from protoplasm is protoplasm, and what is born from the wind is wind.
(3:7) Don't be amazed that I'm telling you, you have to be born from above.
(3:8) The wind blows where it wants, and you hear its voice. What you don't know, however, is where it comes from or where it goes. That's how it is with everyone who is born from the wind."
(3:9) Nikodemos's response was to ask him, "How can that happen?"
(3:10) Iesous told him in reply, "You are the rabbi of Israel, and that you don't know?
(3:11) It's a fact, it's a fact, I'm telling you. We know what we're saying, and we testify to what we've seen. Yet you reject our testimony.
(3:12) If I tell you things pertaining to the land and you have no credulity, how can you be credulous when I tell you things pertaining to the sky?
(3:13a) No one has ascended into the sky, except the one who descended from the sky, Ben Adam (3:13b) who is in the sky.
(3:14) Just as Mouses elevated the snake in the desert, so is Ben Adam elevated,
(3:15) so that all who are credulous in him may have life throughout the eons.
(3:16) For the god's compassion for the cosmos was such that he donated the only conceived descendant, that all who have credulity in him may not be lost, but on the contrary may have life through the eons.
(3:17) For the god did not send the descendant into the cosmos so that he could judge the cosmos, but rather so that the cosmos might be liberated through him.
(3:18) Whoever has credulity in him will not be judged, but whoever has no credulity is prejudged, for having no credulity in the reputation of the only descendant the god has spawned.
(3:19) This is the verdict. Although the light has entered the cosmos, humankind has preferred the darkness to the light, and their behavior has been disobedient.
(3:20) For everyone who commits disobedience despises the light and stays out of the light, in case his deeds are disapproved.
(3:21) But he who practises orthodoxy comes out into the light, so that his behavior can be demonstrated to conform to the specifications of the god."
(3:22) After that, Iesous and his students went into the land of Ioudaia, and he stayed there with them and immersed.

349

https://archive.org/details/compactfullytran00will

136

CATHOLIC

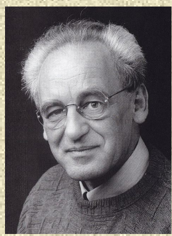
2005

SPANISH

Comentario al Evangelio de Juan

Estella (Navarra): Editorial Verbo Divino

Sjef van Tilborg



and a God was the word

y un Dios era la palabra

Estrofa 1: En el principio, junto a Dios

1. En el principio era la palabra
   y la palabra estaba junto a Dios,
   y un Dios era la palabra.
2. Estaba en el principio junto a Dios.

Estrofa 2: El primer día de la creación

3. Todo ha llegado a ser a través de la palabra y sin ella no ha llegado a ser nada.
   Lo que ha llegado a ser
4. en ella era vida.
   Y la vida era la luz del hombre.
5. Y la luz brilla en la tiniebla.
   Y la tiniebla no la ha sometido.

Estrofa 3: Juan como testigo celestial de la luz

6. Y llego a ser un hombre, que había sido enviado por Dios;
   su nombre es Juan.
7. Él vino como testigo,
   para dar testimonio de la luz,
   para que todos lleguen a creer.
8. Éste no era la luz,
   sino que tenía que dar testimonio de la luz.

Estrofa 4: La aparición de la luz

9. La verdadera luz era la que ilumina a todo hombre cuando viene al mundo.
10. Estaba en el mundo y el mundo llegó a ser por medio de ella,
    y el mundo no la ha reconocido.

Estrofa 5: Acoger y no acoger la luz

11. A los suyos ha venido
    y los suyos no lo han acogido.
12. A aquellos que lo han acogido, a ellos les dio la capacidad de llegar a ser hijos de Dios,
    a ellos que creen en su nombre.
13. El que (la que, los que) no de la sangre de un varón y de una mujer, no de la voluntad de la carne,
    ni de la voluntad de un varón,
    sino de Dios ha (han) nacido.

Estrofa 6: La encarnación

14. Y la palabra ha llegado a ser carne, y ha habitado entre nosotros,
    y hemos visto su gloria.
    Una gloria que recibe un unigénito del Padre, lleno gracia y de verdad.

In this book individual verses are on pp. 16-27

http://www.verbodivino.es/hojear/3471/comentario-al-evangelio-de-juan---pdf.pdf

IN WORK
2006

The Holy New Covenant
(New Testament) as amended from J. W. Etheridge's translation from the Peshito Syriac, along with the ancient placements of the definite and indefinite articles as indicated in the Greek and Coptic manuscripts.
Victory Version Translation

Truth and Light Ministries, Inc., Canada
Clifford R. Besson (Ed.)

and a superior one was that Expression

The Holy New Covenant

(New Testament) as amended from J. W. Etheridge's translation from the Peshito Syriac, along with the ancient placements of the definite and indefinite articles as indicated in the Greek and Coptic manuscripts.

Victory Version Translation
by Clifford Besson

Truth and Light Ministries, Inc.

The Good News
According to Saint John
Victory Version, a Literal Translation

1. 1 In a beginning was the Expression[1], and the Expression was with the Superior One[2], and a superior one[3] was that Expression. 2 This was in a beginning with the Superior One. 3 All things through him[4] came into being, and without him

---

[1] 1:1 Why is Word singular as in the Authorized Version (AV)? As a picture or photograph speaks like a thousand words, so this wonderful Being that was with the Superior One before our world was made, speaks volumes as to what the Superior is really like. So we therefore believe this particular word of Expression is the best one to truly express this, for Jesus is the best Expression of the Superior's One love for mankind.

See our Appendix article for the Numerical Significance of Words for this word of Expression. See also Prov. 8:22ff, Mk. 12:36; and Jn. 1:15.

[2] 1:1 The Aramaic word in the text is 'alähä and the word is pronounced Alaha (G. M. Lamsa, Holy Bible from the Ancient Eastern Text (San Fransisco: 1961), p. xix). It means Great One or rather Greater One than the speaker or writer, as in Eph. 1:17, therefore Superior One or Superior should be the most appropriate word.

We do not use the regular word God because people do not really know the real meaning of this word any more.

See our Appendix as above.

[3] 1:1 The Greek has no definite article for the word usually translated as god or God. See Acts 28:6. In the Greek, at the time of the first disciples of Jesus, there was no such thing as lower case and higher case letters as now. So the writers generally put the definite article before the names of people to show this word was referring to a certain person as can be seen in the begats of Mt. 1. For other words like god, a definite article before it, meant the God but the translators have capitalized the first letter of this word, to show that in the Greek there is a definite article before it. But do they tell you that? We therefore have to make things very clear and show honestly what the early Greek translators thought this really meant, that this Expression (capitalized

Truth and Light Ministries Inc., P. O. Box 79, Ethelbert, Manitoba R0L 0T0 Canada www.TruthAndLightMinistries.org or crbesson@mts.net
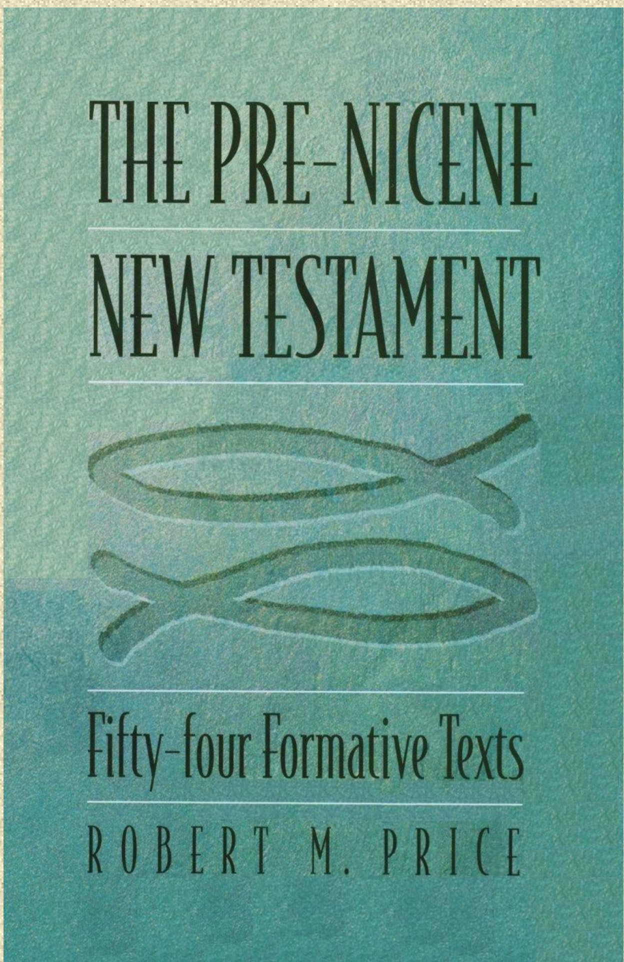
1(204)742-3306

138

2006

The Pre-Nicene New Testament:
Fifty-four Formative Texts (Ed. 1)
Salt Lake City: Signature Books, USA
Robert M. Price

and the Word was a God



succession of new imams or manifestations of the Christ, parallel to the True Prophet doctrine of the Ebionites (Preaching of Peter). The gospel writer seems to seek to enhance his own authority as the implied Paraclete, the one who will bring to light the "forgotten" and not-yet-revealed advanced teaching which Jesus did not provide during his earthly lifetime (18:20). Who would this have been? Given the lateness of the book, we certainly cannot rule out Montanus himself. But then, in view of the blatant Marcionism of the gospel, Paul may be intended. Huller makes Paul the author of the gospel in its original form, and it might have been Marcion or some anonymous Marcionite who wanted to make Paul the predicted Paraclete, just as Matthew 5:19 makes Paul the least in the kingdom of heaven and Acts makes him Simon the Magician.

1

[1]In the beginning
there was the Word,
and the Word stood before God,
and the Word was a God.
[2]This one was there in the beginning with God.
[3]All came about through him,
and apart from him, not one thing came about.
What came about [4]in him was life,
and the life was the light of mankind;
[5]and the light shines in the darkness,
and the darkness did not understand it.

[6]There appeared a man, sent from God, named John. [7]This one came for a witness, to witness concerning the light so all might believe through him. [8]Not that he was that light, but that he might witness concerning the light.

[9]It was the light of truth, which illuminates every human being,
coming into the world.
[10]He was in the world,
and the world came about through him,
and the world did not recognize him.
[11]To his own creations he came,

2006

Coptic Gospel of John 1:1-18
with Interlinear and English Translation

PDF

USA

Solomon Landers

interlinear translation:
and was a god is the Word

target translation:
and the Word was a divine being

Coptic Gospel of John 1:1-18
with Interlinear and English Translation

1. ϨN TЄϨOYЄITЄ
In the beginning

NЄϤϢOOП NϬI ПϢAXЄ
he was existing, namely the Word

AYω ПϢAXЄ NЄϤϢOOП
and the Word he was existing

NNAϨPM ПNOYTЄ
in the presence of the God

AYω NЄYNOYTЄ ПЄ ПϢAXЄ.
and was a god is the Word

2. ПAI ϨN TЄϨOYЄITЄ NЄϤϢOOП ϨATM ПNOYTЄ.
This one in the beginning he was existing with the God

3. NTAПTHPϤ [NKA NIM] ϢωПЄ [AYϢωПЄ]
Did everything come into being

ЄBOΛ ϨI TOOTϤ AYω AXNTϤ MПЄ ΛAAY ϢωПЄ. forth through him and without him did not anything come into being.

ПЄNTAϤϢωПЄ
That which came into being

4. ϨPAI NϨHTϤ ПЄ ПωNϨ.
in him was the life.

A Contemporary English Translation of the Coptic Text

The Gospel of John, Chapter One

1 In the beginning the Word existed. The Word existed in the presence of God, and the Word was a divine being. 2 This one existed in the beginning with God. 3 All things came into existence through him; without him nothing that exists came to be. What came to be 4 through him was life, the life that is the light of mankind. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness cannot overtake it.

6.There came a man who was sent out by God, his name was John. 7 This one came to bear witness, to bear witness about the light, so that everyone may actively believe through him.. 8 He was not the light, but his purpose was to bear witness about the light.

9 The real light which gives light to everyone was about to come into the world. 10 He was in the world, the world which came into existence through him, but the world did not know him.

11 He came to those who were his own, yet those who were his own did not receive him. 12 But he gave authority to become children of God to those who did receive him, to those actively believing in his name. 13 The origin of these was not flesh and blood, nor human will; they were begotten from God.

14 He was made flesh and lived with us. We saw his dignity, the dignity possessed by a Father's only son; he was filled with divine loving-kindness and truth. 15 John bore witness about him, calling out and declaring, "This was the one concerning whom I said, 'He who comes behind me has come to be ahead of me, because he existed prior to me.'" 16 From his fullness we all received life and divine loving-kindness upon divine loving-kindness. 17 The Law was given through Moses, but the divine loving-kindness and the truth came to be through Jesus, the Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God at any time. The divine being, the only Son who is in the bosom of his father, is the one who has revealed him.

Notes:

Verse 1: Literally, "and the Word was a god." Alternatively, "and the Word was divine."

140

2007
Zürcher Bibel (Ed. rev.)
Zürich: Theologischer Verlag
Michael Weinrich – Rainer Albertz – Georg Plasger –
Jochen Denker – Magdalene L. Frettlöh – Klaus Haacker – Holger Domas – Ilka Werner – Karl Friedrich Ulrichs

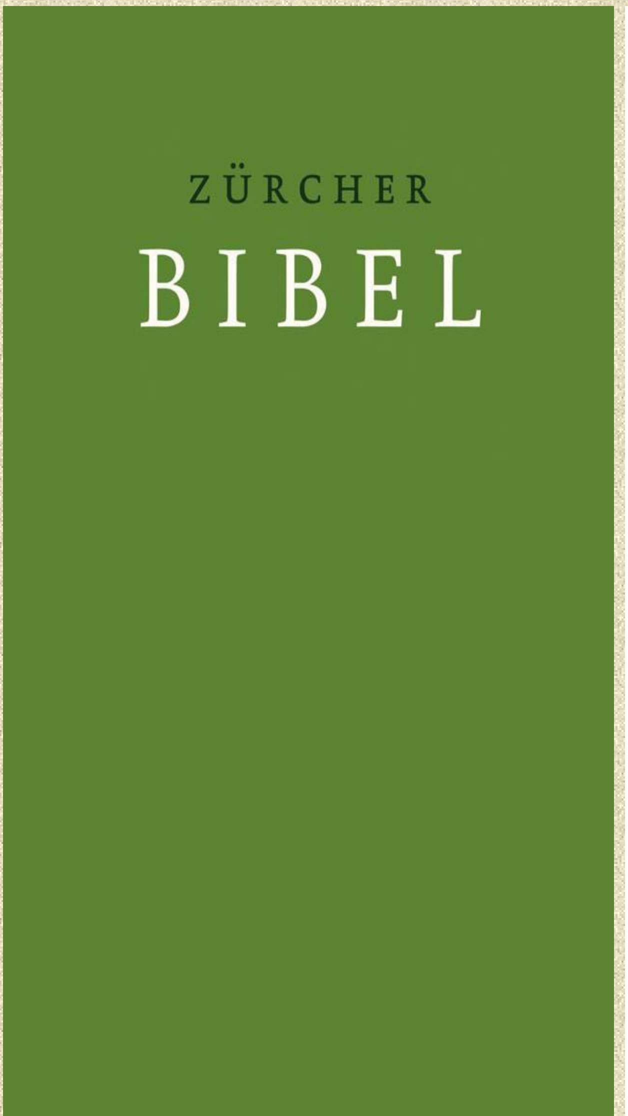
and of divine nature was the Logos
und von Gottes Wesen war der Logos



Das Evangelium nach Johannes

Der Prolog

1 1 Im Anfang war das Wort, der Logos,
und der Logos war bei Gott,
und von Gottes Wesen war der Logos.
2 Dieser war im Anfang bei Gott.
3 Alles ist durch ihn geworden,
und ohne ihn ist auch nicht eines geworden,
das geworden ist.
4 In ihm war Leben,
und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen.
5 Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis,
und die Finsternis hat es nicht erfasst.
6 Es trat ein Mensch auf, von Gott gesandt, sein Name war Johannes. 7 Dieser kam zum Zeugnis, um Zeugnis abzulegen von dem Licht, damit alle durch ihn zum Glauben kämen. 8 Nicht er war das Licht, sondern Zeugnis sollte er ablegen von dem Licht.
9 Er war das wahre Licht,
das jeden Menschen erleuchtet, der zur Welt kommt.
10 Er war in der Welt,
und die Welt ist durch ihn geworden,
und die Welt hat ihn nicht erkannt.
11 Er kam in das Seine,
und die Seinen nahmen ihn nicht auf.
12 Die ihn aber aufnahmen, denen gab er Vollmacht,
Gottes Kinder zu werden,
denen, die an seinen Namen glauben,
13 die nicht aus Blut, nicht aus dem Wollen des Fleisches und nicht aus dem Wollen des Mannes, sondern aus Gott gezeugt sind.
14 Und das Wort, der Logos, wurde Fleisch
und wohnte unter uns,
und wir schauten seine Herrlichkeit, eine Herrlichkeit, wie sie ein Einziggeborener vom Vater hat,
voller Gnade und Wahrheit.
15 Johannes legt Zeugnis ab von ihm, er hat gerufen: Dieser war es, von dem ich gesagt habe: Der nach mir kommt, ist vor mir gewesen, denn er war, ehe ich war.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=MrOZDwAAQBAJ

141

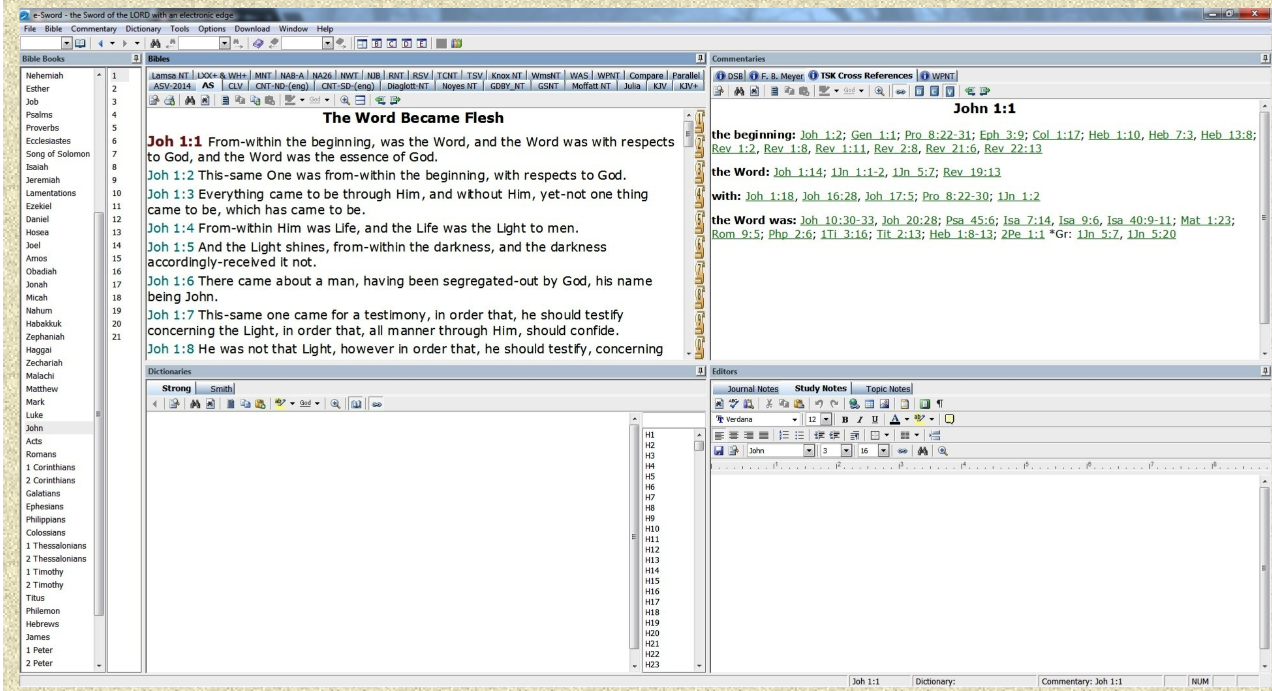
2007

Awful Scroll: The Straight New Testament

html / e-sword

Emery Szasz

and the Word was the essence of God



http://awfulscroll.50webs.com/index.htm

142

2007

PORTUGUESE

Bíblia Aberta

html (yet not finished)

a team translators

and the Word was of the quality of God

e a Palavra era da qualidade de Deus

https://pt.m.wikisource.org/wiki/Bíblia_Aberta/João/I

143

2008

A Translator's Translation of the New Testament

Ann Arbor, Michigan: Cummins Works, USA

Ellis W. Deibler, Jr.

and he has God's nature

The Gospel that was written by

John

1

John 1:1-18

THEME: This book is about Jesus, who was eternally with God but also became a human being to reveal God to mankind.

[1] The one who expresses what God is like has always existed from the beginning of everything. He has always existed with God, and he has God's nature. [2] He always existed with God before he began to create anything. [3] He is the one by whom God caused everything to exist. He is the one who created absolutely everything. [4] He is the one who caused everything to live. He, who caused us people to live, revealed to us the truth about God, as a light reveals what is in the darkness. [5] People do not want him to reveal that what they do is evil, just like darkness is evil. But just as darkness cannot put out light, evil people have never prevented the one who was like a light from revealing God's truth.[a]

[6] God sent a man whose name was John. [7] He came to tell people about the one who was like a light. John came to show that everything that the one who was like a light said was true, in order that he could enable all people to believe in the one who was like a light. [8] John himself was not the one who was like a light. Instead, he came to tell others about that one who was like a light. [9] While John was doing that, the one who was truly like a light was about to come into the world. He was the one who enables all people to know about God, as a light enables people to know what is in the darkness.

[10] Although the one who was like a light was here on the earth, and although he was the one through whom God created everything, most people did not realize who he was.[b] [11] Although he came to the land that belonged to him because he created it, most of his own people, the Jews, rejected him. [12] But as for those of us who welcomed him, God authorized that we would have a relationship with him like children have a relationship with their father. We were people who believed that what he said about himself was true. [13] We became like God's children, not because our ancestors belonged to God, or because of someone's sexual desires, nor because some man desired to have children like himself. Instead, it was God who caused us to become like his children.

[14] The one who expresses what God is like became a human being, and he lived among us for a while. As a result, we saw how wonderful he is. He came from God his father, and there was no other person as wonderful as he. He was wonderful because he always acted in kindness toward us, in ways we did not deserve, and he always spoke truthfully to us about God.

[15] One day when John was telling people about him, he saw Jesus. Then John shouted to them, "I told you previously that someone will come later who is more important than I am, since he existed long before me. This is the man I was talking about!*"

---

[a] OR, …evil people have never understood the one who was like a light.

[b] OR, …most people did not accept him.

http://ebible.org/t4t/TranslatorsTranslation.pdf

144

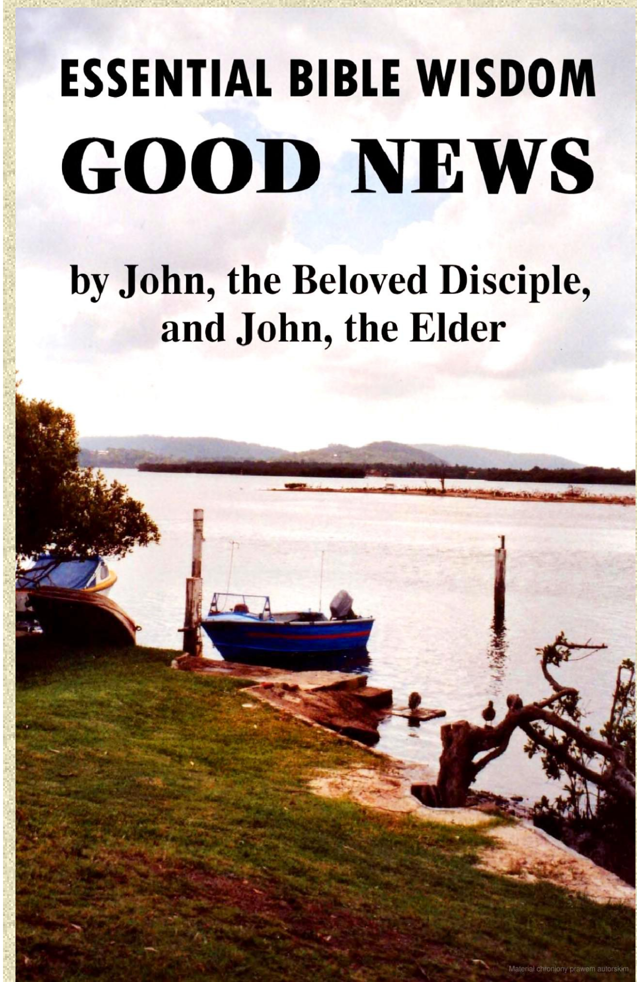
2008

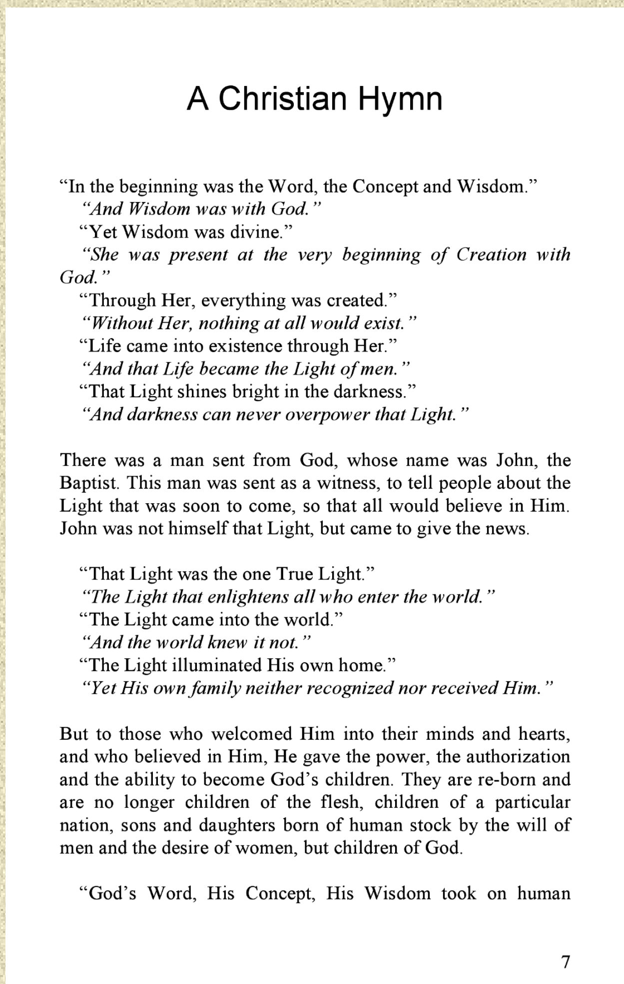
Good News by John, the Beloved Disciple and John, the Elder

Lulu Press, Inc., Australia

John H. Reid

Yet Wisdom was divine.





A Christian Hymn

"In the beginning was the Word, the Concept and Wisdom."
"And Wisdom was with God."
"Yet Wisdom was divine."
"She was present at the very beginning of Creation with God."
"Through Her, everything was created."
"Without Her, nothing at all would exist."
"Life came into existence through Her."
"And that Life became the Light of men."
"That Light shines bright in the darkness."
"And darkness can never overpower that Light."

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John, the Baptist. This man was sent as a witness, to tell people about the Light that was soon to come, so that all would believe in Him. John was not himself that Light, but came to give the news.

"That Light was the one True Light."
"The Light that enlightens all who enter the world."
"The Light came into the world."
"And the world knew it not."
"The Light illuminated His own home."
"Yet His own family neither recognized nor received Him."

But to those who welcomed Him into their minds and hearts, and who believed in Him, He gave the power, the authorization and the ability to become God's children. They are re-born and are no longer children of the flesh, children of a particular nation, sons and daughters born of human stock by the will of men and the desire of women, but children of God.

"God's Word, His Concept, His Wisdom took on human 7

https://books.google.pl/books?id=BBhvLMmhOVUC

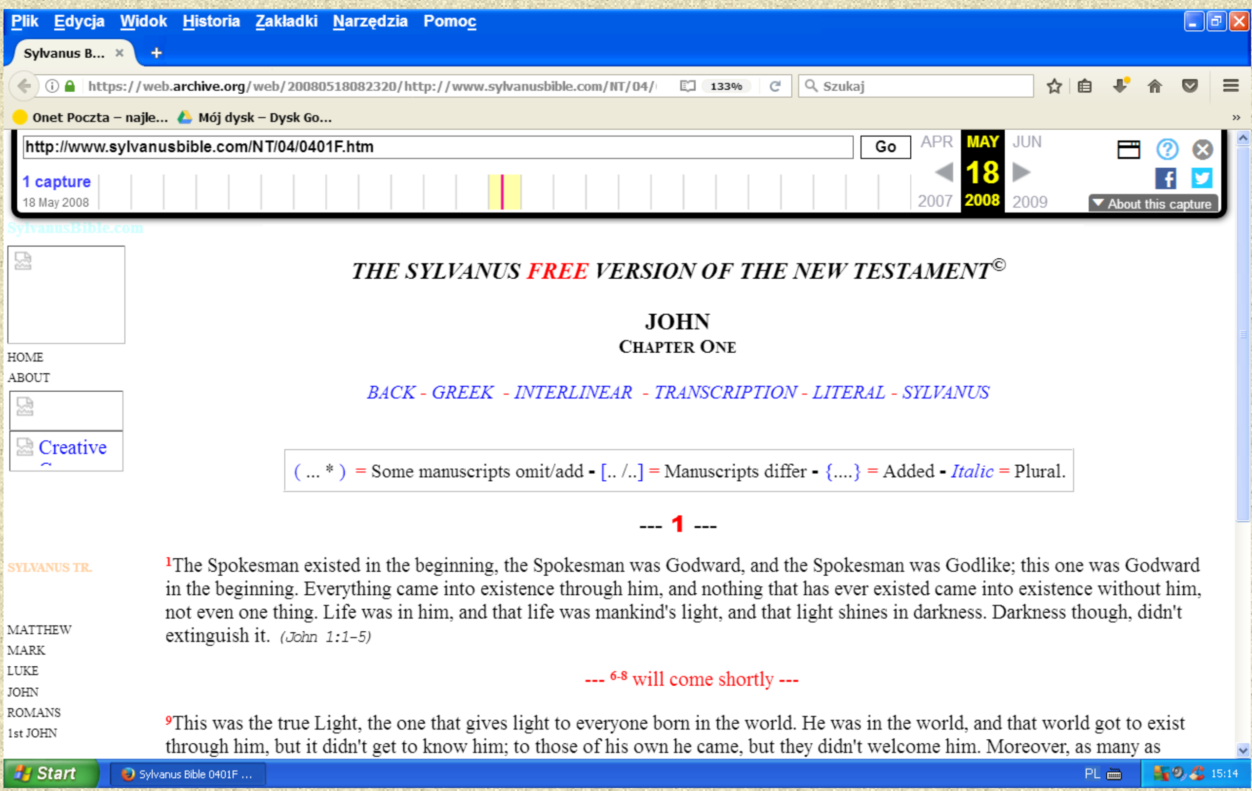
2008

The Sylvanus Free Version of the New Testament

html (not finished)

Sylvain Hervé

and the Spokesman was Godlike



https://web.archive.org/web/20080518082320/http://www.sylvanusbible.com/NT/04/0401F.htm

146

2010

SPANISH

Nuevo Testamento Interlineal (Westcott-Hort, 1881; Galeed, 2009)

html anonimous translator

και and θεος god ην was ο the λογος Word

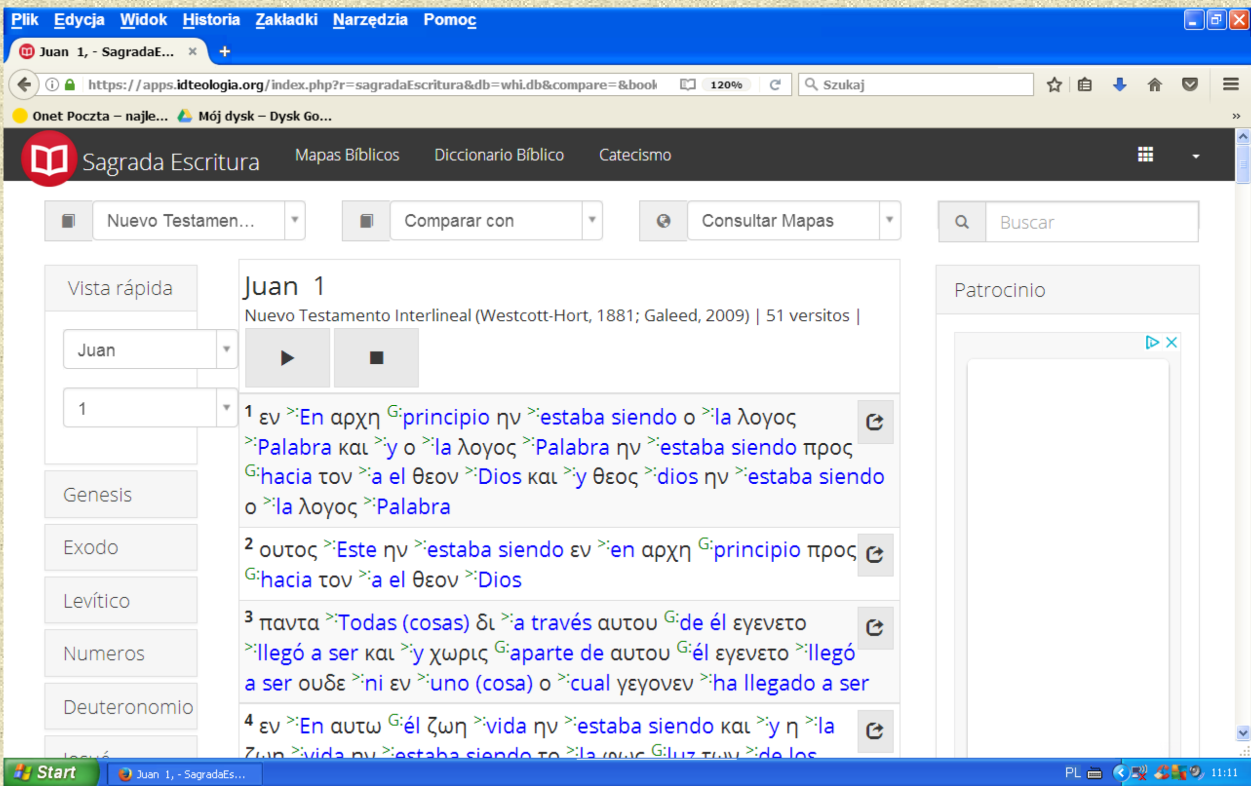
και y θεος dios ην estaba siendo ο la λογος Palabra



https://apps.idteologia.org/index.php?r=sagradaEscritura&db=whi.db&compare=&book=43&chapter=1

147

2010

The Nazarene Commentary. 21st Century Version of the Christian (Vol. 1)

Bloomington: Xlibris Corporation, Australia

Mark H. Miller

and the Word was god-like was god-like.[1] [JN1:2] This [god-like One][1] existed in [the] beginning [Genesis 1:1 LXX] with the Supreme Deity. [JN1:3] All things came into existence by the word borrowed from the Hebrew Bible. The Greek here is pros ton theon and is identical to Exodus 4:16 [LXX] where Moses faces Yehowah to receive words to be related to Aaron, his Mouthpiece. The Greek pros is usually rendered "with" here but it also is translated "toward" as in one facing toward another to receive commandment or orders. If, as some people suppose, the Word was not a person but God's own Message, it is unlikely it would be described as pros ton theon (toward the Supreme Deity). Rather, it would be apo [from] or ek [out of] the Supreme Deity.

---

1 God-like: Or, divine, a god. KJV: God; GDSP: divine; MOF: divine. The Greek is kai theos en ho logos. This theos (god) is not the same as ton theon (the Supreme Deity) of the former phrase. The Greek, unlike English and other languages, only has the definite article (ho = the). When the article occurs it indicates a specific thing; when it is lacking (anarthrous) it means one of many or a type. Many view theos here as an adjective describing a quality of the Logos. More than a dozen translators have rendered this "a god" whereas another half dozen have used "divine." Some Trinitarian scholars give a severe paraphrase here: BAR: and the nature of the Word was the same as the nature of God; NEB: what God was the Word was. These do not solve the problem but create even greater mystery and confusion. The argument between Trinitarians and Unitarians will continue as it has in the past.

(2) Harwood, 1768, "and was himself a divine person"; (3) Newcome, 1808, "and the word was a god"; (4) Thompson, 1829, "the Logos was a god"; (5) Goodspeed, 1939, "the Word was divine"; (6) Torrey, 1947, "the Word was god"; (7) New English, 1961, "what God was, the Word was"; (8) Moffatt, 1972, "the Logos was divine"; (9) Reijnier Rooleeuw, 1694, "and the Word was a god"; (10) Simple English Bible, "and the Message was Deity"; (11) Hermann Heinfetter, 1863, "as a god the Command was"; (12) Abner Kneeland, 1822, "The Word was a God"; (13) Robert Young, 1885, (Concise Commentary) "and a God (i.e. a Divine Being) was the Word"; (14) Leicester Ambrose, 1879, "And the logos was a god"; (15) Charles A.L. Totten, 1900, "the Word was Deistic [=The Word was Godly]"; (16) J.N. Jannaris, 1901, "and was a god"; (17) George William Horner, 1911, "[A]nd (a) God was the word"; (18) Ernest Findlay Scott, 1932, "and the Word was of divine nature"; (19) James L. Tomanec, 1958, "the Word was a God"; (20) Philip Harner, 1974, "The Word had the same nature as God"; (21) Maximilian Zerwich S.J./Mary Grosvenor, 1974, "The Word was divine"; (22) Siegfried Schulz, 1975, "And a god (or, of a divine kind) was the Word"; (23) Translator's NT, 1973, "The Word was with God and shared his nature"; (24) Barclay, 1976, "the nature of the Word was the same as the nature of God"; (25) Schneider, 1978, "and godlike sort was the Logos"; (26) Schonfield, 1985, "the Word was divine"; (27) Revised English, 1989, "what God was, the Word was"; (28) Cotton Parch Version, 1970, "and the Idea and God were One"; (29) Scholar's Version, 1993, "The Divine word and wisdom was there with God, and it was what God was"; (30) Madsen, 1994, "the Word was a divine Being"; (31) Becker, 1979, "ein Gott war das Logos" [a God/god was the Logos/logos]; (32) Stage, 1907, "Das Wort war selbst göttlichen Wesens" [The Word/word was itself a divine Being/being]; (33) Bhmer, 1910, "Es war fest mit Gott verbunden, ja selbst göttlichen Wesens" [It was strongly linked to God, yes itself divine Being/being]; (34) Thimme, 1919, "Gott von Art war das Wort" [God of Kind/kind was the Word/word]; (35) Baumgarten et al, 1920, "Gott (von Art) war der Logos" [God (of Kind/kind) was the Logos/logos]; (36) Holzmann, 1926, "ein Gott war der Gedanke" [a God/god was the

https://books.google.pl/books?id=z_Oex3IDPSYC

148

2010

Hebrew-Greek Colored Interlinear New Testament

PDF

Lanny Mebust (Benyamin benQehath)

version of 4 April, 2010:

w'hadabar hayah 'eth ha'Elohim w'Elohim hayah hadabar

FROM HEBREW:

and the Word was with the Elohim, and the Word was Elohim

FROM GREEK:

and the Word was with the Elohim, and Elohim was the Word

New Testament (B'rit haChadashah)

(in downward order of each verse of its texts of the paleo-Hebrew Phoenican, modern Hebrew at right, and its Hebrew color coded translitered text along with the translitered names/titles and its color coded translated English text if compared differently, and Greek New Testament and its color coded transliteration, interlining with the translated color coded words mostly in English)

(with the help of The New Greek English Interlinear New Testament, Jay Green's The Interlinear Bible, Franz Delitzsch Hebrew New Testament, Salkinson-Ginsburg Hebrew New Testament, HalleluYah English-Hebrew Parallel Edition,Interlinear Scripture Analyzer, Tyndale Bible [Coverdale, Rogers], Geneva Bible, NASB, NRSV, NKJV, Lamsa, New Jerusalem Bible, Peshitta Aramic-English Interlinear NT)

edited and translated by Lanny Mebust (Benyamin benQehath)

Sepher Yahuchanan (John)

Chapter 1

Shavua Reading Schedule (19th sidrot) - John 1 - 3

John1:1

א בְּרֵאשִׁית הָיָה הַדָּבָר וְהַדָּבָר הָיָה אֵת הָאֱלֹהִים וֵאלֹהִים הָיָה הַדָּבָר׃

1. b're'shith hayah hadabar w'hadabar hayah 'eth ha'Elohim w'Elohim hayah hadabar.

John1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with the Elohim, and the Word was Elohim.

‹1:1› Ἐν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ λόγος, καὶ ὁ λόγος ἦν πρὸς τὸν θεόν, καὶ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος.

1 En archē ēn ho logos, kai ho logos ēn pros ton theon,

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with the Elohim, kai theos ēn ho logos.

and Elohim was the Word.

2

ב הוּא הָיָה בְּרֵאשִׁית אֵת הָאֱלֹהִים׃

2. hu' hayah b're'shith 'eth ha'Elohim.

John1:2 He was in the beginning with the Elohim.

‹2› οὗτος ἦν ἐν ἀρχῇ πρὸς τὸν θεόν.

2 houtos ēn en archē pros ton theon.

This One was in the beginning with the Elohim.

3

ג הַכֹּל נִהְיָה עַל־יָדוֹ וּמִבַּלְעָדָיו לֹא נִהְיָה כָּל־אֲשֶׁר נִהְיָה׃

3. hakol nih'yah `al-yado umibal'`adayu lo' nih'yah kal-'asher nih'yah.

John1:3 Everything made to be through His Hand, and without Him not even one made to be all that made to be.

‹3› πάντα δι' αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο, καὶ χωρὶς αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο οὐδὲ ἕν. ὃ γέγονεν

3 panta di' autou egeneto, kai chōris autou egeneto oude hen.

All things through Him came to be, and without Him came to be not one thing

ho gegonen

that which came into being.

4

ד בּוֹ הָיוּ חַיִּים וְהַחַיִּים הָיוּ אוֹר לִבְנֵי הָאָדָם׃

4. bo hayu chayim w'hachayim hayu 'or lib'ney ha'adam.

http://www.bayithamashiyach.com/Scriptures.html

149

2010
Accurate New Testament (Ed. 2)
Createspace Independent Pub., USA
Mark D. Harness

and the word was a god

150

2011

SPANISH

Las Sagradas Escrituras

Versión Reina Valera Restaurada

Isabela: Editorial Hebraica, Puerto Rico

revised: Yosef Aharoni (?)

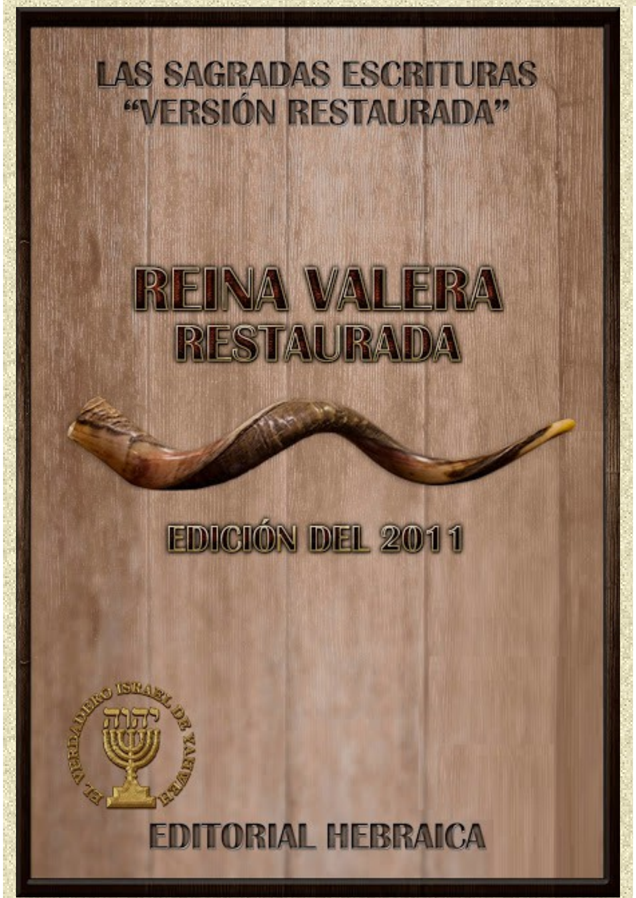
and the Word was a mighty one

y el Verbo era poderoso



731

20 Y cómo lo entregaron los príncipes de los sacerdotes y nuestros príncipes a condena de muerte, y lo crucificaron.

21 Mas nosotros esperábamos que él era el que había de redimir a Israel: y ahora sobre todo esto, hoy es el tercer día que esto ha acontecido.

22 Aunque también unas mujeres de los nuestros nos han asombrado, las cuales antes del día fueron al sepulcro:

23 Y no hallando su cuerpo, vinieron diciendo que también habían visto una visión de ángeles, los cuales dijeron que él vive.

24 Y fueron algunos de los nuestros al sepulcro, y hallaron así como las mujeres habían dicho; más a él no lo vieron.

25 Entonces él les dijo: ¡Oh insensatos, y tardos de corazón para creer todo lo que los profetas han dicho!

26 ¿No era necesario que el Mesías padeciera estas cosas, y que entrara en su gloria?

27 Y comenzando desde Moisés, y de todos los profetas, les declaraba en todas las Escrituras lo que de él decían.

28 Y llegaron a la aldea a donde iban: y él hizo como que iba más lejos.

29 Mas ellos lo detuvieron por fuerza, diciendo: Quédate con nosotros, porque se hace tarde, y el día ya ha declinado. Entró pues a estarse con ellos.

30 Y aconteció, que estando sentado con ellos a la mesa, tomando el pan, bendijo, y partió, y les dió.

31 Entonces fueron abiertos los ojos de ellos, y lo reconocieron; mas él se desapareció de los ojos de ellos.

32 Y decían el uno al otro: ¿No ardía nuestro corazón en nosotros, mientras nos hablaba en el camino, y cuando nos abría las Escrituras?

33 Y levantándose en la misma hora, se volvieron a Jerusalem, y hallaron a los once reunidos, y a los que estaban con ellos.

34 Que decían: Ha resucitado el Maestro verdaderamente, y le ha aparecido a Simón.

35 Entonces ellos contaban las cosas que les habían acontecido en el camino, y cómo había sido reconocido por ellos al partir el pan.

36 Y entre tanto que ellos hablaban estas cosas, él se puso en medio de ellos, y les dijo: Paz a ustedes.

37 Entonces ellos espantados y asombrados, pensaban que veían un espíritu.

38 Mas él les dice: ¿Por qué están turbados, y suben pensamientos a sus corazones?

39 Miren mis manos y mis pies, que yo mismo soy: palpen, y vean; que un espíritu no tiene carne ni huesos, como ven que yo tengo.

40 Y en diciendo esto, les mostró las manos y los pies.

41 Y no creyéndolo aún ellos de gozo, y maravillados, les dijo: ¿Tienen aquí algo de comer?

42 Entonces ellos le presentaron parte de un pecado asado, y un panal de miel.

43 Y él tomó, y comió delante de ellos.

44 Y él les dijo: Estas son las palabras que les hablé, estando aún con ustedes: que era necesario que se cumpliesen todas las cosas que están escritas de mí en la ley de Moisés, y en los profetas, y en los salmos.

45 Entonces les abrió el sentido, para que entendiesen las Escrituras;

46 Y les dijo: Así está escrito, y así fue necesario que el Mesías padeciese, y resucitase de los muertos al tercer día;

47 Y que se predicase en su nombre el arrepentimiento y la remisión de pecados en todas las naciones, comenzando de Jerusalem.

48 Y ustedes son testigos de estas cosas.

49 Y he aquí, yo enviaré la promesa de mi Padre sobre ustedes: mas ustedes permanezcan en la ciudad de Jerusalem, hasta que sean investidos de poder de lo alto.

50 Y los sacó fuera hasta Betania, y alzando sus manos, los bendijo.

51 Y aconteció que bendiciéndolos, se fue de ellos; y era llevado arriba al cielo.

52 Y ellos, después de haberlo reverenciado se volvieron a Jerusalem con gran gozo;

53 Y estaban siempre en el templo, alabando y bendiciendo al Poderoso. Amén.

JUAN

Capítulo 1

1 EN el principio era el Verbo, y el Verbo era con el Todopoderoso, y el Verbo era poderoso.

2 Este era en el principio con el Todopoderoso.

3 Todas las cosas por medio de él fueron hechas; y sin él nada de lo que es hecho, fue hecho.

4 En él estaba la vida, y la vida era la luz de los hombres.

5 Y la luz en las tinieblas resplandece; mas las tinieblas no la comprendieron.

6 Fue un hombre enviado del Poderoso, el cual se https://pl.scribd.com/document/357664823/Biblia-Reina-Valera-Restaurada-2011

151

2011

SPANISH

La Obra de Juan. I Parte: El Evangelio del testimonio

Editorial Círculo Rojo SL (Ed. 1)

Benito Antonio Acosta García-Quintana and was god the Logos

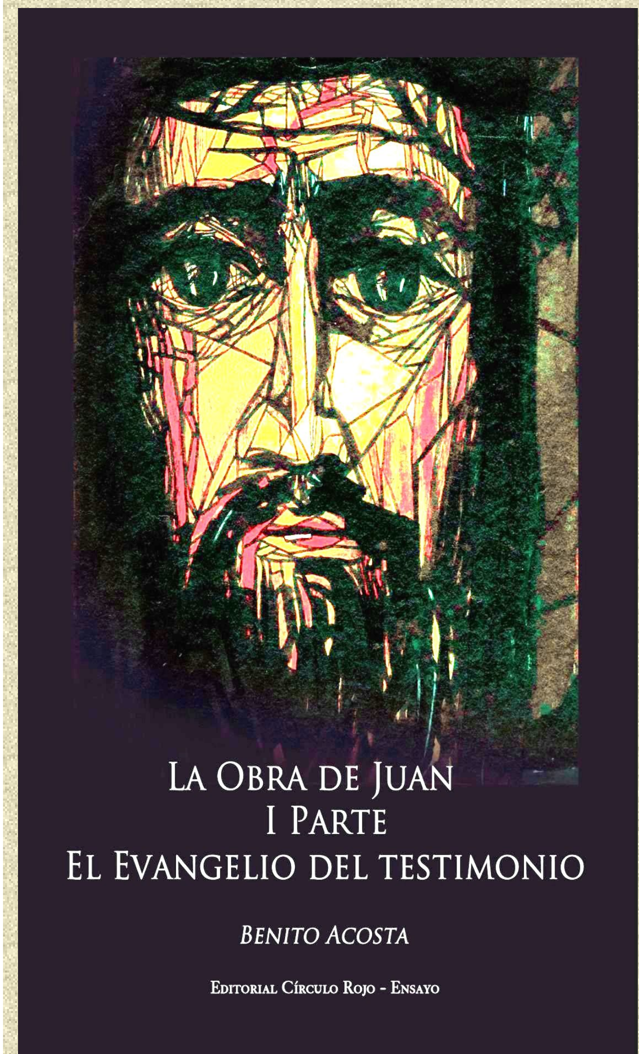
y era dios el Logos



LEAMOS NUEVAMENTE JUAN, 1, 1-18

Dado lo compleja que es la conceptuosidad de las estrofas que forman el Prólogo de Juan, debemos desistir de presentar una traducción literal, imposible en castellano. Por eso, una vez hechas las explicaciones pertinentes, leamos el poema en una traducción que atienda lo más posible al sentido. Se perderán la mayor parte de los matices y dobles sentidos, pero ya nuestra mente nos irá recordando aquí y allí de qué ingeniosas trazas se valió el autor para expresar tanto en tan pocos términos.

PRÓLOGO DE JUAN

En el principio era el Logos
y el Logos estaba frente a Dios
y era dios el Logos
que estaba en el principio frente a Dios.

Por él se había creado todo,
y sin él nada se creó.

En la creación había vida
y la Vida era la Luz
y la luz resplandece en las tinieblas
y las Tinieblas no pudieron detenerla.

(Un hombre, llamado Juan, fue el heraldo divino
que llegó como testigo:
a dar testimonio sobre la luz,
para que todos creyeran mediante él.
Él no era la luz,
sino el testigo de la luz)

152

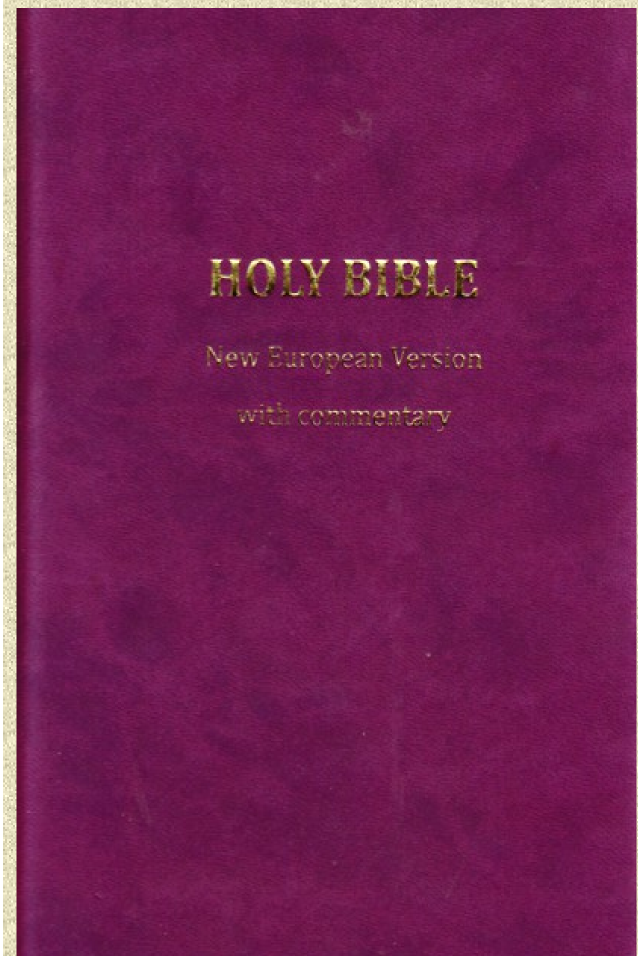
2011

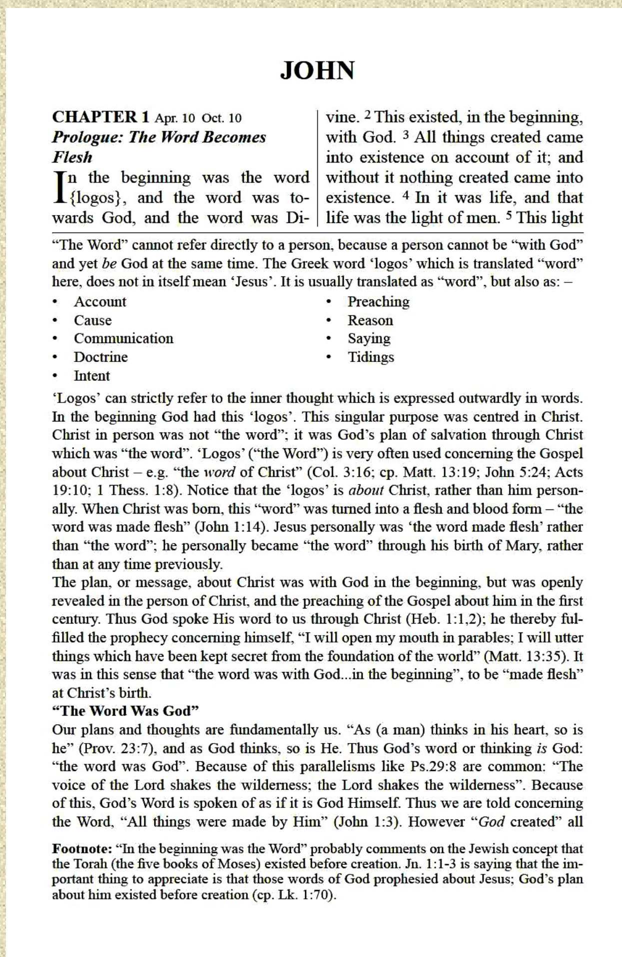
The Holy Bible: New European Version With commentary

Menai Central, NSW, Australia - South Croydon, Surrey, England - Sumner WA, USA: Carelinks Publishing

Duncan Heaster

and the word was Divine





JOHN

CHAPTER 1 Apr. 10 Oct. 10

Prologue: The Word Becomes Flesh

In the beginning was the word {logos}, and the word was towards God, and the word was Divine. [2] This existed, in the beginning, with God. [3] All things created came into existence on account of it; and without it nothing created came into existence. [4] In it was life, and that life was the light of men. [5] This light

"The Word" cannot refer directly to a person, because a person cannot be "with God" and yet be God at the same time. The Greek word 'logos' which is translated "word" here, does not in itself mean 'Jesus'. It is usually translated as "word", but also as: –

- Account
- Cause
- Communication
- Doctrine
- Intent
- Preaching
- Reason
- Saying
- Tidings

'Logos' can strictly refer to the inner thought which is expressed outwardly in words. In the beginning God had this 'logos'. This singular purpose was centred in Christ. Christ in person was not "the word"; it was God's plan of salvation through Christ which was "the word". 'Logos' ("the Word") is very often used concerning the Gospel about Christ – e.g. "the word of Christ" (Col. 3:16; cp. Matt. 13:19; John 5:24; Acts 19:10; 1 Thess. 1:8). Notice that the 'logos' is about Christ, rather than him personally. When Christ was born, this "word" was turned into a flesh and blood form – "the word was made flesh" (John 1:14). Jesus personally was 'the word made flesh' rather than "the word"; he personally became "the word" through his birth of Mary, rather than at any time previously.

The plan, or message, about Christ was with God in the beginning, but was openly revealed in the person of Christ, and the preaching of the Gospel about him in the first century. Thus God spoke His word to us through Christ (Heb. 1:1,2); he thereby fulfilled the prophecy concerning himself, "I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world" (Matt. 13:35). It was in this sense that "the word was with God...in the beginning", to be "made flesh" at Christ's birth.

"The Word Was God"

Our plans and thoughts are fundamentally us. "As (a man) thinks in his heart, so is he" (Prov. 23:7), and as God thinks, so is He. Thus God's word or thinking is God: "the word was God". Because of this parallelisms like Ps.29:8 are common: "The voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness; the Lord shakes the wilderness". Because of this, God's Word is spoken of as if it is God Himself. Thus we are told concerning the Word, "All things were made by Him" (John 1:3). However "God created" all Footnote: "In the beginning was the Word" probably comments on the Jewish concept that the Torah (the five books of Moses) existed before creation. Jn. 1:1-3 is saying that the important thing to appreciate is that those words of God prophesied about Jesus; God's plan about him existed before creation (cp. Lk. 1:70).

http://www.n-e-v.info/otnt/nt1.pdf

153

2011

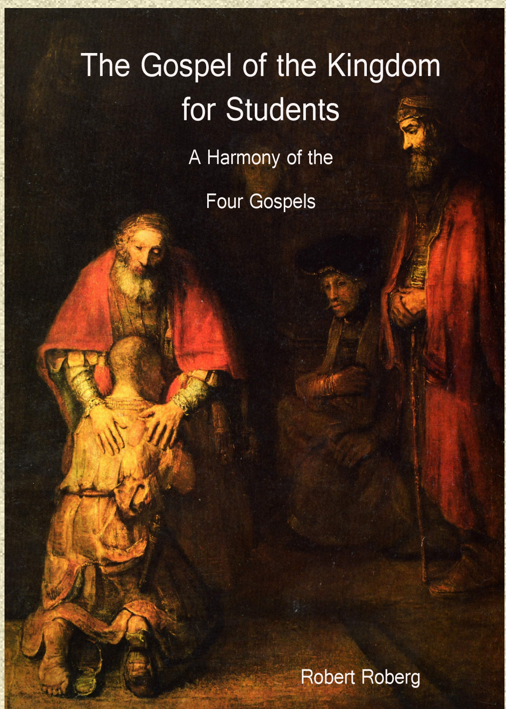
Gospel of the Kingdom for Students:
A Harmony of the Four Gospels (paraphrase)
Gainesville, FL: Peacemakers' Press, USA
Robert Roberg

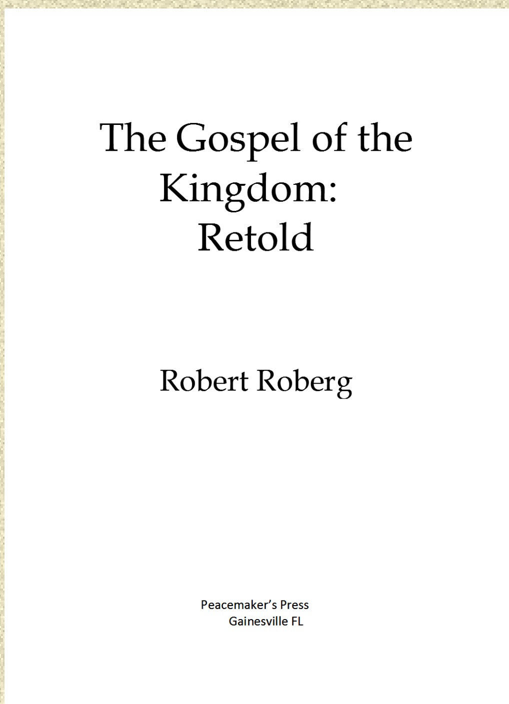
John 1:1 En arche en o logos, kai o logos en pros "ton" Theon kai Theos en o logos.

In a council was the logos and the logos was beside the supreme Elohim and an elohim was the logos.

Roberg has given also below translation:

John 1:1 (a dynamic equivalency)
At a council was Wisdom, the architect/ambassador/mediator/logos/Wisdom angel. It was with the supreme Elohim –El Shaddai and the Wisdom angel was El Shaddai's first created elohim – the Architect.
Joh 1.2 Wisdom the architect angel/logos was at the council beside El Shaddai.
Joh 1:3 El Shaddai made all things by Wisdom his architect angel/ and without it nothing came into existence.





https://www.robertroberg.com/

154a

2011

Die Heilige Schrift:

Das Neue Testament & Die Psalmen, Das Buch Daniel

The Sacred Scriptures

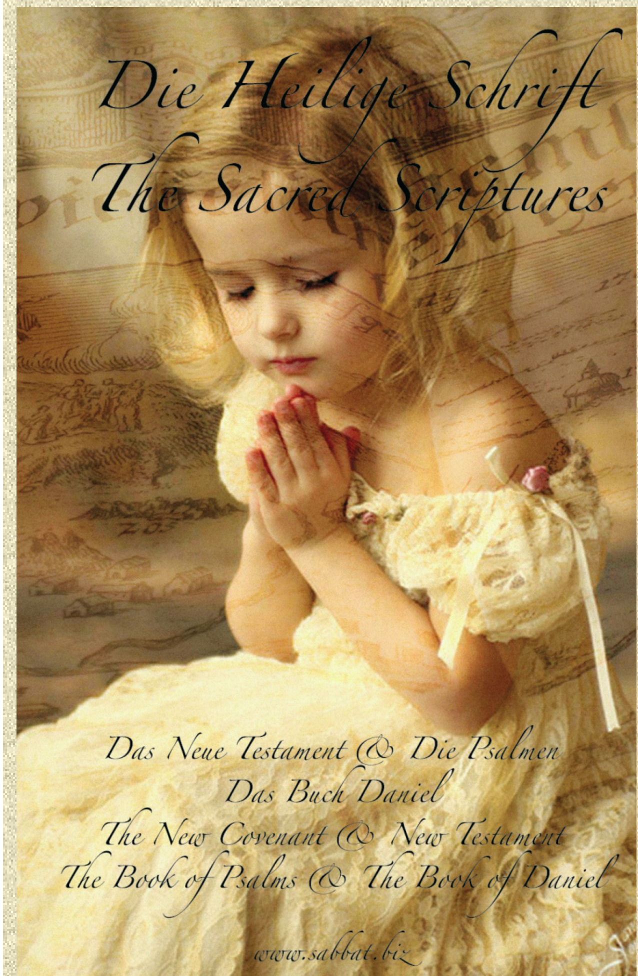
(Germ.-Eng.)

Traunreut: Ebozon Publishing

Johannes Biermanski

and the Word was Elohim [KJV+EL]

UND DAS WORT WAR GÖTTLICH



DAS EVANGELIUM NACH JOHANNES

THE EVANGEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

Kapitel 1

Das Wort ward Fleisch.

Joh 1,1 griechische Übersetzung / Ursprungstext = IM ANFANG WAR DAS WORT, UND DAS WORT WAR BEI MIT JAHWEH, UND DAS WORT WAR GÖTTLICH (auch: - C. C. Torrey).
Auch: "... DAS WORT WAR GÖTTLICHEN WESENS." - ÜBER-SETZUNGEN Wiese, Curt Stage: HERMANN MENGE = Im Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war hingewandt zu JAHWEH (Gott), und GÖTTLICHEN WESENS war das Wort. (!)
Anm. d. Übers.:  d. h., in der Gemeinschaft mit Gott; hingewandt zu Gott. Der Ausdruck "das Wort" (griech.: der Logos) bezeichnet hier (wie auch Joh. 1,14 und Offb. 19,13) den Gottessohn als Offenbarer und Willensvollstrecker Gottes.
FRIEDRICH PFÄFFLIN = IM ANFANG WAR DAS WORT. DAS WORT WARTETE AUF GOTTES WINK UND WAR VON GÖTTLICHER WUCHT.
New English Bible = "Zu Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war zu JAHWEH (Gott) hingewandt, und wie JAHWEH (Gott) war das Wort.
2. Vers: Dieses war zu Anfang zu JAHWEH (Gott) hingewandt."
KJV + EL = In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with YAHWEH, and the Word was Elohim (= is not right; Yahshua isn't Elohim, he is our Master / Rabbi – look Nicäa 325 = and the word was divine natur).
1. Mose 1,1; 1. Joh 1,1.2; Kap 17,5; Offb 19,13

Joh 1,2 VOR 1866 = DASSELBIGE WAR IM ANFANG MIT JAHWEH (ENG VEREINT MIT JAHWEH). KJV + EL = The same was in the beginning with YAHWEH.

Joh 1,3 ALLE DINGE SIND DURCH DASSELBE GEMACHT, UND OHNE DASSELBE IST NICHTS GEMACHT, WAS GEMACHT IST. KJV + EL = All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. 1. Kor 8,6; Kol 1,16.17; Hebr 1,2

Joh 1,4 IN IHM WAR DAS LEBEN, UND DAS LEBEN WAR DAS LICHT DER MENSCHEN. KJV + EL = In him was life; and the life was the light of men. Kap 8,12

Joh 1,5 UND DAS LICHT SCHEINT IN DER FINSTERNIS, UND DIE FINSTERNIS HAT'S NICHT BEGRIFFEN. (aus dem Griechischen: ... ERGRIFFEN.) KJV + EL = And the light shines in darkness; and the darkness comprehended (overvame) it not. Kap 3,19

Joh 1,6 Es ward ein Mensch von JAHWEH gesandt, der hieß Johannes. aus dem Griechischen: Es trat ein Mensch auf von JAHWEH gesandt, sein Name war Johannes. KJV + EL = There was a man sent from YAHWEH, whose name was John. Matth 3,1; Mark 1,4

Joh 1,7 Dieser kam zum Zeugnis, daß er von dem Licht zeugte, auf daß sie alle durch ihn glaubten. KJV + EL = The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. Apg 19,4

Joh 1,8 Er war nicht das Licht, sondern daß er zeugte von dem Licht.

154b

Ed. 2015

The Sacred Scriptures (in 3Vols.)
Traunreut: Ebozon Publishing
Johannes Biermanski

and the Word was DIVINE NATUR KJV+EL+MENGE
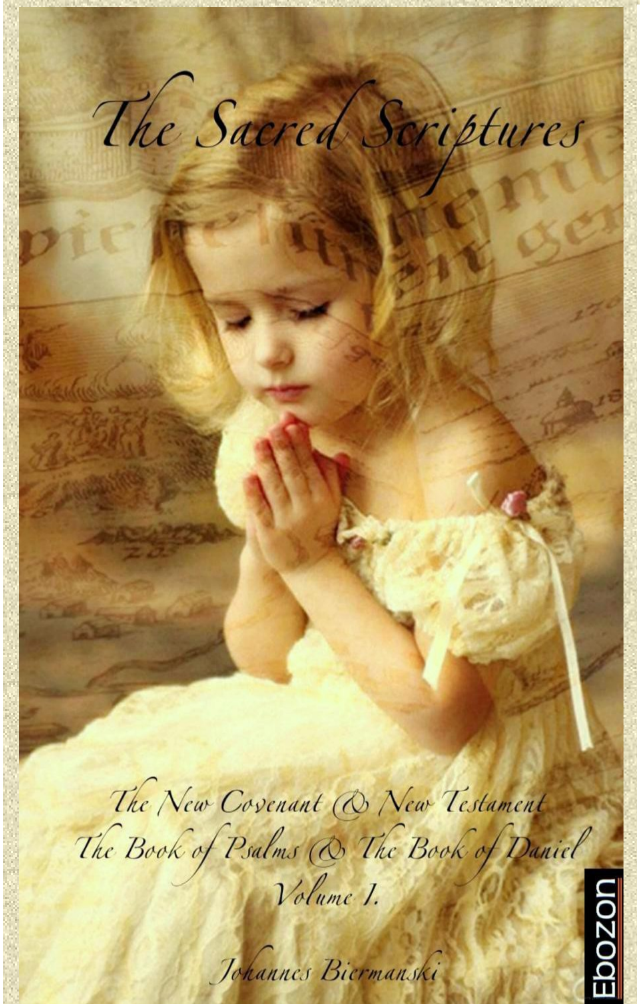
und das Wort war göttlich



THE EVANGEL ACCORDING TO JOHN - DAS EVANGELIUM NACH JOHANNES

Kapitel 1

Joh 1,1 griechische Übersetzung/ Ursprungstext = Im Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war bei JAHWEH, und das Wort war göttlich (auch: - C. C. Torrey).

Auch: "... DAS WORT WAR GÖTTLICHEN WESENS." - ÜBERSETZUNGEN Wiese, Curt Stage.

HERMANN MENGE = Im Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war hingewandt zu JAHWEH (Gott), und GÖTTLICHEN WESENS war das Wort. (!)

Anm. d. Übers.:  d. h., in der Gemeinschaft mit Gott; hingewandt zu Gott. Der Ausdruck "das Wort" (griech.: der Logos) bezeichnet hier (wie auch Joh. 1,14 und Offb. 19,13) den Gottessohn als Offenbarer und Willensvoll-strecker Gottes.

FRIEDRICH PFÄFFLIN = Im Anfang war das Wort. Das Wort wartete auf Gottes Wink und war von göttlicher Wucht.

New English Bible = "Zu Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war zu JAHWEH (Gott) hingewandt, und wie JAHWEH (Gott) war das Wort.

2. Vers: Dieses war zu Anfang zu JAHWEH (Gott) hingewandt."

KJV + EL + MENGE = In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with YAHWEH, and the Word was DIVINE NATUR.

(= is not right; Yahshua isn't Elohim, he isn't God, he is our Master/ Rabbi – see also: Nicäa 325 A.D. = and the word was divine natur).

1. Mose 1,1; 1. Joh 1,1.2; Kap 17,5; Offb 19,13

Joh 1,2 Dasselbige war im Anfang mit JAHWEH/ Das war eng vereint mit JAHWEH.
KJV + EL = The same was in the beginning with YAHWEH.

Joh 1,3 Alle Dinge sind durch dasselbe gemacht, und ohne dasselbe ist nichts gemacht, was gemacht ist.
KJV + EL = All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made.
1. Kor 8,6; Kol 1,16.17; Hebr 1,2

Joh 1,4 In ihm war das Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen.
KJV + EL = In him was life; and the life was the light of men.
Kap 8,12

Joh 1,5 Und das Licht scheint in der Finsternis, und die Finsternis hat es nicht begriffen. (aus dem Griechischen: ... ergriffen.)
KJV + EL = And the light shines in darkness; and the darkness comprehended (overvame) it not.
Kap 3,19

Joh 1,6 Es wurde ein Mensch von JAHWEH gesandt, der hieß Johannes.
aus dem Griechischen: Es trat ein Mensch auf von JAHWEH gesandt, sein Name war Johannes.
KJV + EL = There was a man sent from YAHWEH, whose name was John.
Matth 3,1; Mark 1,4

https://books.google.pl/books?id=fXE6CgAAQBAJ

155

2011

Bibel in gerechter Sprache

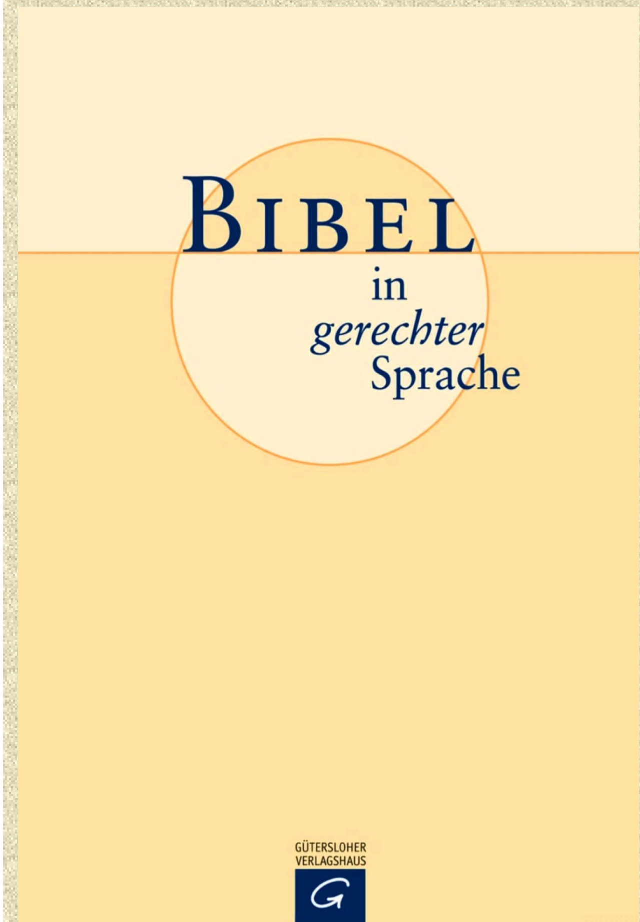
Gütersloh: Gütersloher Verlagshaus

translators team (52 persons)

Judith Harkenstein – Silke Petersen

and the Wisdom was like God

und die Weisheit war wie Gott



י–י die Ewige Gott der Lebendige Schechina der Eine Er Sie Adonaj κ–ς

Johannesevangelium

Das nach Johannes(679) benannte Evangelium ist ein jüdischer Text in griechischer Sprache, der wohl am Ende des 1. Jh.s n.Chr. entstanden ist. Wir kennen weder die genaue Zeit noch den Ort oder die Umstände seiner Abfassung. Für seine eigene Art, die Geschichte Jesu zu erzählen, beruft sich das Johannesevangelium auf den ›Jünger, den Jesus liebte‹ (vgl. Joh 21,24). Im Text selbst ist sein Name nicht genannt, erst durch die später hinzugefügte Überschrift wird er als Johannes identifiziert.

Das Johannesevangelium stellt Frauen und Männer weitgehend gleichberechtigt dar: Einzelne Frauen wie Männer diskutieren mit Jesus, bekennen sich zu ihm und verkündigen seine Botschaft. Die Beziehung von Gott und Jesus wird jedoch vor allem durch die männlichen Bilder vom ›Vater‹ und vom ›Sohn‹ ausgedrückt. Doch der johanneische Jesus trägt auch viele Züge der weiblichen göttlichen Gestalt der Weisheit (Spr 8; Sir 24). Am Anfang des Johannesevangeliums (Joh 1,1-18) wird ein Lied auf die Weisheit auf ihn übertragen. Die Rede von Gott umfasst abstrakte Bezeichnungen (vgl. Joh 7,26; 8,28) und Umschreibungen des Handelns (vgl. Joh 16,5). Die Übersetzung nimmt diese Dynamik auf, indem sie diese und neue Sprachbilder wie Ursprung oder Quelle verwendet. Die Vater-Sohn-Beziehung wird oft mit Erwählung/erwählen umschrieben. Die Sprachbilder rücken Dimensionen des Vaterbildes in den Vordergrund, die sonst von modernen familiären Assoziationen verdeckt werden.

Brisant ist der Text des Johannesevangeliums im Hinblick auf das gegenwärtige Verhältnis von Christentum und Judentum. In der Auslegungsgeschichte sind polemische Spitzensätze wie der von der ›Teufelskindschaft‹ ›der Juden‹ (bezogen auf Joh 8,44) immer wieder in antijudaistischem oder antisemitischem Sinne aufgegriffen worden; weniger Aufmerksamkeit erfuhren gegenteilige Aussagen wie etwa Joh 4,22: »Die Erlösung kommt durch das Judentum«. Die Übersetzung basiert auf der Überzeugung, dass die judentumskritische Polemik Ausdruck von Nähe ist: Die Auseinandersetzungen im Evangelium sind innerjüdische Debatten. Erst wenn es heute in einem christlichen Kontext gelesen wird, wird Jesu jüdische Position als christlich angeeignet und die ›andere‹, jüdische Position abgespalten.

An manchen Punkten verführt der Text zu einer einseitigen Sicht mit Ausschließlichkeitsanspruch, oft scheint es nur die Alternative Licht oder Finsternis, Glaube oder Unglaube zu geben. Beim näheren Betrachten aber verwischen sich die schroffen Gegensätze und die Sprachbilder entziehen sich einer eindimensionalen Deutung. Der Text ist nicht statisch, sondern es ist immer wieder eine neue Auslegung möglich und auch nötig. Diese Unabgeschlossenheit wird im Johannesevangelium selbst so ausgedrückt: »Wenn aber jene kommt, die Geistkraft der Wahrheit, dann wird sie euch in alle Wahrheit führen« (Joh 16,13).

Judith Hartenstein und Silke Petersen

Gen 1,1 / Spr 8,22-31; Sir 24,9

1 [1] Am Anfang war die °Weisheit logos und die Weisheit war bei °Gott theos
und die Weisheit war wie Gott.

1982

https://b-ok2.org/book/1187074/34936a

2012

Your Name's Bible:

The Holy Bible Translated by a Hollywood Screenwriter

html (revision of KJV)

Troy Nilsson

version of June 24, 2018:

[YAH's] Word is Elohim [mighty, in charge of everything]

version of 1-01-2023:

The Cinematic Bible 1.0 (pdf)

https://geniemusic.com/?b

2012
The Scriptures NET (Heb.-Eng.)
html, yet not finished
Mikhael Yereq

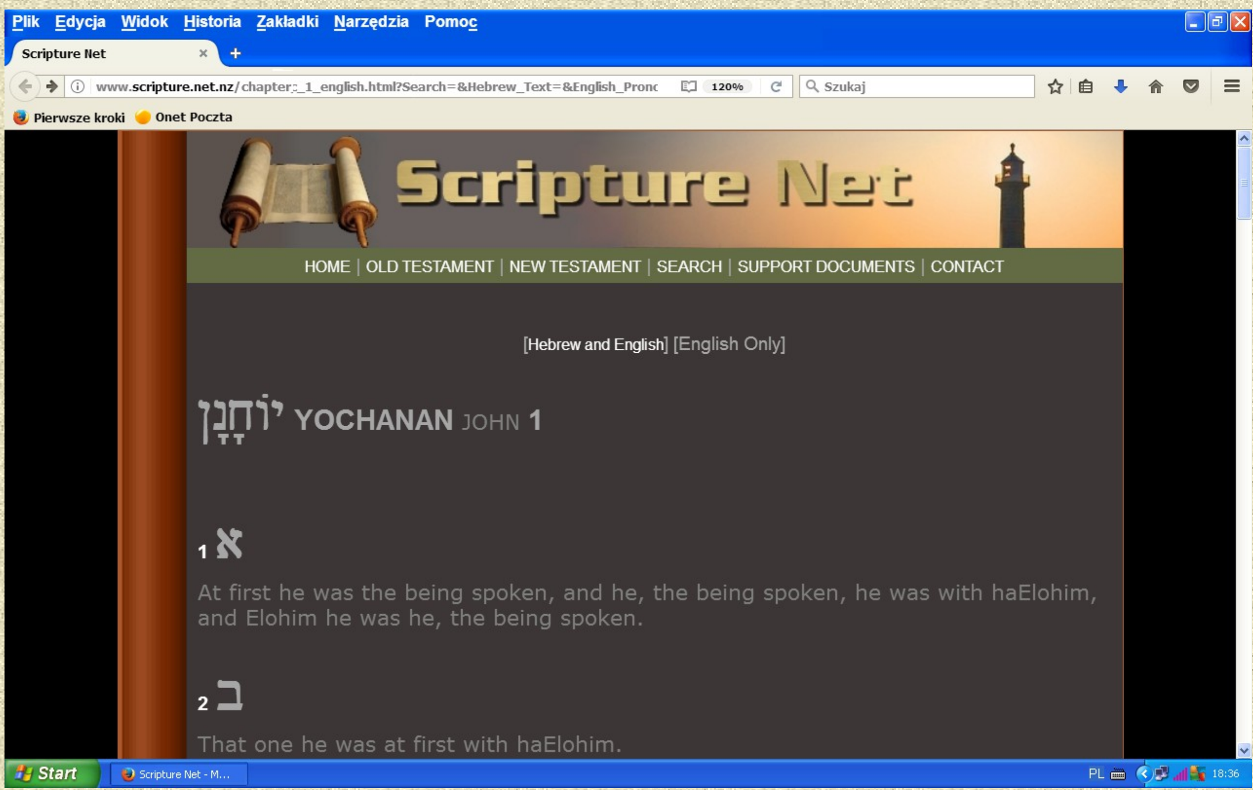
At first he was the being spoken, and he, the being spoken, he was with haElohim,
and Elohim he was he, the being spoken.



http://www.scripture.net.nz/contents_brit.html

2012

The Scriptures for the Whole House of Israel

html (yet not finished)

Columbia, South Carolina, USA

Stephen Zimmerman?

and the Expression was elohim

EXCERPTS FROM
THE LIFE OF THE MESSIAH
AS RECOUNTED BY Yochanan
the Envoy

Introduction:

Yochanan is indeed the most mystical of the four "Gospels", focusing on the spiritual significance behind Y'shua's words and deeds. It also highlights his fulfillment of some particulars of the prescribed festivals. Notice its parallels also to Genesis 1, including enumeration of what occurred each day in sequence. The book is also structured around a series of "I am" statements and signs that accompanied them, demonstrating that he was the rightful heir to the title "Son of Elohim" that had belonged to all the kings in the line of David.

Chapter 1 Chapter 2 Chapter 3 Chapter 4 Chapter 7
Chapter 11 Chapter 13 Chapter 14 Chapter 15 Chapter 18

CHAPTER 1

1. Originally, there existed the Expression, and the Expression was with Elohim, and the Expression was elohim.

Originally: or, in the beginning, a direct allusion to the creation account in Gen. 1:1. Expression: Gk., logos*: a precise thought or idea ready to be expressed; a speaker's self-revelation and what lies behind his words. The Aramaic targums interpose this concept of His Memra ("living Word"), this aspect of YHWH's nature that "was given a life of its own" and was the mediator whenever YHWH needed to appear to men, so that they would not be destroyed by exposure to YHWH's full force. (See verse 18 below.) It was, in a sense, within YHWH, yet distinguishable from Him at times. Elohim: the first occurrence here has the definite article, denoting a proper title of YHWH; the second does not, denoting "of Elohim's nature".*

2. This [same] one was with Elohim at the origin.

http://www.1bread.org/ScriptureCommentary/Scripture-Index.html

159a

2012

NORWEGIAN

Pakten — Guds Ord.

Den nye pakten: Matteus — Åpenbaringen (Ed. 1)

Jordly

Arne Jordly

og Ordet ble gud

187

04 Johannes

Johannes, hebr. Jahannon betyr Jehovah har vært nådig. Den er Paktens 43. bok, og den ble skrevet i år 98 i Efesos etter at han var løslatt fra fangenskapet på øya Patmos.

Johannes skiller seg fra de tre forrige budskapene, for bare rundt 10 prosent av det som blir gjengitt i de tre foregående bøkene, blir omtalt i Johannes. Det blir også omtalt som 'det åndelige budskapet,' klart påvirket av den åpenbaringen fra himlene som han hadde opplevd på øya Patmos to år tidligere.

Johannes var 'den disippelen som Jesus elsket.' (JOH 21:20) Han var sannsynligvis den yngste av disiplene, men likevel en av de tre som stod Jesus nærmest. Han ble også den lengstlevende blant dem.

Det var også Johannes som gjorde Pakten fullstendig gjennom det synet han fikk på Patmos da han så inn i de åndelige himler.

Hovedbudskapet etter Johannes er Jesus Kristus som Guds enbårne Sønn. Han legger stor vekt på å få frem at Jesus er utgått fra Gud, Den allmektige, i himlene:

'I begynnelsen var Ordet, og Ordet var fra Gud, —' (JOH 01:01) og 'Fra før Abraham var, har jeg vært.' (JOH 08:58) og 'For så høyt har Gud elsket verden at han gav sin Sønn, Den eneste, —' (JOH 03:16)

Sammenlignet med Peter og Paulus hører vi lite til Johannes etter at Jesus steg opp til himlene. Det er likevel ingen tvil om at han har skrevet to av Paktens viktigste bøker; budskapet etter Johannes og Åpenbaringen, i tillegg til Johannes' tre korte brev.

Johannes døde i Efesos i år 100 v.t.

I budskapet etter Johannes omtaler Johannes ikke seg selv ved navn, men han viser til 'den disippelen Jesus elsket.'

JOH 13:23 .... Ved Jesu side under måltidet
JOH 19:25-27 .... Da Jesus døde
JOH 20:1-10 .... Ved Jesu grav med Peter
JOH 21:20-24 ... Da Peter ville vite hans skjebne

JOH 01

Om Ordet

JOH 01:01-05. Ordets begynnelse

01 I begynnelsen var Ordet, Ordet var fra Gud og Ordet ble gud.* *mektig 02 Han var fra begynnelsen hos Gud.

03 Alt ble til gjennom ham, for uten at det ble til gjennom ham, ble ingenting til.

04 I ham var livet. Og Livet ble et lys for menneskene.

05 Og lyset skinte for dem som var i mørke, men de som var i mørke, tok ikke imot det.

JOH 01:06-13. Det sanne lyset

06 Det var et menneske som var sendt av Gud. Hans navn var Johannes.

07 Han kom for å gi en vitneforklaring; for å vitne om Lyset for at alle skulle komme til tro ved ham.

08 Han var ikke selv dette Lyset, men han vitnet om Lyset.

09 Og det sanne Lyset skal opplyse alle mennesker som kommer inn i denne verden.

10 Han var ikke av verden, men verden var blitt til ved ham. Og de som var av verden, kjente ham ikke.

11 Han kom til sine egne,* men hans egne* tok ikke imot ham. *presteskapet

12 Men så mange som tok imot ham, gav han retten til å bli Guds barn gjennom troen på hans navn.

13 De skal ikke være født av blod, eller av kjøttets begjær, eller av menns begjær, men av Gud.

http://janchristensen.net/det_storste_mennesket.pdf

159b

2015

ENGLISH VERSION

The Pact — The Word of God.

The New Pact, Matthew — Revelation (Ed. 2)

Jordly

Arne Jordly

and the Word became god

04 John

John (Hebr. Jahannon = Jehovah has been gracious) is the Pact's 43. book. It was written in Ephesus in the year of 98 after John had been freed from his captivity on the island Patmos.

John separates clearly from the previous messages, because only about 10% of what is told in the three previous messages, is mentioned by John. It is therefore referred to as 'the spiritual message,' clearly influenced by the revelation from the heavens that he experienced on the island Patmos only two years earlier.

John was the disciple 'that Jesus loved.' (JOH 21:20) He was probably the youngest of the disciples, but still one of the three closest to Jesus. He became the longest living among them.

It was also John who made the Pact complete through the vision he had on Patmos when saw into the spiritual heavens.

The main message after John (katat Jahannon) is Jesus Christ as God's only Son. He emphasizes strongly the presentation of Jesus as sent from God, the Almighty, in the heavens:

'In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was from God —' (JOH 01:01)

And: 'Before Abraham am I.' (JOH 08:58)

And: 'For so did God love those of this world that he gave his only generated Son —' (JOH 03:16)

Compared to Peter and Paul we hear little of John after Jesus' ascension.

There is yet no doubt that he has written some of the Pact's most important books; the message after John, Revelation and John's three short letters. John died in Ephesus in the year 100.

In the message after John he does not refer to himself my name, but as 'the disciple that Jesus loved.'

JOH 13:23........ By Jesus' side during the supper
JOH 19:25-27 .... When Jesus died
JOH 20:01-10 .... By Jesus' tomb with Peter
JOH 21:20-24 .... When Peter asked his destiny

JOH 01

The beginning of the Word

JOH 01:01-05. The Word from God

01 In the beginning was the Word, the Word was from God and the Word became god.* *mighty

02 He was from the beginning with God.

03 Everything came into being through him, for without coming into being through him, nothing came into being.

04 In him was life. And Life became the light of man.

05 The Light shone for those in darkness, but those who were in darkness, did not accept it.

JOH 01:06-13. The true Light

06 There was a man sent by God. His name was John.

07 He came to give a testimony; to witness about the Light so that everyone would come to belief through him.

08 He himself was not this Light, but he came in order to give testimony about the Light.

09 The true Light shall enlighten all men who come into this world.

10 He was not of this world, but the world had come into being through him. And those of the world did not recognize him.

11 He came to his own,* but his own did not receive him. *the Levite priesthood

12 But as many as received him, he gave the right to become children of God through their belief in his name.

http://gudsogkristikirke.com/engelsk/00/index.html

160

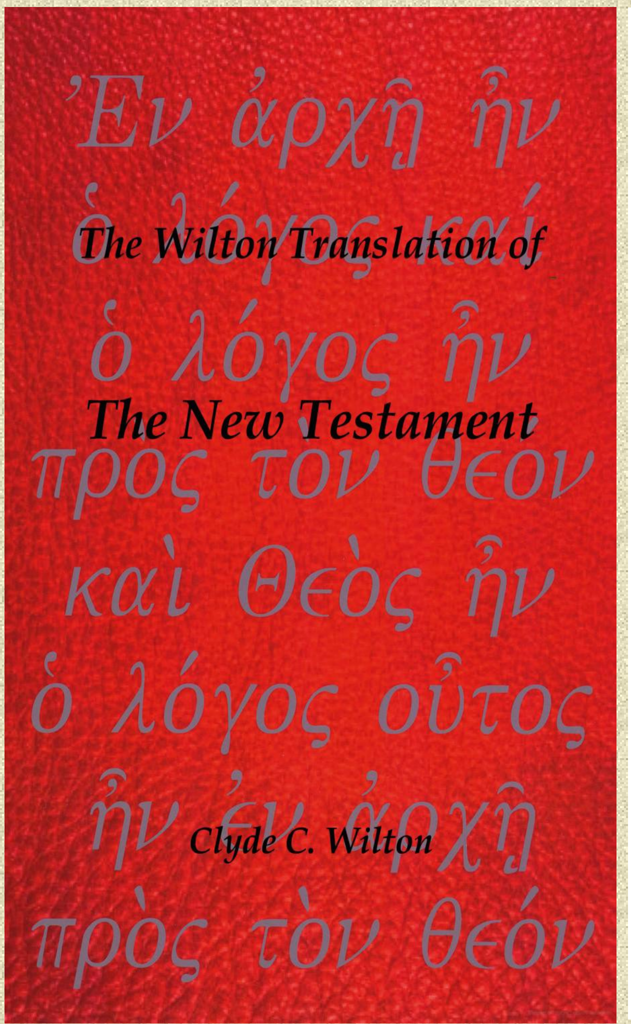
2012

The Wilton Translation of The New Testament

Bloomington, Indiana: Trafford Publishing, USA

Clyde C. Wilton

and the Word was divine



Introduction to John

John the apostle ("the disciple whom Jesus loved"—John 13:13) wrote the gospel of John; however, his name is not mentioned. John was a Jew, so he knew the hostility between the Jews and the Samaritans. He was acquainted with the Jewish customs and their concern about the law and the traditions of the elders, especially about the laws of the Sabbath.

The gospel was probably written toward the end of the first century (c. 85 A.D.). This was the view of the early church fathers. John tells us that his purpose in writing the gospel is that those who read will believe and be saved (John 20:31). John is more concerned about the spiritual and less about the formal and ritual. John tells us about the new birth (John 3:3) but has nothing to say about baptism; he tells us about foot washing (John 13:5) but nothing about the Lord's Supper.

John was a fisherman before be became a disciple of Jesus. So we do not expect him to have the vocabulary of a doctor, like Luke, or a lawyer, like Paul, or a government employee, like Matthew. But no one was more profound with the truth about eternal things than John.

The words of John were smaller than the words of Luke or of Matthew. John had about 8 words on each line; Matthew had about 7 and 1/2 words; and Luke had about 7. In the Gospel of John there were 15,631 words with 1,021 different words (a new word every 15.3 words); in the Gospel of Matthew there were 18,348 words used with 1,683 different words (a new word every 10.9 words); in the Gospel of Luke there were 19,459 words with 2,044 different words (a new word every 9.5 words).

John 1:1-51

(1) The Word was in the beginning, and the Word was with God, and the Word was divine. (2) This one was originally with God. (3) Through him all things came to be, and apart from him not one thing came to be which was made. (4) In him was life, and the life was the light of mankind. (5) And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not master it.

(6) There was a man named John sent from God. (7) This man came to be a witness, that he might witness concerning the light that all men might believe through him. (8) He was not that light, but that he might witness concerning the light. (9) The true light, which enlightens every man, was coming into the world. (10) He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, yet the world did not know him. (11) He came to his own, but his own did not accept him. (12) But as many as received him, He gave them the power to become children of God—to the ones believing in his name, (13) who were born not of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man but of God.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=AIhRqEcuDT0C

161

2012

ספר הבשורה הקדושה על פי יוחנן

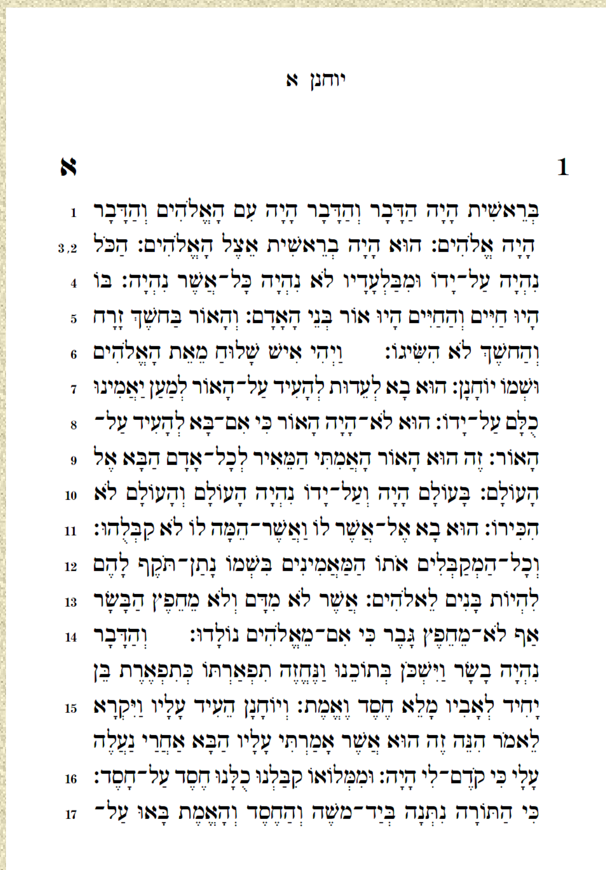
The Gospel according to John, revision of Delitzsch’s version

London: Trinitarian Bible Society

G. Lodder – D. Paul Rowland – Adrianus C. Rijken

and the Word was a god

והדבר היה אלהים



יוחנן א

א 1

1 בְּרֵאשִׁית הָיָה הַדָּבָר וְהַדָּבָר הָיָה עִם הָאֱלֹהִים וְהַדָּבָר
3,2 הָיָה אֱלֹהִים׃ הוּא הָיָה בְּרֵאשִׁית אֵצֶל הָאֱלֹהִים׃ הַכֹּל
4 נִהְיָה עַל־יָדוֹ וּמִבַּלְעָדָיו לֹא נִהְיָה כָּל־אֲשֶׁר נִהְיָה׃ בּוֹ
5 הָיוּ חַיִּים וְהַחַיִּים הָיוּ אוֹר בְּנֵי הָאָדָם׃ וְהָאוֹר בַּחֹשֶׁךְ זָרַח
6 וְהַחֹשֶׁךְ לֹא הִשִּׂיגוֹ׃ וַיְהִי אִישׁ שָׁלוּחַ מֵאֵת הָאֱלֹהִים
7 וּשְׁמוֹ יוֹחָנָן׃ הוּא בָא לְעֵדוּת לְהָעִיד עַל־הָאוֹר לְמַעַן יַאֲמִינוּ
8 כֻלָּם עַל־יָדוֹ׃ הוּא לֹא־הָיָה הָאוֹר כִּי אִם־בָּא לְהָעִיד עַל־
9 הָאוֹר׃ זֶה הוּא הָאוֹר הָאֲמִתִּי הַמֵּאִיר לְכָל־אָדָם הַבָּא אֶל
10 הָעוֹלָם׃ בָּעוֹלָם הָיָה וְעַל־יָדוֹ נִהְיָה הָעוֹלָם וְהָעוֹלָם לֹא
11 הִכִּירוֹ׃ הוּא בָא אֶל־אֲשֶׁר לוֹ וַאֲשֶׁר־הֵמָּה לוֹ לֹא קִבְּלֻהוּ׃
12 וְכָל־הַמְקַבְּלִים אֹתוֹ הַמַּאֲמִינִים בִּשְׁמוֹ נָתַן־תֹּקֶף לָהֶם
13 לִהְיוֹת בָּנִים לֵאלֹהִים׃ אֲשֶׁר לֹא מִדָּם וְלֹא מֵחֵפֶץ הַבָּשָׂר
14 אַף לֹא־מֵחֵפֶץ גָּבֶר כִּי אִם־מֵאֱלֹהִים נוֹלָדוּ׃ וְהַדָּבָר
נִהְיָה בָשָׂר וַיִּשְׁכֹּן בְּתוֹכֵנוּ וַנֶּחֱזֶה תִפְאַרְתּוֹ כְּתִפְאֶרֶת בֵּן
15 יָחִיד לְאָבִיו מָלֵא חֶסֶד וֶאֱמֶת׃ וְיוֹחָנָן הֵעִיד עָלָיו וַיִּקְרָא
לֵאמֹר הִנֵּה זֶה הוּא אֲשֶׁר אָמַרְתִּי עָלָיו הַבָּא אַחֲרַי נַעֲלֶה
16 עָלַי כִּי קֹדֶם־לִי הָיָה׃ וּמִמְּלוֹאוֹ קִבַּלְנוּ כֻלָּנוּ חֶסֶד עַל־חָסֶד׃
17 כִּי הַתּוֹרָה נִתְּנָה בְּיַד־מֹשֶׁה וְהַחֶסֶד וְהָאֱמֶת בָּאוּ עַל־

https://www.tbsbibles.org/resource/collection/10B4B62B-75A3-4AA9-8252-E0C00A2DE046/ספר-הבשורה-הקדושה-על-פי-יוחנן.pdf

162

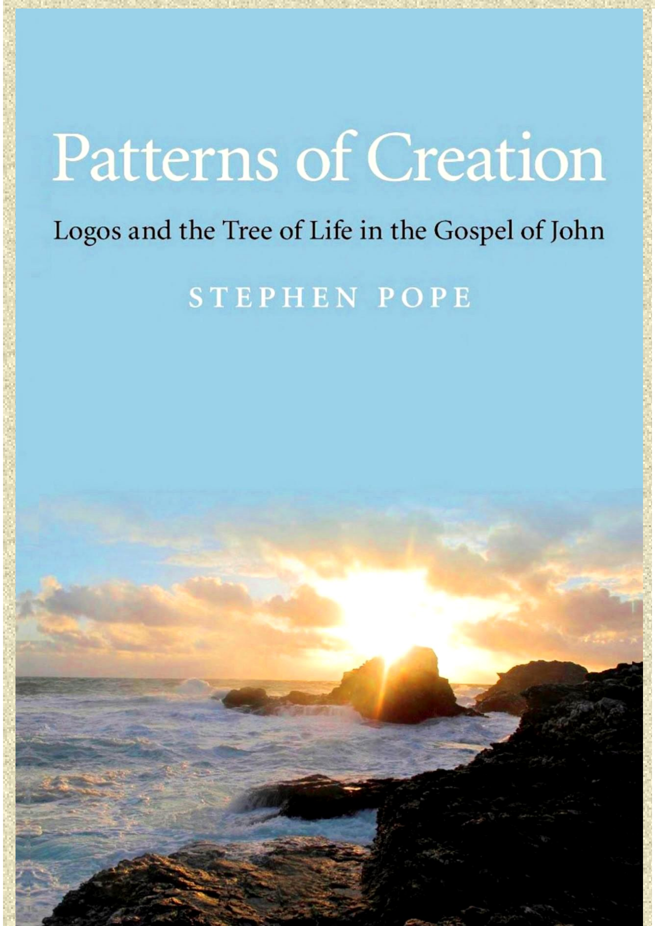
2012

Patterns of Creation: Logos and the Tree of Life in the Gospel of John

Alresford, Hants, UK: Axis Mundi Books

Stephen Pope

and the Logos was Divine



Appendix

Full translation from the Greek of Chapters One and Two Verses 1-5. The Relationship of God to Existence

1:1
In the beginning the Logos was, and the Logos was next to God, and the Logos was Divine.

1:2
This One had its Being in the beginning next to God.

1:3
All things came into created existence on account of the Logos, and without the Logos not even one created thing came into created existence.

1:4
In the Logos life had Being, and the life was the radiance of Humanity.

1:5
And the light was made visible in the spiritual darkness, and the spiritual darkness could not take possession of it.

Verses 6-8. Awakening the Soul

1:6
A human being named John came into created existence as an envoy of the Logos.

1:7
This John came as a witness, in order that there might be a witness about the light, so that all might believe through that light.

1:8
This John is not the light, but is a testimony concerning the light.

Verses 9-13. The Revelation of Divinity in Matter

1:9
The Divine light is the true radiance, which illuminates every human being coming into the Cosmos.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=6vTsBAAAQBAJ

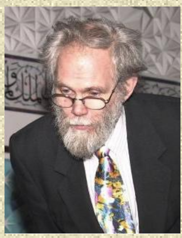
163

2012

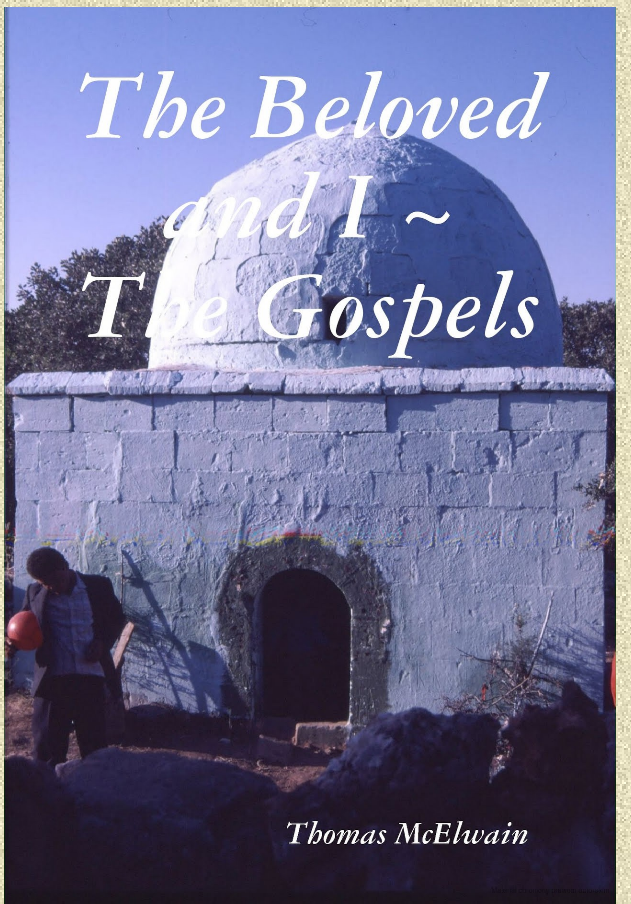
The Beloved and I. New Jubilees Version of Sacred Scripture in Verse With Verse Commentaries: The Gospels (Ed. 3)

Kuopio: Adams & McElwain Publishers, Finland

Thomas G. McElwain



The word was an exalted one



48 "And you are witness of these things.
49 "And see, I send my Father's word
In promise upon your hearts stirred,
But stay in Jerusalem's town,
Till from on high power come down."
50 He led them out to Bethany,
And lifted up his hands sweetly
And blessed them. 51 And it came to pass
While he blessed them, as bold as brass
He parted from them rising high
And carried up into the sky.

I do not find a place where it is said
In Tanakh that the Christ must die when bled.
The passages that make the fellow blink
Are in a different context, different ink.
And yet I trust the truth that Jesus spoke:
He placed himself beneath the Torah's yoke
And showed it to be universally
The better page of writing that I see.
Beloved, I'm just as bound by joy as he
To live according to the marvelled word
Of Tanakh instead of the mighty herd.
The ways of justice and of prophecy
Are one in glory and in poverty,
The goal of life and mercy I can see.

The Gospel according to John

They say this Gospel is a different kind,
Although its structure is also consigned
In the same mould as Mark's: I am not blind.
Though logos and legions of speeches rank
Beyond the simple stories in the tank
Of the synoptics, still the message true
Appears in all four stations where they grew.
The son of God appears here as anew,
As the life-giver by walking the plank
And reaching where humankind sat in rank.
If that is heresy not found before,
At least it is a hopeful light in store.
Beloved, I pray You honour his request
That his life be conferred upon the rest.

John 1

1 In the beginning was the word,
And the word was with the God heard,
The word was an exalted one.
2 It was in the beginning done
That it was with God, 3 and all things
Were made through it, no questionings
But without it, nothing was made
That was made, 4 and in it was life,
And life was men's light without strife.

All things have come by Your word only, so
I find life and light in the words that go
From sacred text and prophecy to make
Human hearts ready for Your blessèd sake.
Beloved, Your word is still exalted on
My fervent lips in prayer before the dawn,
At noon and in the dusky evening peace.
Your words give life and light and never cease.
Though my soul seems to stray in time and place,
Your word takes me back to Your life and face,
Back to beginning where You are in truth,
With Your exalted word in joy and ruth.
Beloved, may that word so exalted give
On tongue and ear as long as I'm to live.

5 And the light on the darkness stayed,
And darkness did not comprehend.
6 There was a man that God did send,
Whose name was John. 7 And this man came
For a witness, to bear the same
Witness of the light, that all through
It might believe. 8 Though it was true
He was not that light, but to bear
Witness of that light he was there.
9 That was the true light which gives light
To every man coming in sight
In the world. 10 It was in the world,
And the world was made and unfurled
Through it, the world did not know him.
11 He came to his own, who were dim,
His own did not receive him, 12 but Those who did receive him clear-cut,
To them he gave right to become Children of God, to those in sum
Who believe in his name, 13 those born,
Not of blood, nor of the flesh will,
Nor of man's will, but of God's still.
14 The word became flesh without scorn
And lived among us, and we saw
His glory, the glory with awe

240

2012: https://archive.org/stream/TheBelovedAndIVolume1to10ByThomasMcElwain/The Beloved and I Volume 7 Gospels Translated By Thomas McElwain

2014: https://books.google.pl/books?id=d-lHDwAAQBAJ

2013

SPANISH

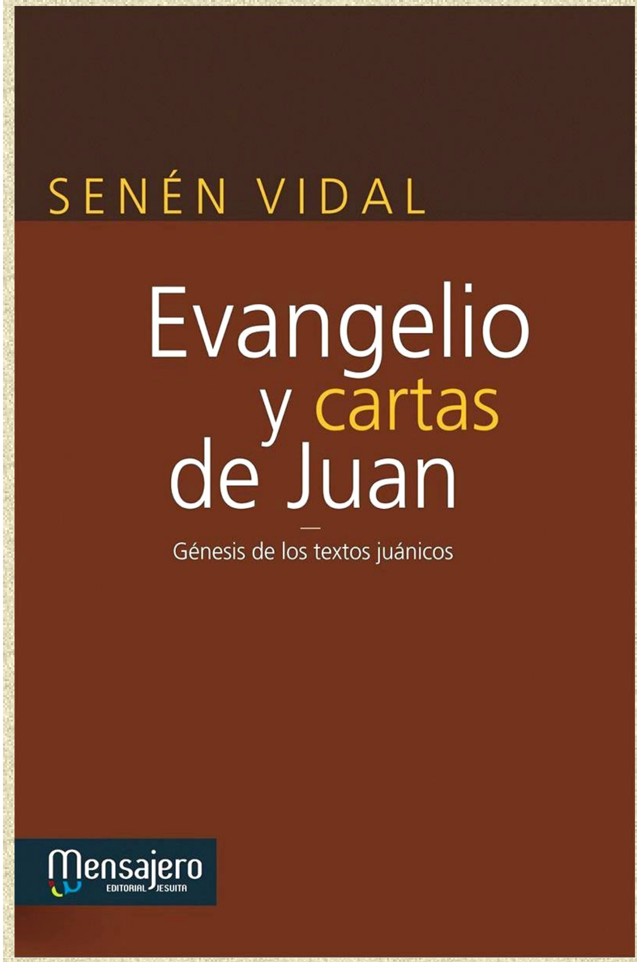
Evangelio y cartas de Juan: Génesis de los textos juánicos

Bilbao: Ediciones Mensajero, S.A.

Senén Vidal

the Word was divine

la Palabra era divina



1,1-18: prólogo: el revelador

1 1 En el principio ya existía la Palabra:
la Palabra estaba con Dios,
la Palabra era divina.
2 Ella estaba, ya en el principio, con Dios.
3 Todo surgió por medio de ella:
sin ella no surgió
nada de lo creado.

4 En ella estaba la vida,
y la vida era la luz de los hombres.
5 Esa luz apareció en medio de la tiniebla, pero la tiniebla no la acogió.

6 Surgió un hombre enviado por Dios, de nombre Juan: 7 vino para dar testimonio de esa luz, a fin de que todos creyeran por medio de él; 8 no era él la luz, sino sólo el testigo de la luz. 9 Esa era la verdadera luz, que ilumina a toda persona que viene a la existencia. 10 Estaba en el mundo, que surgió por medio de ella, pero el mundo no la reconoció.

11 Vino a su propiedad,
y los que le pertenecen no la acogieron.
12 Pero a cuantos la acogieron les concedió el poder
para convertirse en hijos de Dios.
Esos son los creyentes en ella:
13 que han sido engendrados, no por la potencia generativa
de la naturaleza
o de la apetencia sexual del hombre, sino por el mismo Dios.

14 Esa Palabra se convirtió en un ser humano, habitando en medio de nosotros.
Y así, hemos tenido experiencia de su esplendor
–el esplendor que tiene en cuanto unigénito del Padre–, el de aquel que está lleno del don auténtico de la salvación.
15 Juan lo testifica al gritar:
—Este es aquel de quien afirmé: «El que viene detrás de mí tiene preferencia sobre mí, porque existía antes que yo».

165

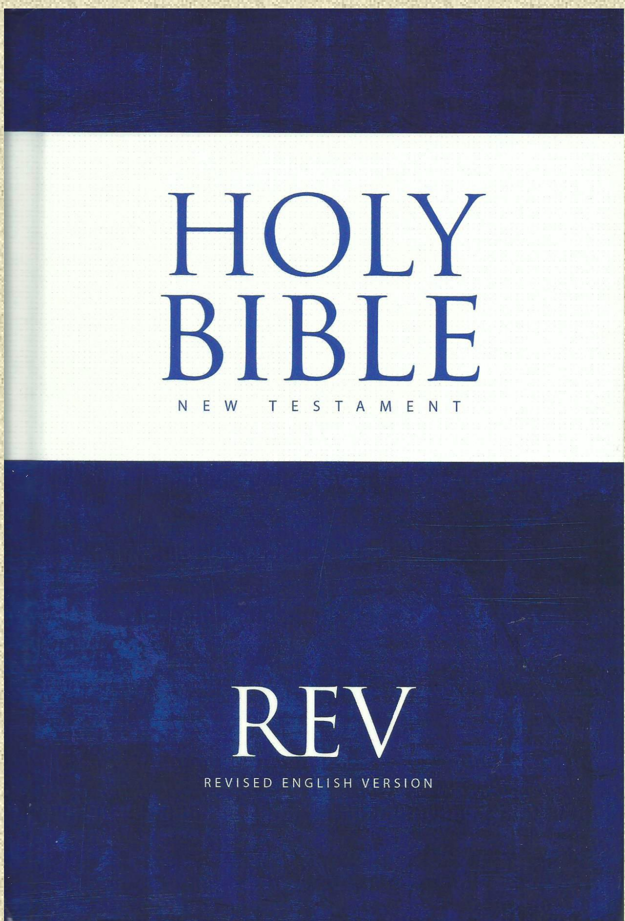
2013

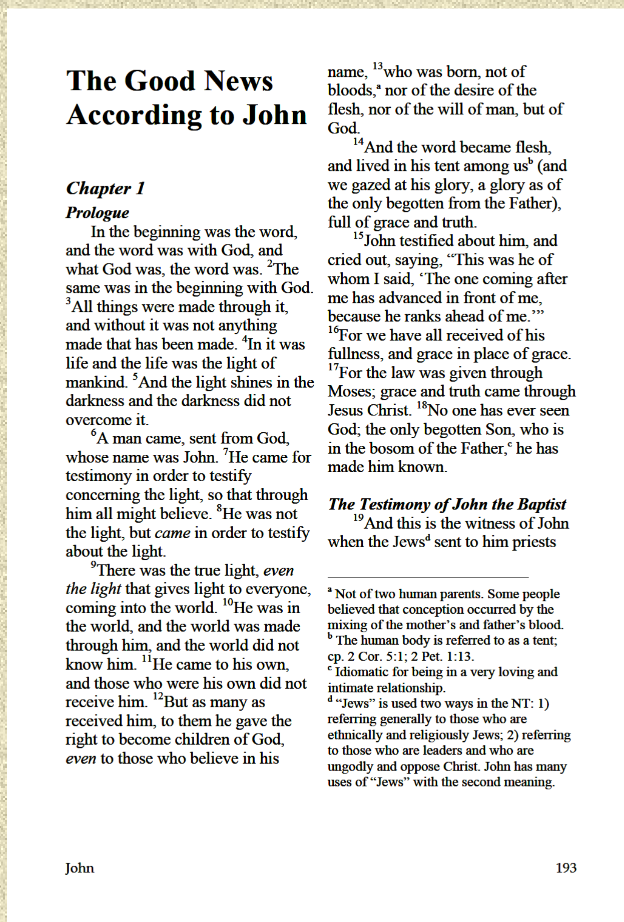
The Revised English Version New Testament

IN: Martinsville: Spirit & Truth Fellowship International, Inc., USA

John W. Schoenheit

and what God was, the word was





The Good News According to John

Chapter 1

Prologue

In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and what God was, the word was. [2]The same was in the beginning with God. [3]All things were made through it, and without it was not anything made that has been made. [4]In it was life and the life was the light of mankind. [5]And the light shines in the darkness and the darkness did not overcome it.

[6]A man came, sent from God, whose name was John. [7]He came for testimony in order to testify concerning the light, so that through him all might believe. [8]He was not the light, but came in order to testify about the light.

[9]There was the true light, even the light that gives light to everyone, coming into the world. [10]He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not know him. [11]He came to his own, and those who were his own did not receive him. [12]But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in his name, [13]who was born, not of bloods,[a] nor of the desire of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

[14]And the word became flesh, and lived in his tent among us[b] (and we gazed at his glory, a glory as of the only begotten from the Father), full of grace and truth.

[15]John testified about him, and cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'The one coming after me has advanced in front of me, because he ranks ahead of me.'" [16]For we have all received of his fullness, and grace in place of grace. [17]For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. [18]No one has ever seen God; the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father,[c] he has made him known.

The Testimony of John the Baptist

[19]And this is the witness of John when the Jews[d] sent to him priests

[a] Not of two human parents. Some people believed that conception occurred by the mixing of the mother's and father's blood.
[b] The human body is referred to as a tent; cp. 2 Cor. 5:1; 2 Pet. 1:13.
[c] Idiomatic for being in a very loving and intimate relationship.
[d] "Jews" is used two ways in the NT: 1) referring generally to those who are ethnically and religiously Jews; 2) referring to those who are leaders and who are ungodly and oppose Christ. John has many uses of "Jews" with the second meaning.

John 193

http://www.stfonline.org/pdf/rev/REV_whole.pdf

2013

EOB: The Eastern / Greek Orthodox New Testament: Based on the Patriarchal Text of 1904 with extensive variants

ed. Laurent Cleenewerck

archbp. Vsevolod Scopelos

and the Word was {what} God {was}

ACCORDING TO JOHN - KATA IΩANNHN

(ACCORDING TO) JOHN
(KATA IΩANNHN)

Prologue: The Logos/Word of God

1 In the beginning was the Word,[a] and the Word was with God, and the Word was {what} God[b] {was}. 2This one was in the beginning with God. 3All things came into being through him, and without him, nothing came into being that has come into being.[c] 4In him was life, life that was the light of mankind. 5The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome[d] it. 6There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John. 7John came as a witness, to bear witness to the light, so that all might believe through him. 8He was not the light, but ⌜he was sent⌝ to bear witness to the light. 9The true light who enlightens everyone was coming into the world.

10He was in the world, and the world had come into existence through him, and the world did not recognize[e] him. 11He came to his own ⌜people⌝, and those who were his own did not receive[f] him. 12But as many as received him, to them he gave the ability[g] to become God's children, to those who believe in his Name. 13They[h] were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

[a] The Greek word Logos (λόγος) is traditionally translated as "Word." French translations sometimes use "Verb" which has a dynamic quality. The English "Message" or "Expression of the Mind" may also be appropriate attempts to convey the nuance of the Greek concept. The Jewish-Alexandrian theologian and philosopher Philo wrote extensively about the Logos in ways that are reminiscent of NT theology. For instance, his teaching that "For the Logos of the living God being the bond of every thing, as has been said before, holds all things together, and binds all the parts, and prevents them from being loosened or separated" echoes Colossians 1:17.

[b] Ἐν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ λόγος, καὶ ὁ λόγος ἦν πρὸς τὸν θεόν, καὶ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος. This second theos could also be translated 'divine' as the construction indicates a qualitative sense for theos. The Word is not God in the sense that he is the same person as the theos mentioned in 1:1a; he is not God the Father (God absolutely as in common NT usage) or the Trinity. The point being made is that the Logos is of the same uncreated nature or essence as God the Father, with whom he eternally exists. This verse is echoed in the Nicene Creed: "God (qualitative or derivative) from God (personal, the Father), Light from Light, True God from True God… homoousion with the Father."

[c] Compare Wisdom 9:1

[d] The word translated "overcome" (katelaben) can also be translated "comprehended." It may refer to getting a grip on an enemy to defeat him.

[e] Or "know"

[f] The Greek also conveys the idea of "choosing/taking hold of/taking advantage of"

[g] Greek ἐξουσίαν—or "right/privilege"

[h] A few manuscripts and ancient writers read "he" instead of "they" in reference to the incarnate Logos.

https://azbyka.ru/otechnik/assets/uploads/books/18204/Eastern_Orthodox_Bible-New_Testament.pdf

167

2013

The Scriptures of Yahweh

html

John Sherman?

The Word was one of the gods.

version of 17-03-2021:

http://yahchanan.com/Love/Yahchanan.php

168

2013

ROMANIAN

Scripturile Creştine – Psalmii – Proverbele:
traducerea Calea Creştină (Ed. 1)

PDF

translator anonimous

and a God was the Word

şi un Dumnezeu era Cuvăntul

SCRIPTURILE CREŞTINE

—

PSALMII PROVERBELE

— TRADUCEREA —

CALEA CREŞTINĂ

Fapte 19:9: „Dar unii s-au împietrit şi nu au crezut, vorbind de rău CALEA înaintea mulţimii; depărtându-se de ei, el a despărţit discipolii de ei, discutând zilnic în şcoala lui Tiran".

Fapte 11:26: „Apoi au rămas cu ei un an întreg să se ducă împreună cu ei în adunare, şi să înveţe o mulţime multă. Şi întâia dată discipolii au fost numiţi: CREŞTINI în Antiohia".

Calea Creştină
2017 – Arad

caleacrestina.ro@gmail.com
www.CaleaCrestina.ro

EVANGHELIA DUPĂ IOAN

Capitolul 1 - Ioan

1. În început era Cuvântul, şi Cuvântul era la Dumnezeul; şi un Dumnezeu era Cuvântul.
2. Acesta, era în început la Dumnezeu.
3. Totul a fost făcut prin El, şi fără El nu a fost făcut nici unu care a fost făcut.
4. În El era viaţă, şi viaţa era lumina oamenilor.
5. Şi lumina luminează în întuneric, şi întunericul nu a cuprins-o.
6. A fost un om trimis de Dumnezeu, al cărui nume era Ioan.
7. Acesta a venit pentru mărturie; ca să mărturisească despre lumină, ca toţi să creadă prin el.
8. Nu era acela lumina, ci a venit ca să mărturisească despre lumină.
9. Lumina cea adevărată era cea care luminează pe orice om venind în lume.
10. El era în lume; şi lumea a fost făcută prin El, dar lumea nu L-a cunoscut.
11. El a venit la cele ale Sale; dar cei ai Săi, nu L-au primit.
12. Dar la câţi L-au primit, le-a dat dreptul să fie făcuţi copii ai lui Dumnezeu; adică celor crezând în Numele Lui;
13. care au fost născuţi nu din sânge, nici dintr-o voinţă a cărnii, nici dintr-o voinţă a unui bărbat, ci din Dumnezeu.
14. Şi Cuvântul S-a făcut carne, şi a locuit între noi; şi noi am privit gloria Lui, o glorie ca a unui unic-născut de la un Tată. El era plin de har şi de adevăr.
15. Ioan mărturiseşte despre El; şi a strigat, zicând: Acesta era Cel despre care am zis: Cel venind după mine, S-a făcut înainte de mine; pentru că mai întâi de mine, era El.
16. Pentru că din plinătatea Lui, noi toţi am primit; şi har peste har.
17. Pentru că legea a fost dată prin Moise; harul şi adevărul s-au făcut prin Iesus Christos.
18. Nici unu nu a văzut vreodată pe Dumnezeu; un Dumnezeu unic-născut, Cel fiind în sânul Tatălui, Acela L-a explicat.
19. Şi aceasta este mărturia lui Ioan; când au trimis la el iudeii din Ierusalim preoţi şi leviţi, ca să îl întrebe: tu cine eşti?
20. Şi el a mărturisit şi nu a tăgăduit, ci a mărturisit: eu nu sunt Christosul.
21. Şi ei l-au întrebat: Dar ce?! Tu eşti Ilie? Şi el a zis: nu sunt! Eşti tu profetul? Şi a răspuns: nu!
22. Deci i-au zis: cine eşti? Ca să dăm răspuns celor trimiţându-ne. Ce zici despre sine?
23. El a zis: eu sunt o voce, strigând în deşert: îndreptaţi calea lui Iehova! După cum a zis profetul Isaia.
24. Şi ei erau trimişi dintre farisei.
25. Şi ei l-au întrebat, şi i-au zis: Deci de ce botezi, dacă nu eşti Christosul, nici Ilie, nici profetul?
26. Ioan le-a răspuns, zicând: eu botez în apă, dar între voi stă Cel pe care voi nu Îl ştiţi;
27. El este Cel venind după mine care S-a făcut înainte de mine, căruia eu nu sunt vrednic să dezleg cureaua sandalei Lui.
28. Acestea s-au făcut în Betania, dincolo de Iordan; unde era Ioan, botezând.
29. În ziua următoare, Ioan vede pe Iesus venind către el, şi zice: iată! Mielul lui Dumnezeu, Cel ridicând păcatul lumii!
30. Acesta este Cel despre care am zis: după mine vine un bărbat, care S-a făcut înainte de mine, pentru că mai întâi de mine, a existat El.
31. Şi eu nu Îl ştiusem; dar, ca El să fie arătat lui Israel, pentru aceasta am venit eu botezând în apă.
32. Şi Ioan a mărturisit, zicând: am văzut Spiritul, coborând din cer, ca un porumbel; şi a rămas peste El.
33. Şi eu nu L-am ştiut; dar Cel trimiţându-mă să botez în apă, Acela mi-a zis: peste care ai să vezi Spiritul, coborând şi rămânând peste El; Acesta este Cel botezând în Spirit Sfânt.
34. Şi eu am văzut şi am mărturisit că Acesta este Fiul lui Dumnezeu.

http://www.caleacrestina.ro/download/SCC.pdf

169

2013

FRENCH

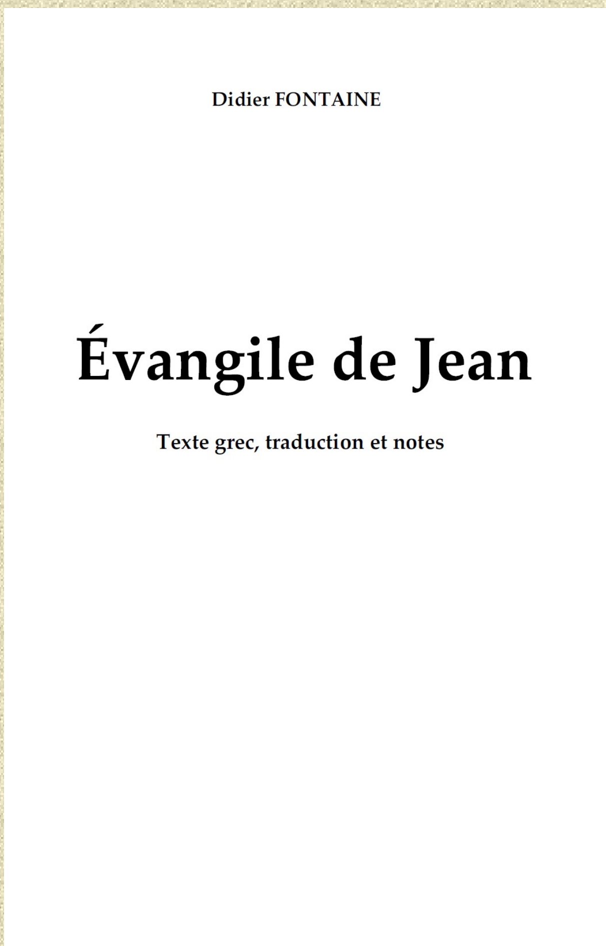
Évangile de Jean: Texte grec, traduction et notes

PDF

Didier Fontaine

and god was the Logos

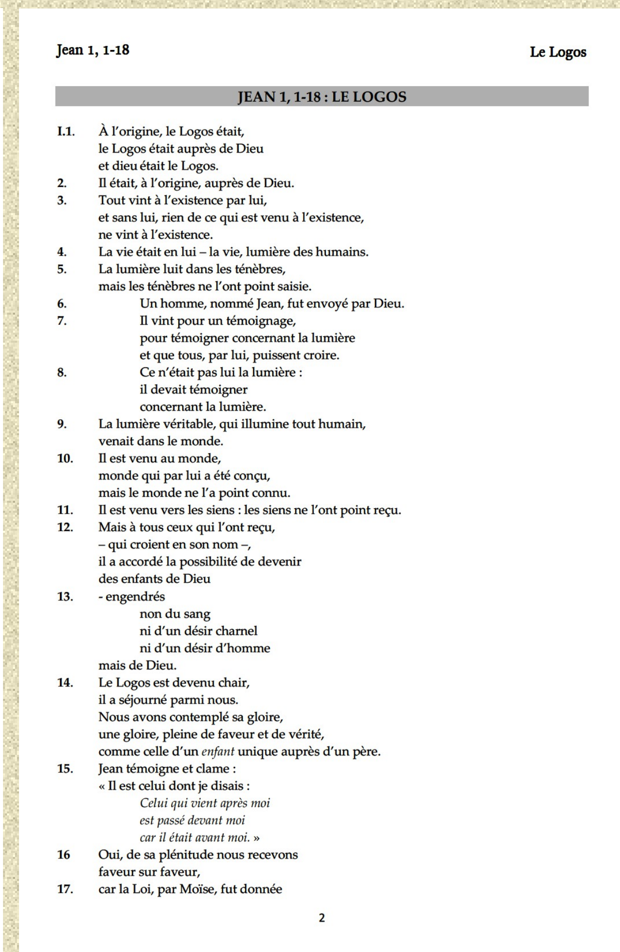
et dieu était le Logos



Didier FONTAINE

Évangile de Jean

Texte grec, traduction et notes



JEAN 1, 1-18 : LE LOGOS

1.1. À l'origine, le Logos était, le Logos était auprès de Dieu
et dieu était le Logos.
2. Il était, à l'origine, auprès de Dieu.
3. Tout vint à l'existence par lui, et sans lui, rien de ce qui est venu à l'existence,
ne vint à l'existence.
4. La vie était en lui – la vie, lumière des humains.
5. La lumière luit dans les ténèbres, mais les ténèbres ne l'ont point saisie.
6. Un homme, nommé Jean, fut envoyé par Dieu.
7. Il vint pour un témoignage, pour témoigner concernant la lumière et que tous, par lui, puissent croire.
8. Ce n'était pas lui la lumière :
il devait témoigner
concernant la lumière.
9. La lumière véritable, qui illumine tout humain,
venait dans le monde.
10. Il est venu au monde, monde qui par lui a été conçu,
mais le monde ne l'a point connu.
11. Il est venu vers les siens : les siens ne l'ont point reçu.
12. Mais à tous ceux qui l'ont reçu, – qui croient en son nom –,
il a accordé la possibilité de devenir des enfants de Dieu
13. - engendrés
non du sang
ni d'un désir charnel ni d'un désir d'homme
mais de Dieu.
14. Le Logos est devenu chair, il a séjourné parmi nous.
Nous avons contemplé sa gloire,
une gloire, pleine de faveur et de vérité,
comme celle d'un enfant unique auprès d'un père.
15. Jean témoigne et clame :
« Il est celui dont je disais :
Celui qui vient après moi
est passé devant moi car il était avant moi. » 16 Oui, de sa plénitude nous recevons
faveur sur faveur,
17. car la Loi, par Moïse, fut donnée

http://areopage.net/blog/wp-content/uploads/2013/08/FONTAINE_Evangile_De_Jean.pdf

170

2014

XHOSA

Izibhalo eziphuhlisa imvelaphi yobuhebhere (OT & NT)

Elim Ministries, Fish Hoek, South Afrika

John Wahl

and the Word was powerful

laye iLizwi linamandla

IZIBHALO

EZIPHUHLISA IMVELAPHI YOBUHEBHERE

zona, uhleli. [24:24] Basuka nabathile ababenathi, baya engcwabeni, bafika kunjengoko babetshilo abafazi; ke yena abambonanga. [24:25] Waza yena wathi kubo, Oyi! basweli-kuqonda, bantliziyo zizeka kade ukukholwa kuko konke abakuthethayo abaprofeti! [24:26] UMesiya ubengamelwe na kukuthi abuve obu bunzima, aze angene eluzukweni lwakhe? [24:27] Uqalele ke kuMoshe nakubo bonke abaprofeti, wabachazela kuzo zonke izibhalo iindawo ezingaye. [24:28] Basondela kuloo mzana babesiya kuwo; wanga yena uyegqitha. [24:29] Besuka bamzama, besithi, Hlala nathi; ngokuba kuza kuhlwa, nemini iseyisangene. Wangena ukuba ahlale nabo. [24:30] Kwathi, ekungqengqeni kwakhe ngasesithebeni ndawonye nabo, wasithabatha isonka, wasikelela, waqhekeza, wabanika. [24:31] Avulwa ke amehlo abo, bamazi; wathi shwaka yena kubo. [24:32] Batshono ukuthi, Intliziyo yethu ibingavuthi na ngaphakathi kwethu, xa ebethetha nathi endleleni, naxa ebesityhilela izibhalo? [24:33] Besuka kwangelo lixa, babuyela eYerusalem, babafumana abalishumi elinamnye, bequkene ndawonye nabo babenabo, [24:34] besithi, INkosi inene ivukile, yabonakala kuSimon. [24:35] Baye nabo bezichankcisa izinto zendlela, nokwazeka kwayo kubo ekuqhekezeni isonka. [24:36] Ke kaloku, bakubon’ ukuba bayazithetha ezo zinto, uYahshuwa ngokwakhe wema phakathi kwabo, wathi kubo, Uxolo malube nani. [24:37] Besuka ke bankwantya, bangenelwa kukoyika, beba babone umshologu. [24:38] Wathi kubo, Yini na ukuba nikhathazeke? Kungani na ke ukuba kunyuke izicamango ezintliziyweni zenu? [24:39] Khangelani izandla zam neenyawo zam, ngokuba ndim kanye; ndicofeni, nikhangele; ngokuba umshologu awunanyama namathambo, njengokuba nindibona ndinawo mna. [24:40] Utshilo, wababonisa izandla neenyawo zakhe. [24:41] Ke kaloku, bakubon’ ukuba abakakholwa, ngenxa yovuyo, bemangalisiwe, wathi kubo, Ninanto na idliwayo apha? [24:42] Bamnika ke intwana yentlanzi eyosiweyo, neyenqatha lobusi; [24:43] wathabatha, wadla emehlweni abo. [24:44] Uthe ke kubo, Ngawo la amazwi endawathethayo kuni ndisenani, okokuba zimelwe kukuzaliseka zonke izinto ezibhaliweyo ngam kwiThorah kaMoshe, nasebaprofetini, nasezindumisweni. [24:45] Wandula wayivula ingqiqo yabo, ukuze baziqonde izibhalo; [24:46] wathi kubo, Kubhaliwe ngokunjalo, umelwe ngokunjalo uMesiya kukuthi eve ubunzima, abuye avuke kwabafileyo ngomhla wesithathu; [24:47] nokuba kuvakaliswe egameni lakhe inguquko noxolelo lwezono kuzo zonke iintlanga, kuqalelwa eYerusalem. [24:48] Nina ke ningamangqina ezi zinto. [24:49] Yabonani, mna ndilithumela kuni idinga likaBawo; ke nina hlalani kuwo umzi oyiYerusalem, nide nambathiswe amandla aphuma enyangweni. [24:50] Ke kaloku wabarholela ngaphandle, kwada kwaya eBhetani; waziphakamisa izandla zakhe, wabasikelela. [24:51] Kwathi, ekubasikeleleni kwakhe, wahluka kubo, wenyuswa wasiwa emazulwini. [24:52] Baza bona, bakuba bequbudile kuye, babuyela eYerusalem benovuyo olukhulu. [24:53] Bamana behleli etempileni, bedumisa, bebonga uElohim. Ameyin.

YORHANAN 1 Ekuqalekeni belikho iLizwi, laye iLizwi likuye uElohim, laye iLizwi linamandla. [1:2] Lona elo belikho ekuqalekeni kuElohim. [1:3] Izinto zonke zabakho ngalo; lingekho lona, akubangakho nanye into ethe yabakho. [1:4] Kulo kwakukho ubomi, baye ubomi obo bulukhanyiselo lwabantu. [1:5] Ukhanyiso ke olo lwabonakala ebumnyameni, basuka ubumnyama abaluqiqa. [1:6] Kwakho mntu uthunyiweyo evela kuElohim, ugama linguYorhanan. [1:7] Lowo weza kuba lingqina, ukuze angqine ngalo ukhanyiso, ukuze bonke bakholwe ngaye. [1:8] Yena lowo ubengelulo ukhanyiso; weza kungqina ngalo ukhanyiso. [1:9] Waye ke yena elukhanyiso oluyinyaniso, olubakhanyiselayo abantu bonke, esiza ehlabathini. [1:10] Ube esehlabathini ke; ihlabathi labakho ngaye, ihlabathi alimazanga. [1:11] Weza kokwakhe, baza abakhe abamvuma. [1:12] Ke bonke abamamkelayo wabanika igunya lokuba babe ngabantwana bakaElohim, abo ke bakholwayo kwigama lakhe; [1:13] abangazalwanga ngagazi, nangakuthanda kwanyama, nangakuthanda kwandoda; bazalwa nguElohim. [1:14] ULizwi waba yinyama, wahlala phakathi kwethu, sabubona ubuqaqawuli bakhe, ubuqaqawuli kanye bowokuphela kwamzeleyo uYise, ezele lubabalo nayinyaniso. [1:15] Uthi

171

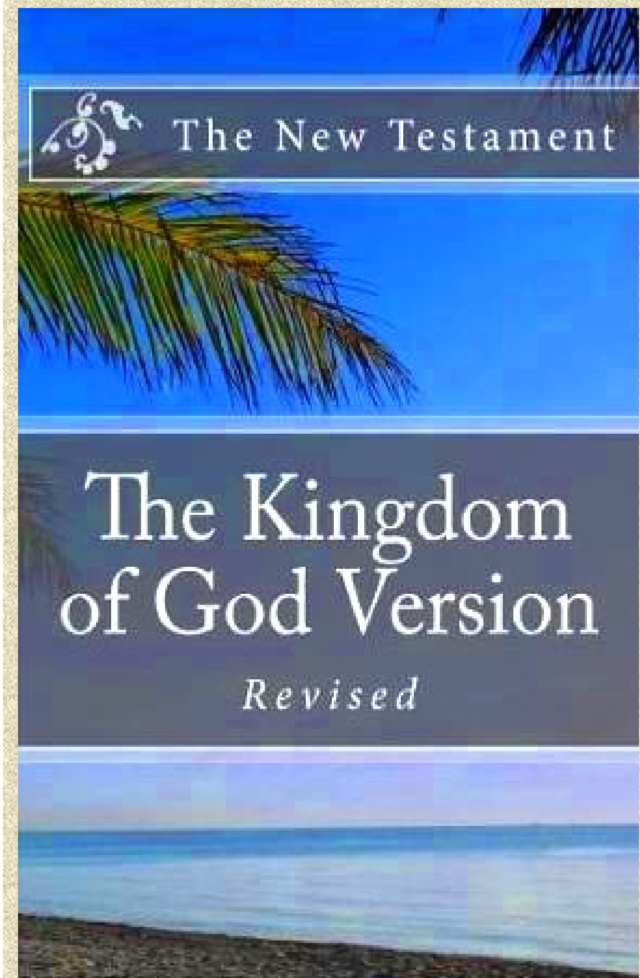
2014

The New Testament: The Kingdom of God Version (Ed. 2, rev.)

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform

Raymond C. Faircloth

and what God was, the message was



THE GOOD NEWS ACCORDING TO

JOHN

1 In the beginning was the message of God's purpose.+ This message of His purpose was integral to God, and what God was, the message was. [2] This was integral to God in the beginning. [3] Everything came to be through it;+ without it nothing came to be. What came into being [4] by means of it was the perfect life, and the perfect life was the light of mankind. [5] And the light continues shining in the darkness; and the darkness did not overpower it.

[6] A man by the name of John came. He was sent from God [7] and came as a witness, to bear witness about the Light, so that everyone would believe through him. [8] He himself was not the Light, but he came to bear witness about the Light. [9] This was the genuine Light which enlightens everyone coming into the world.

[10] He was in the world, and the world* came to be through him, but the world didn't acknowledge him. [11] He came to what was his own, but his own people didn't accept him.

[12] But to all who did accept him, he gave the right to become God's children — to those putting their trust in the name of him [13] who was + fathered,✧ not by the normal process nor by human choice nor by a husband's decision, but from God.

[14] And the message of God's purpose became a human, and dwelt as the focal point of God's presence among us. We gazed upon his glory — the glory as of one uniquely brought into existence✧ from a father, one full of divine favour and truth.

[15] John bore witness to him and cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said: 'The one coming after me has advanced in front of me, because he ranks ahead of me.'"+ [16] Indeed, we have all received from his fullness, one gracious gift in place of another, [17] because while the law was given through Moses, gracious favour and truth came through Jesus the Messiah. [18] No one has seen God at any time. The Son who was uniquely fathered, and who is in the most favourable position with the Father, he has explained Him.

172

2014

NT Greek Translation: An inter-verse commentary (Ed. 3)

PDF

Tara Stockdale

also "the specific god" (=JCg) was The Word

The Gospel according to John: Part 1 Chapters 1 to 11 Issued date: 01 Aug 2007

(Revised: 09 Feb 2009) 2nd Rev: 07 Jan. 2013 3rd Rev. 30 Dec. 2014

John 1v1 Time Frame reference - Introduction

1st Parable – JC as The Word of God created life that can become everlasting – those persons who imbue The Word of God and act with fidelity upon it now – shall become part of The New Creation and future sons of God.
1st Allegory – Word = JCg who then became JC to teach us by both speech and example, precisely what Yahweh Desires. We are taught JC(g) = The Word of God (Rev.19v13) who becomes The King of kings (Rev.19v16) in The Millennium.
2nd 'Allegory' – "All ... him" (v3) = JCg created all "Kinds" of Life on this planet – essentially anything with DNA.

John 1v1 og In (the) {commencement/chief (in order/time/place/rank)}/beginning
John 1v1 og (it) was the word/sayings/reasoning/topics (= JCg = JC in spiritual body)
John 1v1 og also the word/sayings/reasoning/topics was toward/nearness/{accession to} The God (= Yahweh),
John 1v1 og also the {specific god} (= JCg – please see glossary and v3)
John 1v1 og was the word/sayings/reasoning/topics.
John 1v1 = In the beginning (of The World/Life) was The Word (= JCg), also The Word (= JCg) was {toward/nearness to} The (Almighty) God (Yahweh), also 'the specific god' ([of the context being The World/Life] = JCg) was The Word (Thus JCg as JC became Yahweh's mouthpiece).

In the beginning was The Word (JCg), also The Word was near to The God (Yahweh),
also "the specific god" (= JCg) was The Word.

Note in context of v2 explaining "In beginning", there is no Greek Word "The" placed in the original text for 'The Beginning' as was specifically used in the Greek text for "The Word" and thus we can accurately conclude that it is not 'The Beginning of The Universe' (as often erroneously assumed) being Yahweh's specific domain, but rather "In (the) beginning" of JCg's time domain, thus referenced to "Life" on this planet that The Greek calls: "The World" "Kosmos" StrongsTM = 2889 for "Adornment/Decoration" upon this planet – being the very reason why The Bible was written - specifically for "us" as The Culmination of "Life" on this planet (originally of barren rock and water)!
Likewise "This/That (specific)" (StrongsTM = 3778 or 5126) is not used within this position – which tells us this verse is not speaking about The Absolute Beginning of The Universe, but rather again, it is John telling us about the beginning of "Life/Adornment/Decoration" of The Earth.
This reasoning is further supported because The Greek word for "Beginning" ("arche" StrongsTM= 746) is given in the "nominative" case and not the "accusative" case - and thus following along the same principles as "ho theos" being a "relative pointer" referenced upon The Subject Matter of the context (being "us" - humans) rather than an "absolute pointer" that would be used to point directly to the beginning of The Universe. Thus we reason that in the same manner: 'the case' of "ho theos" (equally nominative) being relative to "us" as "The World/Life" then likewise so is the use of "Beginning" as the 'nominative case' to be relative to "us" as "The World/life".
Now moving to another area of possible conflict.
Not often explained to us is the Greek word "aggelos" only means "messenger/{bringer of tidings}" and often assumed as being "messenger of God (sent to tell)" which is true in most instances.
However in 2Cor.2v7 we have the splinter in Paul's side being described as an angel of Satan (to be a messenger to remind him that Satan was close to devour him). I only mention this to alert the reader to take the word "angel/messenger" in context. Likewise the two spies sent to Jericho where called "angels/messengers/{bringers of tiding}" (James.2v25), John the Baptist was called "angel/messenger/{bringer of tidings}" Mark.1v2, also disciples were called "angels/messengers/{bringers of tidings}" (of John - Luke.7v24, and of JC - Luke.9v52) and thus by inference Paul instructs us to be hospitable to the TCs teaching the word of God in their ministry work (Heb.13v2) following Abraham's example at Gen.18v2-5, and I could give more examples to demonstrate the veracity of my reasoning. Also the reader must understand (as I profusely show elsewhere) translators are paid to deliver what the paymasters desire to read (Leaders of Christendom) and hence the reader will only find these correctly defined words in The Original Greek or within my most accurate and utterly transparent translation of The Greek Scriptures, which is also commutative, unlike any other English translation on this planet (true at 2015 CE)!
Thus in context we inductively realise that JC was "The Word of God" = Chief Messenger of The Almighty God = The Chief Angel of Yahweh. with reference to this planet for this planet. The Bible is not specifically written for other life-forms within this universe – and we should not irrationally extend its scope!
Understand this and it unlocks many verses within John's later book entitled: "Revelations".
This is all Biblically accurate - irrespective of what most of our worldly Christian leaders state in utter error (of most things scriptural as I thoroughly explain with innumerate examples where there are at least 50 different examples in chapters 2 and 3 of Revelations alone)!
It is just that we have been indoctrinated to understand 'Angel' as something with 'feathered wings', which is entirely ancient mythology!
(Note: The Almighty God of [and 'outside'] The Universe = Yahweh (old Jewish name) = Jehovah (modern Jewish name) = The Ultimate Authority).

John 1v2 og This (specific) (one = The Word, JCg) was in (the) {commencement/chief (in order/time/place/rank)}/beginning John 1v2 og toward/nearness/{accession to} (= having a propensity for) of The God (Yahweh).
John 1v2 = This specific one (JCg as The Word of God) was in (the) beginning (of The World/Life) towards/nearness of The God (Yahweh).

This specific one (= JCg) was in the beginning near to The God (= Yahweh).

http://futurelife.org/document-category/nt-greek-translation/

173

2014

SPANISH

Kitvê ha'Talmidím Rishoním

"Escritos de los Primeros Discípulos"

Córdoba: Editorial "TZIÓN", Argentina

Yosef Jaím

And the expression [lit. word] was elohím [mighty]

Y la expresión [lit. la palabra] era elohím [poderosa]

y la expresión [lit. la palabra] estaba con Ha'Elohím [El Poderoso] [3].

Y la expresión [lit. la palabra] era elohím [poderosa] [4] [Col 1:17 / 1 Jn 1:1 / Flp 2:6].

Elohím? Antes de continuar es necesario saber que significa la frase "palabra de Elohím" para un hebreo como Yojanán. Dentro del contexto Hebreo significa "La voluntad de Elohim revelada" [vea Melajím Bet (2º Reyes) 3:12 / Kefá Bet (2º Pedro) 3:5 / Gilgalút (Revelación) 1:4].

[3] Cuando Yojanán dice que la "la expresión" [el "verbo"] era con Elohim, el simplemente quiere decir que el "verbo" [plan, pensamiento, voluntad] estaba presente en Su mente. Estaba con El, igual que el pensamiento de una persona está con ella.

[4] Para poder entender este texto, debemos primeramente entender que es lo que quiso decir el escritor aquí. Por ejemplo, este pasaje está mal traducido en todas las versiones de las Biblias cristianas por su afán de poner "títulos" que no están en las Escrituras y así apoyar la falsa enseñanza trinitaria, queriendo además, tratar de introducir el erróneo concepto que aquí se está hablando del Mashíaj y que él es también "elohím". Lo que el escritor hace aquí desde el v. 1 al 5 es un "midrásh" [es una explicación que no toma en cuenta el contexto de las palabras que se quiere interpretar, con el solo fin de abrir el entendimiento del lector, dándole un sentido alegórico al texto], tomando como base Bereshit (Génesis) 1:1-4. El escritor nos relata en forma de "midrásh" lo sucedido en el principio, explicándonos que la "expresión" era "Ha'Elohím" [El Poderos hablando, Su Palabra, Su Esencia] y que esta "expresión" era "elohím" [poderosa], ya que dijo [Bereshit 1:4] y las cosas se crearon. Esto se refleja en la traducción griega de Yojanán al hacerse diferencia entre "ho theós" y "theós". El primero se aplica a Adonay, Su Expresión [Su palabra, Su voz, Su Esencia] y el segundo a la expresión [palabra, lo dicho, la forma de expresión]. Una traducción correcta tiene que tomar en cuenta la mentalidad hebrea y sus formas de expresión, lo cual quedó correctamente plasmado en la traducción literal del texto griego: "En arkhé en ho lógos, kai ho lógos en pros ton theón, kai theós en ho lógos. La manera en que se traduce en la versión del Dr. Goodspeed es digna de consideración: "Y el verbo estaba con Di-s y el verbo era divino". Y el mismo pasaje en Hebreo dice: "Bereshít hayáh ha'dabár me'Elohím, ve'hadabár hayáh tamid lifnei ha'Elohím" [Desde un principio era davar de Elohím, y aquel davar estaba siempre ante Elohím], ve'hadavar shehaya kaiam, haya habitui shel elohím atsmó" [y el davar que ya existía era (la expresión misma) de elohím]. Las autoridades en gramática griega dicen en "A Manual Grammar of the Greek New Testament", by Dana and Mantey: "que los sustantivos tienen un artículo definido: "ha" en hebreo, "ho" en griego, "el" en español. El artículo indica personalidad. Es decir, la Expresión [la palabra] es una persona, ya que "El Divino" es El Creador. Pero la palabra "elohím" (theós) en la última parte del versículo no tiene artículo. Por lo tanto no se puede traducir lo mismo sin artículo que con artículo. Es una regla gramatical en griego que cuando la palabra "theós" se usa sin artículo, muchas veces hace la función de un adjetivo. Por eso algunos eruditos han traducido "divino" en vez de "di-s". Esa es la traducción más correcta, respaldada por la Gramática... "El uso de theós en Yojanán 1:1 es un buen ejemplo. Es decir, que el "ho theós" de Yojanán 1:1 se refiere a Adonay, mientras que el "theós" (sin artículo) es una descripción de la expresión [de la palabra] de Adonay. Una consideración seria del significado de la palabra hebrea elohím, y todos estos conceptos de la gramática indican que la traducción más correcta de Yojanán 1:1 es la que se presenta en ésta versión. La clave para interpretar este pasaje debemos encontrarla en las Escrituras mismas. Hay dos textos que nos ayudaran a entender de que se está hablando aquí. Cuando leemos este texto [1:1] con Mishlé (Proverbio) 8:22-31 nos damos cuenta que hay una relación interna entre ambos. Mishlé nos habla de "Jojmá" [Sabiduría] y donde se la personaliza, como es costumbre en la poesía hebrea, y donde se nos dice que la Sabiduría fue concebida antes de la fundación del mundo y que cuando el Eterno estaba creando los cielos y la tierra, ya ella estaba allí "afirmando Su obra", es decir, dirigiendo cada paso en la creación. Esto está en consonancia con el principio talmúdico de que la primera creación de Adonay fue la "sabiduría", es decir, "DAVAR", o sea, "Su Palabra Creativa", la Toráh. Este "Davár" o "Palabra" de Adonay, su Toráh, en forma escrita, sirvió entonces como "los planos de la creación", es decir, todo se hizo por el plano, siguiendo los detalles de la Sabiduría escondida en la Toráh. Por tanto, cuando el Eterno hablo y envió SU DAVAR, en correspondencia con la Sabiduría, lo que no existía vino a la existencia. Lo que el texto nos dice es que: Desde un principio era el plan o propósito escondido de Elohím y aquel plan o propósito estaba siempre delante de Elohím y ese plan y propósito original que ya existía escondido en Elohím, era la esencia misma de Elohím, es decir, su intención y meta final. Esto podría compararse a un hombre que dice: "Hacer este proyecto es la esencia misma de mi vida, para esto he nacido, para esto existo". Guardando las debidas distancias entre el Creador y la criatura, podemos decir que el Eterno tenía una meta, un sueño, un plan escondido y ese sueño y plan escondido en Su seno desde el principio, era la razón misma de su existencia. En la persona de Yehoshúa ese propósito que formaba parte de la naturaleza misma del Creador, se hizo realidad. En otras palabras, que todo lo que existe fue hecho exclusivamente para alcanzar una meta final: la revelación. Hay interpretes meshijím que ven aquí una clara identificación del Mashíaj en el principio, haciendo la diferencia de que ésta "expresión" [el Mashíaj] estaba con Ha'Elohím [El Poderoso] y que la "expresión" [el

https://kehilamesianica.jimdofree.com/app/download/6491709477/03.+YOJANAN+(155-226).pdf?t=1410833163

174

2014

GREEK modern

“John 1:1-18 in Modern Greek dynamically rendered” (Ed. 1)

PDF

Pavlos D. Vasileiadis

And the Agent was divine [representative].(by Pavlos Vasileiadis)

Και θεϊκός [εκπρόσωπος] ήταν ο Εντεταλμένος.

version of 3 May 2021

	[28]Nestle-Aland	Modern Greek translation	Comments
Joh 1:1	Ἐν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ λόγος, καὶ ὁ λόγος ἦν πρὸς τὸν θεόν, καὶ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος.	Στο ξεκίνημα [της δημιουργικής δραστηριότητας] υπήρχε ο Εντεταλμένος. Και ο Εντεταλμένος ήταν προσηλωμένος στον Θεό. Και θεϊκός [εκπρόσωπος] ήταν ο Εντεταλμένος.	* «Από την αρχή»: "The article is absent because Ἐν ἀρχῇ is virtually an adverbial expression" (Expositor's Greek Testament 1:683). Or, «Όταν ξεκίνησε η δημιουργία». Cf. v. 3; Ge 1:1; Pr 8:27; Col 1:15; Heb 1:10. It goes back when God's creation was beginning, even before the spiritual creatures came into existence, when God was with the Word alone. Also: «Κατά το ξεκίνημα υπήρχε ο Λόγος». * «Εντεταλμένος»: Cf. Joh 5:19, 30; 8:28, 29; 12:49. Also, Rev 19:13: «ὁ λόγος τοῦ θεοῦ»; Heb 1:1-4: «ὁ θεὸς ... ἐλάλησεν ἡμῖν ἐν υἱῷ, ... δι' οὗ καὶ ἐποίησεν τοὺς αἰῶνας· ... φέρων τε τὰ πάντα τῷ ῥήματι τῆς δυνάμεως αὐτοῦ». * «Θεϊκός εκπρόσωπος»: «Ὁσαχῶς ἡ θεός προσηγορία εἴρηται ἐν τῇ γραφῇ; Καὶ δῆλον ὅτι διττῶς, φύσει καὶ σχέσει· φύσει μὲν ὁ ποιητής, σχέσει δὲ καὶ χάριτι καὶ οἱ δίκαιοι λέγονται θεοί. (Anastasius Sinaita, Οδηγός/Viae Dux 2:2) → If in view of the relation between God and the material world and mankind. Cf. Ex 4:16; 7:1; Joh 16:27; 17:8. → If in comparison to v. 14 regarding the nature of λόγος, then «θεϊκό ον», «θεϊκός», or «θεοειδής», even «θεός» in comparison with «ἄνθρωπος», «σάρξ» / «πνεῦμα». Cf. Php 2:5,6: «ἐν μορφῇ θεοῦ ὑπάρχων». See אֱלֹהִים (Ps 8:5|6 / Heb 2:7; Ps 82:1, 6 / Joh 10:34, 35) compared with בְנֵי־הָאֱלֹהִים (Ge 6:2, 4; Job 1:6; 2:1; 38:7 / Joh 3:18; 1:18). See KBL (1958, p. 134), “בן”: “(einzelne) Gottwesen, Götter, (individual) divine beings, gods,” not referring to false gods in these

175

2014
The New Testament of the Greek Scriptures
The Name Jehovah 2014 (Ed. 3)
Lulu.com., Australia
Richard Estes

and the Word [Michael] was [like] Jehovah

According to John

Writer: Apostle John
Place Written: Ephesus or near Writing completed: c. 98 C.E.
Time Covered: After prologue 29-33 C.E.

John 1 [1] In the beginning was the Word [Michael] of Jehovah, and the Word [Michael] was with Jehovah, and the Word [Michael] was [like] Jehovah. [2] This one was in the beginning with Jehovah. [3] All things came into existence through him, and apart from him not even one thing came into existence. [Proverbs 8:22-31: verse 30 “then I came to be beside him as a master worker,”]

What has come into existence [4] by means of him was life, and the life was the light of men. [5] And the light is shining in the darkness, but the darkness has not overpowered it.

[6] There arose a man that was sent forth as the representative of Jehovah: his name was John. [7] This man came for a witness, in order to bear witness about the light, that people of all sorts might believe through him. [8] He was not that light, but he was meant to bear witness about that light.

[9] The true light that gives light to every sort of man was about to come into the world. [10] He was in the world, and the world came into existence through him, but the world did not know Jehovah. [11] He came to his own house, but his own people did not take him in. [12] However, as many as did receive him, to them he gave authority to become the children of Jehovah, because they were exercising faith in the Name of Jehovah; [13] and they were born, not from blood or from a fleshly will or from man’s will, but from Jehovah.

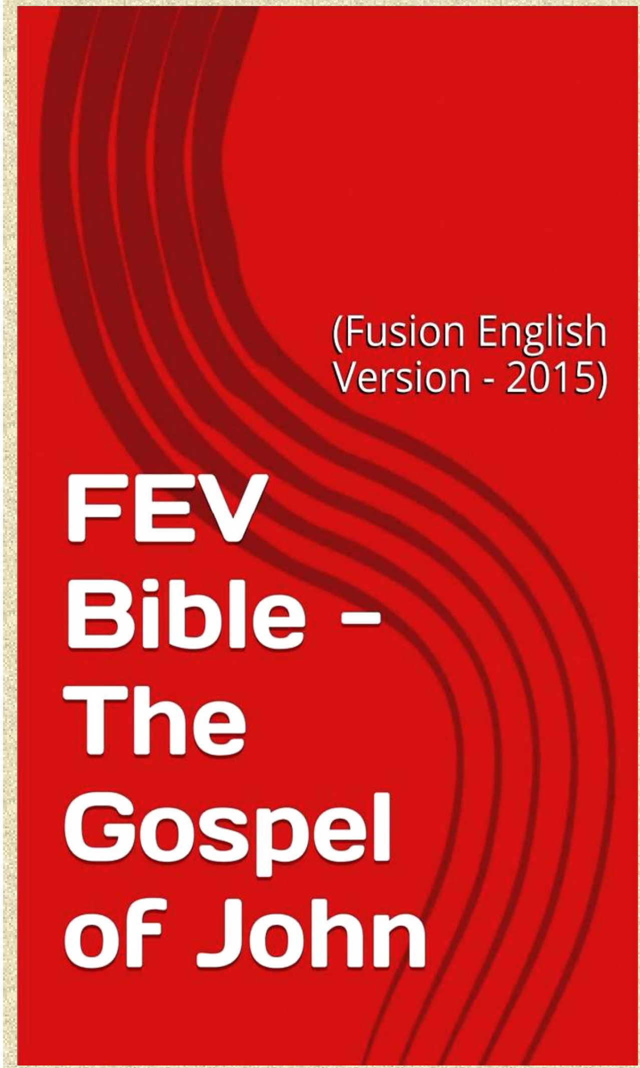
[14] So the Word [Michael] became flesh and resided among us, and we had a view of his glory, a glory such as belongs to an only-begotten son from the Father; and he was full of underserved kindness and truth. [15] John bore witness about him, yes, he actually cried out, this was the one who said it, saying: “The one coming behind me has advanced in front of me, because he existed before me.” [16] For we all received from out of his fullness, even underserved kindness upon underserved kindness. [17] Because the Law was given through Moses, the underserved kindness of God and the truth came to be through Jesus the Messiah. [18] No man has seen Jehovah at any time; the only-begotten son who is in the bosom position of Jehovah with the Father is the one that has explained Him.

[19] Now this is the witness of John when the Jews sent forth priests and Levities from Jerusalem to him to ask him: “Who are you?” [20] And he confessed and did not deny, but confessed: “I am not the Messiah.” [21] And they asked him: “What then? Are you E·li′jah?” And he said: “I am not.” “Are you The Prophet?” And he

176

2015
Fusion English Version Bible:
The Gospel of John
Amazon Ltd.
Daniel Harder

and the Logos had divine nature



John

Chapter 1

1 In the beginning there existed the Expression known as the Logos, and the Logos was close to God, and the Logos had divine nature. 2 This is the Logos who existed in the beginning with God. 3 All things were created through the Logos. Without him not even one thing was created that has been created. 4 Life was created in the Logos, and the life was the light of humankind. 5 The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it. 6 There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John the Immerser. 7 John came as a witness, that he might testify about the Light, that all people might trust in God through him. 8 He was not the Light, but was sent that he might testify about the Light. 9 The True Light that enlightens everyone was arriving in the world.

10 The Logos was in the world, and the world was created through him, but the world didn't recognize him. 11 The Logos came to his own people, the Jews, but those who were his own people didn't receive him. 12 But as many

177

2015

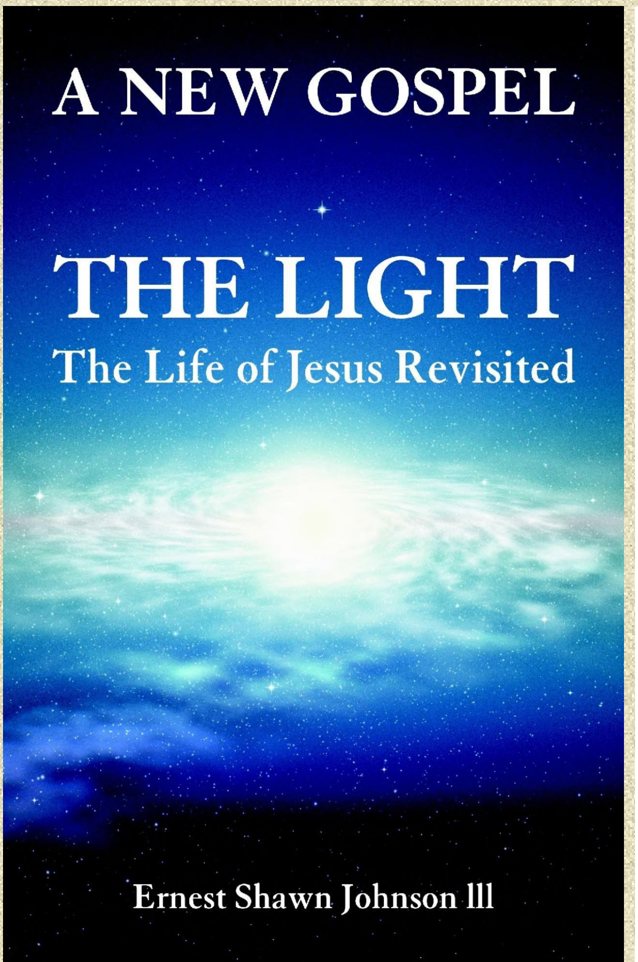
The Light.

The Life of Jesus Revisited: A New Gospel

Lulu Publishing Service, Australia

Ernest S. Johnson III

and the word was divine



CHAPTER 1

THE WORD

In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God and the word was divine.-(1) The same was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through it,-(2) and without it nothing came into being. In it was life-(3) and that life was the light of men. And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness cannot over power it. There was a man sent from God whose name was John. He came for a testimony, to testify-(4) about the light, so that everyone through him would become a believer. He was not the light,-(4) but he was sent to testify about the light, the true light which gives light to every man coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came to life because of him,-(5) however the world did not understand him. He came to his own people, but his own people did not learn from him.-(6) But those of them that did learn from him-(7) he gave them the strength-(8) to become the servants of God, because they believed in his name.-(9) They were not born from blood, nor from flesh, nor from the will of man, but from God. And the word became flesh, and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth.-*(10) John did testify about him, and cried out, "This is he of whom I said, the one coming after me, ranks ahead of me, because he is superior to me. "And from his fullness we have all received grace upon grace. The Torah-(law) came to us through Moses, but grace https://archive.org/details/lightlifeofjesus0000erne

https://books.google.pl/books?id=ZRX8CgAAQBAJ

178

2015

SPANISH

Biblia del Hebreo al Español: Brit Hajadash-N.T. (Volume 2)

Panama

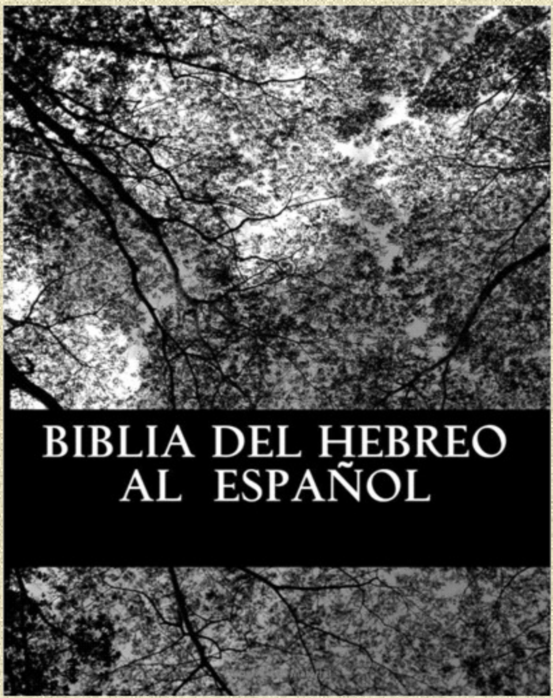
Yojanan ben Peretz

and the memra was mighty

y la memrah era poderosa

Las Buenas Noticias (besarot) de Yehshúa Ha Mashíaj
Según Reportadas por Yojanán – Juan

1 1 Bereshit hayáh hamemra wememra hayáh et haElohim weelohim hayáh ḥamemra. En el principio existía la memrah (expresión de YAHWEH), y la memrah era con El Todopoderoso y la memrah era poderosa. 2 El era en el principio con HaElohim. 3 Todas las cosas por medio de El fueron hechas, y sin El nada de lo que ha sido hecho hubiera



https://issuu.com/osva613/docs/sefer_de_yojanan_en_3d

179

2015

SPANISH

Las Buenas Noticias de Iauhanan

PDF

Julio Ramos

and mighty was the Word

y poderosa estaba siendo la Palabra

LAS BUENAS NOTICIAS DE IAUHANAN
CAPÍTULO 1

y

REVISADO EN 26-09-15

POR DON JULIO RAMOS

1 EN el principio estaba siendo la Palabra, y la Palabra estaba siendo hacia a el PODEROSO, y poderosa estaba siendo la Palabra.

2 Esta estaba siendo en el principio hacia a el PODEROSO.

3 Todo a través de ella llegó estar siendo; y sin ella nada de lo que llegó a estar siendo, ha llegado a estar siendo.

4 En ella estaba siendo la vida, y la vida estaba siendo la luz de los hombres.

5 Y la luz está resplandeciendo en la oscuridad; más la oscuridad no estaba consiguiendo extinguirla.

6 Un hombre Llegó a estar siendo, y que habiendo estado siendo enviado como emisario por EL PODEROSO, el cual se está llamando el Iauhanan.

7 Este estaba viniendo para dar testimonio, testificando acerca de la luz, para que todos estuvieran creyendo por medio de él.

https://donjulioramos.blogspot.com/

180

2015

RUMUNIAN

Noul Testament înainte de corecţiile gnostico-catolice:
Evanghelia după Ioan

Floreşti – Cluj, România

translator anonymous

Ionică Takacs (revisor)

and like God was the Word

şi ca Dumnezeu era Cuvântul

Noul Testament
înainte de corecțiile gnostico-catolice

PROIECTUL VERSIUNEA „BIBLIA ANTICĂ”

Proiectul “Biblia Antică Ante-Niceeană” –
Biblia antică înainte de Conciliul de la Niceea, 325

Cărţile Vechiului şi Noului Legământ înainte de intervenţiile scribale de modificare

Acest text este o recenzie, nu o nouă traducere

Recenzie

Ionică Takacs

Evanghelia După Ioan

2015, Floreşti – Cluj, România

Evanghelia redactată după apostolul Ioan

Capitolul I

1. La început era Cuvântul, şi Cuvântul era cu Dumnezeu şi ca Dumnezeu era Cuvântul.
(Trimiteri: Proverbe 30:4, Ioan 14:7-11, Evrei 1:1-3)
2. El era la început cu Dumnezeu.
3. Toate prin el au apărut, şi fără el n-a apărut nici măcar un lucru din ceea ce a apărut.
(Trimiteri: Geneza 1:26, Proverbe 8:22-30)
4. În el era viața şi viața era lumina oamenilor.
5. Lumina luminează în întuneric şi întunericul n-a biruit-o.
6. Era un bărbat trimis de la Dumnezeu; numele lui era Ioan.
7. El a venit ca martor, ca să mărturisească despre lumină, pentru ca toți să creadă prin el.
8. N-a fost el lumina, ci acela care să depună mărturie despre lumină.
9. Adevărata lumină este acela care, venind în lume, luminează pe orice om.
10. El era în lume şi lumea a fost făcută prin el, dar lumea nu l-a cunoscut.
11. A venit la ai săi şi ai săi nu l-au primit.
12. Dar tuturor celor ce l-au primit, adică celor ce cred în numele lui, le-a dat dreptul să fie copii ai lui Dumnezeu,
13. care au fost născuți nu din sânge, nici din voia cărnii lor, nici din voia vreunui om, ci din Dumnezeu.
14. Şi Cuvântul a devenit carne şi a locuit printre noi şi noi am privit slava lui, slava ca a unui singur născut al unui tata, plin de har şi de adevăr.
15. Ioan a mărturisit despre el şi a strigat, zicând: "El era acela despre care ziceam eu: Cel care vine după mine este înaintea mea, pentru ca era înainte de mine."
16. Fiindcă noi toți am primit din plinătatea lui şi har peste har;
17. căci Legea a fost data prin Moise, dar harul şi adevărul au venit prin Isus Christos.
18. Dumnezeu de nici unul n-a fost văzut vreodată. Singurul născut Fiu, care este la sânul Tatălui, acela l-a făcut cunoscut.
19. Şi aceasta este mărturia lui Ioan, când iudeii au trimis din Ierusalim pe nişte preoți şi leviți să-l întrebe: "Tu cine eşti?"
20. El a recunoscut şi n-a tăgăduit, şi a mărturisit: "Eu nu sunt Unsul (Christosul)."
21. Şi ei l-au întrebat: "Dar cine eşti? Eşti Ilie?" Şi el a zis: "Nu sunt." "Eşti prorocul?" Şi el a răspuns: "Nu."
22. Atunci i-au zis: "Cine eşti tu? Ca să dăm răspuns celor care ne-au trimis. Ce zici tu despre tine însuti?"
23. "Eu", a zis el, "sunt glasul celui ce strigă în pustie: "Neteziți calea înaintea lui Iehova" cum a zis prorocul Isaia." (Trimiteri: Isaia 40:3)
24. Trimişii erau din partea fariseilor.
25. Ei l-au întrebat şi i-au zis: "Atunci de ce botezi, dacă nu eşti Unsul, nici Ilie, nici prorocul?"
26. Şi răspunzând, Ioan le-a zis: "Eu botez cu apa; dar în mijlocul vostru stă unul, pe care voi nu-l cunoaşteți.
27. El este acela care vine după mine; eu nu sunt vrednic să-i dezleg cureaua sandalelor."
28. Acestea s-au petrecut în Betania, dincolo de Iordan, unde boteza Ioan.
29. A doua zi, a văzut pe Isus venind la el şi a zis: "Iată mielul lui Dumnezeu, care ridică

181

2016

PORTUGUESE

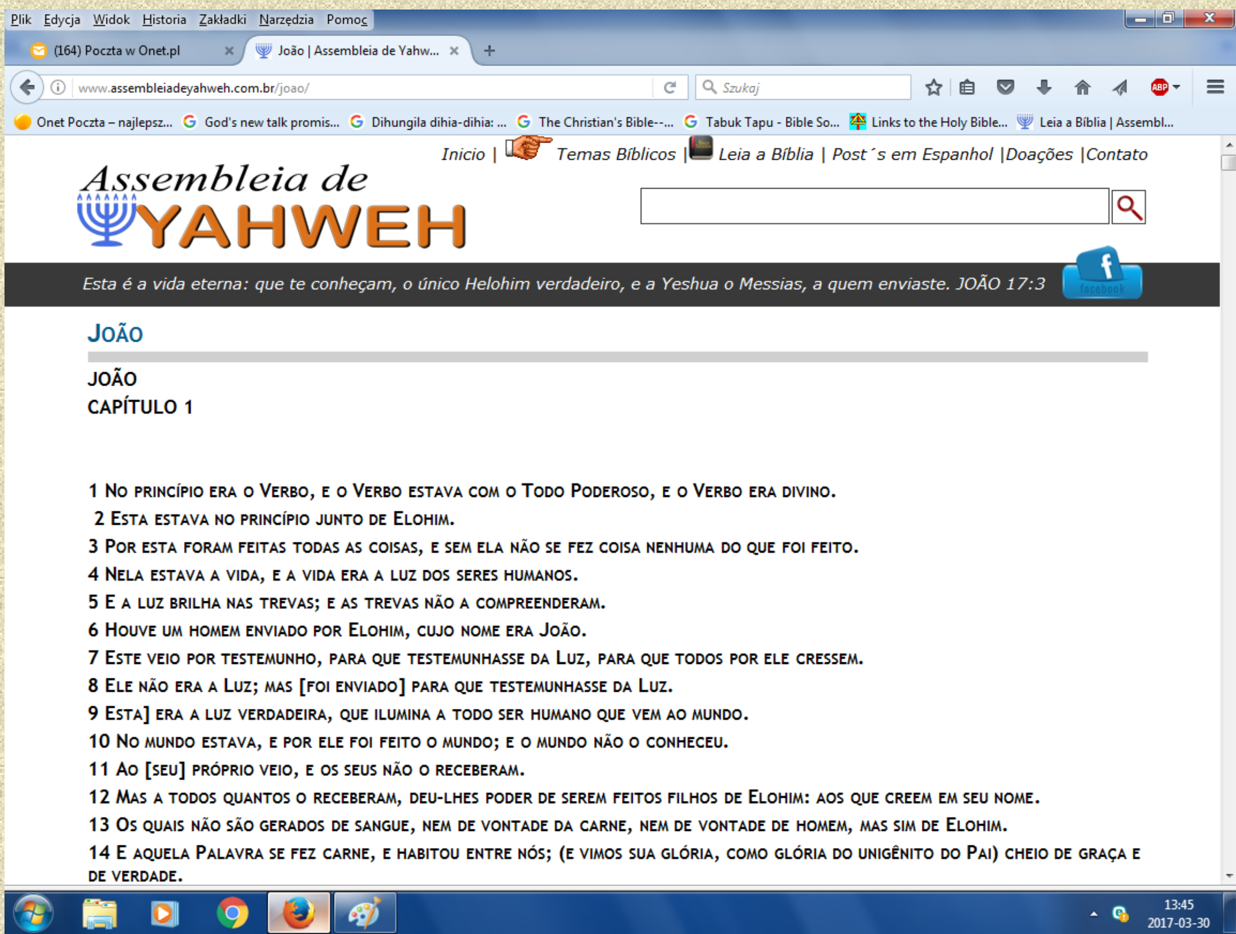
Bíblia Livre (BLIVRE)

Creative Commons Atribuição 3.0, Assembleia de YAHWEH, Brasil

Diego Santos – Mario Sérgio – Marco Teles

and the Word was divine

e o Verbo era divino



http://www.assembleiadeyahweh.com.br/leia-a-biblia/

2016
Book of The Covenant: An Integrated Translation & Transliteration of the Hebraic Scriptures (Ed. 5)
Gimel Uriyah
Gimel Uriyah

and the Word was with ELOHIM, and the Word was Elohim.

4-4 YAHchanan : John [Jn]

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with ELOHIM[1], and the Word was Elohim.[2]
1:2 The same was in the beginning with ELOHIM.[3]
1:3 All these things[4] came to be through Him, and without Him, nothing which is, would have come to past.
1:4 In Him was life, and that life was the light of men.
1:5 The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not perceived it.
1:6 There came a man, sent from ELOHIM, whose name was YAHchanan.
1:7 The same came as a witness, that he might testify about that Light, that the people might be persuaded to believe through his testimony.
1:8 He was not that Light, but was sent that he might testify about that Light.
1:9 The true Light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.
1:10 He was in the world, and the world emerged[5] on account of Him, and the world did not acknowledge Him.
1:11 He came to His own people, and those who were His own people did not receive Him.
1:12 Nevertheless, as many as received Him, to them He gave the justification to become ELOHIM's children, to those who trust in His name:
1:13 who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of ELOHIM.
1:14 That Word became flesh[6], and lived among us. We saw His glory, such glory as of the only begotten of the ABBA, full of grace and truth.
1:15 YAHchanan testified about Him. He cried out, saying, This was He of Whom I said, He Who comes after me has surpassed me, for He was before me.
1:16 Because of His fullness we all have received grace upon grace[7].
1:17 The Torah was given through Mosheh, further grace and truth are now fulfilled through YAHshua the Mashiach.
1:18 No one has seen ELOHIM ever yet. That one and only begotten Elohim[8], Who was from the bosom of the ABBA, He has shown the way to HIM.
1:19 This is YAHchanan's testimony, when the YAHudim sent kohanim and Levites

[1] Vs 1:1 - "the word was with ELOHIM" means that the word was in the mind (thought, motive, plan) of ELOHIM, since 'the beginning'. This word was foreknown (foreordained) of ELOHIM – see 1 Pet 1:20.

[2] Vs 1:1 - "the word was Elohim" - meaning "that one and only begotten Elohim (mighty one)" sent from the bosom of YHWH, as made clear in 1:14 & 18. YHWH alone is "the only true ELOHIM" – Jn 10 -:36; 17:3; 5:44; 1 Cor 8:6; Phi 2:6; Heb 1:8; Ex 20:1-3.

[3] Vs 1:2 - "in the beginning" - though it is commonly interpreted as referring to the beginning of creation, it may be noted that John has also used this terminology "since the beginning" (1Jn 2:13, 14) and "from the beginning" (Jn 15:27, 16:4; 1 Jn 1:1, 2:7) to refer to the beginning of the Mashiach's ministry since His birth.

[4] Vs 1:3 - "all these things" – from context, probably referring to or including all events (the good news) which took place since the Mashiach's birth, death and resurrection.

[5] Vs 1:10 – "emerged" – from darkness into light, as per context of vs 4, 5, 7-9.

[6] Vs 1:14 – "That Word" was the Mashiach, who was manifested as ELOHIM's only begotten Son, in the flesh. It is not ABBA YHWH Himself who came in the flesh. It is HIS anointed Son who was manifested in the flesh, according to the ABBA's Word. YAHshua is the only begotten Son of YHWH – in spirit and in truth. The Son is not the ABBA. See Rev 19:13.

[7] Vs 1:16 - The fulfillment of ELOHIM's Word in the Mashiach, manifests HIS grace upon grace - to HIS Covenant people YisraEL, including their faithful gentile commonwealth.

[8] Vs 1:18 – "only begotten Elohim"- that same Mighty One (Word) mentioned in vs 1. Addressing the Mashiach as "Elohim" (Mighty One) is valid only in the Hebraic context and should not be misunderstood that he is YHWH ELOHIM HIMSELF. In Hebraic context, the title "Elohim" is also applied to mighty malachim or mighty servants of YHWH (see Ps 45:6; 82:6, 97:7, 89:6, 138:1). YAHshua is the only begotten Elohim sent by ABBA YHWH. He is not to be confused with his ABBA WHO is the "ELOHIM of Elohim" – the one and only "EL ELYON" (Most High ELOHIM), the only EL SHADDAI (Almighty ELOHIM). See also Jn 1:1, 10:33-36; Phi 2:6; Heb 1:8; Jn 20:28.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=R8dNDQAAQBAJ

183

2016

A Non-Ecclesiastical New Testament
being a translation into English
of Greek writings dating from the First and Second Centuries of the Common Era

PDF

Frank Daniels

And “God” the message was

A Non-Ecclesiastical New Testament

being a translation into English
of Greek writings dating from the First and Second Centuries of the Common Era

Translated by Frank Daniels

The author makes no claim to identification with Johannes, referring to himself only as "the student whom Jesus loved." However, a reading of chapter 21 reveals that Peter, Thomas, Nathanael, the sons of Zebedaiah, and two others were present. Given the use of "two others," it is likely that the author simply could not remember who had been present. However, the sons of Zebedaiah – so prominent in the synoptics – are entirely absent from the rest of this account. The author also indicates (21:7) that he himself was in the boat. Since the author has already distinguished himself from Peter and Thomas, and probably Nathanael (ch. 1), that makes the author out to be one of the sons of Zebedaiah – Jacob or Johannes. If the author were Jacob, then the book is certainly written before the time of Acts 12, when Jacob was executed. This, however, is where we give the unanimous attribution to Johannes some weight and identify the author as Johannes, son of Zebedaiah.

Translation:

ONE

In the beginning was the message,
And the message was directed toward God,
And "God" the message was.
The same one was directed toward God in the beginning.
Through it, all things were done.
And without it nothing was done.
What has been done in it was life.
And the life was the light of humanity.
And the light shone in the darkness.
But the darkness did not understand it.

1:6 It happened that a person whose name was John was sent from God. This one came as a witness, so that he might testify about the light, so that all might trust through him. He was not the Light, but he came to testify about the light. This was the light, the True Light which enlightened everyone as it came into creation. In creation it was, and the creation happened through it, and yet the creation did not know it. He went into his own domain, and his own people didn't receive him. But to as many as did receive him, he gave them authority to become the children of God – to those who trust in his name, who were born not of blood, nor out of sexual desire, nor of a man's wishes, but from God. And the message was embodied and lived among us, and we observed its glory: glory like from a father's only son, full of favor and truth. John testified about him, crying out and saying, "This is the one about whom I said, 'The one who comes after me has become before me; because he is my superior.'" Because out of his fullness, we all received one favor instead of another favor.[1] For the Torah was given through Moses; the favor and the truth happened through Anointed Jesus.
1:18 No one has ever seen God. God's unique one, the one who is at the Father's bosom, has related him. And this is John's testimony: When the Jews sent priests and Levites to ask him, "Who are you?" he affirmed and did not deny. And he affirmed, "I am not the Anointed One."
And they asked him, "What are you then? Are you Elijah?"[2]
He said, "I am not."

[1] That is, the Torah had been a generous gift; Jesus' explanation of it was one gift in place of another.
[2] "Look, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and majestic day of Yahweh comes. And he will turn the hearts of the fathers toward their children and the hearts of the children toward their fathers – lest I come and smite the land with a curse." (Mal 4:5-6)

http://www.friktech.com/rel/net.pdf

184

2017

The Synoptic Gospel: The Story of The Life of Jesus

Surrey, British Columbia: Smart Publishing Ltd., Canada

Daniel John

and the Word was Divine

0 - PROLOGUE 2 Act 1: Foreword

Scene 2: The Word of God

John 1:1-5, 9-10, 14

1	In the beginning was the Word,[1.] and the Word was with God, and the Word was Divine.[2.]
2	He was in the beginning with God.
3	All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being.
4	In Him was life, and the life was the Light of men.
5	And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us.
6	There was the true Light, which coming into the world, enlightens every man.[3.]
7	The Light shines in the darkness,[4.] and the darkness did not comprehend it.
8	He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him -
9	but we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.

1. Greek logos = word, reason, wisdom	2. Greek Theos Θεὸς = Divine, a God, Godly, God-like
3. Isaiah 49:6	4. Genesis 1:3 / Isaiah 9:2

https://synopticgospel.com/the-synoptic-gospel-scene-012/

185

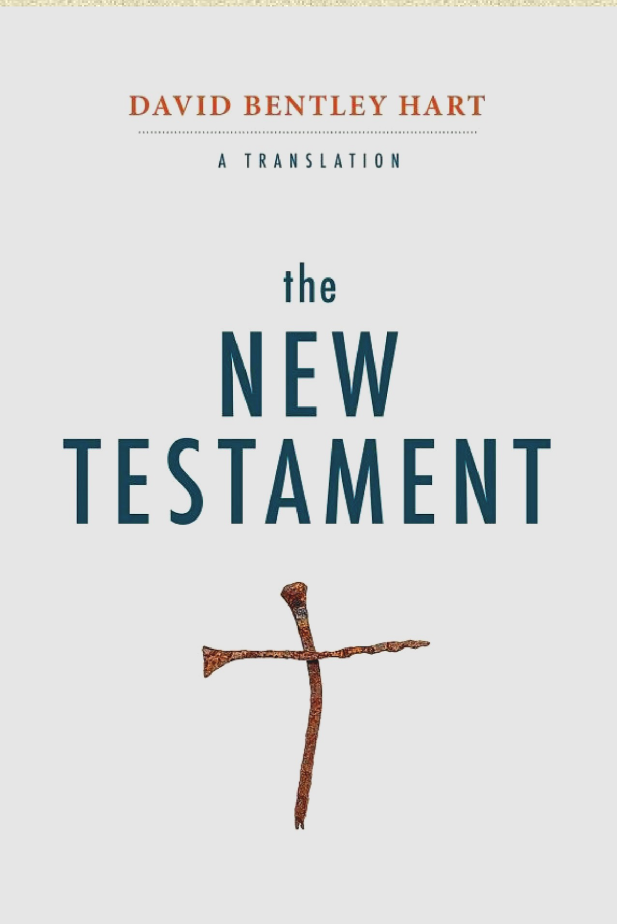
2017

The New Testament

New Haven and London: Yale University Press

David Bentley Hart

and the Logos was god



The Gospel According to John

CHAPTER ONE

[1]In the origin there was the Logos, and the Logos was present with God,[a] and the Logos was god; [2]This one was present with God in the origin. [3]All things came to be through him, and without him came to be not a single thing that has come to be. [4]In him was life, and this life was the light of men. [5]And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not conquer it. [6]There came a man, sent by GOD, whose name was John; [7]This man came in witness, that he might testify about a. To understand my translation of the first eighteen verses of the Gospel, the reader should refer to "A Note on the Prologue of John's Gospel" in my postscript to this volume. Here in the Gospel's prologue, as well as in the closing verses of chapter twenty below, I adopt the typographical convention of the capital G followed by small capitals to indicate where the Greek speaks of ὁ θεός (ho theos), which clearly means God in the fullest and most unequivocal sense, and I use one capital letter followed by two lowercase letters to indicate where the Greek speaks only of θεός (theos) without the article; but, to make the matter more confusing, I have indicated three uses of the word without article (vv. 6, 12, and 13), all concerning the relation between the divine and the created, in all small capitals, to indicate that it is not clear in these instances whether the distinction in forms is still operative, and whether the inarticular form of the noun is being used simply of God as related to creatures through his Logos. And then, in v. 18, I assume the first use of the inarticular form of theos still refers to God in the fullest sense, God the Father, though again the clause in question concerns the relation of creatures to the divine.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=kmo3DwAAQBAJ

186

2017[?]

POLISH

Biblia Mesjańska (revision of s.c. Biblia warszawska) version 1.5, html

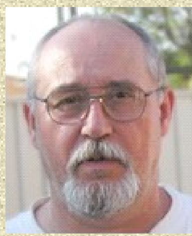
Henryk Kubik



and the thought was of God

a myśl była Boża

http://www.bibliamesjanska.com/J/1.html

187

2017?

PORTUGUESE

Brit Hadashah. Aliança Renovada Ketuvim Netzarim

Brasil

Ivonil Ferreira de Carvalho - Diná Soares

and the Living Instruction was the essence of YAHVEH יהוה

e a Instrução Vivendo era a essência YAHVEH יהוה

YAHCHANAM - JOÃO

A Besorah de Yahshuah HaMashyah

Yahchanam –יחנעם-João

1 Beresheeth era a Miltha, e a Instrução Vivendo, e a Instrução Vivendo estava com YAHVEH יהוה, e a Instrução Vivendo era a essência YAHVEH יהוה
2 O mesmo estava no princípio com YAHVEH יהוה
3 Todas as coisas foram feitas com Ele; e sem Ele nada se fez, do que foi feito.
4 Nele estava à vida; e a vida era a ôr (luz) dos homens.
5 E a ôr (luz) resplandece nas trevas; e as trevas não asobrepuja.
6 Houve um homem enviado por YAHVEH יהוה, cujo nome era Yahchanam.
7 O mesmo veio para servir de testemunho, para dar testemunho da ôr (luz), para que todos os homens por Ele pudessem crer.
8 Não era esta a ôr (luz), mas foi enviado para dar testemunho desta ôr (luz).
9 Esta era a ôr (luz) emet (verdadeira), que ilumina todo homem que vem ao olam hazeh (mundo atual).
10 Ele estava no olam hazeh (mundo atual), e o olam hazeh foi feito por Ele, e o olam hazeh não O conheceu.
11 Ele veio para os Seus, e os Seus não O receberam.
12 Mas a tantos quantos O receberam, Ele lhes deu poder de se tornarem filhos de YAHVEH יהוה, a saber, aos que creem em Seu Nome:
13 Que não nasceram do sangue, nem da vontade da carne, nem da vontade do homem, mas de YAHVEH יהוה
14 E a Instrução Vivendo se fez carne, e habitou entre nós, e nós vimos a Sua Sh`khinah (xerriná) do unigênito nascido do Abba (pai), cheio do favor imerecido e emet (verdade).
15 Yahchanam dá testemunho dEle, e clama, dizendo: Este é Aquele de quem eu falava O que vem atrás de mim é mais preferível adiante de mim: porque Ele já existia antes de mim.
16 E da Sua plenitude, todos nós recebemos favor imerecido sobre favor imerecido.
17 Porque a Instrução foi dada por Mehshuah (Moisés); o favor imerecido e a emet (verdade) vieram por Yahshuah hamashyah יהשועה המשיעה.
18 Ninguém viu o Abba (pai) a qualquer tempo; o Filho unigênito gerado, que está no seio do Abba (pai), Ele no-lo-tem declarado.

O testemunho de Yahchanam hamat-bil

19 E este foi o testemunho de Yahchanam quando osYahdim lhe enviaram de Yahshalaym, os Kohanim e os Leviym para perguntá-lo, Quem és tu?
20 E ele confessou, e não negou; mas confessou, Eu não sou o Mashyah.
21 E lhe perguntaram, Quem és então? És tu ULyahu? E ele disse, Não sou. És tu Ha Naviy? E ele respondeu: Não.
22 Então, lhe disseram eles, Quem és tu? Para que nós possamos dar uma resposta àqueles que nos enviaram. Que dizes acerca de ti mesmo?
23 Ele disse, Eu sou a voz do que clama no deserto, Fazei justo o Derech (caminho) do Soberano YAHVEH יהוה, como disse o naviy (profeta) Yahshayahu (Isa-40:3)

188

2018?

Habrit Hakhadasha/Haderekh (HHH)

(do not confuse with Hebrew version הדרך Haderekh, 1979)

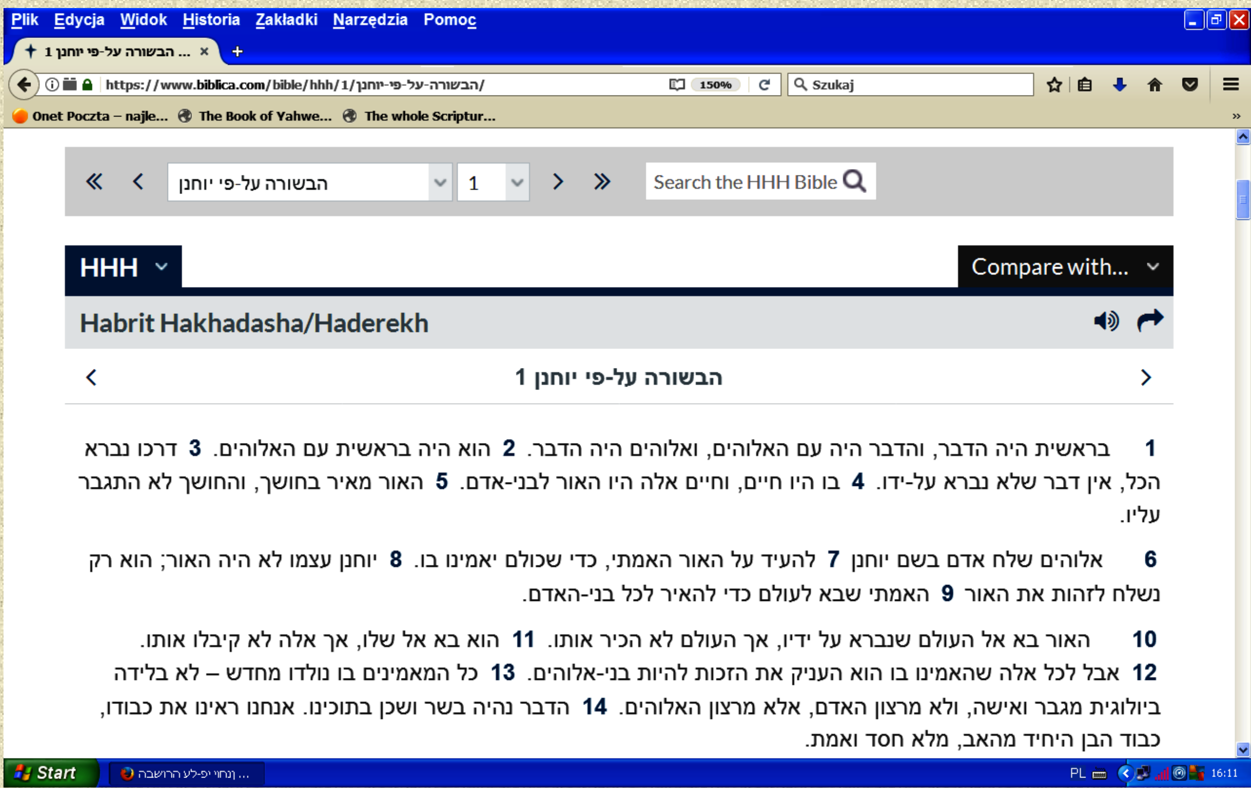
html

Biblica – International Bible Society, USA

?

and a god was the Word

ואלוהים היה הדבר



https://www.biblica.com/bible/hhh/1/הבשורה-על-פי-יוחנן/

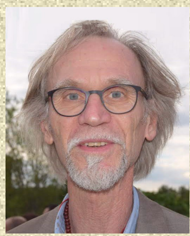
189

2018

FRENCH

“Evangile de Jean, prologue, chap. I, versets 1-5.
Questions d’interprétation.”

Michel Caubet



because divine was the word

car divin était le verbe

Evangile de Jean, prologue, chap. I, versets 1-5.

Questions d’interprétation.

Versets 1-5 : « Au commencement était le verbe ; or le verbe était en accord avec Dieu, car divin était le verbe.

Voilà ce qu’il était, au commencement : en accord avec Dieu.

Tout fut engendré par son intermédiaire, et sans lui rien n’aurait pu exister. Ce qui se manifesta alors/en lui, c’était un principe de vie, et la vie était la lumière des hommes.

Et la lumière brille dans les ténèbres, car les ténèbres ne l’ont pas arrêtée. »

Le premier verset forme une seule phrase en trois parties, qui a une allure de syllogisme (raisonnement en trois étapes qui s’enchaînent logiquement). Donc il faut être très attentif à la démarche logique, sans a priori théologique sur le sens du texte. Simplement regarder le texte tel qu’il est écrit, en observant sa logique interne. C’est ce que la plupart des traducteurs ont le plus grand mal à faire, soit par méconnaissance de la langue grecque, soit parce qu’ils arrivent avec des présupposés théologiques qui leur font fausser le sens du texte.

Ἐν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ Λόγος, καὶ ὁ Λόγος ἦν πρὸς τὸν Θεόν, καὶ Θεὸς ἦν ὁ Λόγος.

« Au commencement était le verbe ; or le verbe était en accord avec Dieu, car le verbe était d’essence divine. »

Examinons donc chacun des trois termes du syllogisme :

Ἐν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ Λόγος « Au commencement était le verbe ». On peut remarquer que les deux premiers mots sont les mêmes que ceux de l’Ancien Testament « Au commencement, Dieu créa le ciel et la terre. » Le point de départ est le même : il est question de l’origine des temps, ou de l’espace-temps plus exactement. Mais la démarche de Jean est en rupture avec l’Ancien Testament car :

- La Genèse présente un mythe cosmogonique. Il y a un acteur, un « grand architecte », des termes concrets, une séquence narrative, des personnages, une chronologie (les 7 jours).
- L’Évangile présente une spéculation philosophique, métaphysique ; Jean emploie des termes abstraits, il n’y a pas de chronologie, ni de cadre narratif.

Il y a donc clairement deux démarches différentes : l’une mythique, l’autre philosophique. C’est une véritable rupture avec l’Ancien Testament.

Une notion difficile, celle de logos. « Le verbe » La traduction généralement adoptée est bonne, car traduire par exemple par « parole » appauvrirait le sens. Certes il peut y avoir une https://www.academia.edu/40631661/Evangile_de_Jean_prologue

190

2018

SPANISH

La Sagrada Escritura: Versión del Nombre Divino

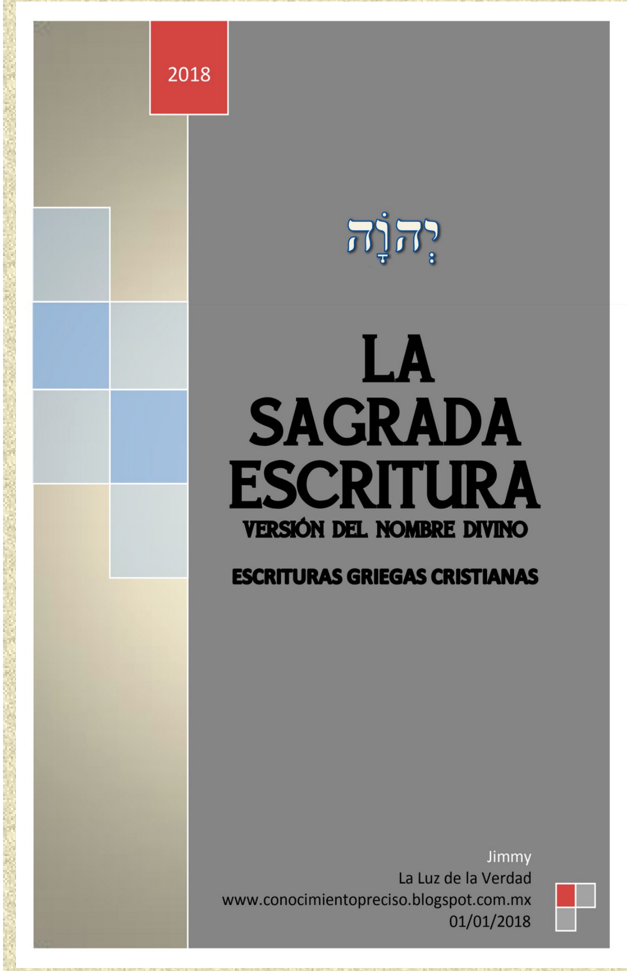
Escrituras Griegas Cristianas

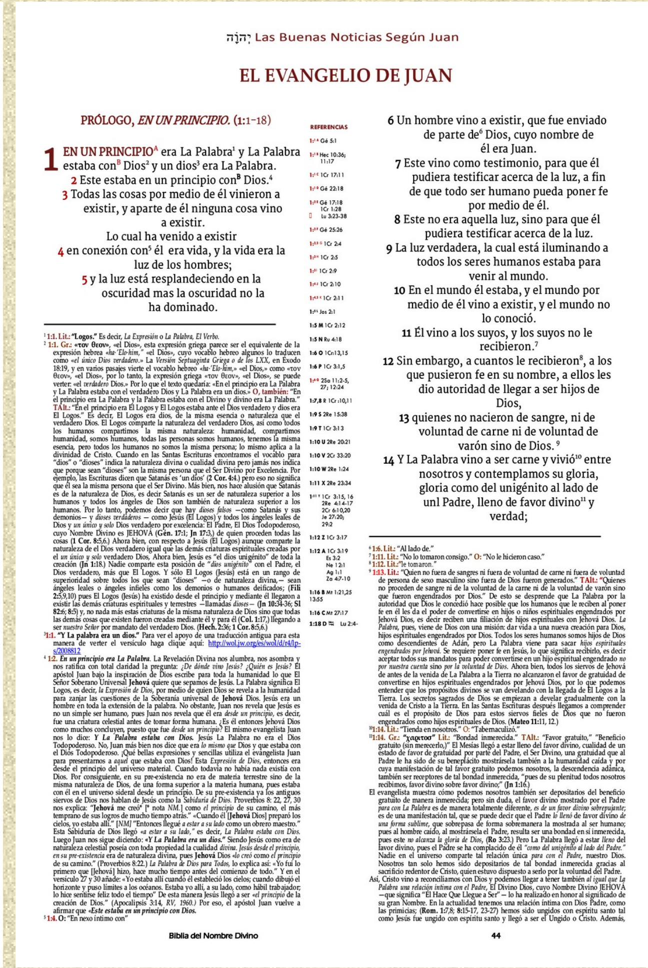
PDF (yet not finished), Mexico

Jimmy Peraza

and a god was The Word

y un dios era La Palabra





https://drive.google.com/file/d/1Tab8i9c60Z6pry1QeYFqSNutjZ3D1rZh/view

191

2018

SPANISH

Sagrada Escritura: Kitbé - HaKodesh - Ha Torah Ha יהוה

Kajal Yisraelita de Yahshua Shiló

PDF

Yhemaelh Zeev

and the Davar was mighty

y la Davar era poderosa

"KAJAL YISRAELITA DE YAHSHUA SHILÓ"
סילו ישראל ממלכת כנסת בית

SAGRADA ESCRITURA

KITBÉ
HAKODESH
HA TORAH
HA
יהוה

"KAJAL YISRAELITA DE YAHSHUA SHILÓ"
סילו ישראל ממלכת כנסת בית

YONAHAN

1 1. Bereshit [En el principio] era la Davar, y la Davar estaba con Ha-Elohe YAHWEH/יהוה y la Davar era poderosa. 2. el era en el principio con HaElohe YAHWEH/יהוה. 3. Todas las cosas fueron hechas por él. ; y sin él. nada fue hecho, que no haya sido hecho. 4. En él estaba la jayim, y la jayim era la Luz de los hombres. 5. Y la Luz brilla en la oscuridad; y la oscuridad no prevaleció. 6. Hubo un hombre enviado por YAHWEH/יהוה, cuyo nombre era Yonahan. 7. Este vino como testigo, para testificar de la Or, a fin de que todos creyeran por medio de él. 8. Yonahan no era la Or, sino para que diese testimonio de la Luz. 9. Aquélera la Or de emet, que alumbra a todo hombre que viene al olam hazeh. 10. En el olam hazeh estuvo, y el olam hazeh fue hecho por medio de el, y el olam hazeh no Le conoció. 11. A los Suyos vino, y los Suyos no le recibieron.

12. Pero a todos los que le recibieron, les dio potestad de llegar a ser hijos de Elohe YAHWEH/יהוה 13. Que no nacieron de dahm/sangre, ni de la voluntad de la carne, ni de la voluntad del hombre, sino de Elohe YAHWEH/יהוה. 14. La Davar [Torah] fue hecha carne, y habitó entre nosotros, y vimos su tifereth, la tifereth como del únigenito de Avinu, lleno de favor inmerecido y de emet. 15. Yonahan dio testimonio de él y clamó, diciendo, Éste era del que yo decía, él que viene después de mí, es antes de mí, porque era primero que yo. 16. De Su plenitud todos hemos recibido, favor inmerecido sobre favor inmerecido. 17. Porque la Torah fue dada por medio de Moshé; su favor inmerecido y emet vinieron por medio de YAHSHUA/יהשע HaMashiaj. 18. Ningun hombre ha visto nunca a Avi; el Hijo Unigénito, que estába en el seno del AVRAHAM, lo ha declarado. 19. Este es el testimonio de Yonahan, cuando los Yehudim enviaron kohanim/sacerdote y Leviim de Yahrusalaim a preguntarle, ¿Tú, quién eres 20. Confesó, y no negó; pero confesó: Yo no soy HaMashiaj. 21. Le preguntaron, ¿Entonces, qué ¿Eres Eliyah Y él dijo, No soy. ¿Eres Ha Navii/profeta Y respondió, No. 22. Entonces le dijeron, ¿Quién eres Para que podamos dar respuesta a los que nos enviaron. ¿Qué dices de ti mismo 23. Yonahan dijo, Yo soy la voz del que clama en el midbar, Enderezad el derech de YAHWEH/יהוה como dijo el navii/profeta Yeshayah. 24. Los que habían sido enviados eran de los Prushim. 25. le dijeron, ¿Por qué estás hacienda mikvEL, si tú no eres el Mashiah, ni Eliyah, ni Ha Navii/profeta 26. Yonahan les respondió, diciendo, Yo hago mikvah con mayim, pero está Uno entre ustedes, a quien no conocen; 27. El es el que viene [ ] después de mí y es preferido antes de mi, del cual yo no soy digno de desatar Sus sandalias. 28. Estas cosas acontecieron en BELh-Bara, al otro lado del Yarden, donde Yonahan estaba haciendo mikvah. 29. Al día siguiente Yonahan vio a que venía hacia él, y dijo, He ahí el Cordero de YAHWEH/יהוה que quita la transgresión del olam hazeh. 30. Este

1910

Ed. of 31 January :

1:1 En el principio existía el Portador de la Davar (Palabra), y el Portador de la Davar estaba con Yahweh Elohé, y el Portador de la Davar (Palabra) era Poderoso.

https://caminoayahweh.org/descargas/Kitbé HaKodesh Impresa Restaurada 5994 .pdf

2018

SPANISH

Nuevo Testamento Israelita Nazareno* (NTIN) (Ed. 1)

Ministerio Betzalel

Yosef Elidad ben Avraham

and the Word was with the Elohim, and Elohim was the Word

y la Palabra era con el Elohim, y Elohim era la Palabra

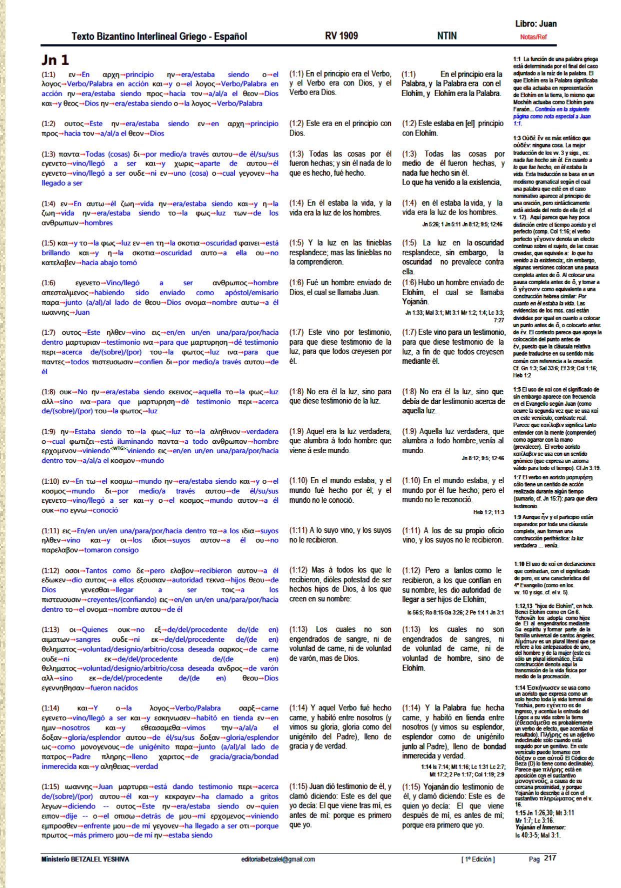
Jn 1

(1:1) εν→En αρχη→principio ην→era/estaba siendo ο→el λογος→Verbo/Palabra en acción και→y ο→el λογος→Verbo/Palabra en acción ην→era/estaba siendo προς→hacia τον→a/al/a el θεον→Dios και→y θεος→Dios ην→era/estaba siendo ο→la λογος→Verbo/Palabra	(1:1) En el principio era el Verbo, y el Verbo era con Dios, y el Verbo era Dios.	(1:1) En el principio era la Palabra, y la Palabra era con el Elohím, y Elohím era la Palabra.	1:1 La función de una palabra griega está determinada por el final del caso adjuntado a la raíz de la palabra. El que Elohím era la Palabra significaba que ella actuaba en representación de Elohím en la tierra, lo mismo que Moshéh actuaba como Elohím para Faraón... Continúa en la siguiente página como nota especial a Juan 1:1.
(1:2) ουτος→Este ην→era/estaba siendo εν→en αρχη→principio	(1:2) Este era en el principio con	(1:2) Este estaba en [el] principio



https://drive.google.com/file/d/1bvhsnevqzHAydaU5kUB-2fm9YgeW0tNy/view?usp=drivesdk

2018
The Hebrew Names 'Plus' Version of the B'rit Chadashah (the "New" Testament)
html (last update 15 Jan 2018)
revision of The World Messianic Bible
?

v'hu ha-davar hayah mighty and_this słowo was

Please see the INTRODUCTION for important information regarding this project.
The HNPV is a work in progress and is nowhere near complete. Please check back periodically.
Shalom.

HA-B'SORAH HA-K'DOSHAH AL-PI YOCHANAN
The Glad Tidings According to (lit. at the mouth of) John Brief notes on Hebrew pronunciation and translation can be found at GLOSSARY

[♦] See FOOTNOTES

PEREQ א
CHAPTER 1

1:1 B'reishit hayah ha-davar v'ha-davar hayah et ha-Elohim v'hu ha-davar hayah mighty.[1-1] [2] The same was b'reishit with Elohim. [3] All things were made through[1-3] him. Without him was not anything made that has been made. [4] In him was chayyim, v'ha-chayyim was or b'nei ha-adam. [5] Ha-or shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it.

1:6 There came a man, sent from Elohim, u'sh'mo Yochanan. [7] The same came as a witness, that he might testify

http://webbpage-hnpv.com/HNPV/books.html

194

2018

Clarified King James Bible

html (Ed. 1: 2009)

Hall V. Worthington

version 1.15.7 April 21, 2021:

and the Word was god

Clarified King James Bible (all green text and note superscripts are clickable) Go to Bible Index Page Keyword Search

John 1

Next Chapter

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was god.[1] [Christ is the Word of God; his name is the word of God. The Bible is not the Word; the Bible is scriptures. "The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning. Then I was by him, as one brought up with him; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him." Pro 8:22-30.]

2 The same was in the beginning with God. [The Word, who dwelled with God in the beginning, stepped out to become Jesus, the firstborn in the dimension of the new creation. "I came out from the Father. I came forth from the Father." John 16:27-28; and He possesses all the fullness of the Father, is the only visible representation of the Father, (the invisible God), and is the only begotten Son, (all other sons of God are adopted).]

3 All things were made by him; and there was nothing made without him. [him is Jesus.]

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.[2] [The word, who is Jesus, is the life of God and the light of men. Christ is the light of men: the true light that enlightens every man who comes into the world, given to them so that they might believe. John 1:7,9. The life of God in measure to control men was lost for all men when Adam disobeyed God and fell. When you have crucified your sinful, selfish life and are afterward restored to the righteousness and holiness of God's image, Christ, then you live in Christ, and Christ lives in you, controlling all your words and deeds; and this life is then eternal. Eternal life is to be a new creature in Christ on earth and forever.]

5 The light shines in the darkness; and the darkness did not comprehend it.[3] [The light of the Word, Christ, shines in the darkness of men's hearts, but men do not understand that it is Christ, gently and anonymously reasoning with them, attempting to reprove them for their evil ways. Eph 5:13. If men believe what Christ tells them, they believe and love the truth, but if they deny the reasoning, loving their selfish, evil ways, they hate the truth and light, who is Christ. Peter told believers: "we have the more sure prophetic word [the word in your heart]; to which you do well to pay attention, as to a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star [Jesus] rises in your hearts;" 2 Pet 1:19.]

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. [John the Baptist was sent to prepare the way for the Light.]

https://www.hallvworthington.com/getverses.php?search=John 1;&version=160

195

2018

SPANISH

La Biblia Moderna en Español

html

Hall V. Worthington

version 1.15.7 April 21, 2021:

and the Word was god

y el Verbo era dios

La Biblia Moderna en Español, (haga clic en el texto en verde) Ir al índice de la biblia Búsqueda de palabra clave

Juan 1

Próximo Capítulo

1 En el principio era el Verbo, y el Verbo era con Dios, y el Verbo era dios.[1] [Cristo es el Verbo (la Palabra) de Dios; su nombre es el Verbo de Dios. La Biblia no es el Verbo ni la palabra; la Biblia es las escrituras. "Jehovah me poseyó en el comienzo de su camino. Desde la eternidad fui establecido, desde el principio. Con él estaba yo como uno que fue criado por él, y era su delicia de día en día, regocijándome siempre ante él." Prov 8:22-30.]

2 Él era en el principio con Dios. [La Palabra, que habitaba con Dios en el comienzo, se salió para convertirse en Jesús, el primogénito en la dimensión de la nueva creación. "Yo he salido de Dios... Yo salí del Padre." Juan 16:27-28; Jesús posee toda la plenitud del Padre, es la única representación visible del Padre (el Dios invisible), y es el Hijo unigénito, (todos los otros hijos de Dios son adoptados).]

3 Todas las cosas fueron hechas por medio de él, y sin él no fue hecho nada de lo que ha sido hecho. [él es Jesús.]

4 En él estaba la vida, y la vida era la luz de los hombres.[2] [La palabra, que es Jesús, es la vida de Dios y la luz de los hombres. Cristo es la luz de los hombres: la luz verdadera que ilumina a cada hombre que viene al mundo, dado a ellos para que puedan creer. Juan 1: 7,9. La vida de Dios en medida para controlar a los hombres se perdió para todos los hombres cuando Adán desobedeció a Dios y cayó. Cuando usted ha crucificado su vida pecaminosa y egoísta y es restaurado a la justicia y la santidad de la imagen de Dios, Cristo — usted vive en Cristo, Cristo vive en usted, controlando todas sus palabras y hechos; y esta vida es entonces eterna. La vida eterna es ser una nueva criatura en Cristo sobre la tierra y para siempre.]

5 La luz resplandece en las tinieblas, y las tinieblas no la comprendieron.[3] [La luz de la Palabra, Cristo, brilla en la oscuridad de los corazones de los hombres, pero los hombres no entienden que es Cristo, razonando con ellos de manera amable y anónima, intentando reprenderlos por sus caminos impíos. Efe 5:13. Si los hombres creen lo que Cristo les dice, ellos creen y aman la verdad, pero si niegan el razonamiento, amando sus caminos egoístas e impíos, ellos odian la verdad y la luz, quien es Cristo. Pedro le dijo a los creyentes: "tenemos la palabra profética [la palabra en su corazón] que es aun más firme. Hacéis bien en estar atentos a ella, como a una antorcha que alumbra en lugar oscuro, hasta el día esclarezca y el lucero de la mañana [Jesús] se levante en vuestros corazones." 2 Ped 1:19.]

6 Hubo un hombre, enviado por Dios, que se llamaba Juan. [Juan el Bautista fue enviado para preparar el camino para la Luz.]

https://www.hallvworthington.com/getverses.php?search=John 1;&version=151

196

2018

FRENCH

La Bible Darby Clarifiée

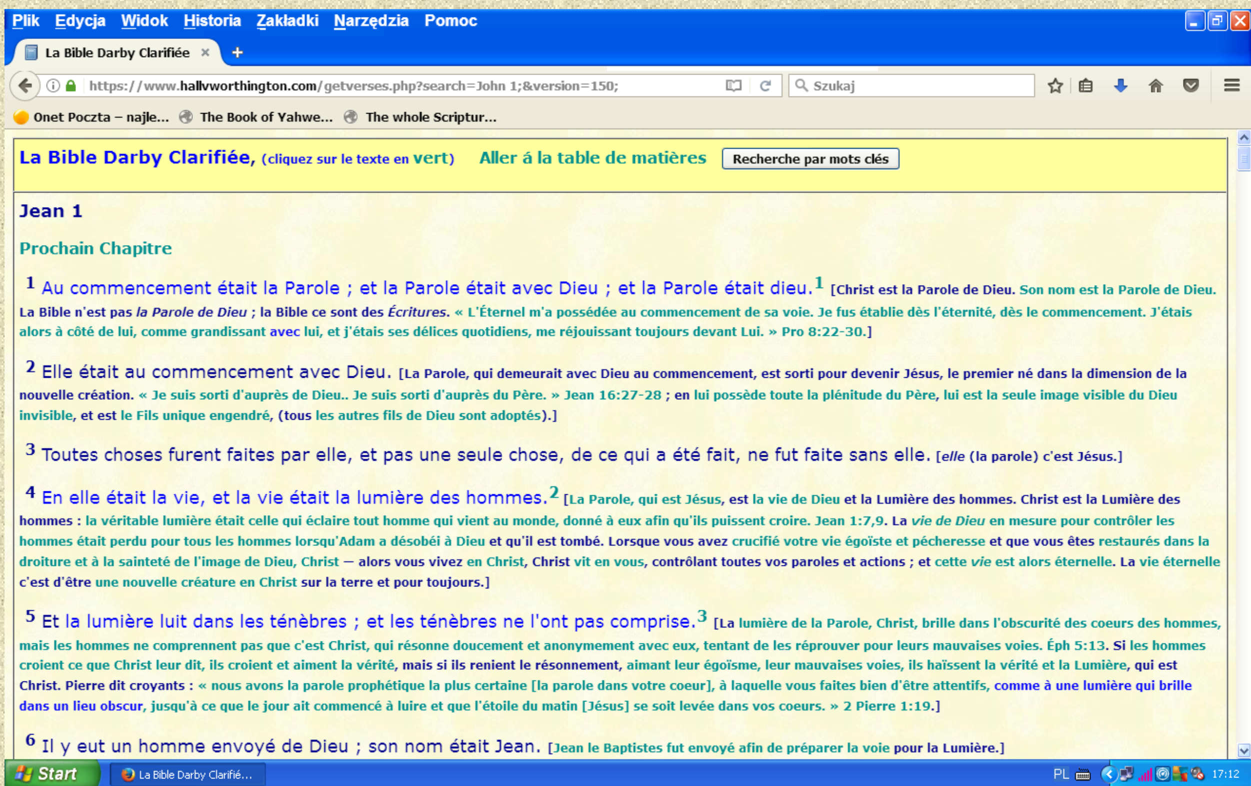
html

Hall V. Worthington

version 1.15.7 April 21, 2021:

and the Word was god

et la Parole était dieu



Plik Edycja Widok Historia Zakładki Narzędzia Pomoc

La Bible Darby Clarifiée

https://www.hallvworthington.com/getverses.php?search=John 1;&version=150;

Onet Poczta – najle... The Book of Yahwe... The whole Scriptur...

La Bible Darby Clarifiée, (cliquez sur le texte en vert) Aller á la table de matières Recherche par mots clés

Jean 1

Prochain Chapitre

1 Au commencement était la Parole ; et la Parole était avec Dieu ; et la Parole était dieu.[1] [Christ est la Parole de Dieu. Son nom est la Parole de Dieu. La Bible n'est pas la Parole de Dieu ; la Bible ce sont des Écritures. « L'Éternel m'a possédée au commencement de sa voie. Je fus établie dès l'éternité, dès le commencement. J'étais alors à côté de lui, comme grandissant avec lui, et j'étais ses délices quotidiens, me réjouissant toujours devant Lui. » Pro 8:22-30.]

2 Elle était au commencement avec Dieu. [La Parole, qui demeurait avec Dieu au commencement, est sorti pour devenir Jésus, le premier né dans la dimension de la nouvelle création. « Je suis sorti d'auprès de Dieu.. Je suis sorti d'auprès du Père. » Jean 16:27-28 ; en lui possède toute la plénitude du Père, lui est la seule image visible du Dieu invisible, et est le Fils unique engendré, (tous les autres fils de Dieu sont adoptés).]

3 Toutes choses furent faites par elle, et pas une seule chose, de ce qui a été fait, ne fut faite sans elle. [elle (la parole) c'est Jésus.]

4 En elle était la vie, et la vie était la lumière des hommes.[2] [La Parole, qui est Jésus, est la vie de Dieu et la Lumière des hommes. Christ est la Lumière des hommes : la véritable lumière était celle qui éclaire tout homme qui vient au monde, donné à eux afin qu'ils puissent croire. Jean 1:7,9. La vie de Dieu en mesure pour contrôler les hommes était perdu pour tous les hommes lorsqu'Adam a désobéi à Dieu et qu'il est tombé. Lorsque vous avez crucifié votre vie égoïste et pécheresse et que vous êtes restaurés dans la droiture et à la sainteté de l'image de Dieu, Christ — alors vous vivez en Christ, Christ vit en vous, contrôlant toutes vos paroles et actions ; et cette vie est alors éternelle. La vie éternelle c'est d'être une nouvelle créature en Christ sur la terre et pour toujours.]

5 Et la lumière luit dans les ténèbres ; et les ténèbres ne l'ont pas comprise.[3] [La lumière de la Parole, Christ, brille dans l'obscurité des coeurs des hommes, mais les hommes ne comprennent pas que c'est Christ, qui résonne doucement et anonymement avec eux, tentant de les réprouver pour leurs mauvaises voies. Éph 5:13. Si les hommes croient ce que Christ leur dit, ils croient et aiment la vérité, mais si ils renient le résonnement, aimant leur égoïsme, leur mauvaises voies, ils haïssent la vérité et la Lumière, qui est Christ. Pierre dit croyants : « nous avons la parole prophétique la plus certaine [la parole dans votre coeur], à laquelle vous faites bien d'être attentifs, comme à une lumière qui brille dans un lieu obscur, jusqu'à ce que le jour ait commencé à luire et que l'étoile du matin [Jésus] se soit levée dans vos coeurs. » 2 Pierre 1:19.]

6 Il y eut un homme envoyé de Dieu ; son nom était Jean. [Jean le Baptistes fut envoyé afin de préparer la voie pour la Lumière.]

Start La Bible Darby Clarifié... PL 17:12

https://www.hallvworthington.com/getverses.php?search=John 1;&version=150

197

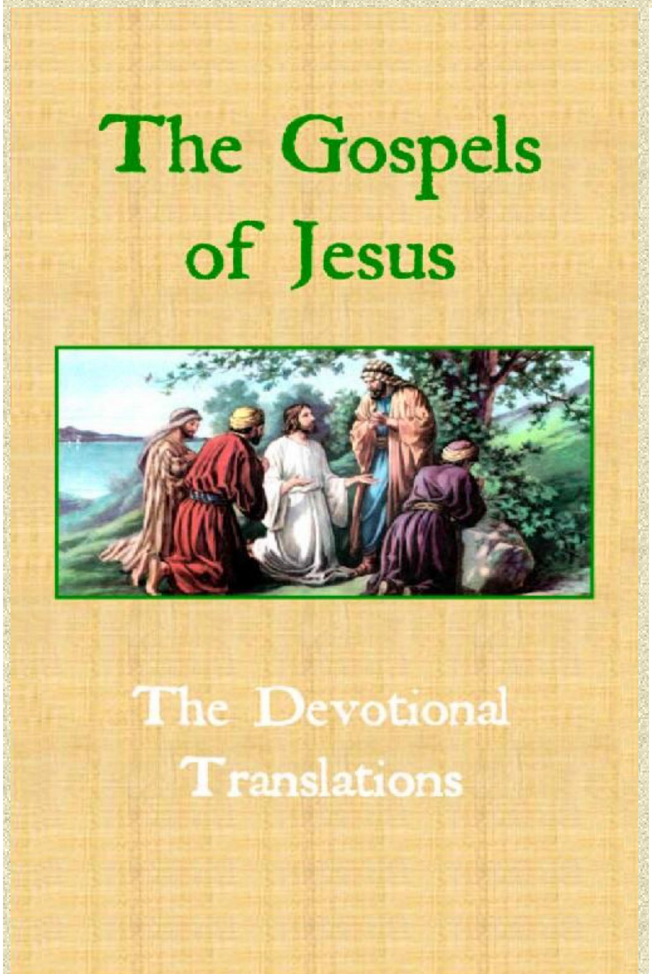
2018

The Gospels of Jesus:
The Devotional Translations

Actual Truth Publishing, USA

translator anonymous

and Wisdom was of God



Gospel of John Chapter One

1:1 In the beginning there was Wisdom,[A] and Wisdom was with God, and Wisdom was of God.

1:2 It was with God in the beginning.

1:3 All things were created through it; and nothing was created without it.

1:4 In it was life, and this life provided light for all persons.

1:5 This light shines in the darkness, yet the darkness cannot possess it.

1:6 There was a person sent from God whose name was John.

1:7 He appeared to witness and testify about this light, so that all might believe through him.

1:8 He was not the light itself; but he came to testify about the light.

1:9 The actual light that appears in the world enlightens every person.

1:10 It was in the physical universe, and though the physical universe was made from it, the physical universe did not know it.

1:11 It appeared on its own, but on its own it was not accepted.

1:12 But among those who accepted it, those who trusted in His Name were given the right to become children of God—

1:13 children born not of the physical family, nor of the desires of the physical body, but born from the Creator.[B]

1:14 Wisdom appeared within a physical body and dwelled among us. We saw its magnificence – the magnificence of the Confidential[C] Representative sent by the Creator – full of loving mercy and truth.

1:15 John testified concerning him. He cried out, saying, "This is the one I spoke about when I said, 'A man with more authority comes after me because he has surpassed me.' "

1:16 From his fullness we have received, indeed mercy upon mercy.

1:17 For instruction came from Moses; loving mercy and truth

295 https://gumroad.com/l/gospels

198

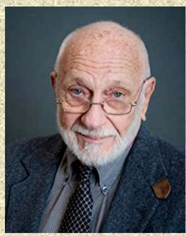
2018

The Millenial Truth Fusion Version of the Holy Bible.

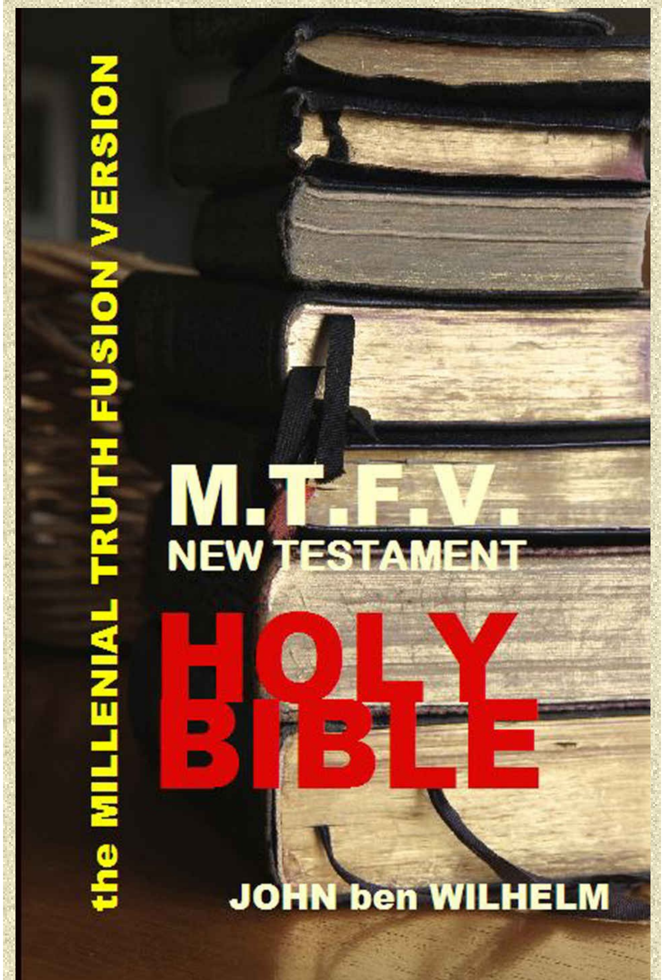
New Testament Christian Greek Scriptures

Author's publication, USA

John ben Wilhelm



and he himself was a god



The BOOK OF JOHN

The last of four books designated "Gospels". The book of John is attributed to one of the twelve apostles of Jesus Christ. He was a son of Zebedee and the fleshly brother of James a fellow apostle. John is referred to as the one Christ loved at John 21:7 thereby inferring a special relationship with Christ which is not mentioned in connection with the other apostles. While John never refers to himself directly probably out of his earnest humility, the book itself, especially its concluding words leave little mystery who the writer was. John's writings are particularly interesting in that they occurred after the Apostolic church was well established and after the city of Jerusalem had been destroyed in 70CE.

While the other three gospels portray Jesus as the King, the Servant, and the Son of Man, John portrays Jesus as the Son of God. John states his theme more clearly than any of the other gospel writers. The purpose of this gospel, which contains first-hand knowledge John himself experienced or was personally aware of, as stated by John himself, is so that readers might "believe that Jesus is the Christ, (anointed or Messiah), the Son of God," so that they may have life in His name (John 20:31). In this book John makes a direct link between the nature of God and the nature of the Logos, Jesus Christ.

JOHN 1:1 IN THE beginning (before our time), was the Logos (Christ), and the Logos was with GOD, and he himself was a god. (Isa. 9:6.) 2 He was there with GOD in the beginning. 3 And with this Logos, GOD created all things. Nothing was made without the Logos. Everything that was created 4 received its life from him, and his life gave light to everyone. 5 And that Light shines on in the darkness, for the darkness has never overpowered it (put it out.)

6 There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. (Mal. 3:1.) 7 who came to tell about the light and to lead people to have faith. 8 John wasn't that light. He came only to tell about the light. 9 The true light was still coming into the world. This is the one who comes to enlighten all people. 10 He came into the world, (the system of things on earth) and though the world was made through Him, the world did not recognize Him 11 He came to that which belonged to Him (to His own–His domain, creation, things, world), yet they who were his own did not accept him and did not welcome Him. 12 Some, however, did accept him and placed their faith in him; so, he gave them the

468

https://www.scribd.com/document/400339217/mtfv-n

199

2018
The Honored Injil:
Translated and adapted from the Arabic Al-Injil version 10.2, Dar Al-Ilm
Mohammed Abdullah

and the Word is the essence of Allah

The Good News of John [1314]

In the name of Allah Most Gracious and Merciful

Jn 1

The Word[1315] was in eternity past. The Word was with Allah,[1316] and the Word is the essence of Allah.[1317] 1 He was in eternity past with Allah. 2 Everything was created through the Word.[1318] Everything that Allah created was created through him. 3 In the Word was life, and that life was the light of the universe.[1319] 4 The light dawns[1320] in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. 5 Yahya was a rasul from Allah. 6 His message was to give shahada to the light, so that everyone would believe[1321] through his shahada. 7 Yahya himself was not the light. But Allah sent him to give shahada about the light. 8 The true light[1322] which en-

It's not image from paper edition online version:

https://honoredinjil.com/joh/1/

200

2018

PORTUGUESE

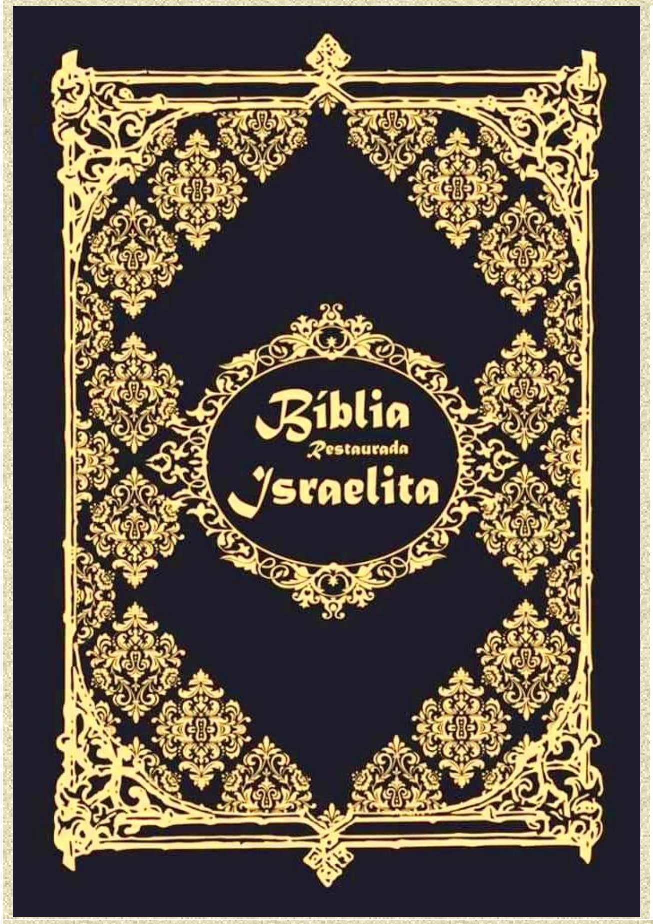
Bíblia Restaurada Israelita

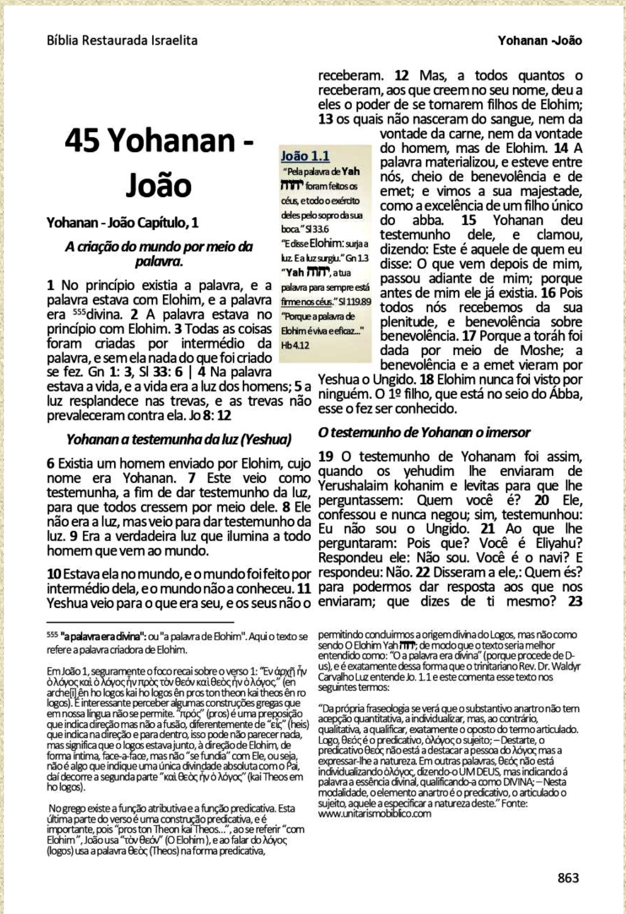
Comunidade Judaica Familia Israelita, Brasil

Eliyahu Pinho (ch. coordinator)

and the word was divine

e a palavra era divina





Bíblia Restaurada Israelita — Yohanan -João

45 Yohanan - João

Yohanan - João Capítulo, 1

A criação do mundo por meio da palavra.

1 No princípio existia a palavra, e a palavra estava com Elohim, e a palavra era [555]divina. 2 A palavra estava no princípio com Elohim. 3 Todas as coisas foram criadas por intermédio da palavra, e sem ela nada do que foi criado se fez. Gn 1: 3, Sl 33: 6 | 4 Na palavra estava a vida, e a vida era a luz dos homens; 5 a luz resplandece nas trevas, e as trevas não prevaleceram contra ela. Jo 8: 12

Yohanan a testemunha da luz (Yeshua)

6 Existia um homem enviado por Elohim, cujo nome era Yohanan. 7 Este veio como testemunha, a fim de dar testemunho da luz, para que todos cressem por meio dele. 8 Ele não era a luz, mas veio para dar testemunho da luz. 9 Era a verdadeira luz que ilumina a todo homem que vem ao mundo.

10 Estava ela no mundo, e o mundo foi feito por intermédio dela, e o mundo não a conheceu. 11 Yeshua veio para o que era seu, e os seus não o receberam. 12 Mas, a todos quantos o receberam, aos que creem no seu nome, deu a eles o poder de se tornarem filhos de Elohim; 13 os quais não nasceram do sangue, nem da vontade da carne, nem da vontade do homem, mas de Elohim. 14 A palavra materializou, e esteve entre nós, cheio de benevolência e de emet; e vimos a sua majestade, como a excelência de um filho único do abba. 15 Yohanan deu testemunho dele, e clamou, dizendo: Este é aquele de quem eu disse: O que vem depois de mim, passou adiante de mim; porque antes de mim ele já existia. 16 Pois todos nós recebemos da sua plenitude, e benevolência sobre benevolência. 17 Porque a toráh foi dada por meio de Moshe; a benevolência e a emet vieram por Yeshua o Ungido. 18 Elohim nunca foi visto por ninguém. O 1º filho, que está no seio do Ábba, esse o fez ser conhecido.

> João 1.1
> "Pela palavra de Yah יהוה foram feitos os céus, e todo o exército deles pelo sopro da sua boca." Sl 33.6
> "E disse Elohim: surja a luz. E a luz surgiu." Gn 1.3
> "Yah יהוה, a tua palavra para sempre está firme nos céus." Sl 119.89
> "Porque a palavra de Elohim é viva e eficaz..." Hb 4.12

O testemunho de Yohanan o imersor

19 O testemunho de Yohanam foi assim, quando os yehudim lhe enviaram de Yerushalaim kohanim e levitas para que lhe perguntassem: Quem você é? 20 Ele, confessou e nunca negou; sim, testemunhou: Eu não sou o Ungido. 21 Ao que lhe perguntaram: Pois que? Você é Eliyahu? Respondeu ele: Não sou. Você é o navi? E respondeu: Não. 22 Disseram a ele,: Quem és? para podermos dar resposta aos que nos enviaram; que dizes de ti mesmo? 23

---

[555] "a palavra era divina": ou "a palavra de Elohim". Aqui o texto se refere a palavra criadora de Elohim.

Em João 1, seguramente o foco recai sobre o verso 1: "Εν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ λόγος καὶ ὁ λόγος ἦν πρὸς τὸν θεόν καὶ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος." (en arche[i] ên ho logos kai ho logos ên pros ton theon kai theos ên ro logos). É interessante perceber algumas construções gregas que em nossa língua não se permite. "πρός" (pros) é uma preposição que indica direção mas não a fusão, diferentemente de "εἰς" (heis) que indica na direção e para dentro, isso pode não parecer nada, mas significa que o logos estava junto, à direção de Elohim, de forma íntima, face-a-face, mas não "se fundia" com Ele, ou seja, não é algo que indique uma única divindade absoluta com o Pai, daí decorre a segunda parte "καὶ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος" (kai Theos em ho logos).

No grego existe a função atributiva e a função predicativa. Esta última parte do verso é uma construção predicativa, e é importante, pois "pros ton Theon kai Theos...", ao se referir "com Elohim", João usa "τὸν θεόν" (O Elohim), e ao falar do λόγος (logos) usa a palavra θεὸς (Theos) na forma predicativa, permitindo concluirmos a origem divina do Logos, mas não como sendo O Elohim Yah יהוה; de modo que o texto seria melhor entendido como: "O a palavra era divina" (porque procede de D-us), e é exatamente dessa forma que o trinitariano Rev. Dr. Waldyr Carvalho Luz entende Jo. 1.1 e este comenta esse texto nos seguintes termos:

"Da própria fraseologia se verá que o substantivo anartro não tem acepção quantitativa, a individualizar, mas, ao contrário, qualitativa, a qualificar, exatamente o oposto do termo articulado. Logo, θεός é o predicativo, ὁλόγος o sujeito; – Destarte, o predicativo θεος não está a destacar a pessoa do λόγος mas a expressar-lhe a natureza. Em outras palavras, θεός não está individualizando ὁλόγος, dizendo-o UM DEUS, mas indicando á palavra a essência divinal, qualificando-a como DIVINA; – Nesta modalidade, o elemento anartro é o predicativo, o articulado o sujeito, aquele a especificar a natureza deste." Fonte: www.unitarismobiblico.com online: http://www.bibliajudaica.com/index.php

863

201

2018

ASANTE TWI (Ghana)

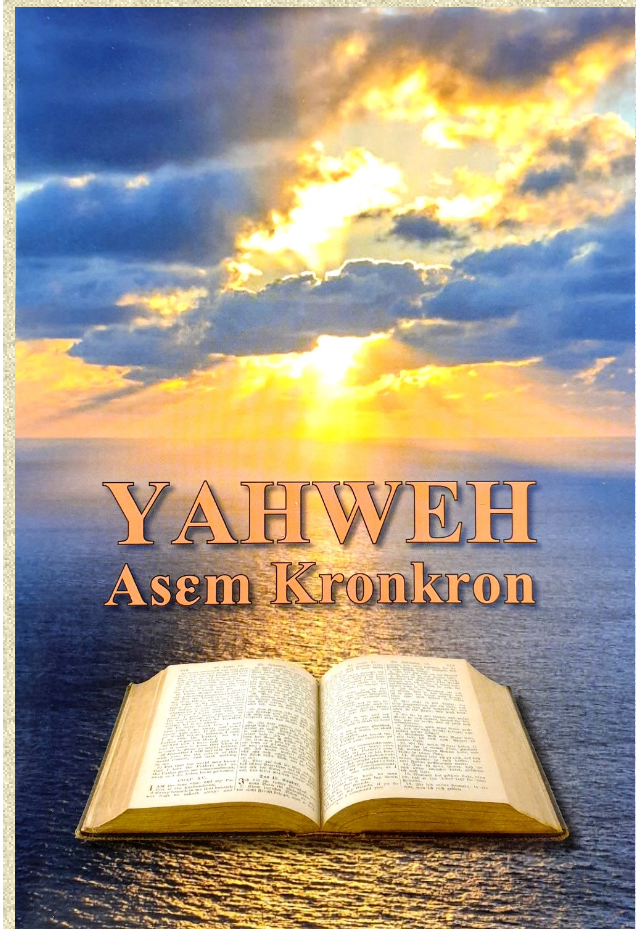
Yahweh Asɛm Kronkron

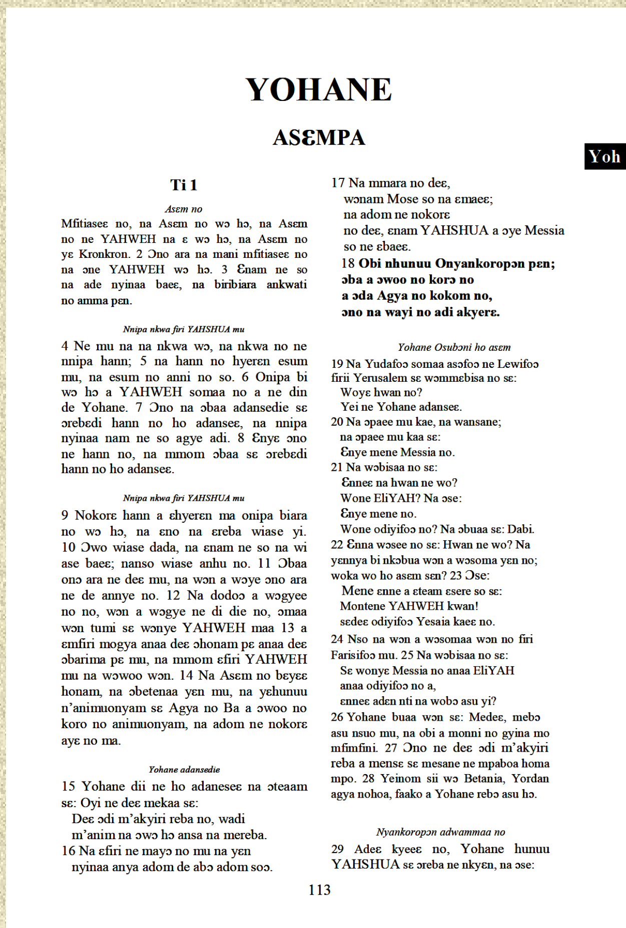
Mantukuwa, Berukum, Ghana

Paul Osei Agyeman

and the Word was Holy

na Asɛm no yɛ Kronkron





YOHANE

ASƐMPA

Yoh

Ti 1

Asɛm no

Mfitiaseɛ no, na Asɛm no wɔ hɔ, na Asɛm no ne YAHWEH na ɛ wɔ hɔ, na Asɛm no yɛ Kronkron. 2 Ɔno ara na mani mfitiaseɛ no na ɔne YAHWEH wɔ hɔ. 3 Ɛnam ne so na ade nyinaa baeɛ, na biribiara ankwati no amma pɛn.

Nnipa nkwa firi YAHSHUA mu

4 Ne mu na na nkwa wɔ, na nkwa no ne nnipa hann; 5 na hann no hyerɛn esum mu, na esum no anni no so. 6 Onipa bi wɔ hɔ a YAHWEH somaa no a ne din de Yohane. 7 Ɔno na ɔbaa adansedie sɛ ɔrebɛdi hann no ho adanseɛ, na nnipa nyinaa nam ne so agye adi. 8 Ɛnyɛ ɔno ne hann no, na mmom ɔbaa sɛ ɔrebɛdi hann no ho adanseɛ.

Nnipa nkwa firi YAHSHUA mu

9 Nokorɛ hann a ɛhyerɛn ma onipa biara no wɔ hɔ, na ɛno na ɛreba wiase yi. 10 Ɔwo wiase dada, na ɛnam ne so na wi ase baeɛ; nanso wiase anhu no. 11 Ɔbaa onɔ ara ne deɛ mu, na wɔn a wɔye ɔno ara ne de annye no. 12 Na dodoɔ a wɔgyee no no, wɔn a wɔgye ne di die no, ɔmaa wɔn tumi sɛ wɔnye YAHWEH maa 13 a ɛmfiri mogya anaa deɛ ɔhonam pɛ anaa deɛ ɔbarima pɛ mu, na mmom ɛfiri YAHWEH mu na wɔwoo wɔn. 14 Na Asɛm no bɛyɛɛ honam, na ɔbetenaa yɛn mu, na yɛhunuu n'animuonyam sɛ Agya no Ba a ɔwoo no koro no animuonyam, na adom ne nokorɛ ayɛ no ma.

Yohane adansedie

15 Yohane dii ne ho adanesɛɛ na ɔteaam sɛ: Oyi ne deɛ mekaa sɛ:
Deɛ ɔdi m'akyiri reba no, wadi
m'anim na ɔwɔ hɔ ansa na mereba.
16 Na ɛfiri ne mayɔ no mu na yɛn
nyinaa anya adom de abɔ adom soɔ.
17 Na mmara no deɛ, wɔnam Mose so na ɛmaeɛ;
na adom ne nokorɛ
no deɛ, ɛnam YAHSHUA a ɔye Messia
so ne ɛbaeɛ.
18 Obi nhunuu Onyankoropɔn pɛn;
ɔba a ɔwoo no korɔ no
a ɔda Agya no kokom no,
ɔno na wayi no adi akyerɛ.

Yohane Osubɔni ho asɛm

19 Na Yudafoɔ somaa asɔfoɔ ne Lewifoɔ firii Yerusalem sɛ wɔmmɛbisa no sɛ:
Woyɛ hwan no?
Yei ne Yohane adanseɛ.
20 Na ɔpaee mu kae, na wansane;
na ɔpaee mu kaa sɛ:
Ɛnye mene Messia no.
21 Na wɔbisaa no sɛ:
Ɛnneɛ na hwan ne wo?
Wone EliYAH? Na ɔse:
Ɛnye mene no.
Wone odiyifoɔ no? Na ɔbuaa sɛ: Dabi.
22 Ɛnna wɔsee no sɛ: Hwan ne wo? Na yɛnnya bi nkɔbua wɔn a wɔsoma yɛn no; woka wo ho asɛm sɛn? 23 Ɔse:
Mene ɛnne a ɛteam ɛsere so sɛ:
Montene YAHWEH kwan!
sɛdeɛ odiyifoɔ Yesaia kaeɛ no.
24 Nso na wɔn a wɔsomaa wɔn no firi Farisifoɔ mu. 25 Na wɔbisaa no sɛ:
Sɛ wonyɛ Messia no anaa EliYAH anaa odiyifoɔ no a,
ɛnneɛ adɛn nti na wobɔ asu yi?
26 Yohane buaa wɔn sɛ: Medeɛ, mebɔ asu nsuo mu, na obi a monni no gyina mo mfimfini. 27 Ɔno ne deɛ ɔdi m'akyiri reba a mensɛ sɛ mesane ne mpaboa homa mpo. 28 Yeinom sii wɔ Betania, Yordan agya nohoa, faako a Yohane rebɔ asu hɔ.

Nyankoropɔn adwammaa no

29 Adeɛ kyeeɛ no, Yohane hunuu YAHSHUA sɛ ɔreba ne nkyɛn, na ɔse:

113

For comparison (Rev 4:8): "Kronkron, kronkron, kronkron ne YAHWEH, yɛn Nyankoropɔn."

See https://www.booklooker.de/Bücher/Asem-Kronkron+Yahweh/id/A02uKWEk01ZZd?zid=v87shfq2r51gbe8hvr0u0jgj96

202

2018

Die Offene Bibel

online/pdf/epub

?

and the Word was god (God, divine) und das Wort war gott (Gott, göttlich)

Johannes

Kapitel 1

[5425] Am Anfang war das Wort, und das Wort war bei Gott, und das Wort war gott (Gott, göttlich). Er (Dieser; Es) war am Anfang bei Gott. Alles ist durch ihn entstanden, und unabhängig von (ohne) ihm ist nicht ein [Ding] entstanden. Was in ihm (durch ihn) entstanden war,[5426] war Leben, und das Leben war das Licht der Menschen – und das Licht scheint in der Dunkelheit, und die Dunkelheit hat es nicht überwunden (verstanden, aufgenommen; kann es nicht überwinden)[5427]. Ein Mensch trat auf (Es war ein Mensch/gab einen Menschen), gesandt von Gott, namens Johannes[5428], der kam als (zum) Zeugnis, um (damit) als Zeuge über das Licht aufzutreten (auszusagen; Zeugnis zu geben; Zeuge zu sein), damit alle durch ihn (es) glauben werden. Er selbst (Jener, der Genannte) war nicht das Licht, vielmehr (sondern) [war es seine Aufgabe], {um} als Zeuge für das Licht aufzutreten (auszusagen über; Zeugnis zu geben; Zeuge zu sein). Das (Es/da war das) wahre Licht, das alle Menschen beleuchtet (erleuchtet, erhellt), kam in (das … kam) in die Welt. Er (es)[5429] war in der Welt, und die Welt ist durch ihn entstanden, aber (und) die Welt erkannte (erkannte an, kannte) ihn nicht. Er kam zu den Seinen (zu/in sein Eigentum), aber (und) die Seinen hießen ihn nicht willkommen (nahmen ihn nicht auf). Aber denjenigen, die ihn aufnahmen (empfingen), gab er das Vorrecht (Erlaubnis, Vollmacht), Kinder Gottes zu werden: denen, die an seinen Namen glaubten (glauben),[5430] die nicht von (aus) Blutes, noch von (aus) fleischlichem Willen, noch von (aus) menschlichem Willen[5431], sondern von (aus) Gott geboren (gezeugt) sind. Und das Wort wurde Fleisch und lebte (wohnte) unter (bei) uns, und wir haben seine Herrlichkeit gesehen, Herrlichkeit wie (als) [die des] einzigartigen (einzigen, eingeborenen) [Sohnes], vom Vater, voller Gnade und Wahrheit. Johannes verbürgte sich für ihn (trat als sein Zeuge auf, bezeugte ihn) und rief die Worte (indem/als er sagte; sagend)[5432]: „Der hier ist es, den ich meinte (von dem ich sagte): »Der nach mir gekommen ist (kommt), ist vor mich gekommen (wichtiger als ich geworden; vor mir entstanden/gewesen; mir voraus), denn er war vor mir.«" Denn von seinem Reichtum (Überfluss, Fülle) haben wir alle [etwas] erhalten: Gnade über ((im Austausch((im Austausch) für) Gnade! Denn das Gesetz ist durch Mose gegeben worden, [doch] die Gnade und die Wahrheit sind

[5425] [Status: Ungeprüft]

[5426] Was in ihm entstanden war „Was entstanden war" (Pf.) gehört noch zu V. 3. Alternativ lässt sich das Ende von V. 3 auch so übersetzen: „unabhängig von ihm ist nicht ein [Ding] entstanden, das entstanden ist." Eine weitere Alternativübersetzung ist möglich: „Was entstanden war, war Leben in ihm/darin war Leben." Die gewählte Übersetzung entspricht den poetischen Merkmalen des Johannesprologs am besten und ist die Verbreitetste (Brown, ²1987, 6f.).

[5427] kann es nicht überwinden So bei Interpretation als gnomischer Aorist.

[5428] namens Johannes W. „Ihm [war der] Name Johannes."

[5429] Er D.h. das Licht, das hier personifiziert ist. Weil das „Licht" im Griechischen (wie im Deutschen) neutral ist und viele neutrale Pronomina den maskulinen entsprechen, kann Johannes lange zweideutig formulieren. Erst mit „ihn" in V. 10 und 11 wird klar, dass er das Licht maskulin gebraucht und personifiziert. Es ist natürlich von Jesus die Rede.

[5430] denen, die an seinen Namen glauben (glaubten) Subst. Ptz., als Relativsatz aufgelöst.

[5431] fleischlichem Willen (W. „Willen [des] Fleisches") und menschlichem Willen (W. „Willen eines Mannes/Menschen"): epexegetischer bzw. subjektiver Genitiv.

[5432] die Worte (sagend) Sinngemäße Wiedergabe des modalen adv. Ptz. λέγων, dessen Zweck die Markierung des Inhalts wörtlicher Rede ist. Nach „rief" ist im Deutschen kein zweites solches Wort nötig.

https://offene-bibel.de/wiki/Datei:OffBi_PDF_2018-12-15.zip (PDF)
https://offene-bibel.de/wiki/Johannes_1 (online)

203

IN WORK

SPANISH

Biblia Exacta:

Edición de Estudio de Alta Crítica

Traducción con un Equilibrio entre Equivalencia Dinámica y Formal

html

?

and divine [god] was the Existing[?] Logos

y divino [dios] estaba Siendo el Lógos

http://bibliaexacta.wixsite.com/biex/blank-3

204

2019

The Literal Idiomatic Translation of the New Testament

html

Hal Dekker

the last update: 1-02-2022

and (kai) [a] god (theos) was being (ēn) the (ho) Word (logos)

Plik Edycja Widok Historia Zakładki Narzędzia Pomoc

Literal Idiomatic Tran... × John Chap. 1 ×

www.believershomepage.com/zjohn_01.html 120% Szukaj

Onet Poczta – najle... Tłumacz Google

Literal Idiomatic Translation

Home Translation Page

JOHN

[Jesus the Word of God, the Messenger]

Chapter 1

1:1a In (en) [a] beginning (archē) there was being (ēn) the (ho) Word (logos);

1:1b and (kai) the (ho) Word (logos) was being (ēn) toward (pros) the (ton) God (theon);

(For "of the things toward the God" see Rom. 15:7)

1:1c and (kai) [a] god[2316] (theos) was being (ēn) the (ho) Word (logos).

(The nominative case words which are the subject of the verse are in green. Please note that "God" in 1:1b and "a god" in 1:1c are not identical in case. Theon in 1:1b is not in the nominative case, the case of the subject, and therefore cannot be the subject. Therefore "God" and "a god" cannot be referencing the one and the same entity.

(For verification of the Word being a god, see Psalm 45:6-7, Heb. 1:8-9.)

1:2 This one (houtos), in (en) [a] beginning (archē), was being (ēn) toward (pros) the (ton) God (theon).

Start John Chap. 1 - Mozil... PL 14:27

http://www.believershomepage.com/zjohn_01.html

205

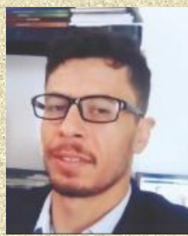
2019

PORTUGUESE

Novo Testamento Yahushua YHWH:
Versão com a restauração dos nomes Divinos

Clube de Autores, Santa Catarina, Brasil

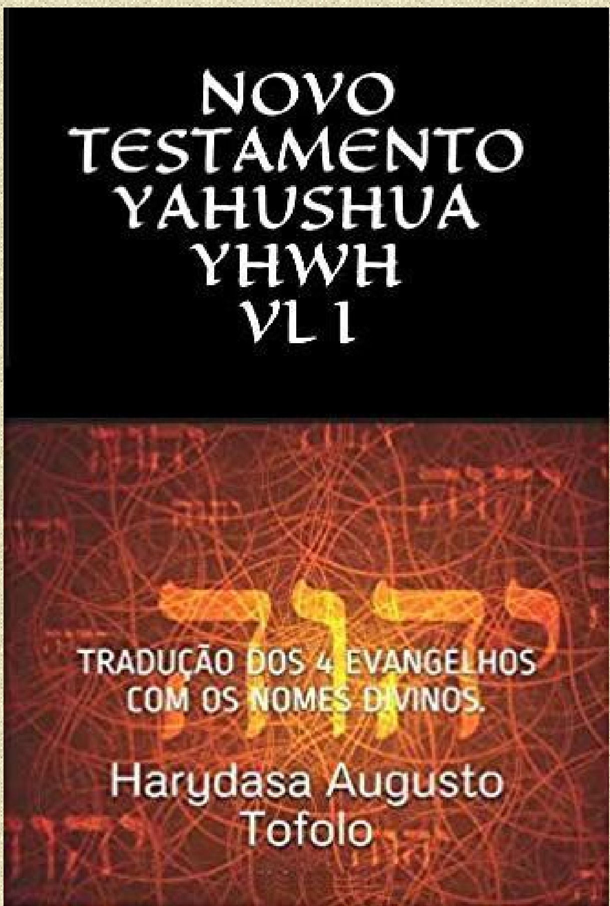
Harydasa Augusto Tófolo



version of 4-04-2021:

and the Word was a Elohim

e o Verbo era um Elohim



YHWH יהוה

24:46 e disse-lhes: Assim está escrito, e assim convinha que o Messias sofresse e ressurgisse dentre os mortos ao terceiro dia.

24:47 E que o arrependimento e a remissão de pecados sejam pregados em seu nome entre todas as nações, começando em Jerusalém.

24:48 E vós sois testemunhas destas coisas.

24:49 E eis que eu envio a promessa de meu Pai a vós, mas permanecais na cidade de Jerusalém até que sejais revestidos de poder do alto.

24:50 E levou-os a Betânia, e ele levantou as mãos e abençoou-os.

24:51 E aconteceu que, abençoando-os ele, apartou-se deles e foi elevado ao céu.

24:52 E, adorando-o, voltaram a Jerusalém com grande alegria.

24:53 E estavam continuamente no templo, louvando e abençoando a YHWH.

João 1

1: 1 No princípio era o Verbo, e o Verbo estava com YHWH , e o Verbo era um Elohim.[22]

1: 2 O mesmo aconteceu no começo com YHWH .

1: 3 Todas as coisas foram feitas por ele; e sem ele nada do que foi feito foi feito.

1: 4 Nele estava a vida; e a vida era a luz dos homens.

1: 5 E a luz brilha nas trevas; e as trevas não o compreenderam.

1: 6 Houve um homem enviado de YHWH , cujo nome era João.

[22] "Um Elohim" de acordo com a antiga versão copta.
Aqui também pode ser traduzido como "No princípio era o Verbo, e o Verbo estava com YHWH , e o Verbo era Elohim".

YAHUSHUA יהושע

2019

PORTUGUESE

Nossa Tradução das Sagradas Escrituras:

O Novo Testamento (Ed. 2)

Divulgadora União Fraterna, Rio de Janeiro, Brasil

Eduardo Silva Oliveira

version of 1-06-2021:

and the Word was divine

e o Verbo era divino

NOSSA TRADUÇÃO DAS SAGRADAS ESCRITURAS

O Novo Testamento

2ª Edição

2019

"Porque nele a justiça de Deus se revela da fé para a fé, conforme está escrito: O justo viverá da fé." Paulo (Romanos 1:17)

"Assim também a fé, se não tiver obras, está morta em seu isolamento." Tiago (Tiago 2:17)

EVANGELHO SEGUNDO JOÃO

1 Prólogo — [1]No inicio era o Verbo e o Verbo estava com Deus e o Verbo era divino. [2]No princípio, ele estava com Deus. [3]Tudo foi feito por meio dele e sem ele nada foi feito. [4]O que foi feito nele era a vida, e a vida era a luz dos homens; [5]e a luz brilha nas trevas, mas as trevas não a apreenderam. [6]Houve um homem enviado por Deus. Seu nome era João. [7]Este veio como testemunha, para dar testemunho da luz, a fim de que todos cressem por meio dele. [8]Ele não era a luz, mas veio para dar testemunho da luz. [9]O Verbo era a luz verdadeira que ilumina todo homem; ele vinha ao mundo. [10]Ele estava no mundo e o mundo foi feito por meio dele, mas o mundo não o reconheceu. [11]Veio para o que era seu e os seus não o receberam. [12]Mas a todos que o receberam deu o poder de se tornarem filhos de Deus: aos que creem em seu nome, [13]ele, que não foi gerado nem do sangue, nem de uma vontade da carne, nem de uma vontade do homem, mas de Deus. [14]E o Verbo se fez carne, e habitou entre nós; e nós vimos a sua glória, glória que ele tem junto ao Pai como Filho único, cheio de graça e de verdade. [15]João dá testemunho dele e clama: "Este é aquele de quem eu disse: o que vem depois de mim passou adiante de mim, porque existia antes de mim". [16]Pois de sua plenitude todos nós recebemos graça por graça. [17]Porque a Lei foi dada por meio de Moisés; a graça e a verdade vieram por Jesus Cristo. [18]Ninguém jamais viu a Deus: o Filho único, que está voltado para o seio do Pai, este o deu a conhecer.

O testemunho de João — [19]Este foi o testemunho de João, quando os judeus enviaram de Jerusalém sacerdotes e levitas para o interrogarem: "Quem é tu?" [20]Ele confessou e não negou; confessou: "Eu não sou o Cristo". [21]Perguntaram-lhe: "Quem é, então? É tu Elias?" Ele disse: "Não o sou". — "É o profeta?" Ele respondeu: "Não". [22]Disseram-lhe, então: "Quem és, para darmos uma resposta aos que nos enviaram? O que diz de ti mesmo?" [23]Disse ele: "Eu sou uma voz que clama no deserto: Endireitai o caminho do Senhor Iahweh, como disse o profeta Isaías". [24]Alguns dos enviados eram fariseus. [25]Perguntaram-lhe ainda: "E por que batiza, se não é o Cristo, nem Elias, nem o profeta?" [26]João lhes respondeu: "Eu batizo com água. No meio de vocês, está alguém que não conhecem, [27]aquele que vem depois de mim, do qual não sou digno de desatar a correia da sandália". [28]Isso se passava em Betânia, do outro lado do Jordão, onde João batizava. [29]No dia seguinte, ele vê Jesus aproximar-se dele e diz: "Eis o Cordeiro de Deus, que tira o pecado do mundo. [30]Dele é que eu disse: Depois de mim, vem um homem que passou adiante de mim, porque existia antes de mim.

Os primeiros discípulos — [35]No dia seguinte, João se achava lá de novo, com dois de seus discípulos. [36]Ao ver Jesus que passava, disse: "Eis o Cordeiro de Deus". [37]Os dois

207

2019

PORTUGUESE

O "Novo Testamento" Interlinear Grego-Português

(html & pdf)

Rubens Dantas de Oliveira

and a god was the word

e um deus era a palavra

Evangelho de João Capítulo 1 Interlinear Grego-Português

Interlinear de Rubens Oliveira
17 de Dez de 2019

1 Ἐν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ Λόγος καὶ ὁ Λόγος ἦν πρὸς τὸν Θεόν
No começo era a palavra e a palavra estava com o Deus

καὶ Θεὸς ἦν ὁ Λόγος 2 Οὗτος ἦν ἐν ἀρχῇ e um deus era a palavra Este estava no começo

πρὸς τὸν Θεόν 3 πάντα δι' αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο
com o Deus. Todas as coisas por intermédio dele vieram a ser καὶ χωρὶς αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο οὐδὲ ἕν

e à parte dele veio a ser nem mesmo uma coisa ὃ γέγονεν 4 ἐν αὐτῷ ζωὴ ἦν

o que veio a existir por meio dele a vida foi καὶ ἡ ζωὴ ἦν τὸ φῶς τῶν ἀνθρώπων

e a vida era a luz dos homens

5 καὶ τὸ φῶς ἐν τῇ σκοτίᾳ φαίνει
e a luz em a escuridão brilha

καὶ ἡ σκοτία αὐτὸ οὐ κατέλαβεν
e a escuridão ela não venceu

6 Ἐγένετο ἄνθρωπος ἀπεσταλμένος παρὰ Θεοῦ
Veio a existir um homem tendo sido enviado de Deus

https://traducaodonovomundodefendida.wordpress.com/tag/interlinear-de-rubens-oliveira/

208

IN WORK

PORTUGUESE

A Palavra de Y.H.W.H:

Esclarecendo algumas passagens das Escrituras

Gutemberg Chaves

and the Word was (a) Elohim

e o Verbo era (um) Elohim

A PALAVRA DE Y.H.W.H

Esclarecendo algumas passagens das Escrituras

2019

Gutemberg Chaves

YOCHANAN

1- No princípio era o Verbo, e o Verbo estava com Elohim, e o Verbo era (um) Elohim.

[2] Ele estava no princípio com Elohim.

[3] Todas as coisas vieram à existência por meio dele, e sem Ele, nada do que foi feito veio a existir.

[4] Nele estava a vida, e a vida era a luz dos homens.

[5] E a luz resplandece nas trevas, e as trevas não a compreenderam.

[6] Houve um homem enviado de Elohim, cujo nome era Yochanan.

[7] Este veio para testemunho, para que testificasse da luz, para que todos cressem por ele.

[8] Não era ele a luz, mas para que testificasse da luz.

[9] Ali estava a luz verdadeira, que ilumina a todo o homem que vem ao mundo.

[10] Ele estava no mundo, e o mundo foi feito por meio dele, no entanto, o mundo não o conheceu.

[11] Veio para a Sua nação, mas o Seu povo não O recebeu

[12] Mas, a todos quantos O receberam, deu-lhes o poder de serem feitos filhos de Elohim, aos que crêem no Seu Nome;

[13] Os quais não nasceram do sangue, nem da vontade da carne, nem da vontade do homem, mas de Elohim.

[14] E o Verbo se tornou um ser humano, e habitou entre nós, e vimos a glória do unigênito do Pai, cheio de graça e de verdade.

[15] Yechonan testificou dele, e clamou, dizendo: Este era aquele de quem eu dizia: O que vem após mim é antes de mim, porque foi primeiro do que eu.

[16] E todos nós recebemos também da Sua plenitude, e graça sobre graça.

[17] Porque a lei foi dada por Moshéh; a graça e a verdade vieram por Yehoshua Mashiach.

[18] Elohim nunca foi visto por alguém. No entanto, o Seu Filho único, que é idêntico a Elohim e está ao lado do Pai, esse O revelou.

[19] E este é o testemunho de Yochonan, quando os yehudim mandaram de Yerushalayim sacerdotes e levitas para que lhe perguntassem: Quem és Tu?

1:1- "...e o verbo era Elohim." Muitos se confundem com este texto e tentam explicá-lo sem levar em consideração outros textos que falam da diferença de natureza e autoridade entre Elohim o Pai e o Filho de Elohim. Em primeiro lugar Yehoshua foi o princípio da Criação de Elohim Apc 3:14. Então Ele que é o verbo, meio pelo qual Y.H.W.H falou desde o principio, estava com Elohim desde o princípio de todas as coisas. Este verbo foi também Elohim, mas não o Eterno Y.H.W.H, porem, como aquele que executa as ordens do Pai. Quando Moshéh tinha receio de ir à faraó, Elohim lhe disse que seu irmão Aharon viria ao teu encontro. "E ele falará por ti ao povo; e acontecerá que ele te será por boca, e tu lhe serás por Elohim. (Êx. 4:16). E o verbo era Elohim não se aplica que o verbo seja "O" Elohim como sendo o próprio Elohim, mas se aplica em o verbo representar Elohim. Verso 18.

1:13- Aqui encontramos uma aplicação do texto dizendo que na verdade são chamados filhos de Elohim aqueles que aceitaram Yehoshua sendo o Mashiach. Embora a Sua nação sendo da descendência de Avraham segundo a carne, mas para serem considerados "filhos de Elohim", deveriam eles crer em Yehoshua para obterem a vida eterna. (Yochanan 3:36). Aí neste sentido então, eles se tornariam não só descendentes de Avraham, mas também seriam chamados filhos de Elohim por meio de Yehoshua, o Representante de Elohim.

209

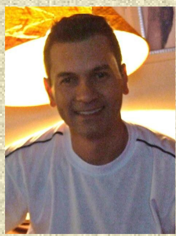
2019

PORTUGUESE

O Novo Pacto. Tradução exata, literal e fiel aos papiros e códices mais antigos

São Carlos: Clube de Autores, Brasil

Ronaldo Piloto



version of 28-08-2021:

and a ’Elohym was the Word

e um ’Elohym era a Palavra

EVANGELHO DE ACORDO COM YWHHANAN[1]

[110 EC]

1 Em um princípio existia a Palavra[2] e a Palavra estava com o ’Elohym e um ’Elohym era a Palavra.[3]

2 Esse estava em um princípio com o ’Elohym.

3 Todas as coisas por intermédio dele vieram à própria existência e à parte dele nenhuma coisa[4] que tem vindo à

1Inscrição: eu·ag·gé·li·on ka·tà i·o·á(n)·nen, P66 (200 EC), P75 (III); Vaticanus (IV) e Sinaíticus (IV/VI) alterados por um segundo copista: ka·tà i·o·á(n)·nen = “De Acordo Com Ywhhanan”; Vaticanus (IV) e Sinaíticus (IV/VI) originalmente: sem título.

2“Palavra”, gr. ló·gos = não uma Palavra que somente diz coisas, mas acima de tudo que faz coisas.

3“E [um] ’Elohym era a Palavra”, gr. kaì the·òs én ho ló·gos = Ywhhanan está afirmando que “a Palavra” tinha uma Natureza específica de “’Elohym”. (Confere na Introdução, tópico Gramática Do Artigo Um No Grego, seção b) Nesses casos, é possível até traduzir com o artigo “um” subentendido, exatamente igual ao grego, embora isso soe um pouco truncado na língua brasileira. a) Se tivesse escrito kaì ho ló·gos én the·ós (“e a Palavra era [um] ’Elohym”) = seria obrigatório o artigo “um” expresso na tradução, do contrário, ficaria sem especificação o tipo de “ ’elohym” que a Natureza da “Palavra” era. b) Se tivesse escrito kaì ho the·òs én ho ló·gos (“e o ’Elohym era a Palavra”) = a Natureza da “Palavra” seria igual à Natureza do Pai, mas ainda separada dele. Teríamos dois Seres com duas Naturezas equivalentes, portanto, dois “ ’Elohym” do mesmo nível. c) Se tivesse escrito kaì ho ló·gos én ho the·ós (“e a Palavra era o ’Elohym”) = a “Palavra” e o Pai não somente possuiriam uma única Natureza como também seriam a mesma Pessoa, tornando impossível a declaração anterior de que “a Palavra estava com o ’Elohym”, a não ser que Ywhhanan imaginasse o Pai olhando para seu reflexo, como em um espelho.

4“Nenhuma [coisa]”, P66 (200 EC), Sinaíticus (IV/VI); P75 (III), Vaticanus

210

2019

PORTUGUESE

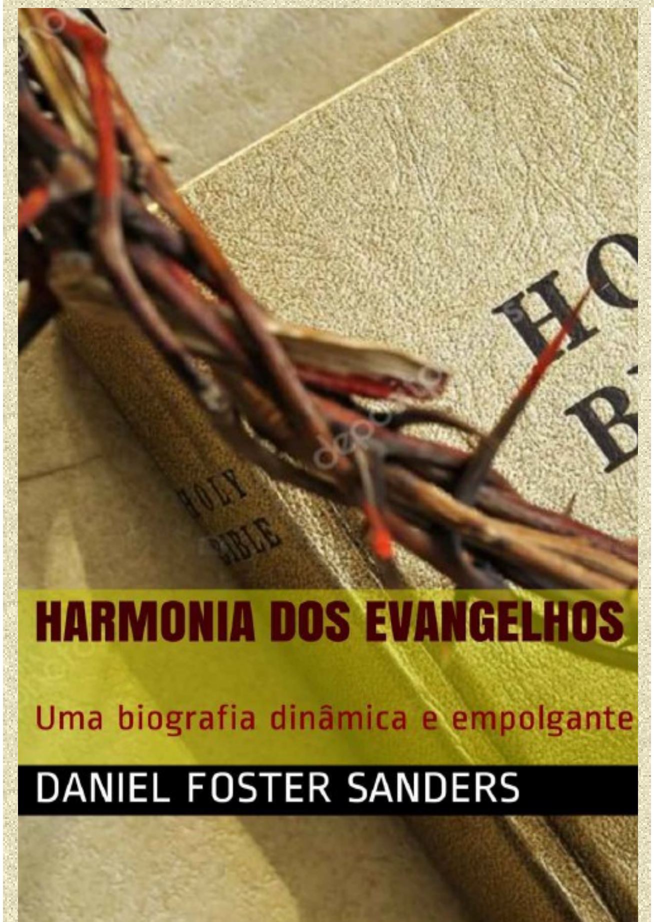
Harmonia dos Evangelhos:
Uma Biografia Dinâmica e Empolgante

São Paulo: Acrolim, Brasil

Daniel Foster Sanders

and the Logos was divine

e o Logos era divino



PRÓLOGO: EXISTÊNCIA PRÉ-HUMANA DE CRISTO

| João 1:1-5, 9-18 |

No princípio[29] era o Logos[30], e o Logos estava com Deus, e o Logos era divino.[31] Este estava no princípio com Deus. Todas as coisas vieram à existência por intermédio dele, e à parte dele nem mesmo uma só coisa veio à existência.

O que veio à existência por intermédio dele foi a vida, e a vida era a luz dos homens. E a luz está brilhando na escuridão, mas a escuridão não a tem vencido.

A verdadeira luz que ilumina a toda sorte de homem estava para vir ao mundo. Ele estava no mundo, e o mundo veio à existência por intermédio dele, mas o mundo não o conheceu. Veio ao seu próprio povo, mas os seus não o acolheram. No entanto, a tantos quantos o receberam, a estes deu autoridade para se tornarem filhos de Deus, porque exerciam fé no seu nome; e nasceram, não do sangue, nem da vontade carnal, nem da vontade do homem, mas de Deus.

De modo que o Logos se tornou carne e residiu entre nós, e observamos a sua glória, uma glória tal como a de um filho unigênito de um pai; e ele estava cheio de favor divino e de verdade.[32] Pois todos nós recebemos de sua plenitude, sim, transbordante bondade imerecida. Porque a Lei foi dada por intermédio de Moisés, o favor divino e a verdade vieram à existir por intermédio de Jesus Cristo[33]. Nenhum homem jamais viu a Deus; o deus unigênito[34], que está ao lado do Pai, é quem o tem explicado.[35]

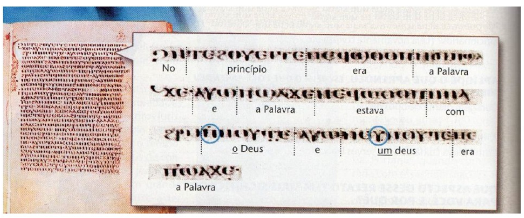


Figura 1 – Texto copta saídico com tradução interlinear de João 1:1 (P. Chester Beatty-813)

211

2019

PORTUGUESE

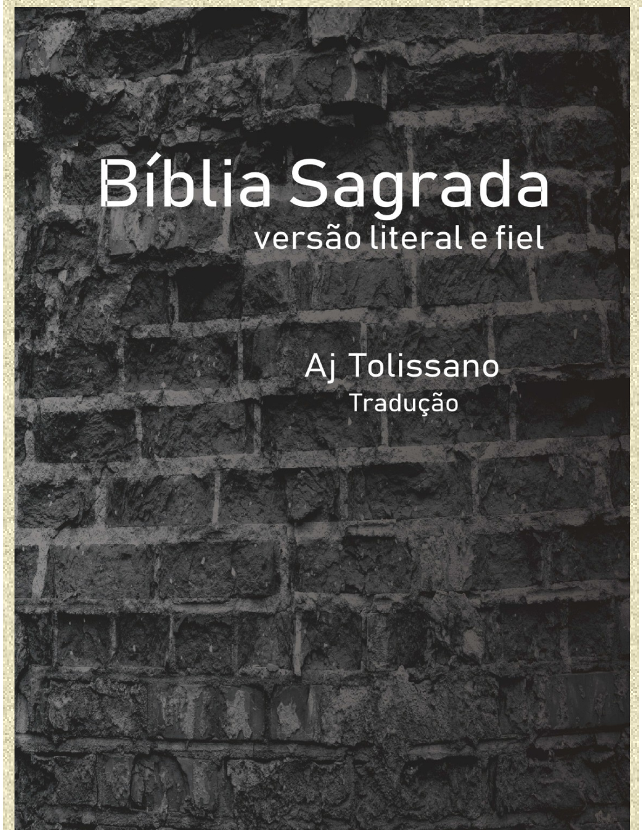
Bíblia Sagrada - versão literal e fiel

Risco e Rabisco, Brasil (v. of 25-11-2019)

Antonio José Tolissano

and the Word was of a divine nature

e o Verbo era de natureza divina



João

João 1

[1]NO princípio era o Verbo, e o Verbo estava com Deus, e o Verbo era de natureza divina.
[2]Ele estava no princípio com Deus.
[3]Todas as coisas foram feitas por ele, e sem ele nada do que foi feito se fez.
[4]Nele estava a vida, e a vida era a luz dos homens.
[5]E a luz resplandece nas trevas, e as trevas não a compreenderam.
[6]Houve um homem enviado de Deus, cujo nome era João.
[7]Este veio para testemunho, para que testificasse da luz, para que todos cressem por ele.
[8]Não era ele a luz, mas para que testificasse da luz.
[9]Ali estava a luz verdadeira, que ilumina a todo o homem que vem ao mundo.
[10]Estava no mundo, e o mundo foi feito por ele, e o mundo não o conheceu.
[11]Veio para o que era seu, e os seus não o receberam.
[12]Mas, a todos quantos o receberam, deu-lhes o poder de serem feitos filhos de Deus, aos que crêem no seu nome;
[13]Os quais não nasceram do sangue, nem da vontade da carne, nem da vontade do homem, mas de Deus.
[14]E o Verbo se fez carne, e habitou entre nós, e vimos a sua glória, como a glória do unigênito do Pai, cheio de graça e de verdade.
[15]João testificou dele, e clamou, dizendo: Este era aquele de quem eu
[16]E todos nós recebemos também da sua plenitude, e graça por graça.
[17]Porque a lei foi dada por Moisés; a graça e a verdade vieram por Jesus Cristo.
[18]Deus nunca foi visto por alguém. O Filho unigênito, que está no seio do Pai, esse o revelou.

[19]E este é o testemunho de João, quando os judeus mandaram de Jerusalém sacerdotes e levitas para que lhe perguntassem: Quem és tu?
[20]E confessou, e não negou; confessou: Eu não sou o Cristo.
[21]E perguntaram-lhe: Então quê? És tu Elias? E disse: Não sou. És tu profeta? E respondeu: Não.
[22]Disseram-lhe pois: Quem és? para que demos resposta àqueles que nos enviaram; que dizes de ti mesmo?
[23]Disse: Eu sou a voz do que clama no deserto: Endireitai o caminho de YAHWEH, como disse o profeta Isaías.
[24]E os que tinham sido enviados eram dos fariseus.
[25]E perguntaram-lhe, e disseram-lhe: Por que batizas, pois, se tu não és o Cristo, nem Elias, nem o profeta?
[26]João respondeu-lhes, dizendo: Eu batizo com água; mas no meio de vós está um a quem vós não conheceis.
[27]Este é aquele que vem após mim, que é

212

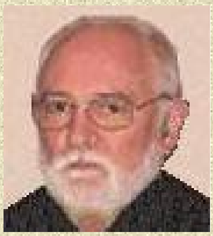
2019

FRENCH

Yehshouah le Messie d'Israel: Harmonie des Evangiles

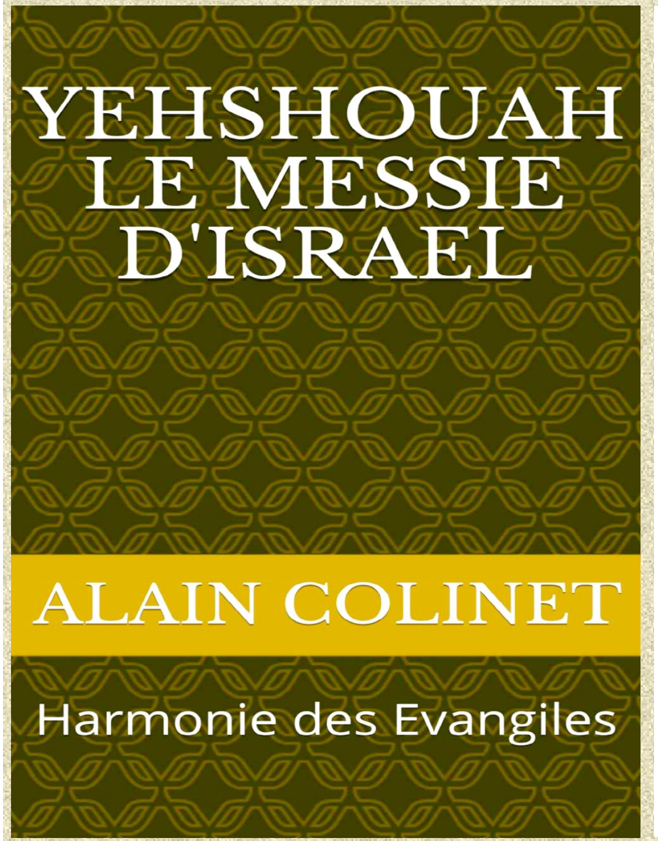
Amazon Media EU S.à r.l.

Alain Colinet



and the Word was a Elohim

et la Parole était un Elohim



La Parole faite chair

(Yohanan 1 : 1 à 18)

Au commencement était la Parole, et la Parole était avec Elohim, et la Parole était un Elohim.
Elle était au commencement avec Elohim.
Toutes choses ont été faites par elle, et rien de ce qui a été fait n'a été fait sans elle.
En elle était la vie, et la vie était la lumière des hommes. La lumière luit dans les ténèbres, et les ténèbres ne l'ont point reçue.
Il y eut un homme envoyé d'Elohim : son nom était Yohanan. Il vint pour servir de témoin, pour rendre témoignage à la lumière, afin que tous crussent par lui. Il n'était pas la lumière, mais il parut pour rendre témoignage à la lumière.
Cette lumière était la véritable lumière, qui, en venant dans le monde, éclaire tout homme. Elle était dans le monde, et le monde a été fait par elle, et le monde ne l'a point connue. Elle est venue chez les siens, et les siens ne l'ont point reçue. Mais à tous ceux qui l'ont reçue, à ceux qui croient en son nom, elle a donné le pouvoir de devenir enfants d'Elohim, lesquels sont nés, non du sang, ni de la volonté de la chair, ni de la volonté de l'homme, mais d'Elohim.
Et la Parole a été faite chair, et elle a habité parmi nous, pleine de grâce et de vérité ; et nous avons contemplé sa gloire, une gloire comme la gloire du Fils unique venu du Père.
Yohanan lui a rendu témoignage, et s'est écrié : C'est celui dont j'ai dit : Celui qui vient après moi m'a précédé, car il était avant moi.
Et nous avons tous reçu de sa plénitude, et grâce pour grâce ; car la Torah a été donnée par Moshe, la grâce et la vérité sont venues par Yehshouah le Mashyah.
Personne n'a jamais vu Elohim ; le Fils unique, qui est dans le sein du Père, est celui qui l'a fait connaître.

213

2019

POLISH

Ewangelia wg Jana

PDF (18-11-2019), not has the front page

Wojciech Sady

and a god was the word

i bogiem był słowo

Ewangelia wg Jana

J 1,1-18 Na początku było słowo i słowo było u Boga i bogiem było słowo. Ono było na początku u Boga. Wszystko przez nie się stało, a bez niego nic się nie stało z tego co się stało. W nim było życie, a życie było światłem ludzi. A światłość ukazuje się w ciemności i ciemność go nie ogarnęła. Pojawił się człowiek wysłany od Boga, na imię miał Jan. Ten przyszedł dać świadectwo, aby zaświadczyć o świetle, aby wszyscy przezeń uwierzyli. Nie był on światłem, ale miał świadczyć o świetle. Było światło prawdziwe, które oświetla każdego człowieka, przychodzącego na świat. Na świecie było i świat przez nie się stał, a świat go nie poznał. Do swoich przyszło, a swoi go nie przyjęli. Tym zaś, którzy go przyjęli, dał władzę stania się dziećmi Boga, wierzącymi w jego imię, którzy nie z krwi, ani z woli ciała, ani z woli mężczyzny się urodzili, ale z Boga. I słowo stało się ciałem i rozbiło namiot wśród nas. I ujrzeliśmy jego chwałę, chwałę jako jednorodzonego od Ojca, pełnego łaski i prawdy. Jan świadcząc o nim wykrzyczał słowa: Ten był, o którym powiedziałem, przede mną stał się ten, który przychodzi po mnie, bo pierwej był niż ja. Bo z jego pełni wszyscyśmy wzięli łaskę zamiast łaski. Bo Prawo zostało dane przez Mojżesza, a łaska i prawda stała się przez Jezusa Pomazańca. Boga nikt nie widział, a wyjaśnił {go} jednorodzony bóg będący w łonie Ojca.

J 1,19-34 A oto jest świadectwo Jana, gdy wysłali Żydzi do niego kapłanów i lewitów z Jerozolimy, aby go spytali: Kim jesteś? I wyznał i nie wyparł się i wyznał, że: Ja nie jestem Pomazańcem. I spytali go: Kim więc? Jesteś Eliaszem? I mówi: Nie jestem. Rzekli mu więc: Kto jesteś? Abyśmy dali odpowiedź tym, którzy nas posłali. Co mówisz sam o sobie? Powiedział: Jam głos wołającego na pustkowiu, prostujcie drogę Pana, jak rzekł prorok Eliasz. A wysłańcami byli faryzeusze. I zapytali go i rzekli mu: Dlaczego więc zanurzasz, jeśli nie jesteś Pomazańcem, ani Eliaszem, ani prorokiem? Odpowiedział im Jan: Ja zanurzam w wodzie, a wśród was stanął ten, którego wy nie znacie, ten przychodzący za mną, a ja nie jestem godny, aby rozwiązać rzemień jego sandała. To stało się w Betanii {inne rękopisy: w Betabarze} za Jordanem, gdzie przebywał Jan zanurzając. Nazajutrz widzi Jezusa idącego do niego i mówi: Oto baranek Boga, usuwający grzech świata. Ten jest, o którym rzekłem, za mną przychodzi mężczyzna, który stał się przede mną, bo pierwszy był niż ja. I ja go nie znałem, ale dla niego, aby ujawnił się Izraelowi, przyszedłem zanurzając w wodzie. I zaświadczył Jan mówiąc: Ujrzałem tchnienie zstępujące niczym gołąb z nieba i na nim pozostało. I ja go nie znałem, ale ten, który mnie posłał, abym zanurzał w wodzie, ten mi rzekł: Ten na kogo, jak zobaczysz, zstępuje tchnienie i na nim pozostaje, zanurza w tchnieniu świętym. I ujrzałem i zaświadczyłem, że ten jest synem Boga.

J 1,35-51 Nazajutrz znów Jan stał ze swymi dwoma uczniami i przyjrzawszy się przechodzącemu Jezusowi mówi: Oto baranek Boga. A obaj uczniowie go usłyszeli i zaczęli iść za Jezusem. A Jezus obróciwszy się i zobaczywszy, że za nim idą, mówi im: Czego szukacie? Oni zaś rzekli mu: Rabbi, co się tłumaczy nauczycielu, gdzie przebywasz? Mówi im: Chodźcie, a zobaczycie. Poszli więc i zobaczyli, gdzie przebywa i u niego tego dnia pozostali, a było koło godziny dziesiątej. Jednym z tych dwóch, którzy to usłyszeli od Jana i poszli za nim, był Andrzej, brat Szymona Petrosa. Ten spotyka najpierw brata własnego Szymona i mówi mu: Znaleźliśmy Mesjasza, co się tłumaczy Pomazaniec. Zaprowadził go do Jezusa. Jezus przyjrzał mu się i rzekł: Ty jesteś Szymon syn Jana, ty zostaniesz nazwany Kefas, co tłumaczy się Petros {Skała}. Nazajutrz chciał pójść do Galilei, i spotyka Filipa i mówi mu Jezus: Pójdź za mną. A Filip był z Betsaidy, z miasta Andrzeja i Petrosa. Spotyka Filip Natanaela i mówi mu: Znaleźliśmy tego, o którym napisał Mojżesz w Prawie i prorocy: Jezusa syna Józefa, tego z Nazaretu. I rzekł mu Natanael: Czy z Nazaretu może być coś dobrego? Filip: Pójdź i zobacz. Zobaczył Jezus przychodzącego do niego Natanaela i mówi o nim: Oto prawdziwy Izraelita, w którym nie ma podstępu. Mówi mu Natanael: Skąd mnie znasz? Odpowiedział mu Jezus i rzekł: Zanim cię Filip zawołał, ujrzałem, jak byłeś pod figowcem. Odpowiedział mu Natanael: Rabbi, ty jesteś syn Boga, ty jesteś król Izraela. Odpowiedział mu Jezus i rzekł: Wierzysz, bo powiedziałem ci, że ujrzałem cię pod figowcem? Ujrzysz rzeczy większe niż te. I mówi mu: Amen, amen mówię wam, ujrzycie otwarte niebo i zwiastunów Boga wchodzących i schodzących na Syna Człowieka.

2,1-12 A trzeciego dnia było wesele w Kanie Galilejskiej i była tam matka Jezusa. Zaproszono zaś na wesele i Jezusa i jego uczniów. A gdy zabrakło wina, mówi matka Jezusa do niego: Wina nie mają. Mówi jej Jezus: Co mnie i tobie kobieto? Jeszcze nie nadeszła moja godzina. Mówi matka jego sługom: Czyńcie to, co wam powie. Było tam zaś sześć kamiennych stągwi ustawionych dla Żydów, by się oczyszczali, mieszczące w sobie po dwie lub trzy miary. Mówi im Jezus: Napełnijcie stągwie wodą. I napełnili je aż po brzegi. I mówi im: Zaczerpnijcie teraz i zanieście nadzorcy służby. A oni zanieśli. Gdy zaś nadzorca służby spróbował wody, która stała się winem, a nie wiedział, skąd jest, zaś słudzy, ci, którzy zaczerpnęli wodę wiedzieli, woła nadzorca służby pana młodego i mówi mu: Każdy człowiek najpierw stawia dobre wino, a kiedy staną się pijani, gorsze. Ty zachowałeś dobre wino aż do teraz. Ten znak dał na początek Jezus w Kanie Galilejskiej i ujawnił swoją chwałę i uwierzyli w niego jego uczniowie. Potem on sam i jego matka i jego bracia i jego uczniowie zeszli do Kafarnaum i tam pozostał kilka dni.

http://sady.up.krakow.pl/antrel.biblia.jana.pdf

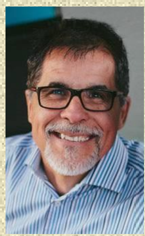
214

2020

PORTUGUESE

Evangelho de João: Histórias do Divino

Guilherme Kerr



The Word was with God, divine Word.

A Palavra estava com Deus, Palavra divina.

CAPÍTULO 1

NO PRINCÍPIO

[1] Tudo se iniciou com a Palavra original. A Palavra estava com Deus, Palavra divina. [2] Desde o prícípio de todas as coisas a Palavra e Deus já andavam juntos. [3] Tudo foi criado pela Palavra. Sem ela nem a menor das partículas existentes veio a existir. [4] E Palavra transbordava de vida e esta vida iluminava as pessoas. [5] A luz é mais forte que a escuridão e a escuridão não consegue vencer a luz.

O DEPOIMENTO DE JOÃO BATISTA

[6] Conta a história que apareceu um homem enviado por Deus chamado João. [7] Ele veio dar testemunho a respeito da luz para que todos a acolhessem. [8] João não era a luz, era apenas um homem testemunhando a respeito da luz. [9] A luz verdadeira é a que vem para este mundo iluminar todas as pessoas. [10] A luz veio ao mundo e embora o próprio mundo tenha sido criado por ela, quando ela veio, o mundo não a reconheceu.[11] A luz veio para aqueles que pertenciam a ela, mas estes não a receberam. [12] Mas todos que O receberam e confiaram na revelação de Quem Ele é, receberam a identidade de serem de fato filhos de Deus. Que mudança poderosa!.[13] Ser filho de Deus não é fruto do esforço humano, nem de determinação ou esforço da vontade própria, menos

215

2020

PORTUGUESE

Bíblia Sagrada (versão 1.22)

Jair da Silva Lima

and the Word was what God was

e a Palavra era o que Deus era

Bíblia Sagrada

Tradução de João Ferreira de Almeida (1628-1691)

Edição Almeida Revisada

JAIR DA SILVA LIMA

Versão 1.22

JOÃO

»JOÃO [1]

1 No princípio era a Palavra, e a Palavra estava com Deus, e a Palavra era o que Deus era.

2 Ele estava no princípio com Deus.

3 Todas as coisas foram feitas por intermédio dele, e sem ele nada do que foi feito se fez.

4 Nele estava à vida, e a vida era a luz dos homens;

5 a luz resplandece nas trevas, e as trevas não prevaleceram contra ela.

6 Houve um homem enviado de Deus, cujo nome era João, o que batiza.

7 Este veio como testemunha, a fim de dar testemunho da luz, para que todos cressem por meio dele.

8 Ele não era a luz, mas veio para dar testemunho da luz.

9 Pois a verdadeira luz, que ilumina a todo homem, estava chegando ao mundo.

10 Estava ele no mundo, e o mundo foi feito por intermédio dele, e o mundo não o conheceu.

11 Veio para o que era seu, e os seus não o receberam.

12 Mas, a todos quantos o receberam, aos que creem no seu nome, deu-lhes o poder de se tornarem filhos de Deus;

13 os quais não nasceram do sangue, nem da vontade da carne, nem da vontade do varão, mas de Deus.

14 E a Palavra se fez carne, e habitou entre nós, cheio de graça e de verdade; e vimos a sua glória, como a glória do unigênito do Pai.

15 João, o que batiza, deu testemunho dele, e clamou, dizendo: Este é aquele de quem eu disse: O que vem depois de mim, passou adiante de mim; porque antes de mim ele já existia.

16 Pois todos nós recebemos da sua plenitude, e graça sobre graça.

216

2020

PORTUGUESE

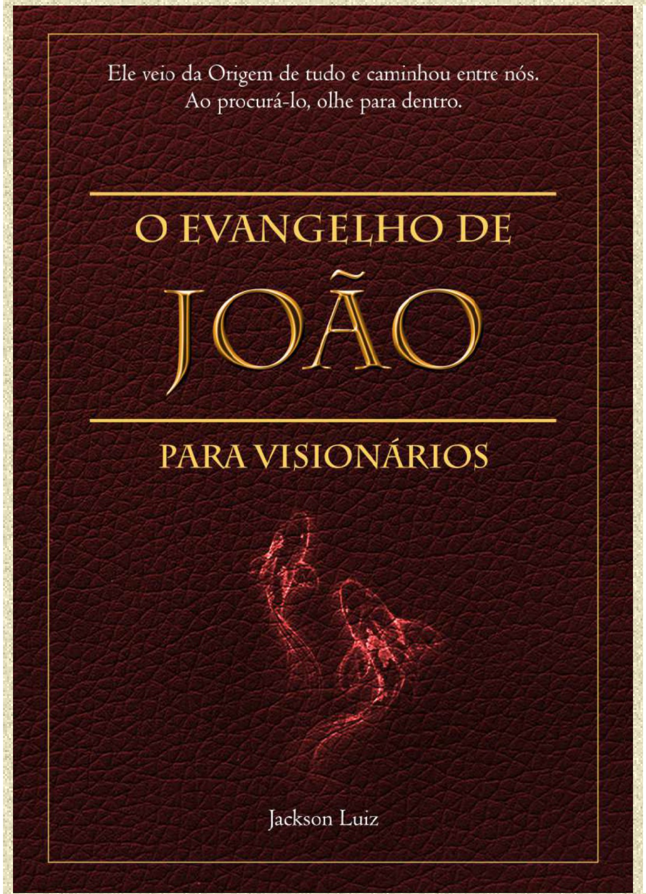
O Evangelho de João para Visionários

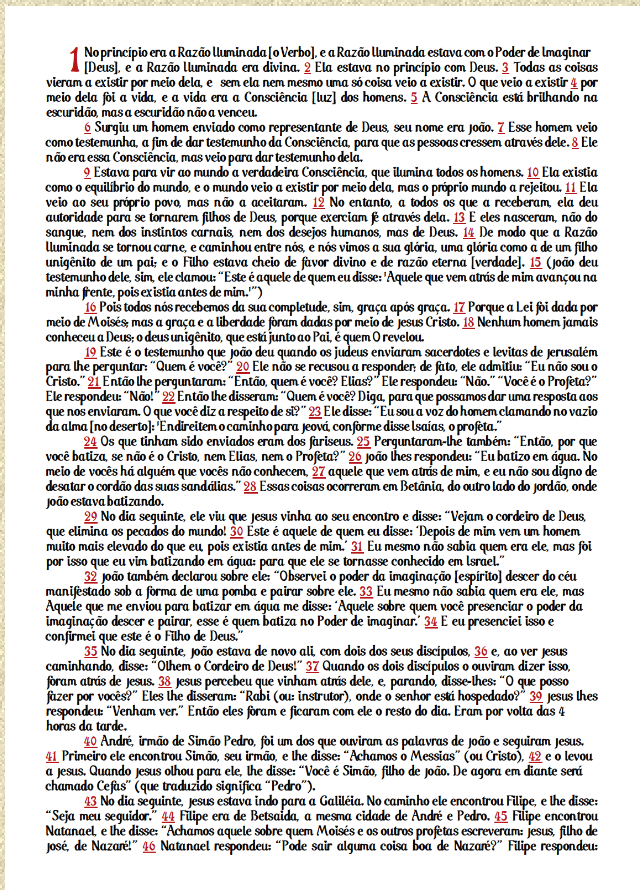
PDF

Jackson Luiz

and Enlightened Reason was divine

e a Razão Iluminada era divina





1 No princípio era a Razão Iluminada [o Verbo], e a Razão Iluminada estava com o Poder de Imaginar [Deus], e a Razão Iluminada era divina. 2 Ela estava no princípio com Deus. 3 Todas as coisas vieram a existir por meio dela, e sem ela nem mesmo uma só coisa veio a existir. O que veio a existir 4 por meio dela foi a vida, e a vida era a Consciência [luz] dos homens. 5 A Consciência está brilhando na escuridão, mas a escuridão não a venceu.

6 Surgiu um homem enviado como representante de Deus, seu nome era João. 7 Esse homem veio como testemunha, a fim de dar testemunho da Consciência, para que as pessoas cressem através dele. 8 Ele não era essa Consciência, mas veio para dar testemunho dela.

9 Estava para vir ao mundo a verdadeira Consciência, que ilumina todos os homens. 10 Ela existia como o equilíbrio do mundo, e o mundo veio a existir por meio dela, mas o próprio mundo a rejeitou. 11 Ela veio ao seu próprio povo, mas não a aceitaram. 12 No entanto, a todos os que a receberam, ela deu autoridade para se tornarem filhos de Deus, porque exerciam fé através dela. 13 E eles nasceram, não do sangue, nem dos instintos carnais, nem dos desejos humanos, mas de Deus. 14 De modo que a Razão Iluminada se tornou carne, e caminhou entre nós, e nós vimos a sua glória, uma glória como a de um filho unigênito de um pai; e o Filho estava cheio de favor divino e de razão eterna [verdade]. 15 (João deu testemunho dele, sim, ele clamou: "Este é aquele de quem eu disse: 'Aquele que vem atrás de mim avançou na minha frente, pois existia antes de mim.'")

16 Pois todos nós recebemos da sua completude, sim, graça após graça. 17 Porque a Lei foi dada por meio de Moisés; mas a graça e a liberdade foram dadas por meio de Jesus Cristo. 18 Nenhum homem jamais conheceu a Deus; o deus unigênito, que está junto ao Pai, é quem O revelou.

19 Este é o testemunho que João deu quando os judeus enviaram sacerdotes e levitas de Jerusalém para lhe perguntar: "Quem é você?" 20 Ele não se recusou a responder; de fato, ele admitiu: "Eu não sou o Cristo." 21 Então lhe perguntaram: "Então, quem é você? Elias?" Ele respondeu: "Não." "Você é o Profeta?" Ele respondeu: "Não!" 22 Então lhe disseram: "Quem é você? Diga, para que possamos dar uma resposta aos que nos enviaram. O que você diz a respeito de si?" 23 Ele disse: "Eu sou a voz do homem clamando no vazio da alma [no deserto]: 'Endireitem o caminho para Jeová, conforme disse Isaías, o profeta."

24 Os que tinham sido enviados eram dos fariseus. 25 Perguntaram-lhe também: "Então, por que você batiza, se não é o Cristo, nem Elias, nem o Profeta?" 26 João lhes respondeu: "Eu batizo em água. No meio de vocês há alguém que vocês não conhecem, 27 aquele que vem atrás de mim, e eu não sou digno de desatar o cordão das suas sandálias." 28 Essas coisas ocorreram em Betânia, do outro lado do Jordão, onde João estava batizando.

29 No dia seguinte, ele viu que Jesus vinha ao seu encontro e disse: "Vejam o cordeiro de Deus, que elimina os pecados do mundo! 30 Este é aquele de quem eu disse: 'Depois de mim vem um homem muito mais elevado do que eu, pois existia antes de mim.' 31 Eu mesmo não sabia quem era ele, mas foi por isso que eu vim batizando em água: para que ele se tornasse conhecido em Israel."

32 João também declarou sobre ele: "Observei o poder da imaginação [espírito] descer do céu manifestado sob a forma de uma pomba e pairar sobre ele. 33 Eu mesmo não sabia quem era ele, mas Aquele que me enviou para batizar em água me disse: 'Aquele sobre quem você presenciar o poder da imaginação descer e pairar, esse é quem batiza no Poder de imaginar.' 34 E eu presenciei isso e confirmei que este é o Filho de Deus."

35 No dia seguinte, João estava de novo ali, com dois dos seus discípulos, 36 e, ao ver Jesus caminhando, disse: "Olhem o Cordeiro de Deus!" 37 Quando os dois discípulos o ouviram dizer isso, foram atrás de Jesus. 38 Jesus percebeu que vinham atrás dele, e, parando, disse-lhes: "O que posso fazer por vocês?" Eles lhe disseram: "Rabi (ou: instrutor), onde o senhor está hospedado?" 39 Jesus lhes respondeu: "Venham ver." Então eles foram e ficaram com ele o resto do dia. Eram por volta das 4 horas da tarde.

40 André, irmão de Simão Pedro, foi um dos que ouviram as palavras de João e seguiram Jesus. 41 Primeiro ele encontrou Simão, seu irmão, e lhe disse: "Achamos o Messias" (ou Cristo), 42 e o levou a Jesus. Quando Jesus olhou para ele, lhe disse: "Você é Simão, filho de João. De agora em diante será chamado Cefas" (que traduzido significa "Pedro").

43 No dia seguinte, Jesus estava indo para a Galiléia. No caminho ele encontrou Filipe, e lhe disse: "Seja meu seguidor." 44 Filipe era de Betsaida, a mesma cidade de André e Pedro. 45 Filipe encontrou Natanael, e lhe disse: "Achamos aquele sobre quem Moisés e os outros profetas escreveram: Jesus, filho de José, de Nazaré!" 46 Natanael respondeu: "Pode sair alguma coisa boa de Nazaré?" Filipe respondeu:

217

2020

SPANISH

El Libro de Yeshua / Jesús

anonymous translator

and the Word was Divine

y la Palabra era Divina

EL LIBRO DE

YESHUA / JESÚS

1ª REEDICIÓN

PRÓLOGO (Lc 1,1-4)

Puesto que muchos tomaron entre manos compilar un relato acerca de las cosas que entre nosotros han sido ciertísimas, conforme nos las transmitieron los que desde el principio fueron testigos de vista y servidores de la palabra, también me pareció bien escribirte todas las cosas por orden después de haber investigado desde sus fuentes con total esmero, excelentísimo Teófilo, para que te percates bien de la solidez de las enseñanzas respecto a las cosas en que fuiste instruido.

I. PREPARACIÓN DE LA PRESENCIA DEL SALVADOR

1 La Palabra hecha carne (Jn 1, 1-18)

En el Principio existía la Palabra, y la Palabra estaba con Dios, y la Palabra era Divina. Él estaba en el Principio con Dios. Todo mediante él fue creado, y sin él ninguna creación sería creada. En él está la vida, y la vida era la luz de los hombres. Y la luz en la oscuridad brilla, y la oscuridad no la envolvió. Hubo un hombre enviado de Dios; su nombre era Yochanan[i]. Este hombre vino para testimonio, para testificar acerca de la luz, para que todos creyesen por él. Él no era la luz, pero vino para testificar acerca de la luz. Era la luz verdadera, la cual, alumbra a todo hombre que viene a este mundo. Él estuvo en el mundo, en el mundo creado por él; pero el mundo no le conoció. Él vino a su propio pueblo, y su propia gente no le recibió. Mas cuantos le recibieron, les dio el derecho de ser hijos de Dios, a quienes creyeron en su nombre, quiénes nacieron no de sangre, ni de carne, ni de hombre, sino de Dios. Y la Palabra carne se hizo, y acampó[ii] entre nosotros; y nosotros contemplamos su gloria, la gloria como Unigénito del Padre, pleno de gracia y verdad. Yochanan testificó de él y clamó diciendo:

— Éste es de quién dije: «Quien viene dedespués de mi ha sido puesto antes que mi, pues él fue antes que yo».

Porque de su plenitud recibimos todos nosotros, y gracia sobre gracia; porque la Torah mediante Moshé[iii] se dio, mas la gracia y la verdad mediante YESHUA EL MASHÍAJ se da. A Dios nadie vio nunca; tan solo el Hijo unigénito, quién está en el seno del Padre, él Le ha dado a conocer.

ANUNCIO Y CONCEPCIÓN

2 Anunciación de Yochanan (Lc 1,5-22)

Hubo en los días de Hordos, rey de los Judíos, un sacerdote nombrado Zechariah[iv], del turno de Abías, y tenía mujer de las hijas de Aarón, y el nombre de ella era Elisheva. Y eran ambos justos delante de Dios, andando irreprochables en todos los mandamientos y preceptos de YHVH. Y no tenían hijo, porque Elisheva era estéril, y ambos eran avanzados en sus días. Aconteció que oficiando Zechariah como sacerdote delante de Dios en el turno de su grupo, conforme a la costumbre del sacerdocio[v], le tocó en suerte quemar el incienso entrando al Templo de YHVH[vi], y toda la multitud del pueblo estaba afuera orando a la hora del incienso. Y se le apareció un Mensajero[vii] de YHVH puesto en pie a la derecha del Mizbayach del incienso. Y se turbó Zechariah al verlo, y el temor cayó sobre él. Mas el Mensajero le dijo:

— Cesa de temer, Zechariah, porque tu petición fue escuchada y tu mujer, Elisheva, te

[i] En hebreo significa: Agraciado de El Eterno». Es el equivalente a Juan en español-castellano.

[ii] Referencia a la época nómada de Israel donde el Tabernáculo, anterior a la construcción del primer Templo de Yerushaláyim, era la conexión entre Dios e Israel y dónde Él habitaba. cf. Ex 25,8; Nm 35,34; Dt 4,7; Eclo 24,7-22; Ba 3,36-4,4 [iii] Habitualmente traducido como «Moisés».

[iv] Nombre hebreo (significa «El Eterno recuerda»), transcrito del griego como «Zacarías».

[v] Cf.: 1 Cro 24, 19; 2Cro 23,8.

[vi] Cf.: cf. Ex 30, 6-8.

[vii] Es el significado de las palabras hebrea «malakh», griega «ἄγγελος» (angelos), latina «angĕlus» y español castellano «ángel».

9

https://issuu.com/traslafe/docs/libro_de_yeshua__1reedicion_

2020

2020 New Testament

(revision of KJV)

Amazon Ltd., USA

Timothy S. George

yet godly was that utterance

JOHN

CHAPTER 1

1. At the commencement it was that one utterance, yet that utterance was within God,
   yet godly was that utterance.

2. That one was at the commencement within God.

3. Within him everything having caused to be, and apart from him having caused to be not even one thing. What he has caused to be

This image is not from paper version.

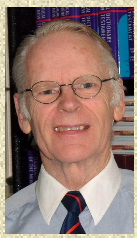
219

2020

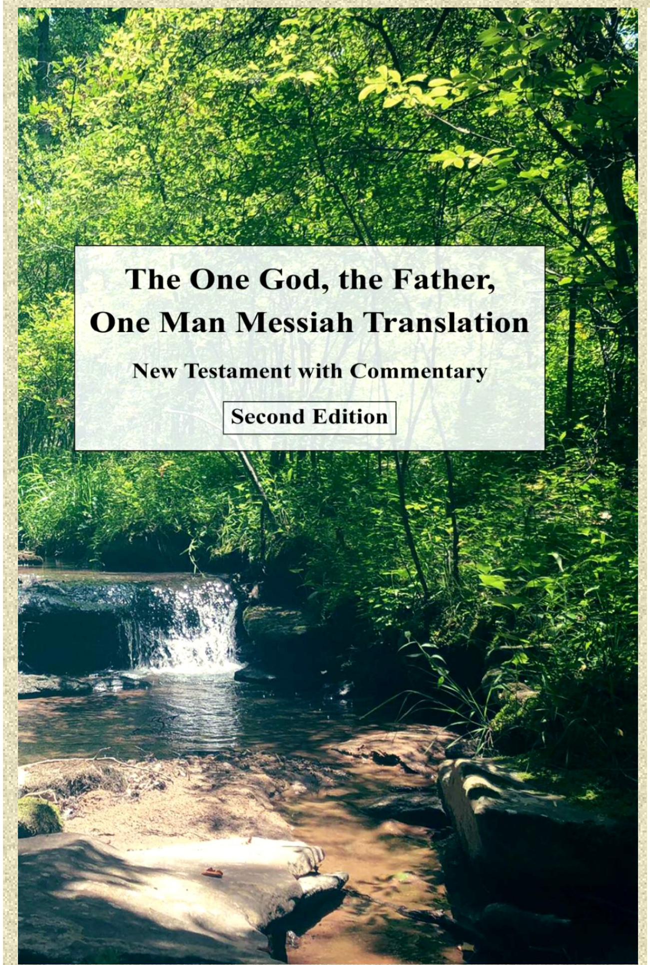
The One God, the Father, One Man Messiah Translation New Testament: New Testament with Commentary (Ed. 2)

Restoration Fellowship, USA

Anthony F. Buzzard



and the word was fully expressive of God Himself



John

1 [1]In the beginning was the word,[1] and the word[2] was with[3] God, and the word was fully expressive of God Himself. [2]This was with God in

---

[1]Footnote 1 for John 1:1 is at the end of the gospel, beginning on p. 304.

[2]The NET Bible Commentary remarks on the meaning of "word" in Ps. 33:6-11: "The LORD's 'word' refers to the decrees whereby He governs His dominion." Only when logos in John 1:1 is made into a second Person, the Son, do all the problems arise. Jesus defined God in Mark 12:29: "The Lord our God is one Lord," not two or three! It would be a fatal contradiction to introduce a second "God, Person" in John 1. In John 17:3 Jesus was a strict monotheist declaring the Father to be "the only one [monos] who is true God [theos]." This is unitary not Trinitarian monotheism. Note Schonfield, Authentic New Testament: "In the beginning was the expressed concept." If we read "In the beginning was the SON" we make two who are GOD, and this breaks the fundamental and easy, express monotheism of Jesus (Mk. 12:29; 1 Cor. 8:4-6) and the whole of the Bible. Sadly John 1:1 has been used to contradict Jesus in John 17:3 and the detailed birth narratives of Matthew and Luke, and the more than 1300 NT references to GOD as the Father. There are thousands of references to God in Scripture as a single Person, defined by singular personal pronouns. The God of the Bible is a single divine "someone," "self." The moment someone else, the Son, is said to be God, two Gods are posited; the universe is "tinkered with" and idolatry is introduced (cp. 1 John 5:20-21 for fair warning).

[3]The same Greek word pros (with) occurs in the phrase "the things concerning God," ta pros ton theon. Thus "the word" reflects the heart of God's thinking, His concern. The Aramaic word memra (word) was used by Jews as expressing likewise the activity and wisdom of God. John naturally reflects his Jewish background, as does the whole NT. BBE has "Thos Word was from the first in relation with God." Note Thayer's Lexicon: "things respecting, pertaining to God." (Rom. 15:17; Heb. 2:17, 5:1). Philo speaks of three kinds of life, one of which is "pros theon," related to God, characteristic of God (Quis rer. div. haer. 9, International Critical Commentary, John, Vol. 1, p. cxli). Similarly the Gospel remains "with [pros as in Jn. 1:1] the disciples," Gal. 2:5, that is, in their minds. Philo speaks of things "pros theon" as things pertaining to God, belonging to Him. John does not speak here of person to person, for which he uses the prepositions para or meta. "Elsewhere John uses para to express the idea of proximity of one person to another (Jn. 1:39; 4:40; 8:38; 14:17, 23, 25; 19:27; cp. 14:23…never pros" (see Dictionary of New Testament Theology, Vol. 3, p. 1205.) Dan 2:22 tells us that "light dwells with God," or "light is with Him" (LXX). No one imagined light to be a second divine Person, making two GODs! Jesus, the Son of God, is not a second GOD, destroying the first commandment and the Shema! (Deut. 6:4; Mk. 12:29). The Bible knows of no "God the Son." Ps. 36:9 similarly says that "the fountain of life is with You. In Your light we see light." Cp. Jer. 2:13. As Dr. Colin Brown of Fuller Seminary wisely said: "To read John 1:1 as if it said 'In the beginning was the Son' is patently wrong" (Ex Auditu, 7, 1991, p. 89).

220

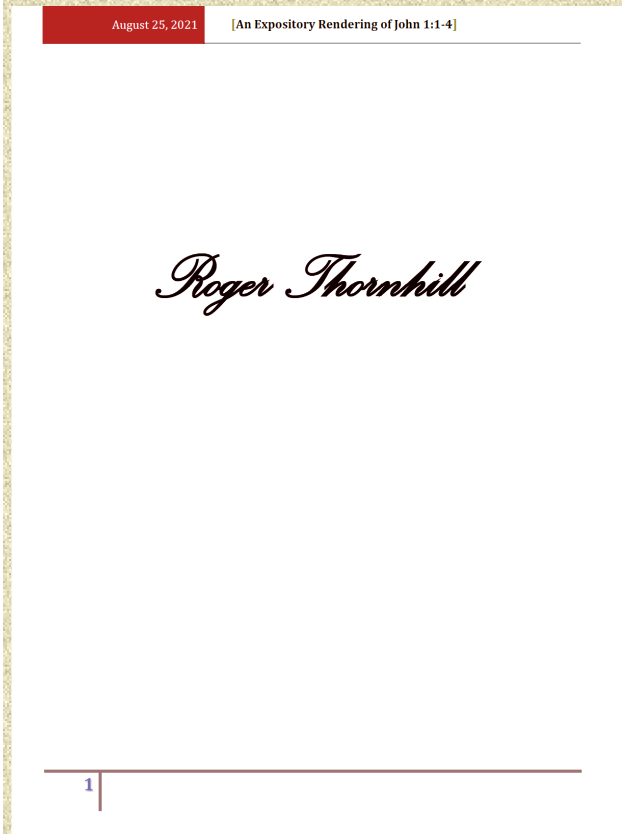
2021

"An Expository Rendering of John 1:1-4"

PDF

Roger Thornhill

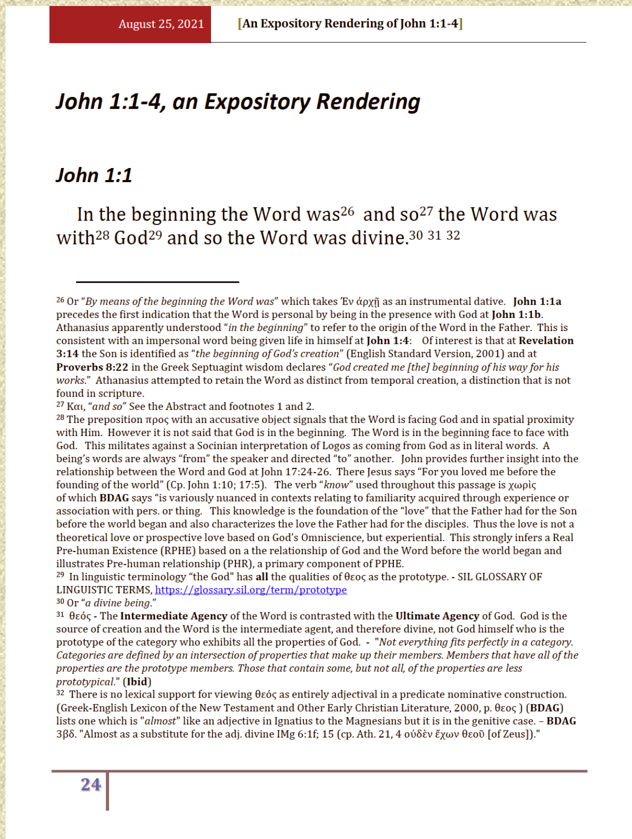
and so the Word was divine



August 25, 2021 [An Expository Rendering of John 1:1-4]

Roger Thornhill

1



August 25, 2021 [An Expository Rendering of John 1:1-4]

John 1:1-4, an Expository Rendering

John 1:1

In the beginning the Word was[26] and so[27] the Word was with[28] God[29] and so the Word was divine.[30] [31] [32]

---

[26] Or "By means of the beginning the Word was" which takes Ἐν ἀρχῇ as an instrumental dative. John 1:1a precedes the first indication that the Word is personal by being in the presence with God at John 1:1b. Athanasius apparently understood "in the beginning" to refer to the origin of the Word in the Father. This is consistent with an impersonal word being given life in himself at John 1:4: Of interest is that at Revelation 3:14 the Son is identified as "the beginning of God's creation" (English Standard Version, 2001) and at Proverbs 8:22 in the Greek Septuagint wisdom declares "God created me [the] beginning of his way for his works." Athanasius attempted to retain the Word as distinct from temporal creation, a distinction that is not found in scripture.

[27] Και, "and so" See the Abstract and footnotes 1 and 2.

[28] The preposition προς with an accusative object signals that the Word is facing God and in spatial proximity with Him. However it is not said that God is in the beginning. The Word is in the beginning face to face with God. This militates against a Socinian interpretation of Logos as coming from God as in literal words. A being's words are always "from" the speaker and directed "to" another. John provides further insight into the relationship between the Word and God at John 17:24-26. There Jesus says "For you loved me before the founding of the world" (Cp. John 1:10; 17:5). The verb "know" used throughout this passage is χωρὶς of which BDAG says "is variously nuanced in contexts relating to familiarity acquired through experience or association with pers. or thing. This knowledge is the foundation of the "love" that the Father had for the Son before the world began and also characterizes the love the Father had for the disciples. Thus the love is not a theoretical love or prospective love based on God's Omniscience, but experiential. This strongly infers a Real Pre-human Existence (RPHE) based on a the relationship of God and the Word before the world began and illustrates Pre-human relationship (PHR), a primary component of PPHE.

[29] In linguistic terminology "the God" has all the qualities of θεος as the prototype. - SIL GLOSSARY OF LINGUISTIC TERMS, https://glossary.sil.org/term/prototype

[30] Or "a divine being."

[31] θεός - The Intermediate Agency of the Word is contrasted with the Ultimate Agency of God. God is the source of creation and the Word is the intermediate agent, and therefore divine, not God himself who is the prototype of the category who exhibits all the properties of God. - "Not everything fits perfectly in a category. Categories are defined by an intersection of properties that make up their members. Members that have all of the properties are the prototype members. Those that contain some, but not all, of the properties are less prototypical." (Ibid)

[32] There is no lexical support for viewing θεός as entirely adjectival in a predicate nominative construction. (Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament and Other Early Christian Literature, 2000, p. θεος) (BDAG) lists one which is "almost" like an adjective in Ignatius to the Magnesians but it is in the genitive case. – BDAG 3βδ. "Almost as a substitute for the adj. divine IMg 6:1f; 15 (cp. Ath. 21, 4 οὐδὲν ἔχων θεοῦ [of Zeus])."

24

https://www.academia.edu/50808377/V14_An_Expository_Rendering_of_John_1_1_4

221

2021

PORTUGUESE

Bíblia Essência (paraphrase, html)

Ceroni Cunha

and the Word was also in essence Divine

a e Palavra também era em essência, Divina

https://cathedrallegionaria.blogspot.com/2021/03/biblia-parafraseada-essencia-bpe-joao-1.html?m=0

222

2021

PORTUGUESE

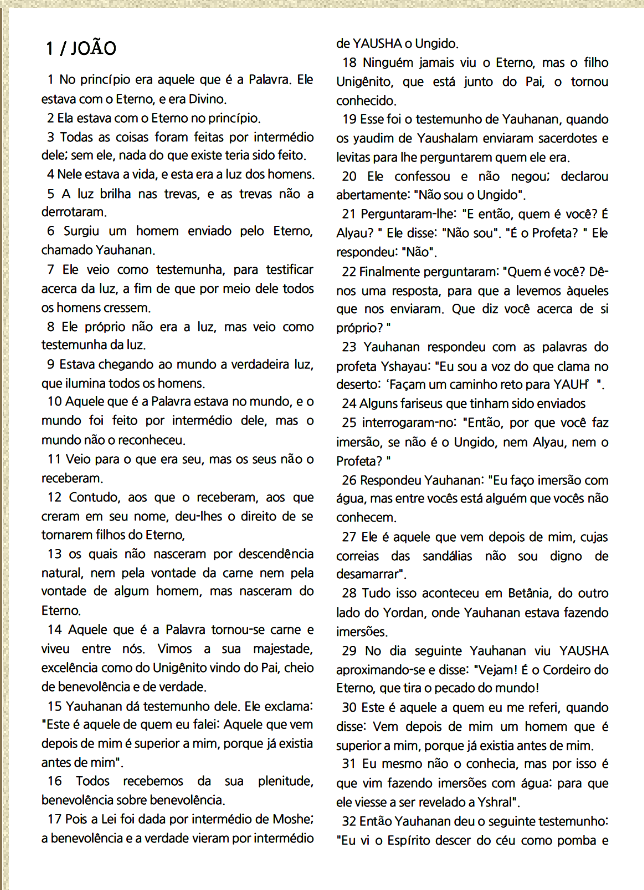
Escrituras Sagradas, com os Nomes Sagrados Yauh e Yausha

PDF

anonymous editors

and was Divine

e era Divino



1 / JOÃO

1 No princípio era aquele que é a Palavra. Ele estava com o Eterno, e era Divino.
2 Ela estava com o Eterno no princípio.
3 Todas as coisas foram feitas por intermédio dele; sem ele, nada do que existe teria sido feito.
4 Nele estava a vida, e esta era a luz dos homens.
5 A luz brilha nas trevas, e as trevas não a derrotaram.
6 Surgiu um homem enviado pelo Eterno, chamado Yauhanan.
7 Ele veio como testemunha, para testificar acerca da luz, a fim de que por meio dele todos os homens cressem.
8 Ele próprio não era a luz, mas veio como testemunha da luz.
9 Estava chegando ao mundo a verdadeira luz, que ilumina todos os homens.
10 Aquele que é a Palavra estava no mundo, e o mundo foi feito por intermédio dele, mas o mundo não o reconheceu.
11 Veio para o que era seu, mas os seus não o receberam.
12 Contudo, aos que o receberam, aos que creram em seu nome, deu-lhes o direito de se tornarem filhos do Eterno,
13 os quais não nasceram por descendência natural, nem pela vontade da carne nem pela vontade de algum homem, mas nasceram do Eterno.
14 Aquele que é a Palavra tornou-se carne e viveu entre nós. Vimos a sua majestade, excelência como do Unigênito vindo do Pai, cheio de benevolência e de verdade.
15 Yauhanan dá testemunho dele. Ele exclama: "Este é aquele de quem eu falei: Aquele que vem depois de mim é superior a mim, porque já existia antes de mim".
16 Todos recebemos da sua plenitude, benevolência sobre benevolência.
17 Pois a Lei foi dada por intermédio de Moshe; a benevolência e a verdade vieram por intermédio de YAUSHA o Ungido.
18 Ninguém jamais viu o Eterno, mas o filho Unigênito, que está junto do Pai, o tornou conhecido.
19 Esse foi o testemunho de Yauhanan, quando os yaudim de Yaushalam enviaram sacerdotes e levitas para lhe perguntarem quem ele era.
20 Ele confessou e não negou; declarou abertamente: "Não sou o Ungido".
21 Perguntaram-lhe: "E então, quem é você? É Alyau? " Ele disse: "Não sou". "É o Profeta? " Ele respondeu: "Não".
22 Finalmente perguntaram: "Quem é você? Dê-nos uma resposta, para que a levemos àqueles que nos enviaram. Que diz você acerca de si próprio? "
23 Yauhanan respondeu com as palavras do profeta Yshayau: "Eu sou a voz do que clama no deserto: 'Façam um caminho reto para YAUH' ".
24 Alguns fariseus que tinham sido enviados
25 interrogaram-no: "Então, por que você faz imersão, se não é o Ungido, nem Alyau, nem o Profeta? "
26 Respondeu Yauhanan: "Eu faço imersão com água, mas entre vocês está alguém que vocês não conhecem.
27 Ele é aquele que vem depois de mim, cujas correias das sandálias não sou digno de desamarrar".
28 Tudo isso aconteceu em Betânia, do outro lado do Yordan, onde Yauhanan estava fazendo imersões.
29 No dia seguinte Yauhanan viu YAUSHA aproximando-se e disse: "Vejam! É o Cordeiro do Eterno, que tira o pecado do mundo!
30 Este é aquele a quem eu me referi, quando disse: Vem depois de mim um homem que é superior a mim, porque já existia antes de mim.
31 Eu mesmo não o conhecia, mas por isso é que vim fazendo imersões com água: para que ele viesse a ser revelado a Yshral".
32 Então Yauhanan deu o seguinte testemunho: "Eu vi o Espírito descer do céu como pomba e https://drive.google.com/file/d/1-4qGVPTpc9iEn64vd4GKnGACrD-y4IIp/view

2021
Die gute Botschaft nach Johannes Mödling, Austria
Walther Ladroner

Word-Wisdom was of divine being.
Weisheitswort war göttlichen Wesens.

Die gute Botschaft nach Johannes

1 Im Anfang war WEISHEITSWORT.
Weisheitswort war bei Gott.
Weisheitswort war göttlichen Wesens.
(2) Er war im Anfang bei Gott.
(3) Durch Weisheitswort ist alles geworden.
Nichts, das wurde,
niemand, der wurde,
ist ohne Weisheitswort geworden.
(4) In Weisheitswort war Leben, das Leben war der Menschen Licht.
(5) Das Licht leuchtet, sogar im Finstern.
Finsternis hat das Licht nicht auslöschen können.

(6) Ein Mensch trat auf, von Gott gesandt;
sein Name: Johannes, der Täufer.
(7) Er kam als Zeuge,
um Zeugnis zu geben für das Licht,
damit jeder zum Glauben an das Licht kommt.
(8) Nicht, dass Johannes selber das Licht war;
er gab Zeugnis für das Licht.

(9) Das Licht, das wahre,
das jeden Menschen erleuchtet,
kam in die Welt.
(10) Ja, Weisheitswort war in der Welt, doch die Welt, die durch ihn geworden war,
hat ihn nicht erkannt.
(11) Weisheitswort kam in das, was ihm gehört, aber die durch ihn Gewordenen
haben ihn nicht willkommen geheißen.
(12) Jene wenigen aber,
die ihn willkommen hießen,
sie alle hat Weisheitswort ermächtigt,
Kinder Gottes zu werden.
(13) So wird jeder,
der an des Weisheitswortes Namen glaubt, nicht aus Fleisch und Blut und dem Begehren eines Menschen gezeugt, sondern aus Gott.

https://books.google.pl/books?id=unMhEAAAQBAJ

2021
Die Basis Bibel
Stuttgart: Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft
?

And he, the Word, was like God in everything.
Und er, das Wort, war Gott in allem gleich.

Wer Jesus ist

Johannes 1,1–10,42

Vorwort: Jesus ist das Wort Gottes

Johannes 1,1-18

Das Wort Gottes von Anfang an

1 [1] Von Anfang an gab es den, der das Wort ist.
Er, das Wort, gehörte zu Gott.
Und er, das Wort, war Gott in allem gleich.
[2] Dieses Wort gehörte von Anfang an zu Gott.
[3] Alles wurde durch dieses Wort geschaffen.
Und nichts, das geschaffen ist,
ist ohne dieses Wort entstanden.
[4] Er, das Wort, war zugleich das Leben in Person.
Und das Leben war das Licht für die Menschen.
[5] Das Licht leuchtet in der Finsternis, aber die Finsternis hat es nicht angenommen.

[6] Ein Mensch trat auf, den Gott gesandt hatte.
Er hieß Johannes.
[7] Dieser Mensch war ein Zeuge für das Licht.
Alle sollten durch ihn zum Glauben kommen.
[8] Er selbst war nicht das Licht.
Aber er sollte als Zeuge für das Licht auftreten.
[9] Er, das Wort, war das wahre Licht.
Es ist in die Welt gekommen und leuchtet für alle Menschen.

[10] Er, das Wort, war schon immer in der Welt.
Die Welt ist ja durch ihn entstanden.
Aber sie erkannte ihn nicht.
[11] Er kam in die Welt, die ihm gehört.
Aber die Menschen dort nahmen ihn nicht auf.
[12] Aber denen, die ihn aufnahmen, verlieh er das Recht, Kinder Gottes zu werden.

This image is not from paper version

https://www.die-bibel.de/bibeln/online-bibeln/lesen/BB/JHN.1/Johannes-1

225

2022

PORTUGUESE

A Vida de Jesus Baseada nos quatro Evangelhos

Clube de Autores, Brasil

Cristiano Sonnemann

and the Word was a mighty one

e o Verbo era um ser poderoso

Cristiano Sonnemann

A Vida de Jesus
Baseada nos quatro Evangelhos

Antes mesmo dEle vir à terra (matéria) ele já existia como um Ser poderoso, isso podemos ver claramente ao observarmos as primeiras passagens do livro do Apostolo João.

João

João Cap. 1:1,18
1 No princípio era o Verbo, o Verbo estava com o Altíssimo Deus, e o Verbo era um ser poderoso.

Se no princípio o Verbo estava com o Altíssimo Deus, logo temos dois seres, pois o Verbo estava COM o Altíssimo Deus (logo não poderia ser o mesmo), Literalmente o Verbo era um Ser Poderoso na qualidade de Deus, mas não o Altíssimo Deus.

2 Ele estava no princípio com o altíssimo Deus.
3 De forma que, tudo foi criado por intermédio dEle, sem Ele, nada do que veio a existir teria existido.

Aqui fica claro que todas as coisas foram feitas por intermédio dEle (o Verbo). Aquele Ser poderoso que estava com o Altíssimo Deus.

4 A vida e a existência vem por intermédio dEle, e os homens existem e possuem vida através da Sua Luz!
5 A luz brilha nas trevas, e as trevas não vencem a luz!

6

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1MUXWI1zknl0YArCF4F07lIFdJqHyM_x3/view?usp=drivesdk
https://books.google.pl/books?id=jzpZEAAAQBAJ

226

2022

PORTUGUESE

O Evangelho de Jesus Unificado

(pdf)

Luiz de Lourdes Marins

version of September 30, 2022:

and the Word was [a] god

e a Palavra era [um] deus

Luiz de Lourdes Marins

O EVANGELHO DE JESUS

U n i f i c a d o

Edição do autor

São Paulo

2021

1. No princípio era a Palavra [1]

1. No princípio era a Palavra. E a Palavra estava com Deus, e a Palavra era [um] deus.[2]
2. Por meio da Palavra, Deus fez todas as coisas, e nada do que existe foi feito sem ela.
3. A Palavra era a fonte da vida, e essa vida trouxe a luz para todas as pessoas. A luz brilha na escuridão, e a escuridão não conseguiu apagá-la.
4. A Palavra estava no mundo, e por meio dela Deus fez o mundo, mas o mundo não a conheceu. Aquele que é a Palavra veio para o mundo, mas o mundo não o reconheceu.
5. A Palavra se tornou um ser humano e morou entre nós, cheia de amor e de verdade. E nós vimos a revelação da sua natureza divina, natureza que ele recebeu como Filho único do Pai.

2. O anúncio do nascimento de João Batista [3]

1. Quando Herodes era o rei da terra de Israel, havia um sacerdote chamado Zacarias, que era do grupo dos sacerdotes de Abdias. A esposa dele se chamava Isabel e era de uma família de sacerdotes.

1 João 1:1-5.

2 The New Testament, p. 200. Ver biblio.

3 Lucas 1:5-25

227

2022

PORTUGUESE

Tradução As Sacradas Letras das Escrituras Sagradas

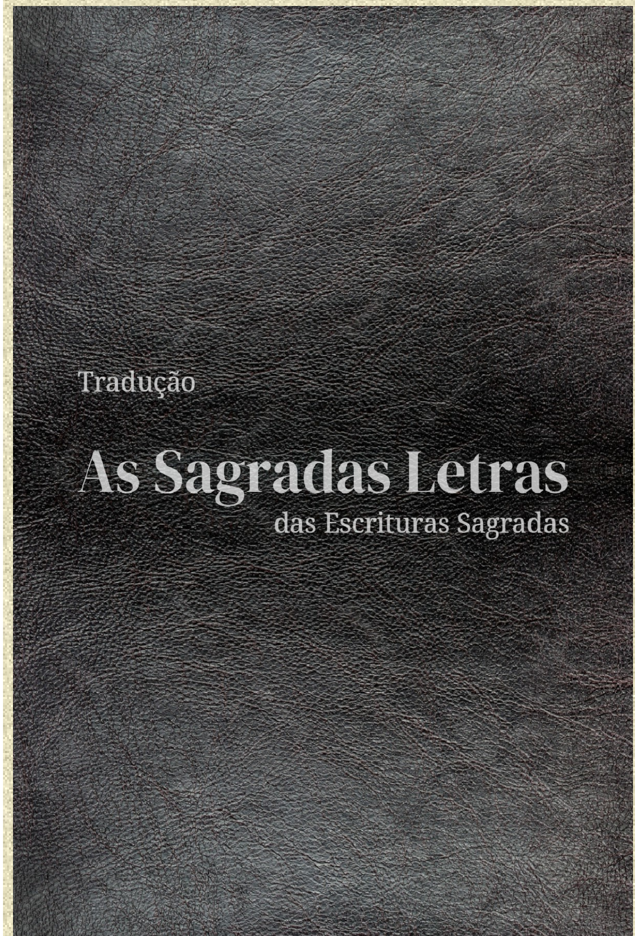
Disponibilizado em @hnmodulos canal do telegram, Brasil

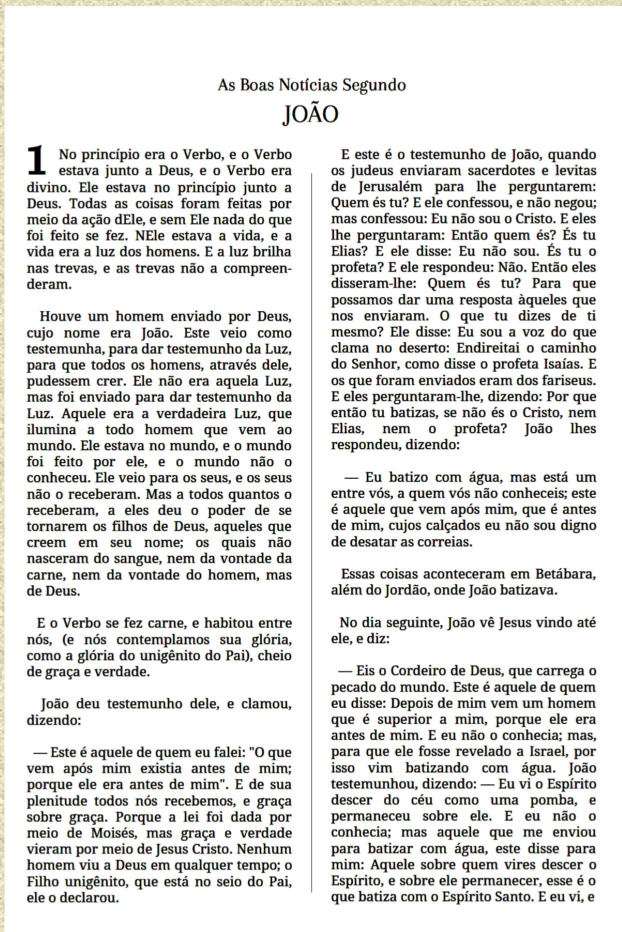
Hueslen Barros & others

version of 15-10-2022

and the Word was divine

e o Verbo era divino





As Boas Notícias Segundo

JOÃO

1 No princípio era o Verbo, e o Verbo estava junto a Deus, e o Verbo era divino. Ele estava no princípio junto a Deus. Todas as coisas foram feitas por meio da ação dEle, e sem Ele nada do que foi feito se fez. NEle estava a vida, e a vida era a luz dos homens. E a luz brilha nas trevas, e as trevas não a compreenderam.

Houve um homem enviado por Deus, cujo nome era João. Este veio como testemunha, para dar testemunho da Luz, para que todos os homens, através dele, pudessem crer. Ele não era aquela Luz, mas foi enviado para dar testemunho da Luz. Aquele era a verdadeira Luz, que ilumina a todo homem que vem ao mundo. Ele estava no mundo, e o mundo foi feito por ele, e o mundo não o conheceu. Ele veio para os seus, e os seus não o receberam. Mas a todos quantos o receberam, a eles deu o poder de se tornarem os filhos de Deus, aqueles que creem em seu nome; os quais não nasceram do sangue, nem da vontade da carne, nem da vontade do homem, mas de Deus.

E o Verbo se fez carne, e habitou entre nós, (e nós contemplamos sua glória, como a glória do unigênito do Pai), cheio de graça e verdade.

João deu testemunho dele, e clamou, dizendo:

— Este é aquele de quem eu falei: "O que vem após mim existia antes de mim; porque ele era antes de mim". E de sua plenitude todos nós recebemos, e graça sobre graça. Porque a lei foi dada por meio de Moisés, mas graça e verdade vieram por meio de Jesus Cristo. Nenhum homem viu a Deus em qualquer tempo; o Filho unigênito, que está no seio do Pai, ele o declarou.

E este é o testemunho de João, quando os judeus enviaram sacerdotes e levitas de Jerusalém para lhe perguntarem: Quem és tu? E ele confessou, e não negou; mas confessou: Eu não sou o Cristo. E eles lhe perguntaram: Então quem és? És tu Elias? E ele disse: Eu não sou. És tu o profeta? E ele respondeu: Não. Então eles disseram-lhe: Quem és tu? Para que possamos dar uma resposta àqueles que nos enviaram. O que tu dizes de ti mesmo? Ele disse: Eu sou a voz do que clama no deserto: Endireitai o caminho do Senhor, como disse o profeta Isaías. E os que foram enviados eram dos fariseus. E eles perguntaram-lhe, dizendo: Por que então tu batizas, se não és o Cristo, nem Elias, nem o profeta? João lhes respondeu, dizendo:

— Eu batizo com água, mas está um entre vós, a quem vós não conheceis; este é aquele que vem após mim, que é antes de mim, cujos calçados eu não sou digno de desatar as correias.

Essas coisas aconteceram em Betábara, além do Jordão, onde João batizava.

No dia seguinte, João vê Jesus vindo até ele, e diz:

— Eis o Cordeiro de Deus, que carrega o pecado do mundo. Este é aquele de quem eu disse: Depois de mim vem um homem que é superior a mim, porque ele era antes de mim. E eu não o conhecia; mas, para que ele fosse revelado a Israel, por isso vim batizando com água. João testemunhou, dizendo: — Eu vi o Espírito descer do céu como uma pomba, e permaneceu sobre ele. E eu não o conhecia; mas aquele que me enviou para batizar com água, este disse para mim: Aquele sobre quem vires descer o Espírito, e sobre ele permanecer, esse é o que batiza com o Espírito Santo. E eu vi, e

https://t.me/hnmodulos/5

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1adS2d17Z-XHP25IRT9wZ04J7-kTsJP_e/view

228

2022

SPANISH (Bolivia)

Nueva Torah de Israel (Nuevo Testamento Original Histórico)

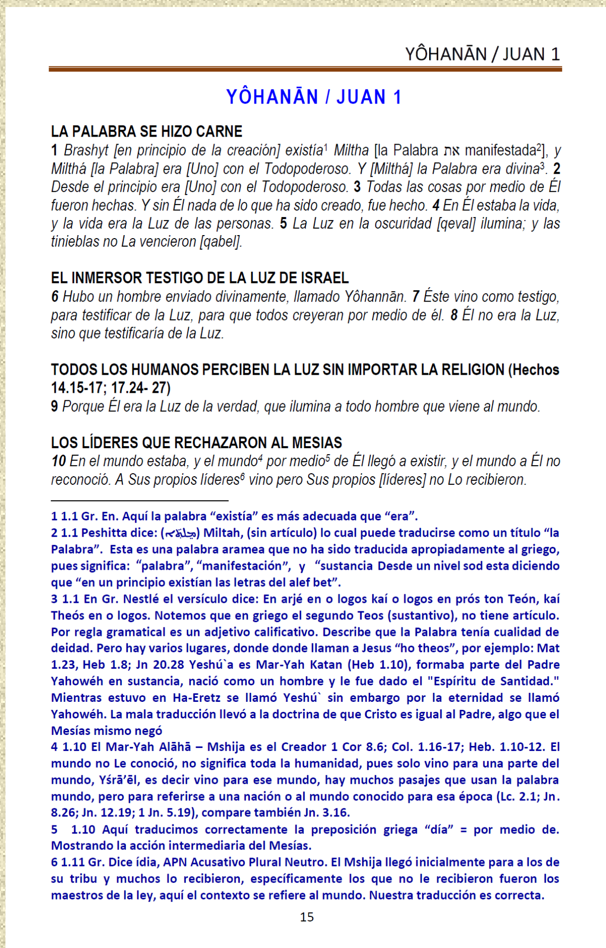
Impresión láser en Santa Cruz, Bolivia

Hans Frederiksen Ayala

version of June 2022:

And [Milthá] the Word was divine

Y [Milthá] la Palabra era divina



YÔHANĀN / JUAN 1

LA PALABRA SE HIZO CARNE

1 Brashyt [en principio de la creación] existía[1] Miltha [la Palabra את manifestada[2]], y Milthá [la Palabra] era [Uno] con el Todopoderoso. Y [Milthá] la Palabra era divina[3]. 2 Desde el principio era [Uno] con el Todopoderoso. 3 Todas las cosas por medio de Él fueron hechas. Y sin Él nada de lo que ha sido creado, fue hecho. 4 En Él estaba la vida, y la vida era la Luz de las personas. 5 La Luz en la oscuridad [qeval] ilumina; y las tinieblas no La vencieron [qabel].

EL INMERSOR TESTIGO DE LA LUZ DE ISRAEL

6 Hubo un hombre enviado divinamente, llamado Yôhannān. 7 Éste vino como testigo, para testificar de la Luz, para que todos creyeran por medio de él. 8 Él no era la Luz, sino que testificaría de la Luz.

TODOS LOS HUMANOS PERCIBEN LA LUZ SIN IMPORTAR LA RELIGION (Hechos 14.15-17; 17.24- 27)

9 Porque Él era la Luz de la verdad, que ilumina a todo hombre que viene al mundo.

LOS LÍDERES QUE RECHAZARON AL MESIAS

10 En el mundo estaba, y el mundo[4] por medio[5] de Él llegó a existir, y el mundo a Él no reconoció. A Sus propios líderes[6] vino pero Sus propios [líderes] no Lo recibieron.

---

1 1.1 Gr. En. Aquí la palabra "existía" es más adecuada que "era".

2 1.1 Peshitta dice: (ܡܠܬܐ) Miltah, (sin artículo) lo cual puede traducirse como un título "la Palabra". Esta es una palabra aramea que no ha sido traducida apropiadamente al griego, pues significa: "palabra", "manifestación", y "sustancia Desde un nivel sod esta diciendo que "en un principio existían las letras del alef bet".

3 1.1 En Gr. Nestlé el versículo dice: En arjé en o logos kaí o logos en prós ton Teón, kaí Theós en o logos. Notemos que en griego el segundo Teos (sustantivo), no tiene artículo. Por regla gramatical es un adjetivo calificativo. Describe que la Palabra tenía cualidad de deidad. Pero hay varios lugares, donde donde llaman a Jesus "ho theos", por ejemplo: Mat 1.23, Heb 1.8; Jn 20.28 Yeshú`a es Mar-Yah Katan (Heb 1.10), formaba parte del Padre Yahowéh en sustancia, nació como un hombre y le fue dado el "Espíritu de Santidad." Mientras estuvo en Ha-Eretz se llamó Yeshú` sin embargo por la eternidad se llamó Yahowéh. La mala traducción llevó a la doctrina de que Cristo es igual al Padre, algo que el Mesías mismo negó

4 1.10 El Mar-Yah Alāhā – Mshija es el Creador 1 Cor 8.6; Col. 1.16-17; Heb. 1.10-12. El mundo no Le conoció, no significa toda la humanidad, pues solo vino para una parte del mundo, Yśrā'ēl, es decir vino para ese mundo, hay muchos pasajes que usan la palabra mundo, pero para referirse a una nación o al mundo conocido para esa época (Lc. 2.1; Jn. 8.26; Jn. 12.19; 1 Jn. 5.19), compare también Jn. 3.16.

5 1.10 Aquí traducimos correctamente la preposición griega "día" = por medio de. Mostrando la acción intermediaria del Mesías.

6 1.11 Gr. Dice ídia, APN Acusativo Plural Neutro. El Mshija llegó inicialmente para a los de su tribu y muchos lo recibieron, específicamente los que no le recibieron fueron los maestros de la ley, aquí el contexto se refiere al mundo. Nuestra traducción es correcta.

229 CATHOLIC

2022

SPANISH

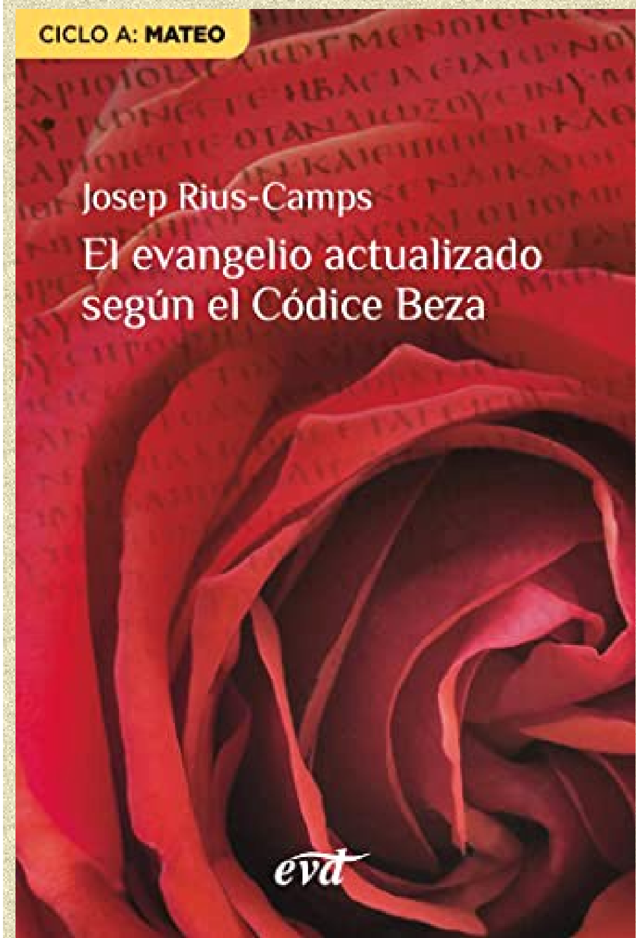
El evangelio actualizado según el Códice Beza

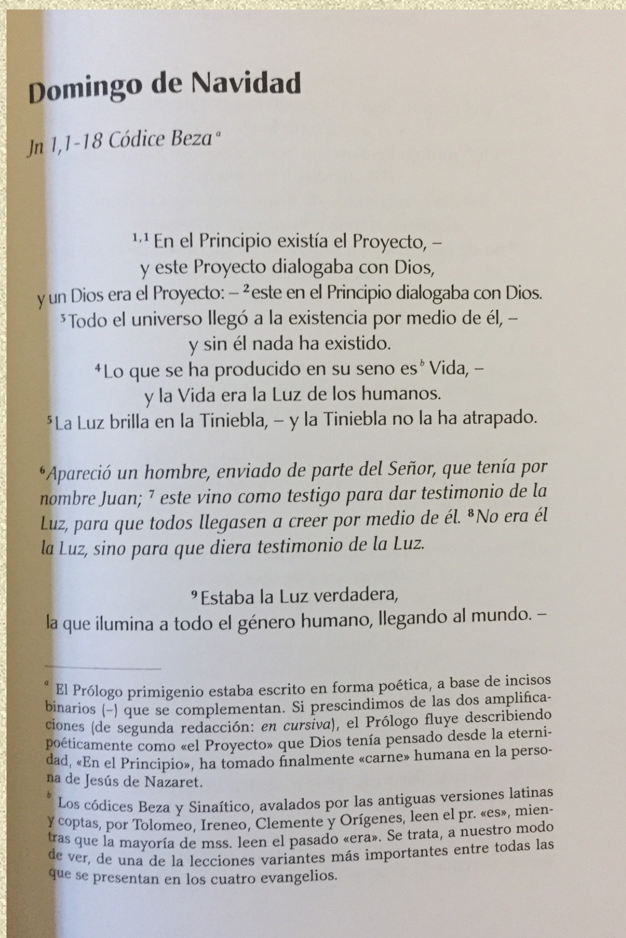
Editorial Verbo Divino, Estella (Navarra)

Josep Rius-Camps

and a God was the Project

y un Dios era el Proyecto





Domingo de Navidad

Jn 1,1-18 Códice Beza [a]

[1,1] En el Principio existía el Proyecto, – y este Proyecto dialogaba con Dios, y un Dios era el Proyecto: – [2] este en el Principio dialogaba con Dios.
[3] Todo el universo llegó a la existencia por medio de él, – y sin él nada ha existido.
[4] Lo que se ha producido en su seno es [b] Vida, –
y la Vida era la Luz de los humanos.
[5] La Luz brilla en la Tiniebla, – y la Tiniebla no la ha atrapado.

[6] Apareció un hombre, enviado de parte del Señor, que tenía por nombre Juan; [7] este vino como testigo para dar testimonio de la Luz, para que todos llegasen a creer por medio de él. [8] No era él la Luz, sino para que diera testimonio de la Luz.

[9] Estaba la Luz verdadera, la que ilumina a todo el género humano, llegando al mundo. –

[a] El Prólogo primigenio estaba escrito en forma poética, a base de incisos binarios (–) que se complementan. Si prescindimos de las dos amplificaciones (de segunda redacción: en cursiva), el Prólogo fluye describiendo poéticamente como «el Proyecto» que Dios tenía pensado desde la eternidad, «En el Principio», ha tomado finalmente «carne» humana en la persona de Jesús de Nazaret.

[b] Los códices Beza y Sinaítico, avalados por las antiguas versiones latinas y coptas, por Tolomeo, Ireneo, Clemente y Orígenes, leen el pr. «es», mientras que la mayoría de mss. leen el pasado «era». Se trata, a nuestro modo de ver, de una de la lecciones variantes más importantes entre todas las que se presentan en los cuatro evangelios.

IN WORK

SPANISH

ΣL NUΣVΘ TΣSTΔMΣNTΘ: El Evangelio de Yeshúa (El segundo Adán) y la historia de la creación de su esposa a partir de su costado

Cuernavaca: The Ucli Press International, Mexico

Armando H. Toledo

because the one who is the Word was a divine being porque aquel que es la Palabra era un ser divino

1. El Verbo eterno de Dios se manifestó a través de Yeshúa, el Hombre nuevo[1]

Antes que las cosas llegaran a existir, el Logos, es decir, la Palabra, ya estaba "ahí", junto a Dios, porque aquel que es la Palabra era un ser divino. Él estaba junto al Padre en el origen de todo. De hecho, mediante Él todas las cosas fueron creadas, y no existe nada que no haya sido creado por medio de Él. Él es como un Árbol de Vida cuyos frutos dan Vida de verdad; y esta Vida proporciona justamente la Luz que la humanidad necesita para poder ver bien. La Luz siempre ha disipado la oscuridad, y la oscuridad simplemente nunca podría apagarla.

Dios envió como testigo de la inminente llegada de la Luz a un hombre llamado Juan, para que les hablara a todos de esta Luz que venía, y por medio de él todos se hicieran creyentes. No es que Juan fuera la Luz; él sólo vino a guiar a todos hacia esa Luz que se acercaba. Y es que la Luz verdadera, la que podría disipar la oscuridad de cada ser humano, ya estaba por manifestarse en este mundo.

Sucedió un día que la Luz finalmente llegó, la misma Luz mediante la cual Dios había creado el mundo, pero el mundo no lo reconoció. Vino a este mundo, que es suyo, y en particular al pueblo que había creado para sí, pero su pueblo no le dio la bienvenida. Pero a todos los que la recibieron bien, es decir, a los que sí creyeron en ella, les dio la esperanza de algún día llegar a ser verdaderos Hijos de Dios. Los llamados Hijos de Dios ya no tienen sangre humana, ni nacen por la decisión de alguien, ni nacen como resultado de las relaciones íntimas entre hombres y mujeres, sino que Dios los concibe y los hace crecer.

Y la Palabra tomó el cuerpo de un varón humano y así logró habitar entre nosotros los seres humanos. Pero no era cualquier ser humano, pues los que estuvimos muy cerca de Él, a diferencia de los [1] Juan 1:1-18.

IN WORK

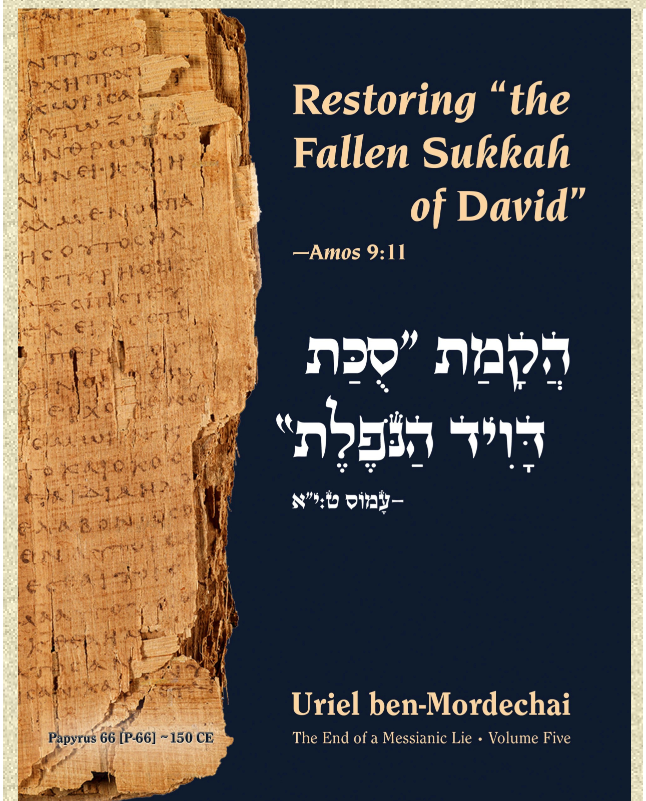
Restoring "the Fallen Sukkah of David"

Global Truth International

Uriel Ben Mordechai

version of 15-10-2022

and a godly object was the Torah



Yochanan

1:1 "Essential for creation was the Torah, and the Torah was in the presence of G-d, and a godly object was the Torah"

1:2 "This object stood with high honor, in harmony with G-d."

1:3 "All things came into existence because of IT, and outside of IT, not a single notion came into being that was fashioned."

1:10 IT was present within the world, and even the world came into existence by virtue of IT, even though the world did not acknowledge IT

1:11 In the midst of this one special people, IT ended up being deposited, especially to this one chosen people; the same which they embraced.

1:12 As many as did take hold of IT, IT gave them prerogative to emerge as children of G-d; to those who are trusting in His Name," https://www.yumpu.com/en/document/read/67307815/sample https://globaltruthinternational.com/2022/05/12/restoring-the-fallen-sukkah-of-david/

232

2023

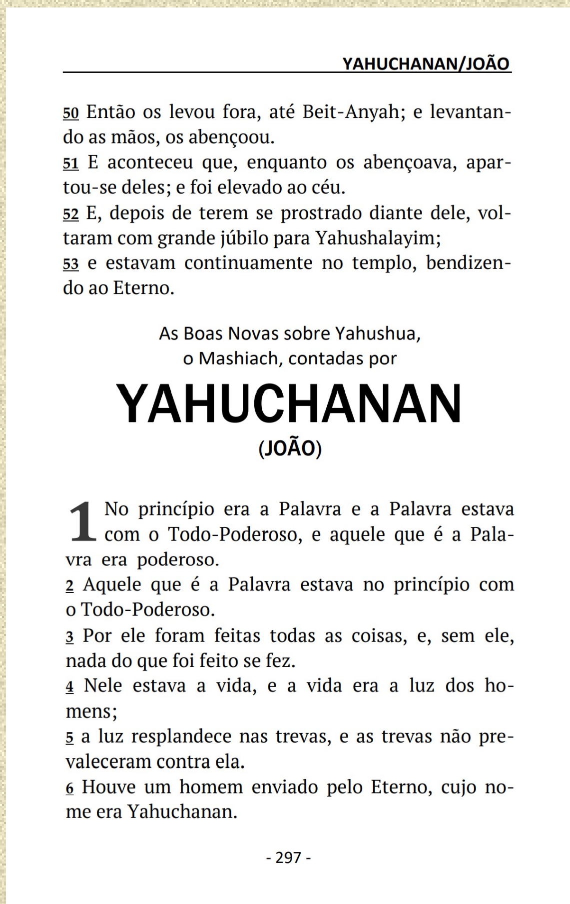
PORTUGUESE

Inspiradas Escrituras

Fabyano C. Bereano

and he who is the Word was mighty

e aquele que é a Palavra era poderoso



YAHUCHANAN/JOÃO

50 Então os levou fora, até Beit-Anyah; e levantando as mãos, os abençoou.
51 E aconteceu que, enquanto os abençoava, apartou-se deles; e foi elevado ao céu.
52 E, depois de terem se prostrado diante dele, voltaram com grande júbilo para Yahushalayim;
53 e estavam continuamente no templo, bendizendo ao Eterno.

As Boas Novas sobre Yahushua, o Mashiach, contadas por

YAHUCHANAN
(JOÃO)

1 No princípio era a Palavra e a Palavra estava com o Todo-Poderoso, e aquele que é a Palavra era poderoso.
2 Aquele que é a Palavra estava no princípio com o Todo-Poderoso.
3 Por ele foram feitas todas as coisas, e, sem ele, nada do que foi feito se fez.
4 Nele estava a vida, e a vida era a luz dos homens;
5 a luz resplandece nas trevas, e as trevas não prevaleceram contra ela.
6 Houve um homem enviado pelo Eterno, cujo nome era Yahuchanan.

- 297 -

https://www.scribd.com/document/623823981/Inspiradas-Escrituras-Novo-Testamento-Leitura
https://sites.google.com/view/inspiradasescrituras/pdf

233

2023

An Invitation to Reading in English – N.T.

[The New Covenant in Yeshua the Mashiah]

PDF

(Ed. 1, 2008)

Oun Jon Kwon

version 6.0.9 of April 23, 2023:

and as what God is, the Word was Read IRENT – G-John – Readers Edition ISSN 1943-0345

Read IRENT

An Invitation to Reading in English – N.T.

[The New Covenant in Yeshua the Mashiah]

Vol. I Gospels & Acts

No. 1

Gospel of John

(Readers Edition)

安路者 Ahnrojah Books 2008

{Gospel}[a] according[b] to Yohan[c]

(Jn 1:1-18)
I. Jn 1:1-5

The Johannine Prologue

I. The God's Word

1:1a In beginning[1] was[2] the Word[3]

1:1b — yes, the Word was [in relation] to[4] the Elohim[5],

☑1:1c and as what God is, the Word was; [6]

1:2 this very[7] Word was in beginning [in relation] to the Elohim.
1:3 Through it[8] all[9] came into existence[10] and without it[11] nothing was made that which has come into existence.

1:4-5 The Word – Life and Light

1:4 In this Word was Life, [5:26; 1Jn 1:1][12] and the Life[13] was the Light[14] to mankind. [15] [8: 12; 1Jn 1:5; cf. 3:19] {Psa 36:9} 1:5 And the Light shines in the darkness [of the world][16], [1Jn 2:8a; cf. Mt 5:14] and the darkness has not overpowered it. [17] [cf. Act 2:22]

https://app.box.net/s/x4lcxbf9lh

234

IN WORK

POLISH

Ewangelia według Jochanana: przekład literalny i dynamiczny

Grzegorz Kaszyński

literal translation:	dynamic translation:
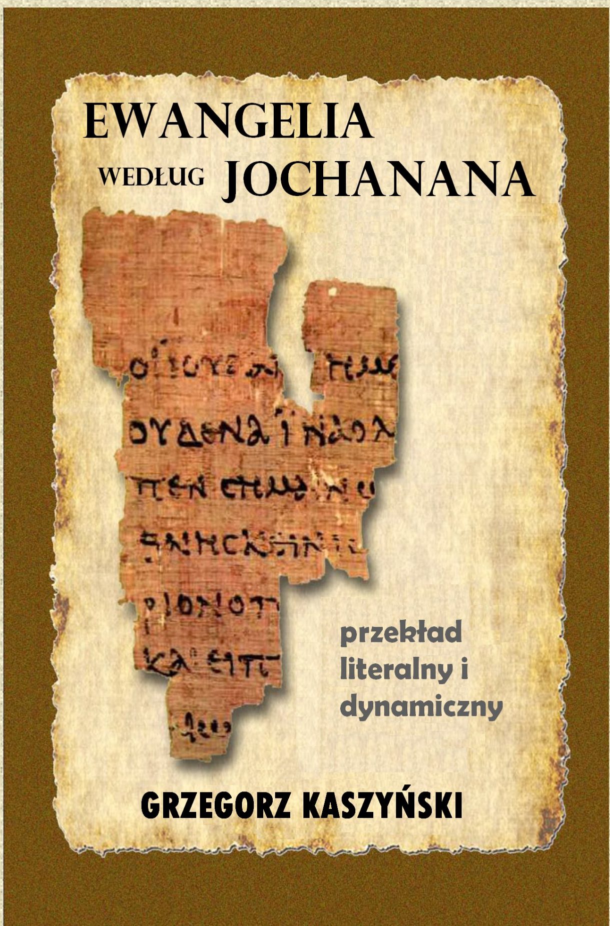
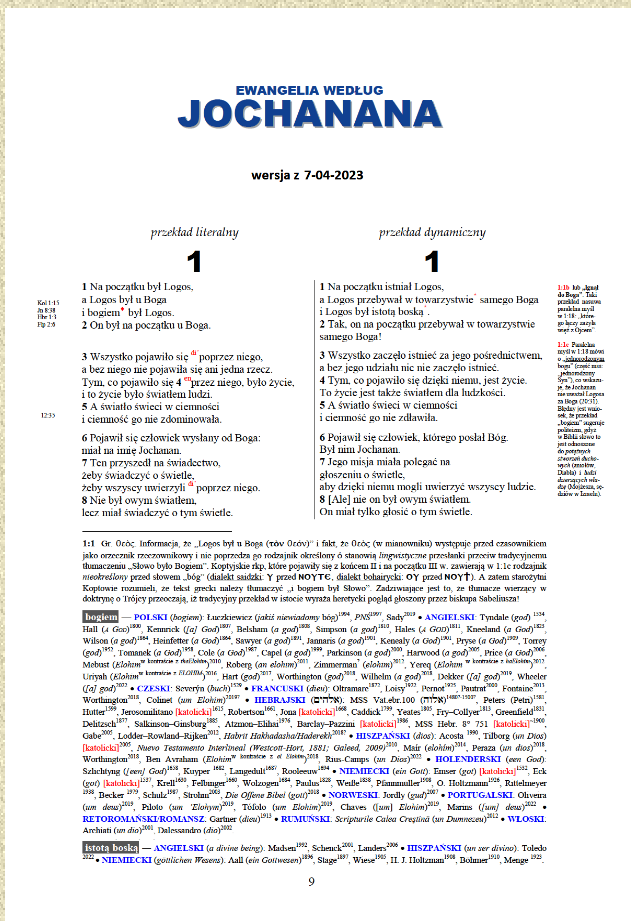
i bogiem był Logos	i Logos był istotą boską
and a god was the Logos	and the Logos was a divine being





EWANGELIA WEDŁUG

JOCHANANA

wersja z 7-04-2023

przekład literalny	przekład dynamiczny
1	1
1 Na początku był Logos, a Logos był u Boga i bogiem* był Logos. 2 On był na początku u Boga.	1 Na początku istniał Logos, a Logos przebywał w towarzystwie* samego Boga i Logos był istotą boską*. 2 Tak, on na początku przebywał w towarzystwie samego Boga!
3 Wszystko pojawiło się [di'] poprzez niego, a bez niego nie pojawiła się ani jedna rzecz. Tym, co pojawiło się 4 [en] przez niego, było życie, i to życie było światłem ludzi. 5 A światło świeci w ciemności i ciemność go nie zdominowała.	3 Wszystko zaczęło istnieć za jego pośrednictwem, a bez jego udziału nic nie zaczęło istnieć. 4 Tym, co pojawiło się dzięki niemu, jest życie. To życie jest także światłem dla ludzkości. 5 A światło świeci w ciemności i ciemność go nie zdławiła.
6 Pojawił się człowiek wysłany od Boga: miał na imię Jochanan. 7 Ten przyszedł na świadectwo, żeby świadczyć o świetle, żeby wszyscy uwierzyli [di'] poprzez niego. 8 Nie był owym światłem, lecz miał świadczyć o tym świetle.	6 Pojawił się człowiek, którego posłał Bóg. Był nim Jochanan. 7 Jego misja miała polegać na głoszeniu o świetle, aby dzięki niemu mogli uwierzyć wszyscy ludzie. 8 [Ale] nie on był owym światłem. On miał tylko głosić o tym świetle.

Kol 1:15
Jn 8:38
Hbr 1:3
Flp 2:6

12:35

1:1b lub „Ignął do Boga". Taki przekład nasuwa paralelna myśl w 1:18: „które-go łączy zażyła więź z Ojcem".

1:1c Paralelna myśl w 1:18 mówi o „jednorodzonym bogu" (część mss: „jednorodzony Syn"), co wskazuje, że Jochanan nie uważał Logosa za Boga (20:31). Błędny jest wniosek, że przekład „bogiem" sugeruje politeizm, gdyż w Biblii słowo to jest odnoszone do potężnych stworzeń duchowych (aniołów, Diabła) i ludzi dzierżących władzę (Mojżesza, sędziów w Izraelu).

1:1 Gr. θεὸς. Informacja, że „Logos był u Boga (τὸν θεόν)" i fakt, że θεὸς (w mianowniku) występuje przed czasownikiem jako orzecznik rzeczownikowy i nie poprzedza go rodzajnik określony ὁ stanowią lingwistyczne przesłanki przeciw tradycyjnemu tłumaczeniu „Słowo było Bogiem". Koptyjskie rkp, które pojawiły się z końcem II i na początku III w. zawierają w 1:1c rodzajnik nieokreślony przed słowem „bóg" (dialekt saidzki: ⲩ przed ⲚⲞⲨⲦⲈ, dialekt bohairycki: ⲞⲨ przed ⲚⲞⲨϮ). A zatem starożytni Koptowie rozumieli, że tekst grecki należy tłumaczyć „i bogiem był Słowo". Zadziwiające jest to, że tłumacze wierzący w doktrynę o Trójcy przeoczają, iż tradycyjny przekład w istocie wyraża heretycki pogląd głoszony przez biskupa Sabeliusza!

bogiem — POLSKI (bogiem): Łuczkiewicz (jakiś niewiadomy bóg)[1994], PNŚ[1997], Sady[2019] • ANGIELSKI: Tyndale (god)[1534], Hall (A GOD)[1800], Kennrick ([a] God)[1807], Belsham (a god)[1808], Simpson (a god)[1810], Hales (A GOD)[1811], Kneeland (a God)[1823], Wilson (a god)[1864], Heinfetter (a God)[1864], Sawyer (a god)[1891], Jannaris (a god)[1901], Kenealy (a God)[1901], Pryse (a God)[1909], Torrey (god)[1952], Tomanek (a God)[1958], Cole (a God)[1987], Capel (a god)[1999], Parkinson (a god)[2000], Harwood (a god)[2005], Price (a God)[2006], Mebust (Elohim [w kontraście z theElohim])[2010], Roberg (an elohim)[2011], Zimmerman[?] (elohim)[2012], Yereq (Elohim [w kontraście z haElohim])[2012], Uriyah (Elohim [w kontraście z ELOHIM])[2016], Hart (god)[2017], Worthington (god)[2018], Wilhelm (a god)[2018], Dekker ([a] god)[2019], Wheeler ([a] god)[2022] • CZESKI: Severýn (buch)[1529] • FRANCUSKI (dieu): Oltramare[1872], Loisy[1922], Pernot[1925], Pautrat[2000], Fontaine[2013], Worthington[2018], Colinet (um Elohim)[2019?] • HEBRAJSKI (אֱלֹהִים): MSS Vat.ebr.100 (אֱלוֹהַּ)[1480?-1500?], Peters (Petri)[1581], Hutter[1599], Jerosomilitano [katolicki][1615], Robertson[1661], Jona [katolicki][1668], Caddick[1799], Yeates[1805], Fry–Collyer[1813], Greenfield[1831], Delitzsch[1877], Salkinson–Ginsburg[1885], Atzmon–Elihai[1976], Barclay–Pazzini [katolicki][1986], MSS Hebr. 8° 751 [katolicki][~1900], Gabe[2005], Lodder–Rowland–Rijken[2012], Habrit Hakhadasha/Haderekh[2018?] • HISZPAŃSKI (dios): Acosta[1990], Tilborg (un Dios) [katolicki][2005], Nuevo Testamento Interlineal (Westcott-Hort, 1881; Galeed, 2009)[2010], Maír (elohím)[2014], Peraza (un dios)[2018], Worthington[2018], Ben Avraham (Elohim [w kontraście z el Elohim])[2018], Rius-Camps (un Dios)[2022] • HOLENDERSKI (een God): Szlichtyng ([een] God)[1658], Kuyper[1682], Langedult[1687], Rooleeuw[1694] • NIEMIECKI (ein Gott): Emser (got) [katolicki][1532], Eck (got) [katolicki][1537], Krell[1630], Felbinger[1660], Wolzogen[1684], Paulus[1828], Weiße[1838], Pfannmüller[1908], O. Holtzmann[1926], Rittelmeyer[1938], Becker[1979], Schulz[1987], Strohm[2003], Die Offene Bibel (gott)[2018] • NORWESKI: Jordly (gud)[2007] • PORTUGALSKI: Oliveira (um deus)[2019], Piloto (um 'Elohym)[2019], Tófolo (um Elohim)[2019], Chaves ([um] Elohim)[2019], Marins ([um] deus)[2022] • RETOROMAŃSKI/ROMANSZ: Gartner (dieu)[1913] • RUMUŃSKI: Scripturile Calea Creştină (un Dumnezeu)[2012] • WŁOSKI: Archiati (un dio)[2001], Dalessandro (dio)[2002].

istotą boską — ANGIELSKI (a divine being): Madsen[1992], Schenck[2001], Landers[2006] • HISZPAŃSKI (un ser divino): Toledo[2022] • NIEMIECKI (göttlichen Wesens): Aall (ein Gottwesen)[1896], Stage[1897], Wiese[1905], H. J. Holtzman[1908], Böhmer[1910], Menge[1923].

9